The Minutes of the Special meeting of December 15 are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Engagement of Expert. — The Director-General reports that the Engineer-in-Chief and Manager of the Waterworks Company has suggested to him that the expert to be engaged to assist in the proposed enquiry should be obtained from America on the ground that the source and purification of the Shanghai Water supply are very similar to those of American Cities situated on rivers like the Mississippi.

Whilst not opposing this proposal, a member points out that the chief problem which has to be faced by the Company is that of chemical filtration and that in recent years considerable advance has been made on this question by experts in England. The Director-General replies that officials of the Company take the view that there is no large city in Great Britain in which the conditions governing the supply of water are comparable to those obtaining in Shanghai and it is for this reason it has been suggested that the expert be obtained from America.

After brief discussion the proposal put forward by the Company is adopted.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of December 12 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of December 17 are submitted. Copies of education policy as embodied in these minutes are furnished to members, and prior to adoption thereof the Treasurer is requested, in collaboration with the Commissioner of Public Works, to prepare a report shewing the cost involved by the provision of the additional facilities advocated by the Board. Thereafter this matter will be referred to the Finance Committee.

Police Force—Japanese Branch.—A member refers to the unanimous recommendation recorded at the last meeting of the Watch Committee that the strength of the Japanese Branch should be increased by 50 next year. In order to permit the necessary provision being made in the 1931 estimates this recommendation is approved in advance of submission of the Committee's minutes.

Chinese Liaison Officer.—The Director-General reports that as a result of the announcement made by the Council a number of applications have been received for this position. The Chairman has suggested the appointment of a Sub-Committee consisting of one Chinese and one Japanese Councillor and himself who, in consultation with the Director-General, would consider applications and recommend an appointee for this position. This proposal is unanimously approved, the selection of members of the Sub-Committee being left to the Chairman. It is decided that the designation of this official also be referred to this Sub-Committee for its recommendation.

Royal Asiatic Society—Grant.—An application by this Society for a municipal grant towards the cost of erection of its new building is submitted.

In concurring with the view advanced by the Treasurer in his latest report on this application, members agree that a departure from the Council's existing policy which restricts assistance to grants towards working expenses is in this particular case justified.

It is accordingly decided as a special case and subject to a nominee of the Council being allowed to serve on the Committee, to contribute a total sum of Tls. 50,000 towards the cost of the new structure, Tls. 25,000 of which will be issued in 1931 and the balance in 1932.

Anti-Kidnapping Society—Grant.—An application from this Society that its annual grant be increased from Tls. 10,000 to Tls. 30,000 is submitted. Having regard to the large increase in the number of children sent by the Police to the Society's Home, members regard an increased grant as justified. It is accordingly decided to include provision in the 1931 budget for a grant of Tls. 20,000.

Chinese Newspaper—Application for subsidy.—An application by a Chinese ex-Government official for financial support towards the publication of a Chinese daily newspaper which would be pro-Council in policy is submitted.

After brief discussion, and in endorsing the view of the Director-General that the Council's right to subsidize any newspaper is doubtful, this application is disapproved.

Dates of Council Elections and Ratepayers' Meeting.—The Vice-

Chairman states that the Chairman has enquired as to the possibility of the Annual Meeting being held at a date more close to that fixed for the annual election of Councillors. In view of the magnitude of the work entailed in the preparation of the Annual-Report, Budget, etc. the view obtains that it is impracticable to advance to any extent the date of the Annual Meeting of Ratepayers.

Members however concur in the Chairman's view that it is desirable that a briefer period than hitherto should elapse between the dates of the annual election of Councillors and the Annual Meeting of Ratepayers. It is accordingly decided that in 1931 the elections be held on March 16 and 17 and that the Annual Meeting be convened for April 15.

Land Commissioner.—It is decided to invite Mr. H. Berents to continue to serve as the Council's nominee on the Land Commission for the forthcoming Municipal year.

Council's payment to Customs for Wharfage Dues Collection.—A letter from the Commissioner of Customs notifying the Council that in future the Customs Charge for collecting wharfage dues on behalf of the Municipality will be 5 per cent on the gross collection received by the Council is submitted. The Director-General briefly outlines the earlier negotiations relative to this matter. As no obligation rests with the Customs to undertake the collection of wharfage dues on the Council's behalf, and as direct collection thereof by the Council would be both expensive and cumbersome, he recommends approval of the proposal now put forward.

After brief discussion, and in concurring that the proposed charge is reasonable, this is approved.

Kidnappers Activities.—In alluding to the recent increased activities of kidnappers during the past few days, a member enquires whether any further measures can be devised to suppress these crimes. The Director-General states that he has recently had a number of conferences with the Commissioner of Police on this subject who assures him that all possible steps are being taken to cope with the situation. Whilst further suggestions to this end are welcome, it should not be overlooked that the Police are handicapped in their efforts by the unwillingness on the part of the Chinese to furnish information on these outrages in time to permit effective action to be taken. In his opinion, which is endorsed by the Commissioner of Police, the most effective deterrent to this form of crime would be punishment by the cat but this the National Government will not permit.

He will again confer with the Commissioner of Police and transmit to him the suggestion that all cars conveying more than two Chinese should be stopped and investigated by the Police.

Members unanimously concur in the Chairman's proposal that the Commissioner be informed that the Council will accord him its fullest support in the Department's efforts to combat this and other serious forms of crime.

The Municipal Gazette for Thursday, December 25, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication.

The meeting terminates at 6.10 p.m.

CASE No. 210.

Fokien Road Widening, Cadastral Lot 296, heard in the Council Chamber on Tuesday, December 16, 1930, commencing at 4 p.m.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. H. M. Cumine of Messrs. Cumine and Co., appears on behalf of the registered owners, Messrs. Gregson & Ward. The Council is represented by Mr. J. R. Jones, Deputy Secretary.

Mr. Cumine states his case as follows:

This is a claim for compensation for the surrender of an area of Mow 1.310 required by the Municipal Council for the widening of Fokien Road between the Soochow Creek and Peking Road. The lot affected, as you will see in the correspondence (reproduced in the "Municipal Gazette" of October 24, 1930) passed between the Council and my firm acting on behalf of the beneficial owners, is Cadastral Lot No. 296, Central District. This Lot is registered at the British Consulate as B.C. Lot No. 591, measuring according to its Title Deed Mow 1.581 in area. In submitting our clients' claim, you will see by our letter addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works on June 27 last, it was pointed out that 82 per cent of the entire area was required, leaving a small area of hardly any use to our clients. The plan before you will substantiate my contention. Our clients' claim is for compensation calculated at the rate of Taels Two Hundred Thousand (Tls. 200,000.00) per mow, and whether the Council buys the whole lot or the portion required at this price, makes no difference to our clients since the very small portion left, as I have just mentioned, cannot be of much use for building purposes, except to the adjoining owner who may wish to have a frontage to Fokien Road, but this, as you will see in the key plan, is not essential for the development of these Lots, although our clients reserve the right of retaining the surplus land which must not come under this case. Fokien Road, as could be ascertained from records, has been widened four times and the present schedule calls for the fifth occasion. In the four former surrenders our clients' lot had been affected three times, firstly on February 1, 1909, secondly April 30, 1910 and thirdly on September 23, 1915, surrendering during these respective periods a total area of Mow 0.387, while the Lot opposite, which is Cad. Lot No. 453, (B.C. Lot No. 546), was affected only once, surrendering an insignificant strip. By the present surrender our clients have to lose almost the whole of the remaining area and for this I submit that our clients are entitled to a full claim according to the market value of their land, because in surrendering they could not be in any way benefitted while the lot opposite is reaping the full benefit of the widening without any cost to them. The advantage of this widening is therefore in favour of the lot opposite and of the public who would have a wider thoroughfare for the very important traffic which is now congesting Fokien Road.

As to the importance of Fokien Road, one must not overlook the fact that the future of this thoroughfare is a great one. It will eventually be a main road traversing the International Settlement and French Concession, thus connecting the S.-N.R. North Station in Chapei and the Native City. It will have an immense traffic. The proximity of this Lot to Soochow Creek on this road is another factor for consideration. This locality is the unloading, receiving and distributing depôt for up-country products transported to Shanghai via Soochow Creek. It has its own characteristics and has an importance peculiar to that trade. This view is actually confirmed by the scheduled widening of this road.

The Council's counter-offer of Taels One Hundred Thousand (Tls. 100,000.00) per mow is, therefore, in my opinion as one who has had considerable experience in the development of properties in this City and its progress, ridiculously low. This counter-offer, which was considered by the Council as reasonable market value (vide the Secretary's letter dated August 12, 1930,) was made prior to the re-assessment, and we are not of the opinion that the Council will ask us to consider it too seriously on this account. Now, what is a market value? The price affected in the vicinity of the Lot, in my opinion cannot be considered a criterion, for it might be by forced sale, or the purchases might have been for special purposes. The market value of the property can easily be ascertained if the circumstances, conditions, requirements and imminent possibilities of the district are analyzed with a view to carrying out an up-to-date development scheme fulfilling the wants of the district concerned; or other developments appropriate to the district. Also, for the finding of the highest rentals what those residing and trading in that district would be prepared to pay for their accommodation. From this analysis the arrival at a fair and true market value is a simple process.

I must also draw your attention again to the fact that at the time when negotiations commenced and the counter-offer of Tls. 100,000.00 per mow was made, the assessed value of this Lot was at the rate of Taels Forty-Five Thousand per mow, whereas according to the new assessment it is now at Taels Eighty-Five Thousand per Mow. This has an important bearing on the rationality of the Council's counter-offer.

I do not need to be over-emphatic in impressing upon you these points, because I am aware of the fact that you, Gentlemen of the Land Commission, are all recognized experts on this subject and will no doubt agree with me that this is the only method by which the market value of a property can be ascertained with precision.

In the course of my negotiations with the Commisioner of Public Works I have supplied him with all the necessary information of the development of this property and in those figures it has been demonstrated that the land has a potential value yielding a gross annual return of about Dollars Thirty-Seven Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty ($37,250.00), at a cost of about Taels Fifty Thousand (Tls. 50,000.-00) 'nett for redevelopment.

(At this juncture Mr. Jones interpellates a query whether or not the alleged gross annual return is Dollars Thirty-seven Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty inasmuch as this item is given in the claimant's letter of July 14, 1930 as Taels Thirty-Seven Thousand Two Hundred. Mr. Cumine replies that the dollar amount, as stated by him, is correct and Mr. Jones thereupon directs Commissioners' attention to the point which, he asserts, is material).

Continuing his case Mr. Cumine says the gross return, say, at exchange 72, which is a very conservative rate for calculation, comes to Taels Twenty-Six Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty (Tls. 26,820.00), and allowing 20 per cent thereon for expenditure etc., which is generous, it gives a nett return of Taels Twenty-One Thousand Four Hundred and Forty-Six (Tls. 21,446 per annum, which capitalized at 6 per cent interest per annum, the rate for Central District investments and also prevailing rate here at present, as will be seen in recent Debenture Issues, you will find that the property after re-development will have a value of Taels Three Hundred and Fifty-Seven Thousand Six Hundred (Tls. 357,600.00), including buildings or Taels Three Hundred and Seven Thousand Six Hundred (Tls. 307,-600.00) for the land alone, which measures Mow 1.581, or Taels One Hundred and Ninety-Four Thousand Five Hundred (Tls. 194,-500.00) per mow. We have, however, to remember, that for compulsory surrenders, 10 per cent must be added thereto, thus making it Taels Two Hundred and Thirteen Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty (Tls. 213,950.00) per mow. It therefore can be considered that my clients, in claiming Taels Two Hundred Thousand (Tls. 200,000.00) per mow, are very reasonable indeed.

The estimated rental returns by which the value of the Lot is arrived at are very conservative for they have been based on the rents of those houses already built on the surplus lot ex the new Peking Road market which the Council resold to the original owner thereof. This Lot (Cad. Lot Nò. 299), is in closs proximity to our clients' Lot and of less favourable situation, having no frontage to Fokien Road. There is much activity in the way of redevelopments in the surroundings, almost at every corner of Fokien Road, for a much improved type of structure.

I have nothing more to add to my arguments except to ask you, before arriving at your decision, to bear in mind these three main points:—

1. That my clients, in parting with their property for the benefit of the public and the owner opposite, must be compensated in a sum that will commensurately meet the potentiality of the surrendered property lost to our clients thereby. This compensation cannot, as proven, be calculated at less than Taels Two Hundred Thousand (Tls. 200,000.00) per mow.

2. Since our clients are practically deprived of the entire Lot, by the disposal of their property in this manner, it is even more than compulsory surrender. It is nothing short of a purchase on the part of the public. The market value must, therefore, apply.

3. That the market prices marked on the various lots shown in the key plan prepared by the Commissioner of Public Works are nothing but superseded figures and useless in computing any present day values.

Concluding my remarks, I have to urge on behalf of our clients, in view of the present attitude of tenants, that in taking over of the land by the Council, our clients cannot be held responsible for the vacating and demolition of the existing buildings.

Mr. Jones, replying for the Council, recites for the convenience of the Commissioners the following pertinent facts: Registered Owners:—Messrs. Gregson & Ward; Area of Property—Mow 1.585; Area scheduled: — Mow 1.310; Owners' Claim:—Mow 1.585 at Tls. 200,000 per mow (buildings included) Tls. 317,000.00; Council's Offer:—Mow 1.310 at Tls. 100,000 per mow (vacant possession) Tls. 131,000; Assessed Value (1927):—Tls. 45,000 per mow; New Assessed Value:—Tls. 85,000 per mow. He emphasizes that the Council's offer was for vacant possession, as the buildings were not required.

Continuing Mr. Jones reminds the Commissioners that they are only concerned with the matter of compensation for the scheduled area. Although there was no question of betterment, it should be pointed out that the strip of land remaining after surrender of the required portion would acquire a high value through the creation for it of the frontage on a road varying from 60 to 80 feet wide; thus this strip would be much sought after in connection with any scheme of development of the property in the rear, and as it could bar access on to Fokien Road along a lengthy frontage, should command a price much above its inherent value.

Mr. Cumine remarks that this is a remote possibility but Mr. Jones disagrees pointing out (in connection with Mr. Cumine's previous statement that the locality was a centre for produce business) that the Peking Road market is being erected a very short distance away.

Continuing Mr. Jones reads Mr. Cumine's letter of June 27, 1930, as evidence that the last named had initiated the matter by approaching the Council for compensation and that the Council had not been pressing for surrender, and on the matter of vacant possession he (Mr. Jones) remarks that the Council only pays for a scheduled area when it is available for public use and not before. He does not altogether agree with the contention that compensation should be paid on the basis of potential value, as it must be remembered that the Council, in its work of developing and improving public works in the locality, had very largely contributed to the making of that value, and it therefore would be manifestly unfair to ask the Council to pay twice for the benefits to landowners which it had created. As examples of how the value of land in the vicinity has increased in value due to the Council's scheme of development, Mr. Jones gives the following table showing increases in assessed values.

	Tls.	Tls.
Cadastral Lot 298	42,000	95,000
" „ 299	38,000	90,000
" „ 331	50,000	95,000

In his submission, therefore, the Council's very material contribution to the potential value of the land should be taken into consideration by the Commissioners. A more equitable criterion in determining the amount of compensation to be awarded would be the value of the land at the time of surrender. The Council would be paying for the land now, and could not be logically required to give present possession of the money to the owner and at the same time be asked to pay him on the basis of potential value. The Council would be thus paying interest twice over.

With regard to the present value of the lot Mr. Jones, speaking subject to correction, says that it is now occupied by 25 Chinese houses and shops, which yield a gross return of $11,788 per annum. This would indicate the value of the land to be about Tls. 57,000 per mow including the buildings, and the Council's offer of Tls. 100,000 per mow therefore allowed a considerable margin for other pertinent factors.

It is true that suggested plans for new shops were drawn up by Mr. Cumine and forwarded for inspection to the Public Works Department. A suggested criterion of this kind, however, is irrelevant, since, as previously remarked, the Council ought not to be charged for future development as well as be required to pay over money now. Moreover the plans submitted were not such as could be approved; one for instance, did not provide sufficient air space. In the opinion of the Public Works Department, the cost would be double the amount given by Mr.

Cumine's estimates if buildings compatible with the value of the land were erected. In fine Mr. Cumine's plans did not constitute a sound economic proposition and his figure therefore created a false analogy. As a guide to market values in the locality, Mr. Jones cites the following transactions.

(a) Fokien Road, Cad. Lot 333 (slightly South of Cad. Lot 331 shown on key plan) was purchased in its entirety by the Telephone Company early in 1929 at Tls. 100,000 per Mow. This lot is considered to be more valuable than Cad Lot 296, being nearer Nanking Road and being an island site, i.e. with four frontages.

(b) In May 1930 the Council effected the surrender of a certain scheduled area from Cad. Lot 332, Fokien Road. The area surrendered was nearly 40 per cent. of the total and the compensation paid was Tls. 100,000 per Mow.

(c) In March 1929 the Council purchased the whole of Cad. Lots 298 and 299, Peking Road, for the site of a new market at the rate of Tls. 74,000 per Mow. It was not scheduled at the time but was urgently required. After development a portion of it was resold about three months later at the rate of Tls. 100,000 per mow.

(d) In April of this year the Council took a surrender from Cad. Lot 453-A, Peking Road, of the Scheduled road land, about 34 feet deep at the rate of Tls. 75,000 per mow.

(e) Cad. Lot 296-A immediately on the East is understood to have been sold in September 1929, at Tls. 68,300 per Mow. Road surrender from this lot arranged in November 1929 at Tls. 75,000 per Mow and the lot just reassessed at Tls. 80,000 per Mow (after betterment has accrued by widening of Soochow Road.)

Concluding Mr. Jones says that by his showing, Mr. Cumine's claim for compensation at the rate of Tls 200,000 per mow is very excessive.

Mr. Cumine rejoins that market prices in 1929 could not be taken as a criterion as the Commissioners would be aware of the enormous rise in values since that time. As regards any irregularities in his plans for a hypothetical building scheme, they were such as any competent architect could easily rectify without prejudice to the argument based on these plans. With regard to the cost of the scheme he had actually received tenders for the work at Tls. 50,000.

Mr. Brooke announces that the award will be communicated in due course.

AWARD.

Having particular regard to the enhanced value which will accrue to the owner, the Commissioners' award is that the Registered Owner be compensated in the sum of Taels 151,050 for the area of Mow 1.310 scheduled for surrender.

North Honan Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, August 8, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed by our clients to claim for compensation in respect of the area to be surrendered from Cadastral Lot 689, Northern District, North Honan Road, for road widening purposes according to your letter and plan you sent to us dated July 24, 1930. We are now claiming for the hatched area of Mow 0.068 only.

To arrive at the market value of the Northern portion of the lot, we have based our claim on the actual gross rentals at which the new shops on this part of the lot have been actually let at, less 20 per cent for expenses, and capitalizing the net rentals at 7 per cent making the value of the land to be Taels 87,742.00.—per mow.

Our figures are as follows:—

Gross Rental per month	$325.00
Net Rental per year (less 20 per cent for expenses) ..	Tls. 2,246.00
Capitalizing at 7 per cent.	Tls. 32,086.00
Deduct the cost of the new buildings	„ 5,500.00
Therefore value of the land is	Tls. 26,586.00

The net area of this portion of the lot after deducting the area of Mow 0.068 (shown hatched on your plan) is Mow 0.303 or Tls. 87,742.00 per mow.

Upon this basis our claim is as follows:—

Area of Mow 0.068 to be surrendered at Tls. 87,742.00 Per mow.	Tls. 5,966.00
Plus 10 per cent. for compulsory surrender.	„ 596.60
Total Amount of Claim	Tls. 6,562.60

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, August 27, 1930.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of August 8 addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works claiming compensation in the sum of Tls. 6,562.60 in respect of the area of Mow 0.068 required from Cadastral Lot 689 for the scheduled widening of North Honan Road.

In reply I have to inform you that the Council considers that the development of North Honan Road into a main trunk thoroughfare and the vastly increased earning capacity of lots fronting this road is chiefly due to the Council's policy of effecting road widenings and improvements whenever possible. The rentals at which the new premises on Cadastral Lot 689 have been let, as quoted in your letter, form evidence of this fact. The Council considers therefore that a free surrender should be made of the scheduled area.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Shanghai, October 15, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—We are in receipt of your letter dated August 27 last, and in reply we are instructed to inform you that your request that the land surrendered for road purposes should be a free surrender cannot be entertained.

As regards your remark that the widening of the North Honan Road has had the effect of developing it into a main trunk thoroughfare, we are to remind you that this road always was one of the main thoroughfares owing to its running direct North—South through the Central—Northern Districts from one boundary of the Settlement to the other and also through being one of the two roads leading directly to the North Railway Station.

Furthermore we are to point out that the width of the road in front of above lot before the widening was over 40 feet, which is more than sufficient for two-story Chinese shops such as have now been erected.

We are to request this case being referred to the Land Commission in the event of the Council adhering to its request for a free surrender.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, November 17, 1930.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 15 objecting to the free surrender of Mow 0.068 from Cadastral Lot 689 required for the scheduled widening of North Honan Road, and requesting that if the Council adheres to its claim the case be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that on reconsideration it has been decided to offer compensation for surrender of the scheduled area at the new assessed value of Tls. 35,000 per mow less betterment at Tls. 4,000 per mow on Mow 0.300 the approximate area of the remainder of the lot, making a total payment of Tls. 1,180.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Shanghai, December 9, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of November 17, we are instructed to refuse the offer of compensation contained therein for land surrendered from Cadastral Lot 689, Northern, for widening the North

Honan Road, and to request that the case be referred to the Land Commission.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

CASE No. 205.

Scheduled widening of Foochow and Fokien Roads, Cadastral Lot 425, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, December 4, commencing at 4 p.m.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. G. A. Johnson appears on behalf of the registered owners, Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss. The Council is represented by Mr. J. R. Jones, Deputy Secretary.

Mr. Johnson states his case as follows:

The area of this lot formerly was Mow 4.361 of which the Municipal Council has forced a surrender of Mow 0.865, or one-fifth, for purposes of widening the Foochow Road; it ranks in importance and in volume of traffic, both vehicular and pedestrian, second only to the Nanking Road owing to its shopping facilities, Chinese restaurants and places of entertainment. It is undoubtedly because of this large volume of foot and wheeled traffic that the Municipal Council decided to widen the Foochow Road, hence we must emphasize the fact that the widening is being carried out purely for the benefit of the general public and not for the benefit of property owners of lots adjoining the road, in fact widening the road means that the public will pass through the road quicker this being the object of the compulsory widening and this is a distinct disadvantage to shopkeepers on the road.

The lot has lately been rebuilt with modern constructed premises close on one half of the lot having been developed with 3-storey and 4-storey shops. These are all let at high rentals and these rentals have been verified as correct through the Municipal Revenue Department, therefore there is nothing hypothetical about the rental returns put down in our claim.

For the purpose of formulating our claim for compensation, we have taken the 4-storey shops, five of such shops having just been erected on a portion of the lot, as being a fair and reasonable method of developing the whole site in order to make a fair and reasonable claim for compensation. It must be mentioned that in working out our claim which is based on actual rentals no key-money has been taken into consideration; that heavy key-money is still demanded and obtained by Chinese owned and Chinese managed new properties is undoubtedly a fact. In proof of this it may not be out of place to cite a recently redeveloped property where the two floors only, ground and first floor, of 4-storey buildings on the Honan Road obtain a monthly rental of Taels 480.00 and in addition the key-money paid by the tenants was Taels 8,000.00 per shop; this is a position not nearly so good as the Foochow Road lot now under consideration. In the case just cited, this key-money is equal to another Taels 50.00 per month additional rental per shop for a period of over 13 years without taking into consideration the interest for that period on the Taels 8,000.00 paid cash down.

Our claim for compensation is set forth in detail in our letter to the Municipal Council dated April

1, 1930. As already stated, in making that claim we have taken the rentals now being obtained from the 4-storey shops on the site, and deducted 20 per cent for outgoings, which in our actual managements we have found covers the outgoings in modern reinforced concrete constructed Chinese premises. The net rentals have been capitalized at 7 per cent the cost of the new buildings has then been deducted, and thus the value of the area covered by the new premises is obtained. The value per mow thus works out at Tls. 195,650.00 per mow; the area surrendered to the Municipal Council is Mow 0.865, which at Tls. 195,650.00 per mow makes a total sum at Taels 169,237.00 which is the amount of our claim plus 10 per cent for compulsory surrender. In the Council's counter-offer to us, a claim for betterment is made; this of course is the usual plea made by the Council when making counter-offers to compensation claims, and in this case one imagines must have been put in through force of habit or "olo custom."

If the Foochow Road in front of this lot had not been widened by even one single inch, the lot could have been re-developed in accordance with the Building Bye-laws with buildings five storeys high; nearly half the lot has been re-developed with buildings only 3-storeys and 4-storeys high, and as these buildings are of re-inforced concrete and have a life at a very modest estimate of 50 years, it is difficult to find any betterment because of the road widening, and it would be highly absurd to argue that higher buildings could have been erected because it is evident that higher buildings were not required on the portion mentioned.

With regard to our claim to be compensated at the rate of Tls. 195,650.00 per mow, we may mention that the lot adjoining our lot, namely Cadastral Lot 428 was recently sold at the rate of Tls. 135,-000.00 per mow; this lot is not a corner lot, such as our lot is, it has exactly half the frontage to Foochow Road that our lot has and in addition there is the balance of an old lease at an absurd lease-rental per annum to complete before the purchasers can carry out any redevelopment whatever. This lease does not terminate for one year and eight months from now but in spite of this the lot has changed hands at a price of Taels 20,000.00 per mow higher than the new assessed value of 1930. The houses are very old.

The lot opposite, namely Cadastral Lot 422, has just been sold at the rate of Taels 145,000.00 per mow; the houses are very old and are to be demolished, so this price is for land only. This lot is not a corner lot and has but a few feet more than half the road frontage that our lot possesses; this price is Taels 35,000.000 per mow more than the new 1930 assessment.

Cadastral Lot 161, North-East corner of Kiukiang and Honan Roads was recently sold for Taels 1,100,000.00. Allowing Tls. 100,-000.00, which is liberal, for the old buildings, this price works out at over Tls. 180,000.00 per mow for the land alone, and this lot is not such a valuable lot as our lot at the corner of Foochow and Fokien Roads in view of the recent modern development of the Foochow Road. The price is Tls. 40,000.00 more than the new 1930 assessment.

Cadastral Lot 101 has just been sold for Taels 1,460,000.00 the buildings are insured for Taels 200,000.00, and although they are not worth this, if this sum is deducted from the amount of purchase money the price per mow for land only works out at Taels 153,000.00 per mow, which is Taels 53,000.00 per mow more than the 1930 new assessment.

There are two points we wish to make about the sale of these properties, all of which sales have been recent; firstly; not one of them is such a valuable property as our lot, and secondly; they were sold with very old premises on the land, and if re-developed on modern lines as our lot has been, the rental returns would be doubled or trebled and consequently after deducting the cost of new premises the values of the land would be very much higher.

We do not know but it may be that the Council's representative will bring up a case in which about a year ago we surrendered land to the Municipal Council at the rate of Taels 81,000.00 per mow; also in the Foochow Road. If this case is mentioned, we have to remark that it is a very poor comparison; In that case, namely:—Cadastral Lot 536, although it is a corner lot only 3/5th of the frontage was surrendered and that portion surrendered was not the corner portion of the lot, but what might be termed the inside portion of the frontage; furthermore, and this is a very vital point in connection with our acceptance of compensation at Taels 81,000.00 per mow, this lot is owned through a gift by the Parsee Community, and the Deed of Trust stipulates that on that portion of the lot from which the surrendered land was taken no buildings or structures whatsoever were to be erected except a Church for the Parsee Community and a burial place for those of the Parsee religion; therefore as that part of the lot could not be developed with shops or any other commercial purposes it will readily be understood that the part of the lot in question is not of the value of a lot untrammelled with any restrictions as regards re-development.

The question may be raised as to why we have not made a claim on the basis of the whole of the premises just erected instead of the basis we have adopted. The reasons are that, as already explained, we considered a 4-storey development over the whole (on the lines of the 4-storey buildings just erected over a portion) a fairer and more equitable basis on which to make a claim, and also for the reason that although the 3-storey, 4-storey buildings and ground, 1st and 2nd floors of the six-storey building are all leased at known rentals the upper three floors of the 6-storey building which is intended as a Hotel, is not yet leased; taking the actual rentals now being received and the rental which the owners expect from the upper three floors, or Hotel portion of the 6-storey building, and working on the same basis on which our claim has been made the land works out at Taels 265,000.00 per mow. Therefore it will readily be understood that our actual claim is made on a fair and reasonable basis, and that the claim we have made is just and moderate.

At the conclusion of his address Mr. Johnson puts before the Commissioners a plan showing the new premises on Cadastral Lot 425, maintaining that the rentals given had been verified by the Municipal Revenue Department.

Mr. Jones, replying for the Council, reads the following letter in refutation of Mr. Johnson's assertions regarding the restrictions in connection with Cadastral Lot 536.

Shanghai, November 22, 1929.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of the 16th inst., Re Cad. Lot 536, Central, we are informed that there are no restrictions mentioned in the Trust Deed regarding the nature of buildings that may be erected on the lot.

Yours faithfully.

(sd) LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

J. E. NEEDHAM, Esq.,
Deputy Commissioner of Public Works,
Shanghai Municipal Council.

Mr. Johnson explains that the letter was based on information received from one of the trustees which subsequent enquiries from the co-trustees revealed to be erroneous. Mr. Jones, however, replies that he could only accept the letter as it stood. Continuing Mr. Jones says that his general answer to the present claim was that it was misconceived.

There is at present no market or market value in land. In some cases special prices are paid for special lots, and are excluded from consideration as market value. Otherwise land transactions are highly speculative and prices even of contiguous lots are so uneven as to give no stable criterion of value. In days when land values are stable or referable to a market in the economic sense, such values may afford some guidance. In these days of rapidly fluctuating and highly speculative prices, compensation for land required for public purposes must be brought back and firmly fixed on the foundation laid down in the Land Regulations. Whatever the Commissioners' view may be of an ideal criterion, it is the plain duty of the Commission to award compensation on the basis of the law as it is. In essence that law is this: The Council does not buy land for public use, it has statutory power to acquire it subject to the payment of compensation. This compensation is to be assessed with reference to the increase or decrease in the value of the remainder of the land. It is compensation for a loss. It is essential therefore for the claimant to prove his loss. If he does not he is not entitled to any compensation.

The claimants in this case say in their letter of April 1, 1930, that they have taken the actual rents of the four-storey shops (excluding the six-storey buildings) deducted 20 per cent for expenses and capitalized that sum at 7 per cent and deducted the cost of the new buildings.

"Thereby," they say "we obtain the actual value per mow of the re-developed or remaining land; upon this basis we make our claim."

That claim is Tls. 195,650.00 per mow. Mr. Jones wishes the Commissioners particularly to note the basis of the claim.

Continuing Mr. Jones remarks that as this claim is founded on the re-developed or remaining land, the claimants do not even attempt to prove any loss. They definitely shew that they have not lost. They are not entitled to any compensation. It would be as illogical as it would be unjust, and a definite violation of law as laid down in the Land Regulations for the Commissioners to tell the community that claimants who have not sought to prove loss are entitled to any compensation. It would be absurd to go further and say that the community has to pay them on the basis and according to the measure of the increased rentals on the remaining land. No loss, no compensation; the land should be surrendered without payment.

Before re-development the lot was occupied with 36 shops and houses producing a gross annual return of $56,804.00 which would show the value of the property to be approximately Tls. 100,000.00 per mow including buildings which were probably very old.

Property which before development was in its entirety worth say Tls. 100,000.00 per mow with buildings is now according to the admission of the claimants, worth Tls. 195,650.00 per mow—and in respect of the remainder of the land after surrender of the portion scheduled, that is, an increase of nearly 100 per cent. and therefore instead of proving a loss the claimant had proved a profit. The increase would be still greater if the six storey buildings were brought into account. To a great extent the increased value of the remainder has been created by the improvements carried out by the Council over a period of years resulting in making Foochow Road a capacious thoroughfare capable of developing the house and shop property to the full extent as the centre of restaurant and theatre land.

The claimants have presented a claim based on the erection of 4-storey shops on entire frontage. On the greater portion of the road frontage, however, there have been erected 6-storey buildings to a height of 80 ft. which could not have been built had not the road been widened from 40 ft. The claimants having mistaken the issue and claiming on the basis of the improved value of the remainder of the land, have not thought fit to consider how much more valuable the frontage is now than it was before development. On the basis of 4-storey buildings they have themselves shown a very largely increased value: they have actually used at least half the frontage to develop a very much greater return even than their claim shows, which all proves that the expenditure of money by the Council has proved a very profitable investment for the owners.

Moreover, it should be here emphasized that with a road 70 ft. wide still greater potentialities are available for the future and whether or not the claimants have now, at the time of submitting a claim against the community, taken full advantage of the possibilities which they may take advantage of in the future, the community is entitled to have the benefit of it. Further, it is quite evident that the owners must have considered it a profitable undertaking to build 6-storey buildings, otherwise they would presumably not have done so.

The owners surrender 16½ ft. for Foochow Road and retain a depth of 80 ft: what can be done with the additional depth of 16½ ft. It is a question of whether much higher rents could have been obtained for deeper shops. The main point is that the Council has not only retained the frontage of these shops and houses but has given them a far better frontage than they ever had before. In effect, the Council has taken a strip from the back of the property to give them a very valuable new frontage.

As long as there is no loss the Commissioners are not concerned with enquiring the value of land in the neighbourhood nor is there, in fact, any actual market value which could afford any guidance.

However, as affording some measure of comparison, Mr. Jones cites the following cases.

(a) In February 1930 Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss agreed to surrender Mow 0.689 from Cad. Lot 536 at approximately Tls. 81,000.00 per mow. This Lot is some 250 yards to the West and was assessed in 1927 at Tls. 63,000,00 per mow as compared with the Lot under discussion, assessed at Tls. 80,000,00. At that rate the present Lot should be surrendered at approximately Tls. 106,000.00.

(b) In July 1928 Messrs. Lester Johnson & Morriss surrendered mow 1.639 from Cad. Lot 429 at the rate of 1/10th above the assessed at Tls. 10,000.00 higher than the Cad. Lot 425 now under discussion. According to this rate the present Lot should be surrendered for a sum approximating the present assessed value of Tls. 106,000.00.

(c) In December 1928 Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss agreed to surrender Mow 0.859 from Cad. Lot 674 at Tls. 58,000.00 per mow, the assessed value plus 10 per cent.

(d) In October 1928 the Council, without any compulsory powers, purchased the whole of Cad. Lot 538, Foochow Road, including buildings in good condition at approximately Tls. 75,000 per mow.

Finally Mr. Jones mentions that recent assessment has appraised Cadastral Lot 425 at Tls. 120,000.

Mr. Johnson says that he can dispose of Mr. Jones' main argument by asserting that if the scheduled land was not to be taken away, his company could have put up four storey buildings over the whole lot, and without asking any higher rentals (although offering premises 16 ft. deeper) and thereby increasing the rates could have increased the value of the land about Tls. 188,-000.00 per mow. Moreover he contends that the expenditure of money on the widening of Foochow Road was forced on the Council because of its congested state and that the improvements were not being done in the special interests of shopkeepers. To this Mr. Jones rejoins that Mr. Johnson's Company had already taken advantage of the proposed widening of the road to put up six storey buildings over more than half of the lot, and maintains that the greater width of road would benefit shopkeepers inasmuch as it would afford more space for the public to circulate in and wider pavements for prospective customers to loiter along.

Mr. Brooke announces that the award will be given in due course.

Police Report for November.

The following table shows the number of crimes that came to the knowledge of the Police during the month of November:—

Nature of offence	Reported during the month.	Reported during previous month.	Progressive total for year
Murder	1	0	35
Attempted Murder	0	1	20
Manslaughter	4	1	23
Armed Kidnapping	3	3	32
Abduction	8	5	51
Armed Robberies	41	54	616
Other ,,	16	12	134
Being Member of a Criminal gang	12	9	97
Housebreaking, Office, Shop, etc.	56	51	465
Burglary	59	59	703
Thefts	649	704	7,327
Receiving stolen property	27	15	148
Snatching ,,	93	75	1,037
Opium Offences	96	97	1,116
Gambling Offences	40	31	172
Other Crimes	226	220	2300
Total	1,331	1,337	14,276

The figures show little variation in the volume of crime. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division (Central and Louza) 366 as against 419 in October.

B Division (Sinza, Bubbling Well, Gordon Road, Pootoo Road) 302 as against 318 in October.

C Division (Hongkew, West Hongkew, Dixwell Road) 357 as against 333 in October.

D Division (Harbin Road, Wayside, Yangtszepoo) 306 as against 267 in October.

1,104 persons were arrested for crime committed during the month as against 1,104 in October. 85 persons in addition were arrested for crime committed in previous months and 37 persons were arrested on behalf of outside authorities.

One case of murder was reported, the victim dying as a result of a fight with friends over a small debt. As a result of the post-mortem examination, the crime will probably be reduced to one of a less serious nature. Four cases of manslaughter were recorded. One was a true case, death having followed as a result of a quarrel and a fight over a small debt. In the other three cases post-mortem examination showed death to have been due to natural causes and the cases were not proceeded with. There were three cases of armed kidnapping. In one case armed kidnappers entered a metal shop in Chekiang Road and kidnapped the son of the proprietor their intention having been to kidnap the proprietor who, however, was absent in Yunnan. In the second case a youth of 20 years of age was kidnapped outside his home in Boone Road and taken away in his own motor car by three men. There is reasonable doubt about the truth of the case. In the third case armed robbers, failing to obtain sufficient property in robbing a house in Pingliang Road, took away a child of the house. A child was handed over to the occupant of a house in East Yuhang Road by a man who pretended to do so for safe-keeping. The occupant informed the police and the child was found to be the missing child. There were eight cases of simple abduction against five in October. Cases of armed robbery increased from 54 in October to 41 in November. The cases were distributed as follows:—

Division A. 10 cases as against 4 in October.

Division B. 13 cases as against 26 in October.

Division C. 4 cases as against 8 in October.

Division D. 14 cases as against 16 in October.

The decrease in B Division which is liable to be affected by this form of crime in winter and the low figure for C Division are gratifying. The increase in A Division is explained by an abnormally low figure for October. Lodging houses in Louza District were the main objective of armed robbers during the month and special steps are being taken to deal with the outbreak. In one case in

Harbin Road District in D Division an alarm was given while the robbery was in progress; the police responded and in the fight that took place two robbers were shot dead and four robbers were arrested, D.S.I. Bennett and C.P.C. 2427 and two pedestrians being wounded in the fight. There were 16 cases of other robberies against 12 in October; none of the cases were of a serious nature and several of the reports were found on investigation to be false. Twelve criminal gangs were dealt with as such as against nine in October. Nine of these gangs, involving 97 accused, were arrested in C Division for being concerned in cases of kidnapping, armed robbery, snatching and theft. The number of burglaries was 59 as against 59 in October. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division	16	cases as against 9 in October
B Division	11	cases as against 28 in October
C Division	12	cases as against 7 in October
D Division	20	cases as against 15 in October

The number of housebreakings was 56 as against 51 in October. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division	15	as against 13 in October
B Division	15	as against 11 in October
C Division	9	as against 11 in October
D Division	17	as against 16 in October

The cases of simple theft were distributed as follows:—

A Division	176	as against 270 in October
B Division	171	as against 150 in October
C Division	168	as against 163 in October
D Division	134	as against 121 in October

A further marked decrease in the number of pocket picking cases and in the number of cycle thefts is reported by A Division. Cases of snatching increased from 75 in October to 93 in November. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division	49	as against 36 in October
B Division	5	as against 18 in October
C Division	27	as against 15 in October
D Division	12	as against 6 in October

The Districts mainly affected were Louza (36 cases); Central (13 cases); Hongkew (16 cases); West Hongkew (10 cases); 72 persons were arrested in connection with these cases. There was little variation in the number of opium and gambling cases and other crimes registered.

Notable work in A Division included the arrest and conviction of a gang of cycle thieves who had stolen 30 cycles in the last few months. Notable work in C Division included the arrest of nine criminal gangs comprising 97 persons, 33 of whom were arrested by the Headquarters special detective squad. These persons were concerned in numerous cases of armed robbery, kidnapping, housebreaking, theft and snatching. Several pistols were recovered.

The following cases which are included in the month's figures occurred in B Division outside Settlement Limits on or in houses abutting on Council Roads:—

Armed highway robbery	1
Theft	14

The Headquarters special detective squad conducted special enquiries in 30 important cases of murder, armed robbery, armed kidnapping and fraud and arrested 41 persons. During the month the Crime Branch staff visited 299 Boarding Houses and 53 Restaurants, Bars and Cabarets. Twelve Boarding Houses were found unlicenced and dealt with.

Property valued at $263,369 was alleged to have been stolen in cases reported during the month as against property valued at $236,720 in October. Again 50 per cent of the property stolen was in embezzlement and fraud cases. The total value is made up as follows:—

A Division	$108,979
B Division	56,088
C Division	74,294
D Division	24,008

Property valued at $56.004 was recovered during the month. Finger Print Bureau.—During the month of November 1930 the total number of records received by the Bureau from all sources was 1,627. This shows a decrease of 79 compared with last month and a decrease of 304 from the corresponding month of last year.

1,136 Gaol cards were received during the month for verification of prisoners' thumb prints.

15 bodies of unknown Chinese who had met their deaths under various circumstances were photographed and finger printed at the Public Mortuary with the object of establishing their identity. Successful results were obtained in three cases.

Political. Anti-Government Propaganda.—No anti-Government activity other than that of Communistic origin came to notice during the month under review. On November 28 the Municipal Police arrested on a warrant issued at the instance of the Public Safety Bureau at No. 563-A Tien Foh Li, Range Road, a Chinese who was wanted for counter-revolutionary activities in Chinese controlled territory, and who was still on remand, at the end of the month. Of two Chinese who were arrested during October for disseminating anti-Government matter, one was sentenced to six months' and the other to three months' imprisonment. During the month about 80 kinds of circulars, etc. came into the possession of the Municipal Police. The majority of these refer to December 11, the anniversary of the Canton Uprising in 1927, and urge labourers and students to declare a strike and stage a grand demonstration on Nanking Road on that day.

Local Communists made two feeble attempts at demonstrating on November 7 in connection with the observance of the 13th anniversary of the Soviet Revolution.

During November the Municipal Police arrested seven persons for disseminating communistic propaganda matter and/or chalking slogans of a similar nature. Of these two were released owing to lack of evidence and the rest were under remand at the end of the month. Of eleven persons arested for communistic activities during October eight were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment and three are still on remand. During the month the French Police carried out six raids which resulted in the seizure of a quantity of communistic literature and the arrest of thirteen persons of whom twelve were handed over to the Chinese authorities and one released owing to lack of evidence. The Chinese authorities apprehended during November seven persons for being engaged in communistic activities in territories under their control.

As a result of an application by the proprietor, the Tsiu Yang Book Store, 176 South Chengtu Road, which was sealed by order of the Shanghai Special District Court on June 7, 1930, for selling books of a pro-communistic nature was permitted to reopen on November 4. The reactionary books seized were, however, ordered to be confiscated.

Labour.—During the month there were twelve strikes of which five occurred in the Settlement.

Strike statistics for the month are as follows:—

Area	No. of strikes.	No. of hands employed.	No. of working days lost.
Settlement	5	2,265	13,040
Chinese controlled territory	7	2,204	10,340
Total	12	4,469	23,380
Total for the corresponding month of 1929	5	6,200	35,050

Owing to trade depression and lack of cocoons all local silk filatures, numbering 106 and employing 40,000 operatives, suspended operation on November 1. Forty-three of these resumed between November 12 and 30.

Intimidators arrested and Court proceedings.—A Chinese who was arrested on a warrant on November 1 for intimidating the workers of the Heng Fung Cotton Mill was sentenced to three months' imprisonment. Of four Chinese workers who were arrested during October on a similar charge, two were sentenced to one year's imprisonment and the other two to six months.

Price of Rice.—The average price of rice for the month of November 1930, was as follows:—

Chinese Rice:
Best quality	$15.36
Good quality	14.41
Ordinary quality	13.53
Saigon Rice:
Best quality	12.87
Good quality	12.07
Ordinary quality	11.36

Cinema Film Censorship.—Of forty-three films censored during the month, two were rejected as being unfit for public exhibition locally.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 531 (39 Foreigners and 492 Chinese) of 2,563 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Accidents.—The following is a comparative table of accidents coming under police notice during the months of November 1930 and November 1929:—

	November 1930.	November 1929.
Total number of accidents	974	891
Total number of persons injured	322	340
Total number of persons killed	15	15

Eyesight Tests.—Besides the usual eyesight tests of all applicants for driving licences, 126 chauffeurs were re-tested during the month and found to be fit.

Motor Horn Nuisance.—76 reports were received during the month and of this number 26 were charged and convicted. Two chauffeurs also had their driving licences suspended for a second offence.

Identification Office.—During the month 970 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 278 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. In addition to the above 179 records were received from the French Police out of which number 74 were identified in the records of this office, making the total for the month :—

Greyhound Racing.

The two Greyhound Racing Clubs have been informed of the Council's decision to suppress dog racing in the Settlement after March 31.

The purport of the appended letter to the Greyhound Racing Club (Luna Park) was also conveyed to the Shanghai Greyhound Club (Stadium):—

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 8, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—On May 22, 1929, the Council addressed a letter to your Secretary and General Manager informing him in effect that unless racing at Luna Park is limited to one night in each week the Council will take whatever steps might be necessary to suppress dog racing and stating its reasons for taking such action.

On June 6, 1929, your Secretary and General Manager in a lengthy reply made the following statement, "my Committee assume that some assurance will be forthcoming that the new arrangement will be of a permanent nature."

The Council in its reply dated June 10, 1929, not only declined to give this assurance but among other things directed your attention to the desirability in your own interest of conducting your activities in such a manner as would obviate any necessity for the intervention of the Council for the welfare of the public.

Instead of heeding this note of warning and in fact in complete disregard of it you doubled the number of races formerly run at each meeting; gradually abolished the practice of charging admission fees for entrance to Luna Park; adopted the practice of issuing large numbers of complimentary or free admission tickets and indulged in a very extensive advertising campaign with the deliberate intention and design of fostering and expanding a medium for Chinese gambling in the Settlement despite the fact that your directors had been informed by the Council and the local British Authorities that in view of the opposition of the Chinese to the introduction of this form of gambling into Shanghai, the political aspect of the question to say nothing of other objectionable features had become a matter of grave concern. Recent developments have intensified the gravity of the situation and the Council has definitely decided that in the public interest it has no alternative but to take immediate steps to put an end to dog racing in the Settlement in which decision it has the full concurrence and support of the local British Consular Authorities.

You are therefore informed that the operation of dog racing tracks in the Settlement will not be permitted after March 31, 1931.

In order to mitigate insofar as it consistently can any undue hardship the Council is prepared to take over the lease of the Luna Park property and to give consideration to any cases of individual hardship on the part of your employees.

Very truly yours,
STIRLING FESSENDEN,
Director General.

THE GREYHOUND RACING CLUB,
SHANGHAI.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, January 7, 1931, at 5 p.m. there are present:—
Brig-General E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, O. Okamoto, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, The Director-General, and The Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman subject to an amendment of the item Engagement of Expert. The proposal of the Waterworks Company to engage an expert from America was not definitely approved at that meeting but was referred to the Public Utilities Committee for further consideration. With regard to Education Policy, the Chairman states that the Treasurer is now engaged in investigating the extension scheme submitted by the Education Board. In the matter of Chinese Liaison Officer a member has suggested to the Chairman the appointment of two Chinese members to the Sub-Committee which is to consider applications for this office instead of one as first proposed. Members having already expressed their approval, the question of nominations is left for later discussion by the Chinese members of Council. On the subject of Royal Asiatic Society—Grant.—The Chairman reads an interim reply from the Building Sub-Committee of the Society expressing its appreciation of the Council's generous support.

Greyhound Racing.—The recommendations of the Watch Committee on this subject were discussed and members agreed that in view of the present situation and the Council's previously expressed desire to close the greyhound racing establishments definite action should now be taken. The Director-General was accordingly requested to write and despatch the necessary letters announcing the Council's decision to terminate greyhound racing on March 31 next.

Commandant of Volunteers.—The Chairman reads a telegram from the London Agents submitting the War Office nomination of Lieut.-Colonel Thoms of the New Zealand Staff Corps as an officer eminently suitable for the position of Commandant of the Volunteer Corps. He also reads a private cable conveying Major-General Bartholomew's endorsement thereof. It is agreed that the nomination should be accepted, and that a telegram should be dispatched enquiring when Lieut-Colonel Thoms would arrive in Shanghai.

The Municipal Gazette for Friday, January 9, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication, except Notifications 4045 and 4046 which are ordered to be held over. These Notifications relate to the appointment of Chinese cadets in the Health Department and the Fire Brigade, and it is directed that they should be sent to the respective Committees for approval prior to publication.

The meeting adjourns at 6.25 p.m.

Duty at Places of Amusement amounted to 13,191 hours.

The only fire of note was:—

November 4, at 7.58 a.m. Messrs. Whiteaway, Laidlaw & Co. Nanking Road. (Brigade Call).

This proved to be one of the most serious outbreaks the Brigade has had to deal with for some time; for more than an hour it threatened to involve a very extensive part of the Central District. Sixteen machines and the two Fire Floats were in attendance, and it was nearly two hours before the fire was got under control.

The call was received from Central Police Station, followed almost immediately by a report from the watchtower. When the first machines arrived, dense smoke and flames were sweeping along the upper floors and roof of the building.

Great difficulty was experienced by the Department owing to the building being encased in bamboo scaffolding and fencing erected to protect traffic and pedestrians using the footpath and roadway from falling debris during building operations. In addition, a huge matshed on bamboo poles had been erected over the roof as a protection against adverse weather.

The fire is believed to have started through the overboiling of tar used in the process of repairing the roof, and this, with the matshed protection only a few feet above, naturally assisted the fire to assume large proportions in a very short space of time.

Assistance calls were promptly made for larger capacity Pumps, additional Turntables and Escapes, and the two Fire Floats also responded, the latter pumping from the Whangpoo River, opposite Nanking Road, with lines running westwards. Jets were directed from the Turntable Ladders over the bamboo fencing on to the roof, whilst other ladders and escapes were used for cutting openings in the fencing to enable lines to be worked into the floors immediately beneath the fire. In all these operations the work of the firemen was impeded in no small degree through the bamboo rendering it extremely difficult to direct jets and avoid splitting them up.

After about two hours' work, the combined Divisions succeeded in getting the fire completely under control and as early as possible salvage operations were commenced on the merchandise on the lower floors, a large quantity of sawdust and all available waterproof sheets being used.

The damage on the two top floors was severe, the fourth floor was slightly affected, the upper floor and roof of a godown at the rear of the main building suffered severely, and the water damage, in spite of extensive salvage work, was considerable.

One fireman was slightly injured.

I might add that the Council has recently effected a surrender from Cadastral Lot 1190 immediately to the East of your property on the same terms as are now offered to yourselves.

CASE No. 207.

Scheduled widening of Honan Road Cadastral Lot 177. Heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, November 20, commencing at 4 p.m.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. A. M. Preston, of Messrs. Ellis and Hays, and Mr. L. C. Yang of Messrs Yen & Co., appear on behalf of the beneficiary owner, the registered owner being The Shanghai Land Investment Company. The Council is represented by Mr. J. R. Jones, Deputy Secretary.

Because of his interest in the case as Manager of the claimant Company, Mr. N. L. Sparke, one of the Commissioners, has asked to be excused from sitting, and by mutual consent of the parties concerned, the case is heard by the other two Commissioners, Messrs. Brooke and Berents.

Mr. Preston commences by reading the following correspondence:

DEAR SPARKE,—I have received your letter of the 23rd May offering to surrender the area of 0.052 Mow at the rate of Tls. 130,000.00 per mow or the sum of Tls. 6,760.

The road is at present 22'0" to 24'7" wide, but will eventually be 60 feet wide. Most of this increased road width is scheduled from the opposite side of the road and B.C. Lot 143 is only required to surrender approximately 8 feet.

The approved plans show the proposed building to have a height of over 80 feet on the Honan Road frontage and having regard to the pronounced benefit the lot will receive by the widening of the road, I submit that the area of 0.052 Mow should, in equity, be surrendered without compensation.

Would you let me have your views on the matter?

Yours sincerely,
C. HARPUR.

N. L. SPARKE, Esq.,

Shanghai, July 14, 1930.

Honan Road Widening

DEAR SIR,—With reference to our letter of May 23rd regarding the above informing you that we were requested by the beneficiary owners to claim compensation at the rate of Tls. 130,000.00 per mow, will you kindly let us have your comments on this matter.

We are, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
THE SHANGHAI LAND INVESTMENT CO., LTD.

The Commissioner of Public Works, Municipal Council.

Shanghai, July 15, 1930.

DEAR SPARKE,—Reference your letter of the 14th July.

I attach a copy of an unofficial letter I sent to you on the 27th May, suggesting that the area of 0.052 mow should in equity be surrendered without compensation.

Have you been able to prevail upon the beneficial owners to accept this point of view?

Yours sincerely,
C. HARPUR.

N. L. SPARKE, Esq.,

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, August 6, 1930.

SIR,—I forward herewith a plan which has been prepared for the information of the Land Commissioners showing the portion of B. C. Lot 143, Cadastral Lot 177, which is scheduled for acquisition in connection with the widening of Honan Road.

I shall be obliged if you will return this plan duly signed by or on behalf of the registered owners. It should be understood that the signature would indicate only the accuracy of the details shown thereon.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

The Manager,
Shanghai Land Investment Co., Ltd.

August 6, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—Replying to your letter dated July 23, we are informed by the beneficiary owner of Cad. Lot 177 that he will be pleased for the question of compensation for the area required for the widening of Honan Road to be referred to the Land Commission.

We are, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
THE SHANGHAI LAND INVESTMENT CO., LTD.

Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council,
Shanghai.

Also, two letters which appeared in the Municipal Gazette of August 15, 1930, namely one letter dated May 23, 1930, addressed by the Manager of the Shanghai Land Investment Co., to the Commissioner of Public Works and the Council's reply thereto of July 23, 1930.

Continuing Mr. Preston says that the lot under discussion was a small one so that the surrender of a strip 8' deep would make a considerable difference to its potentialities. On the other hand a contribution of this width was not very material in the widening of a road from 22' and 24' to 60'. The total capital expenditure for the land and new buildings was Tls. 220,000, the total estimated rental per month was Tls. 1,760 gross against which an expenditure of Tls. 400 per month would have to be deducted for taxes, water, light, heat and other operating expenses, yielding a nett income of Tls. 1,360, or 7.4 per cent. per annum. The price paid in November, 1929, for the land and old buildings was Tls. 105,000, the gross rentals then received as shown by the leases was Tls. 770 per month and the expenditure Tls. 47 per month, thus yielding a nett income of Tls. 723, or 8.26 per cent. per annum. A point he wishes to emphasize is that his client actually paid Tls. 160,000 per mow for the property including the buildings, but was only asking for compensation at the rate of Tls. 130,000 per mow.

The old building was partly a two-storied and partly a three-storied structure, and the new building had a frontage on Honan Road slightly over 80' in height, but on the Siking Road frontage the height was only between 35' and 40'. No advantage therefore could be taken and had been taken of the proposed widening of Siking Road to raise the height of the building on that frontage. Another argument he wishes to advance in favour of compensation being paid is that the Council awarded Messrs. Lester Johnson & Morriss a sum of Tls. 100,000 for the surrender of an area of Mow 1.337 required from Cadastral Lot 178, adjacent to his client's property. This was reported in the Municipal Gazette of January 17, 1930. Further the widening of the Honan Road had been scheduled since 1919, that is, for many years and at the present time it is still a very narrow roadway. Therefore there is no benefit at present and most likely there will be none for many years to come.

Replying for the Council, Mr. Jones says that the registered owner of the property is the Shanghai Land Investment Company and that the present claimant is the Chinese beneficial owner who bought the property the previous November after it had been scheduled for a considerable period. The area of the whole property was Mow 0.696 and of the scheduled portion Mow 0.052. The 1927 assessment was Tls. 82,000 and the recent assessment, Tls. 105,000. He reminds the Commissioners that under the Land Regulations the question of compensation is to be determined having regard to betterment or worsement to the remaining portion of the land after surrender of the scheduled area; and it is obvious in this case that there will be a betterment which indeed had been anticipated by the claimant in his new building scheme.

The present width of the road is from 22 to 24 ft. but proposed widening will increase it to 60 feet. Most of this increment would come from the property on the opposite side to that of the lot under discussion so that the present claimant will get the benefits of a 60 feet roadway by the surrender of a strip merely 8 feet in width. The height of his new building is 83 feet which would have been impossible if the road widening had not been projected. A widened road is essential for the service of a seven storied building such as had been built. He calls Mr. Lewis to show by plans that although the claimant might have erected a freak seven storied building by stepping back from the old roadway such a pyramid sloped building would be impracticable and uneconomical with the land at his disposal. Continuing, Mr. Jones remarks that it had been estimated the new building had 3500 square feet more floor space than would have been possible with a building erected on the road before widening. This was a distinct gain obtained through the widening. Having regard to this acquisition and the increase in value as shown by the nett income derived from the property before and after the widening the Council is entitled to the surrender of the land without any further compensation.

Regarding Mr. Preston's citation of the compensation paid for the area surrendered from Cadastral Lot 178, Mr. Jones makes the following comparisons:

(1) In that case the area surrendered was 1/6 of the whole; in the present case the area surrendered is 1/13th. of the whole.

(2) In that case land was taken from three frontages making a narrow lot still narrower; in the present case, from one frontage and one end.

(3) In that case the land required for road widening was surrendered equally from both sides of the road. In the present case the claimant is only surrendering a strip 8' wide; while his vis-a-vis is yielding from 24' to 26'.

(4) Finally in that case the Council deducted 1/3rd for betterment.

In any case, continues Mr. Jones, whatever compensation the Council might elect to pay for scheduled land in certain special circumstances must not be taken by the Land Commission as a criterion.

Mr. Preston remarks that the total area of Cad. Lot 178 was 8 mow and apparently the widening of the road on three frontages would benefit the traffic on three sides to the great advantage of the owner.

He also remarks that his client in the present case could have 'held up' the Council by not developing his property and that accordingly he should not now be penalized for proceeding with the development. To this Mr. Jones rejoins that the Council has compulsory powers to effect surrender.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be communicated in due course.

AWARD

That the owner be required to surrender the scheduled area of Mow 0.052 without compensation in view of the benefit which will accrue to him from the proposed widening of Honan Road.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, January 13, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell Chairman, T. Funatsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, K. H. Ling, L. T. Yuan, The Commissioner of Public Works, and The Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

The Minutes of the joint meeting of the Health and Works Committees of November 18 are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Road Widening and Extension Plans—1931.—In a report submitted the Commissioner of Public Works outlines the various alterations made in 1930 and the proposals for 1931 which are shewn upon the new plans. He illustrates on the plans submitted the more important improvements which are included in the current year's plans and the proposals contained in his report are approved.

It is noted that certain of the new road improvements shewn have been included in the plans with the object of providing roads of an adequate width to connect with those contemplated by the Greater Shanghai Municipal Authorities.

In connection with the official road plans, the Commissioner of Public Works states that at a later meeting he will submit a plan and his proposals for the widening of the Garden Bridge with a view to providing additional space for ricsha traffic thereby freeing the existing main carriageway for the sole use of fast moving traffic.

Horse Bazaar Stud Contract.—In connection with the recent amalgamation of the Shanghai Horse Bazaar Co. Ltd., and the Auto Palace Garage, the Commissioner of Public Works states he understands that the former Company may give up its premises in Bubbling Well and Gordon Roads. The Company at present supplies the Council with 72 draught animals. He does not favour disposing of this system of transport on account of certain work upon which it can be economically employed The Council owns a number of stables at the Lay and Wuchow Road Depots but from an economic standpoint he regards it as desirable that accommodation should be provided nearer to the Central and Western districts where this form of transport is used to a considerable extent. He will therefore submit definite proposals as to this in due course. Should the Council decide to build its own stables, he considers it would be advisable for purchases of new animals to be undertaken by competent veterinarians, such as Messrs. Keylock & Pratt.

Members note that under the terms of the contract with the Horse Bazaar Company one year's notice has to at given to the Council of termination of the existing arrangement. Recommendation on this question is accordingly deferred until concrete proposals are submitted by the Commissioner.

Public Parks.—In view of the early closure of the Stadium, a member suggests that the Council might consider the desirability of acquiring this area for purposes of general sports and recreation. It is noted that the major portion of this area is situated beyond Settlement limits and upon the Commissioner of Public Works stating that he is preparing a memorandum on the general question of the provision of public parks consideration thereof is deferred.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Public Health Report for December.

Vital Statistics.—The Foreign death rate amounted to 14.52 and the Chinese to 14.7 per thousand. Deaths amongst the resident Foreigners totalled 49 of which number 69 per cent were Asiatics other than Chinese: viz., 5 Indians and 29 Japanese. Chinese deaths numbered 1242.

There is nothing of particular note in the above death rate.

Communicable Diseases.—Smallpox: 3 Foreign cases were notified, one of which was a Japanese with no vaccination history. No deaths occurred however. A further death was notified of a non-resident Foreigner who had never been vaccinated. Only 12 cases were notified among the Chinese population though this figure is considered somewhat low and not a true index of the incidence since 9 deaths occurred.

On the whole however, the year has proved one of slight Smallpox incidence, with the result that free vaccinations are diminishing.

The other Communicable Diseases recorded are Scarlet Fever, Tuberculosis, Typhoid and the Enteric group, but no abnormal incidence is noted. Cases of Cerebrospinal Fever and Malaria are noted but the numbers notified at present are not particularly significant.

Laboratory.—The Laboratory continues to be fully occupied in the manufacture of preventive vaccines and routine diagnosis. Matters of interest from amongst the examinations performed include an examination proving the presence of Anthrax in an animal and the presence of Tubercle bacilli in certain samples of milk. The necessary steps have followed the latter observation.

Hospitals.—Rather more cases of Scarlet Fever than usual were admitted to the Isolation Hospital and a case of Rabies was admitted into the Chinese Isolation Hospital.

The segregation block recently opened in the Foreign Isolation Hospital is proving its value in regard to minor diseases and those cases which require observation.

Whilst admissions to the Gaol Hospital remained somewhat high, it is interesting to note that the Reformatory shows almost a clean bill of health.

Food, Dairies, and Markets Division.—As a result of Laboratory Examinations certain cows were removed from Dairies as being tubercular. Rinderpest has broken out in certain Dairies with the result that 40 animals have been disposed of. This is particularly unfortunate at the present time when the replacing of stock is so difficult owing to the low exchange and other factors.

Markets.—A lightning strike in the Sungpan Road Market as a protest against Hawkers operating in the immediate neighbourhood, was the most important feature of the month. This however was satisfactorily settled and normal business resumed.

The upper storey of the Pingliang Road Market was occupied during the latter part of the month, but it is not yet possible to say how popular this floor will prove.

Sanitation Division.—A considerable diminution in the demand for free vaccination is noted this year owing to the comparative absence of Smallpox. The other work was of a routine nature and presents few points of interest. During the month Anopheline Mosquito larvae were noted in certain ponds, though they did not seem to develop into the pupal stage. Steps are being taken to eradicate these larvae.

The transference of mosquito fish from ponds in the Eastern Districts which are being filled during building operations, continues. 11,200 Gambusia were transferred to the Western district during the year, and 4,100 Local Minnows were placed in certain borrow pits beyond the Shanghai/Hangchow Railway, which are impossible to treat. It is unfortunate that this has to continue during the winter months as the transference of hibernating fish to a new locality might lead to a somewhat high death rate. It is hoped however, that some of them may survive in their new environment.

Here follows Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Disease Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Anti-Kidnapping Measures.

A comprehensive scheme for more effective police protection against armed kidnapping in the Settlement has been submitted to the Council by the Commissioner of Police and, having received approval, will be put into operation as soon as possible.

Summarized, the proposals of the Commisioner of Police embrace the introduction of a street telephone system, wireless communication between headquarters and police patrol vans, acquisition of additional patrol vans and motor cycle combinations, the institution of special plain clothes parties, and the possible provision of accommodation for a detachment of the Reserve Unit in the Western District.

The initial cost of adoption of the police proposals is approximately Tls. 118,000 and the recurring annual charge Tls. 56,000.

The street Telephone system has been under consideration for some time and the Shanghai Telephone Company has now submitted a scheme which meets with the approval of the Police Department. This system can be placed into operation nine months after the order is placed with the Telephone Company. It will enable officers in charge of Police Stations to keep in touch with patrolmen and with their stations when they themselves are out on patrol. It will ensure the immediate transmission of important information to Police Stations and Police Headquarters and also enable Police Stations to convey important information to patrolmen immediately, as well as permitting patrolmen to place members of the public in immediate touch with Police Stations.

Wireless communication between Police Headquarters and patrol vans will be effected by means of a Radio Telephony system. Receivers will be installed in district patrol vans which can thus be directed immediately from Headquarters. The introduction of this system will enable all or any number of cars to be rushed to the scene of armed crimes and will prove an invaluable aid to police work.

The patrol vans, fitted with wireless receivers, will normally cruise in the district areas and their crews will carry out searches and check motor cars. Motor cycle patrols will be used on narrow streets and in alleyways while vans and cycles will be used by permanent search parties holding strategic points on the roads leading out of the Western District where the greater number of armed crimes occur. The minimum amount of transport required under the scheme of the Commissioner of Police is twelve raiding vans and sixteen motor cycle combinations.

If suitable accommodation can be found, it is proposed to maintain an additional Reserve Unit in the Western District to supply the permanent search parties at strategic points on the roads leading out of the Settlement. In this connection, it may be necessary to proceed with the enlistment of part of the strength of the Armed Reserve, the formation of which has already been approved in principle by the Council.

It is considered that the scheme, when put into effect, will go a long way towards enabling the police to master the armed crime situation.

It is also hoped that it will give the Chinese public a greater sense of security and more confidence in the ability of the Police to answer promptly and effectively calls for assistance and that there will be consequently a more ready response to the appeals of the Police for assistance and co-operation.

Greyhound Racing.

THE following letters have been received by the Council from the Greyhound Racing Club (Luna Park) and the Shanghai Greyhound Club (Stadium) in reply to the Council's letters of January 8, informing the Clubs that the operation of dog racing tracks in the Settlement will not be permitted after March 31, 1931:—

Shanghai, January 14, 1931.

SIR,—I have for acknowledgment your letter of the 8th instant addressed to the Greyhound Racing Club, and I am directed by my Committee to reply as follows:

It is unnecessary here to recapitulate all that has transpired since the project of operating a greyhound racing track in Shanghai was first mooted, as this is clearly set out in the correspondence which has already passed.

Whilst it is true that the Council in its letter of June 10, 1929, declined to give an assurance that the new arrangement whereby racing at Luna Park was to be limited to one night per week would be of a permanent nature, it was not at that time contemplated that the Council would arbitrarily attempt to put a complete stop to what is a perfectly legitimate business enterprise carried on by a duly registered British Company. Greyhound racing is being conducted at Luna Park in a manner which in a number of cases recently decided at home has been held to be legal, and neither my Committee nor the Directors of the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd., can admit the Council's right to prevent the Company continuing to conduct dog racing. Your letter under reply is the first official intimation which has been given by the Council to the Greyhound Racing Club or the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd., of a definite decision to take steps to put an end to dog racing in the Settlement, and that it has taken its present uncompromising form comes as a surprise.

As is clearly shown by the correspondence which has been published, it has always been the desire of the Committee of the Greyhound Racing Club and the Directors of the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd., to fall in as far as possible with the Council's ideas and wishes in connection with Greyhound Racing and they cannot help but take exception to the terms of the Council's letter under reply. A number of the statements made in the fourth paragraph are inaccurate and misleading. In the first place, it is not correct that the number of races run at each meeting was doubled after racing was reduced to one night per week in accordance with the Council's request; at the date of the Council's letter of May 22, 1929, eleven races were run at each meeting whereas never more than fifteen races have been run at any one meeting since the reduction. The charge for admission of non-members to Luna Park has not been abolished. The issuance of complimentary tickets was practically forced on the Club by the action of a similar concern not operating within the Settlement. It is untrue to assert that the advertising done by the Club is done with the deliberate intention and design of fostering and expanding a medium for Chinese gambling. Every Club or Company operating a place of entertainment naturally advertises extensively and to suggest that in this case it was done simply to encourage gambling is most unfair. The Council communicated no views on the above mentioned matters to the Club or the Association. Had it done so, they would have received the most careful consideration.

The representatives of the Greyhound Racing Association were given to understand that should the Council decide that the continuance of greyhound racing in the Settlement was undesirable, the co-operation of the Association would be sought and, if possible, such a modus operandi arrived at as would work the least possible hardship on the shareholders and others concerned. At an interview with H.B.M. Consul General and the Director General of the Shanghai Municipal Council, which was reported in the "Shanghai Evening Post & Mercury" of the 3rd of November last, it appears that both Mr. Brenan and Mr. Fessenden stressed the point that neither the British authorities nor the Council had any desire to work a hardship upon the greyhound courses, and that when the action of the authorities had been determined, the Companies would be given a reasonable length of time in which to wind up their businesses. This statement, so far as my Committee is aware, has never been contradicted. In officially notifying the Association that no greyhound racing will be permitted after March 31 next, the Council is not following out the course outlined, for it can hardly be contended the period allowed, viz., less than three months, is a reasonable length of time for the Association to wind up its affairs.

The shareholders, who invested their money, did so in a concern which had been duly registered as a British Company and to which permission to operate had been officially accorded by the Council before its commencement. In fact, in the early stages every encouragement was extended to them by the Council, whose present arbitrary action is threatening them with the loss of a very large portion of their capital.

It has been contended that greyhound racing is an incentive to crime, though the statistics available would seem to disprove this contention. If it is true, the incentive will still be available so long as any greyhound track exists outside Settlement limits, nor is it likely that any resultant crime if any, will be confined to the area in which any such track happens to be situated.

This contention does not, therefore, appear to my Committee to be a very genuine one, and your letter under reply would, in fact, appear to admit that the Council's motive in wishing to abolish greyhound racing in the Settlement is, in the main, a political one. If this is acknowledged, my Committee have every desire to assist the Council in any action which the latter may consider desirable from a political point of view, in the interests of the Community as a whole. But they have to protect the interests of their shareholders, and it is felt that a grave injustice would be done to the latter, were the loss involved through the action taken, for the benefit of the whole Community, to fall on a small proportion only. Without prejudice to the strictly legal position, my Committee and the Directors of the Association feel that if greyhound racing is to be stopped, a far greater measure of consideration should be shown to the interests of the shareholders, and a far larger measure of compensation granted.

While my Committee appreciate the Council's offer to take over the lease of the Luna Park property and to give consideration to cases of individual hardship on the part of the Association's employees, they feel that this is entirely inadequate, and would point out that the buildings and equipment erected on the Luna Park, Thorburn Road and Haiphong Road properties represent a capital expenditure of $641,023.78.

The Directors of the Greyhound Racing Association are most anxious to meet the Council's views and not to place obstacles in their way, if this can be done on a basis which is fair to members of the Association, but they feel it their bounden duty to take every possible step for the protection of their shareholders. As has already been unofficially suggested, arbitration would seem to be the fairest method of arriving at the amount of compensation which the Association should receive if Luna Park is to close, and if the Council will agree to this course. I am authorized to say that the Directors of the Greyhound Racing Association are prepared to recommend the shareholders to abide by the award of two arbitrators, one to be chosen by each party, and an umpire to be chosen by the arbitrators. As already stated, there is nothing illegal in greyhound racing as conducted at Luna Park and whilst for political or other reasons the Council may have some justification for objecting to greyhound racing in the Settlement, it is going a very long way in demanding that the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd., should cease its activities without adequate compensation being granted or a sufficient period of grace allowed to enable the affairs of the Association to be wound up without loss.

I am also directed to request that all correspondence which has passed be published in the next issue of the Municipal Gazette.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) W. R. McBAIN.
Chairman, Executive Committee,
Greyhound Racing Club,

Chairman, Board of Directors,
Greyhound Racing Association
(China) Ltd.

S. FESSENDEN, Esq.,
DIRECTOR GENERAL,
Municipal Council.

Shanghai, January 19, 1931.

Sir,—I have for acknowledgment your letter of the 8th instant addressed to the Shanghai Greyhound Club, and I am directed by my Committee to deal firstly with the paragraphs seriatim.

1. Paragraph 1.—In your letter of May 22nd, 1929, you stated, that unless the Shanghai Greyhound Club were prepared to limit their activities to one night in each week the Council would withdraw all police services and protection, and, if necessary, prevent access to dog racing establishments by municipal roads.

To this letter I replied, in effect, under instructions from my Committee, on June 15, 1929, that they were profoundly astonished at the tone of your letter and that they considered that the threatened action on the part of the Council was arbitrary, unjust and illegal. They further reserved to themselves such rights against the Council by way of damages or compensation or otherwise as they might be advised that they had.

2. Paragraph 2.—My Committee are not concerned with the opinion of the Council as to any intimation contained in the terms in which your letter of May 22, 1929, was couched. The letter speaks for itself, and they consider that it is transparently clear that it only deals with the number of meetings a week.

Further my Committee have never had any other intention than that of conducting their activities in such a manner as would obviate any necessity for the intervention of the Council for the welfare of the public.

3. Paragraph 3.—

(a) You state "Instead of heeding this note of warning and in fact in complete disregard of it you doubled the number of races formerly run at each meeting." There was no note of warning except as regards racing more than once a week and there was no disregard of this. Moreover the number of races was not doubled. Misleading and inaccurate statements of this nature arouse grave misgivings as to the accuracy of other statements of fact which cannot be so easily disproved.

(b) With regard to the alleged abolition of charging admission fees, the issue of complimentary or free admission tickets and the indulgence in a very extensive advertising campaign, etc., my Committee do not admit the accuracy of these statements and, if and in so far as the above facts are accurate, they were or should have been well known to the Council or their officials before August, 1929. No complaint or suggestion with regard to them, however, has ever been made by the Council to my Committee, and, in fact, on August 15, 1929, and again as late as July 3, 1930, special permission was granted by the Council to hold substitute meetings, which would appear to indicate that at that time there was no objection on the part of the Council to the manner in which greyhound racing was being conducted by the Shanghai Greyhound Club.

(c) The statement "Despite the fact that your Directors had been informed by the Council and the local British Authorities that in view of the opposition of the Chinese to the introduction of this form of gambling into Shanghai, the political aspect of the question to say nothing of other objectionable features had become a matter of grave concern," is inaccurate. Neither my Committee nor the Directors of Shanghai International Greyhounds, Ltd., as far as they are aware, have ever been informed by the Council or the local British Authorities that the political aspect of the question to say nothing of other objectionable features had become a matter of grave concern. In view of your explicit statement of fact they consider that they are entitled to know when and how they or the Directors of Shanghai International Greyhounds, Ltd., are alleged to have been informed by the Council and/or by the local British Authorities to the above effect. They also request you to inform them what opposition of what Chinese and what political aspect is referred to, and also what are the other objectionable features which had become a matter of grave concern.

(d) You state next "Recent developments have intensified the gravity of the situation" Again, my Committee are at a loss to understand this statement. What are the recent developments? What is the gravity of the situation?

(e) You proceed "And the Council has definitely decided that in the public interest it has no alternative but to take immediate steps to put an end to dog racing in the Settlement, in which decision it has the full concurrence and support of the local British Consular Authorities." If this is so, it appears remarkable to my Committee that up to the present they have received no notification to this effect from the local British Consular Authorities. My Committee were under the distinct impression that the latter in the past had impliedly or expressly admitted that there was no objection to greyhound racing on their part, and there was certainly none on the part of the Council, as they inter-alia actually constructed a new road for the purpose of assisting the Stadium authorities.

5. Paragraph 5.—My Committee request elucidation of the following ambiguous phrases "in so far as it consistently can" and "any undue hardship."

Having dealt with your letter in detail I am directed by my Committee to communicate to you some of their views on the general aspect of the contemplated action on the part of the Council. As the various statements of fact contained in the letter of the 14th instant from Mr. McBain to you, relative to the attitude of The Greyhound Racing Club and The Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd. are apparently uncontroverted, they consider it unnecessary to recapitulate them.

At the outset my Committee instruct me to state that in their opinion the threatened action of the Council, if persisted in, will be an act of illegal and despotic expropriation.

My Committee and the Directors of Shanghai International Greyhounds, Ltd., are as anxious as anyone else or any other body to study the interests of the International Settlement and if they were satisfied that there was some genuine and justifiable objection they would be the first to fall in with the views of the ratepayers, who are the only people really concerned, and would voluntarily discontinue greyhound racing, on condition that they received full compensation for the loss occasioned to all concerned thereby.

On September 6, 1928, there appeared in the Press a report of an interview with a member of the Council, the gist of which was that the Council were powerless to put a stop to greyhound racing, as it was not contrary either to the Land Regulations or Bye-laws of the Settlement. My Committee, therefore, desire to be informed upon what basis the Council now seek to justify their alleged right to do this on March 31, 1931.

If the Council had adopted the strongly expressed recommendation of Major Gerrard that all gambling commercialized or otherwise should be suppressed, there would have been at any rate some ground for the assumption that they were not merely invidiously discriminating against one particular form of clean, healthy and legitimate recreation.

My Committee's considered views are that not only is greyhound racing not harmful, but that it is a pleasant and innocent form of entertainment, which does at least as much to promote social intercourse between Chinese and Foreigners as any other form of sport or public amusement, and that from the moral point of view it is incapable of differentiation from pony racing. Moreover, they feel confident that, if it is discontinued, the same amount of gambling will be carried on, but under clandestine and dishonest conditions.

In this connection it is perhaps not inapposite to observe that there are at least six greyhound courses in London, and that as regards one form of gambling only in England, i.e., turf transactions, in one year alone, it is stated that no less than £147,000,000, i.e. approximately $3,250,000,000 change hands.

With regard to the singular and arbitrary date selected, i.e., March 31, 1931, without any prior consultation with my Committee, it is less than three months from the first intimation of any sort by the Council of their intention to stop greyhound racing and my Committee consider that this fact is another illustration of the unreasable and unfair attitude of the Council towards those connected with this form of recreation.

The selection of this date in their opinion, is either due to a callous disregard of the hardships inflicted on all concerned or is prompted by the desire to prevent the ratepayers from considering the matter, and, in the event of deciding upon discontinuance, granting full compensation to all affected by their decision.

March 31, 1931, happens, they understand, to come before the date for the next ratepayers meeting. As far as my Committee are aware there was no reference to the suppression of greyhound racing by any of the present Councillors in any of their public utterances prior to election; and whatever passing references to greyhound racing there may have been in the Chairman's speeches at the various ratepayers' meetings since greyhound racing commenced in Shanghai no proposal to curtail it or stop it has ever been introduced at a ratepayers' meeting.

As the ratepayers are, or should be the controlling force in this Settlement, and as the Councillors and the Council staff are, or should be, their servants, my Committee desire that the whole question of stopping greyhound racing be left to the next ratepayers' meeting, and, in their opinion, the Council, after consultation with my Committee, should at such meeting propose a properly considered and equitable scheme with provision for full compensation to all those affected, if greyhound racing is to be discontinued in the Settlement.

I am directed to request that all correspondence which has passed be published in the next issue of the Municipal Gazette.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
C. F. EVANS,
Secretary.

Contribution to Building Fund.— In terms of the appended correspondence, the Council has authorized a contribution of Tls. 50,000 to the Building Fund of the Royal Asiatic Society:—

Shanghai, December 8, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—Referring to our letter dated March 14, 1930 and your reply of May 19, 1930, on behalf of the Society we wish to appeal once again to the Council for a donation towards the Building Fund of the Royal Asiatic Society.

Our reason for approaching you again is that since we corresponded we have called upon a large number of firms and individuals in Shanghai and find there is a widespread feeling that the Council should contribute to the fund. Quite a number of firms excused themselves from contributing stating that they consider the Council should provide the bulk of the money as they have not provided a Museum, Scientific Library or Hall for meetings for the use of Shanghai Ratepayers.

We would particularly call your attention to the large section of the public of all nationalities which one or other of the Society's activities serve both directly here and indirectly abroad.

We have a large number of members abroad and also exchange our Journal for the publications of 72 other cultural Societies of different nationalities in various parts of the world.

We again stress the facts that:—

The Society is an International one, the President this year is Dr. Hawks Pott, D.D., an American citizen; Chinese, American, French and British are serving on the Council of the Society and all nationalities are eligible as members. The Museum and Library are open to the public, about 11,000 Chinese visit the former annually and about 7,000 the latter; with a modern building these numbers are likely to greatly increase.

As a large number of Ratepayers are in favour of the Council contributing generously to the fund, we now suggest that a contribution of Tls. 50,000 should be made and trust that the Council will reconsider their previous decision and grant this sum.

A list of the contents of the Museum is attached hereto.

We are, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
G. L. WILSON,
ELLIS HAYIM,
Building Sub-Committee.

S. M. EDWARDS, Esq.,
Secretary,
Municipal Council.

DEAR SIR,—Your letter of December 29, addressed to Messrs. G. L. Wilson and Ellis Hayim, Building Sub-Committee of the Royal Asiatic Society, was read at the meeting of the Councillors of the North China Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society on Thursday, January 14.

"On the motion of the Rev. E. Morgan, Mr. I. Mason seconding, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Shanghai Municipal Council for their generous donation to the Building Fund and the Meeting thereupon requested and authorized Dr. Pott, the President, to write and thank the Municipal Council and to accept their kind offer according to the terms of their letter."

I take great pleasure, in accordance with this resolution, in expressing to the Municipal Council through you our appreciation of the action it has taken in regard to assisting the Royal Asiatic Society to continue its useful work to the community.

This contribution will make it possible for us to proceed immediately with the erection of the building which is so much needed. With larger facilities which we will obtain in this way, I am sure the Royal Asiatic Society will endeavour to be of even greater service to the general community. Successful results were obtained in two cases. During the month the Crime Branch Studio took 297 photographs and printed 1303 copies.

Political. Kuomintang Observances. —The Kuomintang and allied organizations observed by meetings held in Chinese controlled territory the 15th Anniversary of the Kuomintang Insurrection and attack on Kiangnan Arsenal by Gunboat "Chow Woo" (December 5) and the 15th anniversary of the Yunnan Uprising started by the late General Tsai Oo in 1915 against Yuan Shih-kai when the latter proclaimed himself Emperor of China (December 25).

Anti-Government Propaganda.—Members of the Shanghai Branch of the Chinese Youth Party, a secret society opposing both the Kuomintang and the Communist Party, surreptitiously distributed circulars in the Settlement on December 1 and 2 in commemoration of the 7th Anniversary of the establishment of their society. A Chinese, who was arrested on November 28 on a warrant issued at the instance of the Public Safety Bureau, at No. 563A Tien Foh Li, Range Road, for counter-revolutionary activities, was ordered to be handed over to the Chinese authorities on December 2.

Communism.—During the month 125 kinds of leaflets and book-lets were seized by the Municipal Police. As in the previous month, most of these refer to December 11, the anniversary of the Canton Uprising in 1927, and advocated the staging of a huge demonstration on Nanking Road on that day and armed support to the "Red Armies" in Central China by overthrowing the Kuomintang and the Imperialists with the ultimate goal of establishing a Soviet Government in China.

Despite the extensive dissemination of literature calling for a monster demonstration, the activities of local communists were confined to three feeble attempts to demonstrate in Louza and Central Districts. These attempts were easily and promptly scotched by the police. Of nine participants arrested, one was sentenced to 15 days imprisonment and two were each fined $5.00, while the remaining six were still under remand at the end of the month.

During the month the Municipal Police raided eight suspected communistic bases, seized large quantities of communistic literature and arrested 26 persons. Of the prisoners, seven were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment, six were handed over to the Chinese Authorities, nine were acquitted and four are still on remand. Of four persons apprehended for individual distribution of propaganda matter one was sentenced to 6 months imprisonment while the case against the other three is still pending. Two persons were arrested on warrants issued at the instance of the Chinese Authorities charging them with being active communists. Of these two prisoners one was extradited while the other was still in custody at the end of the month pending an appeal by the Municipal Police against the Court's decision that he be handed over to the Chinese Authorities. Two Chinese who were arrested on November 19 on Dixwell Road for chalking communistic slogans on electric poles, appeared for judgment at the Court on December 17 when one was sentenced to one year's imprisonment and the other acquitted. The appeal of Woo Yu, alias Woo Soochung, a reporter of the "China Times" who was on August 1 arrested on a warrant issued at the instance of the Public Safety Bureau and subsequently ordered to be handed over to the Chinese, came before the Second Branch, Kiangsu High Court on December 11, when the Court decided against him and confirmed the order for his extradition.

Anti-Christian Movement. — In furtherance of the Anti-Christian movement meetings were held by the Chinese students of the Tung Wen College, 101 Hungjao Road, and the 4th Section of the 5th District Kuomintang on December 24 and 29 respectively. Several speakers denounced the Chinese Christian converts and advocated that the teaching of the Three People's Principles should replace the propagation of Christian religion.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Staff Committee held on Thursday, January 22, 1931 at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Chairman, J. W. Carney, N. Leslie, O. S. Lieu, the Director-General, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Public Health, the Commandant S.V.C., the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretaries. Mr. A. C. Clear attends.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Locomotion — Proposed Garage System.—Relative to the recommendation put forward by the Salaries Commission regarding locomotion allowances and the institution of a Municipal Garage system, which the Committee has approved in principle subject to further detailed consideration, Mr. Clear submits a comprehensive memorandum embodying proposals to give this scheme effect.

It is noted that adoption of the proposals put forward will involve increased monthly expenditure of approximately Tls. 470 as compared with the arrangements now in force.

After considerable discussion, the Committee's summarized recommendation is recorded as follows:—

That, in the interests of economy, the provision of municipal garages be deferred for the time being; that the existing system under which locomotion allowances are issued by the Council in approved cases be retained, subject to rigid control thereover being exercised by the Heads of Departments concerned; that all existing allowances be reviewed; and, as heretofore, no further extension thereof be permitted without reference to the Committee; that municipal cars continue to be utilized by the staff for transport to and from the office upon approved terms of payment; that locomotion allowances in certain cases be withdrawn, and that the existing practice of maintaining private cars at the Public Works Department's workshop be abolished.

Chinese Staff—Proposed Superannuation Fund.—As requested by the Committee, the Treasurer submits a report embodying his tentative proposals for the institution of a Chinese Staff Superannuation Fund. The gross cost of the scheme, involving 1,544 eligible employees, is estimated at Tls. 100,000 per annum, but against this may be offset the reduced liability for the 5 per cent accumulations under the Provident Scheme, the effect of which, although difficult to compute, may be taken at Tls. 40,000 per annum. The net annual cost would therefore approximate Tls. 60,000.

After hearing the Treasurer, members unanimously recommend that existing Chinese qualified employees be given the option of participating therein and that the scheme be compulsorily applied in respect of future employees.

The meeting terminates at 6.30 p.m.

At the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee held on Friday, January 23, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, O. Okamoto, C. C. Woo, T. D. Woo, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Extra-Commissioner of Police, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretary (Mr. J. R. Jones).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Shanghai Waterworks Company, Ltd.—Investigation.—In accordance with the Council's decision to appoint an expert from abroad to assist the Committee in investigating the administration of the Waterworks Company, consideration is given to this appointment.

A member states that the Chinese Ratepayers Association and other representative organizations desire to nominate an additional Chinese member to the Commission, it being regarded desirable that an independent member should serve thereon in addition to the two members both of whom serve on the Committee, one being a member of Council. In his view adoption of this proposal will indicate the Council's willingness to co-operate with the organizations concerned and enable them to be kept in touch with the Commission's investigations.

After discussion, it is unanimously recommended that the representative organizations referred to by the two members be invited to elect a member to serve on the Commission.

With reference to the appointment of an expert, a proposal is submitted that, in view of the similarity as regards water supply between Shanghai and certain cities in America, application be made to the American Waterworks Association or the New England Waterworks Association. An alternative proposal is made that an expert from Great Britain might be more familiar with the methods of administration adopted by the Company, which would facilitate his investigation and in this connection it is stated that the Metropolitan Water Board is the only possible source from whence such British expert could be obtained since the conditions under which the London Water Supply is obtained are more analogous than those of any other English city to those obtaining in Shanghai.

After further discussion, members recommend that application be made to the American Waterworks Association for the selection of an investigating expert. The Committee regards it as essential that the expert appointed should, in addition to his technical qualifications, possess wide administrative ability and long experience in both capacities.

With regard to the proposal that concurrently with the investigation to be undertaken by an expert, an examination of the Company's books should be undertaken by qualified auditors it is recommended that a local firm be approached to undertake this work. In this connection, however, members concur with the Commissioner of Public Works that the expert should be given a free hand in the methods of conducting his investigation. It is therefore recommended that a preliminary investigation be conducted to assist the expert and that after his arrival he be notified that the Council is in a position to provide him with expert assistance for the purpose of facilitating his investigation in its financial aspects.

Finally, it is directed that, subject to the Council's approval of the above recommendations, a draft of the letter to be forwarded to the American Waterworks Association be submitted to the Committee before despatch.

Shanghai Waterworks Company, Ltd.—Dual supply of water for manufacturing purposes.—In a letter submitted, the Company refers to representations made by the Japanese Mill Owners' Association in China and the Japanese Industrial Factories Association in Shanghai and requests the Council to permit the Company as an experiment to supply water for purely manufacturing purposes in cases where the consumer also obtains a supply from a private well boring, subject to the conditions outlined. This scheme will apply only when the well boring has been sunk since March 17, 1928, the date of the agreement between the Council and the Company. The proposed scale of fees based on that for a standby supply as laid down in the agreement, in addition to ordinary meter rates, is also submitted for approval.

It is noted that the departments concerned offer no objections to the Company's proposal and, upon the Deputy Secretary stating that the factories and industrial undertakings have acquiesced therein, this is endorsed for the Council's approval.

Transport facilities in relation to the Traffic problem.—The Deputy Secretary states that two members have suggested the desirability of considering the traffic problem in so far as it comes within the ambit of the Committee's terms of reference. Most of the points raised come within the province of the Watch and Traffic Committee, the Public Utilities Committee being chiefly concerned with the public transport system.

A member is of the opinion that a number of the streets utilized by railless cars are too narrow to be suitable for the purpose. He instances Honan and Szechuen Roads and suggests that to avoid the existing congestion the railless car services now operating thereon might be diverted to the Bund.

The Deputy Secretary points out that under the agreements entered into with the Companies concerned the Council can control the routes operated by the Bus Company but not those traversed by rail or railless cars.

Asked for his views, the Commissioner of Public Works states that the most congested road for railless bus services is undoubtedly Kiangse Road. He does not regard as practicable the proposal to divert further services to the Bund on account of the number of services already catered for in the section between Nanking and Peking Roads. Furthermore, the difficulties of the problem of the public transport services are accentuated by the lack of wide thoroughfares and substantial bridges over the Soochow Creek, provision of which in his opinion forms the only solution of this problem. He will, however, take up with the Tram and Bus Companies the question as to the possibility of opening up new routes. In respect of the excessive overcrowding of tramcars mentioned by a member, the Commissioner of Public Works quotes statistics of the numbers of passengers carried by different types of public vehicles. It is not possible to provide cars of much larger type owing to the track being only metre gauge. The type of railless car now in use was specially designed to facilitate co-operation on narrow streets.

After discussion, the Commissioner of Public Works is requested to take up with the Public Transport Companies the provision of additional equipment in order to ascertain whether such additions are commensurate with the increased demand. Members are of the view that annual reports as to this should be furnished.

Members concur in the suggestion put forward by the Extra-Commissioner of Police that the Omnibus Company be requested to utilize the smaller type of bus on the narrower streets. This proposal will be put forward to the Company.

China General Omnibus Co., Ltd.—Increase of Fares.—A notification from this Company that they are reluctantly compelled, owing to the heavy fall in exchange which affects all imported supplies, to increase the fares as from February 1 next is submitted. As the proposed increased fare rates are well below the maximum amount authorized under the franchise agreement, this is formally endorsed.

In a memorandum submitted, two members advocate that the Council's approval to this increase should be contingent upon the Company undertaking to equip within six months all its vehicles with pneumatic tyres, and to the further condition that in the event of exchange appreciation which will decrease the price of gasoline and other imported necessities the question of increased charges shall be subject to reconsideration.

In connection with the above proposals, members are informed that the Company has been notified that no new vehicles will be licensed unless equipped with pneumatic tyres and that the number in use not so equipped is gradually diminishing and will eventually cease.

In view of the above statement, the two members agree that adoption of the stipulations proposed by them is not feasible.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

Education Policy.

Board of Education's Report.—Consideration has recently been given by the Finance Committee and the Council to a Report by the Education Board on Education Policy. As a result of these deliberations, it has been decided, in view of the magnitude of the cost involved by the scheme presented by the Board, that full particulars should be submitted to the ratepayers prior to the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, the Report of the Education Board, the financial aspect of the question as reported upon by the Treasurer and Controller, and the relative minutes of the Finance Committee and the Council are herewith published in extenso.

Summarized, the Education Board recommends, in dealing with facilities for the education of Chinese children, that two new Mixed Primary Schools for Chinese, accommodating 600 pupils in each, be constructed each year between 1931 and 1938, inclusive; that at the end of 1934 the uncompleted part of the programme should be reconsidered in the light of the number of non-municipal schools then in receipt of grants from Municipal funds; that a second Secondary School for Chinese Girls, in addition to that already approved, should be established not later than 1934; and that the present Public Schools for Chinese should gradually assume a more definite secondary character.

With reference to educational facilities for foreign children, no additional schools are recommended, but a change in distribution is specified.

Dealing with Grants-in-Aid, the Education Board recommends that grants from Municipal funds should be available for non-municipal schools, Chinese and Foreign, provided the schools satisfy the Board as to their resources, equipment, administration and educational standard.

Reporting on the financial aspect of the Board's Report, the Treasurer and Controller estimates that the additional cost entailed by adoption of the recommendations will by 1938 grow to Tls. 1,361,518, and he states that this will necessitate either (1) Curtailment of expenditure on other necessary Municipal services, or (2) Increased taxation. The Treasurer and Controller points out the inadvisability of embarking on an ambitious programme of this nature which, owing to financial exigencies, may prove impossible of realization. In short, he recommends acceptance of the Report in principle, subject to certain amendments.

The matter was discussed by the Finance Committee on January 30, when it was decided to recommend that the scheme put forward by the Education Board be adopted in principle by the Council, that details of the scheme be published well in advance of the Annual Meeting, that the ratepayers be informed that the Council favours its adoption in principle and that this will entail increased taxation; and that the expenditure in connection with the maintenance of educational facilities be divorced from the Council's general funds.

The recommendations of the Finance Committee were confirmed by the Council on February 4, when members agreed it would be of assistance to the Council in its endeavour to get this policy adopted if the Chinese members could obtain an assurance from the Chinese community that it will agree to increased taxation for the specific purpose of additional educational facilities.

Appended hereto are the Report of the Education Board, the report of the Treasurer and Controller thereon giving capital outlay and recurring charges, and the relative minutes:—

REPORT OF THE EDUCATION BOARD TO THE COUNCIL ON EDUCATION POLICY.

GENERAL RESOLUTIONS.

I. "The aim of the Council in its education policy is the provision of suitable Educational Institutions for the children of the residents in the International Settlement and those who directly or indirectly contribute to the rates, irrespective of nationality. This does not imply that the Council does or should assume sole responsibility for this provision. The Council welcomes the establishment of Schools by national groups, guilds, philanthropic or religious bodies, or by properly qualified individuals."

II. "In cases where such Schools are established and maintain a satisfactory standard of efficiency but are manifestly straitened by the inadequacy of their resources, the Council will endeavour to provide assistance to enable these Schools to render more effective service to the Community."

III. "Furthermore, the Council will continue to provide and maintain Municipal Schools both for Chinese and for Foreign Children."

A.—The Education Board is of the opinion that the principles laid down in the above resolutions should be adopted by the Council.

B.—In amplification of Resolution II above, the Board recommends that, as part of the new education policy, grants from Municipal Funds should be available for non-municipal schools, Chinese and Foreign, provided the schools applying for such grants satisfy the Education Board as to their resources, equipment, administration and educational standard.

It is further recommended that in the case of Foreign Schools applying for Municipal grants, special account be taken by the Board of (1) the size and needs of that section of the community served by those Schools, (2) their equipment, staff and curricula as related to the standards of education prevalent in the countries to which they belong, and (3) their prospects considered in relation to the educational needs of the community as a whole.

C.—The Board considers that an appropriation for the purpose of these grants should be included in the Budget for 1931.

D.—With reference to Resolution III above, it is the view of the Board that the policy to be adopted should take the form of determining beforehand the number and type of new schools to be provided during a specified period of years, but that in carrying out this programme an opportunity should be afforded from time to time for revision, having due regard to any changes or developments that arise. In this connection the Board has particularly in mind the interdependence of the two main lines of the proposed policy, namely, the provision of additional Council Schools on the one hand, and the subsidizing of non-municipal institutions on the other; the programme for the former to be modified and adjusted in the light of the success or otherwise of the latter.

E.—In the application of this policy to the education of Chinese children the Board recommends:—

(a) That between 1931 and 1938 inclusive, two new Mixed Primary Schools for Chinese, accommodating 600 pupils in each, be constructed each year. The Council has already sanctioned the erection of two such schools during 1931, namely, the Western District Primary School, Sinza Road, and the Eastern District Primary School, Wayside Road. (These schools are now functioning in temporary premises), The Northern District Primary School, Elgin Road, is already accommodated in an adequate permanent building, so that, if the above programme is carried out, by the end of 1938 there will be 17 Primary Schools in all.

(b) That at the end of 1934 the remaining and uncompleted part of the programme should be subject to reconsideration in the light of the number of non-municipal schools then in receipt of grants from Municipal Funds.

(c) That the first Secondary School for Chinese Girls recommended by the Board on October 8, 1930, and subsequently approved by the Council, should be established in 1931, and a second school of the same type not later than 1934. It is further recommended that the site now occupied by the Public School for Girls, Boone Road, be earmarked for this latter provision.

(d) That as the scheme of Primary Education develops the four existing Public Schools for Chinese, which now provide elementary as well as secondary education, should gradually assume a more definite secondary character analogous to the Middle School System adopted by the Chinese Government; that at least one of these schools should have a distinctly technical and vocational bias; and that the relationship between the Primary and Secondary Schools be so adjusted that the pupils would be encouraged to go on from the lower to the higher grades.

F.—Closely allied to this subject is the question of the staffing of these schools. The Board desires to place on record the view that competent Chinese should be engaged as Administrators, Headmasters, and Teachers whenever feasible.

G.—The Board is of the opinion that unless there is some special obstacle such as stipulation under trust deed, the term "Municipal" should be substituted for "Public" in the nomenclature of all Council schools.

H.—With reference to Resolution III above and in relation to the education of Foreign Children, after a careful study of the Census for 1930 and other information showing the number and distribution of the Foreign population, the Board is of the opinion that two Municipal Schools, one for boys and one for girls, should be provided in each of the following areas: Northern District, Eastern District, Western District. It should be noted that this proposal does not add to the number of Schools for Foreign Children already established by the Council, but involves changes in distribution specified in the following recommendations:—

(a) That as already arranged a modern building accommodating 500 pupils (including 24 boarders) be erected on the site of the Victoria Nursing Home, and designated the "Municipal School for Foreign Girls, Northern District, (Thomas Hanbury Foundation)."

(b) That the Yulin Road School be developed with permanent premises in Wayside, and designated the "Municipal School for Foreign Girls, Eastern District."

(c) That upon the completion of the new hostel attached to the Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Boys, the title recently adopted by this school be discontinued and changed to the "Municipal School for Foreign Boys, Northern District;" and that, to comply with the conditions of the relative trust deed, the residential block be designated "The Thomas Hanbury Hostel for Boys."

(d) That the Junior School for Boys, now operating as a branch of the Public and Thomas Hanbury School, be conducted as a separate institution styled the "Municipal School for Foreign Boys, Western District," and that this school be provided with adequate premises in accordance with the Board's recommendation of December 3, 1930.

(e) That the Public School for Girls, Yu Yuen Road, be styled the "Municipal School for Foreign Girls, Western District."

(f) That as soon as possible a third school for boys be erected in Wayside as the "Municipal School for Foreign Boys, Eastern District." This recommendation restores for the use of the community in the Eastern District the school for Foreign boys recently closed in Haskell Road.

(g) That when vacated the site now occupied by the Thomas Hanbury School for Girls be disposed of, or utilized for other Municipal purposes.

(h) That the site of the Public School for Girls, Boone Road, be retained for educational purposes.

I.—The Board is not in a position to submit an estimate of the cost of carrying out these recommendations, and holds the view that the Council must look to its financial advisers to furnish it with reliable figures. At the same time members desire to emphasize the fact that they have not overlooked the financial implications of their proposals, nor have they allowed either the pressing nature of the need for additional educational facilities or their own zeal for educational advancement to override their judgment into formulating a scheme beyond the means of the community to finance. That considerable restraint has been exercised in this respect is evidenced by the fact that upon the completion of the eight-year building programme referred to above it is estimated that only about 7.5 per cent of the total number of Chinese children of school-age within the Settlement will be accommodated in Municipal Schools.

REPORT OF TREASURER AND CONTROLLER.

I attach hereto a statement showing the estimated cost involved in carrying out the recommendations made at the meeting of the Education Board held on December 17, 1930.

All figures appearing in this statement relating to expenditure on land and buildings have been agreed with the Commissioner of Public Works.

The estimated working expenses of the existing foreign and Chinese public schools for 1931 are approximately Tls. 850,000. Making allowance for the normal annual increase in expenditure, and for interest and sinking fund charges in respect of the capital cost of land and buildings, the total yearly expenditure may be estimated to rise to Tls 1,200,000 by 1938. As in 1938 the additional cost entailed by adoption of the Education Board's recommendations is estimated at Tls. 1,361,518, it will be seen that as a result of these recommendations the proportion of the Municipal revenue devoted to education will be more than doubled.

It is apparent that there are only two methods in which a largely increased appropriation for educational purposes can ultimately be met:—

(1) Curtailment of expenditure on other necessary Municipal services.

(2) Increased taxation.

The major portion of the proposed expenditure is due to the establishment of two Primary Schools each year up to and including 1938.

Whilst I fully appreciate the motives actuating the recommendations of the Education Board, I must nevertheless point out the inadvisability of embarking on an ambitious programme of this nature which, owing to financial exigencies, may prove impossible of realization.

Provision is made in the Board's Report for reconsideration of the primary school question in 1934, and I would suggest that after completion of the two buildings required to house the schools at present in occupation of leased premises one school only be erected in each of the following years and that the whole matter be reconsidered in 1934.

J. T. FORD.
Treasurer and Controller.

The Deputy Secretary.

EXCERPTS FROM RELATIVE MINUTES.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Friday, January 30, 1931, at 4.30 p.m, there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, G. W. Sheppard, Z. C. Zing, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Education Policy.—A report by the Treasurer & Controller furnishing information as to the cost which would be involved by adoption of the Education Policy put forward by the Education Board is submitted. In view of the magnitude of this expenditure, he suggests that, after completion of the two buildings required to house the Schools at present in occupation of leased premises, one school only be erected in each of the following years and that the whole matter be reconsidered in 1934.

In amplification of the information contained in his report, the Treasurer states that, having regard to the Council's existing large capital commitments and the future heavy departmental expenditure it will be called upon to incur, he does not consider that the scheme as framed by the Board can be financed. Apart from the heavy capital expenditure involved under this scheme, the annual recurring charges could be met only by increased taxation, a course which he does not favour. In his opinion it is essential that the expenditure entailed should be considered in conjunction with other projects and commitments, approval or otherwise thereof being contingent on the exigencies of the financial position from time to time. He therefore suggests that the scheme now under consideration be accepted in principle but its application modified as above suggested.

A member states that he is unable to support the Treasurer's view. In his opinion the Council will ultimately be called upon to provide Chinese educational facilities of far greater magnitude than those now proposed and he regards it as most essential that this issue should be faced now and that it should be realized that the expenditure involved can be met only by the means of increased taxation, a definite proportion of which would be hypothecated for educational purposes.

In concurring in this view, another member points out that in the past the Chinese ratepayers have, through payment of Municipal taxation, contributed materially towards educational costs. The Chinese education facilities provided, however, cannot be regarded as an adequate return for the amount contributed. An urgent demand for such additional facilities now exists, a demand which in his view should be met. He does not agree that the imposition of additional taxation to maintain increased educational facilities is impossible, as from conversation with members of the Chinese community, he has gathered that no opposition to this would be encountered provided it was made clear that the increased revenue would be devoted solely to educational purposes. In this connection, he instances the system which is adopted in Tientsin whereunder the educational facilities provided for the foreign and Chinese residents have direct relation to the sums contributed for the purpose by those individual communities. The scheme put forward by the Board is framed on extremely moderate lines, in view of which any modification thereof will not only result in opposition from the Board but create a most unfavourable impression amongst the Chinese community. He therefore submits that the question for consideration is not as to whether the proposed scheme can be financed but the best means by which this can be accomplished even though this entails a re-casting of the Council's existing financial policy.

A member proposes that the Schools to be provided for in the current year's Budget be proceeded with as suggested by the Treasurer, but that, before the scheme now put forward is adopted in its entirety, it be submitted to the ratepayers in order that they may realize that its adoption will necessitate additional taxation. The Chairman is unable to support this proposal as it is not inconceivable that this scheme might be rejected by the ratepayers, in which case the re-action on the Chinese community would place the Council in an embarrassing position.

The same member, however, submits that, since the increased cost involved by a scheme of this magnitude will have to be borne by the ratepayers, it is only right that they should be consulted in advance of its adoption by the Council. Prior to submitting this question to the ratepayers, he suggests the desirability of publishing full details of the scheme, together with the financial aspects thereof as furnished by the Treasurer. Moreover, in his opinion, the taxation imposed in respect of the maintenance of educational facilities should be divorced from the Council's general accounts and hypothecated for the specific purpose for which it is collected.

Another member is of the opinion that, while the system obtaining in Tientsin as outlined has much to commend it, its application cannot be regarded as altogether suitable to the needs of Shanghai. Whilst he agrees that a system under which, by taxation, the various national communities would maintain their educational facilities is logical, he considers that any educational benefits provided should be in favour of the Chinese community, by not necessarily restricting the provision of Chinese educational facilities to the amount contributed by that community.

Replying to the Chairman, a Chinese member states that, having regard to their expressed desire for increased educational facilities, he believes that the Chinese community would not oppose the imposition of additional taxation for this purpose.

In support of the view as to the desirability of submitting this question to the ratepayers, it is pointed out that adoption of the scheme now under consideration will constitute a radical departure from the Council's past educational policy. In any case during the current year the Council will only be committed to the additional expenditure included in the Budget, which, of necessity, must be formally sanctioned by the ratepayers. Reference to the comprehensive scheme could be included in the Chairman's speech to the meeting; this with the publication of full details will place the ratepayers in possession of information thereof in all its aspects.

After further discussion, it is decided to recommend that the scheme put forward by the Education Board be adopted in principle by the Council. The further recommendation is recorded that details of this scheme be published well in advance of the Annual Meeting; that it be clearly stated to the ratepayers that the Council favours its adoption and that this will entail increased taxation; and that the maintenance of educational facilities will be divorced from the Council's general funds.

With regard to the issue of grants-in-aid to existing schools, the Treasurer states that no definite recommendation as to the possible amount of such grants has yet been put forward by the Board. Although he has tentatively included in the estimate accompanying his report dated January 15, a sum of Tls. 50,000 for this purpose it is probable that this figure would require adjustment.

A member points out that the Board has in principle agreed as to the desirability of assisting schools by this means and will submit a definite recommendation prior to the preparation of the Budget in its final form. He considers however that a sum of at least Tls. 250,000 may be required.

Members generally concur that, from an economic point of view, the issue of grants-in-aid is advantageous inasmuch as by this system the capital cost of providing additional educational facilities is reduced. In supporting this view, the Treasurer desires however to remind members that, at a recent meeting of the Council, it was decided that owing to heavy additional commitments in regard to the Police Force, certain items of a less essential nature would require to be excised and that considerable restraint would need to be exercised in other directions.

Excerpt from Council Minutes of February 4.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, February 4, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, O. S. Lieu, O. Okamoto, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Director General and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Finance Committee of January 30 are submitted and confirmed.

Education Policy.—With reference to the minute on this subject, a member desires it to be recorded that whilst he was unable to support certain views put forward he did ultimately agree to adoption of the education policy in principle, subject to full details thereof in all its aspects being furnished to the ratepayers, particular, he desires to stress his opinion that all expenditure on educational facilities should be entirely divorced from the general municipal funds.

A member suggests and members concur that it would be of assistance to the Council in its endeavour to get this policy adopted if the Chinese members could obtain an assurance from the Chinese community that it will agree to increased taxation for the specific purpose of additional educational facilities.

E. Liu, Mr. T. Murakami, Dr. Y. H. Ou, Mr. L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Chief Accountant, the Superintendent of Education, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Estimates for 1931

Extraordinary Expenditure.

Buildings

Public School for Chinese.—An appropriation of Tls. 4,500 to provide additional heating installation at this School, which has already been approved, is marked "A".

Ellis Kadoorie Public School for Chinese—Extensions (Tls. 50,000).—This appropriation, representing balance of cost of this work which is now in progress and which owing to the introduction of additional features involves expenditure of Tls. 35,000 in excess of that originally contemplated, is endorsed and marked "A".

Primary Schools for Chinese.—Two appropriations of Tls. 200,000 each, representing portion of cost of the Western District and Eastern District Primary Schools, are endorsed and marked "A". Replying to the Chairman, the Commissioner of Public Works states that the total cost of each of these buildings may be estimated at Tls. 300,000. The relatively high cost is accounted for by the fact that each School will provide accommodation for children of both sexes, also residential quarters for members of the Staff and their servants. The building plans provide for the installation of a central heating system and as this equipment and other building materials have to be imported the cost of these buildings is enhanced by the unfavourable exchange situation. It is anticipated that the building of the Western District School will be commenced early in the year and the plans of the Eastern District School are in course of preparation.

Ordinary Expenditure

Public Schools for Chinese.—The estimates for the four Public Schools for Chinese, copies of which have been furnished to members together with comment thereon by the Treasurer & Controller, are carefully considered. The Heads of the respective Schools attend during consideration of the estimates submitted by them. The Chief Accountant states that the estimates as drawn follow closely on the lines of those of preceding years, the increased expenditure being largely attributable to the amended terms of service sanctioned by the Council during 1930. Particular attention is given to the average number of pupils per teaching unit, as also to the ratio of receipts to expenditure, the desirability of maintaining the ratio aimed at by the Council being emphasized to the Heads of the several schools. Having regard to the reduction in the ratio of receipts to expenditure to which attention is drawn by the Chief Accountant, the Chairman inclines to the view that the tuition fees at these Schools are somewhat low having regard to the standard of education provided. It is accordingly decided that the question of the revision of fees both at these Schools and those for foreign children be the subject of consideration at a later meeting.

The various items under the heading Stock and Stores are carefully scrutinized and endorsed.

Chinese District Primary Schools.—The estimates for the three District Primary Schools and the Chinese Education Office, prepared by the Chinese Education Officer, are formally endorsed, subject to deletion of the following items provided for under Stock and Stores. The appropriations for one Ditto Duplicator and one Microscope with projector at each of the three schools are deleted from the estimates of two of the schools, members taking the view that the purchase of one of each of these during the current year will enable the Chinese Education Officer to ascertain as to the necessity or otherwise of further similar purchases next year. The aggregate appropriation of Tls. 300 for the provision of musical instruments to form a children's orchestra is reduced to Tls. 100, the instruments purchased to be available for the three schools. This expenditure is contingent upon the cost of the harmonicas mentioned by the Education Officer being defrayed by the pupils.

The Superintendent of Education states that he will again scrutinize the various items submitted and in consultation with the Chinese Education Officer delete any of these which in their opinion are not absolutely essential.

Subject to the above observations and to adjustment by the Treasurer & Controller as usual, the estimates of the above schools are formally endorsed.

The meeting terminates at 6.45 p.m.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Friday, January 30, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Brig-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, G. W. Sheppard, Z. C. Zing, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer and Controller and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Stores.—A memorandum is submitted by Mr. A. C. Clear advocating that, with a view to effecting economy, a Stores Committee composed of Departmental representatives be constituted who would be responsible for the purchase of all stores other than those defined which would continue to be purchased by the Public Health Department.

Replying to the Chairman, the Commissioner of Public Works states that the scheme proposed by Mr. Clear has to a very great extent been in operation for many years. It is not quite clear from the Report now submitted whether the creation of a Central Purchasing Department is advocated; he is unable to support such a proposal since in his view this would be less economical than the existing system. He explains that at present his Department purchases stores in bulk for other departments as it is found that, by aggregating these requirements, more favourable terms can be obtained. For the same reason bulk orders for certain commodities are placed by the Health Department which include the requirements of his own Department and by the Finance Department for stationery. The existing system of purchasing can be regarded as the nucleus of a central purchasing agency and can if required be further extended to embrace supplies of lesser importance which hitherto have been excluded.

The Treasurer states that he gathers that Mr. Clear does not recommend the creation of a Central Purchasing Department and that he has formed the conclusion that the existing system is more economical particularly so since the services of purchasing specialists are available in the Public Works Department.

Upon a member suggesting that decision as to purchases being left to individual specialists may not be so economically advantageous to the Council as the creation of a Central Purchasing Department, both the Commissioner of Public Works and the Treasurer submit that the Council's requirements do not justify the creation of an additional Department for this purpose. A member concurs in this view but is of the opinion that in the interests of economy the existing system should be extended. He therefore proposes that, subject to such extension, continuation of the present system of purchasing, whereunder the requirements of the various Departments are purchased by the Public Works Department, be approved in principle.

It is noted that certain bulk supplies are purchased by Departments other than the Works Department, notably boots by the Police Department, stationery by the Finance Department, and drugs, etc., by the Health Department. It is accordingly recommended that, subject to exclusion of the above supplies, the existing system of purchasing by the Works Department now in operation be retained but extended to include all major supplies which hitherto have not been purchased through this source.

The meeting terminates at 5.45 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, February 4, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, O. S. Lieu, O. Okamoto, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Director-General, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Appointment of Chinese Official.—Further consideration is given to this matter and it is decided to refer back to the Special Sub-Committee dealing with the appointment the question of the designation of the official to be appointed. The recommendation of the Sub-Committee if possible will be circulated to the Council for approval.

Greyhound Racing.—In view of the doubt which exists in the mind of a certain section of the public as to whether the Council intends to adhere to its published decision that the Greyhound Racing Tracks shall cease to function on March 31, next, a member suggests that brief replies reiterating this decision be forwarded to the letters received from the Organizations concerned and that these be published in the "Municipal Gazette."

This proposal is unanimously approved.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of January 22 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee of January 23 are submitted and confirmed. Shanghai Waterworks Company Investigation.—In connection with the engagement of an expert from America, which is approved, a member states that the Company has suggested that in order to avoid delay the request for the selection of an expert should be made by cable.

After discussion, it is directed that the letter to this Association outlining the Council's requirements be drafted forthwith and that a summarized version thereof be cabled to enable the Association to give preliminary consideration to suitable candidates. The Association will, however, be requested not to make a definite selection until the Council's letter has been received.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of January 28 are submitted, and, subject to reference to the Finance Committee, are confirmed.

Board of Film Censors.—The Chairman suggests that the existing membership of the Board of Film Censors be enlarged. The present membership consists of one Police representative, one British representative, and two Ladies of American and Chinese nationality respectively. There are two vacancies caused by the resignation of Mrs. V. G. Lyman and Mr. Kuan Chun. He therefore suggests that the latter vacancy be filled by the appointment of a Chinese gentleman. He further proposes that a Japanese representative (either lady or gentleman) be appointed as also one of a different nationality, possibly German.

The above proposals are unanimously endorsed, the Chinese and Japanese members undertaking to submit recommendations as to their respective national nominees in due course.

The "Municipal Gazette" for Friday, February 6, is submitted in proof and subject to minor amendments is authorized for publication.

The meeting terminates at 5.35 p.m.

Labour Conditions in Settlement.

The following interchange of correspondence between the Joint Committee of the Shanghai Women's Organization and the Council on the subject of labour conditions in the Settlement, and more particularly those for women and children, is published for general information:—

Shanghai, January 24, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—At a meeting of the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations held on January 21, a report was presented arising out of a study of the contents of the new Factory Law which it is understood the National Government has stated will be operative after February 1.

The Joint Committee as you know has a long history of interest in the question of better industrial standards, especially as affecting women and children. It was therefore early recognized that any attempt to apply regulation by the Chinese Government would need to be accompanied by an effort on the part of other jurisdictions, if women and children were to obtain safeguards.

Accordingly a motion was passed, warmly supported by both Chinese and foreign women, that the Shanghai Municipal Council should be addressed inviting it to consider what possibilities there may be of applying the Law in the International Settlement and of offering co-operation with the National Government in making a study of existing conditions and taking first practicable steps toward ultimate enforcement. The Joint Committee felt assured in advance that this matter was already in the minds of the Council and wished to assure it that the organized women of the community were vitally interested in any progress which could be made.

At the meeting also a motion to address the Ministry for Industry of the National Government was passed congratulating it upon the drafting of a very good Factory Law which might prove a goal of ultimate attainment, and expressing the hope that provision would be made for gradual steps for its application, and that the co-operation of foreign jurisdiction might be sought.

With assurance of the deep interest of all women in the coming of better industrial standards.

Yours faithfully,
ST. CLAIR FORD.
Chairman.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL E. B. MACNAGHTEN, C.M.G., D.S.O.,
Chairman,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 30, 1931.

MADAM,—I have to thank you for your letter of January 24 addressed to the Chairman of the Council and to express the Council's deep appreciation of the continued interest and activities of the Shanghai Women's Organization in the furtherance of social welfare and the evolution of industrial conditions in Shanghai.

As the Child Labour Commission pointed out in 1924 in the absence of a central government and of national legislation duly enforceable the Council was hampered in its attempts to carry out its declared policy of applying in the Settlement as far as was practicable the humanitarian principles governing women and child labour in Western countries and a reasonable system of factory inspection.

While a good deal has been accomplished locally by the initiative of factory owners and the influence of public opinion the Council welcomes the aspirations of the Chinese government as embodied in the Factory Law and the opportunity to co-operate with the government in raising the level of labour conditions as far as it may be possible in the direction of the legislative standard.

I may further assure you that the matter has been receiving the earnest attention of the Council, and that your interest and co-operation are much appreciated.

I have the honour to be,
Madam,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MRS. ST. CLAIR FORD,
Chairman,
Joint Committee of Shanghai
Women's Organization.

Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd.

Dual Supply for Manufacturing Purposes.—In accordance with the recommendation of the Public Utilities Committee, approved by the Council and published in the "Municipal Gazette" of February 6, certain proposals made by the Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd., regarding the dual supply of water for manufacturing purposes have been agreed to. These proposals are set forth in the appended correspondence between the Company and the Council which is published for general information:—

Shanghai, October 9, 1930.

SIR,—In view of representations made by the Japanese Mill Owners' Association in China and the Japanese Industrial Factories Association in Shanghai, my Directors, anxious to eschew any attitude that might conceivably hinder the commercial development of Shanghai, have decided as an experiment that the powers conferred upon the Company by the first paragraph of Clause 2 of the Agreement between the Council and the Company dated 28th February 1930 shall not be enforced in the case of a consumer of water for purely manufacturing purposes, that is to say, that a supply of water by the Company shall be permitted for purely manufacturing purposes in cases where the consumer obtains also a supply from a private well boring provided the consumer proves to the satisfaction of the Company that a supply both from the Company and from the private well boring is essential for the purpose of his business and provided further that the consumer shall pay to the Company for all water used from the Company's mains at the meter rates from time to time in force and in addition thereto a monthly fee based upon the size of the connection to the main, such fee to be the same as the fee for a standby supply as laid down in the Agreement between the Council and the Company dated 28th February 1930 with such modifications as may from time to time be made.

This scale of fees at present is as follows:—

Size of Connection	Monthly Rate
3"	45.00
1½"	12.00
¾"	5.00

The Agreement of 28th February 1930 referred to above also provided that if a consumer was at the date of the 1928 Agreement obtaining a supply of water from a private well boring or source other than the Company's mains as well as a supply from the Company's undertaking, such a consumer should be allowed continuance of the supply from both sources in return for a monthly fee in addition to the charges for the supply in accordance with the ordinary tariff. The arrangement now decided upon will apply therefore only when the well boring has been sunk since 17th March 1928, the date of the principal indenture between the Council and the Company. Moreover, my Directors reserve the right at any time to permit no more of such supplies if it is found that loss of revenue is resulting to the Company or for any other reason to permit such supplies is considered undesirable.

I am directed to ask the Council's assent to the proposed scale of fees.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
W. R. WALTER,
Secretary & Deputy Manager.

J. R. JONES, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, February 9, 1931.

SIR,—Further consideration has now been given to the proposals made in your letter of October 9, 1930, for the dual supply of water for manufacturing purposes. The proposals as contained in your letter were approved by the Council. It is hoped, however, that a scheme which may be of so much use to industrial undertakings and which is unlikely to cause any material loss of revenue will not be withdrawn without due consideration and that if at any time it is decided to suspend it adequate notice may be given both to the Council and to the undertakings affected.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Traffic.

Stop Lines at Street Intersections.—Correspondence between the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations and the Council on the question of traffic stop lines at street intersections, more particularly in the Central District, is published for general information. Plans are now in course of preparation for the marking out of pedestrian crossing lines at all roads crossing Nanking Road and the scheme is receiving urgent attention:—

Shanghai, December 19, 1930.

SIR,—At the December meeting of the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations the question of the difficulty of crossing the streets in the congested downtown districts was discussed. The representatives of the clubs present all felt that there was danger and much unpleasantness for pedestrians on account of the small space allowed at street crossings beyond the line at which traffic is halted.

The Joint Committee wishes to make the following suggestion: That the white lines at which the traffic must stop be put a number of yards back in the intersecting streets so that pedestrians will not need to dodge under the handles of the rickshas when crossing and will have time to reach the opposite curb in safety when the traffic signal is changed.

The Committee hopes that this suggestion will be favourably accepted.

Sincerely yours,
ST. CLAIR FORD,
Chairman, Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations.

Land Commission.

Boone Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, June 21, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—With reference to Cad. Lot 902 in Boone Road which you are expecting to make road widening, we have the liberty to offer you the fact that we are desirous to transfer the part of the said lot covering Mow 0.141 at Taels 58,000 per mow to your goodselves.

We would much appreciate it if you would kindly decide the matter whether you would agree to buy the said part of our lot at our value, and if you would kindly let us have your kind decision about the same case at your earliest convenience.

We are, Dear Sir,
S. OKANO,
Representative for the Landlord.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, July 17, 1930.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 21, addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works, offering to surrender for the sum of Tls. 8,178 an area of Mow 0.141 scheduled from Cadastral Lot 902 for the widening of Boone Road.

In reply thereto I am directed to inform you that in view of the betterment conferred on the property through the widening of this road from approximately 30 feet to 50 feet the Council considers that reasonable compensation would be at the rate of Tls. 50,000 per mow, less one-third for betterment, making a sum of Tls. 4,700.

I shall be obliged if you will inform me if this offer is acceptable.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

S. OKANO, Esq.

Shanghai, undated.

DEAR SIR,—I have to refer you to your letter dated July 17, 1930, addressed to my representative, Mr. S. Okano, and to state that since the Municipal Council could not see their way to meet my claim for compensation for the surrender of Mow 0.141 for the above as submitted in his letter dated June 21, 1930, to the Commissioner of Public Works, I have now to withdraw my claim and shall submit to you a fresh claim in due course.

Your faithfully,
S. MATSUMOTO.

J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Shanghai, January 13, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed by Mr. S. Matsumoto, the owner of Cad. Lot 902 to communicate to you his claim for compensation for the compulsory surrender of an area, measuring Mow 0.141 ex the above lot for the widening of Boone Road.

In submitting his claim, we are to state that in widening a road from its existing width of 30 feet to that of 50 feet, no betterment can be admitted, especially in the district where this lot is located. A wider thoroughfare in the vicinity of Woosung and Boone Roads, close to the neighbourhood of the Hongkew market, is quite indifferent in respect to revenue production of the land. In fact it cannot be denied that, if there is any betterment at all, it will be enjoyed by the Council who will reap a larger return in rates, as a result of our client's efforts in having his property re-developed on present lines. In our client's opinion, it is perfectly obvious it is the Council who will be the party to pay for the betterment resulting for our client's re-development. Our client, therefore, does not deem it equitable that only landowners are called upon to pay for betterment of property when the reverse does not apply.

Moreover, the present widening does not in any way improve the land concerned and the shops built thereon, nor does it contribute thereto any more benefits other than those already enjoyed by our client.

It is our client's view that whereas his lot has been reduced in depth with the consequent shallower shops, the Council gains a wider road than heretofore for the general traffic and a considerable appreciation in its revenues, especially Municipal rates, which, as far as can be ascertained, are increased by much above Tls. 2,000 per annum. It may be argued that a wider road will allow a greater height for the adjacent buildings, but practice has definitely demonstrated that such is not the case. A wider road therefore, does not confer betterment upon any adjacent lot, unless the road to be widened is very much less than 30 feet wide in a congested area.

In surrendering the required area as scheduled, our client has lost 1,024 square feet of land, or to put it as practically as possible, he has actually been deprived of 1,011 square feet of floor space on each of the four stories. The present building, with an area of 11,650 superficial feet, has cost our client Tls. 102,730 (or, say, Tls. 885 per fong of 100 square feet) as shown below:—

	Tls.
Front Block (9 Shops) 6,022 sq. ft. yielding a total monthly rent of	1,300
Rear Block (10 Houses) 5,428 sq. ft. yielding a total monthly rent of	1,020
Total Building Area 11,650 sq. ft. Total Monthly Rent	2,320

From the foregoing you will note that the rates of annual gross rental return upon superficial feet of building of four stories are:—

For the Front Block	Tls. 2.60 per annum.
For the Rear Block	Tls. 2.25 per annum.

To surrender this area it clearly shows that our client loses in his property a potential value to the extent of Tls. 21,804, calculated as follows:—

	Tls.
Building area of 1,011 superficial feet, calculated at Tls. 2.60 per annum per superficial foot will yield annually	2,628.49
Less 15 per cent for outgoings	392.77
Nett Return	Tls. 2,225.72
Which, capitalized at 7 per cent per annum gives a value of	Tls. 31,751.00
Deduct cost of Buildings at Tls. 885 per fong of 100 Sq. Ft.	9,947.00
Value of Land	Tls. 21,804.00

which is our client's loss, therefore his claim; in the calculation of which the maximum height to which his buildings could be erected has not been taken into account.

Yours faithfully,
For CUMINE & Co., LTD.,
H. M. CUMINE,
Managing Director.

J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 26, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 13, submitting an increased claim of Tls. 21,804 for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.141 from Cadastral Lot 902 for the scheduled widening of Boone Road.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that, in view of the considerable difference between this claim and the Council's offer of Tls. 4,700 made to your client's former representative, Mr. S. Okano, there would appear to be no prospect of coming to terms by continuing negotiations. The question of compensation will therefore be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

The Manager,
MESSRS. CUMINE & Co., LTD.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Health Committee held on Tuesday, February 3, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present: Mr. A. J. Hughes, Chairman, Dr. A. C. Bryson, Mr. L. C. Chien, Mr. O. S. Lieu, Dr. E. L. Marsh, Mr. C. Sakurazawa, the Commissioner of Public Health, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Regulations for the Registration of Medical Practitioners.—In a report submitted, the Commissioner of Public Health endorses for approval an amendment to Clause 15 of the above Regulations proposed by Dr. Maxwell, Hon. Secretary of the China Medical Association.

After brief discussion this amendment is adopted.

With regard to the election of a medical practitioner to the Board as the Council's nominee, it is unanimously recommended that Dr. W. E. O'Hara, who is willing to serve, be requested to act in this capacity.

The Commissioner of Public Health reports that the Society of German Speaking Physicians and the Association of Chinese Foreign Style Medical Practitioners have requested that these organizations be represented on the Medical Board.

After discussion, members record the view that the existing personnel of the Board is sufficiently represented and that further additions would render it somewhat unwieldy. They are therefore unable favourably to consider any increase in its membership.

Mokanshan Sanatorium.—In connection with the report furnished by the Commissioner of Public Health relative to the dangerous condition of the buildings in which the Sanatorium is at present housed, one of which has recently been demolished, consideration is given to the best means by which the facilities hitherto provided for the lower paid members of the staff can be continued.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that these buildings, with the exception of that used as a dining room and kitchen, are in such a dangerous state that he is unable to recommend their further use. On account of the heavy cost involved in erecting first class buildings, he does not favour this course; nor can he advocate the erection of a cheap type of building since in his view this would be economically unsound.

With regard to the alternative proposal put forward that a boarding establishment or hotel should be subsidized at Tsingtao or in Japan to enable employees to be accommodated at favourable rates, the Commissioner of Public Health states that owing to the increased cost entailed by this proposal since it was put forward, due to exchange depreciation and other factors, he desires to withdraw it.

In the course of discussion, members record the view that the rebuilding of the Sanatorium at the present time is impracticable; they concur however in the view expressed by a member as to the desirability of continuing the existing facilities at Mokanshan if only on a limited scale, more particularly for the benefit of employees who require to convalesce after sickness or hospital treatment. They therefore unanimously endorse the proposal put forward by the Commissioner of Public Works that an endeavour should be made to rent two or three bungalows at Mokanshan for the summer season for residential purposes, the existing dining room and kitchen to continue to be used as such. It is accordingly recommended that the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to enquire as to the possibility of securing such accommodation and to conclude the necessary arrangements.

Swimming Bath and Pool.—In a comprehensive report submitted, the Commissioner of Public Health draws attention to the unsatisfactory conditions obtaining at the Open-Air Swimming Pool due to the lack of an adequate filtration plant, the provision of which in his opinion is absolutely essential in the interests of the health of the very large number of bathers using this Pool.

Asked for his views, the Commissioner of Public Works states that in respect of the Open-Air Pool the installation of modern filtration plant as advocated by the Commissioner of Public Health would cost approximately Tls. 83,000; so far as the closed Swimming Bath is concerned, lack of the required space renders it impossible to instal such plant.

He points out that the Open-Air Pool is situated beyond Settlement limits; for this reason he suggests that as an alternative to incurring the heavy expenditure on filtration plant it might be desirable to provide an additional open-air pool in the Wayside vicinity. In his opinion this provision would reduce the attendance at the Hongkew Park Pool and thus ameliorate the existing conditions which are largely due to overcrowding. The covered-in swimming bath is far less popular with the public, and this, he suggests, might be disposed of and the price obtained offset against the cost of the additional open-air pool.

After discussion members unanimously agree, and the Commissioner of Public Health concurs, as to the advisability of providing an additional open-air pool as an alternative to expending so large a sum on filtration plant for a pool located beyond Settlement limits.

It is accordingly recommended that the appropriation of Tls. 50,000 included in the current estimates be retained for this purpose and designated as provision for "Open-Air Swimming Pool facilities."

BUDGET 1931

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURE

Following the usual procedure, the appropriations included in the estimates of Extraordinary Expenditure are considered with the explanatory notes of the Commissioner of Public Works and are classified as follows:—

(A) Those which the Council has already approved or are considered urgent.

(B) Those considered desirable to be carried out if funds permit.

(C) Those for which no appropriation should be made this year.

The Treasurer & Controller states that in accordance with the usual practice he has carefully scrutinized the various appropriations, and, in consultation with the Commissioners of Public Health and Public Works, these have been tentatively classified for the Committee's consideration.

LAND.

Hungjao Cemetery — Extension, Tls. 25,000.—This appropriation, which is inserted to provide for the purchase of several additional areas required to round off the property to be acquired as opportunity offers, is marked "A."

Sinza Market—Tls. 53,500.—This appropriation representing balance of cost in respect of the additional land necessary to complete this property, for which negotiations are proceeding, is marked "A."

Market Sites. Robison and Ferry Roads, Tls. 27,000—Provision was made in last year's Budget for this purchase. It has not yet however been possible to acquire a suitable site. This appropriation is marked "A."

Nominal appropriations in respect of each of the following Market sites are marked "C."

Haiphong/Markham Roads District.

Bubbling Well District.
Yuenfong/Market Street.
Lower Yangtszepoo.

Branch Health Office. — Area bounded by Ferry, Wuting, Gordon and Avenue Roads. Tls. 15,000.—Upon the Commissioner of Public Health stating that this provision can be deferred for a further year, this appropriation is marked "C."

Isolation Hospital—Western District—Extension of Site (Nominal) Tls. 100.—This nominal appropriation is marked "C."

BUILDINGS.

Abattoir and Cattle Sheds (portion of cost) Tls. 700,000.—This appropriation, in respect of the erection of buildings which will be commenced at an early date, is marked "A." As this sum includes the cost of fittings, equipment, etc., the Committee directs that the proportion of the amount for this purpose be shewn separately in the Budget as issued to the public.

Isolation Hospital (Nominal).—Tls. 100.—As the requirements for this building have not yet been defined, this nominal appropriation is marked "C."

Branch Health Offices.—Central District No. 2 (Kwangse Road) Tls. 40,000.—This appropriation, which is required for the building to replace the office previously housed in the Town Hall, is marked "A."

Northern District Nos. 1 and 2 (Yalu Road) (Nominal) Tls. 100.—As it is not anticipated that this work will commence before 1932, this appropriation is marked "C."

Northern District No. 4 (Tsepoo Road) Tls. 17,000.—This appropriation which is required to replace the building on Cad. Lot 259, which has been disposed of, is marked "A."

Western District No. 3 (Robison Road) Tls. 25,000.—This appropriation, for the erection of a building on a site owned by the Council, is marked "A."

Victoria Nurses Home (Portion of Cost) Tls. 300,000.—The Commissioner of Public Works reports that the contract for this building will be let next month and work thereon commenced at an early date. This appropriation is accordingly marked "A."

In respect of the Chairman's allusion to the press criticism recently levelled at the Council at the delay in proceeding with this provision, the Commissioner of Public Works is of opinion that such criticism is uncalled for. He states that the site therefor was only acquired in August last and in the intervening period the necessary plans have been drawn up. Immediately after the existing building on the site is vacated and demolished, the work can be proceeded with.

Markets.—Sinza (Portion of Cost) Tls. 250,000.—A new site for this building having been acquired, work thereon will commence early this year. This appropriation is accordingly marked "A"; the amount may, however, be adjusted later.

Peking, Tls. 200,000.—The contract for this building has been let and work will be commenced forthwith; marked "A."

Liaoyang—Tls. 50,000.—A site having been recently acquired for this purpose, this appropriation is marked "A."

As it is not anticipated that the following works can be undertaken during 1931, nominal appropriations of Tls. 100 in respect of each building are marked "C."

East Hongkew (Reconstruction in concrete).

Wayside (Reconstruction is concrete).

Elgin (Reconstruction in concrete).

Hongkew—Extension (Reconstruction in concrete).

Bubbling Well Cemetery—Workshops, Tls. 7,500.—The appropriation for the re-erection of this building, which will result in providing additional burial space in the Cemetery, is marked "A."

Hungjao Cemetery — Workmen's Quarters (nominal) Tls. 100.—As it is not anticipated that this work can be carried out during 1931, this appropriation is marked "C."

Open Air Swimming Pool—(Portion of Cost), Tls. 50,000.—Having regard to the recommendation recorded in the preceding Minute under this heading, this appropriation is marked "A."

ORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

The estimates of Ordinary Expenditure as prepared by the Department, together with comment thereon by the Treasurer & Controller, are then considered. From the information supplied by the latter, it is noted that the total appropriations represent an increase of approximately 25 per cent over the estimated expenditure for 1930.

The Chairman states that from a most careful perusal of these estimates he has formed the conclusion that they are framed on an extremely conservative basis. It has occurred to him that the economy exercised in certain directions may re-act detrimentally with a consequent loss of Departmental prestige and preclude it from extending essential health services. Having regard to the low rate of taxation prevailing in Shanghai and to the fact that it has no public debt, he feels strongly that a continuance of this policy at the expense of recognized civic requirements is neither wise nor sound.

In this respect the Treasurer & Controller observes that the Council's average capital expenditure for the four preceding years including 1930 approximated Tls. 4,000,000 per annum. The estimated expenditure on Capital Account for 1931 will be in the neighbourhood of Tls. 10,000,000 and for the next few years thereafter will also be extremely heavy. In 1934 he anticipates that in order to finance schemes already embarked upon and to cover new projects it will be necessary to float a loan of not less than Tls. 10,000,000. Having regard to this probability and to existing loan indebtedness he states that at no time will the Municipality be free from public debt.

With regard to the present rate of Municipal taxation, he observes that the Council has hitherto agreed as to the desirability of stabilizing taxation at its present figure for the next few years.

Upon the Chairman commenting on the fact that a certain portion of these estimates are framed on an exchange basis of 1s/8d to the Tael, which, he suggests, reflects an undue optimism, the Treasurer states that these estimates were drawn up by the Department some time before exchange had reached its present low level. He appreciates that adjustment in this respect is necessary; at the same time, as it is impossible to forecast the exchange situation during the whole of the period covered by the Budget, he deprecates too low a rate being taken for purposes of the annual estimates.

The Treasurer adds that it may be possible, in consultation with the Commissioner of Public Health, to effect certain modifications in the figures now submitted, but these he anticipates will be only of a minor nature. He concurs with the Chairman that the estimates are drawn on a moderate and conservative basis.

The items under Stock and Stores are scrutinized and endorsed, subject to any minor adjustments which may be agreed between the Commissioner of Public Health and the Treasurer.

Subject to such adjustments, the estimates of Extraordinary and Ordinary Expenditure are approved for submission to the Finance Committee.

The meeting terminates at 5.45 p.m.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Public Health Report for January.

Vital Statistics.—The Foreign death-rate was 13.31 and the Chinese 11.84 as compared with 19.23 and 16.81 respectively during January last year. The figure is considerably below the average, but it should be pointed out that the Census recently completed indicated that the population was considerably greater than had previously been calculated, and this is reflected in the above figures. It can however be definitely stated that January was a healthy month.

Deaths amongst the resident foreigners totalled 49, of which 61 per cent were non-Europeans. Deaths verified amongst resident Chinese numbered 1,155.

Communicable Diseases. — Smallpox: Four cases were noted amongst resident foreigners, two of which occurred amongst non-vaccinated persons. Eighteen cases were noted amongst the Chinese population, with eight deaths.

Scarlet Fever.—Diphtheria and Tuberculosis were present but the incidence of new cases was small.

Influenza.—Whilst it would appear that this disease is somewhat prevalent in Japan and elsewhere, the number of cases notified in Shanghai remains extremely small. At the same time a number of cases of feverish conditions have been prevalent, which rightly have not been classed as Influenza. To include under the term Influenza all feverish conditions, leads to a considerable inaccuracy in Communicable Disease returns.

Cerebrospinal Fever.—This continues to appear in sporadic fashion. Two cases were notified from amongst the Foreign population, and 11 cases noted amongst the Chinese population, with five deaths. From Reports in the Press and other sources, it would seem that the country areas to the South-east of Shanghai, which in 1929 seemed to be the source of infection, are now again infected. It may here be noted that while Shanghai rarely is entirely free from Cerebrospinal Fever, the incidence appears to be diminishing, and it is hoped that it will not assume an epidemic form this year.

A few cases of Measles amongst the Chinese population were noted. With the exception of a few cases of Typhoid notified amongst the foreign population, the incidence of Infectious diseases was low.

Pathological Laboratory. — The Laboratory may be said to be in its manufacturing season at the present time and is thus fully occupied. At the same time the routine specimen work is not being neglected; indeed the number of specimens submitted for examination is the highest in the annals of the Laboratory for the month of January.

B. Dysentery was present in a number of cases which would seem to indicate that apart from the acute cases which were notified a number of chronic conditions can also be attributed to this cause.

Chemical Laboratory.—During the month a large number of highly coloured cakes and sweetmeats which are sold in unusual quantity to the Chinese population for the purpose of celebrating the Chinese New Year festivities, were examined by the Chemical Laboratory, for the presence of poisonous pigments, and in 21 varieties it was found that litharge, (oxide of lead), a poisonous mineral pigment—was present. The use of these pigments is probably due to ignorance on the part of the manufacturers, usually men in a small way of business. Serious illness having however in the past been attributable to such pigments, the necessary action was immediately taken by the Department to prevent sale or manufacture of these sweetmeats.

Hospitals.—The Hospitals generally were somewhat empty during the month. A small outbreak of Dysentery, which was the subject of careful investigation, occurred in the Ward Road Gaol. Control measures should, however, be much simplified by the new Cook-house which is in the course of erection.

The Amoy Road Gaol is noted as being overcrowded, though the health of the prisoners remains very good.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division. —The presence of Rinderpest in certain Dairies is a source of considerable anxiety. 104 animals either died of the disease or were removed for slaughter.

The hard frost experienced last month considerably interfered with the cleanliness of the Markets, and a certain number of burst pipes caused considerable inconvenience. Mat screening also was necessary in some of the Markets to protect some of the Stall holders from the effect of the inclement weather.

Sanitation Division.—This Division was occupied with routine work from which it is somewhat difficult to select matters of interest.

The winter period is one of considerable activity both in preparing for the coming Mosquito Campaign and the making of vaccination facilities available to the public.

A somewhat interesting observation was made during the month, inasmuch as mosquito larvae were discovered in a Pond in spite of the fact that the edges of the Pond were frozen. This observation is somewhat unusual. Anti-mosquito measures have been taken in regard to certain definite areas. It is quite unusual for mosquito larvae to be discovered so early in the year, and follow up observations will be made.

Publicity. — Several thousand copies of a Japanese translation of the Department's "Health Hints" were distributed during the month. This pamphlet has now been distributed in English, Chinese and Japanese, thus reaching the majority of the population.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Commissioner of Public Health.

Chloride figures have generally varied between 2.4 and 2.8 parts per 100,000 but rose to 5.6 parts per 100,000 on the 22nd, indicating a slight infiltration of salt water. This slight increased salinity was of very short duration. Nitrites have been absent. A largely increased saline ammonia figure has been present since the 13th. Free chlorine has varied from 0.12 to 0.30 parts per million in samples taken in the laboratory and from 0.10 to 0.30 parts per million in samples from other points.

Bacteriological Examination.—23 samples were examined during the month. No coliform organisms were found in 120 cc of each of the 5 hydrant samples. Of the 18 tap samples taken in various parts of the settlement, one sample contained 270 coliform organisms per litre but no organisms of the B. coli group. The remainder contained less than 10 coliform organisms per litre.

Land Commission.

Wayside and Liaoyang Roads.—In terms of the appended correspondence it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, November 12, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed by our clients to make a claim for compensation in respect of the land to be surrendered from Cadastral Lot 3609 for the widening of the Wayside and the Liaoyang Roads, as per the plan forwarded to us under cover of your letter dated August 18, 1930.

The area to be surrendered, coloured red on your plan, is Mow 0.660, whilst the area of surplus land, coloured blue, is Mow 0.070, which you suggest can be incorporated in our lot upon arrangement with your Council. We suggest that this area of surplus land should be deducted from the area to be surrendered, making the net area to be surrendered Mow 0.590.

We have based our claim upon a market value of Tls. 10,000 per mow, which is the same figure at which our clients recently sold Cadastral Lot 3618, Eastern District, which is very near to Cadastral Lot 3609.

Our claim is as follows:—

Net area to be surrendered Mow 0.590 at Tls. 10,000 per mow. ..... Tls. 5,900.00

Your reply will oblige.

Yours faithfully,

LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 5, 1930.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 12, addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works, offering to surrender an area of Mow 0.660 from Cadastral Lot 3609 for the scheduled widening of Wayside and Liaoyang Roads in exchange for Mow 0.070 of surplus land fronting Cadastral Lot 3609 and payment of Tls. 5,900, which is at the rate of Tls. 10,000 per mow on the difference of the two areas.

In reply thereto, I am directed to call your attention to the road development which has taken place in front of Cadastral Lot 3609. The original lot was bounded on the South, as to a small portion on the West by a narrow Chinese footpath alongside a creek and as to the remaining portion on the East by B. C. Lot 3901, Cadastral Lot 3611.

The creek has been filled in by the Council, and the whole of B. C. Lot 3901 has been purchased and with the exception of the area of mow 0.070 now available for disposal has been incorporated in the road.

The present B. C. Lot 3562 has thus obtained its extensive frontage to a Municipal road by the expenditure of public funds and has not hitherto been called upon to surrender any land for road purposes.

In the circumstances I am directed to inform you that the Council is unwilling to offer any compensation for the surrender of the scheduled area of mow 0.660.

As regards the Council's surplus land I am directed to offer you this area of mow 0.070 at the rate of Tls. 11,000 per mow making a total payment of Tls. 770. This is the same rate as that at which an area of surplus land on the opposite side of the road (Cadastral Lot 3610) was recently offered to you.

In conclusion I have to state that acceptance of the Council's terms will involve the transfer to yourselves of the whole of B. C. Lot 3901 and the execution on your part of voluntary free surrender deeds for the area in the road.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON AND MORRISS.

Shanghai, January 6, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are in receipt of your letter of December 5 regarding the land to be surrendered from Cadastral Lot 3609, Wayside Road, for road widening purposes, and in reply we beg to state that our clients are unwilling to agree to your Council's suggestion of a free surrender of this scheduled area of mow 0.660.

Regarding the surplus land fronting Cadastral Lot 3609, we are instructed to accept your Council's offer at the rate of Tls. 11,000.00 per mow for an area of mow 0.070 making a total payment of Tls. 770. This offer is made without prejudicing our claim for compensation for the land to be surrendered to your Council.

We shall be obliged if you will instruct the Building Surveyor to issue a permit to allow the construction of the shops to proceed which are to be built on this surplus land. This portion of the rebuilding scheme was withdrawn when the original permit was issued.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

J. R. JONES, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 30, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 6 stating that your clients are unwilling to agree to surrender without compensation an area of mow 0.660 required from Cadastral Lot 3609 for the scheduled widening of Wayside and Liaoyang Roads.

In reply I have to inform you that for the reasons set forth in the Council's letter of December 5, 1930, the Council is unwilling to offer any compensation for this area. The matter will accordingly be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

With regard to the surplus land fronting Cadastral Lot 3609 I have to confirm Mr. Lang's telephone message that transfer is being arranged for Wednesday, February 4, at 11 a.m. at H.B.M. Consulate-General. Mr. Lang will sign on behalf of the Council. It should be noted that payment of the agreed sum of Tls. 770 will be required at the time of transfer.

In accordance with the request contained in the last paragraph of your letter the Commissioner of Public Works will issue a building permit in respect of the surplus land on application in the usual way.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON AND MORRISS.

CASE No. 209.

Scheduled Widening of Nanking and Shanse Roads, Cadastral Lots 235A, 235B, 235C, 235D, and 235E, heard in the Council Chamber on Friday, December 19, commencing at 4.00 p.m.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Morriss, of Messrs. Lester, Johnson, and Morriss, appears on behalf of the registered owners; Mr. Jones, Deputy Secretary, represents the Council.

Opening his case, Mr. Morriss states he has little to add to the arguments adduced in his firm's letters to the Council of June 27, 1930, and August 21, 1930, (reproduced in the "Municipal Gazette" of September 26, 1930). He maintains that the only real way to arrive at the value of the property was to compute it on a normal development basis. His claim had been reduced as soon as information had been received that the cost of the buildings would be more than at first estimated, so that instead of claiming at the rate of Tls. 413,027 per mow his present claim works out at the rate of Tls. 387,000 per mow. This is much lower than the market value of holdings in the near vicinity as indicated by recent sales and offers. The situation of his client's property gives it a high value which is particularly true of the corner site and having regard to its size and shape.

Mr. Jones, replying for the Council, says that the area of the property in question is mow 1.699, of which the scheduled portion is mow 0.390. The owner's original claim was at the rate of Tls. 413,027 per mow, now reduced to Tls. 387,000 per mow. The Council is not now prepared to pay anything at all for reasons which he would advance presently.

Assessed Value (1927):—Cadastral Lot 235A Tls. 110,000 per mow.
Assessed Value (1927):—Cadastral Lot 235C Tls. 100,000 per mow.
Assessed Value (1927):—Cadastral Lot 235D Tls. 100,000 per mow.
Assessed Value (1927):—Cadastral Lot 235B Tls. 120,000 per mow.
Assessed Value (1927):—Cadastral Lot 235E Tls. 50,000 per mow.
New Assessed Value: Tls. 175,000 per mow.

The Council had not received any protest or representations that the recent assessment is in any way unfair.

The claim is formed on the traditional basis of rentals obtained or rentals which the owners hoped to obtain from the development of the remainder of the property, but nothing had been presented to show that a loss would ensue from the surrender of the required land, and as he had often repeated "no loss no compensation" according to the Land Regulations. The Council is not concerned with market values. In this case there had been a setting back of the property but the frontage remained, and it was important to remember that it was an unimpaired frontage and an improved one because of the widening of the road. The claimants had not adduced any statement of loss because of the setting back to the new building line and were not entitled to do so now. All they had done was to show an improved value of Tls. 387,000 per mow.

For the sake of argument, continued Mr. Jones, if the owners expected to receive payment according to market value or on a figure based on rentals, they logically should lose all the benefits of ownership in the land surrendered. However, the Council was not acquiring the land in ownership; if it were, it would be entitled to build on it and exercise all the elements of ownership including rights to the air above and the soil beneath. Reference to the plans of the buildings showed that a verandah some 6 feet wide would be built all along the frontage and if the Council possessed all the benefits of ownership it should get a set off for such canopies over the land which it had paid for. These "canopies" gave additional value to the buildings and this benefit should accrue to the Council. The plans also revealed buildings of three stories only and a tower. Whatever the reasons which actuated the owners in this matter were immaterial but it was important to note that they could have erected a building of much greater height, up to 84 feet (or by application to the Council perhaps even higher) owing to the proposed widening of the road.

Mr. Morriss responds by saying that he still maintains that a normal development of the property is the only proper basis to compute the value of the land. It is preposterous to contend that the owners should make a free surrender of the scheduled area, which is not in accordance with the rules of the Land Regulation. The plans, contrary to what Mr. Jones states, are losing something; they lose land and land means, obviously, money. Moreover the land must be considered as a whole and not by sections. As regards betterment the Council had not laid any claim to that feature before and it is hardly appropriate to mention it now. He conceived that the Council is widening the roads not so much in the interests of property owners but because they are driven to do it through the exigencies of traffic.

Mr. Morriss leaves plans of the new building showing the rentals marked thereon, also a Cadastral plan of the central district showing recent sales on Nanking Road.

Mr. Jones receives permission to repeat that the claimants are only losing certain limited elements of ownership and are not losing freedom of access, light, the right to build the projecting balcony and substratum rights. If the claimants were to get the price they ask the Council should be placed in the position of a buyer of that strip of frontage with full rights to build thereon to the exclusion of all the claimant's rights of ownership. To this Mr. Morriss retorts that the Council has no power to take land from the frontage of property and deprive it of the attributes mentioned.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That compensation be paid to the registered owner in the sum of Tls. 81,070 for the area scheduled for surrender.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Friday, February 13, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:— Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, G. W. Sheppard, Z. C. Zing, the Treasurer and Controller, the Commissioner of Public Works, Mr. H. F. Lewis (Secretary to the Land Assessors) and the Deputy Secretary (Mr. J. R. Jones).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Land Assessment Appeals.—The appeals in respect of the Western District are submitted with comment thereon by the Land Assessors. These are considered and the assessments recommended by the Land Assessors are upheld subject to the following exceptions as to which the revised figures received from the Land Assessors are endorsed by the Committee.

Cad. Lot	Appellants	Revised per mow	Reduced Rate Assessment recommended
		Tls.	Tls.
396	T. E. Trueman	25,000	23,000
2724	Davies & Brooke	16,000	12,000

Special consideration is given to the appeals received against the revised assessments placed upon properties occupied by three charitable and semi-charitable organizations, i.e., the Chow Wei Guild, the China Inland Mission and the Foreign Y. M. C. A. In view however of the Council's policy, whereunder relief in approved cases is afforded by an abatement in General Municipal Rate, members are unable to support the appeals against the increased assessments placed on these properties and the figures recommended by the Land Assessors are accordingly upheld.

General Municipal Rate—Assessment Committee.—Relative to the Council's decision of December 5 last, the Deputy Secretary submits a memorandum suggesting the names of representatives to serve on this Committee. A suggestion that a Japanese gentleman should also be elected to the Committee is endorsed. In this connection members agree that as the election of an additional member will reduce the work of the individual members the fees to be paid to the outside members should be reduced in order that the aggregate amount of the fees payable be not exceeded.

Members unanimously recommend that the constitution of this Committee be as follows:—

Mr. H. F. Lewis (representative of the P.W.D.)

Mr. C. Comery, (representative of the Revenue Office.)

Mr. A. P. Nazer (foreign outside member.)

A Chinese Gentleman to be nominated by the Chinese Property Owners' Association.

A Japanese Gentleman, a nomination as to whom will be submitted by Mr. Fukushima.

With regard to the remuneration to be paid to the outside members, as at the moment it is somewhat difficult to forecast the amount of work entailed, the Treasurer's proposal is endorsed that he should confer with the Commissioner of Public Works as to the basis thereof and thereafter submit his recommendation for the Committee's consideration.

Taxation—Abatements and Exemptions.—An application is submitted by the Shanghai Chinese Ratepayers Association forwarding a request by the China Relief Society for exemption from General Municipal Rate of the property utilized as its Headquarters. It is noted that at present general Municipal Rate is assessed on a reduced rateable value.

Yangtszepoo Social Centre.—An application from this Institution that the extension to the property No. 84 Yangtszepoo Road be exempted from the payment of General Municipal Rate is also submitted. The Assistant Commissioner of Revenue states that this property was originally utilized as a hospital and as such was exempted from payment of Municipal Rate in 1919. The hospital was subsequently transferred to another building and the authorized exemption is still in force. The building is now utilized for educational and social purposes and the extension in respect of which exemption is now applied for is to be used as a children's clinic and staff quarters. The amount of the demand rate forwarded in respect thereof is based on the actual rateable value. He suggests that if it is the Council's wish that generous treatment should be accorded this Institution, an abatement of one half rates should be granted. Although in respect of the main building the suggested reduction is based on the nominal assessment already notified the applicants he considers that in future cases such abatement should be estimated on the actual rateable value of the property concerned.

For members' information, the Deputy Secretary outlines the Council's policy under which total or partial exemption from taxation is accorded in respect of hospitals, churches, schools, temples, cemeteries, etc.

The Chairman is of the view and members concur that the system under which exemptions from taxation are accorded is haphazard and possibly inconsistent and that a revision of policy in this respect is called for.

In supporting this view, the Treasurer states that he is informed by the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue that it is extremely difficult to ascertain from the official records precisely the extent of such exemptions. In his view a complete schedule of properties enjoying total or partial exemption should be compiled for the Council's information. The exemptions from taxation accorded would thereafter appear in the Council's records as relief grants. In the near future, the Council will have under consideration the question of grants to educational establishments; under the existing system the Council gets no credit for the substantial amount represented by abatements on Municipal taxation and this in his opinion is to be deprecated. Some time must elapse before the proposed schedule is completed; in the meantime he suggests that applications for exemption should as heretofore be considered on their merits.

After discussion, members unanimously endorse the Treasurer's proposal that a schedule of exempted properties be prepared whereafter the question as to whether or not the existing policy requires revision will be further considered.

In respect of the two applications above referred to it is recommended that in the case of the China Relief Society it be pointed out to the Society that the taxation paid on their premises is based on the actual rental paid and not on the assessed value and that taxation on this reduced figure will be continued until the general question of exemptions receives further consideration. Yangtszepoo Social Centre. In this case members endorse the recommendation of the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue that in view of the semi-charitable nature of this organization a rebate of one half rates be accorded in respect of the main building (which has been exempted since 1919) a similar abatement to be accorded in respect of the building newly erected.

Grants-in-aid—Lao Kung (Shanghai Labour) Hospital.—In respect of an application by this Hospital for a grant-in-aid of $2,000 per month and having regard to the comment thereon by the Commissioners of Police and Public Health, the Treasurer has suggested that the Commissioner of Public Health be asked to comment later in the year on the manner in which this Institution functions as a summer diseases hospital when if satisfactory the question of a grant of from Tls. 500 to Tls. 1,000 could be considered.

A member points out that the understanding of the Commissioner of Public Health that this Institution does not remain open all the year is incorrect since he is informed that the Hospital functions all the year. The Chairman undertakes to take up this question personally with the Commissioner of Public Health; in the meantime an amount as suggested by the Treasurer will be included in the Budget under the heading "Miscellaneous Grants."

Grant-in-aid.—Shanghai Public Benevolent Cemetery.—The Chairman refers to the application of this organization for an increase in the annual grant-in-aid and the recommendation of the Treasurer and Controller that this be increased to $10,000 for 1931. Although this recommendation has already been approved by circular, from further departmental reports since received it transpires that no financial assistance is accorded this organization by the Municipality of Greater Shanghai and that one contribution only of Tls. 2,500 has been made by the French Municipality. In the absence of financial support from the Greater Shanghai Municipality and some assurance that corpses are not being dumped in the Settlement from Chinese territory, the Chairman questions the advisability of periodically increasing this annual grant. At his request a member undertakes to bring these views to the attention of the Organization and pending his report members decide to rescind their former recommendation as to the increase in the annual grant for the current year.

The meeting terminates at 5.30 p.m.

Parks Report for January.

Climatic Conditions.—Exceptionally cold weather was experienced during the month under review, 19 rights of frost being recorded. The lowest temperature was recorded on January 10 when 20 degrees of frost were registered at Jessfield Park, the highest temperature recorded being 64° Fahrenheit on January 4.

During the period January 9 to 16 the mean temperature was 31.7° Fahr., the mean for December being 45.2°.

The sharp frosts following the comparatively mild weather experienced during December, which had encouraged growth, severely reduced prospects of a bountiful supply of Spring flowers, many species of hardy annuals being totally destroyed.

Certain evergreen shrubs and trees show evidence of the cold to which they were subjected, the foliage of some species being turned black, all one year old wood being killed; others suffered in a lesser degree, the foliage being only slightly discoloured.

Subjects which suffered most were the following:—

Ligustrum lucidum. Cinnamomum camphora, Viburnum odoratissimum, Osmanthus fragrans, Nerium odorum and Laurus nobilis.

Municipal Conservatories.—A good display of flowering plants in season was on view during the month, a noteworthy feature being Bauhinia blakeana, specimens of which flowered for the first time.

General.—The playing spaces at Hongkew Park received special attention with a view to these grounds being fit for play on every possible occasion.

The construction of a pathway at the ladies' lavatory, Public Garden, was completed.

Preliminary work connected with the planting of roadside trees was carried out and tree pruning operations were continued.

1930 Census.

Density of Population.

The following report on the density of population in the Settlement under the 1930 Census has been submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works:—

The taking of the last census, in October 1930, was upon a somewhat different basis from all previous ones, inasmuch as the sub-sections of Police districts, numbering 49 in all, were taken as working and compilation areas instead of the four major districts only as heretofore. By this comparatively small change much more valuable information is available for statistical purposes which will prove of general interest and of great value to all departments of the Council.

In this issue is printed a plan showing the densities of the various areas, and although it is unfortunate that there are large differences in the size of the sub-section, there is considerable opportunity for useful comparison.

Past census figures for the Central District show the maximum census year to have been 1920, with a diminishing population in 1925 and virtually a stationary one in 1930, as follows:—,

	Foreigners	Chinese	Total
1915	1,649	139,854	141,503
1920	1,574	156,254	157,828
1925	1,583	130,477	132,060
1930	1,867	130,388	132,255

There seems considerable reason for suggesting that the census of 1925, owing to conditions prevailing at the time, was not quite a normal one and was probably understated.

An examination of the density map shows that the area East of Kiangse Road has a night population less than one-quarter of any other part of the Central District, and it is a reasonable assumption that the loss in population since 1920 has been in these two sub-sections and has been caused by the erection of large modern office buildings and a consequent reduction in residential quarters and houses. These two small areas include the foreshores of the Soochow Creek and Whangpoo River, but, if these are excluded, the densities would then be 63 and 81 instead of 50 and 68 and would still contain a night population of less than one-third the density of any other sub-sections in the Central and Northern Districts.

It is to be expected that this reduction in night population will extend gradually both West and North and thus add to the ebb and flow of daily traffic.

In the Northern District the densest area is that bounded by Tsepoo Road on the North, North Chekiang Road on the West, North Honan Road on the East and the Soochow Creek on the South. Most of the properties are very old and there is probably a high density of occupation as well as of building. There is, however, also a marked deficiency in road space, and when the North Fokien, Tiendong, Fatshan and Tsepoo Road widenings and extensions can be carried out in their entirety, there will be an appreciable increase in the area of road and yard space compared with building space. The area West of the above shows a sharp drop from 445 per acre to 281 and this reduction is to be accounted for by the inclusion in the area of the Mixed Court premises, the Fu Yun Tang Cemetery, and numerous godowns and other premises which provide little sleeping accommodation.

Comparing the whole of the Central District with the Northern, the densities are:—

Central 281 per acre.
Northern 370 „

The two districts together measure 977 acres or 1.526 square miles and show a density of population of 325½ per acre or 209,650 per square mile.

These densities are very high and are greater, for example, than that of any London Borough, the most densely populated of which at the present time is Shoreditch.

It is in the Eastern District (Harbin Road Police District, Subsection 2) where the greatest density, 494 per acre (82 per Mow), has been recorded. The area upon which the computation is made is the smallest, but when taken with the adjoining area on the East, the two still give the highest density. Here, again, some important road improvements will in time reduce the area of land available for development. Incidentally, it is in this area that it was proposed last summer to purchase some 30 mow of land for development as a small park. It will be observed that subsection 1 of Harbin Road Police District shows a density of 219. This comparatively low figure on a small area is entirely due to the removal of a large number of houses pending rebuilding; a year ago, this sub-section would have shown a density of about 400 per acre.

It may be observed, in conclusion, that the density over the whole Settlement (5,584 acres) is 178 per acre.

It seems quite probable that in the course of the next 15 years the population within the present boundaries of the Settlement will increase to about 1,500,000.

Police Report for January.

The following table shows the number of crimes that came to the knowledge of the Police during the month under review:—

Nature of offence	Reported during the month.	Reported during previous month.	Corresponding month, for 1930.
Murder	1	6	5
Attempted Murder	2	2	4
Manslaughter	1	1	0
Armed Kidnapping	2	4	4
Abduction	12	6	9
Armed Robberies	81	70	134
Other Robberies	13	13	27
Being Member of a Criminal gang.	8	6	12
Housebreaking, Office, Shop, etc.	61	71	69
Burglary	74	62	86
Thefts	738	705	826
Receiving Stolen property	7	10	7
Snatching	82	86	116

Gambling Offences	28	93	13
Total	1,444	1,467	1,711

The total reported crime for the month of January shows a very appreciable decrease as compared with the figure of reported crime for the corresponding month of the previous year. There is a slight decrease as compared with the figure of reported crime for the previous month. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division (Central and Louza) 476 cases as against 469 in December.
B Division (Sinza, Bubbling Well, Gordon Road, Pootoo Road) 324 cases as against 340 in December.
C Division (Hongkew, West Hongkew, Dixwell Road) 318 cases as against 360 in December.
D Division (Harbin Road, Wayside, Yangtszepoo) 327 cases as against 298 in December.

1107 persons were arrested for crime committed during the month as against 1150 in December. In addition 75 persons were arrested for crime committed in previous months and 48 persons were arrested on behalf of outside authorities.

One case of murder was reported, the victim having died as the result of a shot fired at him by an armed highway robber. There were two cases of attempted murder, one believed to have been at the instigation of a former sweetheart of the victim's wife, and one being an attempt on the life of a Chinese constable who was chasing an armed robber who fired a shot at the constable without result and who was captured. There were two cases of armed abduction, one of which was an unsuccessful attempt and one the work of armed robbers who after ransacking a house in West Hongkew district, took away a child who was next morning recovered by the French Police in a small hotel. There were 12 cases of simple abduction. Cases of armed robbery increased from 70 to 81 which, however, is very much lower than the figure for the corresponding month last year. The cases were distributed as follows:—

Division A 25 cases as against 23 in December.
Division B 21 cases as against 23 in December.
Division C 7 cases as against 14 in December.
Division D 28 cases as against 10 in December.

D Division was responsible for the increase. A large number of the cases occurred in the first half of the month, and special steps taken to deal with the situation resulted in a noticeable decrease towards the end of the month. There were 13 cases of other robberies. Eight criminal gangs were dealt with as such as against 6 in December. The number of burglaries was 74 as against 62 in December. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division 14 cases as against 14 in December
B Division 22 cases as against 12 in December
C Division 21 cases as against 10 in December

D Division 17 cases as against 26 in December

B and C Divisions show appreciable increases for which no definite reasons can be found.

The number of housebreakings was 61 as against 71 in December. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division 20 as against 24 in December
B Division 19 as against 17 in December
C Division 7 as against 7 in December
D Division 15 as against 23 in December

The 738 cases of simple theft were distributed as follows:—

A Division 242 cases as against 214 in December
B Division 171 cases as against 190 in December
C Division 178 cases as against 174 in December
D Division 147 cases as against 127 in December

A slight increase in cases of pocket picking is shown in the report of A Division, as also a slight increase in cases of bicycle theft. There were 82 cases of snatching as against 86 in December. The cases were distributed as follows:—

A Division 45 as against 41 in December
B Division 14 as against 10 in December
C Division 14 as against 21 in December
D Division 9 as against 14 in December

The district mainly affected was Louza with 38 cases.

The apparent large decrease in gambling cases is explained by an unusually high figure for December, due to raids made. Other forms of crime call for no comment.

Notable work in A Division included (1) the arrest of three Chinese loiterers who on search were found to be in possession of 2 loaded pistols and who were proved to be armed robbers, (2) Arrest of a gang of 8 men wanted for kidnapping in Ningpo; the leader admitted having taken part in a number of armed kidnappings in the Settlement and elsewhere, (3) Arrest by a Chinese Police constable in the face of heavy fire of a fleeing armed robber. Notable work in C Division included (1) Arrest of a gang of 12 persons and seizure of 2 pistols. The gang were responsible for 5 armed robberies and 6 burglaries, (2) Arrest of a gang of 6 persons who were found to have committed 18 burglaries in different parts of the Settlement, (3) Arrest of a gang of 10 persons and seizure of four pistols. Members of the gang were proved to have been concerned in 5 cases of armed robbery and a case of armed kidnapping. Notable work in D Division included (1) the arrest of 2 armed robbers and seizure of 2 pistols by a posse of police who answered a call that an armed robbery was in progress, (2) arrest of 3 armed robbers in another case by a posse of police, answering a call. Such cases give ample evidence that quick and intelligent communication of information to the Police have very satisfactory results.

The following cases which are included in the month's figures occurred in B Division outside Settlement Limits on or in houses abutting on Council Roads.

Theft	12	cases
Armed robbery	1	,,
Breaking	1	,,
Threatening letter	1	,,
Miscellaneous	4	,,

The Headquarters special detective squad conducted special enquiries in 39 important cases, including armed kidnapping, murder and burglary cases.

Property, valued at $197,846 was alleged to have been stolen in cases reported during the month as against property valued at $253,953 in December. The total value is made up as follows:—

A Division	$81,863
B ,,	$38,739
C ,,	$54,434
D ,,	$22,810

Property, valued at $64,684 was recovered during the month.

Finger Print Bureau.—During the month of January 1931 the total number of records received by the Bureau from all sources was 1738, an increase of 51 compared with last month and an increase of 39 from the corresponding month of last year.

1603 Gaol Cards were received during the month for verification of Prisoners thumb prints and sentences.

6 bodies of unknown Chinese who had met their deaths under various circumstances were photographed and finger printed at the Public Mortuary and identity established in one case.

The Crime Branch Studio took 200 photographs and printed 804 copies during the month.

The single finger print system, known as the Battley System, has been introduced into the Bureau and should prove an asset in assisting in the identification of single finger prints found at the scenes of crimes. This system has recently been adopted at New Scotland Yard where it has already proved its worth.

Political. Anti-Government Propaganda.—No activity other than that of communistic origin came to notice during the month. A Chinese arrested on January 6 by the Municipal Police, at the request of the Chinese Authorities, on a charge of participation in the assassination on May 18, 1916, of General Chen Chi-mei, ex-Tutuh of Shanghai, was ordered by the Court to be handed over to the Chinese Authorities for trial.

Communism. Raids on Bases.—Between January 17 and 21 a series of 13 raids took place on communistic bases in various parts of the Settlement and resulted in the arrest of 35 persons and the seizure of large quantities of communistic documents and literature. Of the prisoners 32 were ordered by the Court to be extradited to the Chinese Authorities while two others, females, were released on substantial security. The remaining prisoner proved to be a native of Formosa and was accordingly handed over to the Japanese Consular Authorities to be dealt with. It is noteworthy that the prisoners, with the exception of two, were natives of provinces other than Kiangsu, the majority hailing from "red" infested areas, and statements made by them coupled with the literature seized, pointed to their having no bona fide business in Shanghai and further that their stay here had been of short duration. In addition to the foregoing series, raids were carried out on two bases, resulting in the seizure of literature and arrest of ten persons. Of these prisoners, three were released on security while the case against the remaining 7 had not concluded at the end of the month.

Prosecution of distributors of literature and demonstrators.—Nine persons arrested on various dates throughout the month for distributing communistic literature were likewise under remand. Of 5 persons apprehended for participating in a demonstration on Nanking Road on December 11, the anniversary of the Canton Uprising, one was sentenced to a year's imprisonment and one was released on shop security while the case against the remaining three was dismissed. The Police have lodged an appeal against the Court's decision in respect of the last three prisoners. Of seven persons under remand from December 6 were sentenced to terms of imprisonment and one was released on security.

Raids on Bookstores for pro-Communistic books.—Raids made on 7 bookstores during the month resulted in the seizure of a quantity of pro-Communistic books, the contents of which can scarcely be brought within the category of inflammatory. These raids were carried out on the authority of warrants issued by the Court at the instance of the Chinese Authorities. In four cases the Court ordered confiscation of the books while no decision has yet been given in respect of the remainder. The manager of one of these stores was arrested on the order of the Court, but was subsequently released on bail. The Acting Manager of a bookstore at 518 Foochow Road was arrested on January 30 on a Shanghai Special District Court warrant charging him with establishing a communistic organ. After preliminary hearing the Court ordered him to be released on $1,000 shop security.

Labour.—Of a total of six strikes occurring in the Shanghai area during January or carried on from the previous month, only the under mentioned one directly affected the Settlement:—

1. Tobacco Products Corporation, 50 Yulin Road.—In addition to the 520 workers in the tin foil department of this concern, who resumed between December 9 and 28, 1930, 210 resumed between January 6 and 9, 1931, when conditions at the factory were restored to normal. These workers struck on December 8 as a protest against the dismissal on December 6 of five of their fellow workers.

The statistics for the month are as follows:

Area	No. of strikes.	No. of hands.	No. of working days lost.
Settlement	1	210	1,440
Chinese controlled Territory	5	620	5,720

Film Censorship.—62 films were censored during the month and approved for exhibition locally. Two of these films, however, were only approved after they had been subject to cuts and revision at the request of Police censors.

Indian Matters.—Chanan Singh, who was arrested by the Public Safety Bureau on December 28, 1930, after making his escape from the custody of the Municipal Police earlier the same day, is still detained at the Public Safety Bureau Headquarters, Nantao.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 590 (16 Foreigners and 574 Chinese) of 1,708 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Accidents.—The following is a comparative table of accidents coming under police notice during the month of January, 1931, and January 1930:—

Total number of accidents	950	830

In addition to the above 211 records were received from the French Police out of which number 96 were identified in the records of this office, making the total for the month :—

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Watch Committee held on Monday, February 16, 1931, at 4-30 p.m. there are present: Messrs. N. S. Brown, Chairman, K. Fukushima, Yu Ya Ching, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer and Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

VOLUNTEER CORPS.

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

In accordance with the usual practice, the various items in the Budget of Extraordinary Expenditure are considered in conjunction with the explanatory notes thereon by the Commissioner of Public Works and are classified as follows:

(A) Those to which the Council is already committed or are considered urgent.

(C) Those for which having regard to financial and other considerations no appropriation should be made this year.

The Treasurer and Controller states that he has conferred with the Commissioner of Public Works and the Head of the Department concerned, and that the various items included in the Extraordinary budget have been tentatively classified for members' consideration.

BUILDINGS.

Magazine, Eastern District.—Tls. 6,000.—The appropriation in respect of this provision, which has been approved by past Councils, is marked "A".

ORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

The Treasurer states that, with the exception of certain items to which he has drawn attention in his report submitted, the estimates as framed call for little comment. In view of the existing unfavourable exchange situation, he has suggested and the Commandant has concurred that certain provisions involving gold commitments be deferred. He therefore proposes and members approve that the appropriation of $1,000 for replacement of the existing searchlights on the Armoured Cars be excised. The Treasurer's proposal is also approved that the disposal of a number of Karrier Trucks utilized by the Artillery Unit should be limited to two and that replacement thereof should be deferred as long as possible. Under Stock and Stores it is decided to reduce the appropriation for Vickers Guns to provide for the purchase of three instead of six as provided for in the estimates. With regard to the estimates for the Russian Unit, members note that certain adjustments in these figures will be undertaken by the Treasurer in consultation with the Commandant.

The Treasurer emphasizes that the increases in the estimates in respect of the three Departments are mainly attributable to the revised terms of service whereunder exchange compensation is issued to foreign employees on a portion of their pay and to the enhanced cost of material, etc., which has to be purchased from abroad.

FIRE BRIGADE.

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

LAND.

Point District. Station Site (Nominal), Tls. 100.—The Commissioner of Public Works states that it will be possible to utilize a municipally owned site for this purpose. At the suggestion of the Chief Officer, it is decided definitely to allocate a site for this building as early as practicable. This nominal appropriation is marked "C".

Sinza District—Station Site (Nominal), Tls. 100.—The Chief Officer reports that, although it is possible to defer this provision for a further year, the fact that the existing station abuts on to narrow roads and the inadequacy of the quarters provided for the personnel of the Station renders a new building somewhat urgent. It is directed that enquiries be instituted during the current year as to the possibility of acquiring an alternative site with a view to an appropriation therefor being included in the 1932 Budget. Meanwhile this nominal appropriation is marked "C".

BUILDINGS.

Central Station (Portion of Cost). Tls. 150,000.—This appropriation in respect of the building proposed to be erected in conjunction with the Central Police Station on Cad. Lot 174 is reduced to Tls. 100,000 and is marked "A".

Northern Depot (Nominal), Tls. 100.—The proposed site for this building not yet being available, this appropriation is marked "C". As a temporary measure, the Chief Officer is authorized to endeavour to arrange for the temporary use of a room in the Amoy Road Gaol in order to commence operations in connection with the authorized fire alarm system.

West Soochow Road Station—Tls. 190,000.—This appropriation, representing balance of cost, is marked "A".

The following appropriations are marked "C".

Wayside Station (Portion of Cost) Tls. 10,000.

Yangtszepoo Station—Quarters (Nominal) Tls. 100.

Point Station (Nominal) Tls. 100.

Sinza Station (Nominal) Tls. 100.

Brenan Road Sub-Station (Nominal) Tls. 100.

Pontoon (Nominal) Tls. 100.

ORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

In amplification of his report, submitted, the Treasurer states that since these estimates were prepared he has been able in consultation with the Chief Officer to effect certain reductions in the figures shewn. The following adjustments as proposed by the Treasurer are approved. The provision for the appointment of one additional Station Officer and one additional Assistant Station Officer for a period of three months to assume duty at the West Soochow Road Station on its completion is reduced to provision for one month. The provision for an increase of nine Sub-Officers is reduced to provide for four only, and these, if possible, will be secured locally, thus also reducing the appropriation under "Passages," etc.

In connection with these engagements, the Chairman refers to the fact that there are no Japanese employees in the Brigade and enquires whether in the interests of economy, it is possible to engage Japanese nationals in a grade to be decided. The Chief Officer states that it would be somewhat difficult to give this proposal effect owing to the lack of Japanese quarters and the possible objection of Japanese nationals to eating foreign-style food. He has received a number of applications from Japanese nationals for engagement but these he regarded as unsuitable owing to their lack of knowledge of the English language. He undertakes, however, in accordance with the Chairman's suggestion, to consider during the current year as to the feasibility of instituting a grade of Japanese employees with a view to submitting a recommendation prior to the preparation of the estimates for 1932.

With regard to the recently authorized Chinese Cadet system, the Treasurer submits that there are certain Chinese employees in the Brigade of long service who merit promotion to this rank. This would facilitate the ultimate reduction in the strength of Sub-Officers. On the assumption that opportunity will be given to senior Chinese employees to qualify for promotion, the appropriation thereunder is reduced to Tls. 5,000.

The proposed increase of six artificers is reduced to four. After consultation with the Chief Officer, he anticipates that a reduction in the appropriation for Uniform can also be effected.

The Treasurer adds that the effect of the above adjustments will result in a reduction of approximately Tls. 22,500 and reduce the increase over last year's estimated expenditure from 20 per cent to approximately 16 per cent.

Stock and Stores.—Owing to the unfavourable exchange situation, the Treasurer states that he has arranged with the Chief Officer to effect drastic reductions under this heading. The following modifications are accordingly approved:—

Motor Chassis, Tls. 8,300; deferred. One motor pump, Tls. 19,970, order therefor to be deferred until later in the year. Four Lorry Chassis, Tls. 9,650; this appropriation is reduced to provide for the purchase of two chassis. Three Inspection Cars, Tls. 6,600; appropriation reduced to provide for two cars. Two Pump Fitments, Tls. 510; appropriation reduced to provide for one Pump Fitment. Fire Alarms, Tls. 10,000; this appropriation is reduced to Tls. 5,000. Appliances and Tools, Tls. 9,000; this figure is reduced to Tls. 8,000. It is noted that the above modifications effect a reduction of approximately Tls. 45,000 and bring the total figure under this heading to approximately the same as that inserted in the 1930 Budget. The purchase of the spare parts for the Leyland Fire Engines from Messrs. Dodwell & Co. Ltd., at a cost of Tls. 6,844, advocated by the Chief Officer in a supplementary report submitted, is approved.

POLICE FORCE.

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

Site for Garage Workshop and Testing Ground (Nominal), Tls. 100.—As it is unlikely that this land will be acquired during the current year, this appropriation is marked "C".

Bubbling Well Station—Site for Quarters (Nominal), Tls. 100.—As the site of this station is leased property and as it is unlikely that a suitable site for quarters will be available, this appropriation is marked "C".

Gaol Annexe—Cad. Lots 1641/2.—Tls. 100,000.—The purchase of this property having been authorized, this appropriation is marked "A".

ORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

From the report submitted by the Treasurer and Controller, it is noted that the preliminary estimates are framed to include the Uniform and Detective Branches under the heading of "Executive Staff," the "Criminal Investigation Department" being merged therein. Separate figures are submitted for the Gaols and Reformatory and for the Legal Department. The total estimates amount to Tls. 6,428,190 or approximately Tls. 1,000,000 in excess of the 1930 requirements. This excess includes the sum of Tls. 111,440, for the additional protection measures recently authorized. With the exception of the Japanese Branch, which is to be increased by 50, and a few minor adjustments in the other Branches, the proposed strength of the Executive Staff remains the same as for 1930. The Treasurer adds that, apart from the items to which he has drawn attention in his report submitted, the estimates as framed call for little comment.

Stocks and Stores.—In respect of an appropriation of Tls. 20,000 for the purchase of 25 electric refrigerators for use in the Police messes, the Extra Commissioner of Police, in reply to the Chairman, states that this provision is included on the advice of the Departmental Medical Advisors owing to the abnormal degree of sickness amongst the personnel last summer, which it is considered might in some degree be attributable to the insanitary conditions caused by the use of the old-fashioned type of ice-box. Whilst deprecating the excision of any provision which is considered to be in the interests of the health of Police employees, members concur with the Chairman that this comparatively heavy expenditure should be postponed for the current year and that additional supervisory precautions be taken to ensure that the existing ice-boxes are kept in such a state that they do not constitute a menace to the health of those occupying departmental messes.

With regard to the estimates in respect of the Gaols, the Treasurer states that he will effect certain adjustments in the figures submitted in respect of the appropriation for Convicts' food, etc.

Subject to the above observations, and to the usual adjustments being undertaken by the Treasurer & Controller, the Estimates of Extraordinary and Ordinary Expenditure are approved for submission to the Finance Committee.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Friday, February 20, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present: Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, K. H. Ling, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Budget 1931

Ordinary Expenditure

The preliminary Estimates of Ordinary Expenditure for 1931 as submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works shew an increase on last year's figures of approximately Tls. 559,000, the greater proportion of this amount being absorbed under the headings of "General", "House Refuse Collection and Disposal" and "Roads—Maintenance." The Treasurer states that apart from the items to which he has called attention in his report submitted the estimates as framed call for little comment, matters of detail, he suggests being left as usual for adjustment between the Commissioner of Public Works and himself.

Stock and Stores.—In view of the unfavourable exchange situation and having regard to the procedure adopted in respect of other departmental estimates, the Treasurer states that the Commissioner of Public Works has concurred in his proposal to defer certain purchases which involve gold commitments. Accordingly he suggests and members approve that the following items be excised:—4 Box Cars, Tls. 12,000; 1 Motor water wagon, Tls. 10,000; 2 motor lawn mowers, Tls. 3,000; woodworking machinery, Tls. 8,500.

Replying to a member, the Treasurer states that so far as gold commitments are concerned the departmental estimates as originally framed are based on the exchange equivalent of 1s/8d to the tael. Prior to submission to the Finance Committee this will be adjusted to the equivalent of 1s/6d to the tael.

Extra-Departmental Expenditure Chief Sanitation Chemist

The total appropriation of Tls. 37,620, which represents a decrease on last year's figures of approximately Tls. 1,000, is approved.

Extraordinary Expenditure

In accordance with the usual procedure the various items in the Budget of Extraordinary Expenditure are classified as follows:—

(A) Those to which the Council has already agreed or are considered urgent.

(C) Those for which having regard to financial and other considerations no appropriation should be made this year.

The Treasurer states that following the usual practice, and with a view to facilitating the balancing of the Budget, the various appropriations have been examined by the Commissioner of Public Works and himself and tentatively classified for the Committee's consideration and approval.

Bridges

The total appropriation under this heading amounts to Tls. 136,500. The various items thereunder are marked "A" with the exception of one item of Tls. 15,000 which is marked "C".

Bundings

The total appropriation under this heading is reduced from Tls. 50,000 to Tls. 30,000 and is marked "A".

Drainage

The various items under this heading, the majority of which are in respect of drainage works in the Eastern District, are marked "A".

Sewerage

The total appropriation under this heading of Tls. 337,000, of which amount Tls. 300,000 represents provision for the general extension to the system of sewers in all districts, is marked "A".

Landing Stages

Upon the Commissioner of Public Works suggesting that the work on the development of the new Wharf on the Whangpoo River at Chemulpo Road be commenced somewhat later in the year than originally intended, it is decided to reduce the relative appropriation from Tls. 350,000 to Tls. 250,000. This is marked "A". It is noted that upon completion of the work for the filling up and bunding of this property the unrequired area will become available for re-sale.

The remaining items totalling Tls. 47,500 and representing balance of cost are marked "A".

Land.

With the exception of an appropriation of Tls. 4,500 for the filling in and laying out of the existing lily pond in Jessfield Park, which is marked "C", the various items under this heading are marked "A". With regard to the extension to the Western District Incinerator Site, it is noted that the sum of Tls. 12,000 will be adjusted to the actual amount outstanding in respect of this purchase. Bund Foreshore—Construction of Gardens, Tls. 7,000.—Prior to this expenditure being incurred, the Commissioner of Public Works undertakes to submit detailed proposals and plans for the Committee's consideration. Public Parks.—Upon a member suggesting the desirability of provision being included in the estimates for the acquisition of additional public parks, the Commissioner of Public Works is of the view that so far as Recreation Grounds are concerned such expenditure might equitably be defrayed jointly by the Council and the neighbouring Chinese Authorities by the possible purchase and upkeep of an area North of the Settlement boundary in the Yangtszepoo District. As admission to the Municipal Parks is not restricted to residents of the Settlement, he considers it inequitable that the whole of this cost should be borne by the Council. A proposal for running a regular ferry service across the Whangpoo is now under consideration and if this scheme materializes, it might alternatively be possible for the Council to contribute towards the purchase of a large area to be devoted to recreational purposes on the Pootung side of the River. The Treasurer alludes to the difficulty of balancing the Budget of Extraordinary Expenditure and states that it will only be possible to balance the Ordinary Budget by absorbing a large portion of the surplus brought forward from 1930. The inclusion of a nominal appropriation would serve little purpose, since this would not render available the funds required to finance this purchase. He therefore proposes and members concur that no appropriation be included in the Budget and that consideration of this question be deferred until a further report thereon is furnished by the Commissioner of Public Works.

Sale of Municipal Compound.—A member states that he understands that a proposal will shortly be made to the Council to exchange the Majestic Hotel property for the site of the Administration Building, the area of the former property being more than twice that of the Municipal Compound. Whilst details of this proposal are not yet available he gathers that no cash transaction would be involved. In his opinion such a proposal, if put forward, merits the most earnest consideration. The Majestic Hotel property is practically the only single large area which will become available for development as a civic centre and this area is sufficient to accommodate if desired not only the Administration Building but a Town Hall, Library, Museum, etc. After discussion members agree that this proposal, if received by the Council, should be subject to careful examination.

BUILDINGS

The total appropriation under this heading amounts to Tls. 1,064,600, the major portion of this sum representing the cost of the incinerators to be erected in the Western and Eastern Districts. The following items are marked "A".

Wuchow Road Depot—Office and Store Block (Balance of Cost) Tls. 45,000.

Incinerators:—

Western District—Tls. 500,000.
Eastern District—Tls. 425,000.

Latrines Tls. 30,000—Appropriation reduced to Tls. 20,000.

Industrial Undertaking—Capital Extensions:—

Workshops—Boundary Wall, Tls. 1,500.

Concreteware—Store Sheds, Tls. 25,000.—Appropriation reduced to Tls. 10.000.

Jessfield Park:—

Refreshment Pavilion—Tls. 7,500 —Appropriation reduced to Tls. 5,000.

Public Garden:—

Refreshment Pavilion—Tls. 7,500.

Wayside Park—Lavatory—Tls. 3,500.

The following appropriations are marked "C".

Tungchow Road Depot—Garage for Motor Trucks (Nominal) Tls. 100.

Jessfield Park:—

Quarters for Watchmen—Tls. 6,000.

Lavatories—Tls. 2,000.

Public Garden:—

Boundary Wall—Tls. 4,000.

Hongkew Park:—

Refreshment Pavilion—Tls. 7,500.

ROADS

The total appropriation for the acquisition of land for new roads, extensions, widenings, etc., amounting to Tls. 1,800,000 is marked "A".

In respect of the total appropriation of Tls. 564,350 under the heading "Road Construction", the Treasurer observes that the budget appropriation for 1930 of Tls. 364,460 will be exceeded by a sum of approximately Tls. 100,000. The increased appropriation is proposed for the current year in view of the large amount of building developments now in hand. The Commissioner of Public Works has, however, concurred in his suggestion that the total appropriation be reduced to a lump sum of Tls. 500,000. In agreeing as to the desirability if possible of restricting expenditure to this figure members adopt this proposal.

Subject to the above observations and to adjustment by the Treasurer & Controller as usual the estimates of Ordinary and Extraordinary Expenditure are approved for submission to the Finance Committee.

The meeting terminates at 6 p.m

At the meeting of the Library Committee held on Friday, February 20, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present: Dr. H. Chatley, Chairman, Mr. F. R. Barry, Mr. E. Gordon Lowder, the Chief Accountant, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

ESTIMATES FOR 1931.

The draft estimates which have been prepared by the Finance Department are submitted. Members note that the several appropriations follow closely on the lines of expenditure for 1930. With regard to Books, members doubt whether Tls. 1,800, compared with last year's expenditure of Tls. 1,730, will be adequate in view of the low exchange, and an increase to Tls. 2,000 is recommended. Members are informed that a normal supply of new books can be thus assured, and that it is not necessary to make present provision for further abnormal movements of exchange. On the same understanding, members endorse the estimate of Tls. 1,100 for Papers and Magazines.

Members consider the receipts from Subscriptions unjustifiably low. The Librarian states that there are 169 yearly subscribers, 120 half-yearly, 139 quarterly and 2 monthly, besides 133 members of the Police Force on the free list. 34 of the subscribers are Chinese. It is accordingly recommended (1) that statements regarding the facilities of the Library be published more frequently in the "Municipal Gazette," say, once a month; (2) that the Publicity Office be requested to make the Library better known in the public press, both foreign and Chinese; (3) that persons at present on the free list be required to pay, say, one-third or one-half of the usual charges, the amount to be decided by the Council, and (4) that the subscriptions be raised in accordance with the following scale:—

	Proposed rate	Present rate
Yearly	$10	$8
Half-yearly	6	4.50
Quarterly	4	2.50
Monthly	2	1

Subject to adjustment by the Treasurer & Controller as usual, the draft Estimates for 1931, with the above amendments, are endorsed.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman. Appointment of Chinese Official.—The Chairman reports that as a result of further discussion by the Special Committee its probable recommendation will be that the Chinese official to be appointed be designated "Political Adviser." In addition to this appointment it will also be recommended that an Assistant Secretary be appointed in the Secretariat. The Special Committee will submit definite recommendations on the above proposals at the next meeting.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Watch Committee of February 16 are submitted, and, subject to reference to the Finance Committee, are confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of February 20 are submitted, and, subject to reference to the Finance Committee, are confirmed.

The remaining section of the minutes dealing with the annual estimates is confirmed, subject to reference to the Finance Committee.

Majestic Property.—A member outlines the tenor of the discussion which took place at the meeting of the Works Committee yesterday on the proposal submitted to the Council for the purchase of this property. As this proposal was then discussed at length, the views of members thereon not being unanimous, a member suggests, and members concur, that consideration thereof be postponed until the minutes of yesterday's meeting have been seen by all members. As it is likely that this issue will be raised at the annual meeting of ratepayers, and decision as to purchase or otherwise reached by the foreign ratepayers, the advisability of sounding out Chinese public opinion before the Council becomes definitely committed is suggested. In agreeing as to the advisability of obtaining an expression of opinion from the Chinese Community, the Chinese members are asked to give their particular attention to the views recorded by the Works Committee, and, if possible, to obtain a representative expression of opinion of the Chinese community on this project.

Beggar Relief.—An application from the Chinese Ratepayers' Association on behalf of the Chinese Women's Temperance Association requesting the Council to afford relief to beggars within the Settlement is submitted. Prior to detailed consideration thereof, a member undertakes, at the Chairman's request, to endeavour to ascertain whether any Institution for the care of beggars exists in Chinese territory to which the Council might render financial support, in order to combat the beggar nuisance within the Settlement.

Labour and Factory Laws.—A letter from the Employers' Federation of Shanghai requesting that the Council should consider the adoption of a code of factory regulations in conjunction with the French Municipal Authorities, and, if possible, the Municipality of Greater Shanghai, and assuring the Council of its assistance in this matter, is submitted.

The Deputy Secretary states that enforcement of the Factory Laws promulgated by the National Government has been postponed to August 1 next. Although these may not then be rigidly enforced he submits that the Council should indicate its willingness to co-operate with the Government so far as possible for the purpose of ameliorating existing labour conditions.

After brief discussion, it is decided to inform the Employers' Federation that, if a Committee is formed for the purpose specified, the Council is prepared to nominate representatives thereto.

Shanghai Labourers' Hospital.—Grant-in-aid.—With reference to the recommendation recorded by the Finance Committee at its meeting on February 13, and on the further recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Health, it is decided to include in the forthcoming Budget a sum of Tls. 1000 as a grant-in-aid to this Institution.

Shanghai Public Benevolent Cemetery—Grant-in-aid.—A member undertakes within the next few days to notify the Treasurer as to the result of his conversations with representatives of the above organization with a view to affording the Council further information prior to an increased grant-in-aid for the current year being authorized.

The Municipal Gazette for Friday, March 6, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication.

The meeting terminates at 6 p.m.

Public Library and Reading Room.

Consideration has recently been given by the Library Committee and the Council to the question of bringing the facilities provided by the Public Library more prominently before the residents of the Settlement, as it is felt that a wider knowledge of these facilities will lead to greater advantage being taken of the Library.

At present, there are 169 yearly subscribers to the Library, 120 half-yearly, 139 quarterly, and 2 monthly. Of the total number of subscribers 34 are Chinese.

The Library, since its removal from the former Town Hall building, has been more conveniently situated for the public at No. 104 Nanking Road, in the building formerly occupied by the American Club. The reading-room is open from 8.30 a.m. to 8 p.m., and the Library from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2.30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The Librarian is in attendance during Library hours to give any information or advice desired by subscribers or intending subscribers.

Consequent upon the higher charges for books, etc., it has been found necessary to raise the rates for subscribers and these will, with effect from April 1, be as follows:—

Yearly Rate	$10
Half-yearly Rate	6
Quarterly Rate	4
Monthly Rate	2

Land Commission.

Point Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, November 25, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to submit herewith a claim on behalf of my client Mr. Fr. Reiber for compensation for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.187, to be surrendered from G.C. Lot No. 611, Cadastral Lot No. 1483, for the widening of Point Road, Eastern District.

After a strip of this property for the extension of Yalu Road was surrendered in 1908 at a very low valuation, because the betterment resulting from the property getting a road frontage was already then taken into account, the subsequent widening of the road is of no additional advantage to the owner.

My claim is therefore:—

Area to be Surrendered: Mow 0.187. at Tls. 12,000.00 per mow
=Total amount of claim. Tls. 2,244.00

I wish to point out to you that the price given per mow is the lowest market value at which at present land is obtainable in this location.

I remain,
Yours faithfully,
H. FITTKAU.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works,

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 13, 1930.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 25 addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works requesting on behalf of Mr. F. Reiber compensation at Tls. 12,000 per mow for the surrender of Mow 0.187 from G. C. Lot 611, Cadastral Lot 1483, required for the scheduled widening of Point Road.

In reply thereto I am directed to inform you that the Council is unwilling to pay compensation at this rate but offers instead Tls. 6,000 per mow making a total payment of Tls. 1,122. This is the rate at which the Council recently acquired land adjoining Cadastral Lot 1483 on the East for the widening of the same road.

With regard to the surrender in 1908 alluded to in your letter I have to point out that though the title deed of B.C. Lot 6206 (now G.C. Lot 611) included land in the original road, indicated on the official plan, this land had already been acquired by the Council from the Chinese owner previous to Consular registration. Moreover had the area not been previously surrendered it would have become subject on registration to compulsory free surrender in accordance with Land Regulation VI.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

H. FITTKAU, Esq.

Shanghai, February 27, 1931.

DEAR SIR.—In reply to your letter of December 13, 1930, I have to inform you that my client is unwilling to accept compensation for the portion of Cad. Lot 1483, surrendered to the Council at the rate of Tls. 6,000.00 per mow, and requests that the compensation due to him be determined by the Land Commission.

The surrender of the road-land was compulsory and not in the interest of my client.

Yours faithfully,
H. FITTKAU.

J. R. JONES, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary.

This settlement renders unnecessary the reference of the case to the Land Commission following on correspondence with Messrs. ESTIMATES 1931

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURE BUILDINGS

Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Boys Hostel — Tls. 175,000.—This appropriation, representing balance of cost for this building which is in course of erection, is marked "A".

Junior Boys School, Western District (nominal) Tls. 100.—In a memorandum submitted, the Superintendent of Education alludes to the recommendation recorded by the Board in December last as to the desirability of definite steps being taken to provide a permanent building for this school.

Although the Board has previously recorded the view that, unless there is the prospect in the near future of acquiring a permanent building, it would be preferable to close the existing unsatisfactory temporary buildings, members concur with the Chairman that adoption of this course is to be deprecated if there are reasonable grounds for assuming that permanent provision will be available within two years. This nominal appropriation is marked "A".

Public & Thomas Hanbury School for Girls. (Portion of Cost)—Tls. 100,000.— This appropriation, in respect of the building to be erected on a portion of the site of the former Victoria Nursing Home, is marked "A". The Commissioner of Public Works states that it is not anticipated that the site will become available until the Autumn and that building operations will commence towards the end of the year.

ORDINARY EXPENDITURE

The estimates of Ordinary Expenditure for the Municipal Foreign Schools, copies of which have been furnished to members together with comment thereon by the Treasurer & Controller, are considered. The Heads of the respective schools attend during consideration of the estimates submitted by them.

The Treasurer informs members that the increase in the estimated expenditure of the several schools is mainly attributable to the revised terms of service recently authorized by the Council, and that this factor automatically re-acts on the ratio of receipts to expenditure. Subject to the following observations and modifications, and to adjustment as usual by the Treasurer & Controller, the estimates in respect of the Thomas Hanbury School for Girls, the Public Schools for Girls, Yu Yuen Road and Boone Road, and the Public & Thomas Hanbury School for Boys are approved for submission to the Finance Committee.

Public & Thomas Hanbury School for Boys.—The Treasurer reports that, as a result of a recent conference with the Headmaster, it has been possible to effect certain adjustments in the estimates and these are now submitted for members' approval. Assistant Masters—Provision for the additional Master budgeted for is excised and the provision for three temporary masters to replace members of the staff on long leave has been reduced to provide for the engagement of one temporary master. The total adjustments effect a reduction in the figures as shewn of approximately Tls. 25,000.

Laboratory.—The Treasurer states that in agreement with the Headmaster the total appropriation under this heading has been reduced from Tls. 4,500 to Tls. 2,500 and that under Maintenance and Repairs from Tls. 1,700 to Tls. 1,200.

Stock & Stores.—By the elimination of certain items under this heading as enumerated by the Treasurer, the total appropriation is reduced by Tls. 1,110.

Junior School for Boys.—Provision for the additional assistant master estimated for is, with the concurrence of the Headmaster, excised, and the appropriation for furniture and new desks under Stock & Stores is reduced from Tls. 600 to Tls. 300.

Education Office.—It is noted that the estimates for the Education Office include provision for the engagement of a Secretarial Assistant to the Superintendent of Education. In view of the onerous nature of the duties undertaken by the Superintendent of Education, members are of the view that this appointment should be proceeded with without delay. It is noted that the rates of pay included for the Chinese Staff will be adjusted to conform to those laid down in the General Terms and Conditions of Service applying to the Chinese Staff.

Plans for Western District Primary School.—Detailed plans of this building, as prepared and submitted by the Public Works Department, are formally approved.

Grants-in-aid.—A member refers to the desirability of an early recommendation being forwarded to the Council as to the amount to be included in the current estimates in respect of subsidies to existing educational establishments. The Treasurer suggests, and members concur, that it might be advisable during the current year to insert an arbitrary amount for this purpose, leaving details as to the basis of distribution for further consideration. The Chairman states that he anticipates the Sub-Committee will be in a position to report as to this at the next meeting of the Board.

The meeting terminates at 6.25 p.m.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, March 3, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present: Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, T. Funatsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Majestic Hotel Site.—Consideration is given to an offer received from the Shanghai Land Investment Company to sell the Majestic Hotel property to the Council for the sum of Tls. 3,500,000 nett.

Having regard to the numerous proposals which have been advanced in the press as to the various uses to which this site might be put, the Chairman suggests that consideration of this proposition would be facilitated if at the outset the Committee could form a definite opinion as to the desirability or otherwise of this site being utilized for accommodating the Municipal building.

A member strongly advocates this purchase primarily for the reason that thereby the Council would acquire a large open space. In his opinion, the price asked is reasonable, although the value of the existing hotel buildings to the Council is negligible since it is improbable these could be suitably adapted for any municipal purpose. This factor, however, should not influence the Council in its consideration of the purchase of this site. He points out that in the past the Council has not taken full advantage of opportunities to acquire sites in districts which have now become densely populated and although at the moment the Western District is less congested than others he considers that within a few years the increased density of population in the Western District will render the need for additional public spaces imperative, although it may then be found impossible to obtain such. In certain letters appearing in the press, the point has been made as to the capital and interest charges which will be involved by this purchase; he submits, however, that such remarks are irrelevant to the question of the provision of cultural and civic amenities and should be disregarded. From discussions of this project with his Chinese friends, it is evident that they are strongly in favour of this site being acquired by the Council. Replying to the Chairman as to whether he advocates the removal of the administration block to this site, this member states that his advocacy of the purchase is primarily based on the ground of obtaining an additional public space, irrespective of the nature of its ultimate development.

As the report submitted by the Treasurer & Controller, it is noted that he anticipates that this purchase could be financed without recourse to an immediate loan; the growing burden on the ordinary budget will, however, be added to by a sum approximating Tls. Tls. 200,000—Tls. 225,000 per annum.

A member points out that at this stage the project under consideration is not in the form of a proposal to be submitted by the Council to the Ratepayers but one urged by a number of ratepayers for the Council's endorsement. Advocacy of this purchase is based on various grounds. So many possible uses for this site have been suggested that he doubts whether in the event of its purchase the use to which it was ultimately put would satisfy all those who now so strongly urge its acquisition. Briefly, these may be classified under three headings:—(1) to provide for the removal of the existing administration building; (2) to provide cultural and civic amenities; (3) to provide an open space. He is unable to support the first proposal since in his opinion the existing location of the administration building is eminently more suitable. In this view members generally concur.

Replying to the Chairman, another member states that he favours this purchase at the reduced price now demanded by the Land Investment Company with a view to its ultimate development as a Civic Centre: at the same time he concurs with the Chairman that such demand by a certain section of the Chinese Community that this be acquired by the Council is actuated to a large extent by their desire that the amenities of the existing ballroom be retained.

In amplification of the views expressed in his report, submitted, the Commissioner of Public Works states that the Investment Company has disposed of a portion of the property, of an area of approximately two mow, at a very high price. Although the impression may be gained from his report that he is opposed to this purchase, he desires to point out that he fully appreciates the desirability and importance of the provision of a Civic Centre. On the other hand, he is impressed by the inadequacy of the existing provision of open spaces; if, therefore, the purchase of this property operates to the detriment of the provision of additional open spaces in the more congested districts he considers this would be calamitous.

Upon the Chairman observing that two of the members above quoted did not dissent from the view recorded recently by the Council that so far as concerns the provision of open spaces, the Northern and Eastern Districts should take precedence, one of these members states that he does not consider that the purchase of the Majestic property should be allowed to prejudice the acquisition of areas in the other districts if and when they become available. Upon his reiterating his views as to the low rate of taxation in Shanghai, the Chairman alludes to the serious situation which arose with the Chinese Community when the Council increased its taxation by 2 per cent. In his view, a similar situation would obtain in the event of the Council being compelled to increase taxation to meet commitments which, generally speaking, did not meet with the approval of that community.

In answer to an enquiry as to whether there is sufficient space in the Municipal Compound to erect a Town Hall and other Civic amenities, the Commissioner of Public Works replies in the affirmative, although this might involve the rebuilding of the drill hall on another portion of the site. Owing to the type of construction of this structure, this could be effected at a comparatively low cost.

A member suggests that apart from the desire of a section of the community that this property be purchased by the Municipality in order to secure the retention of the existing ballroom, it would appear that the public does not realize that a Town Hall can be provided on the site of the Municipal Compound. He considers that the public should be definitely informed as to this. In supporting this view, the Chairman observes that the public generally have also overlooked the desire of the Council to provide additional parks and open spaces in the more congested districts. The conversion of the Majestic property to an open space will primarily benefit the more wealthy sections of the community, whereas in his opinion the Council should concentrate on the provision of such additional facilities in those areas so densely populated by the poorer classes.

Upon the Treasurer enquiring whether it is anticipated that an independent resolution will be moved at the Annual Meeting for the acquisition of this property, the Chairman states that this is to be expected and that for this reason he considers that public opinion should be instructed rather than followed by the Council. Whilst he agrees that in the course of time the Western District will become more congested and require additional open spaces, it should not be overlooked that the Northern District demands such facilities immediately. Moreover, the Council has only recently purchased an area of approximately 20 mow in the Western District for conversion to an open space.

From conversations with members of the Chinese Community a member has gathered that if the existing ballroom is not retained upon acquisition of this property their support of this purchase will diminish. In this connection, he understands that a Chinese Syndicate has endeavoured to purchase a small portion of the site on which the ballroom stands solely with the object of preventing its demolition.

Another member observes that a section of the Japanese Community also has expressed the desire that the amenities of the existing ballroom should be retained. In this connection the Commissioner of Public Works states that he has been approached by representatives of the Japanese Community as to the possibility of an extension to Hongkew Park and also for the provision of a baseball ground in the Yangtszepoo District.

In adhering to his view as to the desirability of acquiring this site primarily to provide an additional open space, the first speaker states that ultimately, if so required, it could be utilized as a Civic Centre in future years, which would still enable a certain area thereof to remain undeveloped and thus provide a lung in a district which then undoubtedly will be intensely developed.

Upon the Chairman reverting to the non-provision of open spaces in the more congested districts, the Commissioner of Public Works states that he will institute enquiries forthwith as to the possibility of acquiring areas for this purpose in the Northern and Eastern Districts.

Another member expresses himself as in favour of a progressive policy for the provision of additional parks and open spaces; he submits, however, that better value could be obtained for the community by purchasing more land at cheaper rates and in the more congested districts than embarking on this heavy expenditure in a district which at present is not so greatly in need of additional facilities. He therefore proposes that the purchase of the Majestic property should be considered only in relation to the more comprehensive scheme for the provision of parks and open spaces which has already been reviewed by the Council.

Finally, the view is recorded that the removal of the Administration Building to the Majestic property, if purchased, is undesirable, and further that the existing buildings on that property are incapable of economic development for municipal purposes.

The meeting terminates at 6.20 p.m.

Parks Report for February.

Jessfield Park.—The construction of several additional crazy paving pathways was carried out and operations connected with the redesign of an area in close proximity to the Chinese Tipao's house on the western boundary were commenced.

The transplanting of trees and shrubs which have overgrown their allotted space was commenced, this work being later deferred on the approach of unfavourable weather conditions which rendered the continuance of the programme impracticable.

Zoological Garden. — Additional exhibits purchased during the month included two Cassowaries; these birds had been previously placed on deposit in the garden.

Singapore Road Park. — Preliminary work in connection with the laying out of the above Children's Playground was commenced; the levelling of this area necessitated the lifting and removal of a large quantity of trees and shrubs.

Climatic Conditions. — Overeast weather was experienced on 21 days during the month, rain or snow being registered on 11 days. In connection with the weather reports received, it is interesting to note that the total rainfall for February was 5.63 inches, which figure is 3.37 inches above the average for the month for the last 58 years.

The Municipal Gazette

BEING THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF
THE COUNCIL FOR THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT OF SHANGHAI.

Vol. XXIV. SHANGHAI, THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1931 No. 1296

THE SALARIES COMMISSION.

Shanghai, March 6, 1931.

THE DIRECTOR GENERAL,
SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

SIR,—I have the honour to summarize the work undertaken by me during my period of service with the Council.

The Council engaged me to make a full and complete investigation of its Staff with the object of making recommendations for reorganizing it upon an efficient and economical basis; at the same time I was asked to serve upon a Salaries Commission and place the results of my investigations at its disposal.

On completion the report of the Commission was entrusted to me to see it through the Committee stage and later to give effect to the recommendations as finally approved by the Council.

The recommendations have now been completely dealt with, and only a few changes of a minor character were considered necessary prior to the adoption of this comprehensive report.

As the original Report was of a technical character it was not properly understood by the general public; therefore a discursive edition has been prepared to explain difficulties which were not apparent to those accustomed to deal with such questions and also to present the Report as finally approved by the Council.

The Council now has a complete grading and scales of pay for the whole of its staff, based upon a system of merit increases introduced by myself, which removes the principal objection to automatic increases of pay in a large public service.

In addition, suitable terms and conditions of service will be in operation from April 1, 1931, the present three-yearly contract being replaced by Letters of Appointment for employees domiciled abroad or locally.

SECRETARIAT.—As the nerve centre of the Council's Administration the Director General's Office and Secretariat have received close attention.

Arising out of the past the rigid system of control exercised from the Secretariat did not lend itself to the rapidly expanding needs of the community or take into consideration the increasing responsibilities attaching to the positions of Heads of senior Departments. There was much unnecessary routine procedure, duplication of records and segregation of office work, resulting in an unduly large staff and serious delay in the conduct of public business.

Recently the Secretariat has cordially co-operated in the proposals made to decentralize work, and the combined effect of the removal of unnecessary reference, the wider range of authority granted to Heads of Departments, and the co-ordination between Departments, which has been brought about by the establishment of a series of Inter-Departmental Committees, removes a mass of routine and leaves the Secretariat freer to devote its time and attention to more important issues of administration. A reduction of some 20% has been made in the staff and marked improvement has occurred in administration work and in the despatch of public business.

The establishment of Inter-Departmental Committees is an important factor in the Council's service and will result in the removal of much correspondence, a multitude of forms, and a great deal of delay. For example, considerable difficulty was experienced in dealing with the granting of licences and inspection of premises in which four or five Departments were concerned, communication being by correspondence through the Revenue Office or Secretariat. The Departments have now been brought into direct contact by the establishment of a Licensing Board with defined powers and authority to deal direct with licensing questions. Should any serious difficulty arise with which the Board cannot cope it will be referred for adjustment to the Secretariat.

Health Department.—In dealing with the Salaries Commission recommendation regarding a Business Assistant in the Health Department, and with particular reference to the development of markets as a revenue producer, it was found that no general policy or programme had been laid down. It was therefore considered more satisfactory to arrange for the several Departments concerned to deal with the whole subject, and incidentally record the valuable experience of some of the senior men prior to their retirement. An Inter-Departmental Committee has consequently been set up to consider and report upon the subject of Markets and Slaughterhouses, with particular reference to future sites, rebuilding of old markets, scale of fees, variable charges in relation to position of stalls and amenities provided, method of allocating stalls, storage spaces, etc. Based upon this report recommendations will be made by the Commissioners of Public Works and Public Health for submission to the Council.

Further proposals regarding the reorganization of the office staff of the Public Health Department have been agreed to by the Commissioner and approved by the Council, which should remove the necessity for a highly-paid Business Assistant.

Stores.—The question of the regulation and supply of Stores has also been dealt with by the appointment of a Committee which will co-ordinate the needs of all Departments, define standard articles and stores, arrange to enlarge the scope of existing contracts, and generally act as the central purchasing agency of the Council. At its first meeting and during the preliminary discussions the usefulness and need of such a Committee was apparent. There was no Stores Officer in the Public Health Department, but this has now been rectified, and in future the Hospital and other Stores of this Department will be properly organized in conjunction with the Stores Committee.

Appointment of Chinese.—To supplement the recommendation of the Salaries Commission regarding the appointment of Chinese in the Council's service in positions of increasing responsibility, arrangements have been made in collaboration with the Heads of Departments concerned for Cadets to be appointed and trained as Assistant Engineers, Health Inspectors and Officers of the Fire Brigade.

In the Public Works Department a definite scheme of training is to be laid down for Engineering students, and those already in the service will be given opportunities for promotion in accordance with their capabilities. Only recently a foreign Assistant Engineer of six years' service resigned, and the vacancy has been filled by the appointment of a Chinese Assistant whose service and ability qualified him for the position.

There are opportunities in the Public Works Department for Clerks of Works and Inspectors, but the difficulty is to obtain Chinese with the practical knowledge, experience or capacity for controlling and directing workmen which is requisite for such positions.

In the Fire Brigade it is the intention, as soon as the Cadets are sufficiently trained, to man one station complete with Chinese sub-officers under foreign Station Officers with a view to promoting healthy rivalry in competition with other stations.

Promotions to higher ranks will take place as opportunities occur and Chinese officers are available to fill them.

The appointment of Cadets will tend to reduce the excessive hours of duty now required of officers and make for greater content in the Brigade. Additional cadets will be taken into service from time to time as vacancies occur or extra staff is required.

Arrangements have also been made in collaboration with the Commissioner of Public Health for the training of suitable candidates as Cadet Health Inspectors. Opportunities already exist for the employment of properly qualified Chinese medical doctors, analysts and laboratory staff on satisfactory scales of pay, and the numbers will undoubtedly be increased as expansion of the work of the Department demands.

In the Finance Department several Chinese employees will shortly be recommended for promotion to senior positions consequent upon reorganization proposals to be submitted by the Treasurer and Controller for the Staff Committee's consideration and approval.

The Salaries Commission's recommendations for opening up the service to Chinese in positions of greater responsibility has been usefully supplemented by the Council's Order :—

"That no foreign employees be engaged either in new appointments or to fill existing vacancies until the Staff Committee has satisfied itself that such posts could not be satisfactorily filled by Chinese."

In the Education Department, in addition to setting up a Board of Education, proposals for amalgamation of schools with a view to economy in staff and maintenance were accepted, incidentally affording wider educational facilities to the Chinese. The terms and conditions of the Hanbury Trust were reverted to, the considerable saving effected under this head being diverted to the provision of assisted education to deserving cases. The administration of all the Municipal Schools has been centralized under a Superintendent of Education with beneficial results.

Standing Orders Relating to the Council.—Spasmodic attempts had been made to revise the Standing Orders relating to the Council, its Committees, and Commissions for the last twenty years, but no definite result had been achieved. These have now been revised and brought up to date, and are at present under consideration by a special Committee appointed by the Council. It is the intention in future that all members of Council, of Committees and of Commissions should be supplied with copies on appointment, and that to emphasize their importance and prevent them from being overlooked the Secretary will be responsible for keeping them up to date and for advising all those who are authorized to be in possession of copies of any amendments, alterations or additions which may from time to time be made.

Duties and Authority of Officers.—For many years the necessity of revising the duties and defining the authority of Heads of Departments has been under consideration, but nothing tangible had resulted.

With the phenomenal growth of Shanghai the duties of Heads of Departments have become extremely onerous, and possibly nothing adds more to the nervous strain of such a position than to be given responsibility without adequate authority and to be circumscribed by unnecessary routine.

Apart from this side of the question much inter-departmental correspondence and reference occurred which has now been avoided, thus removing a considerable amount of duplication, facilitating public business, and strengthening administrative control by freeing it from unnecessary routine.

The authority of the Director General has been codified and tied in with the duties and authority of the Secretary in such a manner as to automatically bring about the absorption of the two offices into one under the title Secretariat, the Director General's title being changed to that of Secretary General. This is a suitable designation, and one which leaves the present title of Secretary untouched, although the latter's duties are modified in reference to the Council by the higher appointment.

The "Duties and Authority of Officers" are of equal importance to the Administrative Officers of the Council as the recent Terms and Conditions of Service are to the whole Staff, and conjointly form a sound basis of administration for the Council's service.

The nebulous state of affairs previously existing with regard to the Council, its Committees, its Officers and Staff, has been removed, and under the definitions laid down administration should in future be greatly facilitated and improved.

Provision has been made for the various administrative regulations to be kept under constant supervision so that they may continue to be a live and constant factor in the administrative work of the Council.

During my investigations I have been impressed with the general efficiency of the Council's service, and wish to express my appreciation of the manner in which suggestions for improvement have been welcomed by Heads of Departments, whilst their cordial co-operation in the various changes brought about has lightened my task and established its usefulness.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
A. C. Clear,
Secretary,
Salaries Commission.

Recommendations by the Salaries Commission regarding the Terms and Conditions of Service of Municipal Employees as finally approved by the Council.

The subject of the remuneration of the employees of the Shanghai Municipal Council has been one which has engaged the anxious attention of the Council at various times for the past twelve years, not only on account of the paramount necessity of attracting men of high attainments and good character to the Municipal service, but also because of the dissatisfaction with existing conditions which has at intervals been expressed by employees in various departments. This state of affairs, which commenced to become urgent at the end of the Great War, may in the main be attributed to the fact that at no time during the history of the Municipality had there been any serious attempt to co-ordinate salaries throughout the service, with the result that whatever principles with regard to remuneration did exist they had been arrived at by means which were not conducive to their permanently effective application.

It was, therefore, with a view to remedying a state of affairs which had arisen in the absence of any definite scheme for the payment of Municipal employees that the Council appointed a Salaries Commission on November 22, 1919, to consider terms of reference which the Council asked should be construed in the widest possible sense, in connection with the whole of the remuneration, benefits, etc. to be granted to the Municipality's employees.

In its report, dated March 26, 1921, the Commission laid down certain very definite rulings on the subjects of "What the Municipal Service should offer as a career," "The standard of living to which a Municipal Employee should conform," and proceeded to make the first attempt at the grading of salaries throughout the service. It is not without interest to note that Recommendation 3 of that report laid it down that :—

> "The standard to which a Municipal employee should be able to conform is the standard to which other men of similar education, age and position in other concerns in Shanghai can reasonably conform." (Municipal Gazette, April 9, 1921, page 114.)

This report was submitted to the Council, who, in order to make it effective, sought by an amendment of the Budget submitted at the Ratepayers' Meeting to raise the necessary funds. This the ratepayers refused to sanction, this decision having the effect of rendering inoperative a set of recommendations which were never in fact before them as such.

As a consequence, on July 14, 1921, the Council published a statement of their intentions, in which the following strong remarks were made :—

> "The Council considers that it would be a step fraught with the gravest possible consequences to ignore the recommendations of the Salaries Commission. In fact, it becomes more and more plain to the Council that if they are to remain responsible to the ratepayers for the proper and efficient administration of this Settlement, the staff must be sufficiently remunerated, or abuses may creep in, the best men will go, and those who replace them will not be worthy of that degree of confidence which should be reposed in the public service." (Municipal Gazette, July 14, 1921, page 254.)

Acting on that finding the Council adopted the Salaries Commission's findings, with certain modifications, and proceeded to put them into force, at a cost calculated from July 1 of that year of Tls. 73,500, to provide which certain economies were effected in the Budget already passed, amounting to Tls. 93,620. The necessary funds for a continuance of the standards of remuneration so adopted were subsequently included in last year's Budget and passed by the ratepayers.

The recommendations of the Salaries Commission thus put into force by the Municipal Council in 1921 remained in force, and the Municipal Economy Committee, in their report (published in the Municipal Gazette on February 9, 1929) stated on page 47 : —

> "With regard to the existing scales of pay, the Committee consider that so far as the lower-paid employees of the Council are concerned their salaries are generally in line with the recommendations of the Salaries Commission in 1921, and that in certain cases an increase may be justified."

Before that report had been published the ordinary increase in the cost of living had been to some extent augmented by the increase in the Customs Tariff, at the beginning of 1929, bringing about a state of affairs in the Municipal Service which was giving rise to no little dissatisfaction in certain departments. In May, therefore, the Council appointed another Salaries Commission which rendered its report in May, 1930. During its deliberations, however, from the end of December, 1929, there commenced a fall in the price of silver which so affected the increase in the cost of living that the Council was obliged in all justice to make arrangements for relief in the shape of a temporary bonus.

This arrangement was submitted to the Salaries Commission, who generally considered the Council's measure reasonable and appropriate to the purpose, but doubted the expediency of granting it to those in receipt of salaries of Tls. 1,000 and upwards.

The original relief proposal, called a "compassionate allowance," did not fully satisfy the staff as a whole, and the temporary bonus of from 15 per cent to 20 per cent on minimum pay, with a limitation of Tls. 75, was granted with retrospective effect as from January 1, 1930, to all employees, except those in receipt of over Tls. 1,000 per month.

The cost of this bonus was :—

Police	Tls. 195,000
Other Departments	Tls. 248,000

making a total of Tls. 443,000, which was included in the annual Budget for 1930 and approved at the ratepayers' meeting in that year. This bonus represented an increase to the foreign annual pay-roll of approximately 11 per cent.

The application of these temporary relief arrangements was fully considered by the Salaries Commission when it came to consider the grading of scales of pay. In approaching the question the Commission was impressed by a number of factors which ought to be more clearly placed before the ratepayers. It is impossible, because of the very special services rendered by each of the departments of the administration, to formulate any very general rules upon which such gradation may be based. In general it may be said that the work done by each is so specialized, and requires knowledge and experience of such widely differing natures, that each department has had to be considered as a separate entity, the Commission doing its best to secure a general equity of treatment throughout the service as a whole.

The special nature of each department's work may be emphasized by the fact that the Commission found there was a remarkably small degree of interchangeability in the service, and it is generally estimated that very few of the Municipal employees could be transferred from one department to another with the maintenance of adequate efficiency. This and the absence of branches as would exist in any large business undertaking tend to reduce the opportunities of a normal promotion to the occurrences within the department to which a Municipal employee belongs.

Nor is it possible to disregard another important factor, which, though it may be held to tend towards a certain degree of rapidity of promotion, should in fact give serious cause for Municipal concern. The arrangements of the Council for remuneration, superannuation, pension, etc., envisage a standard length of service for a Municipal employee at somewhere in the neighbourhood of twenty years, but figures prepared by the Municipal Treasurer indicate that the average length of service is no more than 7½ years, while between April 1929 and June 1930 no fewer than 55 employees left the service. More concrete proof of the dissatisfaction which exists among the ranks of the Municipal service it would be difficult to obtain.

In addition to fixing future scales of pay, the Salaries Commission proceeded to recommend the abolition or reduction of privileges and benefits, and the opening up of the service to Chinese in positions of greater responsibility, making the need for foreigners in the future much less than in the past, thus tending in time to diminish Municipal operating costs.

Taking all these factors into consideration, the Commission recommended to the Council that no Municipal employee should receive less than his present pay plus the temporary bonus, under the new grading, it being taken for granted that no further increases would be given until due on expiry of present agreements, or in the case of annual or biennial increases until such became due after one or two years respectively.

The effect of this recommendation is that the total cost of the new increments of pay does not exceed the temporary bonus already granted.

A study of the rates of increase for the past nine years shows that these have varied in the different departments from two per cent to six per cent, the majority being somewhere in the neighbourhood of 4.8 per cent.

Under the standard rates of graded increases—to be dealt with hereafter—upon the minimum pay of each grade the percentage will vary from nothing to six per cent, giving a new average of approximately 4.4 per cent, with the result that, supposing the cycle of admissions to the service and resignations were not maintained, the annual extra cost of the increases would be under Tls. 3,500. Thus :—

4.8 per cent on Tls. 4,000,000, the former annual pay-roll of the foreign staff	Tls. 192,000
4.4 per cent. on Tls. 4,443,000, cost of annual foreign pay-roll, plus temporary bonus, included as salary under the new grading scheme	195,492

The above figures are given for comparison only, for it must be emphasized that, assuming an average length of service of 7½ years as against the theoretical standard of twenty years, the revolution of annual change tends to bring the yearly cost of increases below the sums set out above.

The temporary bonus granted to the Chinese staff at the same time as that made to the foreign employees amounted to Tls. 281,870, of which Tls. 146,970 went to the Police Force, so that the total cost of the temporary bonus, to be absorbed into salaries to be paid under the new recommendations, will amount to Tls. 724,870.

Reorganization proposals to date will ultimately result in an annual saving of approximately Tls. 200,000, and further savings are anticipated.

In addition to this, the modification of allowances as recommended by the Salaries Commission will eventually bring about a further saving of some Tls. 90,000 per annum, though, again, this must not be taken as representing the full amount of the economies to be effected under their recommendations.

There is, however, in sight against the increases already made under the temporary bonus scheme an offset of—at the minimum, which is capable of no small increase—Tls. 300,000.

The Salaries Commission, in considering the benefits granted to Municipal employees, made the following recommendations, which have been approved by the Council, as the result of the adoption of which it is expected that considerable saving will be effected :—

Exemption from Payment of General Municipal Rates.—The policy of the Council in exempting Municipal employees from the payment of such rates is to be continued.

Exemption from Payment of Licence Fees.—The Council approves the recommendation of the Salaries Commission that the practice of exempting Municipal employees from payment of Municipal licence fees for their privately-owned vehicles be discontinued. The practice had gone down from the early days of the International Settlement, and had never received the official sanction of the Council. In the absence of a logical reason for its continuance, the Commission considered that employees should be called upon to pay such fees, and that the only exemption from such a practice should be in the case of vehicles owned by and used exclusively in the service of the Council. In this case a distinctive licence plate should be affixed to such vehicles.

Children's Bonus.—This the Commission recommended should be discontinued as being inconsistent with the Council's policy of non-differentiation between married and single employees, but to permit normal increases granted under this report to cover the present bonus under the general staff grading system it is recommended that no new children's bonuses be granted after January 1, 1931, and that immediate notice of the discontinuance of existing bonuses on December 31, 1935, be given.

Medical Aid.—The supply of free medicines and maternity benefits will under the Commission's report be discontinued. In connection with maternity benefits, notice of discontinuance on December 31, 1931, will be given to Municipal employees on January 1, 1931.

With regard to other medical benefits granted to employees, their wives and families, the Commission feels it to be in the Council's interests that these should be continued, since the amount involved is small, whilst the relief afforded thereby is commensurately large and is to the advantage of the Service.

Chinese Language Bonus.—Under this heading the Salaries Commission seeks to give particular effect to the general recommendation of the Economy Committee, viz. " that one of the qualifications for engagement and promotion in certain grades in other departments of the Council should be a knowledge of the Chinese language, and that its study in these cases should be compulsory." (Municipal Gazette, February 9, 1929, page 49.)

The Salaries Commission, after pointing out the absence of a definite ruling on the subject, recommends that a knowledge of Chinese up to the standard required in the Council's service should in future be made compulsory in :—

Police Department . . .	Throughout.
Fire Brigade	,,
Public Works Dept. . . .	Inspectors and Sanitary Overseers.
Health Department . . .	Inspectors, Matrons, Asst. Matrons, Male Mental Attendants.
Revenue Office . . .	Inspectors and Collectors.

In those branches where a knowledge of Chinese is not compulsory the acquisition of such knowledge should facilitate promotion, other qualifications for the position to be occupied being equal.

In view of the difficulty of adjusting scales of pay to permit of the abolition of the bonus immediately without injustice to those who had already earned it, and the extension in a general scale of benefits to those who had not, the Commission recommended that a series of rewards should be granted to new Municipal employees as they demonstrated their proficiency in the three recognized grades in the acquirement of the language.

1. After passing the Preliminary Stage ... Tls. 50, lump sum payment
2. After passing the Intermediate Stage ... Tls. 150 ,,
3. After passing the Final Stage ... ... Tls. 500 ,, and with regard to the present recipients of the existing bonus it was recommended that the whole system be reviewed in three years' time.

Individual tuition, at the Council's expense, will be discontinued ; free instruction to classes will, however, be continued, but employees will be required to attend such classes in their own time.

The eventual substitution of a lump sum bonus system during and upon the acquirement of a knowledge of Chinese, instead of the existing monthly allowance, should effect no inconsiderable saving throughout the service of a Municipal employee, as well as annually, the total amount granted in lump sum rewards being equivalent to a little more than two years' payment of the present bonus.

Promotion in departments where the knowledge of Chinese is obligatory will depend upon the heads of departments being satisfied that the employee's knowledge of the language has been maintained.

Locomotion.—To have fully applied the Commission's recommendation and instituted garages would have resulted in an increased expenditure of approximately Tls. 470 a month. It has therefore been decided that the existing system, under which locomotion allowances are issued in approved cases, be retained, subject to rigid control by Heads of Department concerned. A complete revision of locomotion allowances, including rickshaw and tram, is now being made, and only those whose duties definitely call for such allowances will be granted them, subject to the Council's approval.

Short Leave.—All officers and employees of the permanent staff shall be granted three weeks annually, provided that it is not spent in Shanghai and the exigencies of the service permit. In this connection the following modifications to the general rule have been made :—

No short leave to be granted during a year in which the employee goes on long leave, and that to qualify for short leave an employee must have been in Shanghai for a period of six months by June of the year in which he applies for such leave.

In exceptional circumstances the Heads of Departments may sanction at their discretion the spending of short leave in Shanghai for a period not exceeding ten days.

In the case of the Police Force and the Fire Brigade the reduction of the period of annual short leave to three weeks will be offset by increasing the number of monthly days of rest at present allowed.

Female employees are to be granted four weeks short leave annually.

Leave being considered to be as much for the benefit of the Council's service, from the point of view of efficiency, as for the employee, the above safeguards have been introduced for the purpose of seeing that the greatest possible advantage is secured from the annual holiday thus provided for.

Long Leave.—Employees under Class A will be granted seven months' long leave after five years' active service, which term shall include such time as has been spent on duty and short leave only. Long leave may not be considered as earned until an employee has completed at least five years' service from the date on which his pay commenced.

Employees in professional or technical grades may receive an extension not to exceed two months for such professional or technical education purposes as may increase the value of their services.

Long leave as a rule will be granted upon due date, but should the exigencies of the service make it desirable that such leave shall be postponed, compensation to the employee shall be granted in the nature of an extension of long leave, on a pro rata scale based on a unit of deferment of three months. The practice of granting a deferred leave bonus will be discontinued.

ACTING ALLOWANCE.—An employee acting in one of the higher appointments, while its permanent incumbent is on long leave, for more than four months shall receive half the difference between the actual pay of both positions in addition to his own pay, but in no case may the minimum pay of the higher position be exceeded. Such allowance is not computable for Superannuation Fund benefits.

The only extension to the present list of appointments under which acting allowances are granted is the post of Superintendent of Education.

MARRIAGE.—While it is generally desirable that men engaged abroad for the Council's service shall be bachelors, it is agreed that they may marry with the Council's consent during the first five years of their service, provided they are in a grade which permits of their so doing, and the cost of a wife's passage on an employee's first long leave will be defrayed by the Council.

MINIMUM AGE LIMIT.—The Commission recommends the abolition of the present practice of engaging minor foreign assistants, and that the minimum age for admission to the Municipal service should be 21 years, save in the case of probationary nurses, where the age shall be 18.

In this respect it is also recommended that no employee whose age is over 35 years shall be engaged without special reference to the Council.

SPECIAL DUTY ALLOWANCES.—The practice of granting special duty allowance at present in vogue in the Health and Public Works Departments is to be discontinued except where justified by the performance of temporary special duties additional to ordinary duty. In the majority of cases these allowances are small and will be absorbed into the general pay for a particular position.

One of the most difficult features of the work of the Salaries Commission was to put into effect the recommendations of the Salaries Commission, 1919, and the Economy Committee with regard to a systematic assessing of the usual periodic increments in pay to Municipal employees. In the past it had become the practice automatically to increase the remuneration to an employee on the renewal of his agreement with the Municipal Council, but both of the bodies mentioned above drew attention to the practice and expressed their disapproval.

Thus the Salaries Commission, 1919, in its report says :—

> "The Commission considers that the present system of advancing the salary of each individual, by a more or less fixed proportion of 15 per cent, on the renewal of the triennial agreement is too automatic and does not sufficiently encourage zeal and initiative. It recommends that as far as possible the granting of increases be dependent upon and in accordance with merit." (Municipal Gazette, April 9, 1921, page 119.)

The attitude of the Municipal Council towards this recommendation does not appear to be quite clear, but in the statement generally adopting the report of that Commission it said :—

> "Increase of salaries will be dealt with in future in accordance with the dictates of expediency." (Municipal Gazette, July 14, 1921, p. 256.)

The view of the Salaries Commission, 1919, was, however, adopted by the Economy Committee, who on this subject said :—

> "The present method by which the remuneration of employees is automatically increased on the renewal of agreements, even though they may remain without promotion from the position they originally held, should be discontinued. . . .
> "If an employee after years of service is not considered, through lack of sufficient merit, to be entitled to promotion, his pay should not, as at present, be automatically increased, but should remain definitely within the limits of the grade in which his particular position is established." (Municipal Gazette, February 9, 1929, page 46.)

The present Salaries Commission found that as a result of the absence of defined scales of pay in some departments, and the presence in others, discontent arose through comparison between department and department which failed to show the establishment of rates of pay on some equitable basis.

They consequently proceeded to grade the entire service, indicating the minima and maxima for any particular position, laying down the rule that increases should be dependent upon the nature of the annual report upon the employee.

The Commission's recommendation was as follows :—

> "Personal Reports.—It is recommended that a system of personal reports be adopted, and that each year such reports should be made to the Heads of Departments in regard to the ability, efficiency and energy of every employee in the department, by the Chiefs of Divisions or Heads of Sections. Heads of Departments should carefully verify these from personal observation and knowledge of the work of individual members of their staff and use them as a basis for recommendations to the Staff Committee for increases or promotion. To prevent abuse, such reports should be retained by the Head of Department, and it is expected that he will bring to the notice of the employee any adverse criticism which may appear in the report. If any employee fails to be recommended for an increase above the minimum, it should be incumbent upon the Head of Departments to issue a written warning that such employee's services are not regarded as satisfactory. In the event of two consecutive warnings being recorded against an employee it should be within the discretion of the Head of Department concerned to make a recommendation for the cancellation of the Letter of Appointment in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions of Service. "

For the purpose of amplifying the Commission's recommendations in this respect it has been decided that increases when due shall be given, the amount to be assessed in accordance with the personal report on general conduct, ability and keenness, upon the subjoined scale :—

General Conduct, etc.	Rate of Increase per annum.
1. High	6 per cent.
2. Average to High	5 ,, ,,
3. Average	4 ,, ,,
4. Low to Average	Nothing
5. Low	Due notice of termination of service to be given.

The above provides a well-defined scale which should facilitate the consideration of increases and at the same time makes sure that respective differences of ability, etc., shall receive due recognition.

In the event of a vacancy occurring in a higher grade, promotion, it is intended, shall be made by selection from those having the greatest number of maximum increases to their credit, while the remarks published elsewhere on the subject of a knowledge of the Chinese language are applicable.

Should no opportunity for promotion occur after six years on the maximum pay of the grade, a final maximum long service increase may be granted, provided the proposed recipient has at least two-thirds of the available "High" or "Average to High" increases as set out above to his or her credit. This is intended to prevent employees developing into "time servers" and to remove that feeling of discontent which so often arises when it is realized that opportunities of further advancement are small. The scheme in the majority of cases should carry a Municipal employee through the whole of his career to retirement, and provide sufficient incentive for a continuation of good service throughout.

The application of the above principles to the revision of the terms of Municipal service and the new scales of pay involve certain special considerations as follows :—

> There are 390 agreements (B Class) in which a special clause has been inserted under which three months' notice is required to bring about any changes in the terms or conditions of service consequent upon the recommendations of the Salaries Commission. With regard to these it is recommended that immediate notice be given of the intentions of putting into effect the Commission's recommendations.

With regard to the 534 agreements which have no provision in their terms for the modification of terms or conditions of service (A Class) the Commission recommends that the option be given to all holders to accept the new conditions of service simultaneously with those serving under B Agreements, failing which the temporary bonus should remain as such not assessable for superannuation benefits until the various agreements have expired and been replaced by Letters of Appointment set out in an appendix to the report.

Should holders of A Agreements not accept such terms, the new scales of pay, etc. will not become applicable throughout the whole of the Municipal service until the expiry of approximately three years, but if, on the other hand, they accept, the new scales can be brought into effect within three months of due notice being given. It is believed that the temporary bonus thus becoming assessable for superannuation purposes should be sufficient to induce Municipal servants to assist in securing the proposed change as early as possible.

It should be emphasized in this connection that the Commission's recommendations specifically lay it down that no employee, under the terms of the report, should receive less than he is at present receiving in the way of salary and temporary bonus, and that the general effect of the grading of salaries has been to transform the present temporary bonus into actual salary upon which superannuation benefits are to be assessed. There are few, if any, exceptions to this statement, and those are special cases where the maximum pay for a grade has been exceeded, a position which will comparatively speedily rectify itself in view of the incumbents' retirement, when, of course, the positions will be filled by employees drawing a minimum salary.

The general effect of the application of these recommendations, in the opinion of the Commission, will be not only to encourage the highest efficiency throughout the service, but to secure a saving in the future. It is to be pointed out that a Municipal service is continually changing in its personnel, and that a consideration of the results to be obtained from the Commission's suggestions can neither be based on the minimum nor maximum rates of pay, but on some intermediate stage between the two. For that reason some of the figures quoted earlier are approximately maxima, and show rather to what the Council would be pledged if all its employees were simultaneously approaching retirement, than what is actually the case in an organization in which the members at maximum pay are continually being replaced by those in receipt of minima through the ordinary flux of time.

A further most important consideration is the Commission's very strong recommendation that foreigners domiciled in China, and Chinese, should be appointed wherever possible, provided they possess the necessary qualifications and experience for the position to be occupied, thus reducing the heavy cost of appointments from abroad.

In this connection the Commission recommends the inauguration of a Superannuation Fund for Chinese employees, to be compulsory on all those drawing a salary of more than $35 per month, in which event existing benefits should be withdrawn, save in the case of employees in receipt of less than $35 a month.

The Council has decided to inaugurate such a Fund from July 1, 1931, for all Chinese employees in receipt of $50 a month and upwards, to be optional for present employees, but compulsory for future employees.

It is particularly desirable that the best class of Chinese shall be attracted to the service of the Municipal Council, and that the salaries paid shall be fully commensurate with the services expected.

It is believed that the substitution of Chinese for foreign assistance, wherever circumstances permit, will in the long run result in a considerable reduction in the cost of the Municipal services.

Administration.—In close connection with staff matters it was essential for the Commission to consider Administrative proposals affecting various officers of the Council's service with a view to suggesting suitable emoluments in the scales of pay.

The first position considered was that of the Director General in relation to that of the Secretary. The Commission recommended the absorption of the two offices into one, together with changes in the organization of the Secretariat.

The duties and authority of the Director General have now been codified and tied in with those of the Secretary in such a manner as to automatically bring about the absorption of the Director General's office in the Secretariat, the two offices in future being designated under the latter title. In conformity with this procedure the Director General will in future be styled Secretary General, whilst the title of Secretary remains, but the duties of this latter officer are modified in reference to the Council by the higher appointment.

Transfer of Revenue Office to the Finance Department.—The control of the Revenue Office was nominally in the hands of the Secretary, but the Salaries Commission regarded it as more logical that the Revenue Office should become an integral part of the Finance Department because of the close contact which must be maintained between the two offices and the possibilities of future economies by an interchange of staff. The Council supported this view, and arrangements are now proceeding to effect the transfer without dislocation of public business.

Chinese Assistant Secretary.—The desirability of this appointment is generally appreciated, but further consideration is required prior to an appointment being made.

Treasurer and Comptroller.—The above title has been changed to that of Treasurer and Controller as being better suited to the functions required of this office.

Business Assistant, Public Health Department.—The recommendation of the Economy Committee that an efficient Business Assistant be employed in the Public Health Department was supported by the Salaries Commission primarily in connection with the further development of Markets and Slaughterhouses as revenue producers. Prior to agreeing to the necessity of such appointment, however, the Council has decided to set up an Inter-Departmental Committee to consider and advise upon the subject of Markets and Slaughterhouses, with particular reference to future sites, rebuilding of old markets, scale of fees, variable charges in relation to position of stalls and amenities provided, method of allocating stalls, and storage spaces, etc.

The Commissioner of Public Health also has a reorganization scheme in hand to secure improved administration together with proper control of stores, which it is believed will bring about the Commission's intention without the appointment of a highly-paid Business Assistant.

The recommendations of the Salaries Commission have now been completely dealt with and are in process of being put into effect.

Very few modifications have been made in this comprehensive Report, and its adoption forms a sound basis for economical and efficient administration.

SIR,—I have to inform you that the Executive Committee of the Greyhound Racing Club have resolved that, as from the 1st instant, admission to Luna Park shall be restricted to Members of the Club only, and this action on their part has been approved by a General Meeting of the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd. This rule will be strictly enforced, and future meetings will not be advertised as hitherto.

I have the honour to be,

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 19, 1931.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 7, informing the Council that the Executive Committee of the Greyhound Racing Club had resolved that, as from March 1, 1931, admission to Luna Park shall be restricted to members of the Club only, and that this action on their part had been approved by a General Meeting of the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd.

In reply thereto, I am directed to inform you that the Council adheres to its decision that dog racing in the Settlement will not be permitted after March 31, next, and to state that this decision is actuated by the Council's desire to suppress commercialized gambling in the Settlement.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Deputy Secretary.

W. R. McBAIN, Esq.,

W. R. McBAIN, Esq.,
Chairman,
Greyhound Racing
Association (China) Ltd.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 19, 1931.

SIR,—You will have seen from the "Municipal Gazette" of January 16 last that the Council has decided to refuse permission for the operation of dog racing tracks in the Settlement after March 31, 1931, and has so informed the two British greyhound racing companies.

I have been given to understand that in the opinion of His Britannic Majesty's Minister the responsibility for dealing with the question rests primarily with the Shanghai Municipal Council. It will, however, assist the Council in meeting such criticism as its action may arouse, if you can confirm in writing and for publication, that its decision meets with the approval of the British authorities.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
E. B. MACNAGHTEN,
Chairman.

J. F. BRENAN, Esq., C.M.G.,
H. B. M. Consul-General,
Shanghai.

Shanghai, March 19, 1931.

SIR,—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of March 19, and to confirm that the decision of the Council to put an end to the gambling on dog racing in the Settlement meets with the full approval of the British authorities.

It has always been the opinion of His Britannic Majesty's Minister that the responsibility for dealing with this matter rests primarily on the Shanghai Municipal Council, both as the body responsible for the administration of the International Settlement as a whole, and because it is the community that it represents who stand to lose by the hostile agitation directed against them on account of these gambling establishments.

It has been asserted on behalf of the greyhound companies that their gaming operations are legal in English law. I am not at present prepared to express an opinion on this point, but I am advised that the legality of totalizator betting on dog courses has by no means been established in the recent cases tried in England, and in this connection it is to be noted that dog racing has not been permitted in the British colonies of Hongkong or Singapore.

The British authorities are in sympathy with the efforts of the Council to eliminate commercialized gambling in the Settlement, and have always regarded with disfavour the operations of the greyhound racing establishments. They have, moreover, no desire that the extra-territorial privileges acquired under treaty for the protection of British trade and residence in this country should be used by British subjects to cover activities which can reasonably be considered detrimental to the administration of the area under the Council's jurisdiction.

The restriction of places of public entertainment is placed under the control of the Council by Byelaw 34 of the Land Regulations, which provides that no person shall keep such a place without a licence. If, in view of the fact that the Council has refused for good reasons to grant licences to the dog racing establishments, it decides to compel these establishments to close, I am authorized by His Majesty's Minister to state that such action appears to the British authorities to be in the best interests of the Settlement.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. F. BRENAN,
Consul-General.

Brig.-Gen. E. B. MACNAGHTEN, C.M.G. D.S.O.,
Chairman,
Municipal Council.

Women Police.

Consideration has recently been given by the Council to the question of the provision of women police in the Settlement. In view of the fact that investigation into this subject will be made by Major Gerard, Commissioner of Police, during his long leave, decision on the matter has been deferred until after his return. Correspondence between the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations and the Council is appended:—

Shanghai, February 26, 1931.

SIR,—Upon several occasions representatives of the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations have had occasion to interview officials of the Council upon the question of Women Police and the possibility of their effective use in the International Settlement. When specifically the decision to register Cabaret Dancers was announced, a letter was sent indicating that in the supervision of cabarets and their dancers Women Police had proved a great service elsewhere. In answer to this letter, the Secretary of the Council stated it was awaiting the report on the subject of Women Police which it was understood Miss Phyllis Ayrton was investigating in England on behalf of the Joint Committee.

This report we have the honour to submit to you herewith. It is the conviction of the Joint Committee which has received and discussed the report, that there are many directions in which the trained Policewoman may be of assistance in matters affecting women offenders and in the problem of crime prevention. The issue is not a new one for Shanghai. The matter was considered by the Vice Commission in 1920 who commended the use of Women Police to the Police Department. In the decade which has elapsed since that time much progress has been made in the training and usefulness of women police. The renewal of contracts of women police appointed originally as an experiment in Alexandria, a port city of cosmopolitan population, would seem to be an argument in favour of a similar experimental policy in Shanghai.

The formal resolution taken with regard to Miss Ayrton's report at the meeting of the Joint Committee held yesterday is as follows:

Resolved that the Shanghai Municipal Council be formally approached regarding the engagement as an experiment of a trained foreign policewoman, and further that the suggestion be made that the authorities in Alexandria be asked to free Mrs. Tindall for the period of six months employment in Shanghai.

The League of Nations among other specific recommendations arising out of the study of the Committee of Experts in Traffic in Women and Children, has urged the appointment of women police by all governments. It is timely therefore that the Travelling Commissioners of the League under the Chairmanship of Mr. Bascom Johnson, extending this study into Oriental Countries should be due to arrive before the end of February.

The Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations desires the privilege of introducing to proper Council officials Dr. Alma Sundquist, the woman member of this Travelling Commission. It is considered desirable that she should be invited to meet with the Watch Committee and the Commissioner of Police to make available to them her expert knowledge of the use of women police. We shall be glad if you will indicate to us suitable appointment hours for such an interview.

We should further be glad to learn the Council's opinion with regard to the resolution herein quoted. With appreciation of the opportunity which has been given to the Joint Committee to bring this matter forward during the past year.

I am,
Yours faithfully,
ST. CLAIR FORD,
Chairman,
Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations.

Brig.-Gen. E. B. MACNAGHTEN, C.M.G., D.S.O.,
Chairman,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 18, 1931.

MADAM,—I am directed to refer to your letter of February 26 and my acknowledgment of March 2, on the subject of the employment of Women Police in the Settlement.

Whilst I have to express appreciative thanks for the interest evinced by your Committee in this matter, I am directed to state that the Council is not convinced as to the urgent need for the appointment of Women Police in the Settlement, and to inform you of its intention to defer further consideration of the subject until the return to Shanghai of Major Gerrard, Commissioner of Police, who has undertaken to study the question while he is in England.

I have to add that Captain Martin will be pleased to meet Dr. Alma Sundquist, Travelling Commissioner of the League of Nations, and discuss the matter with her, upon her arrival in Shanghai. If it is desired, the Watch Committee will be pleased further to discuss the matter with her.

I am, Madam,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. MCKEE,
Deputy Secretary.

MRS. ST. CLAIR FORD,
Chairman,
Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations.

Land Commission.

Fokien Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, November 11, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—An area of Mow 0.204 from Cad. Lot 333, Central, is due for surrender for road widening, and as the building is now completed our clients have requested us to ask what sum you are prepared to pay for the land to be acquired.

We shall be obliged if you will advise us at your early convenience.

Yours faithfully,
SPENCE, ROBINSON & PARTNERS.

S. M. EDWARDS, Esq.,
Secretary, Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 9, 1930.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 11 enquiring what compensation the Council is prepared to pay for the surrender of Mow 0.204 from Cadastral Lot 333 required for the scheduled widening of Fokien Road.

In reply thereto I am directed to offer you compensation at Tls. 100,000 per mow, less one-third betterment, making a total payment of Tls. 13,600 for the scheduled area.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. SPENCE, ROBINSON & PARTNERS.

Shanghai, December 18, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—With reference to your letter of the 9th. instant on the subject of road surrender from Cad. Lot 333, Central, we have to state that our clients regret that they cannot accept your offer of Tls. 13,600.

It is maintained that the market value of this lot is, at a moderate estimate, Tls. 140,000 per mow, and we are instructed to submit a claim on their behalf as follows:—

	Tls.
Value of area to be surrendered:—
Mow 0.204 × Tls. 140,000 =	28,560
Less 1/6th. for betterment =	4,760
	Tls. 23,800

With regard to the betterment deduction of 1/6th., we maintain that the increased width of the road is of advantage to our clients solely by enabling them to build to a greater height.

Being a Public Utility Company, it is contended that no commercial advantage accrues to them through the widening while any loss through deduction on the grounds of betterment tends to react upon the community as a whole, inasmuch as the subscription for the service is in ratio to their commitments.

We therefore consider that the customary deduction of one third is not equitable in this case.

We shall be obliged if you will give this claim your consideration at your early convenience.

Your faithfully,
SPENCE, ROBINSON & PARTNERS.

J. R. JONES, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 14, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 18, 1930, requesting compensation in the amount of Tls. 23,800 for the surrender of Mow 0.204 of land from Cadastral Lot 333 for the scheduled widening of Fokien Road as against the Council's offer of Tls. 13,600.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that in the opinion of the Council a deduction of one-third for betterment is justified by the fact that the new building on this lot has been erected to a height of 83 feet on the Fokien Road frontage which has only been rendered possible by the increased width to which the road has been scheduled. Further, the Council is not disposed to recognize any distinction between public utility companies and other owners in deciding on the amount of compensation to be offered for road surrenders.

In conclusion I have to state that the offer of Tls. 13,600 is considered to be fair and reasonable and that no increase thereon can be granted.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. SPENCE, ROBINSON & PARTNERS.

Shanghai, February 3, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of 14th January relative to the surrender from Cad. Lot 333, Central we are instructed to state that the Council's offer of Tls. 13,600 is considered quite inadequate insofar as such offer is based on a value of Tls. 100,000 per mow only.

We are prepared to admit betterment, even to the extent of 1/3rd. suggested by the Council, provided the Council will base its offer of compensation on a fair market value.

Recent sales in the neighbourhood would seem to indicate that the sum claimed by us in previous correspondence, or Tls. 140,000 per mow, is even under such fair market value.

In order, however, to expedite a settlement our clients have authorized us now to claim on that basis and our amended claim therefore is as follows:—

	Tls.
Mow 0.204 at Tls. 140,000 =	28,560
Less 1/3rd. for betterment =	9,520
Total	19,040

Should the Council not see its way to compensate our clients in the above sum, kindly have the matter referred to the Land Commissioners for settlement at an early date.

Yours faithfully,
SPENCE, ROBINSON & PARTNERS.

J. R. JONES, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 9, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of February 3, submitting a revised claim of Tls. 140,000 per mow less one-third betterment for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.204 required from Cadastral Lot 333 for the scheduled widening of Fokien Road.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that the Council is unwilling to increase its offer for this surrender and to state that in accordance with the request contained in the last paragraph of your letter the case will be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. SPENCE, ROBINSON & PARTNERS.

Race Course and Mohawk Roads—Surplus Land.—Negotiations have been concluded with Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss for the release for a sum of Tls. 67,355 of an area of Mow 1.418 of surplus land ex Cadastral Lot 1587, Western District.

Road Extensions and Widenings.

This settlement renders unnecessary the reference of the case to the Land Commission following on correspondence with Messrs. Fessenden & Holcomb, published in the Municipal Gazette of December 5, 1930.

Kweichow, Ningpo and Kwangse Roads.—Negotiations have been concluded with the Midland Investment Co., Ltd., for the surrender for a sum of Tls. 525 of an area of Mow 0.007 from Cadastral Lot 610 for the scheduled widening of these roads.

Hansons for the surrender for a lump sum of Tls. 45,000 of an area of Mow 0.787 required from Cadastral Lot 1453 for the scheduled extension of Race Course Road and widening of Mohawk Road, Western District. This sum includes compensation for all buildings affected.

Sinza Road.—Negotiations have been concluded with The Asia Realty Co., Fed. Inc., U. S. A. for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.223 required from Cadastral Lot 3045 for the scheduled widening of this road at the new assessed value of the lot, i.e., Tls. 17,500 per mow less one-fifth for betterment, making a sum of Tls. 3,122.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Orchestra and Band Committee held on Monday, March 9, 1931, at 4.00 p.m., there are present: Messrs. A. J. Hughes, Chairman, J. McNeill, the Conductor, the Chief Accountant, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

BUDGET 1931

ORDINARY EXPENDITURE.

The estimates for the current year based on the expenditure for 1930 are submitted. The Chief Accountant states that, with the exception of the items to which attention is drawn in the report furnished by the Treasurer & Controller, the estimates as framed call for little comment. The increase of approximately Tls. 39,000 over last year's figures is primarily attributable to the revised terms of service for the personnel of the Orchestra.

Stock and Stores.—The Chief Accountant states that at his suggestion the Conductor has agreed to defer the purchase of certain instruments which will effect a reduction under this appropriation of Tls. 1,450.

Subject to the above observations and to adjustment as usual by the Treasurer & Controller, the Estimates of Ordinary Expenditure are approved for submission to the Finance Committee.

Broadcasting. — An application by Messrs. Millington, Ltd., for permission to broadcast the Orchestral performances in connection with an extension of their advertising campaign is submitted. It is recalled that permission to broadcast these performances without monopoly has been granted to the Shanghai Power Company but that the Company's general broadcasting arrangements are in abeyance.

Members express the view that the need for stimulating attendance at the Orchestral Concerts is not so pressing as formerly. Whilst of the opinion that from a cultural point of view the broadcasting of the Orchestral concerts would reflect to the Council's credit, the Committee for the time being prefers for a number of reasons to defer consideration of applications for permission to broadcast.

The Chairman states that the question of broadcasting is receiving the close attention of the Chinese authorities and it may be anticipated that in the near future definite regulations will be promulgated to govern the operation of these activities. In the circumstances the Committee regards it as undesirable at this time to accord permission to any further organizations to broadcast the Orchestral Performances, although, in the event of a major organization undertaking this function in future, the opinion is recorded that the Council should favourably consider any application put forward by such organization upon terms to be mutually agreed.

Committee Membership.—In view of the somewhat difficult problems with which the Committee may be faced during the forthcoming year, it is unanimously recommended that the membership of the Committee be increased to three, it being recalled that until the current Municipal year the Committee was composed of one member of Council and two non-Councillors.

The meeting terminates at 5 p.m.

At the meeting of the Education Board held on Wednesday, March 11, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Rev. G. W. Sheppard, (Chairman), Mr. A. D. Bell, Dr. H. G. Earle, Mrs. N. Leslie, Dr. H. C. E. Liu, Mr. T. Murakami, Dr. Y. H. Ou, Mr. L. T. Yuan, The Treasurer & Controller, The Deputy Commissioner of Public Works, The Superintendent of Education, and The Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

District Primary Schools for Chinese—Staff Quarters.—The Chairman informs members that the special Sub-Committee has recently given further consideration to the question of the provision of Staff residential quarters in the above schools. From financial details furnished to the Sub-Committee it transpires that the additional cost involved by this provision is Tls. 65,000 in respect of each building. He recalls that the Board recommended this provision in two of these School buildings as an experimental measure; this recommendation, however, not to be quoted as a precedent in respect of future similar school buildings. Moreover this recommendation was recorded prior to formulation of the comprehensive educational scheme recently submitted to the Council. The Council having adopted in principle the Board's recommendation that 16 Primary School buildings be provided within the course of the next eight years, he suggests, in view of the magnitude of the cost involved, the desirability of re-consideration being given to the provision of staff residential quarters in these buildings. He recapitulates the reasons advanced in favour of this provision during the course of previous discussions, but recalls that, whilst these reasons did not receive the unanimous support of the Board, its recommendation was recorded in deference thereto.

A member refers to the statement contained in the latest report submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works that, if the Staff residential quarters are eliminated from the plans of the Western District School, the building would require to be re-designed, which would take approximately three months to accomplish. To avoid this further delay, he suggests that the Staff Quarters at this school be not eliminated. In this respect, the Chairman states that, in any case, this building cannot be completed for some 18 months from the placing of the tender and that it would appear that the additional three months required for re-designing would still permit its opening for the second term of 1932.

Replying to the Chairman, the Chinese Education Officer states that the Council provides staff quarters near to the Northern School and that the majority of the staff are accommodated within the Eastern and Western District Schools; those not so accommodated receive a rental allowance and provide their own quarters. In his opinion it is highly desirable that quarters either within the school or in the form of a hostel should be provided for women teachers since, if not residents of Shanghai, women teachers find it particularly difficult to secure suitable accommodation.

Upon the view being supported that the provision for quarters in the plans for the Western District School be not abandoned, it is observed that, if living quarters are provided in this School and not in future schools, the Council may be placed in a difficult position since it is not unlikely that certain teachers may desire to live outside the building, with the result that their transference to another school, not provided with living quarters will become necessary or, alternatively, that the living quarters provided at the Western District School will not be fully occupied.

The suggestion is made that, prior to definite recommendation on this question being recorded, the Board should consider the feasibility or otherwise of providing residential quarters either in leased quarters in the neighbourhood of the various Schools or by the erection of a building for this purpose in the vicinity. A member concurs that, if women teachers only were to be provided with living quarters either in leased premises or by the erection of hostels, this provision should not present very great difficulty.

The Superintendent of Education observes that, if the residential quarters at the Western District School were eliminated, it would be possible to embody the kindergarten block within the main building instead of being separated from the main building as at present planned. This alteration would release an additional area for recreation purposes. Members unanimously concur that the Kindergarten block should be incorporated within the main building in the event of the residential quarters being eliminated.

The Treasurer & Controller strongly supports the elimination of these quarters on the ground of the expenditure involved and the possibility of the Council becoming committed to similar expenditure in respect of future school buildings. He desires to emphasize the magnitude of the aggregate expenditure involved by this provision and the difficulties with which the Council is faced so far as concerns the financing of other departmental major projects.

Upon allusion being made to the opinion expressed in the course of previous discussions that teachers issued with a rent allowance in lieu of quarters might not expend the whole of such allowance but occupy quarters not in keeping with their status, the Superintendent of Education suggests and members concur that this position could be remedied by adequate supervision on the part of the Council's Education Officers.

A member states that he has discussed the question of the provision of quarters within school buildings with leading Chinese citizens who have expressed the view that this system is not in keeping with modern educational practice. In this respect, it is submitted that conditions in Shanghai are different from those obtaining in other cities in China, the difficulty of obtaining suitable individual quarters being accentuated by their scarcity and high cost.

After further discussion, it is recommended that, on financial grounds, staff residential quarters be not provided within the District Primary Schools and that those included in the plans of the Western District School be eliminated.

The question of the provision of Staff Quarters either in leased quarters or in buildings to be erected for that purpose will be considered de novo towards the end of the current year.

Education Policy—Budget appropriation for grants to non-Municipal Schools.—The Chairman informs members that the Special Sub-Committee has given further consideration to this question. In recognizing that this form of promoting educational facilities is by no means of secondary importance, the Sub-Committee at the present time finds it somewhat difficult to put forward a recommendation as to the specific amount to be included in the current budget for this purpose. Information available in respect of existing Chinese Schools within the Settlement is still far from complete; the view, however, obtains that, when it becomes generally known that funds are available to subsidize existing educational establishments, applications for assistance will be forthcoming from Schools which up to the present have not replied to the questionnaire issued by the Board. Moreover, no basis has yet been decided for the allocation of such grants. The Sub-Committee is however definitely of opinion that the sum of Tls. 50,000 tentatively included in the estimated cost of the Board's proposals will not suffice, having regard to the potential needs both of Chinese and other national schools. The Sub-Committee also regards it as desirable that the public should realize that the Council is prepared to deal liberally with this aspect of its education policy. The Sub-Committee therefore recommends that a sum of not less than Tls. 150,000 be included in the forthcoming budget for this purpose.

Replying to the Chairman, the Treasurer states that, although the Council has in principle adopted the revised education policy formulated by the Board, it is necessary for such policy to be endorsed by the Ratepayers; expenditure of any appropriation included in the Budget will, therefore, be contingent upon approval by the Ratepayers of the comprehensive scheme. The Chairman states that he realizes that until this scheme has been submitted to and approved by the Ratepayers, inclusion in the Budget of the appropriations involved is provisional. If however this scheme is endorsed by the Ratepayers and the necessary funds are available, he suggests that it be announced in the "Gazette" that the Council is prepared to consider applications for grants-in-aid. He submits that the Ratepayers will appreciate that expenditure on grants-in-aid will materially lighten the Council's burden in providing the capital cost involved by the erection of new Schools.

A member reports at some length the gist of conversations he has had with certain of his Chinese friends; therefrom it is apparent that a section of the community views with alarm the very heavy cost involved by adoption of the Education policy. In view of these observations, and having regard to the possible opposition which may be encountered to adoption of this scheme, he suggests it might be advisable for the Council to prepare a less costly scheme as an alternative. Although it is not within the province of the Board to consider or advise the Council on its financial policy generally, he has obtained the impression that the payment of increased taxation will be resisted, in the absence of a general re-casting of the existing financial policy. He therefore suggests it might be possible for the Council to announce the extent of the funds it is prepared to devote to educational needs and that the Board should frame its policy in accordance therewith.

The Treasurer states that he has already suggested that the Education policy should be submitted to the Ratepayers for their approval in principle, but that, so far as regards capital expenditure this should be modified up to the year 1934 and then reviewed. Although the Ratepayers at the Annual meeting can only authorize expenditure during the current year, once this programme is embarked upon, the Council becomes committed to annual recurring charges subject to authorization by subsequent Ratepayers meetings. Upon the Council being authorized to adopt the policy of the issue of grants-in-aid, it may be assumed that this will constitute an increasing liability since once the basis of such grants has been established the Council will have no option but to issue them to all schools qualifying therefor. Briefly, it may be anticipated that if the scheme as drawn is adopted by the Ratepayers an increase of 2 per cent in the general municipal rate will become necessary in 1932, to provide funds for this purpose and in relation to other sections of the Municipal Budget.

With regard to the proposal that the expenditure on educational facilities should be divorced from the Council's general budget and that a definite proportion of the Municipal Revenue should be hypothecated for educational needs, the Chairman considers it would be most regrettable if the Ratepayers gained the impression that increased taxation was rendered necessary solely by an extension of the Council's educational policy. He suggests that all such risk would be obviated if the percentage of the municipality's revenue now expended on education, and the percentage of the municipality's estimated further annual expenditure required by the adoption of the new Education Policy were clearly stated to the Ratepayers. If this were done, the significance of the Policy of the Board would be appreciated in right proportion, and such a revolutionary proposal as that of divorcing the educational expenditure from the Council's general Budget would not be necessary. A member observes that it has been represented that the Chinese Community would be more favourably disposed to the payment of increased taxation if it is clearly intimated that such increased revenue will be devoted to educational purposes.

Another member states that he desires members to understand that he does not object to the expenditure of major sums on educational purposes; moreover, in his opinion the public should accept without demur the burden of increased taxation for this purpose. The Chinese Community however will undoubtedly compare the proposed expenditure on education with that devoted to other civic purposes; furthermore, it is not unlikely that they will view the Council's proposals as unnecessarily expensive, and, on this ground, protest against the payment of increased taxation. To avoid this, he suggests it might be well to consider transferring certain funds to a Board of Trustees who would administer the Education policy and also endeavour to reduce both the contemplated capital and ordinary expenditure involved. In this connection, comparative figures are quoted of the expenditure incurred during 1930 by the Educational Department of the Greater Shanghai Municipality and by the Council. From these figures it might appear to the public generally that the expenditure incurred by the Council is excessive.

In connection with the application on behalf of the Japanese community for a grant towards educational expenses of $100,000 during the current year, it is stated that the expenditure on national educational facilities involves an annual charge of $20 per capita to the entire Japanese community. An assurance is given that the application put forward by the Japanese Community for financial assistance will be favourably considered in conjunction with the similar needs of other sections of the Community. It is agreed that it would be impracticable at this stage for the Board to submit a definite recommendation on the petition put forward by the Japanese Community prior to consideration thereof in relation to the educational needs of the Community as a whole.

After further discussion it is unanimously recommended that an appropriation of Tls. 150,000 be included in the forthcoming budget for the purpose of grants-in-aid to non-municipal educational establishments.

The meeting terminates at 6.30 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, March 18, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-General E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, O. S. Lieu, O. Okamoto, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Treasurer & Controller, the Director General, and the Deputy Secretaries.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman. Appointment of Chinese Official.—The Chairman states that it has not been possible to convene a further meeting of the Special Sub-Committee to consider this question. A meeting will, however, be convened at an early date with a view to submitting a definite recommendation to the next meeting of Council.

Beggar Relief.—A member states that as a result of his enquiries he finds there are two institutions in Chapei and Nantao for the care of beggars. He understands that these would be willing to take in beggars from the Settlement if a financial contribution is furnished by the Council. He is obtaining further particulars regarding these Institutions and will report further to the Council at a later date.

Shanghai Public Benevolent Cemetery—Grant-in-Aid.—From information furnished it is noted that this organization receives a contribution from the French Municipal Authorities but that no grant is made by the Greater Shanghai Municipality. In deference to the views of the Chinese members, it is decided to increase the Council's grant for the current year by $2,500, this increase to be contingent upon the recipients doing their utmost to secure financial support from the Greater Shanghai Authorities.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of March 3 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of March 13 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Orchestra and Band Committee of March 9 are submitted, and, subject to reference to the Finance Committee of the section relating to the Annual Estimates, are confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of March 11 are submitted and confirmed. Education Policy.—In connection with the discussion under this heading, a member states that the Board considers it would be most unfortunate if the public should gain the impression that an increase in the general municipal rate was necessitated primarily by the proposed increased expenditure on educational facilities. In view of the fact that in the past only approximately 5 per cent or 6 per cent of the Council's annual revenue has been expended for this purpose, the Board is unable to understand why the programme proposed during next year will involve increased taxation during 1932 of 2 per cent.

Replying to the Chairman, the Treasurer states that at the request of the Board he attended its last meeting and during the course of the discussion he stated that certain of his observations on financial questions generally should more appropriately have been submitted to the Finance Committee. He did not intend to imply that the increase in taxation of 2 per cent which it may be anticipated will become necessary next year will be necessitated solely by adoption of the Education policy. He pointed out however that the contemplated total expenditure during 1932 would be equivalent to 2 per cent of the existing taxation. He explained to the Board that until the Budget for the current year and the expenditure for last year has been submitted to the Finance Committee it was somewhat difficult for him to forecast precisely the result on the Council's finances of the proposed additional expenditure on Educational needs.

Referring to the proposal put forward by the Vice-Chairman at an earlier meeting that expenditure on education should be divorced from the Council's general budget, a member supports this proposal on the ground that adoption thereof would remove any suspicion in the public mind that additional expenditure for this purpose is primarily responsible for increased taxation.

The Vice-Chairman states that he put forward this proposal in the realization of the magnitude of the cost involved by adoption of the Education policy. In his opinion it is very desirable that the public should appreciate the cost involved for this and future years, and their understanding as to this would be facilitated if all expenditure pertaining to education were excised from the general budget and shewn separately. If the cost of these proposals cannot be borne by existing taxation, the ratepayers will then be in a position to realize to what extent additional taxation is necessitated to finance this Scheme.

A member is unable to support the proposal that a system for the provision of national education such as obtains in Tientsin might be adopted by the Council. In his opinion the claims of the Chinese community for educational facilities have not in the past been fully met by the Council. He therefore considers it only equitable that the benefit of future expenditure thereon should be in favour of the Chinese.

After lengthy discussion, it is decided to give further consideration to the proposal of separating the expenditure on educational facilities from the Council's general budget at a later meeting.

Gambling Offences	26	28	17
Total	1,184	1,444	1,217

The total reported crime again shows a decrease as compared with the figures for January and also with the corresponding month of last year, 1184 cases being reported as against 1444 and 1217 respectively. Comparison with the January figures is, however, not altogether accurate as there were only 28 days in the month under review. The most marked decrease occurred in A Division which records 121 cases less than last month, B Division records 60 cases less, C Division 38 cases less and D Division 41 cases less.

1195 persons were arrested as against 1107 in January. In addition 92 arrests were made for crimes committed in previous months and 49 on behalf of outside authorities.

Murder.—One case was reported in the Yangtszepoo District, the dismembered body of a woman being found on the road. There were three cases of attempted murder, one of a Chinese detective who was stabbed while trying to arrest burglars, another of a Japanese who was suddenly attacked with a spanner by companions with whom he was walking, and a third of a Chinese who was shot by loafers as the result of a Hua Hui gambling quarrel.

Abduction.—There were 11 cases of abduction or attempted abduction two of which were unsuccessful, one by armed men, and the other by loafers, the intended victims being two children. Of the remaining nine, four were by armed men and the others cases of simple abduction.

Armed Robbery.—There was a decrease of 17 cases as compared with last month, the figure being 23 below that for the corresponding month last year. The figures are as follows:—

A Division 16 as against 25 last month and 22 last year
A Division 16 as against 21 last month and 27 last year
C Division 13 as against 7 last month and 17 last year
D Division 19 as against 28 last month and 21 last year

C Division only showed an increase and of the 6 cases three proved to be false reports. There were 16 cases of other robberies most of which took place on the highway or from the persons of sailors and others near wharves and jetties.

Burglaries.—58 cases were recorded as against 74 last month and 83 for the corresponding period of last year. A and B Divisions show marked decreases of 9 and 8 cases respectively. C Division shows an increase of one. Twenty-nine arrests were made in connection with these cases.

Housebreaking.—There was an increase of six cases over the figures for last month. The modus operandi in some cases indicates that much of this may be the work of two recently released convicts and they are now being sought.

Thefts.—The total number of simple thefts reported was 607, a decrease of 131 from last month. The following figures show the decreases in the various divisions:—

A Division 52
B " 17
D " 28

Pocketpicking and Snatching.—There was an appreciable decrease in this class of crime during the month all divisions showing less than last month except C Division where there were six additional cases accounted for by the arrest of three criminals who admitted 11 cases previously unreported.

Gambling Offences.—Twenty-six gambling raids took place but these call for no comment being of the usual small type common about the period of the Lunar New Year.

Other Crimes.—Call for no comment except in the case of bicycle thefts which are still prevalent in A and C Divisions. Special preventive measures against street crime have shown good results and will be continued.

Notable work in A Division included (1) the arrest of one of a gang of armed Highway robbers by a Chinese constable on point duty who fired at, wounded and arrested the man before he could use a pistol he was carrying and (2) the arrest and shooting of four of a gang of armed robbers in face of heavy fire. Notable work in B Division included the arrest of an armed robber in the face of pistol fire. Notable work in C Division included (1) the arrest of a gang of four snatchers who specialized in the theft of foreign hats from vehicle passengers and pedestrians, 23 hats being recovered, (2) the arrest of eleven men and four women with two pistols, who were concerned in one case of armed kidnapping and 7 cases of armed robbery. Notable work in D Division included the arrest of 10 men comprising two gangs of armed robbers who have been responsible for armed robberies in various parts of the Settlement.

Thirty-two criminal cases of various kinds occurred on Municipal Extra-Settlement Roads or in buildings abutting thereon.

The Headquarters special detective squad conducted special enquiries during the month of February into 7 important cases including Armed Kidnapping, Murder, Extortion and Shopbreaking and effected the arrest of 8 persons. In addition enquiries were continued in connection with 7 serious cases occurring prior to February, 1931.

Property valued at $266,370 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, an increase of $68.742, a considerable amount of this being obtained by fraud and misappropriation of the monies of employers. Property valued at $128,147 was recovered during the month.

Fingerprint Bureau.—During the month the total number of records received from all sources was 1628. This shows a decrease of 110 compared with last month and an increase of 112 over the corresponding month of last year.

Fourteen bodies of unknown Chinese who had met their deaths under various circumstances were photographed and finger-printed at the mortuary, identity being established in four cases.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the Boarding House Section visited 188 Boarding houses, 18 bars, cafes, taverns and theatres. Seven applications for bar and restaurant licences were received and dealt with. Two Boarding houses were found unlicensed and warned to apply for licences.

Communism.—A raid carried out on February 14 on a Chinese house at 339 Tongshan Road resulted in the arrest of a Chinese male and two women and the seizure of a considerable quantity of communistic literature. The prisoners were subsequently extradited to the Chinese authorities in accordance with an order of the Court.

A Chinese male was apprehended in the early hours of February 3 in lodging house 144 Poochow Road for communistic activity at Hankow. When brought before the Court the prisoner freely confessed his connection with the Hankow branch of the Communist Party and was ordered to be handed over to the Chinese authorities In addition to the foregoing arrests, the Municipal Police apprehended three persons engaged in the distribution of communistic literature.

Of 19 persons arrested during January for participation in communistic activity, ten were sentenced during the month to various terms of imprisonment, one was fined and eight were found not guilty.

The case against one Chiu Yu-hsin, arrested on November 28, 1930, on a warrant issued at the instance of the Chinese authorities charging with being a communist, was concluded on February 18 when he was ordered to be extradited to the Chinese authorities. Ch'eng Yung-hsi, a Chinese doctor who was apprehended on December 9, 1930, on a warrant issued at the instance of the Chinese authorities and charging him with being an active communist, was still on remand at the end of February pending the result of his appeal against a Court decision that he be handed over to the Chinese authorities. Fu Yu-hsin, arrested on October 13, 1930, for anti-Government activity and sentenced on November 7 to six months imprisonment, was released on amnesty on February 11. The case against three Chinese arrested for participation in a demonstration on December 11, 1930, the anniversary of the Canton Uprising, has not yet concluded.

Hung Shen, who made himself conspicuous in the agitation against the exhibition of the Harold Lloyd film "Welcome Danger" was arrested on February 23 on a Shanghai Special District Court warrant charging him with being a communist. He appeared before the Court on February 24 when he was released on his own recognizance to appear when called upon.

Yu Hsiang-sheng, manager of the Hua Tung Bookstore, 529-A Foochow Road, who was arrested on January 19 on a warrant issued at the instance of the Chinese authorities, was on February 18 sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment for keeping for sale pro-communistic books. Defendant has appealed against this decision.

The Yen Tai Bookstore, 93 Foochow Road, was on February 10 sealed by order of the Shanghai Special District Court on the ground that it published and sold reactionary literature.

Labour.—The statistics for the month are as follows:—

Thus far 48 prisoners have been released in accordance with this order.

Public Health Report for February.

The Foreign death rate during the month under review was 17.88 whereas the 1,331 Chinese deaths discovered represented a death rate of 13.62 per thousand. 64 per cent of the Foreign deaths were amongst non-Chinese Asiatics.

Whilst the death rate amongst Foreigners is a little on the high side it would appear to be merely a normal variation.

Communicable Diseases.—Typhoid Fever: The number of cases of Typhoid Fever showed a marked diminution. Two occurred amongst Foreigners, 1 Typhoid and 1 Paratyphoid, and 22 cases were discovered amongst the Chinese population, with 18 deaths.

Smallpox.—Seven cases were notified amongst resident Foreigners, four of whom had been previously vaccinated. Three deaths occurred, all unvaccinated cases. 18 cases with 15 deaths were noted amongst resident Chinese. 2,402 free vaccinations were performed by the Sanitation Division.

Cerebrospinal Fever. — Whilst sporadic cases are occurring this disease does not appear to be spreading. There were seven deaths amongst resident Chinese, and two Foreign cases notified.

Tuberculosis.—This disease accounted for eleven Foreign deaths during the month.

A few cases of Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever and Influenza occurred. As regards the last-named there were however in addition a large number of influenzal colds and other conditions resembling Influenza admitted to various hospitals.

Three cases of Malaria were notified.

Measles accounted for 14 Chinese deaths.

Laboratory. — The number of routine examinations in the Laboratory continues to be distinctly high, whilst the number of positive Dysentery cases verified was also abnormally high for the season. This however is accounted for by the mild outbreak in the Municipal Gaol which is now well under control.

Pasteur Treatment.—27 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including one case from an Outport, called for advice, cauterisation and/or treatment. There were no fatalities.

Hospitals.—The Isolation Hospitals were moderately empty this month.

The Ward Road Gaol Hospital was somewhat overfull owing to the mild epidemic of Dysentery previously noted.

The Indian and Chinese Police Hospitals admitted a number of patients suffering from what would appear to be a mild form of Influenza.

The Mental Hospital accommodation continues to be fully occupied, and the same is true of the male section of the T. B. Sanatorium.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division.—The new veterinary Officer appointed by the Council arrived during the month.

Various attempts at smuggling Milk from unlicensed Dairies into the Settlement were discovered, and fines were inflicted by the District Court.

Rinderpest is still prevalent though the ravages of this Disease in the Dairies is diminishing.

The severe cold affected trade at the Markets inasmuch as frost destroyed the stock of certain vegetable dealers who temporarily abandoned their Stalls.

An unimportant strike took place amongst the Butchers using the Municipal Slaughterhouse in the Yangtszepoo District. This however was soon settled and the kill at this Slaughterhouse was higher than any previous month.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases Clinics and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

LABORATORY REPORT ON WATER.

Sample of Shanghai Waterworks Water.

Sample received February 25, 1931.

Report sent out March 3, 1931.

Physical Characters.—Faint yellowish green colour with very slight opacity. Faintly alkaline reaction to litmus.

Chemical Examination.

	Parts per 100,000
Solid matter in Solution	17.0
Appearance on ignition	Slight charring
*Total Hardness :	9.0
(a) Carbonated (Temporary)	7.5
(b) Non-Carbonated (Permanent)	1.5
Chlorine in Chlorides	3.65
Nitrogen as Nitrates	0.0084
Saline Ammonia	0.0360
Albuminoid Ammonia	0.0142
Poisonous Metals	Absent
Nitrites	Absent
Phosphates	Minute traces
Sulphates	Traces
Oxygen absorbed in 1 hour at 37° C.	0.0725

*Hardness determinations are by acid and alkali: not by soap method. A marked increase in chloride figures, indicating the presence of a considerable amount of sea water, was evident in the early part of the month. The rise was first noted on the 3rd and the maximum was attained on the 5th when some 70 parts per 100,000 of chlorine in chlorides were present in the water obtained from the laboratory taps. The figure had fallen to 8.8 parts per 100,000 on the 10th and was normal again on the 13th. The salinity was very perceptible to taste over a period of four or five days. Ammonia figures have been higher than normal. Nitrites have been absent. Free chlorine has varied from 0.15 to 0.30 parts per million in samples taken in the laboratory and from 0.10 to 0.32 parts per million in samples from other points.

Bacteriological Examination.—17 samples were examined during the month, three from a hydrant and 14 from taps in various parts of the Settlement. All contained less than 10 coliform organisms per litre.

Report on Analysis. — Analyses results show satisfactory purification. Unusual tidal conditions caused a temporary increase in chlorides which however was of slight importance.

Public Library and Reading Room.

Consideration has recently been given by the Library Committee and the Council to the question of bringing the facilities provided by the Public Library more prominently before the residents of the Settlement, as it is felt that a wider knowledge of these facilities will lead to greater advantage being taken of the Library.

At present, there are 169 yearly subscribers to the Library, 120 half-yearly, 139 quarterly, and 2 monthly. Of the total number of subscribers 34 are Chinese.

The Library, since its removal from the former Town Hall building, has been more conveniently situated for the public at No. 104 Nanking Road, in the building formerly occupied by the American Club. The reading-room is open from 8.30 a.m. to 8 p.m., and the Library from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2.30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The Librarian is in attendance during Library hours to give any information or advice desired by subscribers or intending subscribers.

Consequent upon the higher charges for books, etc., it has been found necessary to raise the rates for subscribers and these will, with effect from April 1, be as follows:—

Yearly Rate	$10
Half-yearly Rate	6
Quarterly Rate	4
Monthly Rate	2

Death of Col. W. F. L. Gordon, C.M.G., D.S.O.

The Council has learnt, with regret, of the death of Colonel W.F.L. Gordon, C.M.G., D.S.O., formerly Commandant of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps.

The late Colonel Gordon was in command of the Corps from March 24, 1923, to February 28, 1928, when he resigned upon his departure for home. Colonel Gordon's period of office included the May 30, 1925, events and their aftermath. The Corps was also mobilized on several other occasions during the term of Colonel Gordon's command.

The following appreciation of Colonel Gordon's services was communicated to him by the Council at the conclusion of the 1925 troubles:—

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 12, 1926.

SIR,—On the termination of the general strike, and the restoration of normal conditions, I am directed to express to you the Council's appreciation of the admirable work performed by all ranks of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps during the critical period last summer. The voluntary nature of these services, entailing as they did material sacrifices by individual members, places the whole community under a heavy obligation to the Corps.

The Council is especially gratified at the ability displayed by yourself while in command of the Defence Forces, and is convinced that serious dangers were averted by your tireless vigilance, as well as by the close co-operation maintained at all times between the Volunteer Corps and the naval and other forces.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
E. S. B. ROWE,
Secretary.

Col. W. F. L. GORDON, C.M.G., D.S.O.,
Commandant, Shanghai Volunteer Corps.

Consul-General for Finland.

A letter from Mr. K. G. Wahamaki, Consul-General for Finland, informs the Council that having tendered his resignation, and this having been accepted by his Government, he ceased to function in his official capacity as Consul-General for Finland to China on March 21. Charge of the Consulate-General for Finland has been handed over to Mr. Helge de Knorring, Commercial Attaché to the Finnish Legation in Tokio, who has been appointed Acting Consul-General as from March 21.

Court of Consuls.

Judgment has been rendered by the Court of Consuls in the case of S. M. Edwards v. Shanghai Municipal Council.

The judgment reads: The petitioner, Sidney Martin Edwards, entered into an engagement in June 1923 with John Pook and Company, described in the petition as the respondent's agents in London, to serve in the respondent's secretarial department. As a result of this engagement he came to Shanghai and entered into a written agreement with the respondent for a period of three years. Between 1923 and 1926, he received several promotions in the respondent's service, and on each occasion he entered into a fresh written agreement for a three-year period. Finally on December 31, 1929, he entered into a new written agreement whereby his employment as "Secretary to the Council" was renewed for a further period of three years as from October 1, 1929.

In October, 1930, he was informed by the respondent that his present agreement would not be renewed, but that should he desire to retire before its expiry, the respondent would be prepared to consider any proposal of this nature which he might see fit to submit.

As to the above facts the litigants are agreed.

Thereupon the petitioner brought this action against the respondent for breach of agreement on the following grounds. He alleges that at the time he was engaged in London in 1923 by the respondent's agents, the latter verbally informed him that although under the terms of the Land Regulations a service agreement could not be entered into for a longer period than three years, nevertheless his agreement would be renewed from time to time unless he proved inefficient or was guilty of misconduct and that service with the respondent was always regarded as a permanent service.

In this respect, the Court has taken notice of the evidence given at the hearing by the petitioner which evidence was to the effect that, according to representations made by the agents, service with the respondent was to all intents and purposes a permanent service, except as to the period for which a service agreement could be entered into.

The petitioner states that he was induced by the representation of the agents to enter the respondent's service and he contends, in effect, that it constitutes a binding agreement on the part of the respondent to continue renewing his three-year contracts until he reaches a pensionable age, unless in the meantime he is proved inefficient or guilty of misconduct.

The respondent has not pleaded either inefficiency or misconduct on the part of the petitioner. In support of the petitioner's contention regarding the permanency of the respondent's service he quotes from a section of the Salaries Commission Report, which contains the words "although the Council's service is in every respect a permanent one," and he states that this section of the report was adopted by the Council.

The respondent has entered a formal denial that its agents in London made the alleged verbal representation to the petitioner, and there is nothing to confirm it in the written correspondence which passed between the agents and the petitioner at the time. Nevertheless, the Court is prepared to believe that some such conversation did actually take place between the petitioner and the agents, for it would be natural to suppose that the former would make inquiries regarding the prospects of service with the respondent and that the latter should have expressed their confidence that his engagement would lead to permanent employment. But the Court holds that such representation by the respondent's agents meant, and could only mean, that in the ordinary course of events, and provided the employee continued to give satisfaction to his employers, his agreement would in all probability be renewed from time to time until he reached a pensionable age. The same interpretation must apply to the statement quoted from the Salaries Commission Report, and in this connection it is pointed out that the petitioner omitted to quote the whole sentence, which reads: "Although the Council's service is in every respect a permanent one, no staff agreement, in accordance with the Land Regulations, may be made for a period exceeding 3 years without a special resolution of the ratepayers in meeting assembled." Moreover, the letters of appointment which were recommended under the section of the report containing the above sentence provide that an employee's service can be terminated by the Council on giving six months' notice, which completely negatives the contention of the petitioner that the respondent was binding itself legally to give permanent employment.

The alleged comparison by the respondent's agents of its service to Government service was unsupported by the evidence given at the hearing by a witness for the petitioner to the effect that the respondent's agents compared its service to that of a public body elsewhere, and the Court is prepared to believe that some such comparison was actually made by the respondent's agents in the presence of the petitioner. But the Court holds that although a comparison of that nature, when afterwards remembered, might have the moral effect of leading to disappointment on the part of the petitioner, since most Governments or other public bodies of which the Court has knowledge, do not, as a rule, dismiss their servants unless for facts of a very salient nature, nevertheless such comparison cannot have the legal effect of presenting the petitioner with a valid claim for damages against the respondent. Indeed he would have had no such claim even if he had really been in the service of a Government or other public body which had subsequently dismissed him.

Reviewing on broad lines the circumstances under which the petitioner's appointment was prepared and made, the Court holds that the petitioner laid too much stress on what happened in London, therefore, on the alleged representations, and too little on what happened in Shanghai, that is on his appointment. That he took this attitude, is partly his fault, but not entirely, for the respondent itself laid great stress on the occurrences in London. A pro forma contract submitted to the Court as having been shown to the petitioner by the agents refers to 'passage to England', such passage to be furnished the employee after a term of service, thus making it appear that the service in question resulted from an appointment in England. And respondent's counsel himself stated in Court: 'The only thing that was done in Shanghai was the actual signing of the agreement.'

With regard to the petitioner's case, the Court cannot admit that any verbal representation made in London can operate to vary the written contracts subsequently entered into by the petitioner in Shanghai. The Court finds, moreover, that neither the respondent nor its agents had at any time the intention to bind, or that they in fact did bind, the respondent to give the petitioner permanent employment, but even if they had had such an intention, the Court would not uphold an agreement which would be in contravention of Article 24 of the Land Regulations. The Court reaffirms the clear intention of this Article which is that the Council cannot grant an appointment of more than three years, without the special permission of the ratepayers. They cannot bind themselves or their successors to renew agreements and they have the legal right to refuse to renew an appointment without giving any reasons therefor. Whether it is expedient for the respondent Council to exercise this legal right in any particular case, is a matter of policy, for which the Council may be answerable to their electors, but not to this Court.

The petitioner submits that he is entitled to damages, because, as he alleges, the respondent permitted its decision not to renew petitioner's contract on expiry to become known. The Court however cannot accept this plea. As the respondent has acted within its legal rights in informing the petitioner that his appointment will not be renewed, the petitioner's claim for damages for injury to reputation and prospects resulting from this decision cannot be entertained. His petition is therefore dismissed with costs. However, this decision must not be construed as in any way prejudicing the relations between the petitioner and the respondent under the present three-year contract of service entered into between them. Neither is it the intention of the Court that the Council, (whose conciliatory attitude, before this suit was brought against them by the petitioner, is manifested in their evident willingness to effect an amicable settlement with him), should be discouraged from persisting in this attitude now that judgment has been given.

Hansons for the purchase for a sum of Tls. 110,000 of Cadastral Lots 1641 and 1642 Tongshan Road, measuring Mow 4.892, together with the buildings situated thereon. The premises were originally leased for the purpose of a Reformatory for Boys but will now be utilized as a permanent annex to the Gaol.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee held on Tuesday, March 17, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:— Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, O. Okamoto, C. C. Woo, the Treasurer & Controller, the Deputy Commissioner of Public Works and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Public Transport facilities.—The Deputy Secretary reports that he has taken up with representatives of the two public transport Companies the question of the provision of additional equipment to cope with the increased demand. The Omnibus Company has arranged for additional services to this end. The Tramway Company has notified him that last year the number of tramcars in service was increased by 10 per cent. An addition to those serving the congested Central District is, however, impracticable since the number already in use from a traffic point of view has reached the saturation point; the utilization of additional vehicles would accordingly result in a general dislocation of traffic.

In order to ameliorate existing traffic conditions, members recommend that a joint meeting of the Public Utilities and Traffic Committees should be convened to which representatives of the two Companies should be invited in order to ascertain whether they have any proposals to put forward to this end.

Shanghai Telephone Company.—In letters submitted this Company applies for relief from its obligations to convert its plant to an efficient automatic working so far as the plant outside Settlement limits is concerned. In recording their regret at the attitude adopted by the authorities of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai towards the efforts of the Company to improve the telephone service in the public interest, members are of the view that since its operations outside the Settlement are being restricted by circumstances beyond its control the Council in the circumstance has no alternative but to accede to its request. They accordingly recommend that the Company be released from the obligations of the Agreement insofar as concerns that portion of the plant located on extra-settlement roads.

Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd.—Investigation Commission.—A reply from the American Waterworks Association to the Council's cable of February 7 last, relative to the engagement of an expert to assist in the investigation of the Waterworks Administration, is submitted. As, however, this was despatched prior to receipt by the Association of the Council's letter, it is decided to take no action thereon for the time being.

Investigation Commission—Chinese Representative.—In a letter submitted, Mr. T. D. Woo, on behalf of the Chinese members of Council, nominates Mr. Z. U. Kwauk to serve upon this Commission. In concurring that Mr. Kwauk's qualifications and experience render him eminently suitable for service in this capacity, it is unanimously recommended that he be elected a member of this Commission.

Shanghai Electric Construction Co., Ltd.—In a letter submitted, this Company requests the Council's formal approval to a revision of its fare charges in accordance with the scale submitted. It is noted that this application is based on the additional operating costs necessitated by the existing exchange situation and that the revised charges are well below the maximum allowed under the terms of the franchise agreement.

A member submits that the proposed increase may inflict hardship on the poorer classes; he therefore suggests that on this ground the Company should be asked whether the proposed increase so far as regards third class fares could not be modified. The Chairman states that the increase proposed represents one additional copper per mile; it would therefore be impracticable to provide for a lesser increase. In concurring as to this, it is then suggested that any additional revenue required by the Company should be obtained by an increase in the first class fares and that the existing third class fares be maintained. In agreeing that under the terms of the franchise agreement the Council has no option but to concur in the proposed increased charge, it is suggested that the Company be asked whether some arrangement is possible whereby the increase may be limited to first-class fares only.

The meeting terminates at 5.30 p.m.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, March 24, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:— Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, K. H. Ling, L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer and Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Hongkew Park.—The Commissioner of Public Works requests authority to proceed immediately with the raising of a portion of Hongkew Park, provision for which is included in the preliminary estimates. From plans submitted it is noted that under this scheme a portion of the lake would be filled in, and that this additional area, together with a further area formerly a portion of the Rifle Range, would furnish space for 25 additional tennis courts.

In concurring as to the desirability of meeting the ever increasing demand for additional playing space, certain members are reluctant to agree to a reduction of the existing area of the lake which in their view definitely contributes to the amenities of this park.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that only a portion of the lake would be filled in and that fishing in the remaining portion would still be possible. It is however unlikely that the portion to be filled in could be utilized as tennis courts during the forthcoming Season; he therefore suggests that the turfing etc., of the area formerly comprised in the Rifle Range be proceeded with forthwith and that the question of reclaiming a portion of the lake be left over for consideration until the Autumn. Under this amended proposal it would be possible to provide 12 additional tennis courts. It is also suggested that members might within the next few weeks take an opportunity of visiting the Park in order to visualize more clearly the effect of adoption of the proposals.

After discussion the modified proposal put forward by the Commissioner is recommended for approval, it being directed that special attention be given to the erection, if necessary, of additional stop-butts on the adjoining Rifle Range in order to minimize any possible danger to frequenters of the Park.

The meeting terminates at 5.40 p.m.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Thursday, March 26, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, G. W. Sheppard, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Chinese Y.M.C.A.—Address by Treasurer & Controller.—The application of the Treasurer for permission to comply with a request to address a group of members of the above Association on the subject of "Financial Problems of the S.M.C." is formally approved.

Lester Chinese Hospital—Grant-in-Aid.—An application by this Hospital that, for the current year, the Council's grant-in-aid be increased from Tls. 20,000 to Tls. 30,000 is submitted.

In comment thereon the Treasurer states with regret that he is unable to support this application primarily on the ground that the deficit shewn under working expenses is mainly attributable to the fact that the rental of the temporary premises housing the Hospital is charged to working account, whereas this as previously pointed out should either be debited to Capital or alternatively the income from the unexpended portion of the Lester Building bequest be credited to working account against such rentals.

After consideration, members are unable to recommend an increase in the Annual Grant to this Institution.

St. Luke's Hospital—Grant-in-Aid.—On the recommendation of the Treasurer & Controller, the application of this Institution for continuance of financial support from the Council is endorsed. It is accordingly recommended that a grant of Tls. 20,000, the amount issued during 1930, be authorized for the current year.

Superannuation and Pension Funds.—Trust Deeds.—The Treasurer submits draft Trust Deeds relating to the above Funds which have been drawn up by the Legal Advisers in consultation with himself.

Prior to formal endorsement thereof, members desire that these be circulated for their perusal.

As far as concerns the appointment of Individual Trustees, members unanimously recommend approval of those named in the Trust Deeds i.e., Messrs. A. B. Lowson, C. M. G. Burnie, J. T. Ford, and G. H. Wright.

Estimates 1931.—The preliminary Estimates in respect of the Secretary General's Office, Secretariat, Revenue Office, Finance Department, Chinese Studies Office and Municipal Advocate's Office, with explanatory notes thereon by the Treasurer & Controller, are submitted and approved.

Schedule of Rates, Taxes, Dues and Fees for 1931.—The above Schedule to be submitted to the forthcoming Annual Meeting of Ratepayers for authorization is approved. It is noted that the particulars shewn therein are in major respects identical with those contained in the 1930 Schedule with the exception of the licence fees for Chinese Theatre and Cinematograph and Hotel or Tavern (On Licence). The amended scale of fees proposed under these headings is approved.

Budget for 1931—Ordinary Expenditure.—Preliminary proofs of the Budget for 1931 have been furnished to members. In amplification of his written report, submitted, the Treasurer states that the surplus brought forward from 1930 is approximately Tls. 1,000,000 less than estimated. This is attributable to unforeseen expenditure of approximately Tls. 470,000 on exchange compensation to the Staff, an over-expenditure of Tls. 390,000 under the heading "General Charges" which includes payment of compensation of Tls. 100,000 for the closure of the Tien Chau Wu Dai Theatre and an expenditure of Tls. 72,000 incurred in alleviating the local rice situation. The Public Works Department has also overexpended to the extent of approximately Tls. 350,000 owing to difficulties encountered in the disposal of house refuse and unexpected requirements in connection with the roads programme. As against the over expenditure above outlined, the revenue for 1930 exceeded the estimated figure by approximately Tls. 200,000.

The estimated surplus on the Ordinary Budget for 1931 is Tls. 313,000 and this result is partly due to the inclusion under "Miscellaneous" of certain accumulated funds under the heading of reserves which are no longer required, thus permitting their reversion to the Ordinary Budget.

It will be observed that the Police Department absorbs a higher percentage of the Municipal Income than any other Department, the percentage figure for the 1930 financial year being 36. In 1930 the percentage of income devoted to Educational purposes was approximately 4.6 excluding capital charges; with adoption of the Education Scheme this percentage will be materially increased during 1931. Detailed reference as to this, together with comparative statements of estimated expenditure on Foreign and Chinese Education, will be included in the preamble to the Budget which is now being prepared.

Upon the Chairman enquiring whether any further avenues might be explored for the purpose of increasing the Municipal revenue, such as for instance the imposition of a luxury or entertainment tax, the Treasurer submits in this connection there is a considerable amount of evasion of taxation. He is definitely of the opinion that, if general Municipal rate were collected on the actual figures of assessment, the revenue under this heading would shew a substantial increase. A further point worthy of consideration as affecting the Municipal revenue is that although the Council is maintaining services on the extra-Settlement roads it finds it increasingly difficult to collect taxation thereon.

Reverting to the revised Education policy, the Treasurer enquires as to the form in which it is proposed to submit this Scheme to the Ratepayers. He has already suggested the desirability of submitting this Scheme for their approval in principle since it is not possible for the Ratepayers at any one meeting definitely to commit themselves to expenditure beyond the end of the current financial year. Members concur as to the desirability of adoption of this course and that it should be clearly intimated to the Ratepayers that the Council has yet to consider as to how this Scheme in future years will be financed. After discussion the view obtains that the Council should indicate to the Ratepayers its willingness to accept the Scheme in principle and that it will endeavour as circumstances permit to provide from year to year such funds as may be necessary to finance it.

With regard to the expenditure on the Police Force, the Treasurer states that this has risen from Tls. 2,580,000 in 1926 to an estimated amount for the current year of approximately Tls. 6,850,000. Speaking generally, this very heavy additional expenditure is incurred primarily in the interests of the protection of the Chinese Community, and, in view of the criticism which has been levelled at the Council that it has failed to provide adequate Chinese educational facilities, it might be well to emphasize to what extent the annual revenue is absorbed by providing a police force which, as above stated, primarily benefits the Chinese Community. To illustrate this, he will furnish statistics in his annual report illustrating the comparative increase in cost of all branches of the Force for the period 1926-1930.

Adoption of the recommendations of the Salaries Commission have had a material bearing on the Police Budget, the Chinese Branch in particular deriving considerable benefit therefrom.

The Treasurer emphasizes the necessity of impressing upon all Departments that, under no circumstances, should the authorized budget appropriations be exceeded during the current year. If this instruction is not strictly followed, the Council may be placed in a most difficult position at the end of the year.

The Treasurer adds that a statement will appear in his report summarizing the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of the Electricity Department with a view to dispelling the erroneous impression that, as a result of this sale, the Council has unlimited means at its disposal.

Extraordinary Expenditure.—The Treasurer reports that as shewn in the draft Budget a surplus of Tls. 3,344,700 is brought forward from the 1930 Budget. This with the amount of the instalments which will accrue from the Shanghai Power Company enables the Council to finance a capital expenditure programme of approximately Tls. 10,000,000.

Since the preliminary estimates of Extraordinary Expenditure were approved by the Works Committee, he has in consultation with the Commissioner of Public Works arranged for modification of certain of the appropriations but upon the definite understanding that the programme authorized is not retarded. He gathered however that the magnitude of the proposed programme will render expenditure beyond the funds provided unlikely. The modifications effected have resulted in a reduction in the original figures of Tls. 340,000.

Existing commitments and projects contemplated during the current year will commit the Council during 1932 to further expenditure of approximately Tls. 4,500,000 and it may be anticipated that this, together with the expenditure involved on roads, parks, educational buildings, etc., will necessitate a total capital expenditure of Tls. 10,000,000 during 1932.

At the end of 1931, approximately Tls. 34,300,000 will remain from the proceeds of the sale of the Electricity Department of which Tls. 22,300,000 is required for loan redemption purposes. It is therefore reasonable to assume that it will become necessary to raise a loan during the period 1933/34. Although he does not anticipate any difficulty in raising loans, he considers it expedient again to draw attention to the re-action of public borrowings on the ordinary budget. As before pointed out it will in his opinion be necessary to increase the General Municipal Rate by 2 per cent in 1932 or in other words to revert to the figure obtaining prior to July 1, 1930, and with the resumption of public borrowings the prospect of still further increased taxation may have to be faced. In this connection he quotes comparative statistics as to the rates of taxation obtaining in important British Cities which comparison clearly demonstrates the favourable position enjoyed by the Shanghai community in this respect. He will prepare a reference as to this for inclusion in the Chairman's speech.

The Budget for 1931 is then formally endorsed.

The meeting terminates at 6 p.m.

At the meeting of the Watch Committee held on Friday, March 27, 1931, at 4.00 p.m., there are present:— Messrs. N. S. Brown, Chairman, D. S. Chen, K. Fukushima, Yu Ya Ching, the Commissioner of Police, the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue, and the Deputy Secretary.

Licensing Session—1931.—Following publication of Municipal Notification No. 4066, consideration is given to the undernoted applications for Hotel, Restaurant, Tavern and Beer licences:—

Public Library and Reading Room.

Consideration has recently been given by the Library Committee and the Council to the question of bringing the facilities provided by the Public Library more prominently before the residents of the Settlement, as it is felt that a wider knowledge of these facilities will lead to greater advantage being taken of the Library.

At present, there are 169 yearly subscribers to the Library, 120 half-yearly, 139 quarterly, and 2 monthly. Of the total number of subscribers 34 are Chinese.

The Library, since its removal from the former Town Hall building, has been more conveniently situated for the public at No. 104 Nanking Road, in the building formerly occupied by the American Club. The reading-room is open from 8.30 a.m. to 8 p.m., and the Library from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2.30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The Librarian is in attendance during Library hours to give any information or advice desired by subscribers or intending subscribers.

Consequent upon the higher charges for books, etc., it has been found necessary to raise the rates for subscribers and these will, with effect from April 1, be as follows:—

Yearly Rate	$10
Half-yearly Rate	6
Quarterly Rate	4
Monthly Rate	2

The Country Hospital.

REPORT FOR 1930.

Building and Grounds.—There has been a considerable amount of work done during the year, most of which was unavoidably of a nature to cause considerable noise. Although patients must have found this very uncomfortable, they were very forbearing, and very little complaint was made.

4th. Floor.—The alterations to the 4th. Floor to prepare it for the reception of patients were completed, and the Floor was opened on August 20. The plans for the alteration were drawn up by the Municipal Public Works Department, who advised on tenders, and inspected the work as it was being done: these services were of the utmost assistance to the Hospital. The number of beds is now 125, of which 50 are in single rooms, 22 are in double rooms, and the remainder in Wards.

Artesian Well.—The old Artesian Well having silted up, it became necessary to have a new one drilled, as the refrigerating plant is designed for use with well-water. The work was done by the China Deep Well Drilling Co., Ltd., and an excellent water was struck.

The Fire Appliances of the hospital have never met with the full approval of the Shanghai Municipal Fire Brigade. These were altered to conform to a scheme suggested by the Chief Officer, and the system is now declared to be satisfactory. Periodical inspections are carried out by the Municipal Fire Brigade.

In view of the alarming experiences of Hospitals with X-Ray film fires, a new film store-room has been built away from the Hospital, and only a minimum of films is now left in the Department.

A new direct steam line to the operating-room has been constructed.

The whole of the interior of the Hospital was painted.

Nursing Staff.—The following resignations took place during the year—Sisters Waugh, Buckley, Storey and Robson: there joined the Staff, Sisters Phelips, Hopkins, Dolan, Seymour and Knudsen.

The Matron, Miss Rice, went on long leave in April, and returned in December. The Assistant Matron, Miss C. E. Jones, acted during her absence. Sisters Rennie and Kotz went on long leave in May and Sister Johnstone in November.

It has become more and more difficult to obtain a suitable type of Probationer, and towards the end of the year the Acting Matron was unable to recruit any more. She suggested the experiment of using Chinese trained nurses, and this is being tried out. So far, eight have been engaged. These nurses have had a three years' course of training, and have passed the qualifying examination of the Nurses' Association of China.

At the end of the year, in addition to the Matron and the Assistant Matron, the Nursing Staff consisted of:—

31 Sisters	18 Probationers
1 Staff Nurse	8 Chinese trained Nurses

There has been a considerable amount of sickness among the Staff during the year.

Engineering Staff.—Mr. J. Courtney has been appointed Resident

Engineer in place of Mr. J. Lindstrom, resigned: and Mr. W. Whitton has been appointed Consulting Engineer.

Statistics. — The accompanying table gives figures for the year. It will be noted that there has been an increase in the work of practically all Departments. This increase is especially marked in the number of major operations, an index of the confidence felt by the visiting Doctors in the work of this Department.

The Hydrotherapy Department is the only one where figures fall below those of 1929. The amount of work done was actually increased, but ultra-violet light treatments given to Staff have not been included in the table. An extra lamp was installed during the year for the purpose of giving treatments to Staff on night duty, this following the practice at Hone. The fact remains, however, that this Department has not continued to increase as it had done since the opening of the Hospital. The criticisms of ultra-violet light treatment contained in the Annual Report for 1929 of the Medical Research Council had probably something to do with this.

The experiments on which these criticisms were based gave negative results for radiation: examination, however, shows that the experiments failed in two points. First, they were carried out in a school situated in nearly ideal conditions so that the controls had plenty of fresh air and sunlight. Secondly, the treatments were given with powerful short rays, and there is a possibility that the radiated group were overdosed. The results of these experiments differ from those of other investigators in different countries, and it is without doubt that they were faulty. The results of the treatment in Shanghai are remarkably good: it seems likely that a lot of the ultra-violet light in the sun's rays is filtered out by the moisture in the atmosphere, so that the amount reaching the ground is below normal: measurements throughout the year of this quantity would be interesting and important, if someone could find time to carry them out. In view of the tendency to do home treatment with ultra-violet light, it should be noted that the treatment can do damage, and that no child who is ill should be given such treatment without advice as to doseage from someone who understands the subject.

Radium.—The supply of Radium (200 milligrams) ordered by this Hospital and the General Hospital at the suggestion of Drs. Birt and Marshall has been received. The question of dividing the total amoun: into needles, etc. was a difficult one, but it has been arranged so that any treatment can be done by one technique. The Radium has so far not been used as much as was hoped, but there is no doubt that in time its value to the Community will be amply proved. Already several cases, hopeless from any other point of view, have been treated and although it is far too early to speak of results, it can at least be said that suffering has been considerably alleviated.

Greyhound Racing.

The following further interchange of letters between the Greyhound Racing Club and Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd. and the Council is published for general information:—

Shanghai, March 31, 1931.

SIR,—The date upon which the Council has decided that Greyhound Racing in the Settlement must cease having arrived, I am now instructed by my Directors and Committee to ask whether the Council is prepared adequately to compensate the shareholders in the Greyhound Racing Association of China Limited and others connected with Luna Park for the loss they will sustain through the Council's action. I would remind you that, throughout, my Directors and Committee have been anxious to meet the Council as far as possible, consistent with the interests of the shareholders, and that during the unofficial negotiations which took place last November between Mr. Fessenden and Mr. N. S. Brown as special Representatives of the Council, and Mr. Wilson, Mr. Reader Harris and myself on behalf of the Association and the Club, it was clearly understood on the one hand that the Association was quite willing to meet the Council's views if adequately compensated, and on the other hand the Representatives of the Council expressed themselves as being in agreement that compensation would have to be paid.

The Association's Representatives offered to leave the question of the amount of compensation to be settled by arbitration provided their shareholders authorized them to consent and they were prepared to recommend shareholders to do so—the Council's Representatives expressed themselves as willing to put the suggestion before the Council. It will be seen, therefore, that not only were my Directors willing to do all they reasonably could to meet the Council, but were led to believe that the Council were ready to meet them in a fair spirit. The Association's Representatives were asked to submit figures showing the value of their business, and the loss they would sustain as a basis for discussion in order to arrive at a maximum figure of compensation which the arbitrators could give. Such an account was drawn up and submitted by the Representatives of the Association on December 9, 1930, to the Council's Representatives with a covering letter; a copy of the account and letter are attached hereto. Some discussion took place thereon which led the Association's Representatives to expect that some basis would be arrived at upon which the compensation could be assessed or, if it was to be submitted to arbitration, a maximum figure agreed. The letter and account were left with the Council's Representatives for their consideration and submission to the Council. No answer was, however, vouchsafed by the Representatives and neither letter nor account was even acknowledged, but instead the Association received on January 8, 1931, the first official intimation which had been given them that Greyhound Racing must cease on March 31, no reference being made to any negotiations, and no offer of any compensation being made other than an offer to take over the lease of Luna Park and to give consideration to any cases of individual hardship on the part of employees.

You will realize that the Directors of the Association have been placed in a very difficult position by the Council's failure to recognize the right of the shareholders to reasonable compensation. We would reiterate the considerations upon which this right is based. In the first place the Greyhound Racing Association (China) Ltd. was duly incorporated under the Hongkong Companies Ordinances with the Registrar of Companies here, who is also H. B. M. Consul General, and therefore the initiation of the greyhound racing track was approved by the British authorities. In the next place, previously to any step being taken to incorporate a Company, the Council were informed of the proposal to initiate dog racing in Shanghai, and conduct a pari-mutuel in connection therewith, and they approved of the proposal.

But they have not only approved of the proposal but they have actually encouraged it by the making of Whashing Road, and by supplying police protection and regulation of traffic. Furthermore, it has been well-known to the Council that the Association's shares have been officially listed by the Shanghai Stock Exchange and have been dealt in on that Exchange at values based upon the return to shareholders by way of dividend. Practically all the present shareholders have purchased their shares in the legitimate belief that the Association's activities were approved by both the British and Municipal authorities, and if the Council have now decided that for purposes of policy the Association's activities must cease, it is only just that the shareholders should be adequately compensated.

As we have already informed you, it is not the wish of the Directors to oppose any action which the Council may decide to take in the interests of the community, but in the circumstances, the Directors are advised that they would not be justified in ceasing their activities merely at the direction of the Council, and will be necessary for the protection of the Association that meetings should continue to be held unless and until the Council takes some active steps to prevent them. A meeting is therefore being arranged for Saturday next, but the Directors of the Association and the Committee of the Club would be very pleased to postpone the same, "sine die" if in the meantime the Council will open negotiations for a settlement.

Yours faithfully,

SIR,—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of March 31 intimating to the Council that a meeting of the Greyhound Racing Club has been arranged for Saturday next, April 4, but that it may be postponed provided the Council in the meantime opens negotiations for a settlement.

The Council cannot in general admit the correctness of the statements made in your letter and has nothing to add to its letter to you of March 19, and adheres to its decision that dog racing in the Settlement will not be permitted after March 31.

Education.

School for Boys in Western District.—Provision of a school in the Western District to replace the present Junior School for Boys on Yuyuen Road has been urged by a number of residents in a petition which, together with the Council's reply, is appended:—

Shanghai, March 9, 1931.

SIR,—We, the undersigned residents of the Western District, have the honour to request you to bring to the notice of the Council the urgent necessity, in our considered opinion, of providing a school in that District to replace the present Junior School for Boys situated on Yu Yuen Road.

The following is a recapitulation of the circumstances which appear to us to render it imperative that action in this matter should no longer be delayed:—

1.—The increased number of foreign residents in the Western District requiring educational facilities for their children.

2.—The present inadequacy of the accommodation provided at the Junior School for Boys. As things stand, only boys of junior grades can be accommodated at this school, those beyond these grades having no alternative but to be sent the long distance to the Northern School on Szechuen Road.

3.—The unsuitability for modern school purposes of the premises at present in use. These we have no hesitation, in view of the nature of the school buildings provided in other parts of the Settlement for the same fees, in describing as almost a disgrace. The buildings are wooden structures of the nature of army huts. Their site is to a certain extent insalubrious, and no space is provided for recreation.

In view of the above it is our earnest hope that the Council will no longer delay taking the necessary steps to rectify this state of affairs in fairness to the foreign residents concerned, and that with this presentation of the case they will be prepared to give the matter their prompt and favourable consideration.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servants,
H. WYATT,

In reply thereto, I have to inform you that the petition has been presented to the Council and the Education Board, whose members are continuing to give this problem their close attention with a view to improving the conditions to which you refer.

School for Chinese Girls. — Approval of the scheme of education proposed by the Board of Education has been forwarded to the Council by the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations, whose especial interest in the education of Chinese girls is also shown in the appended correspondence. The Council has notified the Committee that, pending the establishment of a permanent school for Chinese girls, all possible steps have been taken to secure temporary leased premises in the Eastern District or elsewhere, but so far no suitable building has been found:—

Shanghai, March 25, 1931.

SIR,—The Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations has had under consideration and discussion for some years the question of the educational facilities in Shanghai, especially as regards Chinese girls. The matter has been more than once in one phase or another brought to its attention through the Chinese women representative of their organizations on the Joint Committee.

It was with satisfaction then that news of the appointment of the Board of Education was received, and its report has been awaited with interest. Since its publication it has been examined by a special sub-committee and by the governing boards of its constituent organizations. As a result of this study, followed by a special session, which Mrs. Leslie kindly attended to explain the various aspects of the scheme and took part in the discussion, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Resolved that the Joint Committee has considered, as a result of action taken at the second Club Institute in 1929, the question of Municipal responsibility in education, especially in the education of Chinese girls, and being of the opinion that increased educational facilities are desirable, expresses its approval of the scheme proposed by the Board of Education, and urges the community to support the Council in its efforts to find ways and means for carrying the project into effect.

The Joint Committee has already given publicity to this resolution prior to its being conveyed to the Council, contrary to its usual custom. In this instance, however, it was desired to give early public support to the plan, in view of the fact that the matter is to come to the Ratepayers' Meeting for consideration.

Yours faithfully,
St. CLAIR FORD,
Chairman, Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations.

Brig.-Gen E. B. MACNAGHTEN, C.M.G., D.S.O.,

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 31, 1931.

MADAM,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 25, addressed to the Chairman of Council, forwarding a resolution of the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations in support of the policy of the Board of Education, particularly in regard to the education of Chinese girls.

For your information I have to state that the Council has recognized the desirability of providing both primary and secondary education for Chinese girls, but that the application of the Education Board's recommendation as to secondary schools has been hampered by the difficulty of finding suitable accommodation. Pending the establishment of a permanent school, all possible steps have been taken to secure temporary leased premises in the Eastern District or elsewhere, but so far no suitable building has been found.

I am, Madam,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. MCKEE,
Deputy Secretary.

The Majestic Hotel Site.

Numerous suggestions have been made, mainly through letters in the Press, that the Council should buy the site of the Majestic Hotel. A definite offer has been made by the owners to sell the property, measuring about 58,803 mow, for the sum of Taels 3,500,000 and this offer remains open until April 30.

The proposal has been submitted to the most careful examination and, in view of the considerable public interest manifested and the heavy expenditure of public money involved, the Council deems it necessary to submit to the public a statement of material facts and of its attitude in the matter.

Many uses for the site have been suggested by those who advocate this purchase, and these may be classified under three headings:—

(1) to remove the Administrative Offices to the new site, the money received from the sale of the old site being set off against the purchase of the new property;
(2) to provide cultural and civic amenities;
(3) to provide a park or an open space.

With regard to the first point, it is felt that it would be unwise to remove the Administrative offices from their present advantageous situation in the centre of the business community, and that the proposed site one and a half miles further west would cause serious inconvenience to the transaction of public business.

Moreover, the present Administration Building can continue to be satisfactorily used for many years, and the limitations of the present site for further development are very far from being reached. The removal of the Shanghai Power Company to its new home on Nanking Road after October of this year will relieve the present temporary lack of accommodation, and the demolition of the present Central Police and Fire Stations and the erection of new premises for them on the adjoining site on Foochow Road will afford room on the present site for adequate expansion and development.

As to the second suggestion of the establishment of a civic centre there is a considerable amount of ambiguity. If it is intended to form a civic centre in the sense in which the term is understood in modern Town Planning, that is, the grouping of all administration and public buildings in park surroundings, the proposed site is entirely inadequate in area and the expense of the scheme is prohibitive.

The desire however for a Town Hall, together with such additional civic amenities as accommodation for the Municipal Orchestra can be adequately met by the development of the present site. The transfer of the Central Police and Fire Stations to an adjoining site would render possible the erection of such buildings on the Municipal Compound as would be suitable for a Town Hall and Library and accommodate orchestral and other concerts.

Apart, therefore, from the desire of a section of the community that the Majestic site should be bought for such purposes of entertainment as would be more suitably left to private enterprise the issue could be properly limited to the question whether or not the property should be bought as a park or an open space. This proposal should be considered in relation to the more comprehensive scheme for the provision of parks and open spaces which has already been receiving the Council's serious attention and with regard to the Council's financial position.

The problem of the provision of parks and open spaces within the Settlement and the difficulty of acquiring suitable land at a reasonable cost has become very urgent and the Council has considered the advisability of appointing a committee to consider a comprehensive scheme for the acquisition of such open spaces as will meet the needs of all sections of the community.

The need is most acute in the Northern district and in view of the density of the population in this very congested area the Council decided as long ago as the summer of last year to give it priority. The Western district has already been favoured with the purchase of twenty-five mow of land which will ultimately be available for a park. The Council therefore desires to concentrate on the provision of such additional facilities as the community may afford in the more congested northern and eastern areas.

Having regard to the existing need it may be questioned whether the expenditure of as large a sum as Tls. 3,500,000 for the conversion of the Majestic site into a park would produce the best value for the money. It would probably be of more advantage to the community as a whole if two or more open spaces in less expensive but more congested areas could be provided for the same outlay. Moreover, the Council cannot recognize that there is any special value as a park attaching to the Majestic site which from the real estate point of view is rapidly becoming one of the most expensive districts in Shanghai. Moreover, little or no value can be placed upon the existing buildings as they are entirely unsuitable for any civic purpose.

It may be also mentioned that the ratepayers of the Settlement have already two large parks outside the Settlement which are open to all. These are already inadequate and it may be a question whether the ratepayers should incur further liabilities of such a heavy nature without the co-operation of the other administrations.

Looking at the proposal from the point of view of the general financial position of the Council it will be realized that the purchase of this particular site constitutes but a relatively small part of a comprehensive scheme for the provision of additional parks and open spaces and its acquisition at the price required will undoubtedly restrict the Council in obtaining other parks in the more congested areas. The question has to be reviewed in relation to the heavy commitments of the Council for such major measures as the provision of educational facilities and hospital extensions and to the heavy and increasing demands upon the Council's financial resources.

The present financial position of the Council is somewhat artificial and the present low rate of taxation is due to the sale of the electricity undertaking. When the proceeds of the sale are exhausted the Council may be placed in a difficult position by suddenly having to review its restricted programme if during the next few years capital expenditure is authorized on an unduly heavy scale.

It is therefore essential to discriminate most particularly between projects which though desirable are not absolutely necessary. The purchase of the Majestic site would not only inevitably postpone the acquisition of park areas in more congested districts but result in an annual charge in the neighbourhood of Tls. 250,000 on the ordinary budget in addition to the burden resulting from the conversion and maintenance of the property for the purpose desired.

The financing of this purchase would very materially contribute to the increase in taxation which having regard to necessary commitments and future demands will be inevitable in the near future. The Council therefore after exhaustive consideration is unable to support this proposal for the purchase of the Majestic site and is of opinion that its financial position does not warrant the assumption of so large a burden on the budget to the prejudice of measures of more urgent necessity.

Education.

Peace Memorial Scholarships 1930.—Upon the recommendation of the Awarding Committee of the Local Examinations Syndicate, University of Cambridge, based on the results of the School Certificate Examination of the University of Cambridge, December 1930, the Trustees of the Peace Memorial Scholarships have decided to award Scholarships to Thomas A. Maguire and Cyril J. Wheeler.

In the opinion of the Awarding Committee, Thomas A. Maguire was the best candidate, gaining marks of distinction in Latin, Elementary Mathematics and Physics; his performance throughout the examination being very satisfactory.

The second candidate, in the opinion of the Awarding Committee, was Cyril J. Wheeler, he having gained marks of distinction in Latin, French and Elementary Mathematics, and having Chemistry as well as Physics among the subjects in which he passed with credit.

Decision is reserved by the Trustees as to whether any third Scholarship shall be awarded.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, April 1, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, O. S. Lieu, O. Okamoto, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Treasurer & Controller, the Secretary General, and the Deputy Secretaries.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Junior School for Boys. — The Chairman states that the Commissioner of Public Works is continuing in his endeavours to secure leased premises to accommodate this school.

Beggar Relief.—A member states that he has given further consideration to this question, and, whilst it may not be difficult to arrange for the accommodation of beggars in the Institutions for that purpose in Chapei or Nantao, certain members of the Chinese Community have suggested the advisability of an Institution being established in the Settlement. The Chairman is unable to support this proposal on the ground that such provision might attract beggars to the Settlement from adjoining territory. It is however contended that the establishment of such an Institution would discourage beggars from invading the Settlement owing to their disinclination for any form of labour and the disciplinary measures which would be enforced therein. He will however make further enquiries as to the terms upon which the Institutions in Chinese territory would be willing to admit beggars sent from the Settlement and report further to the Council.

Majestic Property.—Members are informed that the statement to be issued by the Council outlining its attitude towards this purchase will be submitted at the Council meeting to be convened on Wednesday next.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee of March 17 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of March 24 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Finance Committee of March 25 are submitted and confirmed.

Assessment for General Municipal Rate. — The Chairman refers to a memorandum on this question which has been prepared and circulated to members. In order to dispel the erroneous impression which exists in certain quarters as to the Council's right to assess premises for the purposes of taxation, it is decided to issue a statement to the foreign and Chinese press on the lines advocated by the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Watch Committee of March 27 are submitted and confirmed.

Annual Ratepayers' Meeting.—It is decided to request Mr. A. W. Burkill to act as Chairman at the forthcoming Annual meeting of Ratepayers.

General Hospital, Board. — It is decided to nominate Drs. Bryson and Dunn for re-election to the Board of Governors, also Messrs. Sheppard and Carney who intimate their willingness to continue to serve in this capacity.

Land Commission.—Members are informed that a notice of resolution to be moved by Mr. G. E. Marden and seconded by Mr. C. M. G. Burnie nominating Mr. H. G. Robinson as the Ratepayers' representative on the Land Commission for the ensuing Municipal year has been received by the Council.

Volunteer Corps Inspection—Date and Grant.—Upon the recommendation of the Commandant, it is decided that the Annual Inspection of the Corps shall take place on Sunday, April 26, instead of on April 25 as previously arranged.

The further recommendation of the Commandant, that, to stimulate recruiting, he be authorized in connection with the Annual inspection to spend up to Tls. 1,000 for refreshments and other incidental expenses is also approved.

Publicity. — Copies of a letter addressed to the Secretary General by Mr. R. T. Peyton-Griffin advocating the adoption by the Council of more extensive publicity measures have been supplied to members. Mr. Fessenden's proposal is approved that, in the first instance, a small Committee be appointed to give preliminary consideration to the proposals put forward by Mr. Peyton-Griffin. It is accordingly decided to leave the constitution of this Committee to the discretion of the Chairman and the Secretary General, Mr. Bell's offer to serve thereon being accepted.

Annual Basket Fair.—A further report by the Commissioner of Police emphasizing the desirability of limiting the scope of the customary Annual Basket Fair held in the vicinity of the Bubbling Well Temple is submitted.

Replying to the Chairman, a member states that he has discussed this matter with the Chief Monk of the Temple with a view, if possible, to limiting the space allotted to the various stalls rather than to limit the number of dealers participating in this fair. It was represented to him that whereas in other cities these fairs are held at frequent intervals, they are only held in Shanghai once yearly. The Chinese members will, however, confer further with the Commissioner of Police with a view to keeping the scope of this fair within reasonable bounds.

A suggestion is adopted that the Police Department be required to prepare plans illustrating the areas in this vicinity in which the fair car be held with a minimum of inconvenience to traffic. The suggestion put forward by the Vice-Chairman will also be transmitted to the Police Department that, during the comparatively short period the fair is in progress, traffic be diverted from this area. Further consideration of this question is deferred pending the result of the conference thereon between the Chinese members and the Commissioner of Police.

The CHAIRMAN.—It is proposed that the Rules of procedure annexed to this Resolution be adopted for the use of this meeting, and remain in force until the next Annual Meeting. Those in favour will signify in the usual manner? Those against? Carried unanimously. I will now call upon Brig.-Gen. Macnaghten to propose Resolution No. IV. that the Report and Accounts for the year 1930 be passed.

REPORT.

Brig.-General MACNAGHTEN.—Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen: The many and varied activities of the Council during the past year having been dealt with in detail in the Annual Report and in accordance with the policy of the Council to confine formal speeches to the narrowest practical limits, I shall only refer as briefly as possible to some of the subjects of major importance which have engaged the attention of the Council since the last Annual Meeting of Ratepayers.

ECONOMY COMMITTEE AND SALARIES COMMISSION.

You will doubtless recall that in June 1929, Mr. A. C. Clear was engaged by the Council to assist it in carrying into effect in so far as practicable the recommendations of the Economy Committee and to that end to work in connection with the Salaries Commission which was set up in compliance with a recommendation of the Economy Committee.

The Salaries Commission appointed by the Council in May 1929, consisted of the following gentlemen:—Messrs. C. M. G. Burnie, A. C. Clear, P. S. Hopkins, W. P. Lambe, V. Meyer and P. W. Massey.

Messrs. Burnie, Hopkins and Lambe resigned after the preliminary session on departure from Shanghai and Messrs. C. Burgess, R. J. Corbett and Singloh Hsu accepted the Council's invitation to fill the vacancies.

Mr. V. Meyer was elected Chairman and Mr. A. C. Clear, in addition to his Reorganization duties, undertook those of Secretary.

The Report presented to the Council in June last was a comprehensive and technical document, the full scope and usefulness of which has been demonstrated in detail by Mr. Clear through the Committee stage.

Remarkably few changes were necessary prior to the adoption of so comprehensive a report, and in such cases where departures from the original recommendations were considered advisable the intention of the Salaries Commission has been largely achieved by other methods than those at first contemplated.

The Council now has a complete grading and scales of pay for the whole of its staff based upon a system of merit increases which removes the principal objection to any system yet devised to cover automatic increases of pay in large public services.

The Salaries Commission's recommendations for opening up the service to Chinese in positions of greater responsibility has received the Council's sympathetic attention and in future, prior to the engagement of any foreign employee, the Council requires to be satisfied that the appointment cannot be filled by a Chinese.

To enable Ratepayers to appreciate the value of the work accomplished by the Salaries Commission and to present the Report as finally approved by the Council, a discursive edition has recently been published from which it will be seen that the difficulties confronting the Commission have been successfully overcome, with practically no increase in expenditure beyond that approved in last year's Budget.

The Council is satisfied that the adoption of the Salaries Commission Report will be beneficial to the economical administration of the foreign Settlement, and tenders its thanks to those gentlemen who served on the Commission for the excellence of their service to the Community.

In addition to his work in connection with the reorganization of the Council's staff, Mr. Clear has completed arrangements for bringing the Salaries Commission's recommendations into effect, and has given considerable attention to the improvement of Administrative procedure.

From the early days of the Settlement, Municipal authority and control has been centralized in the Secretariat, but with the phenomenal growth of Shanghai, a continuance of such a system has clogged the administrative machine with an unnecessary amount of routine, causing much delay and inconvenience in the conduct of public business.

To obviate this Mr. Clear has revised the Duties and Authority of all Heads of Departments on lines commensurate with their greatly increased responsibilities and has also set up a series of interdepartmental Committees to deal direct with matters needing the attention of more than one Department, thus avoiding constant reference backwards and forwards through the Secretariat.

A notable speeding up of work has resulted without any impairment of efficient control and with a considerable reduction of personnel.

To complete the Administrative chain Mr. Clear has revised the Standing Orders relating to the Council, its Committees and Commissions, which for many years has been needed. Provision has also been made that these essential features of the Administration shall not be neglected in future.

The nebulous state of affairs previously existing with regard to the Council, its Committees, its Officers and Staff has now been removed and under the definitions laid down Administration will in future be greatly facilitated and improved.

Mr. Clear particularly desired me to express the favourable impression he had gained of the general efficiency of the Council's service and to voice his appreciation of the manner in which suggestions were welcomed by Heads of Departments, whilst their cordial co-operation in the various changes brought about, not only lightened his task but established its usefulness.

In this connection I have only to add that Mr. Clear completed his difficult task in March last to the entire satisfaction of the Council and to the great benefit of the municipal service and the community at large.

SHANGHAI SPECIAL DISTRICT COURTS.

At the Annual Meeting of Ratepayers in April 1930, the most pessimistic views were expressed regarding the Shanghai Special District Courts which came into existence pursuant to an agreement concluded between the representatives of the foreign Powers and the Nanking Government on February 17, 1930.

One speaker referring to a speech made at the Ratepayers Meeting of 1929 upon the subject of the old Provisional Court stated in effect that during the year which had elapsed between the Meetings of 1929 and 1930 instead of an improvement, matters had gone from bad to worse and that even the Provisional Court with the small amount of protection it gave to foreign interests had been abandoned without Shanghai being consulted.

A section of the foreign press created a wide spread impression throughout the foreign community that the abolition of the Provisional Court and the substitution in its place of the Special District Courts was something in the nature of a catastrophe and that foreign rights and protection of foreign interests had been ruthlessly sacrificed to political expediency.

Experience in the past and public rumour not always founded upon an accurate knowledge of the facts lent increased credence to this impression.

I am pleased, however, to be able to inform you to-day that the functioning of the criminal side of the Special District Courts—I wish to lay emphasis on the words "Criminal side"—during the past year has been upon a sufficiently high plane of efficiency to dispel to a very large extent the fears which disturbed the foreign community a year ago.

As most, if not all of you, are aware the peace and good order of the Settlement depends in a very great degree upon the administration of the criminal side of the Special District Courts.

The average percentage of convictions during the past year in major and minor criminal cases prosecuted by the Municipal Police in the Special District Courts is 93.1 per cent, the lowest percentage in any one month being 91 per cent and the highest 97 per cent.

During the year 1930, according to the report of the Municipal Advocate, the total number of major and minor criminal cases prosecuted to completion was 20,883 in which 19,457 persons were convicted and 1,426 acquitted.

Considering local conditions this is a record which will compare favourably with the administration of criminal courts in other countries.

The Council has experienced some difficulty with regard to attempts of the Nanking Government to interfere with the procedure of the Courts in communistic cases which however was not serious, but, apart from this, has little complaint to make regarding the administration of criminal law by the Special District Courts during the past year.

Outside Roads.

It is a matter of extreme regret that the Council is unable to report any progress in the solution of the problem of the extra-Settlement roads.

Neither the local Chinese Authorities nor the Nanking Government are willing to discuss the major factors involved in this problem. Throughout the year the Council has encountered considerable interference with the policing and repairing of these roads but has recently come to an arrangement with the local Chinese Authorities which it is hoped will enable it to maintain these roads in a reasonable state of repair in the future.

Telephones.

On April 4, 1930, a few days prior to the Annual Meeting of Ratepayers, a revised form of franchise was sent to the Telephone Company to serve as a basis upon which parties interested in the purchase of the company might continue negotiations which up to that time had been without result.

This franchise was transmitted to the Advisory Committee which had been appointed by the Telephone Company.

The Committee ultimately recommended that the Telephone Company should accept the tender for the purchase of the enterprise made by the I. T. and T. The shareholders at their meeting on June 27, 1930, approved of the sale and in due course the Franchises were signed by both the Shanghai Municipal Council and the Municipalite Francaise on August 5, 1930. These Franchises provide for expeditious reconstruction of the service and for the conversion to automatic of the whole system within two years. They also provide that the increase of rentals as recommended by Mr. Anson shall not go into effect until the above mentioned conversion.

The Telephone Company has informed the Council that the status of the work on February 28, 1931, was as follows:—

Automatic equipment was ordered from two different factories of the I. T. T. system amounting to equipment for 43,000 subscribers' lines and, to-day, about 60 per cent of the whole of that equipment has been delivered in Shanghai. It is now in course of installation in such buildings where the work is sufficiently finished to allow equipment to be installed.

In addition to the preparation of plans and specifications, the Central Office buildings at Pichon and Wayside have been completed. Fokien is almost finished while Montigny is 90 per cent finished and West and North are 85 per cent finished.

As regards the wire plant, 152 manholes have been constructed in the street, 141,100 feet of single-way duct for cables have been laid underground and 572,400 feet of cable, both underground and aerial, have been placed. The total wire in these cables amounts to 56,450 miles.

In addition, new terminal boxes, which virtually form the centres of distribution for subscribers' lines all over the city, to the extent of 2,260, have been placed.

The Telephone Company is encountering persistent interference on the part of the Chinese authorities in installing new equipment outside Settlement limits. Under the terms of its franchise agreement with the Council the Company is bound under penalty to convert its manual equipment to efficient automatic working within two years from August 5, 1930, the date on which the franchise agreement was signed.

Realizing that the interference which the Company is encountering outside Settlement limits is due entirely to circumstances beyond its control the Council has agreed to release the Company from the obligations of the franchise agreement in respect to that portion of its plant which is located on extra-Settlement roads.

Accounts.

The Financial Statement for 1930 and the Treasurer and Controller's report thereon have been in your hands for some days and it is only necessary for me to draw your attention to the more salient features of the financial position therein disclosed. You will have observed that the ordinary surplus carried forward to 1931 amounts to Taels 2,271,000 as compared with an estimated surplus budgetted for of Taels 3,277,000; in other words our expectations were not realized to the extent of approximately Taels 1,000,000. Details of this shortage are contained in the Treasurer and Controller's report from which you will have gauged that the unprecedented fall in the value of the tael was one of the main reasons responsible for that result.

You will have noticed that the cost of the Police Force continues to increase and that in 1930 no less than 36 per cent of the total Municipal Income for the year was absorbed by this very essential Service. The adoption of certain recommendations of the Salaries Commission has materially affected the cost of Police protection, the Chinese Branch in particular deriving considerable benefit therefrom. I think you will agree, however, that the Community is getting full value for even this large and increasing expenditure. In referring to the question of providing additional Educational facilities, I would like to point out at this juncture that during the past year the percentage of income devoted to Educational purposes only approximated 4.6 per cent, excluding capital charges, but that with the adoption of the Educational Scheme, full particulars of which we published in the "Municipal Gazette" of February 13, this percentage will be materially increased during 1931 and thereafter. The Council maintains 13 schools, of which seven are for Chinese and six for Foreign children. At the end of last year the enrolment in the Chinese schools was 3,281 and numbers of children had to be refused admission because of the lack of room for them. The enrolment in the Foreign schools was 1,536 and there is room in some of them for a considerable number of additional pupils.

The various transfers and amalgamations mentioned in my speech last year have either been put into effect or are awaiting completion. They are undoubtedly making for both economy and efficiency and Mr. Clear in devising them did a valuable service to the community.

No progress has yet been made towards the provision of a new school for Foreign boys in the Western District, but I can assure you the Council is making every possible effort in this direction and I hope that before long some definite step may be found practicable.

The Education Board, of which I last year announced the establishment, has worked since June in its dual capacity of supervising the Council's schools and advising the Council as to a general scheme of educational policy. It has prepared a programme of school extension and of grants-in-aid, which the Council has approved in principle. The financial aspects of that programme will be laid before you in my speech upon the Budget.

There is one other reference in the Treasurer's Report to which I would particularly draw your attention, namely, that summarizing the disposal of the purchase price of the Electricity Department. There is a feeling abroad that as a result of the sale of this Undertaking the Council has unlimited means at its disposal, and it is with a view to dispelling this erroneous impression that I particularly draw your attention to this important statement which discloses the actual position. I may observe here that it has been calculated that if the Electricity Department had not been sold, and on such favourable terms as to payment of the purchase price, not only would there have been no reduction in taxation last July but the rates to-day would be in the neighbourhood of 20 per cent.

Coming now to the Statement of Extraordinary Income and Expenditure you will notice that a surplus of Taels 3,344,711 is being carried forward to 1931 instead of a sum of Taels 2,382,700, an increase of approximately Taels 962,000. Payments from the Shanghai Power Company amounted to approximately Taels 23,500,000 and enabled the Council to redeem no less than ten municipal loans during the year, including the sterling loan of 1920, and to finance the requirements of the Capital Budget. With regard to the year's expenditure it was found to be impracticable to carry out the full building programme contemplated, and a portion of the Funds thereby released was utilized in acquiring land for road widenings rendered necessary by the abnormal progress made in the redevelopment of many large properties.

With these remarks, I beg to propose:—

Resolution IV.—That the Report and Accounts for the year ended December 31, 1930, be passed.

Mr. G. W. SHEPPARD.—Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I beg to second that resolution.

The CHAIRMAN.—The Resolution has been duly proposed and seconded and is now before the Meeting for discussion.—If no Ratepayer has any comment to make on Resolution No. 4, which has been duly proposed and seconded, I will now put it to the Meeting. Those in favour please signify in the usual manner?—Any contrary minded?—Carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN.—I will now call upon Brig.-Gen. Macnaghten to propose Resolution No. 5.

BUDGET.

Brig.-Gen. MACNAGHTEN: — Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen: The explanatory notes accompanying the Budget give full comparisons of the 1931 Estimates as compared with those for the preceding year, and apart from referring to one or two of its more important features I do not propose to take up your time by unnecessary repetition of these details.

You will observe that the General Municipal Rate to be levied is the same as that for the second half of 1930 authorized at the last Ratepayers' Meeting, namely 14 per cent on Foreign and Chinese houses inside the Settlement and 12 per cent on those beyond Settlement limits. Land Tax remains at its present figure of 7/10ths of 1 per cent on assessed value of property.

The estimated surplus to be carried forward to 1932 amounts to Taels 313,000 which compares with a sum of Taels 2,271,000 brought forward from 1930.

Whilst it is satisfactory to note that the Ordinary Budget has been balanced and that for the current year additional taxation has not become necessary I must confess that the smallness of the surplus is somewhat disappointing. Briefly the position may be accounted for by the extraordinary drop in the price of silver and its direct and indirect effect on all sections of the Budget. As stated in my speech last year your Council had hoped to maintain the present low level of taxation over a period of years but unless the exchange position materially improves in the future there is every probability of it becoming necessary in 1932 to revert to the basis of taxation in force prior to July 1930.

In connection with this matter it may not be generally realized that taxation in Shanghai is probably lower than in any of the large cities of Europe or America. In Great Britain, for example, the rates levied are in the neighbourhood of 70 per cent of rateable values, and in addition to the income derived therefrom it is customary for British Municipalities to receive Government grants in support of certain public services.

With regard to the Extraordinary Budget you will observe that we anticipate a deficit for the year of Taels 350,750 as compared with the surplus brought forward from 1930 of Taels 3,344,700. This is mainly due to the fact that the extraordinary expenditure contemplated during the year amounts to approximately Taels 10,000,000, whereas under the arrangement whereby payment of the purchase price of the Electricity Department is spread over a period of years only Taels 8,000,000 is available during 1931.

You will notice that the Building programme is one of considerable magnitude. You have already approved the erection of the majority of the buildings on which expenditure is contemplated during the year as they were included in the 1930 Budget;—the necessary further expenditure to complete these buildings is therefore inevitable. In so far as imported materials are concerned you will understand that the fall in exchange to which I have already referred in other connections is a partial cause of the high cost of the building programme.

We propose to continue the policy of acquiring land for road widenings as opportunity offers. As a result of the recently completed reassessment of land you will realize that the cost of road widenings will be materially increased.

Under the heading of Loan Redemption provision is made for repayment of the 8 per cent Loans of 1931 and for Sinking Fund instalments on those loans which cannot be redeemed till after December 31, 1933, the date on which the purchase price of the Electricity Department will be finally liquidated.

As referred in my speech on the Report and Accounts for 1930 to the programme of Educational policy, which has been drafted by the Education Board and approved in principle by the Council. This scheme has been published and you have no doubt made yourselves more or less familiar with its scope. Briefly summarized, the programme provides for the establishment before 1934 of two secondary schools for Chinese girls and for the erection during each year between now and 1938 of two new Mixed Primary Schools for Chinese children, to be staffed—as are the existing Primary schools—by Chinese masters and mistresses. It also provides for grants-in-aid to existing non-Municipal schools, both Chinese and Foreign, which satisfy the Council that they need and deserve such assistance.

By the end of 1938 there would, under this programme, be in all 23 Municipal Schools for Chinese and it is estimated that about 7 per cent of the total number of Chinese children of school age within the Settlement could then be accommodated in Municipal schools.

The budget requirements for the current year's part of this programme are comparatively small: indeed the cost of Chinese education which you are being asked to-day to sanction is still considerably less than the cost of the Municipal schools for Foreign children, while the whole expenditure on education (including a sum of Taels 150,000 set aside for grants-in-aid) represents less than 9 per cent of the Municipal income.

I want you to pay special attention to what I am going to say now.

But the Council desires the Ratepayers to realize that they will from year to year be asked to sanction the expenditure of gradually increasing sums for Chinese education, until in 1938 (unless something happens to check or to accelerate our progress) the expenditure on Education may amount to about 16 per cent of our revenue.

I have no doubt that your sanction to this year's expenditure will be freely given: it could hardly be withheld when it is considered that Chinese children, though they vastly outnumber the Foreign children, will this year get the benefit of less than half of what we are prepared to spend on Education—This is again important—what I am going to say now. — Nothing that you do to-day can deprive the Ratepayers of future years of their constitutional right to call a halt in expenditure, but I am confident that future Ratepayers will realize as clearly as you do that it is the duty of this Settlement to provide improved educational opportunities for the children of the Chinese residents.

In order that the cost of Public Education may be clearly realized by the Ratepayers, both Chinese and Foreign, the Council has decided that the Education Budget shall in future form a distinct section of the Municipal Accounts. The precise method of financing the cost of Education, whether by a special rate or otherwise, will be the subject of future discussion.

With these remarks, I beg to propose:—

Resolution V. — That the estimated expenditure for the year 1931 contained in the Budget proposed by the retiring Council, together with the recommendations attached thereto, be approved and adopted and that the Council be and it is hereby authorized to impose, collect and recover the rates, taxes, dues and fees recommended therein.

Mr. G. W. SHEPPARD.—Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I beg to second that resolution.

The CHAIRMAN.—Resolution No. 5 has been duly proposed and seconded and is now open for discussion.—As no Ratepayer has any comment to make, I will now put the Resolution to you. Those in favour kindly signify in the usual way?—Those against?—Carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN.—I will now call upon Mr. Marden to propose Resolution No. 6, for the election of a Land Commissioner for the ensuing year. (After a pause) If Mr. Marden is not here, I will ask the seconder to propose the Resolution and someone else to second it, if that meets with your approval. It is merely formal.

Mr. C. M. G. BURNIE.—I beg to propose.

Resolution VI.—That Mr. H. G. Robinson be elected a Land Commissioner for the ensuing year.

Mr. GEO. A. JOHNSON.—I have great pleasure in seconding that proposal.

The CHAIRMAN.—The Resolution having been duly proposed and seconded, it is now before the meeting. Will those in favour kindly signify in the usual way?—Those against?—Carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN.—I will now call upon Brig.-Gen. Macnaghten to propose Resolution No. 7.

Brig.-Gen. MACNAGHTEN.—I have much pleasure in proposing.

Resolution VII.—That Drs. A. C. Bryson and T. B. Dunn and Messrs. G. W. Sheppard and J. W. Carney be elected to serve on the Board of Governors of the Shanghai General Hospital.

Mr. A. D. BELL.—I have much pleasure in seconding that Resolution.

The CHAIRMAN.—Resolution No. 7 has been proposed and seconded and is now before you. Will those in favour kindly signify in the usual way?—Against? — Carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN.—I will now call upon Mr. E. F. Harris to propose Resolution No. 8.

Mr. E. F. Harris.—On the main road in the British Concession in Tientsin, a road corresponding to our Bubbling well Road, there are some very beautiful Public Gardens. At one end of these Gardens is the old City Hall called the Victoria Hall, and next to that is the Public Library. The Gardens are beautifully laid out with flowers and there is a Band Stand where the band plays on summer evenings, and in pamphlets and brochures, regarding Tientsin, circulated throughout the world, the photograph of this City Hall and Public Gardens is always included.

Talking last week to one of the Councillors of the Municipal Council I said to him. "This is a very valuable piece of property, is it not?" and he replied "Yes of course it is, it must be worth millions." "Well" I said "Why don't you sell it?" "Sell it," he replied, "Why it is one of our City's most cherished possessions. Every evening and weekend during the summer you will see it crowded with all those people who cannot afford to belong to Country Clubs." "But" I said, "It is about two miles away from the congested business area, and also a little way away from the factory area. Would it not be better to have open spaces in those areas which are apparently more congested." "Well" was the reply, "it is a curious thing, there are some open spaces in other parts of the town, but they are hardly patronized at all, in fact we do not find that it is possible to have very beautiful Gardens in areas such as you describe, the people would rather come a mile or two, provided there are good communications, and visit these Gardens in this beautiful setting. Come over with me and see our Town Hall. We are having an informal meeting with some of our leading Chinese ratepayers. We frequently get together with our Chinese friends and we find that amid such surroundings we can talk together as citizens of Tientsin and not as nationals of our own respective countries, and besides", he said, "supposing we were to sell all this property, where should we hold our Ratepayers meetings? "Ah," I replied, "I can give you the answer to that—You can hire the Grand Theatre."

The resolution before you is:—

That this Meeting of Ratepayers approve the proposal that the Majestic Property shall be purchased for the community and be used as a Public Gardens and Civic Centre, provided that it can be secured at a price which the Council considers reasonable and provided that at the same time provision can be made for necessary open spaces in the more congested districts.

It is an honour to move this Resolution, because if carried as I believe it will be, it will mean that the City of Shanghai will own a property of which they can reasonably be proud. It is seventeen years since the last open space was provided for us by the Council, and that was outside the Settlement and during that seventeen years the Revenue of the Council has increased by more than three times. Our Town Hall on the Nanking Road has been sold for One and a quarter Million Taels and this sum is now lying to our credit waiting for an opportunity to build another Town Hall on a more suitable site when the opportunity arrives. I submit that that opportunity has now arrived and that it would be a colossal Municipal blunder if we were to allow it to slip. The Majestic site is now world famous; it has a tradition and a history; it is not only the show place of the Settlement, it is the only place in the International Settlement to which we would dream of taking any visitors where we could exhibit one of our possessions with any feeling of pride. Since it was opened as a Hotel it has been a common meeting ground for Foreigners and Chinese. It was the scene of the welcome to the President of the Chinese Republic and its retention for ever for this city and its people would be pleasing to all the better elements among the Chinese. Touching for one moment upon a political aspect of the question, it is now impossible for a Foreigner to buy land outside the Settlement, and secure any form of Title, as the Chinese Government has now decided that they will not permit the transfer of Titles or Fang Tan to the name of a Foreigner. It seems pretty certain, therefore, that we are going to give up all jurisdiction over property outside the actual settlement limits. This is in itself a very strong reason why such a splendid property as this Majestic Site situated as it is on one of our main roads should be secured for the Community, and not be allowed to be sold and developed into Chinese shops, as it certainly will be, if we do not grasp the opportunity afforded us to-day. The area of this site which is nearly 60 mow is about double the area of the Tientsin Civic Centre to which I have referred and I think that without exception every architect in Shanghai has pronounced himself to be very strongly in favour of this site being acquired by the Municipality. It is bounded by roads on three sides; two of them being very excellent wide roads, and is very easily accessible by tram, bus, or other conveyance. Coming down to details as to how this property should be utilized if purchased, I would like to say right away that there is no suggestion whatever that the Administration Buildings should be moved. What I have suggested is that a really beautiful building should be erected on the Site of the present Majestic Hotel to serve as a Town Hall for Ratepayers Meetings and also as a Concert Hall for performances of our Municipal Orchestra and other concert purposes. There could also be room for an Art Gallery or Art School, smaller rooms for meetings, and accommodation for other cultural interests including of course a Public Library and Reading Room. The present Ball Room could be retained and would prove a valuable source of revenue. I have also suggested that in the grounds there should be an Open Air Cinema when the Orchestra is not playing. It is pretty certain that the Revenue from these various sources would more than cover any cost of upkeep. It is not, however, my duty to detail exactly how this accommodation should be utilized. What should be done is that a Committee of leading Architects and Representatives of the Ratepayers and the Council, and also from the Women's Associations should be appointed to meet and consider just what should be done. You will notice that the Resolution also provides that at the same time the Council should consider Open Spaces in the more congested areas. I will tell you quite frankly that this was added to the Resolution on the suggestion of my good friend Mr. Fukushima, who said that with that proviso he would be prepared to support the Resolution and to recommend the Japanese Ratepayers to vote for it, and I would also like to say quite frankly that I am in favour of the Council making necessary provision for Open Spaces in congested areas where it is possible. But Gentlemen, "prevention is better than cure" and it is also much cheaper, and there is only one way to have Parks in congested areas and that is to make the Parks before the areas become congested. I understand that the Council has already made provision for an Open Space in the Factory area of Singapore Road and apparently the other immediate need is for some open space in the Eastern district. I mention this because I want to include provision for such an Open Space in the figures as to cost which I am going to give you. The price for the Majestic Property, for which I have an option, is Three Million, Five hundred thousand Taels. This is an average of Sixty thousand Taels a mow, and I would like to draw your attention to the fact that two mow of land next to this property, as announced in this morning's issue of the "North-China Daily News" has just been sold for the sum of One hundred and twenty five thousand Taels a mow, more than double what we are asked for the Majestic property. You will notice that the price asked does not include anything for the Building, so to what extent the present buildings can be used, or not, is really immaterial since we are not paying for them, and any break up value, if we have to pull part of them down, would be ours. Suppose we add on another Eight hundred thousand Taels to provide a Park in the Eastern district, we get a total of Four Million, three hundred thousand Taels, but we already have a credit of One and a quarter Million Taels for the sale of our previous Town Hall, and adjusting this, we get back to a total of Three Million Taels. Suppose we add Five hundred thousand Taels for construction of necessary buildings and improvements, we get back to our figure of Three and a half Million Taels as the total price to provide both the Majestic Site complete as a Council Centre with buildings and also a Park in the Eastern District. Now at six per cent this represents an annual charge of Two hundred and ten thousand Taels, but as 6 per cent debentures can be issued at a premium, we would have to pay practically no interest at all at the end of the first year. You will have read the statement of the Treasurer and Controller that an immediate loan would not be necessary to finance this proposition, and the Council has funds in hands with which it could be done. It is also definitely untrue to suggest that this purchase in itself would involve an increase in rates. An increase of one per cent in rates yields Seven hundred and twenty thousand Taels a year, so that an increase of one per cent would be nearly four times as much as the cost involved in this purchase. But, Gentlemen, I do not like to talk of this as though it were a cost, it is an investment—an investment that will yield you dividends in health, contentment, in pleasure, in culture, in recreation, and I hope also in international friendship and understanding. It would be politically, municipally, and personally dishonest to tell you that with practically no public debt and with the whole of this city's wonderful credit not being utilized that we cannot afford to make this investment. Even in terms of hard cash we couldn't possibly lose. It is economy to look ahead, and we are paying dearly to-day because our predecessors were so short-sighted in some respects. "What do we praise them for, and what do we blame them for?" We praise them for any wide roads and open spaces which they provided, and we blame them for the narrow streets which we can only widen to-day at very heavy cost. If you refer to the budget you will see that during the coming year we are going to spend One Million, eight hundred thousand Taels in road widening, a cost which could have been saved if our predecessors had only been far-sighted.

Gentlemen, you have sold your Electricity Department for Eighty one Million Taels and what have you got to show for it! Not very much I am afraid. It is true that you have had a small reduction in taxation, amounting to about two per cent on the sale, but again you have been told the Council is going to launch into schemes for mass education of the Chinese, which very soon means that your taxes will go up again to Sixteen per cent. Now I am not against education, though you may be admitting a principle, and preparing your backs for a burden the enormity of which it is impossible to foresee, but Gentlemen, this Eighty one Million Taels is your money, and before it is all frittered away, as it will be, I do suggest to you that you should use some of it, not by any means all—not even half—but just about four per cent of your own money to buy something for yourselves and something for the City; something which you can see; something tangible that cannot vanish away like the rest of the Eighty one Million will; something that we can enjoy right here and now every day of our lives, and something of which the City may be proud.

More than a dozen resolutions have been passed by various bodies and Associations, and these were published this morning in all the Press except the "North-China Daily News." I will not burden you by reading them to you. I will only refer to two. One is the resolution passed by the Joint Organization of Women's Associations, consisting of over Three Thousand Women of all nationalities. The other resolution is that of the Japanese Women's Association. I specially mention this because I have been told that the Japanese are against this purchase, but it is quite obvious that their wives favour it very strongly indeed. It is unfortunate that I cannot speak the Japanese language, as I would like to explain my views to these Japanese Ratepayers as well as to those Ratepayers who understand English, but I hope that Mr. Fukushima will be kind enough to say a few words in Japanese to the Japanese Ratepayers explaining roughly what I have said in my speech.

Now, Gentlemen, these 12 or more resolutions which have been passed in favour of the purchase of the Majestic Site deserve our very serious consideration, because they mostly come from people who are workers in this city but who cannot afford to belong to Country Clubs and to whom the advantages of the Majestic Site, developed as I have suggested, would be very great indeed. We are to a certain extent trustees for these people, especially for the young people, and I do hope that you will give very great weight indeed to these resolutions.

Before I finish I want to say something about the Chinese attitude. I was talking to one of the Foreign members of the Council and he said to me "What do the Chinese think?" I told him of certain responsible Chinese of the business professional class whom I had approached and who are all strongly in favour of the scheme, and his reply was "These Chinese, the responsible sober members of the Community did not count—didn't I understand that what we had to fear was the Extremists, and that it was very necessary to find out the point of view of these people." Well, Gentlemen, I didn't understand and I still don't understand, and if it is true that we have to fear the Extremists, then it is disgraceful, and it is about time that we told these Extremists to go to—. Well I suppose I mustn't use unparliamentary language, but you know the destiny to which I refer. It is true that the Extremists in the Chinese Ratepayers Association do not favour this proposal, although they may favour it individually, because to favour it would mean co-operation with the foreigners and this must not be done at any cost. As one distinguished Chinese put it to me, "the appeal that you have made that the Majestic has been a common meeting ground between Foreigners and Chinese and was the scene of the wedding of the President of the Chinese Republic strikes a sentimental note that is very dear to the Chinese hearts, but if the Extremists were to allow this to come to pass, it would mean the beginning of co-operation between the Chinese and the Foreigners in the Settlement, and that is the last thing that the Extremists want, because it would mean the end of the Extremists. If this spirit of common citizenship were to be engendered between the Foreigners and the Chinese it would lengthen the life of this Settlement by, at least ten years and might prolong it indefinitely, and therefore the Chinese Extremists must oppose it at all costs."

Gentlemen, if there is any truth in this statement, then not only would this Property not be dear at the price asked; it would be cheap at ten times that price.

Gentlemen, I have finished. You have an opportunity to-day to make an investment in the welfare of Shanghai, which you will never have again. If you pass this resolution, then every successive year you and your successors will be able to say with deeper and deeper conviction, "The purchase of this Property was the best thing we ever did." When Paul stood up for trial he was able to say "I am a citizen of no mean city." Will you and your children be able to say that about Shanghai? It is for you to decide.

Mr. G. A. FITCH.—I feel that Mr. Harris has put forward the Resolution so eloquently, so completely, and so convincingly, that there is practically nothing for me to add, further than to say that I am wholeheartedly back of it and I think this Resolution will have the hearty support of the Ratepayers of Shanghai, for I believe that it means so much to the future welfare of this community and the good name of Shanghai. There is just one question I would like to raise and then leave to you. How many of us here know, or have even heard of a city that finds itself to-day embarrassed or handicapped, or over-taxed, because its City Fathers in days gone by provided too liberally in the way of parks and open spaces, and recreational facilities? On the other hand, how many cities do we know of whose cultural and recreational life is stunted, and whose health is in danger, because those who were charged with the responsibility for the welfare of those communities lacked conviction, courage, and faith, and failed to take the right step at the right time? I hope that the coming generation of citizens of Shanghai, Chinese and foreigners, will not have occasion to look back upon this day and condemn us for the action we have taken, but rather that they will rise up and call us blessed. I have great pleasure in seconding the Resolution moved by Mr. Harris.

The CHAIRMAN.—The Resolution has been proposed and seconded and is now open for discussion.

Brig.-Gen. MACNAGHTEN.—I must congratulate Mr. Harris on his oratory. He talked a lot about talents. He certainly has got a talent, or at least it strikes me that he has one, and that is the talent of inconsistency. He said the Council had purchased no property for 17 years and later on in the same speech he acknowledged that within this year the Council had bought a big open space in Kiaochow Road, which is quite close to the Majestic. His speech was a fine oratorical effort, but I hope you will not be carried away by oratory alone, but stick to argument. I don't know what his civic centre is to consist of. He wrote to the "North-China Daily News" some time ago, expressing more or less the same thing, and in that letter he suggested that the swimming bath should have Neon lights. I don't know what effect Neon lights would have on the swimmers, but I think it might need the Watch Committee to inquire into it. He talks of all the architects of Shanghai being in favour of it, but I cannot see why you should be influenced because the architects want to buy the site. I think it was absolutely unfair of Mr. Harris to talk about the 81 millions for which the Electricity Department was sold having been frittered away. It was an absolutely unfair thing to say. I don't know what the debenture holders will think of the suggestion of their bonds being frittered away. I have a few more remarks to make, but you will have seen in the "North-China Daily News" the views of the Council, as to whether or not the acquiring of a particular property is in any sense necessary in the interest of the community as a whole.

In deciding upon any project involving expenditure of capital moneys it is the invariable practice of the Council to discriminate most particularly between capital schemes definitely considered to be necessary and those which though desirable in a broad general sense do not pass the test of necessity.

It is obvious from the arguments of many of those who advocate the purchase of the Majestic property that they are actuated more by reasons of sentiment than by sound financial and utilitarian considerations.

It is undoubtedly sentiment which is largely responsible for the desire of a considerable section of the community that the Majestic site be bought for the primary purpose of a place of entertainment. Aside from the fact that this is not a convincing argument upon which to justify the expenditure of a very large capital sum there is no assurance that the future development of the property if purchased for municipal purposes would for financial reasons admit of the permanent retention of a large portion of it for purely entertainment purposes.

It has been suggested among other things that the Administration Offices might be removed to this site and that portions of it could be used as a "so-called" civic centre and park or open space.

It has, I think, been made abundantly clear to the public that the removal of the Administration Offices to this site would be neither economical nor of practical value.

Mr. HARRIS has talked about the removal of the Administration Offices. This is, of course, perfectly absurd, and I think he agrees with that now, although I don't think he did when he started.

The suggestion that the site might be developed as a civic centre is of a very nebulous character and apparently based upon a vague and indistinct appreciation of what is implied in the term civic centre in its relation to modern ideas of Town Planning. It requires but little examination of this suggestion to demonstrate that the proposed site is inadequate in area for such a purpose quite apart from the question of the cost of such a scheme which is prohibitive under present conditions.

It is not well adapted to the needs of a park or open space either from the point of view of location or area, and if acquired for that purpose would benefit only a small and comparatively prosperous class of the community and in no way relieve the acute need for parks and open spaces in the congested areas of the Settlement which are densely populated by the poorer classes to whose relief the Council is already committed.

If the Majestic site were purchased it would inevitably postpone the acquisition of park areas in the more congested districts.

The outlay of so large a sum as Taels 3,500,000 would result in an annual charge on the Ordinary Budget of approximately Taels 250,000 and might form a factor in necessitating an increase in Municipal taxation which should be avoided as long as possible.

I do not propose to waste any more of your time in repeating at greater length what I should imagine most of you have already read in the Press, and I will therefore conclude by asking you to throw out the resolution.

The Council definitely does not recommend you to purchase the Majestic site—definitely. It is for you ratepayers to decide and the Council will do what you do decide but I repeat it is definitely the Council's recommendation not to purchase the Majestic site (applause).

Mr. K. FUKUSHIMA—There was some reference in the speech of Mr. Harris to me. I think a word of explanation will be necessary, otherwise my attitude in this question might be questioned by those familiar with what I have done in this matter. Mr. Harris makes out that I was the sponsor of the proposal, or that I am an unqualified supporter of the idea of purchase, which is not the case. In fact, some time ago, Mr. Harris came to me with a draft of a Resolution which was in the nature of definite instructions to the Council to purchase the Majestic site. As friendly advice, I told him there would only be a very remote possibility of such a Resolution passing the Ratepayers' Meeting, because I knew that the Council were opposed to it, on account of financial reasons. I told him that it would be a fine thing for Shanghai to have such a valuable property for the enjoyment of the citizens, but that the Council must consider financial requirements and whether they could permit such expenditure, and whether there were some propositions requiring previous attention before the purchase of the Majestic site. Therefore, I asked if he was willing to accept my advice that there should be two reservations to the proposition—that if there were funds with the Council making it possible to purchase the site, and also if provision were made for the acquisition of open spaces for the benefit of more congested districts. And he was willing. He gladly accepted my advice and the result is the present Resolution. I tried to explain my views to the Council and was given to understand that the present state of their finances did not permit the immediate adoption of the present Resolution, and I fell in with the rest of the Members of the Council. I still believe that the basic underlying idea to buy a site of this kind for future requirements is not a bad one, but it must be carefully considered whether it can be put through at the present time. Even if the Resolution goes through, it does not definitely instruct the Council to buy. They have the liberty to consider whether their finances justify it, and, if not, they do not have to buy the site, nor buy the site if they cannot make suitable provision for parks and open spaces for more congested districts. Therefore, the passing of the Resolution and the buying of the site are not entirely one and the same thing. A question of this kind depends on the will of the Ratepayers. If the Ratepayers consider it an urgent necessity, the Council will be guided by them, and it is for you to say whether you really want it, or whether you do not care for it so very much.

Mr. H. B. WILMARTH—I represent nobody but just one Ratepayer, and I don't belong to any Country Clubs. I am a worker, and, regarding Mr. Harris's proposition, I am against it. It takes money to buy these sites, and when you spend that money you take it out of your own pockets—each and every one of the Ratepayers. You spend it for something we don't need—sentiment may be all right—and you deprive yourselves of something to eat. Mr. Harris is placing us in the position of Jones and Brown. Mrs. Jones has got a new car and we have got to have one. He is comparing us with Tientsin. Pride is all right, but there is another word for it, and it does not provide us with anything to eat. Most of the Majestic property would be concerned with what amount to theatrical ideas, and that is all you can say for it. It has a beautiful dance floor. I like to dance, and so does Mr. Harris. I have seen him doing it, and I think that has a great deal to do with him running this. We don't care whether the rest of the world thinks we have got a wonderful city or a poor city, but we have to think of whether we are depriving the Ratepayers of money they need for themselves. As far as the rest of the world thinks of us, and as for that book Mr. Harris speaks of—well, most of the novelists of the world spend some time telling the rest about us, some of it good and some not. We can do without these sights, so long as we conduct the city in a businesslike way. It does not matter what the tourists like. I suggest the Ratepayers keep their money in their pockets and tell the Council not to buy.

Mr. HAYASHI spoke in Japanese and Mr. J. R. Jones read the following translation of his remarks:—

I am sorry to say that I must voice my opposition to the proposal for the Municipal Council's purchase of the Majestic Property.

As a matter of fact, I can see no reason why the Municipal Council should be asked to buy the said property at the present juncture. Taken from all angles, say for instance, from the points of view of traffic convenience and density of the population, the present locality of the Municipal Administration building, I believe, is a most suitable and almost ideal site for the administrative head-quarters of the Settlement.

On the contrary, the Majestic property, taking every aspect into consideration, has no commendable advantages.

Moreover, all the necessary equipments as desired by the promoter in favour of the purchase of the Majestic site, I am of the opinion, can be provided on the existing site of the Municipal Council.

As regards the question of furnishing the population in the Settlement with additional parks and open spaces, it is hoped that the Municipal Council, taking into consideration the interests and convenience of the residents as a whole, will choose more suitable places.

At any rate, in these days when the Municipal Council is faced with difficulties of spending a vast amount of money for other various important purposes, we can not tolerate any attempt to make a big investment in matters which are not urgently required.

In conclusion, I repeat that I am strongly opposed to the proposal for the Council's Purchase of the Majestic property.

Mr. Ranald G. MCDONALD—Is it not a fact that there are alternative, more suitable, and less expensive sites available for the purposes under contemplation?

The CHAIRMAN—I don't think that is a question for the Chairman of this meeting to answer.

Mr. MCDONALD—I meant the Chairman of the Council.

Mr. K. S. INUI.—Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, it is necessary for us to question this scheme for the purchase of the Majestic site at this meeting, before, as it were, the eyes of all the city. Recently in the Press I have noticed some Resolutions which several organizations passed regarding it and while I believe that many of those undertaking the discussion of such resolutions have dwelt on the question very carefully I cannot believe that all of them have had opportunities of so doing. If my opinion of the way in which some of the organizations pass their resolutions is any indication I must say that I do not consider them to be entirely representative of the wishes of the majority. I hate to give this illustration, but it so happens that I have no other alternative. I was invited as chairman to a meeting of one of these organizations at which something about Chinese civilisation was to be discussed. At the conclusion of what was a very interesting address there came a resolution concerning this Majestic property. I had no knowledge at all that the resolution was to be discussed or submitted and I did not think it the proper time or place for an expression of my opinion so I asked to be relieved. At that meeting there were between 60 and 65 persons and when a vote was taken 15 turned out to be in favour of the resolution and five against. To me those 45 odd silent voters sounded louder and more emphatic than those who actually expressed their wishes. I agree with much that Mr. Harris has said—I would agree from the business standpoint that the Majestic property is a splendid property and would be a splendid investment although I do not say which of these headings should be used as a classification of its necessity. Looking at the whole matter from a birds' eye view, so to speak, I, personally, speaking as an individual and a ratepayer, do not see any such necessity at the present time. The Council have definitely repeated before us their recommendation not to purchase it and I have perfect confidence that despite the praiseworthy "talent" of Mr. Harris you will not see fit to go on record as refusing to endorse the Council's recommendation, a recommendation made after careful study of all the circumstances. I am content to abide by the decision of the Council. Before I cast my vote may I thank you and Mr. Harris and Mr. Fitch for the opportunity given for a frank and comprehensive discussion of the whole affair? Finally, while I agree that this city needs a civic centre very much I repeat that the necessity is not now so pressing that in face of the Council's recommendation we should go counter to it. If in the future some way could be found, in which we could all agree, to acquire such a centre, and the present obvious obstacles to its acquirements could be overcome, as they cannot now be, and if finances and so on were in a more satisfactory and promising condition, however, I would gladly vote for it and am sure that you would join me.

Mr. E. Oxley Cumming—I have been here for many years, as you all know, but one thing you never have heard is myself on this platform. I never knew I was going to talk. I have listened to all the speeches and I am not going to talk for or against. An esteemed American gentleman got up and said that he was a worker, but not a member of the Country Club. I am a member of the Country Club, and I am a worker. At least, I hope so. I have heard the arguments for and against buying this property and it has been said that it will cost Tls. 3,500,000. To develop it and make a civic centre sounds good, but I have never seen one or been in one. I should think it will cost nearer a million more, but I may be wrong. The interest per annum would be Tls. 270,000. I don't know how much this would cost the Ratepayers per man, but Mr. Harris says it would cost very little. That is all I have to say. It is in the hands of the Ratepayers. I am in favour.

Mr. E. F. Harris—The lot of the pioneer is always difficult, because he has to exhort people to show courage, whereas it is comparatively easy for the one-talent man to say—"Let's keep the money in our pockets." You don't keep it. You are paying dearly and you will pay more dearly in the future. It is true, as has been said, that the Council speaks with one voice, but that does not mean that they all think as that one voice speaks. There were several members in favour of this scheme, but, quite wisely, and in accordance with tradition, they must bow to the majority. You will understand that from what Mr. Fukushima said. I don't want to embarrass him, but only to thank him for the help he has given me. Gen. Macnaghten said that the proposals were vague, but that is the job of an expert committee. We can get excellent examples from many cities. If one gentleman does not care what the world thinks, there are many of us who are dependent on what the world thinks who do take it seriously. That is a callous remark which should not be given any weight at all. I hope you are going to have the courage to embark on something which cannot mean a loss. Supposing we did it and there was that site—admittedly the best in the city—laid out with a Town Hall and public gardens where the Band played in the afternoons or evenings, and there were thousands attending there, as you can be jolly sure there would be, which man amongst you who opposes it to-day would be man enough to get up on this platform and propose that we sell it? Not one!

The Chairman.—The proposer has replied and I will now put the Resolution to the meeting. Those in favour kindly signify in the usual way.——Those against?——There is no use in counting. The Resolution is lost by a large majority.

Brig.-Gen. Macnaghten.—Before we break up, I know that you would like me, on your behalf, to voice a very hearty vote of thanks to Mr. A. W. Burkill for having so ably taken the Chair at this meeting. (Applause).

The meeting terminated at 3.45 p.m.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, April 7, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present: Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, A. J. Hughes, N. Leslie, L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

West Soochow Road — Cad. Lot 4985—Abandonment of Extension.— In a letter submitted, the Naigai Wata Kaisha, Ltd., requests that the scheduling of the West Soochow Road Extension insofar as it affects their property—Cad. Lot 4985—be abandoned. It is noted that compliance with this request would also involve abandonment of the portion fronting Cad. Lot 4965 to which it is understood the owners (Messrs. Algar and Co. Ltd.) do not object.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that from a traffic and cargo-landing point of view, the road extension at this point is not of great importance; he therefore recommends abandonment thereof subject to the owners of both properties providing and maintaining a private roadway along the creek as a fire precautionary measure.

After discussion, members endorse the Commissioner's recommendation, the position of the roadway to be to the satisfaction of the Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade.

Extraordinary Expenditure —Roads.—From the monthly statement submitted by the Treasurer and Controller it is noted that the expenditure incurred from January 1 to April 2 for land for road widenings, extensions, etc., is Tls. 682,680. The Commissioner of Public Works states that while he will do his utmost to keep the expenditure under this heading within the budget appropriation in accordance with the Council's instructions, such expenditure is primarily regulated by private building development, the extent of which it is most difficult to foresee at the time the budget is framed. He adds that the over-expenditure during 1930 was attributable to this factor and he submits that in such circumstances such over expenditure is inevitable. In this connection the fact should not be overlooked that this excess expenditure is offset to a material extent by the additional revenue accruing to the Council through the re-development of private properties.

Inspection of Lifts. — At the Chairman's suggestion the Commissioner of Public Works undertakes to furnish a resumé of the former correspondence and discussions on the question of the periodical inspection by the Council of all lifts. Whilst realizing that the Council has no power to enforce such a requirement, members express the hope that some system can be devised to secure the co-operation of owners and occupiers of buildings with a view to minimising any possible danger to users of lifts by reason of the defective construction etc., of such installations.

Building Regulations.—The Commissioner of Public Works refers to an application he has received for a permit for the erection of a building on Cad. Lot 625, North Szechuen Road, a section of which exceeds the height laid down by the Building Rules. The building is however so designed as to meet the requirements of the Building Rules so far as regards the provision of air space, etc., and the actual floor space is in fact less than would be the case if the entire building were constructed to the height allowed by the Building Rules.

Members endorse the proposal that this application be approved, subject to the owners satisfying the Commissioner of Public Works as to the provision of parking space on this property.

In this connection members record the view that in the majority of cases permission for the erection of buildings beyond the authorized height should be contingent upon the owners thereof agreeing to provide private parking space for the occupants. The Commissioner states that he has under consideration the question of a revision of the building rules to cope with the situation so far as concerns the erection of many-storied buildings. He will report further as to this in due course.

The meeting terminates at 5.45 p.m.

At the meeting of the Watch Committee held on Friday, April 10, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:— Messrs. N. S. Brown, Chairman, D. S. Chen, K. Fukushima, G. W. Sheppard, Yu Ya Ching, the Commissioner of Police, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

At the invitation of the Committee, Miss P. Ayrton and Miss A. Viola Smith, representatives of the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations, attend.

Women Police.—In connection with the correspondence which has passed between the Council and the above Organizations on the question of the employment in the Settlement of Women Police, the Chairman enquires whether these representatives have any further information on this subject other than that submitted to the Council in writing.

Miss Ayrton expresses regret at the inability of Mr. Bascom Johnson, Travelling Commissioner of the League of Nations, to be present at this meeting owing to sudden indisposition, particularly so as this gentleman has expert knowledge of this subject. The Chairman remarks that the Commissioner of Police has interviewed the travelling members of this Commission and that, in consultation with the Commissioner, the Council has decided to defer consideration of the question of the employment of women police until the return from England of Major Gerrard, who, whilst there, will study this question.

At the Chairman's request and in amplification of the written views already furnished to the Council, these representatives then advance additional reasons as to the desirability of the engagement of Police Women. Summarized, these reasons are as follows:—

The probationary system for young offenders does not appear to have been introduced in Shanghai, nor is any reformatory maintained for foreign youthful offenders. If this system were introduced, the employment of police women in conjunction therewith is regarded as highly desirable. Reference is made to the number of foreign boys who are seen begging in the streets; recently a boy of 14 was sentenced to three days imprisonment for this offence; it is submitted that this course tends to encourage these youthful offenders to drift into the criminal class. The Special District Court recently ordered the deportation of a foreign woman to Harbin for confinement in an asylum; it is submitted that such a case should be accompanied by a policewoman to her destination.

From the Annual Police report it is noted that in 1930 there were 32 foreign women in prison and it is submitted that the evidence in such cases should be taken by a policewoman who would ultimately conduct these cases to the Court for trial. In foreign countries police women are used for street patrols; it is however agreed that conditions in Shanghai are so different from those of Western cities that this might not be practicable; the duties of a policewoman in Shanghai would therefore presumably be confined to Court work, assistance on behalf of youthful offenders and possibly the inspection of cabarets employing large numbers of women and young girls. Although this question has been considered primarily from the point of view of foreign women and child offenders, the Committee is informed that the Chinese members of the Organization are taking a keen interest in this subject, and that, if the Council in the first instance would authorize the appointment of one foreign policewoman and this experiment proved successful, they would then advocate the further appointment of a Chinese policewoman.

Other duties which it is submitted could be efficiently discharged by a policewoman are the detection of shop lifting and the censorship of films. So far as concerns the taking of evidence of women offenders, the view obtains that these delinquents are placed in a humiliating position when such examinations are conducted by male police. In addition to the number of women shewn by the Police statistics as having been sentenced to imprisonment there have presumably been many more arrested and discharged without passing to the Court stage. Such cases, it is submitted, could be more adequately dealt with by women police than by male police, particularly those cases involving street walkers. The number of these already frequenting the Broadway district is regarded as a distinct menace and it is submitted that this evil could be minimized by the activities of an efficient policewoman. It may be anticipated that, with the imposition of the regulations recently promulgated by the Chinese Authorities requiring the production of passports by all persons entering Shanghai, the number of immigrants will decrease. In respect of a member's observation that the duties above outlined would appear to be more appropriately undertaken by private enterprise, Miss Ayrton replies that representatives of such organizations would have no official standing and would thus be severely handicapped in their efforts to improve existing conditions.

In conclusion, these representatives emphasize that at this stage they do not desire that the Council should commit itself to any definite policy in this matter. At present the Women's Organizations would be satisfied if the Council would agree to invite an expert policewoman to Shanghai, preferably from Alexandria, where such women have been successfully functioning for some years, in order to survey local conditions and report as to the desirability or otherwise of the introduction of women police in Shanghai. Thereafter the Council could, if satisfied that the need existed, engage one foreign policewoman and subsequently at its discretion authorize a further engagement to deal with Chinese delinquents.

In connection with the above observations, the following views are recorded by members and the Commissioner of Police:—

The introduction of the probationary system is entirely a matter for the Courts; the Council has no legislative authority to set up such machinery.

Certain of the duties which it is suggested could efficiently be discharged by policewomen are at present undertaken by wardresses. An increase in the number of these in order to permit them to accompany women and children to Court could be considered. In respect of cabaret employees, the system of registration was recently introduced solely in political interests. The onus of maintaining order in cabarets is on the licensee, since upon any breach of the licence conditions his licence can be withdrawn. The Committee is of the view that, having regard to local conditions, the functioning of policewomen on the streets is quite impracticable. As the majority of the foreign women arrested and convicted are subject to Chinese jurisdiction, it is realized that the Council has no power, nor should it be called upon, to arrange for accompanying such cases to other cities. Further the view obtains that having regard to the size of the population of Shanghai the number of cases involving foreign women and children is relatively small. In respect of Chinese women arrested and convicted most of these cases involve such offences as burglary, larceny and their connection with armed robbery and kidnapping gangs. From the Police Department statistics, the Committee is not convinced that the engagement of women police is justified.

Members also incline to the view that, if the engagement of women police were authorized, to render the system really effective a considerable number would be required; in view, however, of the heavy cost involved by maintenance of the Police Force, they are of opinion that the results to be obtained by the appointment of a considerable number of policewomen would not be commensurate with the cost incurred.

The representatives then request that the Chairman will grant Mr. Bascom Johnson an interview sometime next week, in order that further information may be obtained on the proposal to invite an expert to come to Shanghai to investigate and advise the Council on this question. The Chairman agrees to meet Mr. Johnson on Thursday next, at which meeting the Commissioner of Police will be present.

After the representatives have withdrawn, members decide to defer recommendation on this question pending the further conference between the Chairman and Mr. Bascom Johnson. While agreeing that certain of the duties outlined could be effectively discharged by a policewoman, it is considered that the cost involved by the engagement of one or more such officials should be fully considered in conjunction with the possible benefits to be derived from such appointments.

The meeting terminates at 5.45 p.m.

At the meeting of the Orchestra and Band Committee held on Monday, April 13, 1931, at 4.45 p.m., there are present:— Messrs. A. J. Hughes, Chairman, J. McNeill, the Conductor, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Membership.—In respect of the recommendation recorded at the last meeting, members now recommend that the membership of the Committee be increased to four, including one Chinese gentleman. It is further recommended that the nomination of these additional members be left to the Committee.

Broadcasting.—The Chairman refers to a further application he has received for permission to broadcast the performances of the Orchestra during the forthcoming Summer season. As the applicants have obtained permission from the Chinese Authorities to undertake broadcasting operations, and having regard to the advertisement from a cultural viewpoint the Council will receive by permitting these performances to be broadcast over a very extensive area, the Chairman states that he strongly supports this application.

He recalls that, at its last meeting, the Committee recommended that this application be disapproved as it was anticipated that difficulty would be experienced in securing the permission of the Chinese Authorities to undertake broadcasting; this obstacle no longer exists. He therefore suggests that consideration be given to the terms upon which it can be recommended that this application be granted.

A member points out that, when favourable consideration was given to the application of the Shanghai Power Company to broadcast these performances, he supported it solely with a view to stimulating the attendances thereat. Recently however these performances have been very fully attended; he therefore questions the necessity for the broadcasting thereof under a system which apparently would primarily benefit advertisers, unless a substantial payment for this privilege is made to the Council to offset the undoubted loss in revenue which will occur as a result of these concerts being broadcasted.

The Conductor states that he understands the Broadcasting Company are arranging to engage 12 musicians presumably for the purpose of rendering short concerts of light music several times daily. It would thus appear that the Company is in a position to make adequate payment for the broadcasting of the Municipal Orchestra. It is pointed out that in Western Countries a licence fee is imposed on owners of receiving sets, a portion of which is handed over to the Broadcasting Companies and forms a substantial source of income to such undertakings. It is however unlikely that such a system could be introduced in Shanghai.

The Chairman considers that too heavy a payment should not be required for this privilege since the Broadcasting Company does not contemplate the manufacture of receiving apparatus, and its only source of income will be that derived from advertisers. He therefore suggests that some tentative arrangement might be reached for say one year whereunder the Council would be at liberty to increase the charge imposed at a later date and also with the condition that the musicians to be engaged for incidental music should be selected from the Municipal Orchestra.

A Director of the Broadcasting Company then attends.

The Chairman informs him that in the Committee's view permission to broadcast the performances of the Municipal Orchestra will constitute a good definite asset to the Company. It may however be anticipated that the broadcasting thereof will result in decreased attendance at these performances with consequent loss of income to the Council. He therefore enquires what sum the Company would be prepared to pay for this privilege.

The Director states that as the Broadcasting Organization is at present in the process of formation it is somewhat difficult to state a definite figure. The only revenue which the Broadcasting Corporation will receive is that obtained from advertisers; the actual advertising programme will however be extremely brief and very carefully edited. The performances of the Municipal Orchestra would be sponsored by one or more advertisers and he anticipates that the fee charged the Corporation by the Council for the broadcasting of these performances would be recovered from the advertiser whose name was associated with the broadcasting thereof. Although it is not anticipated that the revenue to be derived from advertisers will be enormous, the view is taken that it will result in increased business for the advertisers and consequently increased advertising in other forms.

In connection with the Chairman's observation that in the past the Ratepayers have criticized the heavy cost of the maintenance of the Orchestra, the Director submits that the broadcasting of its performances will bring it in reach of a far larger section of the Community and popularize it to such an extent as to silence such criticism.

In the absence of definite information as to the revenue from advertisers which will be obtained by the Broadcasting Corporation, he suggests that at the outset a fee of Tls. 150 per month be paid for this privilege. The suggestion that the Broadcasting Orchestra for lighter music should be composed of musicians from the Municipal Orchestra is not regarded as feasible as the personnel of the former Orchestra will be required to perform at various and irregular intervals, in many cases at short notice.

This suggestion will, however, be discussed with the Conductor.

The Director also states that, by the introduction of amplifiers in the various parks and possibly at the Race Club enclosure, it would be possible for the performances of the Orchestra to be relayed and enjoyed by audiences at three or four of these places at one time. In respect of the summer concerts which are held four times weekly he considers that his Company would be prepared to pay the Council Tls. 600 monthly for the privilege of broadcasting. In this connection, the Conductor states that if required special performances could be given for broadcasting purposes on those nights during the Summer Season when the Orchestra is not engaged in giving its regular outdoor performances.

The Conductor suggests as a provisional one-year arrangement that the Company should guarantee for indoor concerts the difference between the receipts for a full house and the actual receipts and for the outdoor summer concerts any shortage in the actual receipts during the forthcoming season as compared with the average actual receipts for each performance last summer. This would effectually cover any loss from reduced attendances owing to the broadcasting, increase the receipts somewhat for the indoor concerts and maintain the high level of receipts realized by the open air concerts during the last season. On this suggestion being supported by the Committee, the Director states that he thinks his Company might be willing to agree to this proposal. He suggests, however, and members concur that he be permitted to institute enquiries as to what fee advertisers would be prepared to pay for the privilege of sponsoring the performances of the Municipal Orchestra, whereafter he will communicate further with the Chairman. At that time he hopes to be in a position to submit definite proposals both as regards the fees to be payable for this privilege and the suggested employment of Municipal musicians in the Orchestra to be formed by the Company.

Pending the result of his further conference with the Conductor on these questions, it is decided to adjourn consideration thereof to a meeting to be convened on Monday next.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Public Health Report for March.

Vital Statistics.— The Foreign death rate amounted to 17.28 and the Chinese death rate to 17.76. Both these figures may be considered normal, though the Chinese rate shows a gradual increase, partly due to the presence of a certain amount of Cerebrospinal Fever.

Communicable Diseases.— Few cases of Typhoid occurred, only 4 being notified amongst the Foreign population, though 22 deaths were traced to this cause amongst the Chinese population.

Smallpox.—5 cases were notified amongst the Foreign population and 15 cases were recorded amongst resident Chinese population. In this connexion the Sanitation Division performed 24,151 vaccinations.

Cerebrospinal Fever is on the increase, 7 cases being notified amongst the Foreign population, and 52 from among the Chinese population. In addition 53 cases were recorded as entering Municipal Hospitals from areas outside Settlement limits.

Tuberculosis, Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever:—Showed a normal incidence.

Influenza.—9 cases were notified from amongst the Foreign residents, in which 2 deaths occurred. 72 cases were recorded amongst the Chinese population and 7 deaths were reported.

Among the Foreign population a number of Influenzal conditions occurred, which however presumably were not of the true Influenza type.

Malaria.—3 cases were notified from amongst the Foreign population from the Central and Western districts. In addition 12 cases were recorded which were not contracted in Shanghai, since they were Military cases and the infection had originally taken place either in India or Egypt.

Medical Registration. — The first Meeting of the Shanghai Medical Board took place on the 10th instant. A considerable number of applications for Registration as Medical Practitioners have already been forwarded for consideration of this Board and it will soon be possible to publish an official List of approved Medical Practitioners, Dentists and Veterinary Surgeons, in accordance with the Regulations Governing Registration.

Laboratory.—A considerable amount of T. A. B. Vaccine, Smallpox Vaccine and other routine vaccines were prepared.

A large issue of free vaccine was made to various Institutions, both within and outside the Settlement, where it was felt to have an effect in diminishing the Smallpox risk within the Settlement boundaries.

The routine examinations continue to be heavy, but with the exception of the fact that they indicate a slight increase in Bacillary Dysentery, there is little cause for special notice.

Pasteur Treatment.—34 persons bitten or licked by dogs received advice, cauterisation and/or treatment. There were no fatalities during the month.

Hospital Division. The Municipal Isolation Hospitals were kept busy owing to the increase in the number of cases of Cerebrospinal Fever both from the Settlement and, in regard to Chinese cases, from areas outside the Settlement. Ward Road Gaol Hospital reports that its slight Dysentery epidemic has now terminated.

The Police Hospital reports a large number of Influenza cases, but otherwise there is little to note.

T. B. Sanatorium has a long waiting list of male patients, and thus may be said to be somewhat too small for its purpose.

Mental Hospital.—The female side is still overcrowded.

Two Doctors attached to the Hospital Division as Public Vaccinators started work, and further temporary assistance will be engaged as required.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division.—The routine work of this Division continues to be heavy and with the exception of the apparent subsidence of the Rinderpest epidemic, there seems little to call for interest.

The arrival of the Veterinary Surgeon has strengthened the hands of this Division and considerable improvement is anticipated.

Sanitation Division.—The weather on "All Flowers' Day" being somewhat unfavourable a slight diminution is noted in the number of vaccinations as compared with the figures of the corresponding month last year. At the same time the returns are distinctly high and under the circumstances satisfactory, 10,354 persons being vaccinated on that day, the majority being infants whose vaccinations had been delayed until this date.

The public Vaccination Squad under the Chinese Doctors will serve to supplement free vaccination work very considerably, and cover certain ground not previously possible.

Mosquito reduction work was started during the month, but was mainly confined to the clearing of creeks and ditches, with a view to facilitating preventive measures at a later date. Mosquitoes were reported in the Western District.

The Mosquito Fish appear to be surviving the winter better this year and it is to be hoped that further stocking of ponds will be possible.

The Ambulances of the Isolation Hospital Compound and the Disinfection Vans have now been placed under the supervision of a Junior Health Inspector. It is anticipated that this will result in a higher standard of service.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases Clinics and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Parks Report for March.

Spring Bedding.—The planting of hardy Annuals to embellish flower gardens at the various Parks was practically completed, 42,600 being planted during the month at Jessfield Park, 21,500 at Hongkew Park, 18,500 at the Bund Garden, 12,750 at Wayside Park and 11,650 at the various minor spaces.

Jessfield Park.—Operations connected with the laying out of a flower garden of formal design and the transplanting of numerous trees and shrubs with a view to providing an additional vista in the western section of the Park were completed.

The raising of beds in the Rose garden was carried out; this work, entailing the transplanting of 516 rose plants, being necessary owing to heavy losses sustained through the repeated flooding of the area during heavy rain.

Zoological Garden.—The planting of numerous evergreen shrubs was carried out and the raising of animal enclosures commenced.

Additional exhibits purchased during the month were:—

One pair tufted ducks.
Two pairs pintail ducks.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the Joint Meeting of the Traffic and Public Utilities Committees held on Friday, April 17, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Kuroda, G. W. Sheppard, T. D. Woo, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Police, and the Deputy Secretary.

Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Sheppard, Mr. A. D. Bell, is elected Chairman of the Meeting.

Public Transport facilities. — The Chairman refers to the recommendation recorded by the Public Utilities Committee at its last meeting that, with a view to ascertaining whether any improvement can be effected in traffic conditions, representatives of the two public transport Companies should be invited to attend this meeting to afford them an opportunity of submitting any proposals to this end.

Mr. C. Burgess, General Manager of the Shanghai Electric Construction Company, Ltd., attends.

The Chairman informs Mr. Burgess that the Committee primarily would welcome any information as to the action taken by his Company to cope with the ever increasing traffic demands and also to hear whether any steps can be taken to reduce the overcrowding on public vehicles which at present is very apparent.

Mr. Burgess furnishes members with copies of a summarized statement showing the increase in the number of passenger vehicles, the additional length of track provided etc., during the past six years. From these figures it is observed that during the period under review the Company has furnished 103 additional vehicles.

Whilst on some routes the number of vehicles operating has not reached saturation point, on others an increase could be effected only after very careful consideration, as otherwise a general dislocation of traffic thereon would result. Whilst his Company is prepared to co-operate in the matter of providing additional vehicles he doubts whether such provision will solve the problem now under consideration. The average speed of his Company's vehicles on Nanking Road does not exceed five miles per hour; this is due to the increase in other traffic—both fast and slow—using the streets. He submits that if traffic generally could be speeded up the existing congestion could be materially reduced; this however he realizes would be difficult to effect. At present fast traffic is severely handicapped in maintaining a reasonably high speed on account of the enormous volume of slow traffic using the streets. He states that in Singapore, owing to the wider thoroughfares, his Company's vehicles attain an average speed of 25 per cent higher than in Shanghai; in other words the same number of vehicles operating there would undertake 25 per cent more work than in Shanghai.

Although he agrees that there is considerable overcrowding in his Company's vehicles during the rush-hours, he submits that this condition is common to all large cities. In recent years the number of passengers who require to be transported to and from the Central District has materially increased, whereas the additional road space provided to meet this demand has not increased correspondingly. Extra tram cars are however put into service during the rush-hours. Replying to the Chairman, he states that he has not observed any particular decrease in traffic on Nanking Road since Hankow Road has served as a one-way route during rush-hours. If ricsha traffic on Nanking Road could be prohibited during the rush-hours and the space now utilized by them was rendered available for motor traffic, the tramcar service could be considerably speeded up.

Upon the Chairman enquiring whether the railless car services on roads in the Central District intersecting Nanking Road could be extended in order to relieve the congestion on Kiangse Road, Mr. Burgess states that the railless car routes are subject to the Council's approval; he will however consider this proposal.

With an increase in the number of bridges over the Soochow Creek capable of carrying public transport vehicles and with the extension of Tiendong and other roads, an improvement in the existing conditions can be anticipated. Moreover these additional facilities will relieve the Garden Bridge which at present has to provide for an undue proportion of through traffic routes, notably those comprising North Szechuen Road. He will obtain statistics as to the number of tramcars passing over the Garden Bridge from and to the North Szechuen Road routes and will consider the feasibility of diverting a portion of these to a bridge to the west. He will also consider the suggestion put forward that the Seward Road track be diverted to Tiendong Road, (thence via Fokien Road to Nanking Road), as also the alternative possibility of the substitution of the railed service in Seward Road by a railless car service. In expressing his willingness to consider any proposals put forward with the object of ameliorating existing conditions, he recalls that more than a year ago his Company pointed out to the Council the disadvantage of its position in opening up new routes as compared with that of the Omnibus Company. The fact that his Company may be faced with unlimited competition on routes on which considerable outlay may be incurred must, he submits, be given the very fullest consideration by his Company. Conferences have been held between the two Companies with a view to arriving at a mutually satisfactory arrangement as to this but so far it has not been effected. The Chairman assures Mr. Burgess that if required the Council would be willing to assist both Companies to arrive at an amicable agreement on this question; at the same time it is difficult for the Council to refuse any application for the provision of additional services when the demand therefor is evident.

The Chairman states that he has observed that passengers in the trolley cars are unable to obtain a seat for through journeys owing to the large numbers of passengers who only travel a comparatively short distance. He enquires whether this situation could not be overcome by eliminating on certain routes the short distance fares. Mr. Burgess replies that this system is in force in certain Western Cities but he submits that its adoption in Shanghai would inflict a hardship on the poorer classes.

Replying to a member, Mr. Burgess states that no additional vehicles are scheduled for service during the current year but that he is willing to consider any increase if required by the Council.

Mr. Burgess withdraws and Mr. S. S. Sellick, representative of the China General Omnibus Co., Ltd., attends.

Before dealing with the admitted overcrowding of vehicles in many cases, Mr. Sellick refers to one of the chief difficulties with which the Company is faced, i.e., that of the number of slow moving vehicles—notably ricshas—which utilize the narrow streets and thus impede the speed of fast moving vehicles.

He has prepared some notes on this aspect of the traffic problem and will furnish a copy to the Commissioner of Public Works. One suggestion he desires to put forward is that two types of licence for ricsha coolies might be issued, one for those who are experienced which would permit them to function in the Central and more congested districts, the other for those, who, through lack of training and experience are responsible for holding up fast moving traffic, would only be permitted to operate in the less congested districts.

In respect of the overcrowding complained of, his Company is considering the feasibility of providing double deck vehicles, which provision it is hoped will remedy this condition. Whilst some delay may occur in loading and unloading such vehicles, this might be reduced by providing railed gangways at certain stopping places where passengers entering the buses would be regulated by a foreign attendant on the same lines as adopted in some Western Cities.

Upon the Chairman suggesting that some relief might be afforded by operating only the smaller type of omnibus on the more narrow streets, Mr. Sellick states that there is practically no difference in the width of the large and small types of omnibuses and that the difference in the length is only four feet. Twelve additional vehicles are now on order and in course of construction and will be placed in service during the current year and all vehicles will eventually be equipped with pneumatic tyres which will give them a slightly increased speed. Additional vehicles are put into service during the rush-hours on certain routes whenever the demand exists. Replying to a member, Mr. Sellick states that his Company has not yet reached the limit in the matter of placing additional vehicles on existing routes since, as before stated, this is done if the need exists.

The slow speed at which omnibuses are forced to travel on Nanking Road is chiefly due to the congestion caused by slow vehicles and any means which could be devised for speeding up traffic generally would be welcomed by his Company.

A member suggests that to improve traffic conditions on the section of Nanking Road between Chekiang Road and the Bund it might be possible for the Omnibus Company to adopt an alternative route entering and leaving Nanking Road at a point to the West of Chekiang Road. Mr. Sellick undertakes to ascertain the value to his Company of the section of Nanking Road between the Bund and Chekiang Road and to consider whether adoption of this proposal is practicable whereafter he will communicate with the Council.

Mr. Sellick withdraws.

Asked for his views as to whether during the rush-hours ricsha traffic could not be diverted from certain congested thoroughfares, the Commissioner of Police states that such a proposal would undoubtedly be opposed by the Chinese Community; it might however be possible to divert such traffic from Nanking Road to Kiukiang Road and he will give this suggestion his consideration. In his opinion one of the main causes of the existing traffic congestion is the ricsha, particularly those privately owned. He recalls that the gradual reduction of ricshas was advocated by the Traffic Commission but that this recommendation has not been given effect.

Replying to a member, he states that experiments are being undertaken with an improved stop signalling system.

With regard to the congestion on the Bund, the Commissioner of Public Works states that he is preparing for the Committee's consideration alternative designs for affording relief on this thoroughfare, both as regards moving traffic and facilities for the parking of vehicles, as also for the landing of passengers and cargo. By the extension of the Bund to the normal line, additional space could be provided and this provision will be included in the schemes now being prepared.

At a member's suggestion, the Commissioner of Police undertakes to issue instructions that special attention be given to the number of idle ricshas frequenting the Bund and also to consider whether empty brokers traps could not be parked in the side streets or on the opposite side of the Bund instead of immediately in front of the various Banks as at present.

The Commissioner of Public Works also undertakes to submit a report covering his proposals for the introduction of new routes both for the Omnibus and the Electric Construction Company's services.

Application from the China General Omnibus Company Ltd., for extensions of Routes Nos. 6 and 10.—The application of this Company for an extension of the above routes to the points named is recommended for approval.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that Pingliang Road, which will be traversed by this extension, is not ballasted. He therefore suggests, and members concur, that the Company be notified that before an intensive service can be operated on this road the ballasting thereof will become necessary.

The meeting terminates at 6 p.m.

At the meeting of the Orchestra and Band Committee held on Monday, April 20, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are:—Present:—Messrs. A. J. Hughes, J. McNeill, the Conductor, and the Deputy Secretary.

Election of Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. McNeill, Mr. Hughes is re-elected Chairman.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Membership. — The Chairman states that he has under consideration the question of the nomination of two additional members to the Committee and that he will submit his proposals as to this in due course.

Broadcasting.—In continuation of the discussion at the last meeting as to the terms upon which it can be recommended that permission be granted to broadcast the performances of the Municipal Orchestra, the following unanimous recommendations are, with the acquiescence of the Broadcasting Company's representatives, recorded:—

(1) That in respect of the Winter Season Concerts, the Company should guarantee receipts totalling $600 for each performance, the difference between this amount and that actually collected to be made good by the Company; (2) That in respect of the outdoor Orchestral performances, the total receipts for the last Summer Season should be taken as a basis, the Company to make good the difference between this amount and that actually collected.

With regard to the latter recommendation and in connection with the installation of transmitting apparatus and loud speakers, which could be erected in the Parks and possibly on the Race Course enclosure for relaying the performances given at any of these centres, members consider that a fee of, say, 20 cents should be charged for admission to special enclosures to be provided with chairs. It is accordingly recommended that the receipts derived from this source be set aside to offset any loss in admission fees to the actual Orchestral performances and that these receipts be taken into consideration in computing the amount to be furnished by the Company.

The Committee desires that the Council should realize that by adoption of the above recommendations no loss will be sustained as compared with the average receipts from the outdoor performances of the last Season; and that, so far as regards the indoor performances, the Council will be assured of slightly higher receipts than the average of those for the current Season.

It is further recommended that a formal agreement be entered into on the terms above outlined for a period of one year from the commencement of the next Summer Season; the terms thereof, if required, to be re-considered upon termination. It is realized that it will be necessary to insert a reference in the agreement to the fact that permission to broadcast the indoor performances is contingent upon the consent of the management of the Grand Theatre being obtained. Subject to confirmation by the Council of the above recommendations, the necessary agreement will be drafted.

For the remainder of the current Winter Season, it is recommended that the Company be permitted to conduct experiments in the broadcasting of the Orchestral performances without fee.

The agreement is not to cover any special concerts which may be arranged for week-nights, at which artists of repute are engaged, permission to broadcast which would be contingent upon terms to be mutually agreed and the consent of such artists being obtained.

In concurring in the view that adoption of the suggestion put forward at the last meeting that the personnel of the Company's Broadcasting Orchestra should be drawn from the Municipal Orchestra is impracticable owing to the irregularity of these performances, the Committee expresses the hope that the Company will whenever possible afford any of them an opportunity of performing in its Orchestra.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, April 22, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present: —Brig-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Shephard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, A. J. Hughes, O. S. Lieu, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, Yu Ya Ching, the Secretary General, and the Deputy Secretaries.

The Minutes of the meeting of April 8 are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Assessment for General Municipal Rate.—Members are informed that the inaugural meeting of this Committee was held on Monday last and that the statement for publication, referred to at the last meeting, will be circulated to members tomorrow.

Annual Basket Fair.—A further Police report and a plan of the roads in the vicinity of the Bubbling Well Temple showing the portions of pavement which it is suggested might be allotted for stalls at the Annual Basket Fair are submitted. The Commissioner states that this Fair has now extended to include the sale of wares which were not contemplated when the Basket Fair was instituted, and he suggests as desirable some restriction in this respect. His proposal is approved that a duplicate map be prepared with Chinese characters indicating the position of the various stalls. A member expresses his willingness to accompany the Commissioner when he interviews the Chief Monk of the Temple with a view to defining the limits of the Fair and the type of articles which will be permitted to be exposed for sale.

The Minutes of the meeting of April 16 are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Library Committee Membership.—As Mr. E. Gordon Lowder does not desire to continue to serve on this Committee, it is decided to invite Mr. W. J. Dexter to fill the vacancy thereon.

Mr. Justice Feetham's Report.—The Secretary General reads a draft of a notice which Mr. Justice Feetham desires should be published in the Press on Friday next relative to the issue of his Report. This proposal is unanimously approved.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of April 7 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Watch Committee of April 10 are submitted and confirmed.

Women Police. — A member states that, at his further interview with Mr. Bascom Johnson and Miss Viola Smith, very little additional information was given to that already furnished to the Council. These representatives, however, again stressed the desirability of the examination of women offenders being conducted by Women Police. He accordingly undertook to ascertain from the Commissioner of Police whether an increase in the existing number of wardresses was necessary to enable them to undertake this duty.

A member suggests that, in view of the relatively small number of foreign women prisoners, the number of wardresses might be sufficient to permit them to conduct the examination of women offenders.

Members adopt the suggestion that instructions be issued that, in future, women offenders be examined by wardresses, and the question as to whether an increase in the existing number of these employees is necessary for this purpose will be taken up with the Commissioner of Police.

In the meantime the Council adheres to its previous decision that consideration of the question of the employment of women police be deferred until the return of Major Gerrard.

The Minutes of the meetings of the Orchestra and Band Committee of April 13 and 20 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Public Utilities Committee of April 17 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the joint meeting of the Traffic and Public Utilities Committees of April 17 are submitted and confirmed.

Public Transport Facilities.—In agreeing that a reduction in the number of ricsha licences issued or the restriction of these vehicles in certain of the business areas would materially assist towards a solution of the traffic problem, members realize that considerable opposition would be encountered to such proposals and direct that no action in this respect be taken at present.

It is noted that reports from the Police and Works Departments and from the Public Transport Companies on various phases of the traffic problem will be submitted in due course.

Swimming Bath—North Szechuen Road.—Relative to the Council's recorded decision that this Bath be disposed of and the proceeds applied towards the provision of an additional Swimming Bath in the Wayside District, the Commissioner of Public Health has suggested that it be retained and reserved for the use of the Scholars of the various Municipal Schools.

In view of the cost involved by adoption of this proposal, members unanimously affirm their former decision that this property be disposed of.

The "Municipal Gazette" for Friday, April 24, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication.

The Meeting terminates at 6.55 p.m.

Other Crimes	216	184	168
Total	1,443	1,184	1,429

The total reported crime for March shows an increase over the figures for February of 259 cases, but a portion of the increase is accounted for by the additional three days in the month. As compared with the figures for the same period last year there is an increase of 14 cases. "A" Division records an increase of 155 cases over the reports for February due chiefly to an increase in petty thefts and snatching. "B" Division shows an increase of 58 cases and "C" Division 69 cases while "D" Division reports a decrease of 23 cases. Of the increase in "B" Division additional burglaries account for 11 cases, Robberies for six and other petty crimes 41. Opium offences and petty thefts were chiefly responsible for the increase in "C" Division. The decrease in "D" Division was chiefly in breaking-in and petty miscellaneous cases, but there was considerable increase in snatching and opium offences.

1,541 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 119 for offences committed previously and 36 on behalf of other authorities.

Manslaughter.—There were two cases of manslaughter reported during the month, one in Wayside when a male Chinese died as the result of a fight and one in Central district when a P.W.D. garbage coolie sustained fatal injuries as the result of being knocked down by a motor truck.

Armed Kidnapping.—Two cases of armed kidnapping took place, one in Swatow Road when a Chinese property owner was held up by six armed men, forced into his own motor car and driven away, and the other at a house on Bubbling Well Road when a Chinese doctor was taken from his office by four men, two armed with pistols, placed in a waiting motor car and driven away. In connection with this case a previous attempt to kidnap the doctor's brother—the same morning in the French Concession, failed, but a Chinese constable of the Municipal police was shot dead and a watchman wounded by the armed men.

Abduction.—There were seven cases of simple abduction reported during the month three of the victims being children. Seven arrests were effected in connection with five of these cases.

Armed Robbery.—There was a decrease of cases as compared with February the figure being 15 below that for the corresponding month of last year. Five cases were reported in which persons attacked raised an alarm with the result that nothing was stolen. In one of these cases, which took place in the vicinity of the Garden Bridge, a running pistol fight took place between the robbers and police and resulted in one arrest. One false report was received, the complainant when charged admitting that he had lost the money in a gambling den. The cases were distributed as follows:—

"A" Division (Central and Louza) 14 cases as against 16 in February and 24 last year.

"B" Division (Sinza, Bubbling Well, Gordon Road, Pootoo Road) 17 cases as against 16 in February and 23 last year.

"C" Division (Hongkew, West Hongkew, Dixwell Road) 7 cases as against 13 in February and 15 last year.

"D" Division (Harbin Road, Wayside, Yangtszepoo) 22 cases as against 19 in February and 13 last year.

In addition there were 12 cases of robbery by unarmed criminals most of which took place on the highway.

Housebreaking, etc.—There was a decrease of five cases as compared with last month. 21 occurred in "A" Division, 18 in "B" Division, 15 in "C" Division and 8 in "D" Division. These reports include office, shop, godown and garage breaking.

Burglaries.—An increase of seven cases is recorded over last month. "C" and "D" Divisions show decreases of three and five respectively, the increases occurring in "A" and "B" Divisions. The former records three cases more than last month and the latter 15.

Thefts.—The total number of ordinary thefts of a miscellaneous nature reported was 722, an increase of 115 as compared with last month. Of this number no less than 58 cases investigated in "B" Division had occurred owing to persons leaving doors open while 69 bicycles were stolen in "A" and "B" Divisions. These thefts of bicycles are preventable if the owners would take reasonable precautions as in most of the cases investigated they were left unattended on the public roads and in doorways for periods up to two and a half hours.

Snatching. — There were 120 cases of snatching reported during the month. Of this number 23 cases occurred previous to March, but were not reported to the police until admitted by arrested criminals. 41 persons were arrested in connection with these offences and 24 were identified.

Pocketpicking.—57 crimes of this nature were reported. 26 arrests were made in connection with 50 of these cases of which 20 were known criminals.

Gambling Offences. — 24 small gambling raids took place during the month none of which were of any magnitude or worthy of special comment. The association of gambling with crime was again noted during the month. Six criminal cases, involving the loss of property to the value of $7,550 were recorded where the prisoners admitted losing the money in gambling houses in another jurisdiction and one of these prisoners confessed to 52 thefts in the last five months, the value of property stolen being unknown.

Opium Offences. — 126 opium raids took place in connection with the selling and smoking of the drug, but none call for special comment, the seizures being very small.

Other Crimes.—Cases reported under this category call for no special comment, but included 12 cases of fraud, 5 of embezzlement. 7 attempts to obtain money by means of threatening letters, 10 extortion, 4 forgery, 8 counterfeit notes and coin and 13 unlawful possession of arms.

Notable work in "A" Division included (1) the arrest of three armed kidnappers in a hotel in Louza district which was entirely due to the co-operation of friends of the kidnapped man, (2) in co-operation with detectives of "B" Division the arrest of seven persons and recovery of a large portion of the stolen property in connection with the shopbreaking at Messrs. Boyes, Bassett & Co., Nanking Road. Notable work in "C" Division included (1) the arrest of seven persons, seizure of five pistols (two imitation) and the prosecution of the gang on 10 charges of attempted murder armed robbery and extortion, (2) the arrest of six persons for trafficking in females between I-shing and Shanghai. Notable work by the Headquarters Special Crime Squad included the seizure of 362 packages of narcotic pills on a motor truck while in course of transit through the Settlement.

18 cases of various kinds occurred on Municipal extra-Settlement roads or in buildings abutting thereon.

The Headquarters Special Crime Squad conducted enquiries into six cases of serious crime including cases of armed kidnapping, murder, forgery and false pretences and effected the arrest of 12 persons. In addition enquiries were continued in connection with three serious cases previously reported. The case of the kidnapping of a Chinese merchant and murder of a Russian Bodyguard on Yunnan Road on December 18, 1930, was successfully concluded and sentences of death (2) life imprisonment (2) and other long sentences (5) were inflicted.

Stolen Property. — Property valued at $160,076 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, a decrease from February of $106,294. Of the amount stolen $33,788 was obtained by means of fraud, forgery, embezzlement or misappropriation. Property valued at $58,198 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records received during the month from all sources was 2,337, an increase of 709 compared with those received during February and an increase of 486 over the corresponding period last year. 52 records of Foreigners were received and 26 identifications made.

Fingerprint investigations were made into 39 reported cases. Of 22 dead bodies of unknown Chinese fingerprinted, three were identified. Two persons were successfully prosecuted for criminal offences on fingerprint evidence. 288 photographs were taken by this Section.

Boarding Houses. — Officers of this section visited 338 boarding houses and 44 bars, restaurants, cafes, taverns and theatres. 20 new applications were dealt with.

Story-tellers. — During March Police story-tellers visited various places in the Settlement and lectured on various matters concerning co-operation of the public and precautions against criminals, to audiences totalling 2,850.

Arms Identification.—12 cases and one bullet found at the scene of crimes were examined and four cases were identified. Of 24 pistols examined in connection with criminal cases two were identified as having been used in two cases of armed robbery and murder.

Suicides.—19 Chinese committed suicide during the month and one attempted to do so.

Communism. — Eight persons were prosecuted during the month for communist and/or anti-Government offences. Of these one was handed over to the Chinese authorities, five were sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from 10 days to five months and two were remanded sine die. The action resulting in these prosecutions involved one raid on a printing establishment where 150 different kinds of books, pamphlets, handbills and other documents of a communist nature were seized. The bulk of this literature was in Chinese, but portions were in Russian, English and Japanese. Other action aiming at curbing the activities of communists in the Settlement included the sealing of four book stores which were alleged to have made a practice of selling "red" books. New communist leaflets which came into the hands of the Municipal Police during the month, including those found in the houses raided, were of 40 different kinds. These leaflets deal with the celebration of March 18, March 21 and April 12 which are anniversaries of events to which the "Reds" attach significance.

Ghola Singh, Sangtpura, wanted on a British Supreme Court Warrant in connection with the rescue of Chanan Singh Dhonda from Police custody on December 28, 1930, was arrested by the Municipal Police on March 19 and the following day was sentenced at H.B.M. Police Court to two months hard labour.

Labour.—Strikes in the Settlement.—There were four strikes in the Settlement during the month. These affected 369 employees in four different concerns and resulted in a loss of 2,057 working days. The strikers comprised 170 candle factory workers, 120 cotton factory workers, 89 silk filature workers and 40 garbage coolies.

One strike, which affected 300 Chinese envelope makers affected the whole of Shanghai, including the Settlement area.

Statistics for the month are as follows:—

Miscellaneous. — Passport Regulations for Foreigners.—With a view to restricting the movements of foreigners, arrangements for the establishment of a Passport Examination Office at Woosung are being made by the Bureau of Public Safety of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai. It is expected that the new office will be opened on May 1 and that subsequent to that date the passports of all foreigners desiring to come to Shanghai will be examined at Woosung.

Film Censorship.—Seventy-three ordinary films and 94 introductory films and newsreels were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month of March 1931. Of these three were subjected to cuts before being approved by the Police Censors. One film to which the police objected was later submitted to the Joint Board of Film Censors. The case was finally solved through the film being withdrawn by the owners. A picture entitled "Hell's Angels" was condemned by the Joint Boards of Film Censors at the Nanking Theatre, French Concession, on February 5. An appeal subsequently made by the owners to have the picture reviewed on the ground that the objectionable parts had been cut out was accorded. The Joint Boards of Film Censors accordingly reviewed the revised film at the Nanking Theatre on March 12 and passed it as fit for exhibition in Shanghai.

The following new members were appointed to the Settlement Board of Film Censors during the month:—

Dr. George Sellett, American.
Mr. A. Hartmann, German.
Mrs. K. S. Inui, Japanese.
Mr. T. K. Ho, Chinese.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 526 (31 foreigners and 495 Chinese) of 2,130 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Amended Traffic Regulation.—The amended Traffic Regulation No. 48 prohibiting extended ranking in Nanking Road and keeping the side of the road carrying "rush hour" traffic clear of all vehicles during certain periods of the day, came into force on March 9. Prior to enforcement all vehicles owners were circularized and informed of the new regulation. Considerable improvement has been noted in the movement of all traffic and infringements of the no parking regulation have been very rare.

A new Omnibus Route No. 8 commenced operating between Seymour Road and Wayside, from March 9, and Route No. 6 was extended to Pingliang and Lay Roads corner from March 17.

Identification Office.—During the month 1,348 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 409 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. Report of the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham, C.M.G.

The following letter from the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham, C.M.G., to Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, C.M.G., D.S.O., Chairman of Council, relative to the date of issue of Volume II of his report to the Council, is published for general information:—

Shanghai, May 5, 1931.

DEAR GENERAL MACNAGHTEN,—I am sorry to find that I must ask leave to amend my estimate of the time required for the completion and publication of the second Volume of my Report.

When I said that I hoped "to be in a position to present the next instalment after an interval of about three weeks" I was too sanguine. At the time when I wrote I was attempting to conform to arrangements previously made for leaving Shanghai on the 19th May, but, in order to secure the further time required, I have now had to alter my plans, and the South African Government has granted me leave to prolong my stay for a few weeks longer.

My revised estimate is "about five weeks" from the publication of the first Volume,—that is, I now expect to have the second Volume ready early in June.

I regret this delay, but it is unavoidable; I think it right, therefore, to let you know the position.

Yours sincerely,

RICHARD FEETHAM.

BRIG.-GENERAL E. B. MACNAGHTEN, C.M.G., D.S.O.,
Chairman,
Municipal Council.

Dr. A. C. Bryson having resigned his seat on the Health Committee consequent upon his departure on leave, the vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Dr. W. S. Parsons.

Mr. Y. W. Wong has been appointed as the Chinese member on the Library Committee.

Dr. H. Gordon Thompson will act on the Board of Education during the absence on leave of Dr. H. G. Earle.

Police Force Inspection.

The following letter has been addressed by the Chairman of Council to the Commissioner of Police:—

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, May 1, 1931.

SIR,—I have great pleasure, on behalf of my colleagues on the Council and myself in expressing to you and to all ranks of the Force our high appreciation of the admirable appearance of the Force at the Inspection Parade on Thursday, April 30.

The demonstration furnished convincing evidence of the efficiency of both officers and men, and I take this opportunity of tendering to you and to all ranks of the Police Force the Council's most sincere congratulations.

I am, Sir,
Yours truly,
E. B. MACNAGHTEN,
Chairman.

Capt. R. M. J. MARTIN,
Commissioner of Police.

Appointment of Chinese Cadets.

After careful consideration by a Selection Board, the following eight candidates have been appointed as Cadets in the Health Department from May 18, on probation:—Messrs. Hsia Lien Tang, Zung Shee Nyeu, Tsao Chang Ling, Zao Chi-ming, Loo Chi-jen, Lu Bing Chun, Waung Kya Hyung and Linn Henry.

Certificates and references of unsuccessful candidates may be had on application to Room 130A, Public Health Department.

General Municipal Rate.

In view of the misunderstanding which has recently arisen and has been voiced in the press on the subject of the assessment of houses and buildings for General Municipal Rate, the Council desires to assure ratepayers that it has neither adopted nor considered any change and that the basis of the assessment for Municipal rates is the same as it has been for the last sixty years.

The Land Regulations provide for the declaration of an assessment in the form of a rate to be made on land or buildings and for the levying of such rates and taxes by the Council. In order that the rates and taxes may fall evenly on the different classes of the community it is further provided "that the proportion between the tax on land and on houses or buildings shall not exceed one-twentieth of 1 per cent on the gross value of land to 1 per cent on the annual rental of houses."

Land is subject to a periodical assessment but houses and buildings owing to the circumstances governing their letting and occupation require individual consideration.

The Council has always acted on the principle that although the rent is prima facie evidence of the rateable value there are cases where the rent is not the proper indication of such value. The point has been tested at different times in different Courts from 1867 onwards and it has been held in an exhaustive judgment that—

"on mature consideration of all arguments pro et contra the Court feels thoroughly convinced that the Municipal Council was well entitled to assess for the purpose of taxation the premises of the defendants regardless of their actual value."

In the great majority of cases, and the exceptions are relatively few, the Council accepts the rent actually paid as prima facie evidence of rental value.

Although rent may be regarded as the basis of assessment it will, however, be realized by every one who is acquainted with the subject that house property is held in an immense number of different ways and that the relation of landlord and tenant is very variable and is not governed only by the amount of the money consideration paid.

Some of the difficulties in relation to rating arise from circumstances such as the following:—

1. In many cases the owner of the property is also the occupant.

2. Premises are often let at nominal rents or rents which are less than their lettable value on the ground of friendship or relationship. It would be unreasonable to regard such reduced or nominal rent as the basis for taxation.

3. An arrangement is often made between a landlord and tenant which modifies the principles which are to determine the rateable value. Sometimes the landlord receives a substantial payment upon occupation of the property and the weekly, monthly or annual payment on which the rates might prima facie be based is less than the true rent.

A landlord who lets a house may make a stipulation that the tenant should in addition to paying a sum in money as rent also take upon himself the expense of making such major repairs and defraying such other expenses as the landlord usually bears. He may also derive certain other benefits in the way of services or easements which affect the amount of the monetary part of the rent.

In numbers of cases, unfortunately, arrangements are deliberately made with a view to producing false rent receipts. These cases however are matters for the criminal law.

One of the main principles to be observed by any government or administration is that the burden of the taxation should be as evenly borne by the community as possible, or in other words, that there should be equality of taxation. It should, therefore, be perfectly clear that the burden of the ratepayers generally should not be increased unequally by permitting special arrangements or concessions between landlord and tenant to reduce the basis of taxation.

Whilst the preponderating number of ratepayers in the Settlement is rated on the annual rental, actually paid, it is necessary to review certain cases in order that the premises concerned should pay their fair share of the rates and not be favoured at the expense of the rest of the community.

Since January of this year a small number of cases has been considered in which the money paid as rent is considered by the Council less than what the premises might be expected to be let in ordinary circumstances. In these cases the Council has assessed rent at a reasonable value and provided that if the ratepayer is dissatisfied he can appeal within thirty days to an appeal committee called the Rate Assessment Appeal Committee. This Committee is not concerned with laying down the principles on which the assessment should be made; its function is to consider whether having regard to the principles of assessment the rent is correctly estimated for taxation.

The Council's practice has therefore been uniform throughout its history. It is in accordance with the principles and practice in other countries and it has been judicially upheld in the Settlement. Except where particular circumstances exist, the actual rent is taken as prima facie evidence of the rateable value and the ratepayers are safeguarded by a provision for an Appeal together with such publicity as such proceedings necessarily involve.

Rate Assessment Appeal Committee.

The "Medium" Club, 150 Weihaiwei Road, has appealed to the Rate Assessment Appeal Committee against the assessment placed upon it for the purpose of the General Municipal Rate. The material correspondence in the matter is appended:—

Shanghai, December 6, 1930.

DEAR SIR:—Being the chairman of the board of directors of our new social organization, which will be known henceforth to the public as "The Medium," I beg to present to your good self briefly the purpose of that organization. In view of the miserable and unhealthy life of Shanghai business men who can not find any decent places to trifle away their leisure hours except resorting to gambling dens, brothels, race-courses, and other amusement centers, we have felt the need of the formation of a social organization, wherein gambling and prostituting will be strictly banned and only decent and healthy pastime will be provided to its members. It is by no means a closed organization, but its membership is limited to the people of the middle class, hence the name "The Medium." Instead of mahjong tables, which all the other clubs have always provided to their members, we shall entertain our members by setting up a library and a billiard room with two billiard tables.

The house has been specially built for the purpose. In order to give our members all the facilities, it provides a restaurant, a barber shop, and a co-operative store with separate entrances opening on Weihaiwei Road.

As the nature of our organization is quite different from that of others, I, therefore, solicit help, financial or otherwise, from all broad-minded people on its behalf. Through the kindness of the landlord, the rent of the house has been cut down to Tls. 350.00 monthly. I hope your good self will see the wholesome motive of our organization, and give us an helping hand in promoting its growth by instructing the officers of the Revenue Department to levy the municipal tax on the basis of Tls. 350.00, instead of their own valuation of the property. I have sent my man over to see Commissioner E. L. Allen as to the reduction, and he has kindly asked me to refer that matter to you. I hope you, after realizing the purpose of our organization, will grant us this reduction.

Your prompt and kind attention to this matter will be highly appreciated.

Yours faithfully,
SINGLOH HSU,
Chairman of the Board of Directors,
The Medium.

S. M. EDWARDS, Esq.,
Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 9, 1930.

DEAR MR. SINGLOH HSU,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 6, requesting that, in view of the aims and objects of the new Chinese Club known as "The Medium," the Council will consent to taxation of the premises at a rental considerably below the true letting value of the building.

In reply, I am directed to inform you that, much as the Council sympathizes with the aims and objects of your organization, it is regretted that its long-established policy precludes it from acceding to your request.

The policy of the Council for very many years and which is consistently applied at the present day, is that no abatement in taxation may be allowed except in respect of churches, chapels, hospitals, cemeteries, and certain schools supported by charitable donations. To approve of your application would, therefore, create a precedent involving a considerable extension of the categories named, with a consequent not inconsiderable effect on the Council's revenues.

In the circumstances, and whilst I regret the necessity, I trust your organization will appreciate the reasons for the Council's intention to tax your premises upon the basis of the true letting value, which I am given to understand by the Commissioner of Revenue is Tls. 650 per mensem.

I am, dear Mr. Singloh Hsu,
Your obedient servant,
S. M. EDWARDS,
Secretary.

SINGLOH HSU, Esq.

Shanghai, March 4, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We have been very much grateful to the officers of the Revenue Department of S. M. C. for their prompt attention in rectifying the errors they have made in assessing the municipal taxes on the houses Nos. 140 and 142 Weihaiwei Road, which have been recently leased to The Medium. In the meantime, we can not help feeling that the officers of the Revenue Department, in assessing the taxes on the houses Nos. 146, 150, 152, 154 and 156 also occupied by The Medium, have also erred in their valuation of the premises, and therefore we present you herewith the following grounds for your kind consideration:

1.—The lot on which the houses Nos. 146, 150, 152, 154, and 156 have been erected is triangular in shape, thereby unfitful for the residential uses as it allows no open spaces inside as well as outside of the houses. But the officers of the Revenue Department, who might have not investigated the situation on the spot, have insisted upon the assessment of the municipal taxes on the basis of Tls. 650 per month, in spite of the fact that we have actually paid the rent at the rate of Tls. 350 per month—this fact can be testified by our rent receipts—a valuation much higher than that of the houses of the Wah Kee Avenue.

2.—If we are not mistaken, the municipal taxes are assessed on the basis of the figures named in the Contract of Lease and the Rent Receipt, if they are available. But now the officers of the Revenue Department disregard the figures stated clearly in the Contract of Lease and the Rent Receipt, insist upon their own valuation and estimation—a procedure contrary to the established usage and accustomed practice. Even comparing with the taxes on the houses Nos. 140 and 142, only recently added to The Medium, anybody can see the excess of valuation on the houses Nos. 146, 150, 152, 154 and 156.

3.—Even though The Medium has five different openings on Weihaiwei Road bearing the Nos. 146, 150, 152, 154 and 156, they are but the entrances to its restaurant, barber shop, and co-operative store, which are exclusively reserved for the use of its members. Strictly speaking, The Medium bears only one house number, that is, No. 150.

Based on the above grounds, we beg you to give your best attention to our case and to instruct your subordinates to rectify the errors they have made in the assessment.

Thanking you for the trouble,

Yours faithfully,
DR. CHENG FANG TSU,
Chairman of the Board of Directors,
The Medium.

J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 21, 1931.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 4, wherein you question the assessment placed upon that portion of the premises of "The Medium" situate at Nos. 146, 150, 152, 154 and 156 Weihaiwei Road.

In reply, I am directed to point out that it would be ultra vires the Council's powers to afford purely social clubs, foreign or Chinese, any relief from that taxation commonly levied throughout the Settlement.

In computing the amount of the Rate properly due in each case, the Council is empowered to assess the fair rental of the premises affected. Normally, such assessed rental corresponds to the actual rental of the premises; but authority necessarily remains to the Council to depart from the actual rental figure when it is an artificial one and fails to bear that true correspondence to the letting value of the premises and of premises of a similar type in the rateable area.

Since, by the admission contained in Mr. Singloh Hsu's letter of December 6, 1930, the rental which you pay to the owner is a purely nominal one, the Council is bound to depart therefrom in determining the correct assessment of your premises.

Whilst the Council fully recognizes the useful purposes to which your premises are put, I have to state that the categories of premises qualifying for tax rebates are definitely restricted and that yours do not fall within these categories.

In the circumstances, I trust you will appreciate that the Council has no alternative but to levy Municipal Rate on your premises upon the basis of the assessment fixed by its officers.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. MCKEE,
Deputy Secretary.

DR. CHENG FANG TSU.

Shanghai, March 23, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—Several weeks ago, we lodged you a letter of protest concerning the over-assessment of the Municipal Tax on the premises occupied by The Medium, 150 Weihaiwei Road, and so far, we have been not favoured with your reply yet. In the meantime, we have received a notice from the Revenue Department of S. M. C. notifying us that we must pay our tax within 14 days. Before we receive any satisfactory reply from your goodself, we have no alternative but abide by the proclamation recently issued by the Chinese Ratepayers' Association stating that before the S. M. C. gives up its practice of taxing the leased premises on the basis of its valuation, all the Chinese should refrain from paying these taxes assessed not on a fair basis and through a proper procedure.

Yours faithfully,
DR. CHENG FANG TSU,
Chairman of the Board of Directors.

J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Shanghai, April 3, 1931.

GENTLEMEN: — Through the Municipal Notice No. 4071 in the vernacular Chinese dailies, we have learned that a House Assessment Committee under the auspices of the S. M. C. has been newly formed to take care of the complaints against the unfair and excessive assessment of the Municipal Taxes. We warmly applaud the birth of this new organization which will by all means fill the longfelt want of this Municipality,—and hasten to offer our case for your kind consideration.

Our club house, bearing the Nos. 144-156 Weihaiwei Road has been leased from the Central China Realty Co. at a monthly rental of Tls. 350.00, which can be verified by the Contract of lease and the Rent Receipts. But to our great surprise, S.M.C., in assessing the Municipal Tax, instead of basing its assessment on the actual amount of rent—a long established usage —has wilfully and unscrupulously insisted the levy of tax on its own valuation at Tls. 520.00 per month—a valuation without any justifiable grounds to support. Consequently, we have sent letters together with all the available evidences to the responsible officers of the S. M. C. to protest against this unfair procedure; but we can get no more satisfactory replies than this evasive statement that the S. M. C. has the right to make its own valuation of the properties in the payment of taxes. We have no intention whatsoever to defy the Council's right in making its own valuation, but what we want to know is if it is the proper procedure to tax the leased houses not according to their rent. If the Council choses to depart from its accustomed way of levying the taxes, it should at least give its reasons for doing so, so that the tax payers can see the Council's point of view. If the Council deems our rent is too "cheap", as the case shows to be, we have the following grounds to challenge its contention:

1. Our club house as well as those houses in the Wah Kee Avenue are all owned by Central China Realty Co. The land occupied by our club covers an area of about 30 fongs, while each house in the North end (along the Bubbling Well Road) of the Wah Kee Avenue covers 10 fongs. In speaking of their respective construction cost, we have learned that the former is figured at Tls. 900.00 per fong, while the latter at more than Tls. 1,000.00 per fong. Because of the relative low construction cost, although occupying three times as big an area as that of each house in the Wah Kee Avenue, our club is rented at Tls. 350.00 per month, almost three times as much as that of the said houses which are leased at a rental of Tls. 130.00 per month. From this comper fong, while the latter at more rent of our club is "cheap".

2. We can also support our arguments by comparing this respective land value. The value of the land along the north end of the Wah Kee Avenue is estimated at Tls. 60,000.00 per Mow, while the land occupied by our club, being on Weihaiwei Road and triangular in shape, will be worth half as much. The dearer the value of the land, the higher will be the rent. But we have paid about the same rent as that of the houses on the main highway and land.

3. The land occupied by our club, being triangular in shape, is originally set aside for the purpose of building garage. We have persuaded its owner to give up its original plan and to build a club house instead. Therefore its construction is far inferior to that of the houses in the Wah Kee Avenue, and this can be amply testified by their respective construction costs as given above.

In submitting our case to you, we have the full confidence in your ability to rectify the wrongs committed by the S.M.C. We pin a great hope in the future works of your Committee and wish you every success.

Yours faithfully,

T. H. YU,
Chief Secretary, by order of Directors.

THE HOUSE ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, April 14, 1931.

SIR.—Your letter of April 3 addressed to the House Assessment Committee together with the other material correspondence has been circulated to the members of the Rate Assessment Appeal Committee. Your appeal against the assessment on the premises occupied by the Medium Club has been referred to the Committee and will be heard at an early date, probably next week. A notice of the hearing will, however, be sent to you in advance in order to enable you to be present and to state your case.

Your obedient servant,

Translation of letter to Secretary from Chinese Ratepayers' Association. Dated March 31, 1931.

Municipal Rate: Objection to assessment.—A letter received from the Shanghai Tsung Society states as follows:—

"The premises occupied by this Society are let by the Wo Tsung Company, a lease has been signed. The rent of the houses Nos. 144 to 156 inclusive in Weihaiwei Road is Tls. 350 per mensem. The Wo Tsung lease and receipts are held as evidence. The Municipal Council should collect rate on the basis of the actual rent paid. The rate is arbitrarily assessed at Tls. 520. Since this Society forwarded to the Council the lease, rent receipts and statement of the Wo Tsung Company to support the request that the Council should rectify matters, a reply has been received, which makes no statement regarding the assessment or the proofs submitted. It only says the Council has the right to make assessments. The responsible request of the Society has been refused without consideration. The premises of the Society are within the boundary of Hwa Kee Avenue. Each of the shops along the Bubbling Well Road occupies an area of ten fong. The cost of building is over Tls. 1,000 per "fong" and the value of land is over Tls. 50,000 per mow. Recently the value of the Majestic Hotel site in Bubbling Well Road is given as Tls. 100,000 per mow. East of the "Hwa Kee Avenue" the value is Tls. 60,000 per mow. Nos. 144 to 156 rented by this Society occupy an area of 30 "fong". The cost of building is less than Tls. 900 per "fong" and the value of the land is less than Tls. 30,000 per mow. It was originally intended to build a garage on the land, but by an agreement with the Wo Tsung Co., the premises are used as a Club. The premises are inferior to those of "Hwa Kee Avenue" where the rent is not more than Tls. 130. Compared with the rent of Tls. 350 the profit obtained from this Society is greater. To calculate the rate on Tls. 350 would be correct; why the Council should make a special assessment is not understood. It is enough to show that the Council uses its authority to brush aside old practice, that it refuses to consider proofs and ignores facts. The Council requires this Society to pay Municipal rate on a higher than 20 per cent basis. Although the Council has been repeatedly written to on the subject, it declines to rectify matters and insists on payment of rate at over 20 per cent. The Chinese Ratepayers Association recently notified residents of the International Settlement that the Municipal Rate is payable at 14 per cent of actual rent and that no assessment would be made. This Society has suffered oppression. The Chinese Ratepayers Association being a representative organization of citizens should abide by its notification. The several letters addressed to the Council with various proofs are sent herewith with the request that the Association will strongly protest on behalf of this Society. The Council is being informed that the Association has been asked to lodge a protest. The rate amounting to Tls. 147 calculated at 14 per cent of the actual rent, viz., Tls. 350 has been forwarded to the Council. If the sum is rejected the Council will be responsible for the delay, this should also be pointed out."

The above mentioned letter, certificate, lease and rent receipts have been duly received by this Association. The Council infringes the principle of Municipal finance by collecting rate on the basis of assessment. To increase the rate is considered improper by this Association and should be changed as already stated on several occasions. The Council is asked to deal with this, and the other cases, and to refrain from what is practically raising the Municipal rate if serious complications are to be avoided.

(Signed) CHINESE RATEPAYERS' ASSOCIATION.

CASE NO. 213.

Scheduled Widening of North Honan Road, Cadastral Lot 689, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, February 26.

Mr. G. A. Johnson appears on behalf of the registered owners: Mr. Jones, Deputy Secretary, represents the Council.

Mr. Johnson opens his case in the following terms:

This lot situated on the North side of North Honan Road was partially rebuilt last year; the area of the portion rebuilt was originally 3 fun 6 li 8 haou; of this area a strip measuring 9'-3" at the North end and 7'-0" at the South end was scheduled for surrender for purposes of widening the North Honan Road to sixty feet; this meant a surrender of 6 li 8 haou from a total area of 3 fun 6 li 8 haou, approximately one-fifth of the original area.

Our claim is set forth in detail in our letter to the Municipal Council dated the 8th of August last year; in that letter we claimed on the basis of net rentals capitalized at 7 per cent and deducting the cost of the new premises; on this basis the land works out at a value of Taels 87,742 per mow, our claim for the land surrendered being Taels 6,562.60, and in that letter we claimed an additional 10 per cent for compulsory surrender.

The Council in a letter of reply dated August 27th last year put forth a contention that their policy of widening the North Honan Road, or any road, was the cause of increased rentals and values of properties on such road or roads, and claimed a free surrender; the Council failing to recognize the fact that if a landlord were to request tenants of existing premises to pay an increased rental because the road fronting them had been widened by, say the property opposite having been redeveloped and set back, he would be met with a point blank refusal to pay such increase, and the Council further fail to recognize the very obvious facts that property is not increased in rental-production or value by road widenings but by the capital expenditure of owners on redevelopment and thereby by obtaining higher rentals by providing tenants with new and up-to-date premises; therefore it is the owner's money and his sinking of money that improves a road and the property values, and also benefits the public and the Council by paying higher rates and taxes to the Council.

In the present case the road before surrender was 41'-7" at the North end of the property and 46 feet at the South end; therefore premises 4-storeys high could have been erected without surrendering any land whatever, but as the locality is unsuited to such premises the Owner rebuilt his shops a similar height to the old shops viz:—2 storeys high; therefore the widening of the road has not benefited his property in any way whatever, and the increased rentals he derives is through his investment of capital money and not through any help or action by the Council; to state that he could have rebuilt higher will be merely to state a fact that could have been carried out, as stated above, without any surrender of land.

The site before surrender was just deep enough to take a shop, yard and kitchen, and the surrender of a wide strip for public road purposes has caused a curtailment of shop depth and yard space; the land surrender thus takes away benefits the lot formerly enjoyed; at north end 9'-3" has been taken away from a former depth of 53 feet, and at south end 7 feet was taken from a former depth of 36 feet; it is obvious that the surrender of this piece of land is detrimental to this lot.

Finally we emphatically state that the public, especially the vehicular travelling public, benefits and enjoys whatever these benefits may be by this road widening, and not the property owners.

Replying for the Council Mr. Jones says that the Council originally had asked for a free surrender for the reasons stated in its letter to the claimants of August 27, 1930, (see "Municipal Gazette" of January 1, 1931) but subsequently had decided to offer compensation at the rate of Tls. 35,000 per mow, less betterment at Tls. 4,000 per mow on mow 0.300, the approximate area of the remainder of the lot, making a total payment of Tls. 1,180. His general submission with regard to the claim is that there is no case to answer. It rested on adherence to the fallacy constantly being repeated by claimants that the Council is buying the land, and he could only reiterate what he had often said previously that the Council is not buying the land as if it were it would have all the rights of ownership including the right to build over the frontage.

Mr. Johnson here interjects that Land Regulation VI would operate to forbid this and Mr. Jones rejoins that for that very reason the Council could not buy the land. If a road is abandoned or deviated the land surrendered for its building would revert to the owners of the property from which it had been excised. The question then is not one of price but of compensation should a loss to the owner be made manifest. Accordingly it is for the Commissioners to decide whether or not the proposed widening of the road would result in a betterment or worsement to the remainder of the property, and on this basis he submits there must be betterment because the widened road will give an improved frontage the extent of which remains unimpaired.

The Claim in his submission contains two main fallacies:

1.—It asks that the Council shall pay a price based on the full economical value taking into consideration all the elements making that value.

2.—It asks that the price shall be based on the profits owners make on rentals.

There was nothing in the Land Regulations to justify a payment based on the first point and he fails to see how a price computed on profits from rentals (which are subject to the vagaries of possible renters) can have any relationship to a compensation for loss. The claimants show they are now getting four times more rent for their property than they were receiving formerly and it therefore was natural for them to wish to base their claim on rentals but it would not be "natural" for the commissioners to so award it. Both the Land Regulations and the fact that the Council was only obtaining limited elements of ownership in the surrendered land were opposed to such a basis.

Continuing Mr. Jones says there are other minor fallacies in the claim, one of which is the contention that the North Honan Road was always one of the main thoroughfares. The Council had spent considerable sums of money for road construction and improvements in the public welfare and property owners had deluded themselves into the assumption that what they had enjoyed from these facilities are rights. The labour and money expended by the Council on North Honan Road has contributed to the increase in value of claimant's property and to his profits, in this case quadruplicating his profits. The North Honan Road will in time be the main thoroughfare to the North Railway Station and to the foreshadowed civic centre of the Chinese municipality.

Dealing with Mr. Johnson's point that the owner has built his shops to a height similar to that of the old shops and that therefore the widening of the road had not been of any benefit to him in that direction, Mr. Jones remarks that this is a narrow view to take of the matter. The potentialities for more pretentious buildings were created by the widening of the road and these potentialities could be availed of immediately.

Mr. Johnson rejoining says, with regard to the statement that the Council does not buy land for public purposes, that the owner certainly sells the land. He maintains that the Council does not widen the roads only in the interests of the individual private owners, but that this work is done mainly for the public benefit. It is a well known fact that assessment values were not a good criterion. He failed to see how the Council could assert the right to take away land on which taxes had been paid for years without giving an adequate quid pro quo.

Mr. Jones remarks that land owners when buying their holdings are or should be aware of the conditions governing surrenders for public purposes and of the principle that where no loss can be proved through such surrenders no compensation from the public purse can be paid.

The Commissioners then announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That compensation for area scheduled for surrender be paid at the rate of Tls. 50,000 per mow, equalling Tls. 3,400

Less betterment to remainder of lot at Tls. 5,000 per mow, equalling Tls. 1,500

Net compensation to be paid to registered owner Tls. 1,900

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, April 28, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, A. J. Hughes, K. H. Ling, F. J. Raven, L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, and Mr. A. B. Lang, (for the Deputy Secretary).

Election of Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. Hughes, seconded by Mr. Yuan, Mr. A. D. Bell is re-elected Chairman.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Bubbling Well Road—Cad. Lot 15—Proposed High Building.—The Commissioner of Public Works reports that an application has been received to erect a tall building on the above property, the maximum height of which will be 230 feet. The total cubic capacity thereof will however be slightly less than that of a building of an alternative design which could be erected under the Building Rules. The Architect has agreed to retain the existing four-storied garage (less one bay) as a general parking space.

The Commissioner of Public Works suggests that if this application is approved in principle the applicants should be informed that approval thereof is contingent upon certain structural aspects of the proposed building being approved by his Department.

The Chairman comments that by according approval to applications of this nature it is apparent that such approval is based on the principle of the mass of the building, i.e., its cubic capacity, rather than its height, the principle hitherto adopted under the Building Rules, and this departure he considers should be drawn to the attention of the Public.

Upon the Commissioner stating that he is clarifying this in the building rules now in the course of revision it is recommended that the above application be approved, subject to the stipulation proposed by the Commissioner of Public Works.

Inspection of Lifts.—The Commissioner of Public Works reports that he has arranged a conference with representatives of the Shanghai Property Owners' Association and the Engineering Society at which the Building Rules generally will be discussed as also the question of the inspection of lifts.

Acquisition of Land for Parks.—Relative to a discussion at a recent meeting anent endeavours to secure options on available land suitable for conversion to parks and open spaces, the Commissioner of Public Works states he is continuing his efforts in this direction prior to the general question of the acquisition of park land being considered by the Special Committee.

The meeting terminates at 6.10 p.m.

At the meeting of the Education Board held on Wednesday, April 29, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Mr. A. D. Bell, Dr. H. G. Earle, Mrs. N. Leslie, Mr. K. H. Ling, Dr. H. C. E. Liu, Dr. Y. H. Ou, Rev. G. W. Sheppard, Mr. L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, the Superintendent of Education, and the Deputy Secretary.

Election of Chairman.—Mr. Bell proposes, and Mr. Yuan seconds, the re-election of the Rev. G. W. Sheppard as Chairman.

The Rev. Sheppard refers to the responsible nature of the business which the Board will be called upon to transact during the forthcoming year, particularly in the matter of giving effect to the revised Education policy, and he suggests that the position of Chairman could be more adequately filled by Mr. A. D. Bell.

Members, however, express their desire that the Rev. Sheppard should continue to act as Chairman and the above proposal is unanimously carried.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

District Primary Schools for Chinese.—In a report submitted, the Commissioner of Public Works requests definite information on certain points in connection with the planning of the above Schools. Dealing with these seriatim, the following recommendations are recorded:—

Assembly Hall.—Having regard to the views expressed by the Superintendent of Education in a report, submitted, and taking into consideration the purposes for which an Assembly Hall may be utilized, members are unanimous in the view that an Assembly Hall at these Schools should be provided and should be designed to accommodate 400 pupils. In drawing up the working plans of these buildings, the Commissioner of Public Works undertakes to consider a suggestion put forward as to the feasibility of providing partitions between the Hall and the Classrooms and/or the corridors, in order to provide additional accommodation for special occasions and to render the Hall cooler during the hot season.

Platform and Cinema Apparatus.—It is recommended that a simple platform be provided in the Assembly Hall, as also the provision of a Cinema Apparatus Chamber in connection therewith. To meet the requirements of the Fire Brigade, the latter construction will be erected independent of the main building.

Heating.—With regard to the heating of the Assembly Hall, as this will be used as a pupils' tiffin room, members consider that it should be centrally heated. They therefore recommend that the central heating system to be installed should be such as to heat the classrooms and the Assembly Hall to approximate temperatures of 68° F and 62° F respectively.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that the final plans, including the provisions above decided upon, will be submitted for members' approval upon completion.

The meeting terminates at 6.15 p.m.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Thursday, April 30, 1931 at 4 o'clock p.m., there are present:—Messrs. N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Mr. G. W. Sheppard, the Treasurer & Controller, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue, and the Deputy Secretary.

Election of Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. Sheppard, seconded by Mr. Brown, Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten is re-elected Chairman.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Land Assessment Appeal—Cad. Lot 2289, Western.—A protest against the revised assessment placed on the above property is submitted. It is noted that this protest was not received within the prescribed period, but, as the owner insists that he did not receive the re-assessment notice until February 2, and as no acknowledgment in respect thereof is available, it is decided to give this protest special consideration. After discussion, and in view of the comment of the Land Assessors that the revised assessment is regarded as a fair and reasonable estimate of the gross value of the land, it is unanimously recommended that this protest be over-ruled.

Upon a member enquiring whether some system could not be devised whereunder receipts would be obtained for delivery of the re-assessment notices, the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue states that the official notice as to re-assessment and the notification that owners will within a prescribed period be permitted to appeal against same is published in the "Municipal Gazette;" the individual notices sent out by the Revenue Office being in the nature of an additional notification. In his opinion it would be impracticable to obtain receipts for these latter notifications.

After brief discussion, members concur in this view.

Taxation of Bubbling Well Temple School premises.—In an application submitted the Temple Authorities request total exemption from Municipal taxation in respect of a school building recently erected on their property. It is noted that the applicants have been informed that, in view of the semi-charitable nature of the school, an abatement of one-half rates would be granted.

The Treasurer suggests that, as an appropriation of Tls. 150,000 is included in the current budget for the purpose of subsidizing non-municipal Schools, total exemption from taxation might be accorded this School in lieu of a grant-in-aid thereto.

This proposal commends itself to members and it is accordingly recommended that the above application be approved, this concession to be taken into consideration when the grants to non-municipal schools are being apportioned.

Collection of Licence Fees.—Inter-Departmental correspondence is submitted relative to a proposed revision of the method of collecting licence fees, requiring primarily that the fees in respect of a specified number of licensed occupations be not collected by the Council's collectors but be paid by the licensee or his representative at the Revenue Office.

In a later report, the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue considers it expedient to postpone applying the new licence collection procedure for the time being. He therefore recommends that the proposed new method of collection be approved in principle, its application however to be deferred to a more suitable time.

In concurring in the above proposal, the Treasurer states that the revised procedure recommended is in accordance with the principles laid down by the Economy Committee; he appreciates however the advisability of its being given gradual effect. He therefore suggests that, if the revised procedure is approved in principle, it might be left to the Assistant Commissioner of Revenue and himself to report to the Committee when, in their opinion, certain of the changes now recommended could be successfully effected.

After discussion the above proposal is approved.

The further recommendation that, in the interests of economy, certain licences, outlined in the statement submitted, which are required to be taken out in the interests of public health, be issued half-yearly instead of quarterly as at present is unanimously endorsed, and members request that it be announced in the "Municipal Gazette" that this revised procedure will be given effect as from July 1, next.

The meeting terminates at 4.35 p.m.

At the meeting of the Library Committee held on Friday, May 1, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Mr. F. R. Barry, Dr. H. Chatley, Mr. W. J. Dexter, the Deputy Treasurer, and the Deputy Secretary.

Election of Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. Barry, seconded by Mr. Dexter, Dr. H. Chatley is re-elected Chairman.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Appointment of Librarian.—In connection with the desire of the Council that an endeavour should be made to secure the services of a trained Chinese to fill this post, the Chairman recalls that the Committee's former recommendation that a foreign Librarian be appointed was based on the ground that the Librarian should be in a position to advise subscribers as to reading matter. He is doubtful as to the possibility of securing a Chinese Librarian capable of doing this.

In concurring in this view, and having regard to the fact that the overwhelming majority of subscribers are of foreign nationality, members are unanimous in the view that the time is not yet ripe for the appointment of a Chinese to this post. If in the future the number of Chinese subscribers should materially increase, the Committee expresses its willingness to consider the engagement of a qualified Chinese Assistant Librarian in the interests of such subscribers. In the meantime, members unanimously adhere to their former recommendation that a foreign Librarian be engaged.

If the above recommendation is confirmed by the Council, the Committee requests that the draft advertisement of this appointment be submitted to them for approval.

Suggestion Book.—A member states that, during his inspection of the Library premises, he observed that the Suggestion Book is very worn and is kept in an inconspicuous position. It would also appear that action is rarely taken on any suggestions made therein by subscribers. He therefore suggests, and members concur, that a new Suggestion Book be obtained similar to that in use at the Shanghai Club Library and that a stand be provided therefor in a conspicuous place in the Library.

If the above provisions are approved, the new Suggestion Book will be submitted to each meeting of the Committee; in the interim, it is considered that the Librarian should be authorized to take any action she deems appropriate on the suggestions put forward therein.

Location of Public Library.—In view of the fact that the entrance to the Library and the Reading Room is somewhat obscure, it is recommended that an endeavour be made to secure the permission of Messrs. Marcel and Messrs. Llewellyn & Co. to affix Notice Boards on their premises indicating the entrance to the Library.

The meeting terminates at 5.15 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Thursday, May 7, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Secretary-General, and the Deputy Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Assessment for General Municipal Rate.—The statement prepared by the Secretary having been circulated and approved, it is authorized for immediate publication in the foreign and Chinese press and in the "Municipal Gazette."

Mr. Justice Feetham's Report.—In a letter addressed to the Chairman, Mr. Justice Feetham requests that he be permitted to amend his estimate of the time required for the completion and publication of the second volume of his Report, which he now anticipates will be ready early in June.

It is decided to publish the above letter.

Waterworks Investigation.—A reply to the Council's cable to Mr. Nicholas Hill stating that the terms for a six weeks stay of one of the members of his firm in Shanghai is G$12,000 plus expenses, is submitted.

It is decided to cable Mr. Hill forthwith that the Council accepts his offer provided that this investigation is undertaken personally by him.

Swimming Bath—North Szechuen Road.—The recommendation submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works that sealed tenders be invited for the purchase of this property and that delivery be given after the Swimming Season—say September 30, the purchaser to be entitled to all fixtures but not fittings, is unanimously approved.

Special Orchestral Performance.—The Chairman states that he has received complaints as to the increased admission charge to the Special Orchestral Concert arranged for Sunday next, it having been represented to him that special concerts should be arranged for other than Sunday evenings in order not to interfere with the holding of the usual weekly performance.

A member states that the Band Committee were somewhat reluctant to authorize the holding of this special concert on a Sunday, but as the artiste engaged is only paying a brief visit to Shanghai and owing to the impossibility of securing accommodation on a week night, the Committee took the view that it would be regrettable if advantage were not taken of this opportunity to arrange a concert in which this artiste could participate, and to which the public could be admitted at popular prices.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Rate Assessment Appeal Committee of April 20 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of April 27 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of April 28 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of April 29 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Finance Committee of April 30 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Library Committee of May 1 are submitted and confirmed.

Publicity Committee—Terms of Reference.—Proposed terms of reference to the above Committee have been circulated to members. A member states that he has furnished a memorandum to the Secretary-General on this question pointing out that, in his view, the proposed terms of reference are too narrow and suggesting that they be so worded as to enable the Committee to devise means by which fuller information can be conveyed to the Public on municipal matters.

After brief discussion, it is decided to leave the drafting of these Terms of Reference to the Chairman and the Secretary-General.

Board of Film Censors.—The Chinese members of Council undertake to submit a nomination to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. C. L. Hsia.

Education Board.—To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. H. G. Earle, it is decided to invite Dr. H. Gordon Thompson to serve on the Board during the absence of Dr. Earle on leave. It is also decided to accept Dr. Earle's offer to resume membership thereof upon his return.

Health Committee.—As Dr. Bryson is proceeding on long leave it is decided to request Dr. W. S. Parsons to accept a seat on this Committee.

Library Committee.—The recommendation of the Chinese members of Council, that Mr. Y. W. Wong be invited to serve on this Committee, is approved.

Ricsha Coolies.—The Chairman states that his attention has been drawn to the large number of young and undersized ricsha coolies now operating on the streets. Although difficult to prevent this, he suggests, and members concur, that the Commissioner of Police be authorized to notify ricsha owners that employment of such coolies should be discontinued.

The Municipal Gazette for Friday, May 8, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication.

The meeting terminates at 6.20 p.m.

Chinese Edition of Annual Report.

In accordance with the directions of the Council, the Annual Report was this year translated into Chinese and this week 3,200 copies were forwarded to the Chinese Ratepayers' Association for distribution among Chinese residents, guilds, societies, etc. This follows on the line of distribution of the weekly Chinese edition of the "Municipal Gazette." All inquiries for copies should be addressed to the Chinese Ratepayers' Association.

Charity Organization Committee.

Shanghai, April 30, 1931.

SIR,—We beg to enclose herewith the Annual Report of the Charity Organization Committee, together with the Treasurer's Statement, for the year ending December 31, 1930.

We very much regret the lateness this year in sending these to you. This was due to the illness of our Treasurer, who was for a time in the hospital.

We trust that it has not caused any inconvenience to you, and hope, next year, to be able to let you have them before the end of February.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
ADA WHEEN,
Secretary

J. M. McKEE Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

The most outstanding feature of the past year's work is the collecting of passage money for the repatriation of Britishers, who, unable to obtain a livelihood out here, were a source of great anxiety to the various Societies.

Five families, aggregating 14 persons, were enabled to leave the country in this way, and thus the community was relieved of a very heavy burden.

In order to make this possible $7,373 had to be raised, and the various Societies responsible are to be congratulated on so generously rising to the occasion.

Door to door beggars are still numerous, though there is, we think, a slight reduction. Charity Organization means enquiry and investigation, and these two are not always popular—hence the reply so often given "It is no use going there, they won't do anything for me." Whenever a mendicant is sent with a card or even just the address only, written on a piece of scrap paper (many of which it has been discovered are never presented, feeling they are too well known to those in charge), their particulars are taken and duly registered.

Three cases lately dealt with will show the ingratitude evinced by these mendicants when those in charge try to assist in the way they deem best.

Two of the "House to Housers" —a C. O. C. term—called on a lady asking for food—a chit was given them enclosing a cheque to pay for meals, if considered worthy. The chit had been opened, and they had evidently tried to cash the cheque, as it was very dirty when received, and several days old. They were given a meal ticket each and told to return next day. Two days later one returned and received a ticket for that day, and was told to call next morning. Neither has been seen since.

On another occasion a chit was received asking that a certain case be investigated and help given if deserving. After the usual precautionary measures were taken, a food ticket was given, and instead of gratitude, we were roundly abused and reviled, and the ticket torn up and stamped upon.

After years of work and careful study of some of those cases—we agree with John Ruskin—when he says—"The help beyond others—find out how to make useless people useful and let them earn their money instead of begging it."

The problem of mental deficients and their care is still a source of worry to the Committee.

We have at present the case of a poor woman who has suffered greatly and experienced many cruelties.

She is well known to many offices in town. Her main delusions are that she is related to the late Emperor Joseph of Austria, and that she carries a telephone in her body which, she says, informs her all the time that her wealth and jewels are buried under some Castle in Austria, and if only she could reach England she could procure the "key of the underground," and would be happy for ever after. For this purpose she has been trying to collect the money needed for her passage. What can be done for the poor thing? She quite refuses the hospitality of the Foreign Women's Home, as she tells us they eat human beings there—she has smelt them being fried.

No other institution will take her and she is not a fit subject to be confined in the Mental Ward—and then too, who would pay for her there? This is only one of the many sad cases suffering from delusions caused by privation and barbarities suffered and seen at the hands of the Bolsheviks. In all probability she, like so many others has hidden her jewellery and heirlooms—before fleeing the country.

1.—The new cases dealt with are: 515 for the year.

2.—Made up of following Nationals:

The Daily Journal records the number of visitors to the rooms as follows:—

January	167	July	182
February	152	August	189
March	219	September	205
April	200	October	333
May	267	November	282
June	285	December	325

508 Parcels of clothing have been received during the year, and about 724 persons and/or families have been supplied. In addition many large bundles have been sent to the Russian Benevolent Society and occasionally a few men's clothing to the Work Shelter.

More use is certainly being made of the Central Office than in former years, as is shown by the number of cases sent for investigation and help promised if proved satisfactory. This is very pleasing to the Committee.

The fears of last year have been at last realized. Towards the close of the year we were definitely told that the present premises were to be demolished. We are fortunate in being able to continue being subtenants of Messrs. Oliveira & Co., who have taken premises in the Seward Road, opposite the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, and have offered us the first floor, retaining one room only for their own use. Though at a higher rental, the Council have kindly increased their allowance to help us out. The surroundings and outlook are not as pleasing as our present quarters—but being busy people and well occupied all the time, that will not affect us. The position of course being the main object, combined with having landlords who do not complain of the class of visitors we have at times!

We have had very little change in the personnel of the Committee during the year, Mrs. Pearson Grant and Mrs. Hardman still carrying on the work of Chairman and Treasurer.

The Committee at the end of the year comprised:—

Mrs. PEARSON GRANT, in the Chair.
Miss EVANS.
Mrs. HEGARTY.
Miss JANSEN.
Miss MCGEACHIE, and Mrs. HARDMAN, Hon. Treasurer.

The number of Meetings held during the year has been 18, and the average attendance has been six.

Thanks are again due to all those who have so kindly helped to make the work a success by their willing co-operation and especially to those different Societies who have come forward with monetary assistance for needy ones.

ADA WHEEN,
Secretary.

Chairman.

My dear Macdocald,

In to-day's Police Orders you will see a copy of the Council's appreciation of last Thursday's parade.

The Specials made an excellent showing and I was particularly gratified to see so many turn out to do honour to yourself and those who, with you, are the first to receive the Council's Long Service Medals.

It was a pity the parade could not take place on the Recreation Ground when the Ratepayers would have been able to see with their own eyes what a valuable adjunct to the Police Force they have in the Special Police.

Yours sincerely,
R. M. J. MARTIN.

Parks Report for April.

Jessfield Park.—The planting of groups of Spirea cantoniensis, Spirea prunifolia, Hypericum patulum and Deutzia glabra along the Zoological garden pathway and the planting of a group of mixed shrubs immediately south of the cement bridge was carried out.

The construction of additional crazy paving pathways in the Alpine garden was commenced and the construction of additional pathways in various sections of the Park was carried out.

Displays of flowering trees, bulbs and early flowering hardy annuals were on view during the month and formed the chief floral attractions.

Hongkew Park.—Four bowling greens and one baseball diamond at the above Park were assigned to Clubs.

One hundred and thirty-two applications for tennis courts were received from Clubs and Associations, and of this number, one hundred and thirteen were accommodated on the eighty-nine courts available, many Clubs being required to share courts, playing on alternate days.

Nineteen requests for playing spaces, received subsequent to the closing date for receipt of applications, were rejected owing to the unprecedented demand exceeding the number of playing spaces available.

The renovation of lawn areas was practically completed, repairs to two rustic bridges were carried out and the re-surfacing of ash pathways commenced.

Singapore Road Park.—The laying out of a section of this Park was completed, the area being opened to the public on April 25.

Operations carried out in connection with the layout included the erection of eleven swings, four seesaws, a covered sand-pit, a drinking fountain, a children's shelter and a temporary lavatory, the transplanting of trees to provide shade, the transplanting of a large quantity of evergreen trees and shrubs to provide secluded nooks and shelter from cold winds and the construction of suitable pathways.

Wayside Park.—Eight tennis courts and two bowling greens were allocated to Clubs for the summer season. Operations connected with the renovation of lawn areas were completed and the transplanting of various trees and shrubs was carried out.

Studley Park.—All lawn areas were raised above the level of surrounding pathways and numerous additional trees and shrubs were planted.

Reserve Garden—Soochow Road.—In view of the proposed demolition of the Municipal Conservatories, located at the above garden, all palms, flowering plants, etc., were removed therefrom and housed in temporary quarters at Jessfield Park.

General.—One thousand Cherry trees, presented by Mr. Nanzo Uchiyiama and Mr. Eijiro Ohara, were received from Japan and planted as follows:—

Hongkew Park—600.
Jessfield Park—300.
Wayside Park—100.

Park Visitors.—Thirteen thousand and eleven persons visited Jessfield Park on Sunday, April 26, this number constituting a record for a single day at this Park; the previous largest attendance being recorded on Sunday, March 22 last, when twelve thousand seven hundred and ninety persons entered the Park. The total number of visitors to Jessfield Park during the month under review was 82,333 (eighty-two thousand three hundred and thirty-three), an increase of 25,485 over the figure for April, 1930.

Duty at Places of Amusement amounted to 12,476 hours.

There were no fires of note during the month, but the following Special Call was received:—

March 5, at 6.41 a.m. Woo Dah Tobacco Factory, 75-103 Kinchow Road.—The Yangtszepoo Division turned out to a fire call and on arrival this proved to be a serious boiler explosion, which had resulted in the injury of 10 factory employees.

An Ambulance was immediately telephoned for from Hongkew Division, while the injured, who were mostly scalded, were having their wounds dressed by the Division in attendance and on its arrival, a few minutes later, all were conveyed to St. Luke's Hospital for treatment, eight being detained.

Twenty-four minutes after the first call, a report was received from the Police to the effect that a house had collapsed near Ward and Dalny Roads, and sections of Yangtszepoo and Hongkew turned out. The call was traced to a dwelling at No. JG 58 off Ward Road, where it was found that the outer shell of the boiler from the above tobacco factory, weighing approximately one ton and measuring 6'-6" long and 40" in diameter, had been blown a distance of about 200 yards and, after crashing through the roof, had come to rest on the ground floor. A woman, who was in bed with a baby on the upper floor at the time of the impact, was injured, but the baby and three other children on the ground floor miraculously escaped. The woman was conveyed to Hospital after first-aid had been rendered in the Brigade Rescue Van.

Apart from the distance travelled by the outer shell, the force of the explosion was further indicated by the fact that a steel smoke-stack, about 20 feet long, landed on the roof of the tobacco factory, approximately 40 yards from the boiler room.

The explosion was undoubtedly due to lack of water in the boiler, as the safety-valve had been arranged to blow off at 50 lbs. per square inch pressure and when tested was found in working order and properly calibrated.

Emergency Ambulance Service.—Fifty-three Ambulance Calls were received.

Volunteer Corps.

Reserve Company.—Captain P. Tilley is tranferred to the Reserve of Officers.

2nd Lieut. J. S. Whitney to be promoted Lieutenant and to command the Reserve Company.

Pte. C. C. Todd to be 2nd Lieutenant.

Annual Inspection of Volunteer Corps.

The following Report has been made by Brigadier G. Fleming, D.S.O., Commanding Shanghai Area, on his recent Inspection of Units of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps:—

1. Turn-out.—On the whole, good. With certain exceptions, the equipment is in good condition and well cared for. Some of the webbing has rotted and requires replacement.

Considerable diversity of pattern, and, in consequence, of serviceability, of the boots worn by the Volunteers was noticeable. It would be an advantage if an issue of marching boots of a standard pattern could be made by the Shanghai Municipal Council as is done in the case of uniform and equipment. This would follow the practice in other auxiliary forces, e.g., the Territorial Army in England.

The turn-out of the mounted units and the Armoured Car Company was particularly good. The Saddlery of the former is well cared for and in good condition.

2. Arms.—The arms are in fair condition as far as care by the individuals to whom they are issued is concerned. It is difficult to judge the state of barrels unless they are free from oil when they are inspected, but it is evident that a considerable proportion of the rifles, revolvers and bayonets require overhaul by qualified armourers. Rebrowning is required in many cases.

I consider that the institution of some system of periodical withdrawal of arms to Headquarters for inspection and examination is called for.

3. The standards of handling of arms, drill, marching and musketry are satisfactory. I would like to refer particularly to the efficiency in these respects displayed by the Russian Detachment.

4. Training.—Considerable keenness is evident, but it appears to me that skill in handling of arms and in what I would call 'drill-hall work' have assumed undue importance at the expense of tactical training in the rôle in which the Corps as a whole might have to function.

Simple tactical exercises appropriate to the arm concerned should be carried out. These men who, on account of short service or for other reasons, have not reached the necessary standard, should be dealt with separately and should not be allowed to keep back units as a whole. This form of training should also add to the interest of all concerned.

In the case of the batteries, special efforts should be made to train battery staffs, without whom the weapons are of little use except possibly to fire straight along a street—an unlikely form of employment, in any case.

For general use in training, I consider that a series of standard tests drawn up to suit the conditions and circumstances of the S.V.C. would be valuable, and would provide definite stages to work to. It would also improve matters if more attention was paid to the preparation of suitable graduated training programmes.

5. Artillery Weapons.—The 2.75 guns are of obsolete pattern and should, I think, be replaced. Some form of trench mortar would be of value.

The 4.5 Howitzers are well kept and are serviceable. They require, however, some better form of traction. It is, of course, regrettable that facilities for a practice shoot do not, for unavoidable reasons, exist, but I understand that it may be possible to arrange for a proportion of the personnel to proceed to Hongkong for the purpose.

6. I would like to repeat the remark made by my predecessor with regard to the discharge of a number of men who are volunteers on paper only. It would appear that, in some units, this process might be continued with advantage.

7. I am satisfied that the majority of those who are now members of the S.V.C. do their utmost to make it as efficient and fit to carry out its rôle as is possible under existing circumstances.

Education.

Peace Memorial Scholarships 1930.—Upon consideration of the report of the Awarding Committee of the Local Examinations Syndicate, University of Cambridge, based on the results of the School Certificate Examination of the University of Cambridge, December 1930, the Trustees of the Peace Memorial Scholarships have decided to award the third Scholarship available to Alfred H. S. Skinn.

In the opinion of the Awarding Committee, Alfred H. S. Skinn was the third candidate in order of merit, he having gained the mark of distinction in English.

Rate Assessment Appeal Committee.

The occupants of Nos. C436, 437, 444, 445, 446 and 447 Honan Road have appealed to the above Committee against the assessment placed on their premises for the purpose of the General Municipal Rate. The material correspondence in the matter is appended:—

Shanghai, December 22, 1930.

SIR,—I am directed to inform you that, in pursuance of Resolution No.

Translation of letter to Secretary from Residents of Premises Nos. 436, 437, 446 and 447 Honan Road, dated December 29, 1930.

MUNICIPAL RATE.

Receipt is acknowledged of Council's letter of 22nd instant stating that according to Resolution V of the Annual Ratepayers' Meeting, the assessment on the annual rental of premises Nos. 436, 437, 446 and 447 will be increased from $1,404 to $3,162 and therefore from January 1, 1931, the Municipal rate will be calculated on the new assessment. Any protest should be made to the Secretary within fourteen days after the issue of this notice. This has caused much concern.

The annual rental on these four premises is Tls. 1,008 for each, that is Tls. 84 per mensem. The undersigned fail to understand why the assessment has been increased from $1,404 to $3,162 without cause or justification and in disregard of facts. As a matter of fact the rentals on these premises are more than doubled, which is an unjustified and arbitrary increase and cannot be agreed to.

With reference to Resolution V of the Annual Ratepayers' Meeting, it seems that the purpose is deliberately to afford relief to property owners and at the same time to prevent the reduction of rents. But the present case is so very different that the Resolution cannot apply. The undersigned do not own the premises in question and are not connected with the landlords; they merely pay their rents and cannot agree to the additional rates.

The premises in question were built some thirty years ago and naturally may not be placed on the same footing as the neighbouring houses. How can the Council without good reason increase the assessment when silver is low and business is depressed. The Council is asked, in consideration of the difficulties of trades people, to revert to the old rate.

Land Commission.

CASE No. 214.

Scheduled widening of Fokien Road, Cadastral Lot 333, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, April 23.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Spence, of Messrs. Spence, Robinson and Partners appears on behalf of the registered owners. Mr. Jones, Deputy Secretary, represents the Council.

Mr. Spence states that Mr. Robinson, the newly elected Land Commissioner, wishes to stand down in this case as it is one in which his firm is interested. He enquires whether there is any objection to the case being heard by the remaining two commissioners, and none being forthcoming the proceedings commence.

Opening his case, Mr. Spence says that the correspondence published in the "Municipal Gazette" of Friday, March 27, disclosed the general basis of his claim, which was for a total of Tls. 19,040, against the Council's offer of Tls. 13,600. He maintains that the lot in question is a very valuable one, being square shaped with frontages on four sides. Its assessed value in September, 1930, was Tls. 100,000 per mow. His offer to deduct 1/3 for betterment was made only on the understanding that the Council acknowledged the value of the land to be Tls. 140,000 per mow, which he contends is a fair and equitable valuation. It is difficult to find recent sales in the neighbourhood from which to draw a criterion but he would instance the case of cadastral lot 296, situated between Peking and Soochow Roads, which is an extremely narrow and badly shaped site. It was sold in December, 1930, for Tls. 120,000 per mow. He did not know what the assessed value of it in 1930 was, but in 1927, it was assessed at Tls. 45,000 per mow, against the assessed value in 1927 of his lot of Tls. 53,000. His lot thus had a greater assessed value in 1927 of approximately 18 per cent and on this basis the present value of it would be more than Tls. 140,000 per mow. Until recently it was a recognized thing to include 10 per cent for compulsory surrender but he understood that this was not the case now.

Replying, Mr. Jones recites as a preliminary a few formal facts, namely, that the registered owner of the lot is the Shanghai Telephone Company, the area of the property mow 2.157, area scheduled, mow 0.204, owners' claim, including deduction of 1/3 for betterment, Tls. 19,040, Council's offer, including a 1/3 betterment deduction, Tls. 13,600, the assessed value in 1930 being Tls. 100,000 per mow. Continuing, he says that following the practice adopted in previous cases, he wishes to ask "What is the loss for which compensation is claimed?" The claimants were being asked to surrender a narrow strip ranging from 9' to 12' wide in order to widen the road from 45' to 60'. This narrow strip is less than 1/10 of the property. It had been mentioned that this lot was well shaped with frontages on four sides but the Council was not taking any frontage away, on the contrary it was giving an improved frontage on one side due to the road widening. The building would be reduced slightly in depth but the reduction would be in the least valuable portion of the lot, that is, the rear portion. The Telephone Company paid for the lot at the rate of Tls. 102,000 per mow but this represented an average rate for the whole lot, so that if the back portion alone is considered the rate would not be as high. The lot was bought in 1929 after scheduling had been announced so that the owner knew a portion would have to be surrendered. The price paid represented an accrued value due to the expenditure of public money in the widening of roads in the neighbourhood and the value of the land would be further enhanced by additional expenditure of this nature. Immediately after the purchase the Telephone Company had commenced the building of an exchange on the site to the scheduled line so that even if it had wanted to sell the strip marked for surrender they could not have done so. The claimant had not lost anything and therefore according to the Land Regulations there was no question of compensation arising. There was a suggestion in the correspondence that as the building erected on the land was not for commercial purposes, the claim should be treated differently but he submits that a public utility company is a commercial undertaking as it pays dividends. The Council was not responsible for the fact that the Telephone Company had not availed itself of the privilege, created by the widening of the road, to build to a greater height than it had elected to do. Another point he wished to labour was that the foundations of the building by projecting underneath the road did in fact encroach thereon, showing that what the Council actually acquired by the surrender was in the nature of an easement. It is also to be remembered that the company were obliged to erect this exchange building in pursuance of the terms of its agreement with the Council. Finally, on broad general principles it appears to him that seeing the Council was providing a very much improved thoroughfare at public expense and with the contribution by the claimant of only a narrow strip representing less than 1/10 of its lot, the Council would be justified in asking for a free surrender and therefore in his submission the amount of compensation the Council offered certainly would not work any hardship on the owner.

Regarding the reference to cadastral lot 296, he would like to point out that there the Council had taken the entire lot, whereas in the present case only one-tenth of the lot was being taken.

Rejoining, Mr. Spence says he cannot agree that the least valuable portion of the lot is being taken. He contends that by the surrender the light area inside the building is reduced. As the claimant had waived the right to build to a higher level he did not think Mr. Jones was entitled to discuss that point and as regards the non-saleability of the strip any other owner is in exactly the same position. The rise in land value since the purchase in 1929 had been very marked and he submitted with confidence that a valuation of Tls. 140,000 per mow for the lot now is a fair one.

Resuming, Mr. Jones says that with regard to the purchase in 1929, the company, as stated, had commenced building immediately so that the strip of land required by the Council was not available for public purposes during the course of operations, and in the circumstances the Council should not be expected to pay compensation at the higher market value which had eventuated since that time. Mr. Spence here interrupts to ask if any application had been made by the Council for the ground and Mr. Jones replies "No, but at the same time the Council was not getting it."

With regard to the question of light Mr. Jones says that with a widened road it seems apparent there should be more light. Mr. Spence remarks that this feature is included in the deduction for betterment.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD

That the registered owner be compensated in the sum originally offered by the Council, namely

Mow 0.204 at Tls. 100,000 per mow:	Tls. 20,400
Less 1/3 betterment:	Tls. 6,800
	Tls. 13,600

Hankow Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, April 15, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed by our clients, the beneficial owners of Cadastral Lot 255, Central District, to make our claim for compensation in respect of the area of land to be surrendered from the above lot for the widening of the Hankow Road according to the plan forwarded to us under cover of your letter dated June 13, 1929.

As the area to be surrendered is only Mow 0.020, being a very small surrender, and to expedite a settlement, without prejudicing our claims or creating a precedent for our present or future claims for land surrendered for road widening purposes, we are instructed to claim at the new assessed value of Tls. 90,000 per mow, making a total sum of Taels 1,800.

We are,
Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, April 30, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 15, addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works, requesting compensation in the amount of Tls. 1,800 for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.020 from Cadastral Lot 255 required for the scheduled widening of Hankow Road.

In reply thereto, I have to remind you that this lot has recently been developed with a four-story building to a height of 52 feet 6 inches, which was only made possible by the fact that the Council had scheduled the road to a width of 40 feet. Having regard to this and other benefits conferred by the widening of the road, the Council considers that a free surrender should be made, and is accordingly unwilling to offer any compensation for the scheduled area.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant
J. M. MCKEE,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Shanghai, May 8, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are in receipt of your letter dated April 30, and in reply we are instructed to inform you that the Council's claim to a free surrender for land surrendered from Cadastral Lot 255, Central, cannot be accepted.

We are to point out that a building over 40 feet high could have been erected on the Hankow Road as it existed before any surrender, and furthermore that it is the owners of such lots that benefit the Council and the general public by sinking capital in modern premises, thereby paying higher taxes on the improved property, and also improving the immediate neighbourhood.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.
J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, May 12, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 8 in which you state that you cannot agree to a free surrender of an area of Mow 0.020 from Cadastral Lot 255 required for the scheduled widening of Hankow Road.

I reply thereto, I have to inform you that the case will be brought before the Land Commission.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. MCKEE,
Acting Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Sinza Market Site—Extension.—The following correspondence is supplementary to that published in the "Municipal Gazette" of December 5, 1930:—

Translation of letter to Secretary from Mr. King O-dou; dated December 1, 1930.

Receipt is acknowledged of the Secretary's letter dated November 20 stating that the value of the unregistered land of Mow 0.19 to be taken for the widening of Chengtu Road is Tls. 35,000 per mow and that the value of the remaining area of Mow 0.175 is Tls. 300 per mow. As these two plots are under identical conditions it is not understood why two values are given. The Council is asked to explain. At present, six houses have been let; should the occupants be asked to remove, compensation of at least Tls. 150 must be paid to the tenant of each house. The Secretary mentions that a sum of Tls. 500 will be allowed; this is quite inadequate. The family of the undersigned, consisting of six persons, have no means beyond what is received by letting the property. The compensation offered by the Council, when divided up among the members of the family, will not be enough for them to live on. The Council is asked to increase its offer. In view of the high prices of land and materials in Shanghai, the undersigned also desires to keep the old materials of the buildings, so that he may use same to rebuild on a lot which he proposes to purchase in the country. The Secretary is asked to reconsider the matter sympathetically.

(Signed) KING O-DOU,

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 10, 1930.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 1 on the subject of the surrender of Mow 0.190 of unregistered land required for the scheduled widening of Chengtu Road.

In reply thereto I have to state in the first place that the area of Mow 0.175 to which reference was made in my letter of November 20 was surrendered to the Council in April, 1916, for the purpose of widening Chengtu Road to approximately 30 feet. You may inspect the relevant documents at the Public Works Department if you wish to do so.

The plan of the area thus surrendered was signed by Mr. Chen Lae Fong, Tipao, 27th Parish, 10th District, and Mr. Zee Tsze Lay, the Chairman of the Local Committee, and compensation at the rate of Tls. 300 per mow was then paid to Mr. Zee Tsze Lay.

In fixing compensation at this prescribed rate of Tls. 300 per mow allowance was made for the fact that the surrender of the land for the widening of the road from approximately 15 feet to 30 feet would increase the value of the remaining land fronting the road. The Council was not then aware that the extent of the holding was only Mow 0.190. If it had been known that only Mow 0.015 should be retained by the owner the Council would probably have paid compensation for the surrender of the area of Mow 0.175 at a higher rate than Tls. 300 per mow.

Now that the facts are known the Council is willing to pay Tls. 35,000 per mow for the entire holding measuring Mow 0.190, but must deduct Tls. 300 per mow which was paid in 1916 for the area of Mow 0.175 with interest at 7 per cent making Tls. 135.

No compensation has yet been paid for the removal of the houses, but the Council is willing to pay Tls. 500 when the buildings have been removed. The old materials from these houses should belong to the purchaser, but as a special case the Council will allow you to keep them subject to acceptance of the Council's offer.

In conclusion I have to inform you that the Council is unable to make any increase in the high price which it has offered for the purchase of your holding.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Mr. KING O-DOU.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 18, 1930.

SIR,—I forward herewith a plan which has been prepared for the information of the Land Commissioners showing the portion of unregistered land east of Cadastral Lot 1058 which is scheduled for acquisition in connection with the widening of Chengtu Road.

I shall be obliged if you will return this plan duly signed. It should be understood that the signature would indicate only the accuracy of the details shown thereon.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Mr. KING O-DOU.

Translation of letter to Secretary from Mr. King O-dou, dated December 19, 1930.

Receipt is acknowledged of the Council's letter dated 10th December, contents are noted with thanks. According to the letter the plot of unregistered land required for the widening of Chengtu Road was sold in April 1916 by Zeng Laifong, the tipao, and Zi Tzu-lai, an elder of 10th Tu, 27th Pao. This is surprising and the transaction cannot be agreed to. In the interest of the rights of the owner, the Council is asked to direct the tipao and elder concerned to confirm the statement.

The undersigned desires to surrender his land for widening the public road. The value of land in that locality is Tls. 50,000 per mow. If the area of Mow 0.365 is surrendered to the Council the value of land in that vicinity will be enhanced. Since the undersigned owns no other land, he cannot benefit by any future increase in land values. As the undersigned has to protect his family and depends solely on this plot of land, he begs the Council to consider his difficulties and to calculate compensation at the rate of Tls. 40,000 per mow. The removal expenses will at least amount to Tls. 900. Old materials to be left with the undersigned. The Council is asked to reconsider the case. Reply solicited.

(Signed) KING O-DOU.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 5, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 19 relative to the surrender of unregistered land East of Cadastral Lot 1058 for the widening of Chengtu Road.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that in view of the high price which the Council has offered for the scheduled area no increase thereon can be made.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Mr. KING O-DOU.

Shanghai, December 4, 1930.

SIR,—We have been instructed by our client, Mr. Vah Keng-foh to write to you in reference to your letter of 20th November concerning the requirement by the Council of certain land belonging to him for the scheduled widening of Chengtu and Shanhaikwan Roads and the extension of the new Sinza Market.

Our client states that he is taken by surprise that Mr. Zee Hai-doo has stated what his claim is. Mr. Zee has never been authorized by our client to make the offer and he has no right to do anything in this matter.

As to the land required for road widening, our client claims compensation at the market value of Tls. 100,000 plus the cost of the buildings thereon. As to the extension of the market, our client is not prepared to surrender any land for that purpose and, therefore, does not propose to quote any figure.

Yours faithfully,

Public Health Report for April.

Vital Statistics.—The Foreign death rate was 15.07 and the Chinese 14.27 per 1,000.

The former is considerably lower in comparison with April 1930, which appears to be attributable to the absence of Cerebrospinal Fever in epidemic form, though an improvement in the general death rate from all causes is to be noted.

Communicable Diseases.—Typhoid and the Dysenteries account for rather less disease than is usual this time of the year.

Smallpox.—Two cases were notified amongst resident foreigners. One had never been vaccinated and unfortunately died, while the other was vaccinated in 1922. 14 deaths occurred amongst resident Chinese. 29,278 free vaccinations were performed by the Sanitation Division, of whom 167 were foreigners.

Cerebrospinal Fever.—This disease almost reached epidemicity, but fortunately instead of the further increase which might be expected at this time of the year, showed a diminution. The cases occurred very largely amongst the Chinese population and 62 cases were admitted to the Chinese Isolation Hospital for treatment. Over 50 per cent of these, however, were non-residents.

Tuberculosis, Measles and Scarlet Fever showed a comparatively small incidence with the exception of measles, which caused 32 deaths amongst the resident Chinese population.

Influenza.—A few cases were notified during the month.

Malaria.—Three fresh cases were notified, one being from the Military population. In addition, 21 cases were reported who had been previously infected in India or Egypt. A close watch is being kept on this disease.

Medical Registration. — The Shanghai Medical Board received a considerable number of applications from Doctors for registration. At the same time it is noted that the number of Doctors not already known to the Health Department who have applied for Registration is comparatively few. It is considered that perhaps further publicity may be necessary in regard to this measure, though it is perhaps a little early to expect response from those Doctors who have not hitherto registered with the Department.

Laboratory Division. — Large quantities of Cholera Vaccine and raw calf lymph were prepared.

Free Smallpox vaccine was issued to numerous institutions whose activities supplemented the normal work performed by the Sanitation Division.

The routine specimens received remained numerous but revealed little of special interest.

Pasteur Treatment.—51 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including three from Outports, called for advice, cauterization and/or treatment. There were no fatalities.

Hospital Division.—The Foreign Isolation Hospital was notably empty, whereas the Chinese Isolation Hospital was comparatively full. This would seem to be due to the fact that the Cerebrospinal Fever outbreak has affected mainly the Chinese population and to some extent spared other nationalities.

Ward Road Gaol.—The minor epidemic of dysentery among the convicts has entirely died out and their general health at present appears fairly good.

Veterinary Report.—The report of the Veterinary Surgeon is of considerable interest to the Department, though possibly not equally so to the general public since it is largely of a technical nature. It is of interest to note that on the whole the Dairies are found to be in good condition though, in one or two, considerable improvements are still desirable. This, however, is a condition which is unfortunately always present in Shanghai as it is impossible to say that all Dairies are satisfactory at any one period of the year.

Suggestions are made for the further improvement of the Slaughterhouses and Cattle sheds, which will be the subject of departmental action, and will no doubt assist in modernizing meat inspection.

Food Division.—An unusual number of adulterations were discovered in milk from Dairies in the Settlement and the Licensees were prosecuted. It is thought that possibly the increased cost of milk production may be the cause of this unusual increase in milk adulteration.

66 animals were disposed of from various Dairies, 13 from Tuberculosis and 13 from Pneumonia, and the others from various causes, amongst which were a number of cows reacting to the Tuberculin test.

Slaughterhouse and Meat Supply.—A little trouble was experienced at the Municipal Slaughterhouse owing to a dispute following a decision concerning certain condemned animals. The matter has however been satisfactorily settled for the time being, and one butcher was prosecuted and fined for removing certain organs contrary to instructions of the Inspector.

Pig Slaughterhouses.—Have been further improved by the provision of additional hanging rails, etc.

Food Premises.—A large number of prosecutions have been instituted against Food Shops exposing for sale cut and peeled fruits, contrary to Regulations. The preparation of various Restaurants for the sale of ice cream has necessitated a number of special inspections.

Samples.—186 milk samples were taken for analysis. Twenty were for bacteriological examination, whilst 18 samples of the Shanghai Waterworks Company's water, four Well Waters, 1 Aerated Water and three Ice Cream samples were taken, all being satisfactory.

Licensing.—157 applications for Licences were received most of which will require special inspections.

Sanitation Division.—Fly prevention and mosquito work was begun in anticipation of the approach of the hot weather. In addition further experiments were performed with new disinfectants with a view to ascertaining their value as compared with those at present in use.

Publicity.—A fair attendance was noted at the exhibition of Cinematograph films on health subjects which are shown weekly at No. 1, Central Branch Health Office, Hankow Road.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Volunteer Corps Inspection.

The following letter has been addressed to Brigadier G. Fleming, D.S.O., Commanding, Shanghai Area, by Brig-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, C.M.G., D.S.O., Chairman of Council:—

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, May 14, 1931.

SIR,—I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 8, reporting upon your recent Inspection of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps.

I have the honour to convey to you the Council's thanks for your kindness in carrying out this Inspection, and to express its appreciation for your Report thereon.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
E. B. MACNAGHTEN,
Chairman.

BRIGADIER G. FLEMING, D.S.O.,
Commanding, Shanghai Area.

Hospital and Nursing Services Commission.

Owing to his departure on furlough, Dr. A. W. Tucker has tendered his resignation from the Hospital and Nursing Services Commission, and the vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Dr. J. C. McCracken.

In accepting Dr. Tucker's resignation, expression was made by the Council of its appreciation of the valuable assistance which he had unsparingly rendered to the Commission.

Publicity Committee.

At the inaugural meeting of the Publicity Committee held in the Council Chamber on Monday, May 18, 1931, at 3 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, M. J. Cox, E. Haward, T. O. Thackrey, Y. P. Wang, Y. Watanabe, and the Secretary to the Committee.

Brig-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, C.M.G., D.S.O., Chairman of Council, attends the meeting and addresses members as follows:—

Gentlemen, the problem of distribution of information on municipal matters is no new one. It has been before the Annual Meeting of Ratepayers on several occasions and you are all aware of the most recent decision, arrived at in 1930, under which Council and Committee minutes are available to the Press, subject to certain provisos.

As the results of this experiment are not entirely satisfactory, the Council is now asking you "to enquire into and report on ways and means which may be devised for supplying the public with fuller and better information upon municipal matters." These, gentlemen, are the Terms of Reference to the Committee.

Before leaving you to your deliberations, I would emphasise two points which I hope you will keep in mind throughout your sessions. The first is that the Ratepayers have repeatedly supported the attitude of the Council that press representatives should not be admitted to Council or Committee meetings, and in this connection I would remind you that Mr. Justice Feetham has also declared himself in Vol. 1 of his Report strongly in favour of the decision of the Council and the Ratepayers in this respect.

While I am not attempting to influence your recommendations in any way, it will probably be generally conceded that the strength of the arguments against admission of the Press to Council Meetings is growing steadily with the times, rather than weakening. On that point I need say no more.

Secondly, I would ask you to pay special attention to the question of Council publicity in the Chinese Press. I know this is an aspect of the matter which may present serious difficulties, but I hope that your Report to the Council will deal fully with this side of the question. The Terms of Reference have purposely been framed to give you as much latitude as possible; and I might, with all respect, submit that the question of improved publicity in the Chinese Press is of even greater importance to the Council than the problem of improved publicity in the Foreign Press.

Gentlemen, on behalf of the Council I have to thank you for undertaking the work which now confronts you and in which you have our best wishes.

That there are difficulties facing you from both sides of the question —Press and Council—is the reason for your assembly here to-day as a Committee to advise the Council, and it is the hope of my colleagues on the Council and myself that as a result of your deliberations a solution to these difficulties may be arrived at, satisfactory to the Ratepayers, to the Press and to the Council.

Chairmanship.—On the proposal of Mr. Haward, seconded by Mr. Cox, Mr. Bell is elected Chairman.

Vice-Chairmanship.—On the proposal of Mr. Cox, seconded by Mr. Thackrey, Mr. Haward is elected Vice-Chairman.

Meetings.—It is agreed to hold meeting weekly on Mondays at 3 p.m.

The meeting terminates at 4.30 p.m.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, May 20, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten (Chairman) Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, (Vice-Chairman), A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Yah Ching, the Secretary General, and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman. Waterworks Investigation.—Members are informed that a further cablegram has been received from Mr. Nicholas Hill stating that he cannot leave America before August 15, next. A reply has been made accepting his offer provided he sails for Shanghai not later than the date mentioned and requesting advice as to the definite date of his arrival.

Swimming Bath—North Szechuen Road.—A further report by the Commissioner of Public Health stressing the undesirability of re-opening this bath this Season unless a greater degree of purity can be ensured, is submitted. The Commissioner of Public Health states that, although it was difficult last season directly to attribute certain diseases to the use of the Swimming Bath owing to the disinclination on the part of bathers to notify his department, he considers from the observations made last Season that a certain degree of risk will be run by re-opening the bath unless a circulatory purification system is installed.

After hearing the Commissioner, and in view of the fact that only a relatively small number of bathers use this bath, it is decided not to re-open the bath and also to amend the notification calling for tenders for its purchase to permit its delivery to the successful tenderer on July 1, next.

Chinese Factory Laws. — The Secretary General reads a communication received from the Senior Consul and the Council's reply thereto on the subject of the restriction of female and child labour in the Settlement.

He understands that the Chinese Authorities have applied to Geneva for the appointment of three experts to come to Shanghai to advise on the provisions of these Laws and the application thereof.

Annual Basket Fair.—With reference to the Council's decision to restrict the extent of this Fair, the Chairman reports that a protest has been received from the Chief Priest of the Temple and a large number of stall-holders that inadequate notice had been given of the Council's intention. As presumably the stall-holders are engaged for a whole year in preparing for this Fair, it is evident that a hardship would be inflicted if the Council's decision is enforced this year.

In the circumstances, and as there was no time again to refer this question to the Council, he notified the Chief Priest that the Fair for this year could be conducted as formerly, provided its limits did not exceed those reached last year.

In confirming the action taken by the Chairman, members direct that a further report on this question be called for from the Commissioner of Police, in order that early consideration may be given to any necessary restriction to be effected in respect of the 1932 Annual Fair.

Orchestra & Band Committee—Membership.—With respect to the nomination by the Chinese members of Council of Mr. Tzu Huang to membership of the above Committee, a member points out that this nomination was left by the Council to the Committee. The gentleman nominated is, however, one of those whom the Committee had in mind for recommending to membership, and, at a recent informal meeting of the Committee, it was decided to support this nomination.

In view of these remarks, it is decided to invite Mr. Tzu Huang to serve on this Committee.

Appointment of Chinese Officials.—The Chairman reports that, at a meeting of the Special Sub-Committee held on Monday last, it was unanimously decided to recommend that the designation of the Senior Chinese Official to be appointed should be "Adviser on Municipal Affairs."

Although a number of applications for this post has been received and considered, he understands that the Chinese members of Council desire to nominate an appointee to this post although the gentleman in question has made no application therefor.

A member states that the gentleman whom the Chinese Councillors have in mind for this appointment is Dr. J. C. H. Wu, formerly Judge and later President of the late Provisional Court. The Chinese Councillors regard Judge Wu as eminently suitable for this position, and, if the Council adopts the Sub-Committee's recommendation as to the designation of this post, it is obvious that the appointment will be superior to that originally contemplated when the probable designations of Secretary and Liaison Officer were under consideration. On this ground, therefore, he does not consider that applicants who have already applied for a position under an inferior designation can be aggrieved if Dr. Wu is selected for the more important post.

After discussion, and in view of Dr. Wu's proved capabilities, and in realizing that in an appointment of this nature the Council must of necessity be guided by the Chinese members, it is decided to appoint Dr. Wu with the designation recommended by the Sub-Committee.

Chinese Assistant Secretary.—The Chairman states that, at the last meeting of the special Sub-Committee, consideration was also given to the appointment of a Chinese Assistant Secretary and that the Chinese members of Council desire to nominate an appointee to this post.

On behalf of the Chinese members, a member states that it is desired to nominate Mr. T. K. Ho. He then outlines Mr. Ho's academic qualifications and past experience. Mr. Ho is at present employed as Secretary of the Shanghai Chinese Ratepayers Association, and, although in that capacity he has been called upon to address letters to the Council on questions upon which the views of the Council and the Association are diametrically opposed, it will, he submits, be appreciated that Mr. Ho is merely the servant of the Association and that he is not in a position to dictate its policy. His colleagues and himself feel assured that, if Mr. Ho is appointed to this post, the Council will secure a loyal servant and one who will honestly endeavour to safeguard the Council's interests.

After discussion, it is decided to offer this appointment to Mr. Ho, and a member undertakes to arrange for him to call upon the Secretary General with a view to settlement of the necessary formal details.

The "Municipal Gazette" for Friday, May 22, is submitted in draft and authorized for publication.

The meeting terminates at 6 p.m.

Easements.

Canopy.—Subject to the usual conditions, Mr. Vea Yai is being permitted to erect a canopy over the Municipal footpath fronting the premises No. 473/4 Foochow Road, Cadastral Lot 425, Central District.

Municipal Properties.

Haining and North Shanse Roads —Surplus Land.—The offer submitted by the Realty Investment Co. to purchase, for a sum of Tls. 9,089, an area of Mow 0.149 of surplus land comprising Cadastral Lot 575 at the North-east corner of Haining and North Shanse Roads has been accepted.

Road Extensions and Widenings.

Avenue Road.—Negotiations have been concluded with Messrs. Algar & Co., Ltd., for the surrender for a sum of Tls. 3,290 of Cadastral Lot 3090, measuring Mow 0.097, of which area Mow 0.094 is required for the scheduled widening of Avenue Road while the remaining Mow 0.003 will be available for disposal as surplus land.

Land Commission.

CASE No. 211.

Heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, January 29. Scheduled widening of Myburgh Road. Cadastral Lot 312 Western District.

The following letters are supplementary to the correspondence which appeared in the Gazette of November 14, 1930.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 27, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—With reference to the proposed hearing before the Land Commission on January 29 of Case No. 211 with regard to the area scheduled from Cadastral Lot 312 for the widening of Myburgh Road I have to forward herewith for your information copy of a letter which has been addressed to the Secretary of the Land Commission to-day.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Messrs. DAVIES & BROOKE.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, January 27, 1931.

SIR,—With reference to your letter of January 20, regarding Land Commission Case No. 211 I have to inform you that inasmuch as Messrs. Davies & Brooke have refused the offer (contained in the Council's letter of September 11, 1930) of Tls. 5,805 as compensation for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.362 required from Cadastral Lot 312 for the scheduled widening of Myburgh Road the Council has decided to withdraw the offer. Following a fresh investigation of the facts it has been decided to claim a free surrender of the scheduled area.

A copy of this letter is being forwarded to Messrs. Davies & Brooke for their information.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

E. A. LONG, Esq.,
Secretary,
Land Commission.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. A. M. Preston appears for the claimants, the Anglo-French Land Investment Company. Mr. Jones, Deputy Secretary, represents the Council.

Mr. Preston explains that he had only received his instructions some twenty four hours previously and therefore had little time to prepare his case. However the basis of the claim had been set forth in the correspondence on the subject with the Council, which correspondence was published in the Municipal Gazette of November 14, 1930. He adds that his clients purchased the property in question in August of 1929 for Tls. 76,875, and as it comprises an area of 1.735 mow, the cost per mow works out at about Tls. 45,000 per mow, which is the rate on which the claim is made. Betterment is allowed for at the rate of Tls. 5,000 per mow, which rate as the correspondence revealed had not been disputed by the Council.

Mr. Jones replies by saying that Mr. Preston, as a lawyer, must be aware of the elementary principle of law that when an offer is not accepted it automatically lapses. The Council's offer as conveyed in its letter of September 11, 1930, had not been accepted, and therefore it could not be contended now that the Council had accepted the claimant's calculation of betterment. He maintains that Mr. Preston has still to make out a case according to the Land Regulations, which say in effect that where no loss is shown no compensation for surrendered land must be paid. Moreover whatever had been said in the correspondence was not binding on the Land Commission.

Mr. Preston here says that he would like to mention, as supporting his claim, some cases of recent sales in the vicinity which were reported in 'The Realty Market,' for December 1930, a booklet issued by the Asia Realty Company. They were:

(a) Approximately mow 1.600 with buildings, on Myburgh Road, changed hands at Tls. 80,000 per mow.

(b) Cadastral Lot 370, opposite the Fire Station, which had recently changed hands at Tls. 50,000 per mow.

(c) A lot at the Junction of Chengtu and Burkill Roads, which had recently changed hands at Tls. 125,000 per mow.

Continuing, Mr. Preston says that the Anglo-French Land Investment Co., after acquiring the land in 1908 between the lot under discussion and Bubbling Well Road, made three surrenders from it to the Council. These surrenders were made on the understanding that the Council would shortly thereafter construct a widened road throughout its entire length, which the Council did not do. It was therefore certainly creating a hardship for the Company, now that it had acquired Cadastral Lot 312, to ask it to surrender a portion for road widening which should have been done many years ago.

Regarding betterment, Mr. Preston contends that this is a question of opinion. In August, 1930, Davies and Brooke had assessed betterment at Tls. 5,000 per mow, which on mow 1.373 gives Tls. 6,865 for this item. The reasons guiding Davies & Brooke in this assessment are those which he (Mr. Preston) now offered. He reiterates his belief that the claim of Tls. 5,000 for betterment is a fair evaluation and one which until a day or so previously the Council had been willing to accept.

Resuming, Mr. Jones says that the scheduled area was mow 0.362, and in considering betterment, the Council originally had in mind betterment only to cadastral lot No. 312, with an area of 1.373 mow. But the position with regard to betterment had now changed very materially: it was not only betterment to 1.373 mow but to practically 20 mow, because plans had been submitted by the claimants, and approved for re-building as one property an area of 19.897 mow, comprising former cadastral lots 312, 308, 300, 365, and 331. This development had occurred after the Council had made its offer for betterment and it was evident that the widening of the road was necessary or perhaps even vital to this new development. Moreover in thus considering the property as a whole, the strip of land surrendered represented only about 1.8 per cent. of the property instead of about 20 per cent. of it, as originally conceived, and for this small surrender the owners were getting frontage on a road widened from 15ft. to 30 ft. thus rendering it eminently suitable for shops.

He contends that under these conditions the Council would be justified in asking for a free surrender of the strip required.

Reviewing the history of Cadastral Lot 312, Mr. Jones says that in 1908 the Council had some intention of abandoning the Myburgh Road extension between the Burkill and Bubbling Well Roads, and because of this intention had allowed the owner of cadastral lot 312 to build up to the old line, that is, over the scheduled area. Subsequently as a result of an offer by the owners of land immediately adjacent to lot 312 of free surrender of land if the road was proceeded with, the Council decided to do the work but in informing the owners referred to of this resolve they were told that their condition that the work be taken in hand at once could only be carried out if reasonably interpreted. This meant that the owner of the building on cadastral lot 312 could not reasonably be expected to tear down a building which had just been erected. However he, (Mr. Jones) submitted that if the present owners of cadastral lot 312 had owned the lot in 1908 before it was built on at that time, they undoubtedly would have made a free surrender (as they did from the adjoining Lot 300) in order to get the road extension and therefore now that the property including cadastral lot 312 which they had recently acquired was being redeveloped as a whole it was reasonable to ask for a free surrender at this time.

Rejoining, Mr. Preston denies that the ownership of lot 312 was essential for his clients in their scheme of development of the contiguous property. It was not in a key position and chance only had brought about the purchase. He also does not admit that betterment should be estimated vis-a-vis the whole property; it might just as well be argued that all the property on both sides of the road should be included as a basis for betterment. Betterment should be confined to the lot from which land was taken.

He also does not agree with Mr. Jones' statement that he is required to prove loss before he can claim any compensation but he would leave this point to the Commissioners to decide.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That compensation for area scheduled for surrender be paid at the rate of Tls. 45,000 per mow, equalling Tls. 16,290.

Less betterment to remainder of lot at Tls. 7,000 per mow, equalling 9,611

Net compensation to be paid to registered owner 6,679

Pingliang Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, November 11, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—As building operations have commenced on Cadastral Lot No. 2719, and we have arranged for the surrender of that portion marked out by the Council to be surrendered for road widening, we shall be glad to hear what sum you are prepared to allow us in return for immediate settlement.

Yours faithfully

S. M. EDWARDS, Esq.,
Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, December 20, 1930.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 11 enquiring what sum the Council is prepared to pay in compensation for the surrender of a portion of Cadastral Lot 2719 required for the scheduled widening of Pingliang Road.

In reply I am directed in the first place to inform you that an area of Mow 0.079, required for a fifty-foot road as scheduled in 1903, is subject to compulsory free surrender from B. C. Lots 6118 and 6035 in accordance with Clause VI of the Land Regulations.

It is considered that, as the Council has constructed a municipal road on the south of Cadastral Lot 2719 which was formerly bounded by a narrow Chinese path on the north bank of a creek, considerable betterment has accrued to the property. In the Council's opinion therefore a free surrender of an area of Mow 0.164 required from B.C. Lot 4230 to widen Pingliang Road to 50 feet would not be inequitable.

For the remaining scheduled area I am directed to offer compensation at the new assessed value of Tls. 9,000 per mow, making a sum of Tls. 3,645 for the area of Mow 0.405 involved.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

The Manager,

Shanghai, January 17, 1931.

SIR,—Referring to your letter of December 20, 1930, offering compensation for the surrender of a portion of Cad. Lot 2719 for the scheduled widening of Pingliang Road, we note that an area of Mow 0.079 from B.C. Lots 6118 and and 6035 is subject to compulsory free surrender in accordance with Clause VI of the Land Regulations, and do not object to the Council's expectation that we should also surrender an area of Mow 0.164 from B.C. Lot 4230 to complete the widening of Pingliang Road to a regular 50 feet, as we admit that by development of the road from its original condition to a 50 feet municipal road, considerable betterment accrued to the property.

For the remaining scheduled area, we cannot agree that your offer of the assessed value of Tls. 9,000 per mow is sufficient; as the still further widening of Pingliang Road from 50 feet to 70 feet, while doubtless offering greater facility to road transport through the Eastern district, does not in any way further improve our property.

Nine months ago we sold a portion, nearly one half of this land, for a sum which equalled Tls. 13,000 per mow and considering appreciation of land values since that date, we claim that your offer should be improved at least to a basis of Tls. 15,000 per mow, i.e., Tls. 6,075.

Yours faithfully,

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 10, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 17 relative to the surrender of a portion of Cadastral Lot 2719 for the scheduled widening of Pingliang Road.

In reply thereto I have to point out that in offering compensation at Tls. 9,000 per mow for an area of Mow 0.405 the Council is in effect asking for the surrender of a strip of land from the rear of the lot and that the frontage as such is not affected. The Council therefore trusts that on reconsideration you will be able to accept the offer of Tls. 3,645 for this area of Mow 0.405, which offer is considered to be fair and reasonable.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

DEAR SIR,—We have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th inst., relative to the surrender of a portion of Cadastral Lot 2719 for the scheduled widening of Pingliang Road.

In reply, we have to state that we do not agree, and still maintain that the land is worth at least Tls. 15,000 per mow, in view of the fact that we sold eleven months ago, a portion nearly one half of this land for a sum which equalled Tls. 13,000 per mow, and that considerable appreciation of land values has taken place since that date.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that the Council is unwilling to increase its offer of Tls. 9,000 per mow which is considered to be fair and reasonable, and to state that the matter will be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

Race Course Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, March 24, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed to claim for the land lately surrendered from Cadastral Lot 1393, Western District, for the widening of the Race Course Road.

The remaining portion of this lot has been developed with eleven Cantonese houses and one gatehouse; the rentals obtained from these total $458 per month or a gross annual rental return of, say, Tls. 3,960; deducting the customary 20 per cent for expenses, etc., gives a net annual rental of Tls. 3,168; this net rental capitalized at 7 per cent gives a sum of Tls. 45,257, less cost of buildings, Tls. 9,000, gives a value of the present area of the lot of Tls. 36,257; this area is Mow 0.812 so on the above basis the land works out to a value of say Tls. 44,650 per mow; therefore our claim is Tls. 5,304, made up as follows:—

	Tls.
Area of land surrendered Mow 0.108, at Tls. 44,650 per mow.	4,822.00

Plus 10 per cent for Compulsory Surrender 482.00

Total amount of claim Tls. 5,304.00

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.
C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, April 3, 1930.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 24 addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works claiming compensation in the sum of Tls. 5,304 in respect of the area required from Cadastral Lot 1393 for the scheduled widening of Race Course Road (late Taku Road).

In reply I have to remind you that under an agreement dated December 12, 1902, the late Mr. Henry Morriss agreed to surrender at the rate of Tls. 1,000 per mow the land required for a thirty-foot road. The area of Mow 0.108 now required from Cadastral Lot 1393 falls within the limits of this thirty-foot road and therefore the compensation due would be a sum of Tls. 108.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

MESSRS. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Shanghai, July 7, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—Since the completion of new houses on Cad. Lot No. 1393, Taku Road, about two and a half years ago, up-to-date the question of loss of my land surrendered for road widening purpose has still not yet been settled. As advised by you that the compensation should be made by the registered owner instead of your goodself because of certain contract being made between you and Lester, Johnson and Morriss, I have accordingly communicated and called at their office for several times, but I am sorry I failed to get a result. For this reason will you kindly favour me with a letter certifying that I can have my loss made good by Lester, Johnson and Morriss and at the same time write them to settle this account at the earliest date in order to save further trouble to you on the same matter. Your very kind assistance will greatly oblige.

Yours truly,
P. S. CHU.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Shanghai, July 10, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—With regard to your letter of the 7th instant requesting me to take up, on your behalf, with the registered owners (Messrs. Lester, Johnson and Morriss) the matter of compensation due you for the road surrender, I beg to inform you that I am unable to make any suggestions to them in the matter. As the beneficial owner of the lot, it is your prerogative to apply to the registered owners for whatever compensation is due to you.

Yours faithfully,
C. HARPUR,
Commissioner of Public Works.

P. S. CHU, Esq.,

Shanghai, July 21, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—Cad. Lot 1393 is only in this firm's name as Trustee for the Owner, one Mr. Zee Poo Sung, of The Doong Fong Yung Gold Shop, Nanking Road.

We cannot very well negotiate with you regarding any claim for compensation in respect to land surrendered from the lot for widening the Race Course Road, as your Council claim that any compensation over Tls. 1,000 per mow must be borne by The Estate of the late Henry Morriss.

We suggest that he should deal in this matter with you direct to which as registered owners we have no objection, and have written to him to that effect.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Shanghai, July 24, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—We beg to attach hereto a copy of a letter dated 18th inst. from Lester, Johnson & Morriss to our client Mr. Zee Poo Sung for the land of Cad. Lot 1293 Race Course Road. From this letter please find that they have communicated with you in the matter and we believe there will be no further trouble for our client to settle up this case. Kindly let us know if the compensation will be made by you and, if so, we shall be obliged to accept your offer at the best rate on basis of the present market value of the land already surrendered.

Your favourable reply is greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,
M. H. CHIH.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Shanghai, July 18, 1930.

Dear Mr. ZEE POO SUNG,—As we explained to you, we cannot very well negotiate for any claim you have against the Municipal Council in respect to the land surrendered from your lot for widening the Race Course Road, and would suggest that you take the matter up direct with Mr. Sauer of the Cadastral Office. We have written to the Municipal Council to say that we only hold the land in trust for you, and therefore have no objection.

Yours truly,
GORDON MORRISS.

ZEE POO SUNG, Esq.,

Shanghai, July 25, 1930.

DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of yesterday's date enquiring as to what compensation is to be paid in respect to the surrender of Mow 0.108 scheduled from Cad. Lot 1393, I beg to hand you herewith a copy of a letter dated 3rd April 1930 from the Council to Messrs. Lester, Johnson and Morriss, from which you will observe that the compensation payable in respect to this area is Tls. 108.

Yours faithfully,
C. HARPUR,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CHIH MING HAO, Esq.,

Shanghai, March 3, 1931.

DEAR SIR, — We have been instructed by Mr. Zee Poo Sung to act for him in connection with fixing the surrender value of Cad. Lot 1393, and in order that we may thoroughly understand the position that has arisen, we should be much obliged if you could furnish us with the exact copy of an alleged agreement made between the Shanghai Municipal Council and the late Mr. Henry Morriss together with any further particulars which you might be disposed to let us have with a view to coming to an understanding of the matter.

Yours faithfully,
TEESDALE, NEWMAN & Co.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Shanghai, March 5, 1931.

DEAR SIRS,—In reply to your letter of the 3rd instant, regarding Cad. Lot 1393, I beg to inform you that the agreement in question is recorded on page 283 of the Municipal Annual Report for 1902. The plan in connection with this agreement is available for inspection in this office, Room 345, at any time to suit your convenience.

Yours faithfully,
C. HARPUR,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Messrs. TEESDALE, NEWMAN & Co.

Shanghai, March 6, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—With further reference to our letter to you of the 3rd instant and your reply to us of the 4th instant, we have now to inform you that the history relating to the Title Deed in question is as follows:—

The original Title Deed was issued to Mr. Gilbert Davies as registered owner on the 21st February, 1899, and he informs us that he held this land from the 22nd June, 1899, up to 15th August, 1910, on behalf of the beneficial owner a Chinese subject known as Chu Yun Fong. On the 15th August, 1910, the beneficial ownership was transferred to one Chow Kow King and the registered ownership was transferred to Gilbert Davies and C. W. Thomas jointly. On the 29th June, 1920, Gilbert Davies and C. W. Thomas transferred the registered ownership to Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss and the beneficial ownership passed to our client, Mr. Zee Poo Sung.

We have perused the agreement set out on page 282 of the Municipal Report for the year 1902 and it would appear to us that the land covered by B.C. Lot 2919 was at no time the property of Mr. Henry Morriss nor would he appear to have been entitled to give any undertaking with reference thereto. Our contention, furthermore, is that, if he had done so, such agreement, being in the nature of a restrictive covenant running with the land, ought to have been endorsed on the Title Deed and/or on the register at the Consulate, neither of which has been done. Any such agreement ought also, in our opinion, to have been made by deed.

We do not know whether or not this land is included in that in respect of which Mr. Morriss in clause 1 of his said undertaking stated "he would use his best endeavour to acquire" but as at present advised it certainly appears to us that Mr. Henry Morriss never did acquire this particular land and as our client paid the full market price therefor ten years ago, he will, in consequence, expect to receive full compensation from the Municipal Council in respect of any land taken therefrom for road widening purposes, in the amount already set out in the correspondence which has passed between our client's agents and the Council.

Yours faithfully,
TEESDALE, NEWMAN & Co.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 27, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 6 addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works on the subject of the surrender of an area of Mow 0.108 from Cadastral Lot 1393 required for the scheduled widening of Race Course Road.

In reply thereto I have to inform you that in view of the pronounced betterment which will accrue to the lot on the eventual construction of a 70-foot road, and of the extension of Race Course Road which has already been carried out through Cadastral Lots 1420 and 1585, the Council is of the opinion that the area of Mow 0.108 now required for a 30-foot road should be surrendered without compensation. I have to add that if you are unable to agree to such surrender the case will be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

The Manager,
Messrs. TEESDALE, NEWMAN & Co.

Shanghai, March 31, 1931.

SIR,—We have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 27th instant which, you state, is an answer to ours of the 6th inst. but we are sure that you will forgive us if we venture to suggest that it is in no sense an answer.

As we understand the position, it would appear that the Council, presumably after careful investigation, informed our client, the owner of B. C. Lot 2919, that his land was subject to the terms of an agreement entered into between the Council and the previous owner. Had it not been for the fact that we investigated the early history of the land in question a little more closely, our unfortunate client would have taken the Council's assertion on this point as correct. Furthermore, the Council on the strength of the alleged agreement offered to pay compensation at the rate of Tls. 1,000 a mow only, whereas the present market value is about Tls. 40,000 per mow.

We, therefore, wrote our letter of the 6th instant setting out our views of the situation, in reply to which we received your letter of the 27th instant, wherein we are somewhat astonished to note that the Council has entirely ignored the points raised in our said letter of the 6th instant and no explanation is offered of the Council's previous letter to Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss of April 3, 1930, but a totally new reason as to why our client should forego his proper compensation is now advanced, as an afterthought, only this time the Council contend they are entitled to the land for nothing.

Our client is so incensed at the inconsequential attitude of the Council over the matter that he is inclined if necessary to refer the facts to the Chinese Ratepayers Association.

Under the circumstances, and unless the Council is prepared to reconsider the matter, it will have to go before the Land Commissioners for decision when we feel sure the Council's attitude on this question must call for criticism.

We are, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
TEESDALE, NEWMAN & Co.

J. R. JONES, Esq.,
Deputy Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, April 18, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—In replying to your letter of March 31 in the matter of compensation payable in respect of the scheduled portion of Cadastral Lot 1393 Western, the Council desires to confine itself to that portion of your letter which deals with the facts of the case.

The claim was originally submitted by Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss by letter of March 24, 1930, without any reference to a beneficial owner. They claimed Taels 5,304. The Council replied on April 3 and reminded them of the agreement which the late Mr. Henry Morriss had entered into in 1902 with the Council for the purpose of improving his property by the building of the Mohawk Road extension. Mr. Henry Morriss had agreed to acquire the required land that was not then in his possession and in 1920, the land now in consideration, Cadastral Lot 1393, was transferred to Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss, of which Mr. Henry Lester was a partner.

In view of the Council's reply the registered owners in July 1930 informally disclosed the beneficial owner and referred him to the officials of the Public Works Department with whom he appears to have had some conversations. He was, however, definitely told by letter of July 10 that as beneficial owner of the lot it was his "prerogative to apply to the registered owners for whatever compensation was due," and on July 25 was handed a copy of the Council's reply of April 3, 1930, to the registered owners. The claim had been made by Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss and it was to them that the offer of compensation at Tls. 1,000 per mow was made.

The registered owners, however, according to their letter of July 21, considered that as the Council's claim affected the estate of the late Mr. Henry Morriss under the terms of the Council's agreement with him they were unable to continue negotiations. They informed the Council that they held the land on trust for the beneficial owner and suggested that he should deal directly with the Council.

It may be made quite clear that on the merits of the case the Council considered that the general improvement in the development of the Race Course Road and the betterment to the property through the construction of a widened road at the public expense justified a free surrender of the portion scheduled. The Council but for the existence of the agreement with Mr. Henry Morriss would have claimed free surrender in reply to Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss' claim. When the registered owners withdrew, the benefit of the agreement was extended to the beneficial owner in order to prevent any suggestion of any discrimination in favour of neighbouring lots which had been surrendered under the terms of the agreement.

Your client, however, has rejected this offer and the Council cannot agree that your client suffers any loss through the widening of the road which would justify any compensation at the ratepayers' expense. The case will therefore be referred to the Land Commission.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Total	1,412	1,443	1,210

The total reported crime for the month under review shows a decrease of 31 cases as compared with the figures for March, but an increase of 202 cases on the reports for the corresponding period last year. Of the number reported investigation was refused in 31 very trifling cases, 6 were discovered to be false and 13 were found on enquiry not to be criminal cases. The increase over last year is chiefly due to the large number of petty thefts and miscellaneous crime connected with business matters. As compared with last month, "A" Division reports a decrease of 62 cases, attributable to successful measures taken to combat the activities of snatchers and to a smaller number of breaking and petty thefts occurring. There was a decrease of 17 cases in "B" Division and an increase of 13 and 34 in "C" and "D" Divisions respectively, the latter being due to an increase of 18 burglaries and 16 other trifling cases of theft. Due to its close proximity to small villages of unsavoury reputation situated on the Northern boundary of the Settlement, this Division is particularly susceptible to spasmodic outbreaks of burglary and armed robbery. Measures are being taken to put a stop to these burglaries. A satisfactory feature of the report is the complete immunity of Hongkew District from armed robberies, a record unknown for many years.

1,352 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 98 for offences committed previously and 81 on behalf of other authorities.

Murder.—There was one case of suspected murder, a young Chinese woman being found strangled in the bedroom of a lodging house in Louza district on April 23.

Attempted Murder.—Three cases were reported, 1 of an interpreter (Cantonese, British subject) of the R.M.S. "Empress of Canada," who was shot and wounded on North Szechuen Road, another in which a Chinese money lender was seriously injured with a chopper in West Hongkew District and a third in Pootoo Road district when a suspected armed robber attempted to shoot a Chinese detective who challenged him.

Manslaughter.—Three cases were recorded, one of a child killed by a motor truck, another of a Chinese shot by an American citizen whilst defending himself against supposed burglars in his home and the third of a Chinese who died as the result of a blow and fall in a fight with a Polish citizen over the use of a towel.

Armed Kidnapping.—One case was reported when a Chinese accountant was kidnapped by armed men in a motor car on Burkill Road, who later escaped from a house in a village near Woosung. An attempted kidnapping took place on Changsha Road when four armed men tried to kidnap a Chinese silk merchant, but were frustrated by a bodyguard who opened fire on them.

Abduction.—Seven cases of simple abduction of children occurred during the month, arrests being made in each case. Two children were found and restored to parents whilst it is suspected that the remainder have been sent to outports for sale. One of these cases occurred in "A" Division, one in "B" Division, two in "C" Division and three in "D" Division.

Armed Robberies.—There was a total decrease of one as compared with last month, 58 being recorded. "D" Division shows a decrease of 6 cases and the other Divisions slight increases.

Other Robberies.—11 cases of robbery by unarmed persons were reported three of which proved to be false. In two cases German sailors were attacked by rickshaw coolies or their confederates, and robbed. Four arrests were made in these cases.

Criminal Gangs.—13 criminal gangs were arrested comprising 53 persons and as the result of enquiries made, were charged with 27 crimes of armed robbery, kidnapping, murder, threatening letter writing and snatching.

Housebreaking, etc.—There was a decrease of 16 cases as compared with last month, particular improvement being noted in "A" Division where two gangs of criminals specializing in godown breaking were arrested and convicted.

Burglaries.—There is a total increase of 12 cases in this class of crime. As mentioned above there was an abnormal increase in "D" Division, but a satisfactory decrease is recorded (6) in "B" Division, 14 cases in "D" Division were recorded as the results of arrests made by the Police, but were not reported by the Complainants. A total of 46 arrests was made in all Divisions.

Thefts.—The total number of thefts of a miscellaneous nature reported was 744, an increase of 22 cases. 98 of these were cases of pocketpicking and 65 of bicycle stealing, 14 of which were recovered. One person admitted, when arrested, having stolen 8 bicycles, and 3 stolen in Hongkew district were recovered from 3 policemen of the Public Safety Bureau who had purchased them. 60 cases in "B" Division occurred through doors being left open. A large number of reports have been received of thefts of telephone receivers and subscribers are warned in this matter their attention. Reports include cases of Russian confidence tricksters operating in Banks and elsewhere, and it is deemed advisable to warn the public to be careful when handling money in banks and to watch and report suspicious persons to the police.

Snatching.—There was a total decrease of 47 cases in snatching, "A" Division recording 42 less than last month and "D" Division 17. "B" and "C" Divisions show a slight increase. 50 arrests took place in conection with these cases. This class of crime is always prevalent in Louza and a section of Central districts, where the streets are crowded and pleasure seekers are an easy prey for old criminals who specialize in this type of crime.

Pocketpicking. — 98 cases of pocketpicking were reported and 66 persons were arrested whilst a number were also arrested for loitering for the same purpose. Russians were responsible for quite a number reported as having taken place on public vehicles and at Tram and Omnibus stopping places.

Opium Offences.—A number of raids were effected during the month and 271 persons were arrested. Various small quantities of opium, pills, morphia, hypodermic syringes and paraphernalia were seized and confiscated. In a raid made in Wayside district 26 persons of the coolie class were arrested in a cocaine den and all were sentenced to imprisonment.

On March 17 a list of addresses in the Settlement, where it was alleged that opium had been purchased, appeared in the "Evening Post and Mercury." Immediate action was taken and within 48 hours 67 warrants were obtained from the Special District Court and dealt with. Successful results were obtained in 11 cases of small opium smoking dens, but in no case was there any evidence of the premises being used for the sale of raw opium. In 20 cases the warrants were not executed owing to the addresses being non-existent, or insufficient, and in 2 cases the premises were under other jurisdictions.

Gambling Offences.—Nine raids took place, a decrease of 15 as compared with last month. These call for no special comment being of a trifling nature.

Other Crimes.—There was an increase of 9 cases under this heading as compared with last month and 50 more than reported during the corresponding period last year. Amongst these were: Threatening letters 14, Forgery 3, Embezzlement 11, Misappropriation 22, Fraud 17, False Pretences 5, Assault 39.

Notable work in "A" Division included the arrest of 2 gangs of godown breakers, comprising 14 persons, who were concerned in 4 cases of godown breaking in the Settlement and other cases in Chinese jurisdiction. Ten were convicted and handed over to the Public Safety Bureau. Notable work in "B" Division included (1) the arrest of 3 persons for stealing iron bars valued at $1,450 all of which were recovered (2) the arrest of a gang of 10 thieves who broke into a godown and stole cotton valued at $2,820 all of which was recovered. Notable work in "C" Division included (1) the arrest of 8 persons for armed robbery at Hunt's Wharf and the recovery of $5,200 worth of gold bars. Bank deposit receipts for $7,000 and $550 were found in their possession, (2) the arrest of 8 persons at West Hongkew in possession of three pistols and a revolver on charges of armed robbery, attempted murder and armed kidnapping.

Thirty criminal cases of various kinds occurred on Municipal extra-Settlement roads or in buildings abutting thereon.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigations into 38 special cases including armed kidnapping, murder and possession of arms, and effected the arrest of 15 persons. In addition 5 cases occurring previous to April are still under investigation.

The case of the kidnapping of a Chinese on Hart Road on September 18, 1930, was successfully concluded and sentences of death (4) and 2 months' imprisonment (1) were inflicted.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $230,781 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, a decrease of $35,589 as compared with last month. Property valued at $58,808 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—During the month of April the total number of records received from all sources was 2,434. This shows an increase of 97 compared with last month, and an increase of 673 from the corresponding month of last year.

Boarding House Section.—During the month of April 1931 the Boarding House Section visited 523 Boarding houses, 23 bars, restaurants, taverns, cafes and theatres. Three applications for new Boarding House Licences were received and dealt with. Ten applications for Bar, Restaurant, Cafe and Tavern licences were also received and dealt with.

Communism.—The efforts of the Police to check Communist activities resulted in the prosecution of 60 persons during the month. Of these, 17 were handed over to the Chinese Authorities, 4 were sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from one month to four months, 4 were set at liberty and 35 were remanded sine die. In effecting these arrests the Police made searches at twenty-two different addresses. At 19 of these incriminating evidence was found and the total seizure of "red" literature comprised 503,768 copies of handbills, pamphlets, books and other documents. The bulk of these were in Chinese but some were also written in English, French, German, Russian, Japanese and Annamite. The "red" leaflets seized at these addresses and obtained by the Police from other sources during the month were of seventy-four different kinds. The contents of the leaflets indicate that it was intended that they should be distributed on various "red" anniversaries in May. The Communist daily organ which was originally the "Red Flag Daily News" is now appearing under the name "Daily Truth Newspaper" and has since the end of March been supplemented by a weekly entitled "Labourers, Peasants and Soldiers Pictorial."

Strikes.—There were four strikes in the Settlement during the month. These affected 1,118 employees in 7 different concerns and resulted in a loss of 1,614 working days. The strikers were comprised of 920 cigarette factory workers, 190 silk filature workers and eight workers of a Japanese Photo-engraving company. With the exception of the Photo-engraving company all the companies affected were Chinese.

One strike, in which 800 Chinese hat makers were concerned affected the whole of Shanghai, including the Settlement area.

The following table shows the strikes which occurred, working days lost, etc., as compared with April 1930:—

Film Censorship.—Fifty ordinary films and seventy-two introductory films or "shorts" were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. Forty-three of these were approved without question, four were approved after certain parts, to which the Police objected, had been cut out, and three were rejected as unsuitable for public exhibition in Shanghai. An appeal has been made against the decision of the Police to the Board of Film Censorship in the case of one of the films which was rejected, and it is expected that it will be reviewed in the near future. In the meantime the owners are deleting the objectionable parts.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 615 (55 foreigners and 560 Chinese) of 2,729 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Rate Assessment Appeal Committee held on Tuesday, May 19, 1931, at 3 o'clock p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. P. Nazer, Chairman, P. Comery, Kwei Yen Fong, H. F. Lewis, S. Mizuta, and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Taxation of the "Medium Club" premises.—Mr. P. K. Whang attends on behalf of this Club in support of its application that the taxation of these premises be based on the actual rental paid, i.e., Tls. 350 per mensem instead of on the basis of the Council's assessed rental value of this property, i.e., Tls. 520 per mensem.

In amplification of the reasons put forward in letters addressed by the Club to the Council, Mr. Whang submits that, from a comparison of the value of this property with that of surrounding properties both as regards the respective land values and the construction costs of the buildings concerned, as to which he furnishes figures, the actual rental paid for this building represents its true letting value.

A member observes that, in a letter forwarded to the Council on December 6, last, the Chairman of the Club stated the rental of this house had been reduced "through the kindness of the landlord" and that, in fact, for a portion of the final quarter of 1930 taxation was paid on the basis assessed by the Council.

Mr. Whang however contends that it is improbable that a landlord would reduce the monthly rental by a sum of Tls. 170.

On behalf of the Council, Mr. Winter states that the assessment by the Council on these premises was based on the rental figure supplied by the Agents and that this compares favourably with those of surrounding properties. On the basis taken of the value of the land and building, the actual rental value of this property is Tls. 6,986. The actual assessment is however based on a figure of Tls. 6,240. Members will appreciate the difficulty with which the Council would be faced if it accepted the arbitrary assessment of owner occupiers or the principle that taxation should be levied on the rental actually paid, particularly in cases where premises are occupied by relatives and friends of the owner and in those instances where special receipts for a reduced rental are issued for production to the Revenue Office. The only logical means of assessment is based on the rent which the hypothetical tenant would reasonably be expected to pay if the property is in the open market. This is the method adopted in other countries and one which the Council has always followed. The Council is in the position of Trustee for the Ratepayers in general and any unjustified reduction by the Council in the assessment basis of a particular property would, he submits, be a breach of trust and result in an additional burden being placed upon the remainder of the Ratepayers.

With the exception of one member, who adheres to his view that the actual rental paid for these premises represents their true letting value, the Committee, after discussion, recommends that a reduced rental value of Tls. 470 per mensem be adopted as a basis for the levy of municipal taxation.

The meeting terminates at 4.10 p.m.

Gasoline Pumps and Tanks.

The following regulations governing the installation of gasoline pumps upon, and tanks beneath, Municipal Footpaths have received the Council's approval:—

REGULATIONS.

1. Applications for permits to instal gasoline pumps upon and storage tanks beneath Municipal footpaths shall only be in respect of sites fronting public garages or establishments used solely for the supply of motor accessories, oil and gasoline. The application must be accompanied by a letter of authorization from the tenant in front of whose premises it is proposed to erect the pump. In the case of a new garage, application should be made at the same time as application is made for the building permit or public garage licence. Each application shall be made to the Commissioner of Public Works and be accompanied by four white or blue prints, showing on a scale of 200 feet to 1 inch a key plan of the block and cadastral lot in which the premises are situated, and also on a scale of 4 feet to 1 inch the proposed position of the pump and tank with such details as openings in any adjoining walls, the line of the footpath, the position of trees, poles and other obstructions on the footpath and the number of the premises. All installations shall be to the reasonable satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works of the Council.

2. All installations shall comply with the following requirements:—

(a) The pump shall be erected with its nearest edge at least 5 feet from the nearest building line.

(b) Except under the conditions stated in Regulation 2 (c) the tank shall be installed, in the case of a tank of 750 American gallons capacity or less, with its nearest edge at least 5 feet from the nearest building line. The position of a larger tank will be determined after consideration of the circumstances of the case.

(c) When the wall of the premises in front of which it is proposed to instal a tank has no openings for its full height and for a clear distance laterally of 5 feet on either side of the proposed tank, the latter may be installed close against such wall provided that in no case shall the tank be nearer than 5 feet to any opening in the wall of any adjoining premises.

(d) Tanks shall not be installed nearer than 25 feet to a basement, cellar, vault or boiler unless placed in a concrete box in accordance with the following specification:—

The concrete box shall be constructed of concrete at least 6 inches in thickness with suitable saddles on which the tank shall rest. Strips of hoop or band iron shall be provided for anchoring the tank thereto. A strip of roofing felt shall be placed on the saddles, so that the tank rests on a non-corrodible bed. A minimum clearance of 6 inches shall be provided all round the tank and 12 inches on top. This shall be filled with well tamped earth or sand, and the whole covered with a concrete slab at least 6 inches thick, leaving a man-hole at least 24 inches in diameter so that the tank can be entered for cleaning purposes.

(e) Suitable anchoring arrangements shall be made to prevent tanks from lifting in case of floods. All tanks (except those installed in concrete boxes in accordance with the last above paragraph) shall be installed on sleepers and cradles of a design to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, and any structural alterations required in connection with the anchorage of the tanks shall be submitted to him for approval.

(f) All tanks shall be buried under the ground with the top not less than 3 feet below the surface, except where a cement or slab path is laid when the minimum depth shall be 2 feet.

(g) Tanks shall be constructed of steel or wrought iron, and shall be of the following minimum thicknesses:—

Up to 500 Am. gals. capacity—No. 14 U. S. gauge.

501 to 750 Am. gals. capacity—No. 12 U. S. gauge.

All joints shall be riveted and caulked, brazed, welded or made tight by some equally satisfactory method. Tanks shall be coated on the outside with tar, asphaltum or other rust-resisting material.

(h) No tank shall be cleaned except under the supervision of the Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade or his representative. All charges in this connection shall be defrayed by the person or company concerned.

(i) No tank shall project beyond the line of the kerb.

(j) Every pump shall be so placed that the base touches the back face of the kerb.

3. No tank shall be installed where there are cables or underground works, or where such are proposed to be placed; and should it be decided to execute such work after the tank has been installed the person or company concerned shall remove the tank on receipt of one month's notice from the Council, otherwise the Council may remove the same at the cost of the owner thereof such cost to be recoverable as damages.

4. All agreements regarding such installations shall be terminable at a minimum of one month's notice, whereafter all pumps and tanks shall be promptly removed, otherwise the Council may remove the same at the cost of the owner thereof such cost to be recoverable as damages.

5. The person or company installing a pump and tank shall be liable for all claims for damage arising from the installation or maintenance thereof and shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Council from all claims in respect thereof.

6 Excavations and reinstatements affecting Municipal footpaths shall be carried out in every case by the Public Works Department at the expense of the holder of the permit.

7. No further applications for permits to instal pumps within a radius of one mile from the corner of Nanking Road and Honan Road, nor on Bubbling Well Road, Avenue Edward VII, Manila Road or Avenue Foch will be considered.

8. No installation will be permitted which, in the opinion of the Council, is not in the public interest.

9. No installation will be permitted near any road junction, market or place of entertainment or which, in the opinion of the Council, would cause undue obstruction to vehicular or pedestrian traffic, or obstruct the view of vehicle drivers.

10. On and after October 1, 1931, the easement fee will be Tls. 50 per annum in respect of each pump and tank.

11. Any application complying with the Regulations shall not confer on the applicant a right to instal a pump or tank. The Council shall have absolute power to refuse or defer a permit for any reason which it shall deem fit.

Election of Chairman. — Upon the proposal of Mr. Bell, seconded by Mr. Sheppard, Mr. N. S. Brown is elected Chairman of the meeting.

Petrol Pumps and Tanks—Regulations.—In order to prevent undue congestion of traffic and interference on narrow footpaths by the erection of kerbside pumps, a set of regulations governing the erection, etc., of these pumps which has been tentatively in force for some time is submitted for approval. These have been notified to the Asiatic Petroleum Company, the Standard Oil Company, and the Texas Company and the modifications suggested by these Companies are considered in detail.

Subject to the following two amendments, the draft regulations are recommended for adoption:—

Article 2 (g).—Regarding a suggestion put forward by the Asiatic Petroleum Company, the Deputy Commissioner of Public Works undertakes, in conjunction with the Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade, to amplify this clause in order to permit the utilization of mild steel plates for the construction of tanks.

Article 8.—The proposal put forward by the Asiatic Petroleum Company that a letter of authorization from the tenant in front of whose premises it is proposed to erect the pump should accompany the application, is recommended for adoption.

The meeting terminates at 4.20 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on June 3, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Yah Ching, the Secretary General and the Acting Secretary.

Welcome to Chinese Officials.—On behalf of the Council, the Chairman extends a welcome to Dr. J. C. H. Wu and Mr. T. K. Ho upon their joining the Municipal Service. He feels assured that the Council in appointing these two gentlemen to assist in the conduct of municipal matters has made a wise selection. He warmly applauds the sentiments expressed in their speeches at a gathering arranged yesterday in their honour by the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce that their aim and object will be to promote the interest and the welfare of the Shanghai Community and to further the noble cause of Sino-foreign co-operation.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Annual Basket Fair.—The Chairman states that the recent fair was conducted in an orderly manner and that no untoward incidents occurred in connection therewith. The Commissioner of Police has undertaken to submit a report within the course of the next few days outlining his views as to the necessity or otherwise of restricting the limits of this Fair in the future.

The Minutes of the meetings of the Rate Assessment Appeal Committee of May 19 and May 29 are submitted and the recommendation recorded by the majority of its members is, in each case, confirmed.

A member states that it has occurred to him that it might be advisable in the case of tenants who enjoy favourable rental rates to increase the taxation to that based on the assessed rental value by gradual process. The majority of members are however unable to support this proposal since, in their view, adoption of this course would weaken the Council's position as to its right to tax on assessed values; would re-act to the detriment of the municipal revenue and would be inequitable to the general body of Ratepayers.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of May 26 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of May 27 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Watch Committee of May 28 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the joint meeting of the Watch and Works Committees of May 28 are submitted and confirmed.

Upon Mr. Fessenden consenting to continue to serve on the Board, it is unanimously decided that he be re-elected thereto.

Price of Rice.—The Chairman refers to the price of rice which recently has been gradually increasing. Upon his enquiring whether any action can be taken by the Council to stabilize the price of this commodity, the Chinese members express the opinion that action by the Council to this end is not called for at the present time.

Annual Recess.—It is decided that the Annual Recess shall extend from July 30 to September 1 inclusive.

The Municipal Gazette for Friday, June 5, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication, subject to deletion of one article.

Public Health Report for May.

Vital Statistics.—May appears to have been on the whole a healthy month, the foreign death-rate being 11.91 and the Chinese 16.53, both figures being decidedly on the low side. Deaths reported amongst resident Chinese numbered 1,353, and amongst resident foreigners 37.

Communicable Diseases. — Typhoid Fever: Four cases were notified amongst foreigners with three deaths. 32 Chinese deaths were reported and, in addition, 36 cases.

Para-Typhoid Fevers produced one case which proved fatal. Only one death was noted amongst the Chinese population, but it is thought, however, that a certain number of missed cases must have occurred.

Bacillary and Amoebic Dysentery showed a very small incidence which is unusual for the time of the year since an increase in Dysentery is generally evident this month.

Smallpox.—Two cases were noted amongst resident foreigners. One was a non-vaccinated case who died, and the other had been vaccinated in infancy only. 12 cases and in addition six deaths were noted amongst the Chinese population. 7,250 free vaccinations were performed by the Sanitation Division.

Cerebrospinal Fever showed a marked diminution. Only one foreign case occurred, though 33 deaths were reported amongst the Chinese population.

The Chinese Isolation Hospital admitted 42 resident cases and in addition 42 non-resident cases were received from neighbouring Municipalities, which appears to show a general, rather than a localized prevalence.

Tuberculosis.—Six foreign deaths occurred and 13 new cases of Pulmonary Tuberculosis were notified. There were 94 Chinese deaths from all types of Tuberculosis, whilst 76 cases of Pulmonary type were notified.

Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever showed a slight incidence but the Measles death-rate amongst the Chinese population was somewhat high, 42 deaths being reported.

Malaria. — Three resident cases occurred and 18 were reported amongst the Military population.

The latter cases are considered to be imported.

Medical Registration. — To date nearly 400 applications have been considered by the Board, and it is anticipated that publication of the Register of Medical Practitioners will soon be possible.

Laboratory.—The manufacturing section of the Laboratory was kept extremely busy since over 100,000 doses of Cholera vaccine were prepared for issue up to the end of May. Routine diagnosis continued to be heavy mainly owing to the numerous specimens examined for Cerebrospinal Meningitis. Three cases of Anthrax were verified amongst animals.

Pasteur Treatment.—80 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including 12 from Outports, called for advice, cauterization and/or treatment. There were no fatalities reported.

Hospitals Division.—The Chinese Isolation was busier than the Foreign, due to some extent to the Cerebrospinal Fever outbreak and the necessity of admitting cases from outside limits. Considerable expense is thus incurred in co-operating with areas which are not so favourably situated in regard to Hospital facilities.

The T. B. Sanatorium shows a great lack of accommodation on the Male side and has a long waiting list.

The Mental Hospital, as usual, is completely full.

The Inoculation Campaign carried on by Doctors of the Hospital Division in co-operation with the Sanitation Division resulted in 20,251 free Inoculations.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division:—The Veterinary Surgeon's report indicates that certain improvements in the various Slaughterhouses in the Settlement are now in progress.

The Report of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division shows that 36 cows were disposed of. Eight animals were suffering from Tuberculosis, and the others from various causes, including a case of Anthrax.

The Dairy Licence conditions have been amended in order that the Veterinary Surgeon may regularly inspect all animals in licensed Dairies.

During the month a strike took place amongst Pork Butchers, which was undertaken as a measure of sympathy with Pork Butchers outside the Settlement who were involved in a dispute with the Municipality of Greater Shanghai concerning taxation. The Settlement supply of Pork was not seriously affected since the strike was more or less nominal and of short duration.

Sanitation Division.—Eight Chinese Cadets commenced work and for the present are receiving practical instruction during the mornings, with theoretical lectures and physical training in the afternoons.

The Sanitation Division co-operated with the two Chinese Doctors detached from the Hospital Division for inoculation duty, and supervised the plan of campaign. As mentioned above over 20,000 inoculations were performed which threw a certain amount of strain on the Division of organization and publicity work. During the month preparations were made for co-operation in the Inter-Municipal Cholera Parade.

Anti-fly measures were continued in the Western and Eastern districts and anti-larval work was intensified.

A considerable saving in oil, and a marked increase in efficiency in the anti-mosquito work has been noted in the Eastern District where the co-operation of the Public Works Department with this Department, in filling-in measures has resulted in ridding the Settlement of a number of extremely bad mosquito breeding areas. It is again reiterated that it is regrettable that residents in certain districts do not appreciate the ultimate permanent advantages occasioned by dumping, though it is not denied that some temporary discomfort is caused thereby.

The Open Air Swimming Pool was opened on May 20, though a delay occurred due to seepage of sub-soil water which necessitated somewhat extensive repairs.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases, Clinics and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

The Secretary General of the Council also placed his views and advice at the disposal of the Committee.

Mr. Haward acted as Vice-Chairman of the Committee.

Terms of Reference.—The Terms of Reference were as follow:—

"To enquire into and report on ways and means which may be devised for supplying the public with fuller and better information upon municipal matters."

The inaugural meeting of the Committee was held on May 18 when Brig-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, C.M.G., D.S.O., Chairman of Council, convened the Committee, announced the Terms of Reference, and requested the Committee to bear especially in mind two points—first, the Council and Ratepayers' decision against admission of Press representatives to Council and Committee meetings; second, the special importance attached by the Council to the necessity for advice relative to publicity in the Chinese Press.

Assurance was given by the Council's representative on the Committee that the Council would welcome advice on publicity matters in the widest sense, even beyond the latitude given in the Terms of Reference.

Admission of Press to Meetings.—The opinion was expressed that from the Press as well as from the Council point of view attendance of Press representatives at Council and Committee Meetings was not desirable. The Committee, therefore, supports the attitude of the Council on this point and is of opinion that under present conditions admission of the Press to Council and Committee meetings is not desirable. The question of Press admission to these meetings has been so frequently and fully discussed at the Annual Meetings of Ratepayers and so widely ventilated from time to time in the columns of the Press that it was considered unnecessary by the Committee to deal at greater length with the matter than simply to record the above decision.

As a result of the Committee's deliberations on ways and means for supplying the public with fuller and better information upon municipal matters, agreement was expressed by members that as, with the exception of the Council's nominee, they were serving on the Committee as journalists, expert in Press publicity, it was their duty to advise the Council mainly in respect of Press publicity only. At the same time recognition was taken of the fact that publicity could be developed by other means, such as would come within the scope of a Public Relations Bureau. Such a Bureau would deal not only with the Press but with the general public and would be at the disposal of the community for advice upon all Municipal matters. It was recognised by the Committee that the establishment of such a Bureau would entail the creation of a new and somewhat large Department in the Council's Administration and the Committee was consequently not prepared to go beyond the length of merely pointing out the possibilities of such a Bureau to the Council for future reference in case of necessity.

Press Information Office.—Members were unanimously of opinion that the immediate establishment by the Council of a Press Information Office is desirable, such office to be responsible to the Council for the dissemination of fuller and better information upon municipal matters to the public through the medium of the Press; and the Committee accordingly recommends the appointment of a Press Information Officer to take charge of such Office. The Committee were strongly of opinion that such Officer should be a highly trained journalist, with knowledge of local daily Press conditions. The Press Information Office should be open for the reception of Press representatives only, the standing of such representatives to be guaranteed by a permanent advisory Committee, the appointment of which forms the subject of a separate recommendation to the Council. Information to be issued by the proposed Press Information Office was classified as follows by the Committee:—

1. Information sent out by the Council of its own volition in the form of communiqués. This to go to all papers simultaneously.
2. Verbal information, supported by such written material as may be considered necessary. Such information to be given to assist press representatives calling for "copy."
3. Certain special matter to be prepared for the Press.

The Press Information Office, it is recommended, should be entirely independent of all Council Departments and responsible only to the Council direct.

Chinese Press Publicity.—Special consideration was given to this question by the Committee, which was in agreement with the Council in attaching greater importance from the Council's view-point to this aspect of publicity than that of publicity in the Foreign Press. Assuming that no single individual can possess the linguistic and other qualifications necessary for dealing with both Chinese and foreign publicity, the Committee considers it essential and recommends that a highly-qualified English speaking Chinese gentleman, preferably a trained journalist, should be placed in charge of this section of the work of the Press Information Office under the direction of the Press Information Officer. Special attention should be given by the officer appointed to the requirements of the Chinese Press, and advice on this subject should be secured from the recently-appointed Chinese Adviser on Municipal Affairs.

Permanent Committee.—In conclusion, the Committee recommends the appointment of a permanent Committee to advise the Council on Press information matters. Such Committee would act entirely in an advisory capacity, and would meet when questions of general importance necessitated consideration.

I heartily endorse the Report of the Committee but wish to add my opinion that a Japanese Press Officer should also be appointed to the Staff of the Press Information Office.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Monday, June 8, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, K. H. Ling, F. J. Raven, L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, and Mr. A. B. Lang (for Secretary).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Tall Building—Cad. Lot 1017, Northern.—The Commissioner of Public Works states that upon further consideration he is of the opinion that to secure a better alignment both in respect of the Garden Bridge and the tramway tracks on Broadway the additional width of ten feet should be scheduled from the Eastern side of this thoroughfare. Members concur in this view.

Manila Road.—With reference to discussions at previous meetings, it is agreed that Manila Road be renamed Avenue Edward VII and that the section of Avenue Edward VII between Avenue Foch and Rue Kraetzer be re-named Avenue Foch.

The above proposals are recommended for approval; it is also recommended that the section of Avenue Edward VII between Manila Road and Rue Kraetzer be re-named Luzon Road.

Stud Contract.—With reference to discussion at previous meetings, the Commissioner reports that 18 motor vehicles are required to replace the 57 draught animals at present in use. The capital cost of these would be approximately Tls. 72,000 and the cost of garage accommodation, Tls. 10,000. He estimates that the annual saving by the substitution of motor vehicles will amount to Tls. 23,650; the capital cost of the stabling for the animals is Tls. 15,000.

He, therefore, recommends, with the concurrence of the Treasurer and Controller, that the Stud Contract be not renewed and that he be authorized to proceed with the purchase of the necessary motor vehicles and the construction of the building towards the end of this year, the expenditure involved to be charged to the 1932 budget.

In view of the additional work which can be undertaken by motor transport and having regard to the annual saving which will be effected, members unanimously endorse the above recommendation.

Fu Yue Tang Cemetery—North Chekiang Road.—On behalf of the Finance Re-organization Committee of the Benevolent Societies, the Mayor of Greater Shanghai forwards a request that the Council should cancel an agreement entered into in 1902 in order to permit the development of the above property, the proceeds therefrom to be applied to charitable purposes such as the relief of the poor or the establishment of a reformatory.

On the ground that the development of this property by shops and dwelling houses would increase the population of this already congested area by approximately 10,000, the Commissioner of Public Works supports this proposal only if this area is converted to a park or open space; alternatively he suggests that a small portion of this site might be utilized for the erection of a municipal Chinese school.

After discussion and having regard to the imperative need for the provision of parks and open spaces in this district, members record the view that if it is intended to sell or use this area for intensive development purposes the Council should not cancel the restriction regarding the sale of this property.

It is accordingly recommended that a reply be made to the Mayor to the effect that whilst at this stage the Council cannot agree to cancellation of this restriction it has this question under consideration from the point of view of ensuring that this property remains a permanent open space.

Luna Park.—In connection with the conversion of Luna Park to an amusement centre the Commissioner of Public Works reports verbally that plans of an open air swimming pool and various structures, including a dance hall have been submitted to him. The dance hall is constructed entirely of wood and as during the warm season this will be open on three sides the Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade has no serious objections to this. He considers however that the promoters of this amusement centre should be notified that this building will not be permitted to be enclosed for utilization for amusement purposes during the cold season. With regard to the smaller wooden structures to be erected as shops, booths etc., these also are of wooden construction and he is of the opinion that the promoters should be required to construct these of fire-resisting material.

After discussion members unanimously recommend that the requirements outlined by the Commissioner be notified to the promoters of this Amusement Park.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Friday, June 12, 1931, at 5.40 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, G. W. Sheppard, Z. C. Zing, the Secretary General, the Treasurer and Controller and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Convalescent Home for Russian Tuberculars.—A letter from the Chairman of the White Flower Society requesting further support for the projected establishment of a Convalescent Home for Russian Tuberculars is submitted.

The Treasurer states that a grant at the rate of Tls.500 per annum has already been authorized to this Institution. As it is contrary to the Council's policy to issue grants to Institutions prior to their actual operation, he recommends that no additional grant be authorized until this Institution has commenced functioning and has submitted a statement of accounts. The estimates already submitted by this organization are extremely vague and give little idea of its details of income and expenditure.

After discussion, and in view of the observations made, it is recommended that no increase be made in the grant already authorized until this Institution commences to function and a working statement of accounts for its first period of operation has been submitted.

The meeting terminates at 6.30 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, June 17, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Yah Ching, the Commissioner of Police, the Secretary General, and the Acting Secretary.

Dr. J. C. H. Wu attends.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of June 8, are submitted and confirmed.

Special Parks Committee.—The Chairman questions the necessity of instituting a Special Committee to consider this question and suggests that, as such a Committee would have to be guided by the advice of the Commissioner of Public Works, this matter be dealt with by the Works Committee.

A member suggests that the Special Committee might be composed of the Chairman of Council and the Commissioner of Public Works. In expressing his willingness to act in this capacity, the Chairman proposes and members concur that decision on this question be deferred until the report awaited from Mr. Harpur is available.

The Minutes of the Special meeting of June 12, are submitted, and, subject to certain amplifications, are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Library Committee of June 9 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of June 10 are submitted and confirmed.

Secondary School for Chinese Girls.—A suggestion is adopted that, in connection with the selection of a Headmistress for this School, the assistance of the Chinese Women's Association might be invoked. The Chinese members undertake to take up this question with this Association.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Finance Committee of June 12 are submitted and, subject to one exception, are confirmed.

Report of Publicity Committee.—Copies of this report with its summarized recommendations have been furnished to members.

In connection with the recommendation put forward by the Japanese member of the Committee that a Japanese Press Officer should also be appointed to the staff of the Press Information Office, a member states that he strongly supports this proposal, as the services of the European Press Officer will be available to the whole of the community with the exception of the Japanese. The local press may be broadly divided into three classes, i.e., those papers published in the English, Chinese and Japanese languages. Unless, therefore, an official is available for co-operation with the Japanese press, the Council's scheme for promoting understanding between the Council and the community generally will be incomplete.

Another member states that he is not convinced of the necessity of instituting a Press Information Office, particularly since this would presumably involve considerable expenditure to an extent which may not be commensurate with the results achieved. He therefore suggests that any additional publicity desired might be undertaken by members of the existing staff.

The Chairman of the Committee states that the Committee was impressed by the views recorded by its Chinese members that the information at present given out to the Chinese Press was not in such a form as to be of interest to the Chinese community. In the Committee's view, it was essential that this work should be undertaken by individuals possessing high journalistic qualifications.

Upon a member questioning whether there is sufficient material for publication to warrant the appointments recommended it is stated that publicity on educational matters alone would occupy a trained journalist for a considerable period in order to remove the misunderstandings which now exist in certain quarters as to the Council's policy.

Upon the Chairman enquiring as to whether the Committee has considered the cost involved by adoption of its recommendations, members are informed that this question has not been considered in detail.

After discussion, members generally concur that the dissemination of information on properly conducted lines would be of great value in the removal of misunderstandings on the part of the community.

Accordingly, the Chairman requests members to give further consideration to the Committee's report with a view to decision on its recommendations being reached at the next meeting.

Annual Basket Fair.—A report by the Commissioner of Police accompanied by a plan illustrating his proposals for the restriction of the limits of future Basket Fairs has been circulated to members.

These proposals are endorsed, and it is directed that they be notified to the Temple Authorities.

Country Hospital and General Hospital—Increase of Fees.—The proposals of the above two Hospitals to increase their fees in accordance with the scales submitted have been circulated.

The Chairman observes that the proposal to give these increases effect as from July 1, next, will only permit of short notice being given to the public. As, however, the General Hospital Authorities have already given public notice as to this, it is decided to approve the increased fees in respect of both Institutions becoming effective from that date.

Board of Film Censors.—The Chairman requests the Chinese members to expedite their nominations for the Chinese representatives on the above Board to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Mrs. Hsia and Mr. T. K. Ho.

The Municipal Gazette for Friday, June 18, is submitted in proof and authorized for publication.

The meeting terminates at 7.40 p.m.

Opium offences	139	126	92
Gambling offences	18	9	2
Other crimes	259	225	197
Total	1,415	1,411	1,120

The total reported crime for the month shows an increase of 4 cases as compared with the figures for last month and an increase of 291 cases over the reports for the corresponding period of last year. Investigation was refused in 37 cases of a very trifling nature, 73 were found on enquiry not to be criminal cases and 14 were discovered to be false reports. Petty thefts and other crimes are again responsible for a large increase over last year, most of these cases being due to causes over which the Police have no control. Further, many cases included under the heading "Reports" are directly due to police action. This particularly applies to criminal gangs, opium and gambling offences. There are fewer reports of serious and armed crime, both Hongkew and Central Districts being immune from armed robberies. Increases in total crime are recorded in A Division of 6 cases, B Division 36 cases and D Division 32 cases while C Division records a decrease of 68 cases. A satisfactory feature of the report is the decrease of 26 cases of burglary in C and D Division accounted for by the success of the special measures referred to in my report for April. The Divisional Detective Officer of B Division calls attention to the fact that 83 cases which occurred in the Division were due to householders leaving doors or windows open or carelessly leaving property unprotected in Sinza District. The Divisional Detective Officer of D Division records 38 similar cases.

1494 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 148 for offences committed previously and 58 for other Authorities, a total increase of 169 over the number recorded last month.

A very satisfactory feature of the investigation of crime for the month is the excellent co-operation of the various sections at Headquarters and the very successful results obtained by the staff of the Finger Print, Arms Identification and Modus Operandi Bureaux and the Headquarters Crime Branch, all of whom have assisted in placing valuable clues and information in the hands of the detective staffs at Police Stations.

Murder.—Two cases of murder were reported during the month, one of a Japanese woman who was assaulted by her husband while drunk and who died a few hours later from the injuries received, while the second occurred in Yangtszepoo district when a male Chinese, aged 66 years, was shot dead by armed men in an alleged attempt at armed robbery.

Attempted Murder.—Three cases were reported, one in which an armed man fired on the Police in Yangtszepoo District, a second when an armed robber attempted to shoot a detective's assistant who was trying to effect the arrest of a member of the gang and a third in which a Chinese attacked his paramour with a chopper and seriously injured her, afterwards surrendering himself to the Police.

Armed Kidnapping.—No cases were reported as having actually occurred during the month, but 1 case came to the notice of the Police of a wealthy Chinese, in business in Nantao, who was kidnapped on Chinhai Road while riding in his private ricsha. He was later released on payment of a large ransom.

Abduction.—Of the 10 cases of simple abduction reported 6 were successfully concluded, one child was recovered and 14 arrests were made. Four of the cases, after investigation, proved not to be criminal.

Armed Robberies.—37 were reported, a decrease of 21 cases. Of the 37 cases, 4 occurred in previous months and were brought to light by arrests made, 4 were false reports and 4 were attempts only. A Division records a decrease of 10, B Division 7, C Division 3 cases and D Division 1 case. 19 arrests were made in connection with these cases. The actual number of true cases occurring during the month is as follows:—

A Division.
Central District	Nil
Louza	5
B Division.
Sinza District	9
Bubbling Well District	2
Gordon Road District	1
Pootoo Road District	Nil
C Division.
Hongkew District	Nil
West Hongkew District	2
Dixwell Road District	Nil
D Division.
Wayside District	4
Harbin Road District	2
Yangtzepoo District	4
Total	29

Other Robberies.—There was an increase of 5 cases under this heading and of the total of 16, investigations proved that 4 were false reports. All the cases were of a trivial nature. In 5 cases reported in Wayside drunken sailors were the victims of riesha coolies and brothel touts. 10 arrests were made in connection with cases of this nature.

Members of Criminal Gangs.—16 gangs were arrested during the month, an increase of 3 as compared with last month. Of these 8 gangs were arrested in C and D Division, comprising 58 persons, and the following charges were preferred against them: 30 armed robberies, 2 murders, 1 attempted murder, 1 burglary, 7 larceny by trick, 1 snatching and 3 possession of arms. Nine pistols and 118 rounds of ammunition were seized.

Housebreaking, office and shopbreaking.—There was an increase of 1 case as compared with last month. Particular improvement was shown in B Division, a decrease of 8 cases being recorded. 18 arrests were made in all Divisions.

Burglary.—A considerable decrease in this class of crime is recorded there being 56 cases as compared with 77 registered in April, 4 being attempts only. 27 persons were arrested in connection with these crimes. The decrease is accounted for by special measures adopted and the large number of arrests made. One female was arrested in Wayside District while carrying burglars' tools for her male confederate.

Thefts.—Cases under this heading show a decrease of 13 cases as compared with those recorded in April, the figures being 731 and 744 respectively. 5 false reports were received and 29 were found after investigation, not to be criminal cases. 327 arrests were made in connection with these reports. Many telephone receivers were reported stolen during the month, but this type of theft decreased considerably with the arrest and conviction of a man in Louza district. 49 unattended bicycles were stolen. 24 cases of shoplifting occurred in A Division in connection with which 27 arrests were effected. 82 cases of pocket-picking occurred during the month.

Snatching.—There is a decrease of 5 cases under this heading. Slight increases are recorded in this class of crime in A and D Division, while B and C Divisions show decreases. 53 arrests were made during the month.

Opium Offences.—The increase in reports of this nature is due to the increased activities of the Narcotic Section. In connection with these reports the figures given represent raids or arrests. Altogether 364 arrests took place. The Headquarters Narcotic Section made 16 raids and searches and arrested 111 persons. One raid which took place at 69 Canton Road resulted in the seizure of narcotics, pills, etc. to the estimated value of $25,000. 42 of the 111 persons arrested had been previously convicted for pocket-picking and larceny.

Gambling Offences.—18 cases occurred during the month, an increase of 6 over last month. Of this number C Division made 13 raids and arrested 106 persons. The remaining 5 raids took place in B and D Divisions and were of a trifling nature.

Other Crimes.—As compared with last month there were 34 more reports recorded and 62 more than for the corresponding period of last year. Reports under this heading included; Misappropriation 19, Fraud 19, Embezzlement 11, Uttering Counterfeit Notes and Coin 16, Assault 54, Writing threatening letters 8 and many other miscellaneous cases. None of these calls for special comment.

Notable work in A Division included the arrest of a gang of cargo thieves by detectives of Louza Station. Notable work in B Division included the arrest on Sinza Road of 4 persons who were subsequently charged with 6 burglaries and one armed robbery. Notable work in C Division included (1) the arrest of 4 Chinese for being concerned in an ingenious fraud by the use of false Post Office seals, documents and receipts for the purpose of increasing the fees for postage and duties on parcels posted through an agency opened by them (2) the arrest of a gang of 10 male and 2 female Chinese on charges of Murder, Armed Robbery and Burglary, and the seizure of 4 pistols and 98 rounds of ammunition, (3) the arrest of a gang of 12 persons on a charge of larceny by trick. Ten were convicted while detectives of Hongkew Police Station were specially commended by the Judge, (4) the arrest of a gang of 10 persons on 10 charges of Armed Robbery and the seizure of a pistol by detectives of West Hongkew Station. Notable work in D Division included (1) the arrest of a gang of 4 Armed Robbers by Yangtzepoo and Harbin Road detectives on 10 charges of armed robbery, 1 murder, 1 attempted murder and 1 snatching, (2) the fatal shooting of an armed man in Yangtzepoo district by a Japanese constable whom he attempted to shoot when challenged. Notable work by the Headquarters Crime Branch included (1) the arrest of 5 males and 4 females on charges of armed kidnapping, attempted armed kidnapping and the murder of a Chinese constable. Two pistols and 24 rounds of ammunition were seized, (2) the arrest of a Chinese Detective Sergeant on a charge of complicity in the robbery of morphia valued at $50,000 from a house in Sinza district after it had already been stolen by armed men while being transported through the French Concession (3) the arrest of 4 persons and seizure of 3 pistols in connection with a kidnapping case in Sinza district, (4) the seizure of a quantity of narcotics and ingredients for the manufacture of "red" pills valued at $25,000 at the Tsoong Wei Drug Store, 69 Canton Road. Notable work by the Arms Section consisted of the identification of 11 pistols, which had been used in 11 shooting cases, consisting of Armed Robbery, Armed Kidnapping, Murder, Attempted Murder and Highway Robbery. 10 cases were admitted or proved by this evidence.

Seventeen criminal cases occurred on Municipal Roads or in buildings abutting thereon, a decrease of 13 cases as compared with those received last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 20 special cases including Armed Robbery, Armed Kidnapping, Murder and Possession of Counterfeit notes and effected the arrest of 14 persons. In addition enquiries were continued into 7 serious cases previously reported.

Stolen property.—Property to the value of $174,269 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, a decrease of $56,512 as compared with last month. Property valued at $60,309 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records dealt with was 3,234. As compared with the figures recorded for last month this shows an increase of 800 and an increase of 1,656 in comparison with the corresponding month of last year. In addition 1,818 gaol cards were received and checked. Investigations were made into 40 cases and latent prints were secured in 12 instances. Evidence was given in Court in 2 cases. Of 15 dead bodies fingerprinted and photographed at the Mortuary 2 were identified by finger prints and three by photographs. Seventy-two records of foreigners were received and 32 identified as having previous convictions.

Studio.—320 photographs were taken and 694 copies were printed during the month.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the Staff of this Section visited 566 Boarding Houses, 36 Bars, Restaurants, Taverns, Cafés and Theatres. Five new applications were dealt with.

Story-tellers.—During the month of May two police story-tellers visited teashops etc. and lectured on precautionary measures against crime to audiences totalling approximately 3,300 persons.

Suicides.—Fifteen Chinese were reported as having committed suicide during the month.

Communism. — Communist literature bearing on the various anniversaries was distributed on several occasions on a small scale and walls in different parts of the Settlement were disfigured by Communist and anti-Government slogans. On the whole the month was singularly free from disturbances.

At 6.20 p.m. on May 1, International Labour Day, some 200 industrial workers gathered on Thorburn Road near Yangchow Road where they shouted "Long live the Communist Party" and distributed about 20 different kinds of myriagraphed handbills bearing on the anniversary. The shouting and handbill distribution began when one of the assembly displayed two red cloth flags and ended after a few minutes when the demonstrators dispersed mingling as they did so with other workers returning home from their employment.

Twenty-four persons were arrested by the Police during the month for Communist offences. Of these, 10 were extradited to the Chinese Authorities, 1 was sentenced to three months imprisonment, 7 were released on bail or shop security while the cases against the remaining six were still on remand at the end of the month. In executing these arrests incriminating evidence was found at five different addresses and 1,049 copies of books, pamphlets, handbills and other documents of a Communist character were seized. The bulk of the books were in Chinese but some were in Russian, Japanese and French. The leaflets included 81 different kinds which had not been seen before. The bulk of them advocated Communism on various pretexts of which the May 30 incident was the most common.

Strikes.—There were 8 strikes in the Settlement during the month. They affected 833 employees in 8 different concerns and resulted in a loss of 2,292 working days. The strikers comprised 561 mechanics, 160 egg factory workers, 40 printers, 35 foundry workers, 17 metal workers and 20 mill workers. The firms affected were the Shanghai Tramway Co. (British), Andersen Meyer Engineering Works (American), Tsong Yang Egg Factory (Chinese), Sakushinsha Press Co. (Japanese), Acme Foundry (British), T. K. Chang Metal Works (American), the N.W.K. No. 2 Cotton Mill and the Dong Shing Mill, both Japanese concerns.

Two strikes in which 800 wharf workers of the C.M.S.N. Co. and 1,400 bookbinders were concerned affected the whole of Shanghai, including the Settlement.

The statistics of strikes for the month under review are as follows:—

Area	No. of strikes.	No. of hands.	No. of working days lost.
Settlement	8	833	2,292
French Concession	1	43	16
Chinese controlled territory	6	1,240	1,625

A new Military Tribunal which will try all persons arrested for Communistic or reactionary offences was inaugurated at Lunghua on May 19.

As a consequence of the Finance Bureau of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai insisting on the collection with effect from May 16, 1931 of a tax of 39 cents for each pig slaughtered, about 20 slaughter houses and about 1,200 butcher shops in the area under the jurisdiction of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai suspended business on May 16. Due to stock becoming exhausted the majority of pork stalls in various markets in the Settlement and French Concession stopped business on May 22. The slaughter houses and butcher shops in the Settlement resumed business on May 24 and those in Chinese controlled territory reopened on May 27, after it had been arranged that the Municipality of Greater Shanghai would from time to time supply funds to the Fresh Meat Dealers' Association to be used for philanthropic purposes. Hitherto the Fresh Meat Dealers' Association paid a bulk sum, which came to about 30 cents per animal, to the Municipality of Greater Shanghai in lieu of the pig slaughtering tax.

The average price of rice for the month of May, 1931 was as follows:—

Chinese Rice:

Best quality	$13.76
Good quality	12.85
Ordinary quality	12.08

Saigon Rice:

Best quality	$12.55
Good quality	11.75
Ordinary quality	11.06

The gradual increase in the price of rice is believed to be due to conditions resulting from the bad weather which has been experienced recently in the areas affected.

Film Censorship. — Sixty-three ordinary films and sixty-five "shorts" or introductory films were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. Of these five were subjected to cuts and revision before being approved by the Police Censors for public exhibition locally. In one instance an appeal made against the ruling of the Police to the Joint Boards of Film Censors was upheld and in another a similar appeal was rejected.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 506 (54 Foreigners and 452 Chinese) of 3,573 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Accidents. — Accidents coming under police notice during the months of May, 1931 and May, 1930:—

Bicycles.—Bicycles were involved in 164 accidents during the month and in 82 cases the cyclists were known to have been at fault.

Traffic Signal Lights installed at the Bund and Soochow Road corner, were put into operation on the 4th of the month.

Eyesight Test.—Besides the usual eyesight tests of all applicants for driving licences, 46 chauffeurs already in possession of licences were retested during the month and found to be fit.

Motor Horn Nuisance.—There were 25 prosecutions for this offence during the month and in addition, one chauffeur had his driving licence suspended for a repetition of the offence.

Public Ricshas.—These vehicles are becoming an increased source of obstruction and danger to other traffic on main thoroughfares and busy centres where they are beyond normal police control. The solution appears to lie in early consideration of a reduction in the number licensed.

Identification Office.—During the month 1,953 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 438 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. In addition to the above 187 records were received from the French Police out of which number 58 were identified in the records of this office making the total for the month :—

Parks Report for May.

Jessfield Park.—The chief floral features during the month were displays of Roses, Sweet Peas and Hardy Annuals.

The cool climatic conditions experienced during Spring resulted in a display of Roses unequalled during recent years and visitors were privileged to see the true characteristics of each variety; a privilege which is generally denied to rose enthusiasts in this city.

Sweet Peas, grown on the cordon system, were specially attractive.

Jessfield Park Zoological Garden.—The erection of a temporary lavatory for children in close proximity to the Bear cage was completed.

Small alterations were carried out in various animal and bird enclosures and the erection of expanded metal fences was carried out with a view to assuring the safety of children while feeding animals.

Additional exhibits procured during the month were as follows:—

One red Macaw (Ara Macao) purchased.

One pair Shoveller Ducks, one pair Scaup and one Pintail, presented by A. Hampe, Esq.

One Cockatoo presented by Mrs. L. Kidd.

One Pukras Pheasant, five Paradise Widar and one Cassowary, deposited.

Municipal Nurseries.—Seedlings of Summer flowering subjects, required for the embellishment of flower gardens in the various parks and gardens attached to Municipal buildings, were pricked out into nursery beds.

Cuttings of Chrysanthemums and Shrubs were inserted and the pruning of flowering shrubs was carried out.

The Bund Garden.—Reinstatement work at the above garden was practically completed and the raising and grading of an area utilized as a Band Auditorium was included in these operations.

General.—Operations connected with the commencement of the Open Air Concert season were carried out and the painting and repairing of park benches was continued.

THE LESTER TRUST.

Report of the Lester Trustees for the year ended December 31, 1930.

Lester Trustees.—On the retirement of Mr. R. E. S. Gregson from Shanghai in November, Mr. Herbert Lipson Ward was duly appointed to fill the vacancy.

Residuary Estate Capital Account.—After crediting the net Income for the year, Tls. 938,842.30, and other accretions as per account annexed, the balance of the Residuary Estate on the 31st December, 1930, was Tls. 17,569,-616.78.

Residuary Estate Income Account.—An item calling for special comment in the account is the sum of Tls. 45,958.80 written off against cost of the abandoned scheme for the Henry Lester Institute (Medical Research). Plans for the building and equipment of this Institute had been completely prepared by Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss acting in conjunction with Mr. Alan Munby, their consultant architect in London, this scheme being framed to include medical post-graduate training. The Trustees then found themselves confronted with changed conditions which had not been anticipated. The very considerable fall in the value of silver made it apparent that the cost of operating the proposed Institute would be much higher than had been expected, while the National Government of China, supported by the Health Organization of the League of Nations, announced a programme for medical post-graduate training (in the Chinese language) thus making the original plans of the Trust in part superfluous. Having regard to both these factors, the Trustees decided it would be more economical to abandon the original scheme and to substitute a less expensive one which would be within the means at their disposal. The fees payable to the architects and other expert advisers for work already done were made the subject of an independent assessment and the whole cost thereof was charged to the Residuary Estate Income Account as mentioned above.

Henry Lester Scholarships.—The third examination took place on the 15th October, 1930, under the management of the Scholarships Committee; 35 candidates sat and scholarships were awarded to:—

Tao Shou-Chi,
Anglo-Chinese School
Tao Shou-Chao,
Anglo-Chinese School

Properties.—During the year under review, properties of the Trust have been dealt with as follows:—

B.C. Lot 1272—Cad. Lot 627 C.D.—Redevelopment of this Lot with modern houses and shops has been completed, as a result of which the net Income has been greatly increased.

B.C. Lot 3483—Cad. Lot 3618 E.D.—This vacant Lot, not being suitable for development by the Trust, was sold at a net profit of Tls. 38,994.25, this sum being credited to Residuary Estate Capital Account.

B.C. Lot 3562—Cad. Lot 3609 E.D.—Tenders have been accepted for the development of this vacant Lot with modern Chinese shops at a cost of Tls. 157,815 and building has been commenced since the close of the year.

B.C. Lot 3599—Cad. Lot 3588 E.D.—A scheme for the development of this vacant Lot has also been approved, but the Trustees decided not to proceed with this until the development of B.C. Lot 3562 has been completed.

B.C. Lots 4028, 4785 & 7423 etc., (Avenue Road).—This site for the Institute of Medical Research has been enlarged and squared off through the acquisition of adjoining fang-tan land by purchase and exchange. Steps are now being taken to consolidate the whole property in one British Consular Title Deed. The amended plans and tenders for the building have been approved and the work is now in progress. The final cost of the building must be to some extent dependent upon current exchange, as a considerable portion of the fittings and equipment will be paid for out of Sterling funds in London, but any such variation in the cost will not involve an actual profit or loss, since funds already held in Sterling will be utilized. The cost, excluding Laboratory equipment and architects fees, was estimated in November, 1930, at Tls. 568,000. The amended scheme for the Institute is based on a standard plan capable of extension should this ever prove desirable.

The Henry Lester Institute of Medical Research and Preventive Medicine.—During the year 1930, the Medical Research Institute staff has continued to work in the temporary quarters at No. 11 Hankow Road. Work to date has consisted mainly of general organization in preparation for the opening of the Clinical Research Ward in the new Lester Chinese Hospital (now in course of construction) and the completion of the above-named Institute. Considerable progress has been made with the Library which contained about 1,000 volumes and various collections of Journals at the close of the year. The Field Research Division has continued its study of the distribution and incidence of diseases in China. No detailed report of the activities of the various Research Divisions will be published until the work of the Institute is more definitely organized in permanent quarters.

Since the close of the past year, the Institute suffered a severe loss by the sudden death of Dr. John Anderson, Head of the Division of Medicine and Tropical Medicine. The late Dr. Anderson took a very active part in the planning of the proposed Institute and the Trustees hope at a later date to find some means by which to perpetuate his memory.

The following staff appointments have been made effective during the period under review:—

Dr. R. Cecil Robertson, M.C., M.D., etc.—Head of the Division of Pathology and Bacteriology, joined the staff on Study Leave as from the 1st September 1930, and has now taken up his duties in Shanghai.

Dr. Mary Neville Andrews, M.D., B.S., etc.—Was appointed as assistant to the Division of Medicine and Tropical Medicine as from the 1st October, 1930.

The following appointment was arranged in July, 1930 to become effective as from the 1st April, 1932.

Head of the Division of Biochemistry and Pharmacology; Professor B. E. Read, M.P.S., Ph.C. (London) etc.

Dr. H. G. Earle, Director and General Adviser, arranged to leave for Europe early in 1931 to make final plans for the equipment and staff of the Medical Research Institute as well as to collaborate with Professor Brown in the affairs of the Technical Institute and School.

Technical Institute & Lester School.—Professor W. Brown of the Hongkong University commenced his period of seconded service with the Lester Trust on the 1st September, 1930 and has since continued his investigations with a view to making a detailed report to the Trustees. The changed financial conditions mentioned in connection with the Medical Research Institute made it advisable for the Trustees to revise their original scheme for the Technical Institute and School, and further financial estimates prepared by Professor Brown are now under consideration. Professor Brown's final report and recommendations will be completed during the current year and no definite plans will be made until these have been considered in detail. The thanks of the Lester Trustees are due to the Senate and Council of the Hongkong University for their kindness in permitting Professor Brown to undertake this important investigation on behalf of the Trust. Dr. H. G. Earle will continue to function as General Adviser and Acting Director until a permanent Director is appointed.

Superannuation Fund.—The total of this fund now amounts to £7,303. 4. 6d., against which 5 per cent. British War Stock valued at £ 5,-068.16 3d. has already been allocated; the balance of £2,234. 8. 3d. will be transferred to the special Trust Account during the current year.

Land Commission.

CASE No. 216.

Scheduled Widening of Wayside & Liaoyang Roads, Cadastral Lot 3609. Heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, June 4, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Geo. A. Johnson appears for the claimant, and the Council is represented by Mr. R. Winter, of the Secretariat.

Mr. Johnson states his case as follows:

This case deals with land to be surrendered from Cadastral Lot 3009, Eastern District, the lot having road frontages to the Wayside Road, Thorburn Road and the Liaoyang Road; the land scheduled for surrender is those portions of the frontage on the Wayside and Liaoyang Roads, both these roads being scheduled to become 50 foot road; the lot is at present in course of development with two-storey shops on the three road frontages and two-storey hongs on the interior portion of the lot; I would ask the Land Commissioners to note that two storey premises only are being erected and that 50 foot roads are no use or benefit whatever to the property in question; before any surrender the lot enjoyed a road frontage at the widest of 50 feet and at the narrowest of 30 feet, more than required for two-storey Chinese premises.

Our claim is set forth in our letter to the Council dated the 12th November 1930, (reproduced in the Municipal Gazette of February 27, 1931.) and in that letter we claimed at the rate of Tls. 10,000 per mow, a very reasonable claim as I am sure the Land Commissioners will admit when I state that some time previously my firm sold Cadastral Lot 3618 at Tls. 10,000 per mow, thereby we obtain market rate of land in that vicinity; Cadastral Lot 3618 is on the Ward Road and as the Land Commissioners can see by referring to the plan has an exceedingly poor frontage to the road in comparison with its area, in other words it consists chiefly of what may be called inside land; therefore it must be admitted that our lot, viz:—Cadastral Lot 3609, with its wonderful length of road frontages and comparatively small amount of inside land is of higher value than the lot we sold for Tls. 10,000 per mow. Furthermore in the Council's reply to us dated the 5th December last, they offered to us a small piece of surplus land adjoining our lot at the rate of Tls. 11,000 per mow, which offer we accepted and have already paid at this rate: in that letter the Council points out that this rate, namely Tls. 11,000 per mow, was the rate at which they recently offered to sell us some surplus land on the opposite side of the road, Cadastral Lot 3610; therefore the Council have set the market value of our land at Tls. 11,000 per mow, while we claim at only Tls. 10,000 per mow, which can only be described as most reasonable. With regard to the Council's contention (in their letter of the 5th December last) that our lot has not surrendered any land up till now for road purposes and that it has obtained its frontage by the expenditure of public funds, we must reply that the Wayside Road was put through because it was required by the Public and was and is for the Public's benefit and convenience; if the road was of such great benefit to our lot, it appears odd that the previous Owner and the present Owners, both having ample funds, did not take advantage of the road years ago by developing the lot, and I may add the Wayside Road was put through many years ago. We have no hesitation in asserting that the Wayside Road was undoubtedly put through to obtain direct access to the Wayside Park and therefore purely for the benefit and convenience of the Public who naturally flock to the Wayside Park, it is the only road leading directly to the Wayside Park for the numerous foreign population living round Wayside, Studley Avenue and adjoining roads. It appears to have become a habit with the Council of late to demand from Land Owners a free surrender of land required for road purposes which is against the principles of the Land Regulations and most unfair to Owners who invest money to develop and improve properties and neighbourhoods, and benefit the Public and Council by providing modern houses and paying rates and taxes on such developments.

Replying for the Council, Mr. Winter submits that no better example could be cited than the present case of land having benefited by the expenditure of ratepayers' money. To appreciate the point one would have to go back to 1907. The plan of the site at that time showed that Cadastral Lot 3609 was almost surrounded by creeks which had since been converted into portions of the present Liaoyang, Wayside and Thorburn Roads. These creeks had been filled in at the expense of the ratepayers and as regards Wayside Road the Council had purchased the whole of B.C. Lot 3901, which with the exception of a small strip sold to Messrs. Lester Johnson and Morriss had been used in making the road mentioned. The construction of these thoroughfares had given the owner of Cad. Lot 3609 an unbroken frontage of some 500 feet to Liaoyang and Wayside Roads towards which the owner had not contributed. The principles governing betterment particularly as regards that extending over a number of years had been laid down in Land Commission Case No. 190 (proceedings, recorded in Municipal Gazette of July 5, 1929) and no doubt the Commissioners were familiar with these principles.

Continuing Mr. Winter says that the material facts of this claim are as follows:—Registered Owner:—H. Lester (estate); Area of property:—Mow 8.691; Area scheduled:—Mow 0.660; Owner's claim:—Mow 0.660 at Tls. 10,000 per mow—Tls. 6,600.; Council's claim:—Free surrender; Assessed value:—Tls. 7,500 per mow.

The Council was not asking the owner to give up any frontage and what frontage there is has been given to the owner by the Council. Therefore the owner is not losing in any way. The ratepayers' money had converted this isolated lot into a highly valuable site on which there is being erected more than 60 Chinese shops and about 80 Chinese houses. (This latter statement is challenged by Mr. Johnson who shows that the number of houses is considerably less than 80, but Mr. Winter agreed it is a minor point being a question of construction of the building plans.)

Concluding Mr. Winter submits that this is a case with which the Commissioners should not have been troubled and that he must express the opinion (although he hopes his remarks will not be taken in a personal way) it is an attempt to mulct the ratepayers of further sums, having regard to the fact that this property had been increased in value absolutely through the expenditure of public money. The owners had nothing to lose by coming before the Commission and this appeared to him to be a case of impeding public improvement.

Rejoining Mr. Johnson states that due to the necessity of surrendering the strip of land from cadastral lot 3609, thus reducing the average width of the western portion from over 100' to about 85' the buildings in that portion had to be orientated East and West instead of giving them the normal North and South aspect.

He would like to test the accuracy of the statements made by the Council's representative regarding the filling in of the creeks, as he was under the impression that some of the filling had been done at the expense of the owners. In recent years his firm had been approached on more than one occasion by the Council's representatives who had asked if his firm had any objection to the filling in of certain creeks and had obtained consent to such work. To this last statement Mr. Winter retorts that the filling in of creeks was carried out by the Council; that it was for the benefit of public health and improved the value of contiguous property. Moreover the Council had the power under the bye-laws to enforce such filling in.

The Commissioners do not wish Mr. Winter to discuss the power of the Commissioners to take into consideration the question of increase or decrease in the value of the remainder of the property when determining compensation, as they are fully conversant therewith.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That the registered owners be required to make a free surrender from cadastral lot 3609 of the scheduled strip.

Foochow Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, March 20, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed by our clients, Trustees, Shanghai Parsee Cemetery Trust Fund, to make a claim for compensation for the surrender of land for road purposes from a portion of Cadastral Lot 536, Central; the area to be now surrendered we understand is Mow 0.481.

This portion of the lot (corner of Foochow and Hoopeh Roads) has recently been re-developed with 3 storey modern premises at a cost of Tls. 100,000; we are informed that the gross rentals amount to Tls. 66,000 per annum; deducting 20 per cent. for outgoings and expenses, the net total return per annum is Tls. 52,800; deducting cost of new premises and capitalizing at 7 per cent., the net area of land after surrender of scheduled portion required for road widenings works out at a value of Tls. 256,-000 per mow: our claim is at this rate for the area to be surrendered, namely:—Mow 0.481, making a total sum of Tls. 123,136 as the amount of our claim.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Commissioner of Public Works,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, April 23, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 20 addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works requesting compensation at the rate of Tls. 256,000 per mow for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.481 from Cadastral Lot 536 required for the scheduled widening of Foochow Road.

In reply thereto I am directed to inform you that the Council considers this claim excessive but offers compensation for the scheduled area at the rate of Tls. 110,000 per mow less betterment of Tls. 7,500 per mow on the remaining area of Mow 2.552 immediately to the rear, making a total payment of Tls. 33,770.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Messrs. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Shanghai, May 7, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are in receipt of your letter dated April 23rd, and in reply we are instructed to inform you that the Council's offer of compensation for land surrendered from Cadastral Lot 536, Central, is unacceptable.

We are to point out that last December in a similar surrender from Cadastral Lot 425, Central, the Land Commission awarded compensation at the rate of Tls. 150,-000 per mow.

We are now informed by the Owners that the gross rentals amount to Tls. 58,440 per annum and not Tls. 66,000 which latter figure was formerly given us and on which we based our claim; therefore we wish to amend our claim for compensation, worked out on the same basis as in our former letter, to Taels 107,022.

Yours faithfully,
LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, May 22, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 7, stating that the Council's offer of Tls. 33,770 as compensation for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.481 from Cadastral Lot 536 for the scheduled widening of Foochow Road is unacceptable, and submitting a revised claim of Tls. 107,022 for such surrender.

In reply thereto, I am directed to inform you that the Council is unable to agree to this figure, but makes a final offer of Tls. 38,580, based on a rate of Tls. 120,000 per mow less betterment of Tls. 7,500 per mow on the remaining area of Mow 2.552. In view of the difference between your claim and this slightly increased offer on the part of the Council, which will presumably not be acceptable, arrangements are being made for the reference of the case to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

Messrs. LESTER, JOHNSON & MORRISS.

Broadway East.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, January 20, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We are instructed by our clients, Messrs. David Sassoon & Co., the agents for the registered owners of B.C. Lots 4716, 1600 & 1682, Cad. Lots 45, 46 & 39 to claim on their behalf compensation for the area required from these lots at the rate of Tls. 45,000 per mow.

The area required being Mow 0.597, the amount of our clients' claim is therefore Taels Twenty Six Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty Five. (Tls. 26,865).

Yours faithfully,
DAVIES & BROOKE.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, March 11, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 20 addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works requesting compensation at the rate of Tls. 45,000 per mow for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.597 from Cadastral Lots 45, 46 and 39 required for the scheduled widening of Broadway East.

In reply thereto I am directed to observe in the first place that under the recent reassessment Cadastral Lots 46 and 47 were amalgamated as Cadastral Lot 46 and assessed at Tls. 29,000 per mow, while Cadastral Lots 39 and 45 were amalgamated as Cadastral Lot 39 and assessed at Tls. 28,000 per mow.

For the surrender in question the Council is willing to pay compensation at the above assessed values making a total payment of Tls. 16,898 calculated as follows:—

Cadastral Lot 46, Mow 0.182 at Tls. 29,000 per mow	Tls. 5,278
Cadastral Lot 39, Mow 0.415 at Tls. 28,000 per mow	11,620
	Tls. 16,898

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Messrs. DAVIES & BROOKE.

Shanghai, May 11, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—With reference to your letter of March 11 informing us that you are only prepared to pay compensation on this widening at the assessed values, making a total payment of Tls. 16,898.00, we have to inform you that under no circumstances will we agree to accept less than our original application as stated in our letter of January 20, amounting to Tls. 26,865.00. We can produce figures to show that the return on the property is quite sufficient to prove that the value of the land is at least Tls. 45,000 per mow.

We shall be glad to hear as soon as possible whether you agree to these figures.

Yours faithfully,
DAVIES & BROOKE.

J. M. McKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, May 19, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 11, stating that you are unwilling to accept the Council's offer of Tls. 16,898 as compensation for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.597 from Cadastral Lots 39 and 46, required for the scheduled widening of Broadway East.

In reply thereto, I am directed to make you a final offer of compensation for this surrender at the rate of Tls. 35,000 per mow, making a total payment of Tls. 20,895. Failing your acceptance of this figure, the case will be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

MESSRS. DAVIES & BROOKE.

Yours faithfully,

Road Extensions and Wideningas.

Canton Road.—With reference to the correspondence with Messrs. E. D. Sassoon & Co., Ltd., published in the "Municipal Gazette" on December 5, 1930, regarding the surrender of an area of Mow 0.064 from Cadastral Lot 551 for the scheduled widening of Canton Road, negotiations have been concluded with Messrs. Palmer & Turner for the surrender of the scheduled area at the assessed value of the lot, Tls. 80,000 per mow, making a sum of Tls. 5,120. The case has, therefore, been withdrawn from the Land Commission.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, July 1, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Yah Ching, the Secretary General, and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Publicity Committee.—Relative to the discussion at the last meeting, a member states that he adheres to his view that the institution of a Publicity Bureau as recommended by the Committee is unnecessary and that in the interests of economy he is unable to support this proposal.

Members generally however record the following views:—That little has been done by the Council to give effect to its undertaking to the Ratepayers that additional publicity on municipal activities will be given; that the present system of giving publicity on such matters is inadequate and is in such a form as to cause misunderstanding, particularly on the part of the Chinese Ratepayers; that the form in which publicity is given is unattractive, for which reason information furnished to the press is in many instances disregarded; that in order to supply information on municipal matters in an attractive form the services of an official possessing high journalistic qualifications and who can be relied upon to exercise the utmost discretion in the selection of municipal information for dissemination to the public is essential; that the personality and status of this official must be such as to command the confidence of the Council and the Heads of senior departments; that there is no employee in the service possessing the required qualifications, whose services would be available for this post, and that it is essential that the official appointed should be responsible direct to the Council through the Secretary General.

For the reasons above given, it is decided by a majority of members to adopt the proposals put forward by the Publicity Committee, as also that submitted by its Japanese member that a Japanese Press Officer be appointed.

A member states that since the last Council meeting he has discussed this question with certain other members who agree with him that in the interests of economy the Committee's proposals should not be adopted. They are, however, prepared to abstain from voting on this question in order that the Council's decision may be given effect for a trial period in order that it may be ascertained whether the results achieved by the institution of a Press Bureau are commensurate with the cost involved.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of June 23 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of June 24 are submitted and confirmed.

Secondary School for Chinese Girls—Staff.—A member states that at a special meeting held yesterday the Board recommended the appointment of two Chinese ladies to the posts of Headmistress and Senior Assistant Mistress respectively. As the engagement of these ladies is a matter of urgency, he requests the Council's approval of this recommendation at to-day's meeting.

After brief discussion, this recommendation is approved.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Finance Committee of June 26 are submitted and confirmed.

Committee Membership. — A recommendation by the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations that qualified women members be elected to serve on all Municipal Committees and specifically upon the Health, Education, Library and Orchestra Committees and upon the Board of Film Censors is submitted.

As lady members are already serving on the Education Board and the Board of Film Censors, it is decided that this organization be invited to nominate a lady member to the Health, Library and Orchestra Committees.

The meeting terminates at 7.15 p.m.

At the meeting of the Library Committee held on Tuesday, June 23, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Dr. H. Chatley, Chairman, Messrs. F. H. Barry, W. J. Dexter, Y. W. Wong, the Librarian, the Deputy Treasurer and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Library Hours.—The Chairman expresses the opinion that it might be desirable to change the hours during which the library is open to the public, to allow of books being changed during the tiffin hour. The present hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., and 2.30 p.m. to 7 p.m., Sunday excepted.

Replying to the Chairman, the Librarian states that there is no specially busy period, except perhaps a short time after tiffin. If the Library is open during the tiffin hour some adjustment would be necessary, as the three members of the Chinese staff are accustomed to go home for tiffin.

After some discussion it is recommended that the Library and the Reading Room be kept open during the tiffin hour, without change in the closing hours (7 p.m., and 8 p.m., respectively).

Membership Cards.—With a view to controlling the use of the Library and the Subscribers' Reading Room, it is recommended that membership cards, available for the periods determined by subscription or otherwise, be issued to all persons entitled to use the Library, who would be required to produce them on demand; and that notices thereon be posted at the entrance of the book stores and Subscribers' Reading Room.

Access to Books and Subscribers' Reading Room.—It is recommended that a low barrier be erected in the Public Reading Room, enclosing the entrances to the book stores and the Subscribers' Reading Room, fitted with a swing door and a catch and bearing the notice "Subscribers Only."

Subscribers' Reading Room—Furniture.—A member states that the chairs, etc., are in bad condition. It is accordingly recommended that they be repaired.

The meeting terminates at 5.15 p.m.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, June 23, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, T. Funatsu, K. H. Ling, F. J. Raven, the Treasurer & Controller, the Commissioner of Public Works, and Mr. A. B. Lang (for Secretary).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Provision of Additional Public Parks.—The Commissioner of Public Works states that although it has been laid down that the Northern District should take precedence in the matter of the provision of additional public parks it is most difficult to secure land for this purpose in this District. It is however possible to secure areas at relatively favourable rates in the Eastern District, a district which it may be anticipated will in the future be intensely developed for industrial purposes. With regard to the provision of sites for the schools required under the Council's new education policy, as to the location of which he states that no definite plans have been framed, he suggests that decision as to this would be facilitated if a sectional map of the Settlement was prepared for the assistance of the Education Board, whereafter enquiries could be made whether sites were available in the sections in which it was indicated that School buildings are required. The Commissioner of Public Works also suggests that it might be possible to acquire sites for such purposes and to erect a school on a portion of these sites, in which case the area of the playing space for the schools could be curtailed and the park made use of for recreation purposes. Replying to the Treasurer & Controller he states that it might be possible to earmark certain areas of surplus land for this purpose but that in this respect it is not unlikely that certain of these will have to be utilized in giving effect to the recommendations which it may be anticipated will be put forward by the Hospitals Commission.

He therefore suggests that he be permitted to give further preliminary consideration to the general question of the provision of additional parks in conjunction with that of land requirements for other Municipal purposes.

Members adopt this proposal and with respect to the priority of districts, as it may be possible to arrange for the retention as a permanent open space of the Fu Yun Tang cemetery, it is recommended that enquiries be made forthwith as to the possibility of acquiring a suitable site for a Park in the Eastern District.

Land Commission—Membership.—A reply to the letter forwarded to the Land Commission inviting an expression of their view on the proposal put forward by the Chinese Ratepayers' Association that Chinese members be elected to the Commission has been received favouring the election of one Chinese Commissioner by the Chinese Ratepayers.

It is noted that the Chinese members recommend the appointment of two Chinese Land Commissioners, one to be elected by the Chinese Ratepayers and one by the Chinese Land Owners.

Members take the view that the election of two Chinese Commissioners is reasonable since it is to be presumed that these respectively would endeavour to safeguard the interests of the Chinese Ratepayers and the Chinese Land Owners.

It is realized that an increase in the membership of the Land Commission is ultra vires the terms of the Land Regulations. It is however recommended that the Council should endeavour by a special arrangement to secure permission for two Chinese members to be elected thereto.

The Commissioner of Public Works points out that difficulties may arise in cases in which application is made to the various Courts for enforcement of the awards of the Land Commission if such awards are signed by more than the authorized number of Commissioners. Furthermore it may be necessary to secure the permission of interested parties to abide by the terms of an award signed by a majority of members of the Commission.

In appreciating the difficulties which may confront the Council in its endeavour to meet the wishes of the Chinese community to secure Chinese representation on the Land Commission it is recommended that the means by which this might be effected be referred to the Secretary General for his views.

The meeting terminates at 5.35 p.m.

At the meeting of the Education Board held on Wednesday, June 24, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Rev. G. W. Sheppard, Chairman, Mr. A. D. Bell, Mrs. N. Leslie, Dr. H. C. E. Liu, Mr. K. H. Ling, Mr. T. Murakami, Dr. Y. H. Ou, Dr. H. Gordon-Thompson, Mr. L. T. Yuan, the Treasurer & Controller, the Superintendent of Education, and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Pupils' Tuition Fees.—In a report, submitted, the Superintendent of Education recommends, with the concurrence of the Treasurer & Controller, that the tuition fees to be charged at the Secondary School for Chinese Girls should be based on those in force at three of the Municipal Chinese Secondary Schools for Boys, i.e. $40 per term.

It is noted that the Council's policy is to aim at recovering from this source one-third of the expenditure involved in the maintenance of its educational establishments and that recently tentative proposals have been made with a view to increasing the existing scale of fees at all Municipal Chinese Schools.

After considerable discussion, and in view of the fact that the building which will be utilized temporarily for the accommodation of this School will not be so well equipped and that structurally it is inferior to the secondary schools housed in permanent premises, it is recommended that a fee of $35 per term be charged to pupils attending this School, while it is housed in temporary premises.

Junior School for Boys—Tifeng Road.—With a view to again bringing to the attention of the Council the unsuitability of the accommodation provided for this School, and in the interests of the health of the pupils, a member suggests that this School should not re-open for the Autumn term until a week or so after the other Municipal Schools commence to function. It is pointed out that these huts provide little shelter against the heat and as usually the hot weather does not abate until after the first week in September it is considered it would be in the interests of the pupils to postpone the re-opening of the School as proposed.

Members concur and authorize the Superintendent of Education, in his discretion, to adopt this proposal or alternatively to arrange to eliminate the afternoon session for the first week or two if this School should be re-opened on due date.

The meeting terminates at 6.35 p.m.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Friday, June 26, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present: — Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, G. W. Sheppard, Z. C. Zing, the Commissioner of Public Health, the Treasurer & Controller, the Secretary General and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Collection of Municipal Rate—Alleged discriminatory treatment.—A letter from the Chinese Ratepayers' Association alleging discriminatory treatment as between the Chinese and foreign communities in the method adopted for the collection of General Municipal Rate is submitted. To remove the grounds for complaint it is suggested that a notification be issued periodically in the Chinese and foreign press, in accordance with a draft submitted, and also that the Council should reply to the Association advising it that such Notifications will be issued and stating that the Council has again impressed on its Collectors the necessity for tact and courtesy in the discharge of their duties.

The Commissioner of Revenue states that the foot-note formerly printed on the Foreign Rate Demand note to the effect that the rate must be paid within fourteen days of presentation, has been removed, and that the charge of discrimination in the method of collection cannot be sustained. The Collectors are periodically warned of the necessity of exercising tact in the discharge of their duties and the number of complaints received against them in this respect is extremely small. Moreover in all cases ratepayers are, if necessary, granted a certain period of grace in which to pay the Municipal Rate should it not be convenient for them to pay when the demand note is first presented.

After discussion, it is recommended that a notification on the lines submitted be published forthwith and thereafter periodically prior to and for a short period after the commencement of each quarter and that a reply be forwarded to the Association in the sense recommended.

The Commissioner of Revenue undertakes to arrange to his collecting staff the instructions laid down for the proper discharge of their duties.

Licence Fee for Hotels and Taverns.—Protests from the Chinese Ratepayers' Association and the Shanghai Hotel Owners' Association against the increased fees for Hotel and Tavern licences are submitted. The Commissioner of Revenue states that there would appear to be some misunderstanding as to the establishments affected by these increased fees and also as to the amount of the increase imposed in individual cases. With a view to avoiding hardship, the licensees of those establishments subject to the larger increases were invited to call at the Revenue Office to discuss the new scale in order that an equitable figure might be arrived at mutually acceptable to the Council and to the licensee.

As this revised scale of fees was authorized by the Ratepayers at the last annual meeting, it is realized that it cannot be modified without their sanction. After discussion, it is recommended that a reply be made in the sense of the remarks contained in the concluding paragraph of the report submitted by the Commissioner of Revenue.

Reformatory. — In a letter, submitted, the Chinese members of Council, for the reasons outlined, recommend that the Council take the lead in founding an Institution in the nature of a Reformatory wherein vocational training would be given to mendicants, etc. Such an Institution, it is submitted, would tend to prevent persons thus provided for from drifting into the criminal classes.

Having regard to the views expressed by the Heads of Departments concerned, and as, in any case, the Council has no power to commit persons to such an Institution, the Chairman is strongly of the view that if an Institution were established by the Council it would merely result in attracting beggars, etc., from neighbouring territory, and, by its maintenance, throw an additional burden on the Settlement Ratepayers which could not be justified. Whilst adhering to his previously expressed opinion that the most appropriate way of dealing with this question would be by subsidizing existing Institutions in Chinese territory, he states that he is unable to support this proposal unless the co-operation, financially and otherwise, of the French Municipal and neighbouring Chinese Authorities was forthcoming.

Members concur in the above views as also in that expressed by the Vice-Chairman and the Treasurer that the magnitude of the Council's contemplated expenditure precludes it from embarking on a scheme which would entail an additional heavy charge on the Budget.

A member expresses the hope that the Council, before definitely negativing this proposal, will consider the possibility of securing the co-operation of the neighbouring authorities in the institution of such an establishment. His proposal is adopted that the Secretary General should consult with Dr. J. C. H. Wu as to the Council's powers of committing persons to such an Institution and with a view to the latter endeavouring to ascertain whether the Greater Shanghai Municipal Authorities would be willing to co-operate with the Council in this matter. Chinese members will also direct enquiries to this end.

Public Parks.—A member refers to the recommendation recorded by the Works Committee at its last meeting that the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to negotiate for the purchase of two areas, one in the Western and one in the Eastern District, for conversion to public parks, at a total cost not exceeding Tls. 1,300,000.

After brief discussion, the above recommendation is unanimously endorsed.

The meeting terminates at 5.30 p.m.

Land Commission.

CASE NO. 217.

Scheduled Widening of Point Road, Cadastral Lot 1483, Heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, June 18, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. F. A. Reiber appears as registered owner to state his own case. The Council is represented by Mr. R. Winter of the Secretariat.

Mr. Reiber says he has little to add to the statements made in support of his claim in the correspondence which Mr. Fittkau had with the Council. This correspondence was reproduced in the "Municipal Gazette" of March 20, 1931. Apparently the Council's offer was based on the 1930 assessed value of Tls. 6,000 which assessment was made in 1929, and he contended there is no property obtainable now in that locality at anything like the assessed value. He submits a statement showing that the actual cost, plus interest of the land works out at Tls. 9,086 per mow, and offers to produce evidence proving this statement to be correct. A fortnight after he had bought the property some 15 months ago, a broker had offered to purchase it at the rate of Tls. 10,000 per mow and at that time there was a lot of undeveloped property in the neighbourhood which in the meantime had been built on. He would with confidence leave it to the commission to determine whether or not there had been a considerable rise in land values in that locality, his own idea being that his property was worth about Tls. 12,000 per mow now.

Replying Mr. Winter says he cannot contest many of Mr. Reiber's statements, but in one important point he was wrong. The 1930 assessed value is Tls. 4,500 not Tls. 6,000 as asserted by Mr. Reiber. For convenient reference he also quotes the following material particulars in connection with the claim, namely:—

Registered Owner:—Mr. F. A. Reiber; Area of Property:—Mow 3.760; Area scheduled:—Mow 0.187; Owner's claim:—Mow 0.187 at Tls. 12,000 per mow—Tls. 2,244; Council's offer:—Mow 0.187 at Tls. 6,000 per mow—Tls. 1,122.

Continuing Mr. Winter says that there is no question of loss to the owner and the Council is not advancing any claim to betterment. It was he believed customary to award compensation for surrendered land on the basis of the assessed value plus 25 per cent. In the present case the Council's offer represented an increment of 33⅓ per cent over the assessed value. The Chairman of the Commission interrupts to say that the commission is not aware of any established custom by which compensation is awarded on the basis mentioned by Mr. Winter. The latter replies that he refers to recent awards in cases similar to the present one.

Rejoining Mr. Reiber admits his error in overstating the assessed value, but maintains that assessed values cannot be taken as a fair criterion. He says that he can easily bring proof to show that the market value of land in that locality was double the last assessed value. He does not know whether or not a case which he wishes to mention is admissible but desires to say that about a year and a half ago the Council's opinion as to the price of land in that vicinity was in his knowledge the reverse of that enunciated by it now. At that time the Council offered a piece of land in the vicinity at a price of Tls. 14,000 per mow.

Mr. Winter follows with the remark that the Council's offer to claimant is based on the fact that no frontage is being taken away, he adds that in some cases land had been expropriated by the Council for public purposes without any compensation at all being paid to the owners.

The Commissioners announced that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD (CASE NO. 217)

That compensation be paid at the rate of Tls. 8,000 per mow, for the scheduled area of .187 mow, making a payment to the registered owner of Tls. 1,496.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, July 7, 1931, at 4.30 p.m. there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, T. Funatsu, K. H. Ling, F. J. Raven, L. T. Yuan, The Commissioner of Public Works, the Chinese Assistant Secretary, and Mr. M. A. Browne (for Secretary).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Central Police Station—Protest by American Club.—A letter from the President of the American Club petitioning against the erection of the new Central Police Station on Cad. Lot 174 on the ground that the provision of quarters thereon will prove detrimental to the Club premises is submitted. The Commissioner of Public Works states that a similar letter of protest has been received from Messrs. E. D. Sassoon & Co. the owners of Cadastral Lots 100-A, 100-B and 99.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that as Cad. Lot 174 was purchased specifically for the erection of a new Central Police Station he is unable to recommend any change in the scheme already approved. It would appear that these protests are based on the fact that living quarters are to be provided in this building for a considerable number of men which is designed to a height of seven storeys. Between a portion of the West Side of the building and the boundary of the American Club there will, however, be a compound 50 feet in depth and to meet the views of the management of the Club it may be possible to screen off the portion of the building utilized as living quarters.

After discussion and in appreciating that the development of this property will result in a loss of the amenities which have been enjoyed by the Club for a number of years members are of the opinion that if this property were to be developed by private interests it is most unlikely that a building of a less height than that planned by the Council would be erected thereon. In the absence therefore of more cogent reasons being adduced for abandonment of the building programme contemplated by the Council members are unable to recommend that the request of the American Club Authorities be acceded to.

Squatters Huts.—Various letters protesting on behalf of the hut dwellers in the Yangtszepoo District against the alleged proposal to demolish these huts, together with comment by the Commissioners of Public Health and Public Works and a memorandum by the Chinese Assistant Secretary, are submitted.

The Commissioner of Public Works states that the erection of these unauthorized dwellings has engaged the Council's attention since 1926 and it would appear that the letters recently received refer to a number of huts which have been removed to enable the filling in of low-lying and insanitary land in the Eastern District. The majority of the occupants of these huts are labourers and the main reason for the erection of these is the lack of cheap housing accommodation and the occupants' inability to pay even a low rental.

He has discussed this question with representatives of the hut dwellers; he has also conferred with the Chinese Assistant Secretary thereon. As in his opinion the immediate demolition of the numerous huts in the various parts of the Settlement is impracticable, he considers that the Council should aim at their gradual reduction and that in any case steps should be taken to prevent the number increasing. From his conversations with representatives of the hut dwellers he has reason to believe that their co-operation could be secured to this end. The Chinese Assistant Secretary confirms this opinion.

The Commissioner of Public Works therefore suggests that in order to prevent any increase in the number of these huts registration should be effected and an arrangement entered into with the representatives of the hut dwellers that no further huts will be erected and that the number of those already existing will be reduced by an annual percentage to be agreed upon.

After further discussion members recommend adoption of the proposal put forward by the Commissioner of Public Works.

The meeting terminates at 5.35 p.m.

Public Health Report for June.

The month of June has been a reasonably healthy one, and there is nothing unusual to record concerning the death rates, the foreign being 14.77 and the Chinese 14.83.

Communicable Diseases. — Typhoid and Paratyphoid fevers are still moderately prevalent, 11 cases being notified amongst resident foreigners and 47 amongst the Chinese. There were a few cases of Bacillary and Amoebic Dysentery, but these diseases apparently were not very prevalent. Smallpox accounted for five cases amongst the foreign population, three of which occurred in one family. Eleven Chinese resident deaths occurred. Cerebrospinal Fever—Although this disease has diminished considerably, a number of cases were noted: 23 deaths occurred amongst resident Chinese and there was one foreign death. Tuberculosis accounted for its usual number of deaths. Measles appears to have been prevalent amongst the resident Chinese causing 43 deaths. Three cases of Malaria in the foreign population occurred, and in addition thirty imported military recurring cases were notified. One fatal case of Anthrax and one of Encephalitis Lethargica were notified.

The registration of Medical Practitioners, Dentists and Veterinary Surgeons is progressing, and it is hoped that the official Register will be published soon. The applications of 388 Medical Practitioners, 58 Dentists and 10 Veterinary Surgeons have been approved for registration.

General—Shanghai is by no means a place where precautions against the heat need be neglected. The summers, having been shorter and perhaps less trying during the past few years, it would seem that some of the hot weather precautions are no longer observed, as cases of heatstroke and its various clinical manifestations of sunstroke, heat exhaustion and heat apoplexy have been reported.

Laboratory.—This has continued to be very active, and the preparation of vaccine has been greater than ever before in the history of the Department. Free issues of vaccine were supplied to various institutions. In addition, routine work has gradually become heavier with the approach of summer, although since Cholera has not yet made its appearance, the peak of routine examinations has not yet been reached.

A mosquito survey is in progress with a view to ascertaining the localities in which Anopheline larvae are most prevalent. This has become necessary owing to the increasing number of cases of Malaria within the town.

Examinations of raw milk for Tuberculosis Bacilli have been carried out and should prove of great value in detecting unsuspected cases of bovine Tuberculosis.

Pasteur Treatment.—86 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including 14 from Outports, called for advice, cauterisation and/or treatment. There were no fatalities amongst the treated cases.

Two cases of Rabies occurred during the month, but neither of these cases had received Anti-Rabic treatment.

Hospitals.—The Isolation Hospitals remained quiet, although in the Chinese Isolation Hospital there were a number of somewhat severe cases of Smallpox.

The Police Hospitals were comparatively quiet. There were two curious cases of Meningitis not due to Meningococci, in one case, infection was due to Anthrax Bacilli, and the other showed a heavy Staphylococcal infection.

Anti-Cholera Campaign.—This has been undertaken by the Hospitals Division staff in co-operation with the Sanitation Division. 32,135 free inoculations were carried out.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division.—The usual activity in regard to the dairies continued. A number of prosecutions were necessary, and improvements were undertaken by the dairy keepers.

Slaughterhouse.—The existing premises are entirely inadequate for the "kill," but several minor improvements have been made this month.

Work on the temporary Disposal plant is in progress, and completion is expected shortly.

Private Pig Slaughterhouses—From the number of animals killed on special occasions, such as the Dragon Boat Festival, it would seem that the consumption is increasing rapidly. The hanging space within these establishments is insufficient, rendering the work of inspection extremely difficult. A second quality stamp has been introduced for these slaughterhouses, with a view to dealing with the quality of animals on the border line.

The Veterinary Surgeon reports various improvements in the dairies and slaughterhouses which are being undertaken more particularly for the detection of Tuberculosis amongst the animals.

Sanitation Division.—Considerable work has been done with regard to anti-mosquito precautions, and numerous mosquito fish have been placed in various ponds. Stocks transferred were 11,400 local minnow, 350 Paradise fish and 510 Henli minnows.

During the month an Anti-Cholera Parade took place, in which all three Municipalities participated. Although the parading was carried out almost entirely by boy scouts and girl guides, a good deal of preliminary work was performed by the Sanitation Division in co-operation with the other Municipalities.

Considerable experimental work has been performed in regard to the best method of destroying insects and larvae.

The Swimming Pool in the early part of the month was somewhat sparsely patronized, owing to cool and inclement weather. This was soon made up when the heat set in. 15,741 bathers attended.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases, Clinics and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Commissioner of Public Health.

Of the 17 tap samples, 11 contained no coliform organisms in 120 cc quantities, the other six had 10, 36, 36, 70, 25 and 2900 per litre respectively. Organisms of the B. coli group (B. aerogenes) were present to the extent of 10 and 2900 per litre.

CASE NO. 211.

With reference to the Award in Land Commission Case No. 211 concerning Myburgh Road widening, Cadastral Lot 312, published in the "Municipal Gazette" of May 29, 1931, it should be noted that Mr. J. T. W. Brooke did not sit as one of the Commissioners, and that his name was appended to the Award in error.

CASE NO. 219.

Scheduled Widening of Hankow Road, Cadastral Lot 255, heard in the Council Chamber on Monday, June 22, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Johnson appears for the registered owners, Messrs. Lester Johnson and Morriss. The Council is represented by Mr. Winter of the Secretariat.

Mr. Johnson states his case in the following terms:—

This case is a claim for land which has been surrendered from Cadastral Lot 255, for the widening of the Hankow Road; our claim for compensation is set forth in our letter to the Commission of Public Works dated the 15th April last, and in that letter we stated that as the area to be surrendered is small being only two li and in order to expedite and help a settlement and without prejudice to any future claims or creating a precedent to any future claims from other lots we were instructed to accept compensation at the new assessed value of Tls. 90,000 per mow making our claim a sum of Tls. 1,800—Thus we hoped to obtain an amicable settlement with the Municipal Council and avoid reference to the Land Commission.

This offer was refused by the Council and a counter-claim for a free surrender was made by the Council on the score that as the road had been scheduled to a width of 40 feet the Owner of Cadastral Lot 255 was enabled to erect 4-storey buildings.

With regard to this point I have to draw attention to the fact that the Hankow Road before the surrender was a width of 27 ft. 3 in. (27 ft. 4 in. at one end and 27 ft. 2 in. at the other end) in front of our lot and that a 3-storey building could have been erected without any surrender of land; that the widening of the road has been carried out through the Owner of this lot sacrificing a portion of his very valuable land and that any Owner can erect a 4-5 or 6 storey building on a road 27 ft. 3 in. wide and still retain all his land by the simple process of setting back at various floors after the 3rd floor. Therefore the Owner gives valuable land to the Public, and moreover is forced against his wishes to give up his land, and there can be no doubt that any benefit this Owner obtains by a 40 feet road is greatly outweighed by the benefit the Public receive in enjoying greater and speedier traffic facilities. For this the Council should pay and I claim that the Owner has paid for whatever benefit he has received through his 4-storey building in lieu of a 3-storey building by agreeing to accept compensation at the new assessed value instead of claiming at the market value, the great difference between these two values being his payment.

To prove that the widening of the Hankow Road has been carried out for the benefit of the Public, I have only to point out that during the "Rush" hours when proceeding to or going back from offices the Hankow Road is and has been for some considerable time a "one-way" road thereby giving the public better and speedier traffic facilities, and I am informed the whole of the Council staff who live in the Western District invariably use the Hankow Road. The public undoubtedly obtain the greatest benefit through the widening of Hankow Road and Owners of land on this road when they actually surrender and lose portions of their land for the public benefit should be suitably compensated.

Replying for the Council, Mr. Winter recites the following formal facts in connection with the case, namely, Registered owner: Messrs. Johnson & Morris; Area of property: Mow 0.650; Area scheduled: Mow .020; Owners claim: At rate of Tls. 90,000 per mow=Tls. 1,800; The Council asks for free surrender; Assessed value: Taels 90,000 a mow.

Continuing, Mr. Winter says that in 1894 when the road was 21 ft. 9 in. wide it was scheduled to a width of 30 ft.; in 1914 the first excision of 5 ft. 8 in. for the purpose of this widening was made from the opposite side of the road, and only a strip 2 ft. 8 in. wide was being taken now from the owner of Cadastral lot 255 for the immediate widening to 30 feet. In 1921 the road was again scheduled to a width of 40 feet, the whole of this increase being taken from the opposite side of the road; so that the owner of cadastral lot 255 had only contributed a strip 2 ft. 9in. to the two widenings. When the present owner acquired the lot in 1928, he of course was well aware of the scheduling to 40 feet. He points out that had the road remained at a width of 27ft. 3in., (actual width in front of the property at present) the owner could not have built to a greater height than 41 feet whereas with a 40 feet width he could build up to 60 feet although he had elected to build only up to 52 ft. 6 in.

He cites the case of cadastral lot 177 (Land Commission Case 207) which was heard by the Commission on November 20, 1930, and contends that the general conditions in that case were similar to those obtaining in the present case and points out that in the former the Commissioners' award required a surrender of the scheduled area without compensation. He submits that the Commissioners should have no hesitation in coming to the same decision in this case.

Mr. Sparke asks whether any compensation was paid in the 1914 surrender and Mr. Winter replies that a sum of Tls. 4,681 was paid for an area of .168 mow. He adds that of course housing and traffic conditions were different in those days.

Rejoining Mr. Johnson wishes again to emphasize that the road widening under discussion was for the benefit of the Public and traffic, and stresses the fact that the owner of the cadastral lot had only built to a height of 52 ft. 6 in. which was, he submitted, conclusive evidence that the proposed road widening would not invest the owner with any particular benefit. He maintains that if an owner has land taken away from him through compulsory surrender he was entitled to compensation for the loss of his land and reminds the Commissioners that compensation is being claimed only at the assessed value.

Mr. Winter concludes by saying that the owner can increase the height of his building to 60 feet if he elects to do so.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

*Attempted.

The total reported crime for the month shows an increase of 23 cases as compared with the figures for last month and an increase of 351 cases over the reports for the corresponding period of last year. Investigation was refused in 11 cases of a very trifling nature, 46 were found on enquiry not to be criminal cases and seven were discovered to be false reports. Petty thefts are again responsible for the increase. Decreases are recorded in "A" and "D" Divisions and increases in "B" and "C" Divisions. The decrease in serious crime has been maintained, 22 fewer cases of robbery being recorded. Increases in total crime are recorded of 38 cases in "B" Division and 20 in "C" Division. "A" and "D" Divisions show decreases of 25 and nine respectively. Burglary reports again show a decrease, eight fewer cases being recorded. The arrest of a "cat" burglar in "B" Division was probably responsible for the decrease of six in that Division. With the advent of the hot weather petty thefts are always prevalent, chiefly due to householders leaving doors or windows open, pilfering from drying stages and other exposed places by beggars and ragpickers, and to thefts of clothing, etc., by servants.

1,418 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 104 for offences committed previously and 47 for other Authorities, a total decrease of 131 over the number recorded last month.

Murder.—One case of murder occurred during the month when a Sikh police constable was shot dead by armed robbers in Yangtszepoo District. Six arrests have been made in this case.

Attempted Murder.—One case was reported in which a pistol was fired by loafers at a Chinese youth on Chengtu Road because he had accidentally soiled the clothing of his assailant in passing and thereby caused an argument resulting in two shots being fired at him, both of which missed the youth.

Armed Kidnapping.—An attempt was made to kidnap a Chinese while walking on Morrison Road but was unsuccessful owing to the good fight put up by the intended victim.

Abduction.—Of the eight cases of simple abduction reported five were successfully concluded and 11 arrests were made. One of the cases, after investigation, proved not to be a criminal case. An alleged attempt was brought to the notice of the Police which, on investigation, was considered to be very doubtful and exaggerated by the nervous condition of the complainant.

Armed Robberies.—20 were reported, a decrease of 17 cases. "A" Division records a decrease of one, "B" Division four, "C" Division three and "D" Division nine. The Divisional Detective Office, "D" Division, attributes the decrease of nine in his Division to the arrest of a gang of 10 criminals at Yangtszepoo who were responsible for many serious crimes.

Other Robberies.—There was a decrease of five cases under this heading and of the total of 11, investigations proved that two were false reports and two not criminal matters. Two complainants were charged and convicted, one for making a false report and one for carrying opium.

Members of Criminal Gang.—Four gangs were arrested during the month and 15 arrests were made, charges of Armed Robbery, Murder, Attempted Murder, Armed Highway Robbery and Attempted Armed Kidnapping being preferred.

Housebreaking, Office and Shopbreaking.—The number recorded was the same as last month. None of these cases calls for special comment, but it is interesting to note that 11 cases of office breaking occurred in the Central District and this is receiving special attention.

Burglary.—A decrease of 8 cases is recorded, there being 48 cases as compared with 56 registered in May. 31 persons were arrested in connection with these crimes. One "Cat" burglar was arrested in the Western District and convicted of six cases of this nature.

Thefts.—Cases under this heading show an increase of 31 cases as compared with those recorded in May, the figures being 762 and 731 respectively. Three false reports were received and 28 were found after investigation not to be criminal cases. A total of 383 arrests was made in connection with this class of crime. 45 unattended bicycles were stolen, 10 persons being arrested in connection therewith.

Of 378 reports in "B" and "D" Divisions the following details recorded are of interest:—

Cases due to open doors and windows	116
Cases due to property being left unattended	90
By Employees	56
Pocket Picking	25
Thefts from motor-cars	16
Thefts from drying stages	11
Thefts from ships	2
Shoplifting	4
Discovered on arrest by police	16
Reported but found not to be criminal cases	17

221 arrests were effected in connection with these cases.

Three thefts are recorded of express letters by a postman, who, when arrested, admitted the offences and confessed he had lost the money in a gambling house.

Snatching.—65 cases were reported in this class of crime in "A" and "B" Divisions respectively —an increase of 24 cases— while "C" and "D" Divisions show decreases, 42 arrests were made during the month. Divisional Detective Officer "C" Division reports the lowest number of cases for 18 months while Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division reports 26 arrests in his Division.

Opium Offences.—165 reports are recorded as the result of police action in which 425 arrests took place. The Headquarters Narcotic Section made 19 raids and arrested 105 persons. 1,648 ozs. of opium were seized in addition to other ingredients for the manufacture of pills at 16A Burkill Road and 306 ozs. of opium pills at 17 Kiukiang Road. 67 pipes and other paraphernalia were seized and confiscated. The Superintendent in charge of Crime Branch Headquarters reports that 37 of the 105 persons arrested by his staff were ex-convicts and the Divisional Detective Officer, "D" Division, points out that 31 per cent of "known" persons arrested in his Division were taken in opium raids. This information is significant from a police point of view and proves the connection between opium and minor crime in addition to the established connection of the drug with gang and serious crime.

Gambling Offences.—Only 21 cases occurred during the month, an increase of three over last month. All were of a trifling nature and call for no special comment. Attempts were made in various districts to establish Hua Hui gambling by an organized syndicate, but these were quickly broken up by the police. Several cases involving the loss of property valued at $7,265.00 were recorded in which gambling was the cause of the crime.

Other Crimes.—As compared with last month there were 13 more reports recorded and 110 more than for the corresponding period of last year. Reports under this heading included: Misappropriation 11, Fraud 29, Embezzlement 9, Extortion 14, False Pretences 10, Assault 68, sending threatening letters 17 and many other miscellaneous cases. Two cases are recorded in which persons showing indecent films in Chinese Hotels were arrested and convicted. The increases under this heading as also under Thefts, as compared with the corresponding period of last year, are undoubtedly due to the continued increase in transient visitors to the Settlement, better methods of travel from the surrounding districts, increase in population and development of building sites in various parts of the Settlement. It is unlikely that they will decrease as in most cases they are beyond the control of the police.

Notable work in "B" Division included (1) the arrest of four men about to commit an armed robbery on Ferry Road and their ultimate conviction of four cases of armed robbery; (2) the arrest and conviction of a burglar on seven charges of burglary and shop-breaking; (3) the arrest and conviction of a wanted "cat" burglar on six charges of that nature. Notable work in "D" Division included the arrest of 10 persons who were charged with crimes of Murder, Attempted Murder, Armed Robbery, Highway Robbery and Armed Kidnapping in Yangtszepoo District.

35 criminal cases occurred on Municipal Roads or in buildings abutting thereon, an increase of 18 cases as compared with those recorded last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 27 special cases including Armed Robbery, Armed Kidnapping, Murder, Attempted Murder and threatening letters and effected the arrest of five persons. In addition enquiries were continued in nine serious cases previously reported.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $129,393 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, a decrease of $44,876 as compared with last month. Property valued at $40,156 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau. — The total number of records dealt with was 2,933. As compared with the figures recorded for last month this shows a decrease of 301 and an increase of 1,607 in comparison with the corresponding month of last year. In addition 2,041 gaol cards were received and checked. Investigations were made into 44 cases and latent prints were secured in 13 instances. Evidence was give in Court in one case. Of 17 dead bodies finger printed and photographed at the Mortuary one was identified by finger prints and one by photograph. 77 records of foreigners were received and 44 identified as having previous convictions.

Studio.—392 photographs were taken and 844 copies were printed during the month.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the Staff of this Section visited 608 Boarding houses, 30 Bars, Restaurants, Taverns, Cafes and Theatres. Six new applications were dealt with.

Story-tellers.—During the month of June two police story-tellers visited teashops, etc. and lectured on precautionary measures against crime to audiences totalling approximately 2,834 persons.

Suicides.—Twenty-one Chinese were reported as having committed suicide during the month and six others attempted to do so.

Communism.—The outstanding event of the month in the campaign against communism was the discovery in the Settlement of the headquarters for the Far East of the offices of the Pan Pacific Trade Union Secretariat and Oriental Bureau, the seizure of the archives of these organizations and the arrest of the man by whom their activities have been directed for a year or more. The Pan-Pacific Trade Union Secretariat and Oriental Bureau, which were directed from Berlin, seem to have been endeavouring by the organization and exploitation of labourers and peasants to bring about Soviet revolutions in China, Japan, Korea, Formosa, the Philippine Islands, Straits Settlements and Federated Malay States.

Fourteen Chinese were prosecuted during the month for communistic activities. Of these four were extradited to the Chinese Authorities and five were handed over to the French Police. One was acquitted while the cases against the remaining four were still pending at the end of the month. The action resulting in these prosecutions included raids on four different places where evidence was discovered showing that they were used as bases for the dissemination of communistic literature. Other searches at two houses, whose inmates had absconded, resulted in the seizure of 3,843 copies of communist books, pamphlets, handbills and other documents. The bulk of these were in Chinese but others were written in the French and Annamite languages.

New Communist leaflets which came into the hands of the Police during the month were of 57 different kinds. These leaflets dealt chiefly with the Shameen Incident of 1925 and the ceding of Formosa to Japan while others gave exaggerated accounts of incidents involving differences between Chinese and foreigners. Others condemned the Kuomintang and made special mention of the arrest and execution of Shang Chung-fa. The latter, who was the leader of the communist party in China, was arrested in the French Concession on June 22 and executed in Chinese territory the following day.

Forty-two of the 106 persons arrested in the Chen Chi Benevolent

Association, 366 Yunnan Road, on April 27, 1931, and subsequently extradited to the Chinese authorities, were released on June 12 from the Military Gaol, Soochow. After being liberated the prisoners were each given $10. Two men, by whom this money was paid, described themselves as representatives of the Kiangsu Provincial Committee of the Communist Party and promised to give the ex-prisoners employment in connection with communist activities in the Ferry Road, Yangtszepoo, Woosung and Pootung areas.

An attempt on a small scale to demonstrate on the occasion of the 6th anniversary of the Shameen Incident was made at 7.25 p.m. June 23 when some 50 persons of the student class gathered in the vicinity of the Kawamura Clock tower, corner of Robison and Ferry Roads, where they disseminated communistic handbills and shouted slogans. The arrival of a party of police and the arrest of one of the demonstrators rapidly brought these activities to an end.

Some 20 persons who tried to start a similar demonstration the same day in Tatung Road, Chapei, were quickly dispersed. As they escaped they threw away literature advocating the suppression of capitalists, imperialists, yellow labour unions and the Kuomintang.

Strikes. — During the month under review there were four strikes in the Settlement. These affected 141 employees of four different concerns and resulted in a loss of 75 working days. The strikers comprised 110 cotton mill workers, six shoemakers and 25 carpenters. The firms affected were the Dong Shing Cotton Mill (Japanese), N.W.K. No. 3 Mill (Japanese), Takima & Co. (Japanese) and Dah Tsong Hwa Dock (Chinese).

One strike occurred in Chinese controlled territory effecting 80 workers of the Tin Foil Department of the Pootung B.A.T. Old Factory and resulted in a loss of 1,520 working days. Owing to this strike 3,000 other workers of the concern affected were rendered idle.

The strike of about 1,700 bookbinders which started on May 31 and ended on June 8 affected the whole of Shanghai including the Settlement area.

The statistics for the month under review are as follows:—

Area	No. of Strikes	No. of working Hands.	No. of days lost
Settlement	4	141	75
Chinese controlled territory	1	80	1,520
All three areas	1	1,700	8,300
Total	6	1,921	9,895
Total for corresponding month of 1930	13	12,046	77,376

Political.—During the month seven newsvendors were arrested by the Municipal Police for offering for sale copies of the "Shanghai Min Pao" and the "Movement Daily News" anti-Government organs. Of these six were sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from 20 days to 3½ months, while the case against the remaining one had not concluded at the end of the month.

Of three Chinese who were arrested in May on a charge of selling the "Shanghai Min Pao," one was sentenced to three months imprisonment and the other two were on remand at the end of the month.

The "Shanghai Min Pao" which came into existence on April 23, 1931 as the successor to "Citizens Self-Judgment" an anti-Government organ, again changed its title to "Min Sung Evening Newspaper." The "Movement Daily News" which contains anti-Chiang Kai-shek propaganda, first made its appearance in the Settlement on June 17.

Printed sheets in the form of Manifestoes purporting to emanate from the Association of Revolutionary Comrades of Kwangtung and Kwangsi and of a violent anti-Chiang Kai-shek nature, were delivered by post to the Municipal police on June 9.

On June 22, acting on the authority of a Shanghai Special District Court warrant issued at the request of the Public Safety Bureau, the Municipal Police searched the Ching Yuin Book Store, 117 Foochow Road, and seized 58 copies of a publication known as the "School Critic" which is alleged to be reactionary. The books were handed to the Chinese authorities on June 25 by order of the Shanghai Special District Court.

In compliance with an order from the Administrative Yuan and the National Opium Suppression Committee of the National Government, the Detection Corps of the Opium Suppression Bureau for the five Provinces established an office on June 23 at 81 Arsenal Road under the directorship of one Li Moo Tsing. Another office known as the Head Office of the Detection Corps of the Shanghai Municipality was opened simultaneously at the same address. The latter office, of which one Feng Wen Yu is in control, intends to open branches in various parts of Shanghai to assist in the detection of opium smuggling and to employ a staff of about 500 detectives.

The establishment of Opium Suppression Bureau is being opposed, on the ground that such offices usually conduct the sale of opium openly and practise extortion, by the local Kuomintang which has appealed to labour unions and other organizations for support in a campaign for their suppression.

One hundred and twenty-three labour unions are reported to have issued a manifesto protesting against the formation of the Opium Suppression Bureau in Shanghai.

In accordance with an instruction from the Ministry of Industry, the work of the Trade Mark Registration Office, 100 Peking Road, will in future be undertaken by the Ministry of Industry at Nanking.

Officers of the Social Bureau and Public Safety Bureau took measures during the month to enforce the new system of weights and measures in Chinese territory. They visited markets and trade centres destroying all old weights and measures which they found. The Chinese Ratepayers' Association in the French Concession has also issued an appeal to all stall holders in markets and hawkers in the Concession to adopt the new system.

Rice.—The average price of rice for the month of June 1931 was as follows:—

Chinese Rice:
Best quality	$14.26
Good quality	13.32
Ordinary quality	12.40
Saigon Rice:
Best quality	12.66
Good quality	11.86
Ordinary quality	11.08

Film Censorship.—54 ordinary films and 12 "shorts" or introductory films were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. Of these four were subject to cuts and revision before being approved by the Police Censors for public exhibition locally. In one instance an appeal made against the ruling of the Police to the Joint Boards of Film Censors resulted in final condemnation of the pictures. In response to the advice that all cinema films approved prior to June 30, 1930, be re-censored 43 ordinary feature films and four shorts were submitted for re-censoring during the month.

Traffic. — Court proceedings were instituted in 58 (61 foreigners and 527 Chinese) of 3,626 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Accidents. — Accidents coming under police notice during the months of June 1931 and June 1930:—

Eyesight Test. — Besides the usual eyesight tests of all applicants for driving licences, 73 chauffeurs already in possession of licences were re-tested during the month and found to be fit.

Traffic Signal Lights installed at Kiangse-Hankow Roads crossing and the Bund-Avenue Edward VII junction were put into operation on the 1st and 18th of the month respectively.

Identification Office.—During the month 1,406 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 438 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. Report of the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham, C.M.G.

Council's thanks to South African Government and Mr. Feetham.—The Council has forwarded the following letters of thanks to the Prime Minister of the Government of the Union of South Africa and to the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham, C.M.G.:—

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, July 3, 1931.

YOUR EXCELLENCY,—Upon completion of the investigation made by the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham, C.M.G., into matters fundamentally affecting the future of the International Settlement at Shanghai, and upon his departure on return to South Africa, I have the honour to convey to you and to the Government of the Union of South Africa an expression of the Council's appreciation of the action of your Government in placing the services of the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham at its disposal.

The courtesy of your Government in sparing Mr. Justice Feetham has been of inestimable advantage to the Council and Community of this International Settlement, which is made manifest in the fullest degree by the Report which is the produce of his labours, Volumes I and II of which have now been published.

In the opinion of the Council, the work done by the Hon. Mr. Justice Feetham is of outstanding merit, and he has discharged the complicated task entrusted to him in a most comprehensive and efficient manner, thus making an invaluable contribution towards the solution of the many intricate problems upon which the future of the International Settlement at Shanghai depends.

I have the honour to be,
Your Excellency,
Your obedient servant,
E. B. MACNAGHTEN,
Chairman.

His Excellency General the Hon.
J. B. M. HERTZOG,
Prime Minister,
Government of the Union of South Africa.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, July 20, 1931.

SIR,—Upon the completion of the monumental task which you so kindly undertook on behalf of the Shanghai Municipal Council, and which you have performed with such outstanding ability and success, I have the honour to convey to you not only the Council's profound thanks and appreciation but also to express to you its great admiration of the extremely comprehensive and efficient manner in which you have discharged a most complicated and difficult task involving much painstaking labour and research.

Your Report is not only a superlative contribution to the efforts to solve the many intricate problems inseparably connected with the future of the International Settlement of Shanghai which has received the highest praise from many sections of public opinion, but will always rank as a classic exposition of certain extremely interesting and important factors in Sino-Foreign relations.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
E. B. MACNAGHTEN,
Chairman.

The Hon. Mr. JUSTICE RICHARD FEETHAM, C.M.G.

Land Commission.

Liangchow Road.—In terms of the following correspondence it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, May 29, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—Replying to your letter of the 27th instant, in re Liangchow Road Extension, U.S. Lot 2019, Cad. Lot 6450, Eastern, I beg to state that my client has recently been offered Tls. 12,000 per mow for the land in question. He is therefore of the opinion that compensation at the rate of Tls. 10,000 per mow for the area Mow 0.510 would be fair.

Yours very truly,
J. B. DAVIES.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, June 22, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of May 29, addressed to the Public Works Department, requesting compensation at the rate of Tls. 10,000 per mow for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.510 from Cadastral Lot 6450, required for the scheduled extension of Liangchow Road.

In reply thereto, I have to inform you that the Council is unwilling to pay compensation at this rate, since the assessed value is only Tls. 6,300 per mow and the betterment accruing to the lot by this extension will be considerable. I have accordingly to state that the Council is willing to pay compensation at Tls. 8,000 per mow less one-half betterment, making a total payment of Tls. 2,040 for the scheduled area.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

J. B. DAVIES, Esq.,

Shanghai, July 7, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 22, 1931, with reference to Cad. Lot 6450, and have referred the same to the owner of the property. He is unwilling to accept the offer made, as he feels that he is entitled to compensation at the rate of Tls. 8,000 per mow, without any deduction for betterment.

Yours very truly,
J. B. DAVIES.

C. HARPUR, Esq.,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, July 10, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 7, addressed to the Public Works Department, stating that your client is unwilling to accept the Council's offer of Tls. 2,040 as compensation for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.510 from Cadastral Lot 6450, required for the scheduled extension of Liangchow Road, and claims compensation at Tls. 8,000 per mow without deduction for betterment, making Tls. 4,080 for the area to be surrendered.

In view of the wide disparity between these figures, I have to inform you that the case will be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. MCKEE,
Acting Secretary.

Factory Laws.

Official Statement by Council.—The following official statement was issued by the Municipal Council on August 1:—

The Shanghai Municipal Council supports the principle of industrial regulation but, in view of the fact that the Factory Laws promulgated by the National Government are of an extremely far reaching character, and that a long time must necessarily elapse before the standards at which they aim can be attained, is of the opinion that the first steps toward industrial regulations should be confined to some regulation of such matters as:—

Length of the working day and night.

Age of admission of young persons to industry.

Rest days and holidays.

Compensation for injury arising from employment and for proved and specified industrial disease.

Bonus.

Record Keeping.

Discussion Machinery between Employers and their own employees.

Apprenticeship regulations.

Health and safety features.

Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd.

Mr. Z. U. Kwauk has accepted the invitation of the Council to serve on the Commission which is to investigate and report on the administration of the Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd.

The Commission consists of the members of the Public Utilities Committee, Mr. Kwauk and Mr. Nicholas S. Hill, Jr., of New York.

Mr. Hill is expected to arrive in Shanghai on September 1.

Volunteer Corps.

Long Service Medals.—The undermentioned have been awarded Long Service Medals and Bars from July 22:—

Medals.—Lieut. F. W. Schlobohm, Lieut. G. M. Neal, Lieut. P. A. da Costa, Lieut. A. S. Braga, B.Q.M.S. J. A. Cheeseman, Sergt. C. F. Taylor, Cpl. T. G. D'Oliveira, Piper W. M. McLennan, Private C. M. Sequeira, and Private J. E. Gray.

Bars.—Capt. T. W. R. Wilson, 2nd Bar; Sergt. E. McIntyre, 1st Bar; Corpl. E. M. Carrion, 1st Bar; Gnr. F. P. Bartley, 1st Bar; Pte. W. Smith, 1st & 2nd Bar; Pte. P. G. Tate, 1st Bar; Pte. B. G. Wilson, 2nd Bar; and Tpr. H. G. F. Robinson, 1st Bar.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, July 21, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell, Chairman, A. J. Hughes, K. H. Ling, F. J. Raven, L. T. Yuan, the Treasurer & Controller, the Commissioner of Public Works, and Mr. A. B. Lang, (for Secretary).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Extraordinary Expenditure, Roads— Land.—In a report submitted the Treasurer & Controller draws attention to the fact that the expenditure on road widenings and extensions for the first half of the current year amounts to Tls. 1,095,902 leaving a balance on that date of Tls. 704,094 for the remainder of the year. In view of the Council's heavy capital commitments in other respects he urges that road improvements which are not of paramount importance be deferred.

Replying to the Chairman, the Commissioner of Public Works states that the bulk of the expenditure incurred on road improvements is necessitated through the redevelopment of properties mainly in the Central District where the highest land values obtain. Unless advantage is taken of such redevelopment to secure land for road purposes, the Council's programme would be blocked for a number of years.

After discussion, members record the view that if it is possible to defer any such negotiations during the current year without prejudicing the general programme of road improvements this course should be adopted, it being realized however that adoption of this policy is necessarily contingent upon the extent of the re-development of private properties.

Taxation of Unregistered Land.—A letter from the Chinese Ratepayers' Association, supporting the request of two Chinese land owners that the payment of land tax on two areas of unregistered land be discontinued, is submitted.

In one case it is noted that in 1928 the owner agreed to pay land tax on his holding in consideration of the purchase from the Council at a reduced price of an adjoining strip which provided access to Moulmein Road. A formal agreement was accordingly executed and land tax on this area has been paid since 1928.

In view of this members recommend that the owner be required to adhere to the terms of this agreement.

In respect of the other case referred to by the Chinese Ratepayers' Association this owner agreed by letter to pay land tax on his holding upon the Council agreeing to pay the appropriate assessed value plus 10 per cent. for the surrender of an area therefrom for road widening purposes. As no formal agreement exists in this case, it is recommended that should the owner not be prepared to abide by his undertaking to pay land tax the transaction for the purchase of the road area be cancelled.

The meeting terminates at 5.35 p.m.

At the meeting of the Traffic Committee held on Friday, July 24, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. N. S. Brown, D. S. Chen, K. Kuroda, O. Okamoto, G. W. Sheppard, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Commissioner of Police, the Commissioner of Revenue and the Acting Secretary.

Election of Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Chen, Mr. G. W. Sheppard is re-elected Chairman of the Committee.

The Minutes of the last two meetings are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

General Traffic Problems.—A letter from the Automobile Club of China on the subject of traffic questions generally, with departmental comment thereon, is submitted. The various points raised by the Club are considered seriatim and the following recommendations and expressions of view are recorded:—

Ricshas.—In connection with the complaint made by the Club as to the obstruction caused to other road users by public and private ricshas, the Commissioner of Police states that with the recent institution of police motor cycle patrols it is anticipated that it will be possible to exercise a more effective control over these vehicles. Members agree that adoption of the one-way traffic system for this type of vehicle is impracticable, as is also a further reduction in the number of licences issued therefor as advocated by the Commissioner of Police.

Parking of Cars.—To ameliorate the conditions complained of by the Club, the Commissioner of Police undertakes to direct that special attention be paid to the parking of cars, particularly with a view to restricting their parking on both sides of narrow thoroughfares or in close proximity to road intersections.

Drivers.—The Commissioner of Police states that he is unable to agree with the Club that the number of incompetent native drivers is increasing as in his opinion the system adopted for the testing and licensing of such drivers is sufficiently severe to prevent the issue of licences to incompetent persons.

Omnibuses.—Members agree that some ground exists for the complaint that omnibus drivers fail to comply with the regulation requiring them to draw up close to the kerb when taking up or setting down passengers. The Commissioner of Police is requested to ensure compliance with this regulation so far as possible.

Signals.—The Committee is unable to endorse the proposal put forward by the Club that additional yellow or warning lights be brought into use at road crossings. Adoption of this proposal, which has been the subject of previous consideration, would in members' view tend to lead to confusion and accidents.

Traffic pointsmen.—With regard to the comment of the Club that these employees do not realize that their duties are to aid in expediting the movement of traffic, the Commissioner of Police states that all possible steps are taken to instruct them as to their functions. One difficulty however is that these pointsmen are not themselves able to drive a car; they, therefore, naturally fail to appreciate the difficulties experienced by car drivers in the event of the system of traffic control not being maintained on a high standard. Further, the number of trained pointsmen who have to be withdrawn from duty to give evidence at hearings of traffic offences results at times in less experienced men being called upon temporarily to undertake pointsmen's duties.

Great Western Road.—The Commissioner of Police states that there are only two Chinese constables on duty on the section of Great Western Road from Edinburgh Road to the Columbia Country Club, not three as stated by the Automobile Club, and that their primary duties are not concerned with traffic. He is, therefore, unable to support the Club's proposal that their services should be availed of to control man-hauled vehicles along this section of road.

Tramcars.—The Tram route extension on Route Say Zoong referred to by the Club is located in the French Concession and the Commissioner of Public Works states that there is no intention to extend it to connect up with a Settlement tramway route.

Warning Posts at Road Intersections. — With regard to the Club's proposal that the number of warning posts at intersections of extra-settlement Roads should be increased, the Commissioner of Public Works states that these are only erected on roads intersecting Chungsan Road. In his opinion the erection of these posts at road crossings which are comparatively little used would tend to diminish the significance of these signs. He would in fact prefer that the existing warning posts be removed since they were primarily erected as a temporary measure for the period during which Chungsan Road was in course of construction.

It is recommended that it be left to the discretion of the Commissioners of Public Works and Police as to the retention or removal of these warning notices.

In conclusion, members concur with the Commissioner of Police that the proposals put forward by the Automobile Club are primarily in the interests of motor car owners and drivers, a relatively small section of the community, and that adoption of the majority of such proposals would be subversive of the interests of other road users. In this connection it is noted that the revenue derived from non-mechanical vehicles exceeds that obtained from mechanical vehicles, a factor which in the Committee's view should be brought to the Automobile Club's attention.

It is accordingly recommended that the Club be informed that their proposals have been carefully considered and that, in respect of its observations on traffic conditions on Bubbling Well Road, it is anticipated that completion of the widenings of Peking and Avenue Roads and the extension of Chengtu Road will furnish an alternative satisfactory route for motor traffic from the Central to the Western District.

With regard to a suggestion that steps be taken to eliminate handcarts, the Commissioner of Police states that the Council's legislation is framed to discourage the use of man-propelled freight vehicles.

In this respect it is recommended that the licence fee for handcarts be slightly increased in the 1932 Schedule of Licence Fees in order to discourage the use of these vehicles.

Parking of Cars opposite the Foreign Y.M.C.A.—A request by the Secretary of the Foreign Y.M.C.A. that additional parking facilities be provided opposite this building is considered. The Commissioner of Public Works submits a plan shewing the provision of additional bays for the parking of seven cars, to which he states the Police Department has no objection. He adds that personally he would prefer to abolish the existing bays and provide a wider footpath for the benefit of pedestrians. In this respect he refers to the negotiations which have already been conducted with the Race Club Stewards for the culverting of the Creek alongside the grass track. He suggests as an alternative to the proposals already made by the Council, which did not secure the acquiescence of the Race Club Stewards, that it might be proposed that the Creek be set back and any resulting loss of width to the grass track be taken from the mud track. This proposal, however, would require the approval of the Recreation Fund Trustees. In his opinion one of the disadvantages of providing additional parking bays at this point is the fact that these would serve buildings on the opposite side of the road, hence a certain amount of congestion is caused by motor vehicles having to cross and recross at this point.

The Commissioner of Police states that a number of motor cars belonging to residents of the foreign Y.M.C.A. remain parked on the roadway throughout the night. This, in his opinion, throws an unfair burden on the police in ensuring that such vehicles are not stolen.

After discussion and although appreciating that the provision of additional parking facilities will deprive pedestrians of foot-path space, it is recommended that additional bays opposite this building be provided in accordance with the plan submitted, subject to compliance with the stipulation proposed by the Commissioner of Police.

The meeting terminates at 5.20 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, July 29, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. G. W. Sheppard, Vice-Chairman, A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, A. J. Hughes, O. Okamoto, O. S. Lieu, F. J. Raven, L. T. Yuan, Yu Yah Ching, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Secretary General, and the Acting Secretary.

Dr. J. C. H. Wu attends.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Retirement of Observatory Director—Rev. Père Froc.—The Chairman's proposal is adopted that a reception be arranged about the middle of August for the purpose of presenting the Rev. Père Froc with a memento of his long association with the Council.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Watch Committee of July 17 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of July 21 are submitted and confirmed.

Taxation of Unregistered Land.—In view of the considerable area of unregistered land in the Settlement upon which no land tax is paid and having regard to the observations on this question included in the Feetham Report, the Secretary General undertakes to submit a memorandum embodying his suggestions for remedying this anomalous position.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Finance Committee of July 23 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Traffic Committee of July 24 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of July 27 are submitted and confirmed.

Rice Shortage.—A member suggests the advisability of a Committee being formed to consider and devise means for alleviating the suffering caused by the existing shortage in rice. It is to be anticipated that the existing shortage will become more acute with resultant hardship on the poorer classes of the Chinese Community. He suggests that stocks of this commodity could be purchased by the Council and resold without profit or loss; and that such a course would tend to stabilize local prices. Alternatively, the Council might consider hypothecating funds for the relief of distress.

The Chairman recalls that the Council contributed last year to the fund for the purchase of rice. Upon the Chinese members stating that, in their opinion, action by the Council on the lines suggested is not called for at the present time, it is decided to defer consideration of the proposal.

In this connection, it is pointed out that the Council has no Department which can investigate and advise the Council on matters such as this. In many large Western Cities a Department of Public Welfare exists which handles questions concerning the provision of institutions, relief of poverty, etc. The absence of such a Department in the Municipal Service is referred to in Mr. Justice Feetham's report and it is suggested that the institution of such a Department might be worthy of the Council's consideration. A member then suggests that a certain proportion of the Council's income should be definitely allocated to hospitals, schools and other works of beneficence, and that consideration of this proposal should be undertaken in connection with the framing of next year's Budget.

The meeting terminates at 6.35 p.m.

Land Commission.

CASE NO. 221.

Foochow Road Widening—Cadastral Lot 536, Central District, heard in the Council Chamber on Friday, July 31, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. G. A. Johnson appears for the registered owners, the Trustees of the Shanghai Parsee Cemetery. The Council is represented by Mr. R. Winter.

Mr. Johnson states that the owners of this lot are the Trustees of the Shanghai Parsee Cemetery Trust, and the land scheduled for the widening of the Foochow Road is from the North-east portion of the lot which has lately been re-developed with 3-storey shops facing the Foochow and Hoopeh Roads, and two Chinese houses on the remaining inside land. The portion to be surrendered is considerable, measuring in addition to a large circular corner as much as 27 feet 3-inches at the East end and 26 feet 6 inches at the West end. Altogether a total area of 4 fun, 8 li 1 hao has to be surrendered. The widening of the Foochow Road has been so scheduled that the Parsee Cemetery lot has to give up more than twice the width of land than the lot or lots facing on the other side of the road. This he mentions in order to show that the lots opposite equally obtain benefits, if any, of erecting higher buildings owing to the widening of Foochow Road, but contribute towards such widening less than half the amount of land which Cadastral

Lot 536 does. With regard to this, in some localities, the benefit of being able to erect higher buildings on account of wider roads is questionable. Mr. Johnson draws the attention of the Land Commissioners to the fact that before any surrender had taken place from lots on either side of the road the width of the road was 30'9" in front of this corner portion which allows of 4-storey premises being erected without any surrender whatever; 3-storey premises only have just been erected. Furthermore, although the Foochow Road is being widened to 70 feet the Hoopeh Road is not scheduled to be widened at all and there, owing to the Building Rules, a building taking full advantage of the new 70 feet Foochow Road could only extend back from the Foochow Road frontage 80 feet, and would from that point for the remainder of the Hoopeh Road frontage be compelled to remain at the already existing allowable height of 60 feet. In other words, after a depth of 80 feet, from the new Foochow Road frontage the widening of Foochow Road is useless to the lot, and the lot obtains no more benefits than it now possesses. Mr. Johnson stresses this point, as, in one of the Council's letters, betterment to the extent of Tls. 7,500 per mow is claimed over the whole of the remaining area of Mow 2.552, whereas even if betterment were to be allowed, it could not possibly be spread over a greater area than the length of the Foochow Road frontage by 80 feet deep back from that frontage. With regard to the claim, Mr. Johnson states that it is set forth in their letter to the Council dated the 7th May last, in which letter they claim on the basis of the net rentals per annum capitalized at 7 per cent, and allowing for the cost of the new premises the claim worked out at Tls. 222,525 per mow, making for the land to be surrendered, a sum of Tls. 107,022. The Council counter-offered compensation at Tls. 110,000 per mow less betterment at Tls. 7,500 per mow over the whole remaining area, and as already pointed out there is no betterment whatever to any land farther back than 80 feet from the Foochow Road frontage. This offer was naturally refused, and in refusing, they pointed out that in December last, in a similar surrender, namely Cadastral lot 425, Foochow Road, the Land Commission awarded compensation at the rate of Tls. 150,000 per mow. That was in December last, and Mr. Johnson ventures to suggest that land values have risen considerably since then.

He concludes by stating that Cadastral Lot 654, much farther West than Cadastral Lot 536, and not nearly so valuable, was sold in June at the rate of Tls. 152,000 per mow, for the land only, as the premises were practically falling down. Their claim is, therefore, calculated on a moderate basis and the Council's offer is unreasonable.

Mr. Robinson enquires what the length of the whole of Cadastral Lot 536 is, and it is given as approximately 320 feet.

Mr. Johnson adds that he wishes to emphasize that Cadastral Lot 536 is surrendering double as compared with opposite owners.

Mr. Winter states that the Revenue Office has furnished him with the gross rentals of this property as recorded in their books and the total is Tls. 20,000 per annum less than the figures on which Mr. Johnson's claim is based. He produces some of the tax receipts showing the rentals submitted by the tenants, the others not being immediately available.

Mr. Johnson remarks that he received the figures that he submitted from the Chinese lessee of the property.

Mr. Winter then offers to call a representative of the Revenue Office to testify as to the total rentals shown on its books but the Commissioners decide this is unnecessary.

Mr. Winter then proceeds with the Council's case by stating that the claim submitted by Mr. Johnson is misconceived, based as it is on hypothetical rentals. It is not in accordance with the Land Regulations as he has not proved an actual loss. The actual loss is the cutting off from a deep lot, an average of 27 feet. The owners can only erect one row of shops in any case, so that the increased rent possible on a deeper shop bears no comparison with this inflated claim. On the other hand much benefit accrues to the property on the road being widened to more than twice its original width, attracting motor cars and pedestrians and thereby increasing the value of the shops. The modern teashops and hotel on this property have been erected in view of improvements effected at the expense of the ratepayers. The widening to 70 feet makes it possible to build to a much greater height.

Here Mr. Johnson interjects that the buildings erected are only three stories high.

Mr. Winter, resuming, states that he refers to the potentialities of the case, to the height to which the buildings could be erected which the Commissioners must consider. With regard to the rental figures on which the claim is based, he submits that they are either wrong or else the Revenue Department is being deliberately deprived of legitimate revenue.

Mr. Winter then informs the Land Commissioners that in February last Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss surrendered the piece adjoining the widening under discussion, and part of the same cadastral lot, but with a longer frontage, at Tls. 81,000 per mow. In the present case the Council's offer is based on the award in Land Commission Case No. 205 in respect of Cadastral Lot 425 Foochow Road which is approximately 80 feet away from the piece of land at present being considered. The assessed value of Cadastral Lot 425 is Tls. 120,000 per mow and the award in the case was based on Tls. 150,000 per mow. Cadastral Lot 536 is assessed at Tls. 95,000 per mow whereas the Council's offer was at Tls. 120,000 per mow. It should be observed that Cadastral Lot 425 is on the corner of Fokien Road, is nearer town and of a better shape. In the case of Cadastral Lot 425 the Commission deducted betterment at Tls. 10,000 per mow on the remaining area which was 80' deep, whereas the Council in the present case claim a deduction for betterment of only Tls. 7,500 per mow on the remaining area as the depth is about 150 feet.

Mr. H. F. Lewis, of the Public Works Department, called, states that taking the gross rental figures submitted to the Revenue Office by the tenants, making suitable deductions for outgoings and expenses, and allowing for the cost of the new building and capitalizing at 7 per cent gives a valuation of Tls. 135,000 per mow.

Mr. Johnson states that the main point he wishes to stress in this case is that the Council's claim for betterment is not justified, as there is no betterment beyond 80 feet.

Mr. Winter, in reply, refers to Land Commission Case No. 205 again and points out that betterment at the rate of Tls. 10,000 a mow was allowed over the whole depth, whereas in the present case the Council only ask for betterment at the rate of Tls. 7,500 a mow.

The proceedings terminate at 3.32 p.m. The Chairman informs the parties to the hearing before they retire that the award will be announced in due course.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Public Health Report for July.

Vital Statistics.—The foreign death rate for the month was 14.72 and the Chinese death rate 16.21. These figures are low for this time of the year and below the average for the year 1930. It is probable that the weather has resulted in a diminution of what are known as "Summer diseases" with favourable results in the death rates.

Communicable Diseases. — The enteric fevers, namely Typhoid and Paratyphoid accounted for 8 foreign cases and 40 deaths were noted amongst the resident Chinese as probably due to this cause.

The Dysenteries showed a high incidence, but this rise was less than that which normally occurs at this time of the year.

A few cases of Smallpox and Cerebrospinal Fever were noted which occurred amongst the Chinese population exclusively, with the exception of one Indian case of Cerebrospinal Fever.

Tuberculosis continues to feature as a serious cause of illness and death in the foreign and Chinese populations.

Measles caused a number of deaths amongst the Chinese population, with whom it would seem to be a somewhat serious disease.

Malaria as might be expected with the increase of mosquitoes showed a sharp rise, 19 cases being notified during the month.

A case of Poliomyelitis occurred in an American boy of 12 years of age.

Cholera.—8 notifications were received in regard to suspected Settlement cases, only one of which was confirmed. In addition one of the cases admitted to Settlement hospitals from Chinese territory was confirmed bacteriologically in the Municipal Laboratory. Both confirmed cases were evidently Cholera of the ambulatory type, since neither patient was at all seriously ill. This however is quite a frequent occurrence in Cholera, and is noted in most of the text books on the subject.

Two deaths occurred which were regarded as being suspicious though verification was not possible. One of these had just arrived from the country and the other was a non-resident treated in a hospital within the Settlement.

40,740 Anti-Cholera Inoculations were performed this month by the Hospitals Division doctors in co-operation with the Sanitation Division, the total to date being over 88,000.

Medical Registration.—The Register has been translated and is now complete in draft form as a bilingual document. Approximately 500 practitioners are listed.

Laboratory.—In addition to heavy routine work both on vaccination preparation and routine diagnosis, the Laboratory performed 626 examinations relating to Cholera and dysentery.

Mosquito survey work was carried on in the Laboratory in co-operation with the Sanitation Division. Extremely interesting results were obtained inasmuch as the Anopholene type—which may be described as the dangerous mosquito as far as Shanghai is concerned—was found to be increasing in numbers and breeding in areas where hitherto it had not been noted. Steps are being taken to counteract this increase, which represents a very serious problem so far as Malaria is concerned.

A large number of tests were performed on Milks obtained from Grade "B" Dairies within the Settlement with important results, which may necessitate certain administrative action.

A number of cases of Anthrax amongst animals were verified.

Pasteur Treatment.—76 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including 7 from outports—called for advice, cauterisation, and/or treatment. There were no fatalities during the month.

Hospitals Division.—Both Isolation Hospitals had a quiet time during the month and few cases were admitted.

The Police Hospitals were full but the cases were of a mild type.

The Ward Road Gaol Hospital was full as usual, but on the whole the health of the prisoners was good.

In the Amoy Road Gaol a female prisoner created a certain amount of anxiety by going on hunger-strike. Her general health however, did not suffer to any great extent.

The Mental Hospital and Tuberculosis Sanatorium are still completely full.

It has been noted in regard to Cholera Inoculations that there are on an average 2 men inoculated to 1 woman. As however the great majority of Cholera cases occur amongst men, it is not thought necessary to intensify propaganda, more particularly since the last Census shows that these figures approximately represent the proportion of male to female in the Chinese population of the Settlement.

Food, Dairies & Markets Division. —The Veterinary Surgeon's report indicates the necessity for certain revision in regard to Grade "B" Dairies.

A deficiency in the fat content of the milk has been noted in several Dairies as a result of weather conditions, and the Dairies concerned have been informed as to the necessary steps for improving the standard. Licensees have in certain cases been prosecuted for not taking the steps suggested.

It has unfortunately been found necessary to remove the Grade "A" Licence of one of the Dairies.

A number of fines have been inflicted for various breaches of licence conditions.

Rinderpest has appeared in one dairy; it is hoped that the disease may be limited to this Dairy.

One case of Anthrax was detected in a Dairy and the animal duly burnt on waste land.

A number of improved methods of inspecting and cleansing the Slaughterhouses have been introduced by the Veterinary Surgeon.

It is anticipated that when the Eastern Incinerator is completed it will be possible to dispose of diseased carcases very efficiently and at far less cost.

Markets.—Considerable improvement in the revenue from almost all the Markets has occurred during the month. Certain minor improvements are being effected in regard to the Purdon Road and Elgin Road Markets.

Sanitation Division. — Anti-mosquito and Anti-fly measures as is usual, have been intensified during the month.

The anti-fly measures at the dumps have shown extremely satisfactory results, though it is probable that the weather has been of considerable assistance in reducing the number of flies.

The Chinese Cadets attached to this Division spent two days in the Western District obtaining instruction and practical experience in regard to anti-mosquito work.

Open Air Swimming Pool.— Bathers at this Pool during the month amounted to 29,554. The purity of the water has been maintained in a satisfactory fashion, though mainly as a result of overworking the plant. Results are satisfactory in view of the very large attendance.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases, Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Commissioner of Public Health.

Bacteriological Examination.—20 samples were examined during the month, 4 from hydrants and 16 from taps in various parts of the Settlement. No coliform organisms were found in 120 cc of each of the 4 hydrant samples. Of the 16 tap samples, 9 contained no coliform organisms in 120 cc quantities, the remainder had 100, 270, 1450, 190, 21, 21 and 10 respectively. Organisms of the B. coli group were present to the extent of 45, 100, 1270, and 49 per litre. Of these, 1419 were B. aerogenes and the rest were unidentifiable.

Report on Analysis.—Results of analyses show satisfactory purification at mains and a reasonable standard in smaller supplies.

Soochow Road Children's Playground.—Operations connected with the laying out of this additional playground progressed favourably.

General.—13.58 inches of rain was registered during July; the total for the corresponding month last year being 5.43 inches. The continuous rainfall experienced necessitated the closing of playing spaces at Hongkew Park on 25 days during the month.

Owing to the excess of water in the soil, air was excluded from the roots of trees growing on unraised land and respiration was rendered imperfect, with a result that the foliage of many assumed a sickly appearance. This was very evident in the cases of newly planted Ginkgo Biloba and Prunus Cerasus.

On the return of more favourable conditions, dormant buds on many trees began to swell and the growths from these will eventually replace lost branches; some trees, however, are a total loss.

Some species adapted themselves to the excess of moisture more readily than others; among these may be included Populus, Salix, Hibiscus, Cercis, etc.

Open Air Concerts.—Unfavourable weather conditions necessitated the cancelling of ten open air concerts during the month, the number of concerts held being as follows:—

The total reported crime for the month shows a decrease of 72 cases as compared with the figures for last month and an increase of 111 cases over the reports for the corresponding period of last year. On investigation 13 reports proved to be false and 43 were not criminal matters. Decreases are recorded in all Divisions except "C" Division which shows an increase of 38 reports, 23 of which are recorded as a result of police action. "B" Division shows a decrease of 87 reports, a satisfactory feature being the decrease of nine cases of housebreaking and 53 cases of theft. The theft of bicycles has decreased slightly, but carelessness in leaving doors and windows open without protection is still the main cause of the large number of petty larcenies.

1,587 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 75 for offences committed previously and 48 for other Authorities, a total increase of 61 over the number recorded last month.

Murder.—One case of murder occurred during the month in Wayside District when a Chinese female was killed with an axe as a result of jealousy. Efforts are being made to trace the murderer who is known.

Attempted Murder.—Two cases were reported, one in Harbin Road District in which a pistol was fired by an armed man at a police constable who attempted to stop and search him, and the other in which a Chinese boatman stabbed his wife and a man with whom she was cohabiting on his Loat on the Soochow Creek.

Manslaughter.—Six cases of manslaughter were recorded during the month, 5 of which occurred in "D" Division and were all the result of fights and arguments in which the injuries inflicted eventually caused death. The other case occurred in "C" Division in which a chauffeur was charged for negligently driving a motor truck and causing the death of a male child.

Armed Kidnapping.—One case was reported in which a Chinese piece goods merchant was kidnapped in his own motor car on Yulin Road, the car being found abandoned at Woosung.

Abduction.—Of the seven cases of simple abduction reported, six were successfully investigated and 12 arrests were made. In four cases females were abducted, the cause being domestic troubles. Three cases involved the abduction of male children one of whom was restored to his parents.

Armed Robberies.—Twenty were reported, the same as last month. There is a decrease of 18 cases as compared with the corresponding period last year. "A" Division records a decrease of one, "B" Division 3, whilst there is an increase of four cases in "C" Division. "D" Division remains the same as last month. Thirteen arrests were made in connection with the robbery of $16,000 in Louza District.

Other Robberies.—There was a decrease of 3 cases under this heading and of the total of eight, investigation proved that four were false.

Members of a Criminal Gang.—Five gangs were apprehended during the month and 31 arrests were made.

House, Office & Shop-breaking.—There is a decrease of 24 cases in this class of report as compared with last month and six less than for the corresponding period last year. "C" Division records a decrease of 5 and "D" Division 8. A total of 17 arrests were effected.

Burglary.—A decrease of eight cases is recorded, there being 40 cases as compared with 48 registered in June. The arrest of 5 men responsible for 16 burglaries was effected in "B" Division.

Thefts.—Reports under this heading show a decrease of 95 cases as compared with those recorded in June. Seven false reports were received and 24 were found after investigation not to be criminal cases. A total of 384 arrests was made in connection with this class of crime.

Snatching.—There was a decrease of 16 cases as compared with last month. 27 arrests were made during the month. The handbag of a foreign lady was snatched whilst she was walking on Yu Yuen Road.

Opium Offences.—210 reports are recorded, the result of police action, in which 621 arrests took place. On July 17 an attempt was made to run a cargo of 2011 lbs of opium from the river front through the Settlement via Chaoufoong Road. Sikh police on duty in the vicinity refused a bribe of $10.00 offered them by members of the "Opium protection gang" and called on the driver of the lorry carrying the drug to stop. He refused and the police fired on the lorry resulting in the killing of one of the gang, the capture of the driver and the seizure of the above quantity of opium. The driver was sentenced to three and a half years imprisonment and fined $5,000 or an extra year's imprisonment. On July 20 Chinese detectives seized 217 lbs. of opium, a portion of a much larger cargo which an attempt was being made to land at Hunt's Wharf. Three men were convicted, in connection with this case.

Gambling Offences.—Thirty-one cases occurred during the month, an increase of 10 over last month. All were of a trifling nature and call for no special comment.

Other Crimes.—As compared with last month there were 12 more reports received and 45 more than for the corresponding period last year. Reports under this heading include many unpreventable crimes from a police point of view and involve large sums of money obtained by fraud, embezzlement etc.

Notable work by Headquarters Special Crime Branch Squad included (1) the arrest of three foreigners (1 Serb, 1 Swiss and 1 Italian) for uttering counterfeit banknotes of the Bank of Communications and (2) the arrest of three Japanese for being in possession of 139 gas protectors and 144 bottles of liquid gas. Notable work in "A" Division included the arrest of 13 armed robbers who had robbed an exchange bank on Fokien Road and the recovery of a considerable portion of the money stolen. Notable work in

"B" Division included the capture of five burglars who admitted having committed 16 burglaries. Notable work in "C" Division included the arrest of 30 members of four gangs and their conviction for various criminal offences.

Twenty criminal cases occurred on Municipal Roads or in buildings abutting thereon, a decrease of 15 cases as compared with those recorded last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 31 special cases including Armed Robbery, Armed Kidnapping, Murder, Attempted Murder, and Threatening Letters and effected the arrest of 6 persons. In addition enquiries were continued in eight serious cases previously reported.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $267,447 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, an increase of $138,054 as compared with last month. Property valued at $44,438 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records dealt with was 3,237. As compared with the figures recorded for last month this shows an increase of 304 and an increase of 1583 in comparison with the corresponding month of last year. These figures are the highest recorded in any one month since the formation of the Bureau 21 years ago. Of this number 2017 only refer to criminal cases. There were 414 additional criminal records received as compared with the previous month. In addition 2477 gaol cards were received and checked. Investigations were made into 29 cases and latent prints were secured in nine instances. Of 14 dead bodies finger printed and photographed at the Mortuary two were identified by photographs. 88 records of foreigners were received and 49 identified as having previous convictions, an increase of 11 and 5 respectively.

Publicity.—During the month 3,000 copies of a memorandum on crime prevention, assistance to the police, general warnings and offers of rewards for information were issued to the Chinese public and were posted in public places. The contents of these circulars were broadcast by radio by kind permission of Messrs. Sun Sun & Co. Cinema Theatres assisted by showing prepared films of a similar nature whilst two police story-tellers lectured to 3355 persons in teashops etc.

Suicides.—Sixteen Chinese and one foreigner were reported as having committed suicide during the month and nine Chinese attempted to do so.

Communism.—The listing and analysing of the archives of the Pan-Pacific Trade Union Secretariat and other papers and articles found in the various addresses used by Mr. and Mrs. Vandercruyssen alias Mr. and Mrs. Noulens, alias Mr. and Mrs. Motte, alias Mr. and Mrs. Beuret was completed during the month. There were altogether 211 documents and 1081 other books and papers. Of the documents, which were in English, French, German, Russian, Japanese and Chinese, 73 deal principally with "Red" revolutionary activities in China, 18 with similar work in Japan, 4 with Korea, 1 with Formosa, 14 with the Philippine Islands, 14 with Indo-China, 10 with the Straits Settlements and India and 1 with Indonesia. Some of the documents contain details of the amount spent monthly by the organisation and the manner in which it was disbursed. The investigation of the case shows that Mr. and Mrs. Vandercruyssen had seven different aliases, five different residential addresses, the use of eight different Post Office Boxes, the use of four different telegraphic addresses and besides having $50,000 deposited in seven different Chinese banks, were in possession of large sums in cash in foreign currencies. The case against them which is being tried at the Shanghai Special District Court, was on remand at the end of the month.

Efforts by local communists to hold meetings and assemble together for the purpose of shouting slogans during the month proved ineffectual as a result of prompt action taken by the police who succeeded in arresting about a dozen of the would-be demonstrators.

Twenty eight Chinese were prosecuted during the month for having engaged in Communistic activities. Of these 17 were extradited to the Chinese Authorities and two, who were Formosans, were handed over to the Japanese Authorities. The case against the remaining nine had not been concluded at the end of the month.

The action resulting in these prosecutions included raids on ten different places where evidence was discovered showing that they were used as bases for the dissemination of Communistic literature. Other searches at two houses, whose inmates had absconded, resulted in the seizure of approximately 25,000 copies of "Red" books, pamphlets and handbills. A quantity of Communistic literature comprising 24 different kinds was found by the police on North Chengtu Road. The bulk of these seizures was in Chinese, but some were written in Japanese.

New Communistic leaflets which came into the hands of the police during the month were of 76 different kinds. These leaflets deal chiefly with the execution of Shiang Tsoong—fah, victories claimed on behalf of Red Armies and the Wanpaoshan Incident.

Altogether 83,984 copies of Communistic literature were seized during the month.

Of seven persons arrested during a series of raids carried out on Communist bases during May and who were subsequently extradited to the Chinese Authorities, four have been identified as being members of the Committee of the Kiangsu Provincial Government of the Communist Party and one as an active member of a local Communist group.

Strikes.—During the month under review there were six strikes in the Settlement. These affected 221 employees in six different concerns and resulted in a loss of 124 working days. The strikers comprised 17 glass work employees, 11 bathhouse coolies, 9 iron workers, 34 restaurant workers, 20 mill hands and 130 wharf coolies. The firms affected were the Ling Sing Glass Factory (Chinese), Tien Fah Zu Bath House, Say Woo Iron Works (Chinese) Tah Chuen Restaurant (Chinese), Tong Yih Cotton Mill (Japanese) and China Merchants Steam Navigation Co.

The statistics for the month under review are as follow:—

Area	No. of strikes.	No. of hands.	No. of working days lost.

Total for the corresponding month of 1930	13	12,046	77,376

Thirteen silk filatures which suspended operations owing to lack of material, resumed during the month, thus reducing the number of these establishments still idle from 80 to 67. Fifteen thousand silk filature operatives are now working and about 27,000 are still unemployed.

Political.—The seriousness of the general political situation in other parts of the country was reflected locally during the month in an attempt to assassinate Mr. T. V. Soong, the Minister of Finance. The attempt, which was made at the S.N.R. Station at 7.15 a.m. July 23, resulted in Mr. Yu-loo Tang (Mr. T. V. Soong's secretary) and another Chinese being killed, while six sustained wounds. The latter included soldiers, railway police and passengers. Since this outrage, the premises of the North Station have been regularly guarded by military police.

Enforcement of New Standards of Weights and Measures.—In an effort to ensure the general adoption of the new standard weights and measures by July 1, Inspectors of the Shanghai Bureau of Weights and Measures in company with Chinese Police Constables, have since July 11 been visiting shops in the area under the jurisdiction of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai. These officers found that about one-third of the shops had adopted the new system while the remainder were still using the old weights and measures. The latter were compelled to sign an undertaking to adopt the new system before a certain date.

Rice.—The average prices of rice for the month of July are as follow:
Chinese Rice:

Best quality	$14.70
Good quality	13.37
Ordinary quality	12.85

Saigon Rice:

Best quality	12.99
Good quality	12.19

Due to heavy rains, which prevented rice boats from reaching Shanghai, the price of Chinese rice increased considerably during July.

Film Censorship. — Forty-three ordinary films and 21 "shorts" or introductory films were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. Of these, two were subjected to cuts and revision before being approved by the police censors for public exhibition locally. In one instance the picture was rejected by the police censors as unsuitable for local exhibition. This decision was accepted by the owner of the picture without any protest. Twenty-two films which had been approved prior to June 30, 1930 were re-censored during the month.

The vacancies on the Board of film censors created through the resignation of Mrs. Wei Tsung New Hsia and Mr. T. K. Ho were filled during the month by the appointment of Mrs. L. T. Chen and Mr. P. Chu.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 820 (67 foreigners and 753 Chinese) of 4011 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Motor Cycle Patrols.—Motor cycle patrols started functioning on July 16, and have proved very helpful in clearing obstructions and in checking dangerous or other improper use of the roadways. At present they are confined to duty on main thoroughfares during the "rush hour" periods and occasional visits are also made to outlying roads for the purpose of checking speeding or dangerous driving of motor trucks. A good deal of attention has been paid to richsa pullers running abreast and to motor car drivers speeding or running abreast at danger points and bends.

Bicycles.—Bicycles were involved in 189 accidents during the month and in 99 cases the cyclists were known to have been at fault.

During the month, the professional Story-teller visited various districts and gave 72 addresses in teashops, mills etc., on "Safety First" themes. His audiences roughly totalled 4,930 persons.

Fire Brigade's Services.—The appended letter of appreciation of services rendered by the Chief Officer and members of the Fire Brigade during the recent typhoon is published for general information. A similar letter of commendation has been received from the Shanghai Telephone Company:—

Shanghai, August 27, 1931.

DEAR MR. FESSENDEN,—I want to place on record this Company's very real appreciation of the services rendered by the Fire Brigade during the recent typhoon.

On Tuesday evening last we found ourselves faced with a very serious situation at the Riverside Power Station owing to the unprecedented tide levels causing flooding in the turbine room to an extent which put a portion of the plant out of commission, thus threatening the security of supply.

I approached Capt. Dyson and explained the situation to him, whereupon he immediately took effective steps to place pumping plant at our disposal, and indeed personally directed the operations under somewhat trying conditions.

I am sure that it is unnecessary for me to say how greatly I appreciate such timely assistance, and perhaps more especially the spirit in which it was rendered by Capt. Dyson and his staff.

Needless to say this Company will be glad to have advice as to the costs involved with a view to making payment.

Yours very truly
C. S. TAYLOR,
Vice President & General Manager, Shanghai Power Company.

STIRLING FESSENDEN, Esq.,
Secretary General,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

C. S. TAYLOR, Esq.,
Vice President and

Allocation of Municipal Funds.— The Secretary General is requested to consult with the Treasurer & Controller with a view to the latter submitting proposals for the inclusion in the 1932 Budget of a definite sum for the provision of institutions in the interests of the welfare of the Chinese community. Members agree as to the desirability of a definite sum being annually hypothecated for this purpose and clearly shown in the Budget which amount would not be exceeded except in exceptional circumstances.

Flood Refugees.—A report by the Commissioner of Public Health embodying suggestions for measures to be undertaken to cope with any disease which may become prevalent as a result of the influx of a large number of refugees from the flooded areas is submitted. As a preliminary step, the Commissioner of Public Health is authorized to arrange for the recruitment of volunteer workers having nursing experience whose services would be available if and when required.

The Chairman informs members that he was recently present at a meeting which was attended by representatives of the Health Authorities of the Greater Shanghai and French Municipalities and the National Quarantine Service. In order to isolate refugees it is hoped to secure the use of an island on the Pootung side of the Whangpoo River. In the interests of the health of the residents of the Settlement, the Chairman states that he agreed, subject to the Council's approval, to help to defray the cost of erection of huts thereon for the accommodation of these refugees. The undertaking given by the Chairman is confirmed.

It is decided to notify the appropriate authorities that, upon the submission of a statement shewing the charges incurred, the Council is prepared to contribute towards the cost of the scheme for accommodating refugees.

With regard to the formation of one or more "Cordons Sanitaires," which may be arranged in conjunction with the Nanking Authorities, at the Vice-Chairman's suggestion, the Chairman undertakes to draw to the attention of the organizers of the scheme for the accommodation of refugees the advisability of these Cordons Sanitaires being established at such a distance from Shanghai as will ensure that refugees are unable to reach Shanghai by rail or creek and thus elude the inspection which those arriving by river steamers will be required to undergo.

The application by the Chairman of the Collecting Committees of the International Flood Relief Fund to hold a Flag Day on September 12, in aid thereof, is approved.

The meeting terminates at 6.35 p.m.

The Commission now consists of the members of the Public Utilities Committee, Messrs. Z. U. Kwauk, Hsiao Ch'ing Yuing and Nicholas S. Hill, Jr:—

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, September 8, 1931.

SIR,—I have to inform you that in addition to the present Committee engaged in assisting you in the investigation into the administration of the Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd., the Shanghai Realty Owners' Association has appointed Mr. Hsiao Ch'ing Yuing as its representative.

Mr. Hsiao is a Doctor of Science of Harvard, and is a technical officer of the Bureau of Public Works of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai. His address is, care of the Bureau of Public Works, Mao Ka Lung, Nantao, and his telephone number is 62997.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

NICHOLAS S. Hill, Jr., Esq.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Orchestra and Band Committee held on Thursday, September 3, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present, Messrs. A. J. Hughes, Chairman, J. McNeill, Tzu Huang, the Acting Conductor, the Deputy Commissioner of Public Works, the Deputy Treasurer, and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Proposed visit of Japanese Conductor.—A letter from Mr. O. Okamoto relative to a proposal put forward by the Conductor before his departure on long leave that Prince Konoye, one of the foremost Japanese Conductors, should be invited to conduct one or two concerts given by the Municipal Orchestra is considered.

Mr. Okamoto attends and states that Prince Konoye would be prepared to accept such an invitation.

After discussion, the Committee recommends that Prince Konoye be invited to conduct one or two concerts during the forthcoming Winter Season, the dates to be decided upon as soon as definite arrangements have been concluded for the accommodation of the Orchestral Concerts.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Monday, September 7, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. A. D. Bell (Chairman), A. J. Hughes, K. H. Ling, L. T. Yuan, the Commissioner of Public Works, and Mr. A. B. Lang (for Secretary).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Proposed Central Police and Fire Stations—Protest by American Club.—With reference to the minute of the meeting of July 7 a further letter from the President of the American Club forwarding a memorandum on the proposed development of Cad. Lot 174 with departmental comment thereon is submitted.

After careful consideration the opinion is recorded that having regard to the views expressed by the Heads of Departments concerned the further reasons adduced against the proposed development of this lot are insufficient to warrant a departure from the scheme already approved by the Council. Members accordingly adhere to their former recommendation.

A member states that he is informed unofficially that the Club would be prepared to purchase a small strip of land from the Council in order that the open space between the Club and the proposed Police Station building would be wider than as at present planned. For the Committee's information he will enquire whether a formal offer for such purchase will be put forward.

Proposed Shinto Shrine near Hongkew Park.—With reference to the Minute of the meeting of July 21 the Commissioner of Public Works reports that the Japanese Association of Street Unions are unable to purchase the suggested site for this Shrine at anything like its market value. Plans therefor have been submitted and he is informed that the grounds wou'd at all times be open to the public. The group of buildings would form a pleasant architectural feature which would not interfere greatly with the use of the land by the Council. He therefore recommends that this area be leased to the Japanese Association at a rental of Tls. 250 per annum.

After brief discussion it is unanimously recommended that this area be leased to the Japanese Association for a period of 20 years at an annual rental of Tls. 250.

The Commissioner of Public Works undertakes to ascertain precisely what portion of the proposed building will be open to the public.

Squatters' Huts.—A letter from the Secretariat of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai referring to recent action by the Council in regard to certain huts in the Haiphong Road and Yangtszepoo districts and suggesting that the Council should provide proper housing accommodation for the occupants is submitted.

The Commissioner of Public Works reports that of the 2,000 huts in the Haiphong Road District referred to, the majority are situated in Chinese territory. In accordance with the decision already reached by the Council, arrangements are in hand to effect the registration and numbering of all existing huts and the number of these will be gradually reduced. He suggests that a reply be made to the Greater Shanghai Municipality that the Council does not desire to inflict hardship on the occupants of these huts as is evidenced by the arrangements in hand for their registration but that it adheres to its decision to prevent an increase in the number of the huts. He also suggests that it be pointed out to the Greater Shanghai Municipal Authorities that a large number of the huts in the Haiphong Road district are not situated within the Settlement.

After discussion it is recommended that a reply to the above letter be made in the sense suggested by the Commissioner of Public Works.

North Yangtsze Road—Prevention of Smuggling.—The Commissioner of Public Works reports that he has been approached by representatives of the C.M.S.N. Co. and Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. as to whether any measures can be devised to prevent smuggling from the wharves, which is prevalent in the vicinity of the above-said. This road is of little value to the general public on account of the amount of cargo occupying space thereon and it has been suggested that gates might be erected at intervals in order to ensure a more rigid control. Some years ago he prepared a scheme whereunder Whangpoo Road would be extended and North Yangtsze Road would be sold; since that time however a large water main has been laid under the latter road, and the removal of this would present difficulty. To minimise smuggling activities Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. desire to close Yuenfong Road and the China Merchants Steam Navigation Co. desire the closure of Taiping Road; these roads likewise are but little used by the general public.

The Commissioner of Public Works is of opinion that the requests for the closure of these roads and the erection of gates thereon could be acceded to without inconvenience to the public; he considers however that a substantial easement fee should be paid to the Council for this concession.

After discussion and as no decision on this question is called for at the present time it is recommended that the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to obtain more detailed information thereon from the parties interested.

The meeting terminates at 5.45 p.m.

Traffic.

Ranking of Vehicles in the Central District.—In terms of the annexed report by the Commissioner of Police, new measures for the ranking of vehicles—designed to assist the flow of traffic in the Central District—have been recommended by the Police Traffic Branch. These measures have received the approval of the Council and will be enforced with effect from November 1:—

The ranking problem in the Central District has received very careful attention by the Officer in charge, Traffic Branch, and his staff for some considerable time, and as a result of observations which have been taken the only solution would appear to be parking on one side of the road for certain sections of some of the more congested streets.

The main authority governing the ranking of vehicles is Traffic Regulation No. 47 which provides that: "Except on a duly authorised vehicle stand, the ranking or parking on a highway will as a rule be permitted to a reasonable extent and/or for a reasonable time only."

This regulation gives considerable latitude which is liable to abuse by the public and at the same time renders the work of the individual police officers more difficult. In many streets in the business quarter, cars are ranked on the public roads for the whole time during which their owners are in their offices. This practice causes considerable obstruction to through traffic, particularly during the rush hours, and also constitutes a serious danger in the event of an outbreak of fire. To meet the present situation it is proposed to permit ranking on one side of the street only during certain periods, and for this purpose the working day has been divided into two periods, i.e., from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 1 to 6 p.m. It is obviously unfair as a general practice to permit ranking on one particular side of the street during the whole of the business period and I therefore recommend that ranking be permitted on the following roads for the periods specified:—

Hongkong Road between Museum and Szechuen Roads:—
Ranking North side only from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ranking South side only from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Ningpo Road between Szechuen and Kiangse Roads:—
Ranking North side only from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ranking South side only from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Jinkee Road between the Bund and Szechuen Road:—
Ranking North side only from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ranking South side only from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Hankow Road between the Bund and Szechuen Road:—
Ranking North side only from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ranking South side only from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Foochow Road between the Bund and Kiangse Road:—
Ranking North side only from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ranking South side only from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

On the following roads due to the nature of the buildings and business carried on, it is recommended that ranking be permitted on one side only, as indicated below:—

Soochow Road between the Bund and Yuen Ming Yuen Road:—
Ranking on North side only.

Peking Road between the Bund and Szechuen Road:—
Ranking on South side only (This is already in force).

Kiukiang Road between the Bund and Szechuen Road:—
Ranking on South side only (This is already in force).

I have also to recommend that no ranking whatever be permitted between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Hankow Road between Szechuen and Kiangse Roads and on Canton Road between The Bund and Szechuen Road.

As it will take some considerable time for these restrictions to become known to the public I recommend that they be made effective one month from the date on which these recommendations receive the Council's approval.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Health Committee held on Tuesday, September 8, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:-Dr. T. Aweki, Mr. L. C. Chien, Mr. A. J. Hughes, Mr. O. S. Lieu, Dr. E. L. Marsh, Dr. W. S. Parsons, Brig.-Gen. Macnaghten, the Commissioner of Public Health, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Acting Secretary.

Election of Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Dr. Marsh, seconded by Dr. Parsons, Mr. A. J. Hughes is re-elected Chairman of the Committee.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Refugees.—A report by the Commissioner of Public Health relative to the conditions which might arise as a result of the influx of a large number of refugees from the flooded areas in Kiangsu is submitted. As this area of devastation is considerably nearer Shanghai than the Hankow area, he suggests that the arrangements already made by the Council for dealing with this problem should receive further consideration.

Members are informed that at the last meeting of the Council expenditure was authorized for the purpose of assisting the Chinese Authorities to establish a refugee camp on Gough Island. The question now before the Committee is whether or not the provision of these huts should be proceeded with forthwith. One member favours immediate action in order that the necessary accommodation will be available in the event of a sudden influx of a large number of refugees.

The Commissioner of Public Works considers it might be desirable to arrange if possible for employment for these refugees in return for the food and shelter to be provided. Upon a member stating that the administration of this camp will be solely in the hands of the Chinese Authorities, and that the Council's liability is limited to a contribution towards the cost of erecting hutments (which work will be undertaken by the Public Works Department) it is agreed that the question of the employment of refugees is not within the Council's province.

Members concur with the Commissioner of Public Health that, when this camp is established and occupied, the co-operation of the Greater Shanghai Municipal Authorities should be solicited in order to prevent these refugees leaving the Island without authority and entering the Settlement.

After discussion it is unanimously recommended that in conjunction with the Chinese Authorities the work of establishing the refugee camp on Gough Island be put in hand forthwith.

A member then suggests that consideration should be given to the question of the provision of Isolation Hospital accommodation within the Settlement to provide for any serious outbreak of infectious disease which may occur as the result of the number of refugees who are already in or who later may succeed in entering the Settlement. In his opinion, such provision is of primary importance and he suggests that any cost incurred thereby might form a part of the appropriation authorized by the Council.

The Commissioner of Public Health states that it would be a comparatively simple matter to erect huts in the compound of the Isolation Hospital to provide additional accommodation and that, in the event of a serious outbreak, the Police Hospital and possibly the Gaol Hospital both of which are nearing completion would be utilized temporarily. In this event, without using any temporary and perhaps unsuitable accommodation, the Council's accommodation for infectious cases could be extended from about 180 to 700. In this connection, a member states that two summer diseases hospitals within the Settlement have been requested by the Chinese Authorities to remain open for a longer period than usual in order to assist in coping with any serious outbreak of infectious disease.

After discussion, the Committee is unanimous in the view that the question of the provision of additional isolation hospital accommodation should be carefully considered. It is, accordingly, recommended that this question be referred to the Chairman of Council and the Commissioners of Public Health and Public Works to investigate the extent of the existing isolation hospital accommodation and to ascertain what additional accommodation would be available should the need arise.

In a further report submitted, the Commissioner of Public Health reports as to the tentative arrangements which have been made to assist Dr. Wu Lien Teh in the disinfection of discarded clothing which is being collected for refugees from the flooded areas.

The arrangements suggested are approved.

The meeting terminates at 5.50 p.m.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, September 16, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, A. J. Hughes, O. S. Lieu, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Secretary General, and the Acting Secretary.

Dr. John C. H. Wu attends.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Publicity Bureau.—The Chairman states that he has received a nomination from the Japanese members of Council and that one will shortly be forthcoming from the Chinese members for a Japanese and a Chinese Press officer respectively.

Land Commission — Membership. —The Chinese Members undertake to submit their further views on this question at the next meeting.

The Refugee Problem. — The Chairman reports that plans for this camp have been prepared by the Commissioner of Public Works, the estimated cost of which is $100,000. Prior to incurring expenditure exceeding $70,000, the Commissioner of Public Works has been requested to report further to the Council. A letter has been received from Dr. Hou Ki Hu stating that the erection of this camp is not of immediate urgency.

The Chairman further reports that, at the request of the Commissioner of Public Health, the Police Department has been instructed to endeavour to obtain through the Greater Shanghai Municipality advance information as to any impending movement of refugees towards the Shanghai area.

Secretariat — Appointment of Japanese Assistant Secretary.— Replying to the Chairman a member states that members of the Japanese Community strongly feel that the appointment of a Japanese Assistant Secretary is highly desirable on the ground that their's is the largest single foreign community and that hitherto they have been placed at a disadvantage owing to the fact that there is no official who can act as a liaison officer between the Council and the Community. The opinion has been expressed that the Japanese Press Officer to be appointed will not be qualified satisfactorily to fulfil this function. The Japanese community does not ask that this appointment should be made immediately as they realize that the selection of such an official will require the most careful consideration. They are however keenly desirous that this appointment be approved in principle.

After brief discussion, members unanimously concur that the request put forward by the Japanese community is reasonable. The appointment of a Japanese Assistant Secretary in the near future is accordingly authorized.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Orchestra and Band Committee of September 3 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of September 7 are submitted and confirmed.

Proposed Central Police and Fire Stations—Protest by American Club. —The Commissioner of Public Works states that he is preparing a further report for submission to the Committee on the proposal of this Club to purchase a strip of land from the Council to increase the distance between the Club premises and the proposed Central Police Station.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Health Committee of September 8 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of September 10 are submitted and confirmed

Purchase of Rice.—A letter from the Bureau of Social Affairs of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai, requesting that the Council will contribute towards the cost involved by the purchase of rice which is being obtained to alleviate the suffering of the refugees arriving in Shanghai from the flooded areas, is submitted.

The Chairman states that a sum of $20,000 has been returned from the contribution made by the Council last year towards the purchase of rice, and this he suggests be donated to the present fund for the establishment of a granary. This proposal is unanimously approved.

Operation of Factory Laws in the Settlement.—A report by the Commissioner of Police on this subject has been circulated to members.

After brief discussion, the view is recorded that, as presumably the owners of mills, factories, etc., have no objection to their premises being visited by officials of the Bureau of Social Affairs, the Council should offer no objection.

It is accordingly directed that the Commissioner of Police be informed that no action by the Police Department is called for.

The meeting terminates at 7.35 p.m.

Road Extensions and Widenings.

Tsepoo and Kansuh Roads.—The offer of Messrs. Brandt & Rodgers, Ltd., has been accepted, to surrender for a sum of Tls. 5,145 an area of Mow 0.147 from Cadastral Lot 92, required for the scheduled widening of Kansuh Road. An adjoining area of Mow 0.209 from the same lot, required for the scheduled widening of Tsepoo Road, is subject to compulsory free surrender under Clause VI of the Land Regulations.

Public Health Report for August.

Vital Statistics.—The foreign death rate for the month was 17.5 and that of the Chinese 17.70.

Both show an appreciable rise over the previous month but the figures are not unusually high for the season of the year when summer diseases are prevalent.

There were 55 deaths amongst the resident foreign population, of which 34 were Japanese, and 1454 deaths amongst Chinese residents.

Communicable Diseases.—Tuberculosis produced its steady quota of disease and deaths amongst the residents. The difficulty in combating this disease lies in the necessity of improving the general standard of living, a matter which is perhaps beyond the ambit of a Health Department.

Cholera which broke out last month increased slightly during August. 32 cases were recorded as treated in Hospitals situated in the International Settlement. Of these 11 were residents and 21 came from Chinese districts; four of these patients died.

Typhoid and Para-typhoid Fevers showed no appreciable increase. There were four deaths amongst Foreigners and 44 among the Chinese resident population. These diseases seem to have a steady endemic incidence in the town and to have reached a stage where a fresh investigation into the causes of their incidence is desirable.

Dysenteries.—The high incidence recorded last month continued throughout August.

There were two deaths from Smallpox, both resident Chinese, whilst Cerebrospinal Fever accounted for one resident Foreign case and 11 Chinese deaths.

Measles decreased considerably and only 13 Chinese deaths were recorded compared with 41 last month.

Malaria continued to increase. There were 49 resident Foreign cases reported of which 35 were amongst the British Military Forces. In addition to these, there were 56 cases which were considered imported.

A foreign case of Leprosy was notified and is being kept under observation.

Notification of Communicable Diseases.—It is of interest to note that the highly important work of recording Vital Statistics is making decided advances in the Department. In various ways since the year 1929 an increase of over 500 per cent has been noted in the notifications received from Doctors and other sources. Whilst the work of Medical Registration probably accounts for some of this, it should be noted that a great deal of the increase is due to methods of peaceful persuasion on the part of the staff of the department. The statistics which previously were somewhat unsatisfactory (from the point of view of the Health Officer) have by the co-operation of the doctors of all nationalities in the Settlement, been brought to a reasonably high state of efficiency.

Medical Registration. — The Medical Register was published on August 29. It contains 507 names and comprises 22 different nationalities. Its compilation necessitated a considerable amount of labour in view of the necessity for accuracy and cross-checking.

Referring to the system of Registration introduced recently, there would appear to be certain erroneous views abroad, which have even reached the Press, and it therefore seems necessary to publish the main facts concerning this important matter. Compulsory Registration was first proposed by the Public Health Department in 1902 as part of certain Public Health Bye-laws. Unfortunately the Bye-Laws were vetoed, owing, it is to be feared, to opposition from certain vested interests. In 1910 a further attempt was made to introduce this subject but owing to the objections of the Chinese community to Anti-Plague measures, the matter was dropped. In 1923 following the recommendation of the Poisons Commission, the question of Compulsory Registration was again brought up and draft regulations based on Ordinances and Regulations existing in the Straits Settlements and Hongkong, were prepared with the necessary alterations to suit local needs. In 1926, since the difficulties in the way of Compulsory Registration were apparently insurmountable, a voluntary system was evolved. The time since that date has been largely spent in various negotiations, and to some extent in awaiting the decision of the French Municipal Council, who, however, decided to enforce compulsory registration. Hence it will be seen that any apparent dilatoriness was due to matters beyond the control of the Council.

Since the establishment of the Shanghai Medical Board, eleven Meetings have been held of which four were Meetings of special Sub-Committees.

Laboratories. — As is usual, August was a particularly busy month and the number of specimens received for examination was the highest on record.

The manufacturing side of the Laboratory, in addition to supplying the needs of Shanghai, was able to supply the needs of various other Institutions in regard to Cholera Vaccine.

Four positive specimens of Anthrax were verified, thus confirming an interesting observation made by the Veterinary Surgeon that Anthrax is considerably more prevalent in animals than was previously suspected.

With regard to the Milk supply, three specimens of raw milk were examined for Tuberculosis Bacilli and although in each case two Guinea Pigs were inoculated there was no evidence of Tuberculosis.

The Mosquito survey work was continued in co-operation with the Sanitation Division, but the principal work of note related to Cholera and allied intestinal diseases. In regard to Cholera, 177 specimens were examined from 169 patients with 31 positive results. The usual routine Public Health examinations call for no special comment, though particular attention was paid to the testing of Ice Cream.

Pasteur Treatment.—51 persons bitten or licked by dogs called for advice, cauterisation, and/or treatment.

Hospitals Division.—Both Isolation Hospitals were comparatively quiet during the month, chiefly due to the fact that fewer cases of "Summer Diseases" were admitted.

The T. B. Wards were crowded and emergency arrangements had to be made to accommodate a number of male patients.

The Gaol Hospital remains exceedingly full and the need for the new establishment is very much felt. At the same time it is gratifying to note that the health of the prisoners is on the whole very satisfactory, in spite of the fact they are drawn (as in other countries) from the more diseased portion of the population.

Anti-Cholera Campaign. — This work proceeded smoothly and 40,635 inoculations were done.

The new Inoculation Van was taken into service and has proved a distinct acquisition.

Food, Dairies & Markets Division. —Considerable attention has been paid to the Dairies. As is usual during the hot weather, a comparatively high number of samples were recorded as having been below bacteriological standards. In one instance the licence of a Grade "A" Dairy had to be temporarily suspended, whilst another Dairy of this grade has been given a limited period within which to bring the quality of their produce up to recognised standards. Assistance is being given to other dairies with a view to maintaining a correct standard.

Abattoirs.—The temporary plant for the destruction of carcases has been completed and will be put into use as soon as transport arrangements have been provided, and the necessary regulations promulgated. An emergency Slaughter Hall will be ready for use next month when animals under suspicion will be slaughtered.

Conditions at the Cattle Sheds cannot be regarded as at all satisfactory owing to the unavoidable delay in erecting the new Abattoirs. On occasions, owing partly to the floods, the lairage which should contain 300 animals had as many as 700. Efforts are being made to keep within reasonable standards but this is very difficult owing to overcrowding.

Markets.—During the month a new section described as Markets, Bakeries & Food-Shops' Section was inaugurated, and the Food Division sub-divided into two sections under separate Chief Health Inspectors.

The new organisation will, it is anticipated, enable a closer supervision of Bakeries and the larger food premises, whilst also permitting closer inspection of the innumerable smaller establishments which will now be transferred to the Sanitation Division.

In addition it is hoped by freeing the other section of the Food Division from these duties, it will be able to take further steps concerning the improvement of the Food and Meat supply.

Sanitation Division.—As usual at this time of the year particular attention was paid to anti-Fly measures, which, so far as the dumps are concerned, met with considerable success, the number of flies being very greatly reduced owing to the measures taken and also to the prevalence of heavy rains.

This Division has cooperated in the Anti-Cholera Campaign, whilst mosquito reduction measures have been given close attention. Heavy rains and floods throughout the month, however, hindered considerably routine oiling work.

Open Air Swimming Pool.—During the month 33,731 bathers used the Pool, which is a record. This necessitated closure of the premises on two occasions for cleansing and refilling. The routine control tests of the Chlorination apparatus were carried out regularly and have been quite satisfactory. It is regretted that a fatality occurred on August 16, when a Chinese was drowned. Since, however, the accident took place in comparatively shallow water and deceased could swim, it may be assumed that some constitutional defect, possibly of the heart, must have contributed to the fatality.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases, Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Chlorine in chloride figures have varied from 1.0 to 2.6 parts per 100,000, the lower figures occurring in the second half of the month. Ammonia figures have been generally normal and nitrites have been absent. Free chlorine has varied from 0.03 to 0.20 parts per million in samples taken in the laboratory and from zero to 0.10 parts per million in samples taken at other points.

Bacteriological Examination.—20 samples were examined during the month, 4 from hydrants and 16 from taps in various parts of the Settlement. No coliform organisms were found in 120 cc quantities of any of the 4 hydrant samples. Of the 16 tap samples, 8 contained no coliform organisms in 120 cc quantities, the remainder had 63, 10, 63, 100, 10, 45, 800, and 800 per litre respectively. Organisms of the B. coli group were present in 3 samples to the extent of 25, 10, and 120 per litre respectively. Of these, 65 were B. aerogenes, 45 were B. pyocyaneus and 45 were B. coli communior.

Parks Report for August.

Open Air Concerts.—The open air concert season terminated with a band concert held at the Bund Garden on August 31.

The aggregate attendance for the season was 14,388, this figure being 1,942 lower than the aggregate attendance for the 1930 season.

Unfavourable weather during July was the direct cause of the lower aggregate. Orchestral concerts held during this month are invariably well patronized; but, unfortunately, it was possible to hold only two of the eight concerts scheduled to be held at Jessfield Park during July this year, and on these occasions the unsettled weather conditions reduced the attendance.

The average attendances at Orchestral concerts held at the Race Club enclosure and at Band concerts held at Hongkew Park were slightly higher than during 1930, a slight decrease being recorded in respect to the Band concerts held at the Bund Garden.

The average attendance at each auditorium was as follows:—

Jessfield Park	462
Race Club enclosure	175
Hongkew Park	253
The Bund Garden 9.15 p.m.	209
The Bund Garden 5.30 p.m.	28

General.—A severe storm was experienced on August 25 and 26 and damage was caused to roadside and park trees.

The greatest damage was caused on The Bund foreshore, Yangtszepoo, Warren, Pingliang, Ward and Bubbling Well Roads, the number of trees affected on these roads being 72, 59, 48, 40, 36 and 30 respectively.

Seven large plane trees were blown down in the Bund Garden and Chinese Public Garden and much damage was caused by flood at the first named place, flower beds and shrubberies being inundated.

The ground floor of park buildings located adjacent to the Soochow Creek was covered with eighteen inches of water at 11.30 p.m., at which time the tide gauge at the Bund Garden registered 16.5 feet of water.

With the exception of the loss of many Dahlia plants, comparatively little damage was caused at Jessfield and Hongkew Parks, the number of trees affected at these places being 43 and 32 respectively.

499 young trees were blown down at the Municipal Nurseries during the typhoon and a large quantity of standard Chrysanthemums was destroyed.

The following is a summary of the resultant damage:—

Number of trees blown down	1,647
Number of trees pruned and replanted in original positions	1,462
Number of trees totally destroyed	185
Number of Foochow poles broken	712
Number of Dahlias destroyed	1,312
Number of standard Chrysanthemums destroyed	1,378
Number of Day-way electric lamp globes broken	6
Number of high pressure lamp globes broken	6
Number of matsheds damaged	4
Length of bamboo fence damaged	1,176*

Death of Mr. Brodie A. Clarke.

The Council learnt with very deep regret of the death on September 30 of Mr. Brodie A. Clarke, one of the oldest foreign residents of the Settlement.

Mr. Brodie Clarke, although never actually occupying a seat on the Municipal Council, had over a very long period of years displayed keen interest in Municipal affairs, and for a time acted as a member of the Municipal Council of the French Concession. In the International Settlement, he was most closely interested in Volunteer and Fire Brigade activities; and in the Volunteer Corps he rose from the ranks of the old Rangers and Light Horse Companies to command of the Corps, with the rank of Major.

Mr. Brodie A. Clarke was a resident of the Settlement for over 65 years.

On receipt of the news of Mr. Clarke's death, the Council's flag was lowered to half-mast.

*(1 Attempted)

Reported crime for the month shows an increase of 117 cases as compared with the figures for last month and an increase of

195 reports over those for the corresponding period of last year. Of this number increases are recorded as follows:—

A Division (Central & Louza) 5 cases.
B Division (Bubbling Well, Sinza Gordon Road, Pootoo Road) 57 cases.
D Division (Wayside, Yangtzepoo, Harbin Road) 98 cases.
C Division (Hongkew, West Hongkew, Dixwell Road) shows a decrease of 53 cases.

Many cases occurred in which thefts took place through doors and windows being left open, "B" and "D" Divisions recording 235. Seventy-five cases were recorded in which servants or inmates were suspected. 173 assault cases were reported. 15 false reports were received and 62 cases proved on investigation to be non-criminal. 71 cases were refused investigation being of a very trifling nature. "Breaking" cases were prevalent in "A" and "D" Divisions and measures are being taken to cope with this. Cases of embezzlement, fraud, false pretences, forgery and misappropriation have been more prevalent than usual during the month, especially in "A" Division. No less than 63 cases were recorded, involving many thousands of dollars. Pocket-picking generally has increased as compared with last month, but "A" Division records a decrease of 17 cases and 31 arrests and "D" Division with a total of 22 cases records 17 arrests. Most of these criminals are well known to the Police and immediately recommence their activities on release from gaol. 13 arrests were made in 11 cases of petty theft from persons sleeping on the Bund Foreshore during the hot evenings. 27 bicycles left unattended were stolen. Eight motor cars were stolen from various places in the Settlement of which seven were recovered. For statistical purposes these are recorded as thefts but actually nearly all are taken for the purpose of "joy-riding," and of the number recorded those recovered were found abandoned in various places in and around the Settlement. Several arrests have been made in these cases.

Very few refugees from the flood areas had reached Shanghai at the end of the month, but many thousands may be expected to arrive during September and it is well that the public should bear this in mind and take extra precautions to prevent the loss of their property, particularly on the Settlement borders and in crowded thoroughfares.

1,387 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 89 for offences committed previously and 62 for other authorities, a total decrease of 45 as compared with the number recorded last month.

Murder.—Seven cases of murder of Chinese were reported during the month, one of which presents unusual features and is possibly a case of suicide. The causes are various, two being the result of disputes over women, three gang shootings and one revenge for loss of employment. The gang shootings had their origin in events occurring outside the Settlement. Six arrests have been made in connection with the cases.

Manslaughter.—Two cases of manslaughter were recorded during the month, both of which occurred in "D" Division. In one case a coolie was killed as the result of the reckless driving of two motor cars on Yangtzepoo Road, and in the other a Chinese died as the result of a stab wound inflicted by a person who has since been sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment.

Armed Kidnapping.—Three cases were reported, one being an attempt only, when a wealthy Chinese courageously raised an alarm and the kidnappers ran away although armed. The second case occurred in Wayside district when a young Chinese clerk, the son of a wealthy man, was kidnapped from his own car. In the third case, a coolie reported having witnessed the kidnapping of a woman by motor car and as no report has been received from any other person it is presumed that he made a mistake.

Abduction.—Of the 11 cases of simple abduction reported two were false reports and two very doubtful, while six arrests were made. In four cases females were abducted as the result of "sweetheart" and domestic troubles. Three cases involved the abduction of children, 2 male and one female.

Armed Robberies.—22 were reported, two more than last month. There is an increase of one case as compared with the corresponding period last year. "A" Division records a decrease of four, whilst there is a decrease of one case each in "C" and "D" Divisions. "B" Division remains the same as last month. D.D.O. "A" Division reports that of the nine reports received in his Division shopkeepers were the victims in eight cases and that the modus operandi indicates the activities of local loafer gangs who usually intimidate the inmates and steal the contents of the till.

Other Robberies.—There was an increase of one case under this heading and of the total of nine, investigations proved that two were false reports.

Members of a Criminal Gang.—Six gangs were arrested during the month and 29 arrests were made.

Housebreaking, Office and Shop.—There is an increase of eight cases in this class of report as compared with last month and 14 more than for the corresponding period last year. The Divisional Detective Officer, "A" Division, reports one additional case in his division, "B" Division reports four and "D" Division five cases. The Divisional Detective Officer, "C" Division, records a decrease of two cases.

Burglary.—A decrease of six cases is recorded, there being 34 cases as compared with 40 registered in July. The Divisional Detective Officer, "A" Division, records a decrease of seven reports in his division, the Divisional Detective Officer, "C" Division, a decrease of four. There was an increase of five in "D" Division. The Divisional Detective Officer, "B" Division, reports that six of the 12 cases in his division occurred prior to August and were brought to light by police arrests. 31 arrests took place in connection with these cases.

Thefts. — Reports under this heading show an increase of 84 as compared with the figures recorded for July. Seven false reports were received and 37 were found after investigation not to be of a criminal nature. A total of 357 arrests were made in connection with this class of crime.

Snatching.—There was a decrease of 11 cases as compared with last month. 34 arrests were made during the month. Most of the persons arrested had been previously convicted and are of the same type of sneak thief as the Chinese pickpocket. The Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division reports that the special measures adopted have resulted in a large decrease in this class of crime in that division.

Opium Offences.—136 reports are recorded, the result of police action, in which 349 arrests took place. The Headquarters Narcotic Section made 17 raids and arrested 73 persons of which number 32 had previous convictions for opium or other offences. 550 ounces of opium and red pills and 56 pipes were seized and confiscated.

Gambling Offences.—38 cases occurred during the month, an increase of seven over last month. 89 arrests were effected as a result of police action. All cases were of a trifling nature and call for no special comment.

Other crimes.—As compared with last month there were 95 more reports recorded and 146 more than for the corresponding period of last year.

Notable work in "A" Division included the arrest of a gang of burglars comprising a mother and her four sons (one aged 13), who were found in possession of a large quantity of stolen property, the results of seven burglaries. A fifth son is serving a long sentence in the Municipal Gaol for a similar crime. Notable work in "C" Division included the arrest of 24 members of 3 criminal gangs and their ultimate conviction for shoplifting, larceny and armed robbery, committed both inside and outside the Settlement.

39 criminal cases occurred on Municipal Roads or in buildings abutting thereon, an increase of 19 cases as compared with those recorded last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 21 special cases including armed robbery, murder and embezzlement and effected the arrest of six persons. In addition enquiries were continued in nine serious cases previously reported.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $158,968 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, a decrease of $101,479 as compared with last month. Property valued at $78,422 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records dealt with was 1,995. There is a decrease of 448 criminal records from all sources as compared with last month. Investigations were made into 30 cases and latent prints were secured in four instances. Of 23 dead bodies finger-printed and photographed at the Mortuary two were identified by photographs. 62 records of foreigners were received and 33 identified as having previous convictions.

Studio.—333 photographs were taken and 613 copies were printed during the month.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the staff of this section visited 308 boarding houses, 25 bars, restaurants, taverns, cafes and theatres. Five new applications were dealt with.

Publicity.—During the month 13,500 copies of a memorandum on crime prevention, assistance to the Police, general warnings and offers of rewards for information were issued to the Chinese Ratepayers' Association and the Chinese public. The contents of these circulars were broadcast by radio by kind permission of Messrs. Sun Sun & Co.; Cinema theatres assisted by showing prepared films of a similar nature while two police story-tellers lectured to 2,940 persons in teashops etc.

Suicides.—20 Chinese and two foreigners were reported as having committed suicide during the month and 13 Chinese attempted to do so.

Communism.—The case against Mr. and Mrs. Noulens was concluded at the 2nd Branch Kiangsu High Court on August 8, 1931, when both accused were ordered to be handed over to the Chinese Military Authorities together with all documents, etc. seized. This order was carried out on August 12 after the Swiss Consul-General had refused to recognize the claim of the accused to Swiss nationality. The prisoners were sent to Nanking under armed escort on August 14 since when they have appeared on two occasions before a special tribunal consisting of a representative of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang Party, a deputy from the Ministry of Justice and a representative from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

August 1, the anniversary of International Red Day, passed off without any untoward incident.

Twenty-eight Chinese, prosecuted during the month for having engaged in communist activities, were extradited to the Chinese Authorities. The action resulting in these prosecutions included raids on five different places where evidence was discovered showing that they were used as bases for the dissemination of communist literature. Searches at two other houses, whose inmates had either absconded or had already been arrested, resulted in the seizure of a small quantity of communistic literature. 36,000 copies of 20 different kinds of communistic literature and old issues of communistic periodicals were found by the Municipal Police abandoned on No. 5 Pontoon, The Bund. The literature comprising the bulk of these seizures was printed in Chinese, English and Japanese.

New communistic leaflets which came into the hands of the police during the month were of 13 different kinds. These leaflets deal chiefly with the anniversary of International Red Day, August 1 and the Wanpaoshan Incident. Altogether 42,133 copies of communistic literature were seized during the month.

Eight Chinese communists, who were arrested by the Municipal Police on July 25 and 27 and subsequently extradited to the Chinese Authorities by order of the 2nd Branch Kiangsu High Court, were executed at Lunghua on August 5 and 10.

Strikes.—During the month under review there were eight strikes in the Settlement. These affected 2,244 employees in 17 different concerns and resulted in a loss of 8,052 working days.

The statistics for the month under review are as follows:—

Area	No. of strikes	No. of working hands.	No. of days lost.
Settlement	8	2,244	8,052

With reference to the strike in the China General Omnibus Company, a skeleton service was maintained by the Company beginning from August 20 with the assistance of Russian motor men and Korean inspectors acting as conductors. On the partial resumption of employees the skeleton services were extended on August 29 to Routes, 1, 2, 5, 9 and 10. A dismissed conductor was arrested on August 30 by the Municipal Police for assaulting another conductor on a bus on No. 10 Route and the case against him had not been dealt with at the end of the month.

The management of the printing shops located in the Settlement which are members of the Printing Shop Owners' Association suspended operations on the morning of August 3 and 4 as a means to fight against the workers' adoption of the eight hour day system from August 1, without the consent of employers. These shops resumed operations on the morning of August 6, but the question of working hours was still pending at the end of the month.

Despite the differences in opinion existing among interested persons regarding the Factory Law, the Ministry of Industry officially announced its introduction from August 1, 1931, but in order to ameliorate the situation the following amendments were made: —

1. Art. 13 of the Factory Law governing the night work of female workers to be suspended for two years.
2. The enforcement of the Article stipulating full pay on holidays to be decided later.
3. The problem as to whether representatives of factory proprietors can be qualified to attend factory conferences to be settled later.

Arrival of Refugees.—During the month under review about 11,225 refugees arrived at Shanghai from various flood affected areas on the Yangtze. Of this number about 2,720 are destitute. Most of these destitutes are being accommodated in the Chaochow Guild, Nantao and the Chapei Porridge Distribution Centre, all the expenditure being defrayed by the Municipality of Greater Shanghai supported by various public organizations. Throughout the month local public organizations were busy collecting contributions for flood relief work, while the staff of various Chinese Government organs and other concerns contributed a certain percentage from their salaries towards the fund.

Rice.—The average prices of rice for the month of August are as follows:—

Chinese Rice:

Best quality	$17.70	per	picul

Saigon Rice:

Film Censorship. — Forty-four ordinary films and 23 shorts or introductory films were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. Of these two were subjected to cuts and revision before being approved by the Police Censors for public exhibition locally. In one instance the picture was rejected by the Police Censors as unsuitable for local exhibition. This decision was accepted by the management of the theatre concerned without protest. Three films which had been approved prior to June 30, 1930, were recensored during the month.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 602 (58 foreigners and 544 Chinese) of 4,264 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

During the month the professional Story-teller visited various districts and gave 75 addresses in teashops and mills, etc., on Safety First themes. His audience roughly totalled 3,885 persons.

Motorcycle Patrols.—The presence of these patrols appears to be having a good effect on drivers and other road users who were previously apt to take chances on roadways where they felt they were away from police observation or control. In addition to reporting flagrant cases of dangerous or improper driving these patrols have been proving helpful by either cautioning or advising those who, through ignorance of the rules of the road, or an acquired callousness, have been responsible for minor infringements of regulations and which were causing, or were liable to cause, inconvenience or obstruction to the public. In the reports received from the Motorcycle Patrols, particular mention is made of the failure of many drivers to give proper and timely hand signals before turning or stopping and it is hoped that members of the public will assist the police by reporting bad cases of this description coming under their notice, so that the attention of offending drivers may be brought to this necessary courtesy of the road.

Omnibus Service.—The service over Hungjao Road was suspended from the beginning of the month pending repairs to the road and bridge and for which work the Public Works Department is awaiting the necessary permit. The conductors of the China General Omnibus Company, Ltd. went on strike on August 19 and were still out at the end of the month causing temporary suspension of service on a number of routes and only a skeleton service on others.

Additional Ranking Space.—Six additional bays for ranking were added to the ranking space on Bubbling Well Road opposite the Foreign Y. M. C. A. and were made available for use during the month.

Motor Horn Nuisance. — There were 39 prosecutions for this offence during the month and the driving licence of one chauffeur was suspended for a repetition of the offence.

Eyesight Test.—In addition to the usual eyesight test of all applicants for driving licences 45 chauffeurs already in possession of licences were re-tested during the month and found fit.

Identification Office.—During the month 1,472 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 415 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. In addition to the above 107 records were received from the French Police out of which number 25 were identified in the records of this office making the total for the month :—

Official Statement by Council.—On August 7 the Council issued an official statement relative to industrial regulation. The appended letter of appreciation has now been received from the Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations:—

Shanghai, Sept. 18, 1931.

SIR,—The Joint Committee of Shanghai Women's Organizations desires to express to the Shanghai Municipal Council its appreciation of the important step in progress toward the ultimate achievement of better industrial conditions taken by the Council in endorsing the principle of industrial regulation at its meeting on July 29. This move is regarded as most significant by the women of Shanghai who have for long been interested in the solution of the problem of conditions in industry in this city.

The Joint Committee noted with interest the Council's outline of the scope which it considered future regulation would embrace. It regards all these questions as of great importance.

It has noted with satisfaction that Monsieur Pone and Dame Adelaide Anderson have arrived from the International Labour Organization, and hopes that through their presence there may be further progress toward implementing the support of the principle which the Council has taken.

Yours faithfully,

ANNA KONG MEI (MRS. H. C.),
Acting Chairman.
ELEANOR WHITNEY (MRS. J. S.),
Chairman, Civic Affairs Committee.

BRIG.-GEN. E. B. MACNAGHTEN,
C.M.G., D.S.O.,
Chairman,
Municipal Council.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Finance Committee held on Friday, September 25, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten (Chairman), Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, K. Fukushima, S. L. Hsu, the Commissioner of Public Works, the Treasurer & Controller, the Secretary General, and the Acting Secretary.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Financial Statement for half year ended June 30, 1931.—A comprehensive report by the Treasurer & Controller covering detailed accounts of income and expenditure for the half year ended June 30, 1931, is submitted. Therein the Treasurer states that from an examination of these figures he has reached conclusions which, summarized, are as follows:—

That the total revenue for the full year will be approximately that estimated: that the estimated expenditure of certain departments will be exceeded and that at the end of the current financial year the Council will be faced with a deficit of not less than Tls. 600,000 as against an estimated surplus of Tls. 300,000; that in the absence of additional revenue being forthcoming there will be an initial deficit in 1932 of approximately Tls. 2,900,000 to be met; that it will be necessary to revert to the rates of taxation levied prior to July 1930, and to restrict expenditure in all directions other than on services which can be established as essential; that new sources of revenue must be sought and explored, and that it will be appropriate to consider whether the personnel of certain Departments can be maintained at the present level.

The Treasurer points out that the figures on which his conclusions are based are to a very large extent estimated and that it is impossible to say whether the final results will be better or worse than he has endeavoured to prognosticate. In any event he regards it as very desirable that initial steps be taken to cope with the situation as early as possible.

In amplification of the information contained in his report, the Treasurer states that within recent years the ordinary and extraordinary budgets have been definitely separated. As regards the latter, owing to the funds accruing from the sale of the Electricity Department, the Council became relieved for a number of years of the necessity of public borrowings. It is now necessary to consider the financing of future capital projects in conjunction with public borrowings. Under the existing practice, certain expenditures are charged to the Ordinary Budget which could properly be charged to capital expenditure. He submits that a certain portion of the expenditure involved which at present is charged to the ordinary budget for the maintenance of the Public Works Department could rightly be charged to the Extraordinary Budget since if work on capital development was not performed departmentally the cost for outside services would automatically form part of and be charged to capital. The major projects involving large capital sums can be regarded as being undertaken in the interests of posterity. Accordingly by debiting the inclusive costs of such works to the Extraordinary Budget the burden of payment falls equitably on the ratepayer of the present and of the future. Under such a scheme the ratepayer of to-day would be required only to pay the cost of service of the loans utilized for such major projects. Various Departmental expenditures under the heading "Plant" should also in his opinion rightly form a charge on the Extraordinary Budget since in the majority of cases machinery, etc., purchased from these appropriations are utilized over a number of years and their entire cost should not have to be borne by the ratepayer in any single year. Whilst in his opinion the adoption of the principle advocated by him could not be extended indefinitely, he anticipates that after further consultation with the Commissioner of Public Works he will be in a position to submit proposals which are not only equitable in the interests of the existing Ratepayers but which also will afford a measure of relief to future current annual Budgets of Ordinary Expenditure.

Continuing, the Treasurer states that all Heads of Departments have been notified as to the necessity for the exercise of the strictest economy during the remainder of the current year, not only with the object of reducing the contemplated deficit on the current Budget but also to facilitate the balancing of the Budgets for 1932 and ensuing years.

With regard to the Treasurer's comment on the amount of the expenditure incurred during the current year on roads, the Commissioner of Public Works agrees that whilst certain road improvements might be postponed he does not regard such a course as ultimately in the interests of economy. As a result of such expenditure additional revenue accrues to the Council by means of additional taxation: it is however, regrettable that the Council has not the legislative powers possessed by certain other Municipalities, whereby power is conferred on the Municipality to purchase an entire property if a certain proportion thereof is required for a road improvement and to recoup itself for the expenditure incurred on such improvement. So far as the current budget is concerned, it may be regarded as unfortunate that very considerable re-development of the Central District, where the highest land values obtain, is at present in progress. Unless advantage is taken of such development to effect road improvements it will be impossible for these to be carried out for very many years. Although the appropriation for this purpose has been almost exhausted he submits that a large portion of the expenditure up to date is due to commitments entered into in 1930 and that it does not follow that the excess for the whole year will be proportionate to that shewn for the period ended June 30.

In connection with the expenditure on roads, the Treasurer observes that various factors require consideration in connection therewith; these primarily are the political aspect, and to what extent the Chinese Community will support the Council in raising loans.

With regard to the allusion in his report as to the desirability of ascertaining as to the practicability of maintaining the personnel of certain departments at the present level, the Treasurer desires it to be clearly understood that retrenchment in this direction alone will not enable the Budget for 1932 to be balanced. He recalls that upon the sale of the Electricity Department the Council gave a definite undertaking to the Ratepayers relative to the extension of civil amenities, an increase in the Police Force, the protection of debenture holders by the appointment of Trustees and, to the extent then possible, to a reduction in taxation. In view of this undertaking the Committee adopted his view when the Budget for the current year was in the course of preparation as to the advisability of submitting to the Ratepayers a balanced budget without recourse after so short a period to increased taxation. He realized at this period that the balancing of the Budget was largely contingent upon the silver situation. Unfortunately the situation in this respect has not improved since the Budget for the current year was framed. To provide for the estimated deficit for 1932 it would be necessary to increase the existing General Municipal Rate by 4 per cent. Such a course, however, he does not consider would be expedient; hence his proposal that this be met jointly by increased taxation and by retrenchment in the cost of the administration. To this end he has consulted with the Commissioner of Police with a view to ascertaining whether, without prejudice to the efficiency of the Force, certain adjustments could not be made in the personnel of the Department which it should be noted absorbs a considerably larger percentage of the Council's revenue than any other single Department. The Commissioner of Police has concurred that certain economies could be effected without loss of efficiency and he will submit concrete proposals as to this in due course. Questions which will engage his particular attention are as to whether the policy of engaging foreign recruits to the extent hitherto adopted should be pursued in its entirety; a review of the existing system pertaining to the issue of uniform and as to whether by the transfer to one command of the Russian Unit its services could not be availed of to a greater degree and thus effect an economy in the ordinary maintenance of the regular police force. If it is found feasible to adopt proposals on the above lines, which will form the subject of a later report, he estimates that a very considerable saving can be effected in the expenditure of the Police Department.

With regard to the expenditure on the Education Department, since the Council has only recently enunciated its policy as to this, the Treasurer appreciates that a drastic restriction of such expenditure may present difficulty. He strongly urges, however, that expenditure thereon should be kept to the lowest possible limits consistent with the policy gradually to extend these facilities.

Continuing, the Treasurer states that he has come to the conclusion that it will be necessary to revise the policy whereunder the funds accruing from the sale of the Electricity Department not required for loan redemption are applied to capital projects. In his opinion it is advisable that a considerable portion of the funds now remaining should be set aside as a reserve in order that the interest therefrom may be utilized for the purpose of stabilizing the Budgets of the next few years. Such a fund could also be drawn upon in times of emergency. Interest sums drawn from this fund would go towards the relief of the ordinary budget of any one year and the surplus or deficit of future ordinary budgets would be adjusted through this fund. If this proposal is approved the monies required for capital projects would be raised by the issue of debentures; the success or otherwise of floating such loans would, in his opinion, demonstrate the degree of public confidence in the administration. Whilst the present method of application of the monies accruing from the sale of the Electricity Department is satisfactory under ordinary conditions, he contends that the circumstances which now obtain no longer can be regarded as normal and as such demand a revision of policy. The above proposal is put forward not solely with a view to affording relief to the 1932 Budget but also to enable taxation at the level of 16 per cent to be maintained during 1933/34.

Replying to a member, the Treasurer states that he anticipates that it should be possible to float a loan issue, the interest rate of which would not exceed that accruing to the Council from the monies received from the Power Company. The manner in which such reserve funds would be secured would require very careful consideration.

Another member states that he desires to reserve his opinion on the proposal to increase the General Municipal Rate next year until he has had an opportunity of consulting his colleagues on the Council and of further studying the financial situation generally. The Treasurer undertakes to furnish Councillors with any desired information on this general question.

In observing that the cost of the Municipal Orchestra is approximately Tls. 180,000 per annum, the Chairman suggests that as a matter of expediency and in the interests of economy it may be necessary again to refer to the Ratepayers the question of its retention. In this connection the Treasurer states that owing to the terms of service of the musicians disbandment of the Orchestra would not have any great effect on the Budget for 1932. It would however, materially affect subsequent Budgets. The suggestion put forward by the Chairman will receive consideration when the financial situation generally is further reviewed.

In conclusion the Treasurer states that the proposals now submitted are of a preliminary nature. He desires, however, that at this meeting members will endorse the two following proposals:—(I) that Heads of Departments be authorized in conjunction with himself to investigate and submit definite retrenchment proposals; and (II) that steps be taken to notify the Ratepayers that a reversion to the former rate of taxation foreshadowed earlier in the year will become necessary in 1932 and also that steps will be taken during that year to effect a reassessment of land values to take effect in 1933.

After discussion, the proposals contained in the above paragraph are approved.

Replying to a member the Treasurer states that in compliance with the Council's request he is preparing a statement shewing what proportion of the Municipal income is being devoted to charitable and semi-charitable purposes with a view to a definite proportion being allocated each year for such purpose. This statement will be submitted to the Committee in due course.

The meeting terminates at 5.45 p.m.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Works Committee held on Tuesday, September 29, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present: Messrs. A. D. Bell (Chairman), T. Funatsu, F. J. Raven, L. T. Yuan, the Treasurer & Controller, the Commissioner of Public Works, and Mr. J. C. Greig (For Secretary).

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed.

Proposed Central Police and Fire Stations — Protest by American Club.—A further letter from the American Club suggesting alternative sites for these new buildings is considered. For the reasons advanced in the Departmental reports submitted, members concur that the suggestion that the Central Police Station should be located elsewhere is not feasible.

The Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade reports that as a result of a recent consultation with his senior officers he has reached the conclusion that provided a site becomes available at the Amoy Road Gaol for the erection of a Headquarters and Depot building and if a site could be obtained in the Western District for the erection of a small station it would be possible to abandon the scheme for the erection of a Station to serve the Central District on the Foochow/Kiangse Roads site. Upon the Commissioner of Public Works stating that it is unlikely that a site will become available at the Amoy Road Gaol for at least eighteen months, the Chief Officer expresses the opinion that the existing accommodation will serve for the intervening period.

Replying to the Chairman, the Commissioner of Public Works states that if the scheme for the erection of a Fire Station on Cad. Lot 174 is abandoned the Police Station could then be built on the corner of Foochow and Kiangse Roads and that the area between this building and the Club would be available for disposal. This proposal would however involve some months delay on account of the necessary replanning of this building.

After discussion members take the view that the alternative proposal now put forward by the Chief Officer merits serious consideration. They accordingly request the Commissioners of Public Works and Police and the Chief Officer to confer with a view to submitting definite proposals for giving effect to the suggestions put forward by the Chief Officer. In order to avoid any unnecessary delay in the erection of the Central Police Station which is regarded as a matter of urgency the Commissioner of Public Works undertakes to furnish rough sketch plans for the new building at the time this question is next before the Committee.

Administration Building—Council Chamber. — The Commissioner of Public Works submits a detailed report and a plan shewing a suggested re-arrangement of the Council Chamber to accommodate 43 seats. The estimated cost of the alteration and furnishing is Tls. 6,000. As an alternative to this scheme he states that it would be possible to erect a new and enlarged Council Chamber on the roof of the Administration Building; this scheme however would be more costly than that now submitted.

In view of the Treasurer's comment that there is no appropriation for this work in the current Budget and having regard to the necessity for the exercise of the strictest economy it is decided for the time being to defer consideration of the scheme for the re-arrangement of the Council Chamber.

Road Widenings and Extensions—Extraordinary Expenditure, Roads. —In a report submitted the Commissioner of Public Works recommends that with a view to curtailing capital expenditure certain of the less important road schedulings be withdrawn from the 1932 official plans. He states that these schedulings can be withdrawn without difficulty so far as the land owners are concerned. He desires to emphasize that he does not advocate their withdrawal on the ground that the road improvements involved are not desirable but solely in the interests of economy. He then illustrates on a plan submitted road widenings and extensions referred to in his report.

After discussion and in recording the view that the abandonment of schedulings is to be regretted, members concur that having regard to the serious view taken by the Treasurer & Controller on the financial situation generally adoption of the proposals now submitted becomes necessary in the interests of economy.

With the exception of the scheduling of Kweichow Road (between Amoy and Peking Roads) which will be further considered in conjunction with the proposals to be submitted for the abandonment of the scheme to erect the Central Fire Station on Cad. Lot 174, it is recommended that the schedulings referred to in the Commissioner's report be excised from the 1932 official plans.

The meeting terminates at 5.30 p.m.

At the meeting of the Staff Committee held on Monday, October 5, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Messrs. J. W. Carney, O. S. Lieu, O. Okamoto, F. J. Raven, the Commissioner of Police, the Commissioner of Public Health, the Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, the Treasurer & Controller, and the Acting Secretary.

Chairman.—Upon the proposal of Mr. Okamoto, seconded by Mr. O. S. Lieu, Mr. J. W. Carney is elected Chairman of the meeting.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

Municipal Holidays.—A recommendation by the Heads of the Senior Departments that August Bank Holiday be re-inserted in the list of holidays to be observed by the Council is submitted.

The Treasurer states that this is regarded as an old-established holiday and affords a short break to those members of the staff who are unable to take short leave.

In view of the number of municipal holidays which have been abandoned as a result of the recommendation of the Salaries Commission, the above recommendation is unanimously endorsed.

The meeting terminates at 5.20 p.m.

Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd.

Appended is a summary of the conclusions from the report of Mr. Nicholas S. Hill, Jr., C.E., to the Shanghai Municipal Council re The Shanghai Waterworks Company, Ltd:—

The Terms of Reference in respect to the investigation of the water supply are as follows:

1. To ascertain whether the operation of the Water Company is efficient and economical and whether present operating and maintenance expenses are justified.
2. To ascertain whether the present schedule of rates is unjust or discriminatory as between the different classes of consumers.
3. To ascertain whether the present cost of water to the consumer is just and equitable.
4. To state whether earnings in the past are germane to present revenue required.
5. To ascertain reasonable future capital requirements to insure an adequate supply of pure and wholesome water.
6. To ascertain whether it is feasible and economical to change from the present method of charges and sell all water through meters.

In answer to these my findings are:

1. I find that 58 per cent of the total increase in the cost of water delivered in recent years may be traced to the enhanced cost of gold in order to pay dividends in sterling. The Water Company, however, is sympathetic to the idea of securing new capital in silver which will stabilize rates and tend to a reduction in production cost, more especially when the exchange value of silver is low.
   A large proportion of the remaining additional cost to be accounted for is due to increases in salaries and wages made necessary by higher living costs. The increase in salaries and wages cannot be criticized.
   Some saving may be effected by a reduction in the number of employees. The net effect on the rates, however, would not be material and the Company should have some latitude in the management of its property.
   In any event no harm would come from a study of the possibility of reducing force account without sacrificing efficiency. It may also be possible by the exercise of stricter economy to make some other savings, but, broadly speaking, the policies of the management are prudent and economical and it would be captious to find fault with the operations of the plant.
   Laying aside subordinate issues the supreme test of management is the cost of production, and whatever may be the differences in viewpoint on the details of operation, the Water Company succeeds in producing cheap water even at present rates. This statement is made with due regard for the difference in price levels of labour and material and other conditions prevailing in Shanghai and other places, including rate of exchange.
2. In accordance with a theoretical and structurally accurate allocation of cost to the different classes of consumers, the present schedule of rates is unjust and discriminatory.
   The discrimination in favour of the poor and small consumers, however, is an economic necessity under the conditions existing in Shanghai and the wisdom of placing a greater burden on them should be questioned.
   There is, however, a very serious discrimination which is not apparent from the present rate structure. That is the proportion of the rates paid by the municipality in return for fire protection. Under the existing rates and charges the Municipal Council pays the Water Company a sum which is equivalent to the interest on the cost of hydrants installed plus the cost of repairs and maintenance. This by no means represents a proper return on the capital invested for fire protection. Adequate fire service requires not only the installation of hydrants but a readiness to serve these hydrants. That is to say, the pumping plant, filtration plant and mains would be smaller if no fire service were rendered, and the Municipal Council does not pay for its share of the revenue required to carry this additional plant.

My finding is, therefore, that the fire service revenue should be increased and that a meter rate schedule should not require additional charges from the poor and small consumers.

3. In order to ascertain whether the present cost of water to the consumer is just and equitable it has been necessary to go back to basic principles and ascertain the fair return on the fair value of the property dedicated to the use and convenience of the public.

The Courts of the United States have in numberless cases reiterated, in different form, the rule that a public utility is entitled to earn a fair return on the fair value of its property, used and useful for the public service. This principle has been affirmed on more than one occasion by the U. S. Supreme Court and may, therefore, be said to be the law of that land. It is a just and equitable rule and may wisely be applied in the present instance.

Its use involves ascertaining two major factors.—

1. The fair value of the property, and
2. The fair return.

The methods used by me for their determination have been in accordance with methods now recognized in the United States, somewhat modified perhaps to suit local conditions.

I find that the value of the Waterworks property is Tls. 26,250,000, as determined from the books of the Company, subject to an adjustment of the prices of labour and material to obtain present reproduction cost, but excluding present increased value due to depreciation of local currency.

A fair rate of return on this value is 8.5 per cent.

A rate of return to be fair must be sufficient to insure the Company a credit which will enable it to secure the new capital required for improvements on favourable terms in the open market. Cost of money depends chiefly upon whether or not the securities issued therefor possess the following qualifications:—

1. Security of principal.
2. Stability of income.
3. Marketability.
4. Value as collateral.
5. Exemption from care.

All of these factors have been considered.

Well secured mortgage bonds possess all of these qualities in a more marked degree than does capital stock, and money may be obtained through the issuance of such bonds at a lower rate than through the sale of stock.

In order to command a low rate on its bonds the net earnings of a corporation should be free from marked fluctuations and at least equal to twice the bond interest requirements. If rates are allowed which will provide a sufficient margin to establish sound credit, The Shanghai Waterworks Company, Ltd., should at this time be able to dispose of 6 per cent debenture bonds up to 50 per cent of its value and 9 per cent stock to cover the balance of its capital requirements.

If we are to estimate fair return upon the theory that the Company should bear the hazard of exchange, which has been done, then a proper allowance must be made for surplus sufficient to maintain a proper reserve for equalization of dividends as well as to care for other reserves and for minor fluctuations in production cost depending upon variations in cost of labour and materials. The rates should, therefore, provide for an annual surplus at least of 2 per cent on the capital stock properly to maintain its reserves. The average rate of return under these circumstances will be:—

	per cent
6 per cent Debenture interest on 50 per cent capitalization=average on full capitalization of	3.0
9 per cent Dividends on 50 per cent of capitalization=average on full capitalization of	4.5
2 per cent for surplus on 50 per cent of capitalization=average on full capitalization of	1.0
Total	8.5

On this basis the gross revenue required in 1931 to yield a fair return on the fair value of the Company's property should be:

		Tls.
Fair return on Tls. 26,250,000		2,231,250
	Tls.
Operating Expense	1,744,191
Rates, Taxes and Charges	68,404
Depreciation Reserve	266,133	2,078,728
Gross Revenue Required in 1931		Tls. 4,309,978

This compares with a gross revenue required to meet fiscal requirements under the "Tariff Agreement" of Tls. 4,316,163. This revenue includes a proper Reserve and the Extra Dividends, as well as all dividends on bonus stock. It is seen, therefore, that such a return is approximately the same as the ascertained fair return on the fair value of the property. It must be remembered, however, that extra dividends are not cumulative nor certain and that they are by their nature to a great extent outside the main issue.

There is no ground, therefore, for assuming that the existing rates and charges of the Company are excessive, particularly when it is remembered that the revenue for the current year cannot now be adjusted and there will be no appropriation available for Reserve and the total actual return will be appreciably less than the fair return. It appears to me, however, to be a basic fact that where the local standard of currency is the tael, where the rates are paid in silver, the books are kept in silver and all capital expenditures are recorded in taels as of the year the capital was expended and, therefore include the cost of gold purchased in that year, the rise or fall of silver currency is intrinsically a speculative element, the risk of profit or loss on which should not be borne by the consumer.

This is equivalent to saying that when the rates yield a fair return on the fair value of the property in taels the consumers' obligation is fulfilled. If the Company elects to issue sterling capital and pay dividends in sterling and, through the vicissitudes of exchange, the fair return in taels is insufficient to pay the expected dividends in sterling, the shareholders should take the loss. On the other hand, if exchange is favourable to the sterling shareholders and the fair return in taels is more than sufficient to pay the expected dividends in sterling, the shareholder may take the gain without injustice to the consumer. These statements are made as basic principles for the determination of fair value on which a fair return should be earned and is quite apart from the terms of the existing "Tariff Agreement."

4. With relation to whether past earnings are germane to present revenue it has been held in a number of cases by the Courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States, that past losses are not to be considered in determining if present rates are just and reasonable. In passing on this question and with the decision of the United States Supreme Court in hand, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York in a case before it stated:—

"It would seem to follow as a necessary corollary that if past losses may not be considered in fixing a rate base, neither should past profits be so considered, nor what would have been past profits or larger net earnings by a readjustment of operating expenses."

Certainly the ratepayers would not desire to recoup past losses By the same token they may not recoup past profits.

5. The matter of capital outlay required to insure an adequate supply of pure and wholesome water has been carefully considered. I am of the opinion that the Company's estimates of capital outlay are fair and reasonable and that they should expend upwards of Tls. 3,000,000 prior to December 31, 1935, properly to maintain an adequate supply of pure and wholesome water.

6. Metering water is the only method of effectively and economically restricting household waste. Even though reduction in annual cost be not immediately attained, saving in future capital outlay for additional works will in the long run pay handsomely for meters.

Experience in checking waste by universal metering has been generally satisfactory and has fully justified the expense and trouble of its introduction. Quarterly bills for volume consumed are effective reminders of the need of tight plumbing. People cease to be oblivious to the continual flow of small quantities, which, like the little drops of water and little grains of sand, mount to huge proportions. Even plumbers learn in time and the standards of plumbing are higher in metered than unmetered places.

The meter permits the freedom of the taker to draw the water he needs with a control on the part of the works which is constant and sure. The taker pays for nothing he does not get and the works furnish nothing for which they are not paid. Meter rates may be established which will not increase the burdens of the small and poor consumer.

I wish to acknowledge the valuable and helpful aid given me by E. S. Wilkinson, Esq., A.C.A.

I also wish to express my appreciation of the courtesy and consideration of the municipal Officials, and in particular Charles Harpur, Esq., Commissioner of Public Works.

I desire too to testify to the willingness of the Water Company to furnish me with a great amount of data which I requested, and which were very useful in reaching my conclusions. Mention should be made in particular of the amount of time and trouble taken by C. D. Pearson, Esq., Engineer-in-Chief and Manager, to assist me in my investigations.

I am also grateful for the courteous attentions of the Chinese Ratepayers' Association and for the valuable suggestions contained in the reports of this Association and of the Shanghai Realty Owners' Association as well.

Road Extensions and Widenings

Yuenmingyuen Road.—An area of Mow 0.120 from Cadastral Lot 8 for the scheduled widening of Yuenmingyuen Road has been surrendered by Messrs. Ellis & Hays in exchange for an area of Mow 0.001 of surplus road land fronting Cadastral Lot 8 and payment by the Council of a sum of Tls. 12,500.

Land Commission.

CASE No. 222.

Scheduled widening of Broadway East, Cadastral Lots 39 and 46, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, October 8, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Davies of Messrs. Davies & Brooke appears for the claimant and the Council is represented by Mr. R. Winter of the Secretariat.

Mr. Davies states his case in the following terms:

You have all seen the correspondence between the Shanghai Municipal Council and ourselves, in which we claimed compensation at the rate of Tls. 45,000 per mow, while the Council finally offered to pay Tls. 35,000 per mow.

Our claim at that time was based upon a conservative estimate regarding possible rentals obtainable when the property was rebuilt. We are now in a position to deal with facts rather than possibilities, and have prepared statements showing the exact cost of the buildings. (Here Mr. Davies puts in the statements referred to).

If you will peruse the copy of a letter, which we have received from the owners, (Here Mr. Davies puts in a letter dated October 7, 1931, from Messrs. David Sassoon & Co., Ltd., the referred-to owners) you will see that the rentals being asked are very reasonable and that a number of the houses are already let although the buildings are only seventy per cent completed.

It will be seen from the statement that the net rentals amount to Tls. 55,240 per annum, after making reasonable deductions to cover charges.

	Tls.
The total net rentals capitalized at 7 per cent makes the total value of the property to be	789,143
which, after deducting the "all-in" cost of the buildings	207,585
Makes the total value of the land	581,558

The net area being mow 11.061, shows the value of the land to be Tls. 52,577 per mow.

The question of betterment does not arise since the road frontage on Broadway is not improved in any way and Broadway was already a fifty-foot road. In fact, temporarily, at any rate, the enforced set back is a distinct disadvantage as the shops on Broadway will be from 25 to 30 feet back from the road line of the properties on either side.

In these circumstances, we now wish to amend our claim from Tls. 45,000 to Tls. 50,000 per mow, therefore:

Mow 0.597 at Tls. 50,000 per mow =Tls. 29,850.00

Replying for the Council, Mr. Winter says that as the Council is making no claim in respect to betterment the case resolves itself into a determination of the value of the land. As of some guidance to the Commissioners in this connection he wishes to cite the cases of Cadastral Lots 57 and 60 consisting of land in the vicinity but nearer the creek. Surrenders to the Council from these lots were made in July of last year, without reference to the Land Commission, compensation being paid at the rate of Tls. 45,000 per mow. In that case the land was more valuable, being nearer the creek and centre of the town and having a much longer frontage to the Broadway than the piece of land now under discussion. The claimant in the present case had submitted a claim based on hypothetical rentals. Mr. Davies denies that the rents are hypothetical ones and states that a very large number of the premises have already been let, but admits in answer to Mr. Winter's query, that only about three quarters of the entire construction work has been completed.

Continuing, Mr. Winter says that the Council's offer was based on the last assessed value which is Tls. 28,000 in respect of Cad. lot 39 and Tls. 29,000 in respect of Cad Lot 46, giving a sum of Tls. 16,898, as the value of the portion to be excised. He does not think that the premises will be rented very easily as he understands there are still four shops vacant among those erected on Cadastral Lot 60.

Rejoining Mr. Davies says that shops recently erected on Broadway East in the near vicinity were being rented for Tls. 150 against $120 per shop which his firm was charging for premises on Cadastral Lots 39 and 46 fronting on the same road. There were only three or four of these shops left unrented.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be communicated in due course.

AWARD.

That the registered owners be compensated at the rate of Tls. 43,000 per mow for the scheduled area of Mow 0.597 or payment in the sum of Tls. 25,671.

CASE No. 223.

Scheduled widening of Liangchow Road, Cadastral Lot 6450, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, October 8, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Robert V. Wang, the claimant, appears in person and the Council is represented by Mr. R. Winter.

Mr. Wang says he is the owner of U.S. Lot 2019 (Cadastral Lot 6450) and he wishes the Council to pay adequate compensation for the portion which it wishes to excise for the extension of Liangchow Road. He is of the opinion that Tls. 8,000 per mow is a fair demand for him to make, in support of which he submits a letter written in Chinese from the United Trading Company, offering to buy the whole of Cadastral Lot 6450 at the rate of Tls. 12,000 per mow. He had already built a certain number of houses on his land and of course the loss of the portion required by the Council would prevent him from realizing as much in rentals as he otherwise would obtain.

He would receive a total of $700 per month in rentals if all the premises on the lot were rented. The shops would rent at $22 per month and the inside hongs (which were about 14-ft. wide) would rent from $12 to $18 each. Up to the present time he had let premises up to a total rental of about $500.

Replying for the Council Mr. Winter says there appears to be only one point in dispute, namely, the question of betterment. He recites the following formal facts in connection with the case: Registered owner: Mr. J. B. Davies; Total area: Mow 3.091; Area scheduled: Mow 0.510; Owner claims: Tls. 8,000 per mow=Tls. 4,080. Council offers: Tls. 2,040; Assessed value: Tls. 6,300 per mow. Road scheduled: 1922.

Continuing Mr. Winter says it is obvious from an inspection of the plan that the creek would be replaced by a 50-ft. road. So that in due course the claimant would have a frontage of 140-ft. on a Council road. As some indication that the building of such a road and that betterment had been anticipated he would like to point out that the owner had built two iron gates fronting on that area. When Liangchow Road is completed the site will be suitable for shops.

He would also like to mention that the compensation offered by the Council was based on the inclusion of half the creek land.

Answering a query by one of the Commissioners as to when Liangchow Road will be completed it is stated that it depends upon developments in the neighbourhood. It is unlikely to be completed before another two or three years, maybe longer.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That the registered owner be compensated at the rate of Tls. 8,000 per mow for the scheduled area of mow 0.510 less Tls. 1,000 for betterment or a net payment of Tls. 3,080.

Excerpts from Minutes.

At the meeting of the Council held on Wednesday, October 14, 1931, at 4.30 p.m., there are present:—Brig.-Gen. E. B. Macnaghten, Chairman, Messrs. A. D. Bell, N. S. Brown, J. W. Carney, K. Fukushima, A. J. Hughes, O. Okamoto, O. S. Lieu, F. J. Raven, T. D. Woo, L. T. Yuan, Yu Ya Ching, the Secretary General and the Acting Secretary.

Dr. J. C. H. Wu attends.

The Minutes of the last meeting are confirmed, and signed by the Chairman.

Land Commission—Membership.—Owing to the absence of Mr. S. L. Hsu, consideration of this question is deferred to the next meeting.

Junior School for Boys—Western District.—The Chairman reports that the Commissioner of Public Works has suggested that a new school building be erected on the area of land abutting on to Kiaochow Road recently purchased by the Council, or, alternatively, that this be built on a portion of land in Yu Yuen Road between the Public School for Girls and the Fire Station. His proposal is adopted that these alternative schemes be submitted to the Education Board for its views.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Works Committee of September 29 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Staff Committee of October 5 are submitted and, subject to one exception, are confirmed.

The Minutes of the meeting of the Education Board of October 7 are submitted and confirmed.

The Minutes of the meetings of the Public Utilities Committee of October 9 are submitted and confirmed.

Orchestral Concerts—Accommodation.—A member reports that the China Theatres Ltd. have notified that their offer to rent the Carlton Theatre for the accommodation of the Orchestral Concerts during the present Season will be withdrawn unless the Council agrees to enter into a five year lease for the Grand Theatre upon its reconstruction being completed. The Committee is unanimous in the view that the increased rental of Tls. 1,250 per night will be more than offset by the additional receipts which will accrue from the greatly increased seating capacity. As this lease will contain a clause permitting the Council to terminate it at six months' notice in the event of the Orchestra being disbanded, the Committee strongly recommends that the Council should agree to a lease on the terms stated.

After discussion this recommendation is endorsed subject to the insertion of a clause permitting the Council to sub-let the theatre on any particular evening it is not required for the holding of a concert and to the terms of the lease being approved by the Commissioner of Public Works.

Waterworks Investigation—Mr. Hill's report.—A summary of conclusions from the report of Mr. Nicholas S. Hill, Jr., has been circulated to members. This, the Secretary General suggests, should be published immediately.

A member is of opinion that a Chinese version of this summary should be published simultaneously with the foreign version. Members concur in this view and direct that the Chinese translations be made in order that this summary may appear in the Press on Friday morning.

It is also directed that a copy of this Summary be transmitted to the Waterworks Company and copies furnished to members of the Public Utilities Committee to-morrow.

Women's International Zionist Organization.—An application by this organization to hold a "Flag Day" on November 2, to collect funds for welfare work, is submitted.

In view of the recent considerable increase in the number of applications for collecting funds by this method, this application is disapproved.

The meeting terminates at 5.40 p.m.

Municipal Staff.

Extracts from the Order Books for the week ending Saturday, October 17.

Fire Brigade.—Sub-Officer F. J. Jones is promoted to be Assistant Station Officer on probation from October 15.

Public Health Department.—Miss E. A. Bursell, Acting Assistant Matron, Indian Police Hospital, is promoted to be Assistant Matron from September 7.

Commissioner of Public Health.

Public Health Report for September.

Vital Statistics.—The Foreign death rate was 18.14 and that of the Chinese 16.71 which are about the normal averages. Of the 57 deaths among resident foreigners, 28 were Japanese. Among resident Chinese there were 1,376 deaths reported.

Schistosomiasis, a disease caused by Schistosomum japonicum, a liver fluke, is not normally included amongst communicable diseases, and though quite common further up the Yangtsze has not been noted as one of the usual diseases of the Shanghai area in recent years, at any rate not amongst foreigners.

Through the courtesy of a number of local practitioners, information has been received concerning a not inconsiderable number of cases under treatment, and it would seem from this information that the area around Henli and possibly around certain other areas, is infected.

Since the disease is caused by penetration of the skin or by the ingestion through the mouth of the larval form of the fluke which passes its intermediary stage in certain fresh water snails, it is clear that the disease is liable to attack persons bathing in infected water, or persons wading or shooting in paddy fields.

It is therefore highly inadvisable for people to bathe in the infected areas. As regards sportsmen they might obtain a certain measure of protection by wearing either gum boots or high boots when wading.

Other precautions which should be taken relate to the close supervision of the water supply in houseboats. It will be found that unless careful supervision is exercised creek water will be used in dish-washing, etc. Water used in cooking is reasonably safe since the larvae are easily killed at a moderately low temperature. Other precautions which can be taken in regard to water are as follows:

Storage for 48 hours (probably a somewhat impracticable suggestion).

The addition of one gram or 16 grains of Bi-sulphate of Soda per quart of drinking water.

The addition of a high dilution of Cresol (one in 10,000) to the water used for ablution purposes.

Finally it may be of interest to note that dogs may also be infected and may at later date be the source of infection to humans.

Communicable Diseases.—Cholera. According to Statistics at the Health Department's disposal Cholera became epidemic in accordance with the definition in the International Quarantine Board Regulations in the Shanghai area on the 7th and in the International Settlement on the 15th. The peak was reached on September 19.

There were five cases amongst resident foreigners, with three deaths, and one fatal case (non-resident) which came from the French Concession. Among resident Chinese there were 100 cases notified, of which 11 died, while 202 non-resident cases were notified from hospitals situated in the Settlement, comprising 29 from the French Concession and 173 from Chinese Districts.

Altogether 22,699 persons were inoculated against Cholera, bringing the season's total to 156,460.

Typhoid Fever.—There were 17 resident foreign cases, and 3 deaths of Japanese. None of the cases had any inoculation history. There were 37 Chinese deaths, a slight decrease from the previous month.

Paratyphoid Fevers.—There were two resident foreign cases and 1 Chinese death.

Dysenteries.—The high incidence noted during the last two months continued during September, with a slightly higher death rate. 47 cases of Bacillary Dysentery, and 15 of Amoebic Dysentery were notified amongst the foreign population whilst 35a cases with 56 deaths were notified among the Chinese population.

Smallpox.—There was one fatal Chinese case, with no vaccination history, while a non-resident Chinese giving an address in Chapei died in the Municipal Chinese Isolation Hospital. No other cases were notified.

Cerebrospinal Fever.—Accounted for four resident Chinese deaths, and one non-resident Chinese death.

Tuberculosis.—Continued to take its toll and there were six resident foreign deaths of which five were due to Pulmonary Tuberculosis. 72 Chinese resident Pulmonary cases were notified, and 89 deaths occurred from all forms.

Diphtheria.—There was one foreign resident case of Diphtheria and 14 resident Chinese cases, with 4 deaths.

Scarlet Fever.—Accounted for 2 Chinese deaths.

There were 15 cases of Influenza notified amongst Chinese residents.

Malaria still remains rather high there being 36 fresh cases notified amongst foreign residents, chiefly British soldiers, though it is noted that 7 Japanese from Tung Wen College, Hungjao Road, contracted the disease. 20 resident Chinese cases were notified with 1 death.

In addition, 31 cases of "relapse" were notified by the British Military authorities.

Rabies.—A fatal resident Chinese case was reported and also 2 non-resident deaths occurred, both Chinese (one a Soochow resident and one from the French Concession).

Beri-Beri accounted for four Japanese deaths and 6 Chinese deaths.

Medical Registration. — Since publication of the Register 59 further applications for Registration have been received.

Laboratories.—The number of specimens submitted for examination for the month of September exceeded the number for August and marks a further high record.

The manufacturing section devoted attention to the preparation of Cholera and routine media.

Twenty five containers of mosquito larvae from different sources in the Western District were received for identification of species. All contained anopheline larvae and/or pupae.

In order to bring the Wasserman test in line with the more modern developments the methods were modified somewhat during the month.

In routine diagnostic work 124 specimens were examined for Diphtheria, and 779 stool specimens for various types of Dysentery, with 166 positive results.

Cholera.—371 specimens were examined with 240 positive results.

Anthrax.—Of six specimens examined four were positive.

Pasteur Treatment.—73 patients, including 9 from outports attended for advice, cauterisation and/or treatment. Two patients died from Rabies one of whom had not received the full course of treatment which was given at Soochow.

The other patient, treated in the Laboratory, was a Chinese schoolboy. So far as anti-rabic treatment is concerned, neither of the deaths can be classified as "failures."

Hospitals Division.—Several cases of measles were admitted from the Kings' Daughters' Society Nursery and five cases of Cholera from the foreign population were admitted to the Municipal Isolation Hospital.

A mild epidemic of dysentery, chiefly among Chinese Police constables, kept the Chinese Isolation Hospital fully occupied. In addition, one case of Leprosy in an advanced stage and three cases of Hydrophobia, all of which proved fatal, were admitted.

Work at the Clinics continues to progress satisfactorily.

Food & Dairies.—The outstanding feature of the Veterinary Surgeon's report is information concerning milk traffic from unlicensed dairies. In two cases evidence showed the active connivance of licensed dairies, while another revealed the surreptitious delivery of milk from Pootung to a Police station. All of the samples taken in these cases showed heavy adulteration and in addition such a heavy bacterial contamination as to render the milk unfit for human consumption.

Unusually heavy consignments of cattle were received at the Cattlesheds. This is stated to have been due to the forthcoming enforcement of new rules having for their object the conservation of agricultural animals, but probably the real cause is the anxiety on the part of dealers to get stocks out of flooded regions north of the Yangtsze where grazing is no longer available.

In regard to the other work of the Food Branch 102 samples were taken of milk, 12 of which were of poor quality, and 23 milk samples of which four were below standard, were examined bacteriologically. The necessary steps have been taken to remedy matters. Further improvements are noted in certain dairy premises. Abattoir returns show that cattle figures for this month exceed those of last year by 1409.

Markets & Bakeries.—Progressive improvements are recorded in this section. Night inspections of bakeries revealed conditions which in some cases necessitated prosecution, and in others final warnings have been given. Concentration of attention to hawkers in the neighbourhood of certain markets has brought a considerable number of these itinerant vendors into the markets.

Arrangements are in hand for the registration of all stall spaces in the larger markets. This will tend to remove an old-standing source of trouble, especially in new markets, and in general make for improved efficiency.

Sanitation Division.—The major work of this Division has centred on minor licensed premises, many of which are being brought under routine supervision for the first time. The size of the work will be more readily understood when it is noted that in the Eastern District alone there are 1,395 premises to be dealt with.

Anti-fly and mosquito routine work has proceeded smoothly.

The Open Air Swimming Pool was closed for the season on September 30.

A Health Inspector was detached for duty with the Hankow Refugee Relief ship.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Commissioner of Public Health.

Obstruction of Footways.

Because of the increasing obstruction of footways with fixtures and movable articles, the Municipal Council has determined that there must in future be strict compliance with the regulations.

In the past numerous offenders, when told to remove boards placed on the footpath or raise awnings hung low over the pavement, have replaced the obstructions in a short time. General action has now been decided upon, but in order to afford ample opportunity for shopkeepers and others to comply with the law, this will not be taken until January 1, 1932, on which date the following orders will be enforced under the powers vested in the Council by Bye-law XXIII:—

(1).—No sunblind or part thereof shall be fixed or permitted to be at a level of less than 7 feet 6 inches above the footpath or 15 feet above the roadway.

(2).—No fitting or fixture, stall, table, or other movable article shall be placed or permitted to be in front of any building in such a manner as to project into the footpath or roadway.

Bye-law XXIII is as follows:—

The Council may give notice to the occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any porch, verandah, shed, projecting window, step, cellar, cellar-door, or window, sign, sign-post, sign-iron, showboard, window-shutter, wall.

gate, or fence, or any other obstruction or projection erected or placed against or in front of any house or building within such limits, and which is an obstruction to the safe and convenient passage along any street; and such occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such obstruction or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Council, and in default thereof shall be liable to a penalty or fine not exceeding ten dollars, and the Council in such case may remove such obstruction or projection, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as damages. Provided always, that in the case in which such obstructions or projections were made or put up by the owner, the occupier shall be entitled to deduct the expense of removing the same from the rent payable by him to the owner of the house or building.

Additional Park Areas.

The problem of providing more open spaces in the International Settlement continues to engage the serious attention of the Municipal Council. It is recognized that additional park areas are required in all districts; in fact the question embraces the whole port, so that undoubtedly the ideal manner of establishing new recreation grounds or playing fields would be by co-operation of all administrative units forming the port and city of Shanghai. With land at its present high value and the increasing demand for new buildings, there appears to be no possibility of acquiring another large playing field within the Settlement, and if one were considered outside it would be necessary to secure the consent and co-operation of the Government of Greater Shanghai, and possibly that of the French Municipal Council.

The demand for more parks and open spaces has been intensified by the Municipal Council throwing open its parks to Chinese residents. The latter are taking full advantage of the facilities afforded, and as time passes, the population increases and the Chinese continue to take up outdoor games, as they are doing to an extent perhaps not fully realized by the majority of foreigners, the present available areas will prove wholly inadequate. As there is no space for new playing fields in the Settlement, the logical thing to do is to seek it outside, where land is relatively cheap.

Meanwhile, the Municipal Council is facing the problem of providing for the recreation needs of young children by the establishment of small parks. At present there are the Public Garden on the Bund (27.9 mow), Soochow Road Garden (6.2 mow), Quinsan Square (9.5 mow), Studley Park (5.4 mow), Wayside Park (36.6 mow), Nanyang Road Playground (5.4 mow), Singapore Road Park (25 mow). Prior to the purchase of the Singapore Road property, the park and recreation ground areas provided by the Council totalled 652.619 mow, giving an area of one acre per 8,272 persons. As a basis for practical consideration the Commissioner of Public Works has suggested that a small park (20 to 40 mow in area) should be within approximately half a mile of each resident, i.e., about one mile apart.

In this connection it is interesting to recall that last year the Works Committee expressed the opinion that provision of additional parks should be favourably considered by the Council in the following order of priority: (1) Northern District, (2) Western District, (3) Eastern District. According to the 1930 census figures there were then in the Settlement west of Carter Road 42,810 children, of whom 21,508 lived north of Connaught Road. In this area are the Nanyang Road Playground and the Singapore Road Park. There is in this district some unbuilt on land where children play. Between Carter Road and Thibet Road there were 37,721 children at the time of the census. South of Bubbling Well Road in this area is the Race Course and Recreation Ground, which however is not available to the whole community for purposes of recreation. North of Bubbling Well Road is an extremely densely populated area in which there is no open space. In the Central District the child population was 22,345; the only open spaces are on the Bund and Soochow Creek foreshores, and the high price of land definitely precludes the purchase of anything more. In the Northern District west of Chapoo Road there were 35,456 children, Quinsan Square, on the east side, being the one open space. This is a very densely populated area—over 300 persons per acre for the whole, and over 400 per acre for one-third of the area. Between Chapoo Road and Chaoufoong Road there were last year 45,525 children, without any park or playing space.

Between Chaoufoong Road and Thorburn Road the children numbered 38,725, with the small garden known as Studley Park. Over 37,000 children were returned as resident between Thorburn Road and the Settlement boundary, beyond the Point, Wayside Park being situated on the west of this area. The total number of residents in the Settlement under 15 years of age a year ago was 259,431, and of this number 75,774 lived east of Thorburn Road and 80,531 west of Thibet Road, thus leaving 103,126 in the much smaller area between Chaoufoong Road on the east and Thibet Road on the west.

From what has been written some idea may be obtained of the magnitude of the problem before the Council.

Land Commission.

CASE No. 220.

Scheduled Widening of Race Course Road, Cadastral Lot 1393, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, October 1, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS

Mr. Newman, of Messrs. Teesdale, Newman & Co. appears on behalf of the owner, Mr. See Poo Sung, and the Council is represented by Mr. R. Winter.

Mr. Newman remarks that before stating his case he would like to hear from the Council's representative particulars as to the compensation paid for surrenders from adjoining lots.

Replying, Mr. Winter says that surrenders from adjoining lots 1399, 1407 and 1409 were made in 1908 at the rate of Tls. 1,000 per mow. Under award made on December 14, 1928, (Land Commission Case No. 184) a surrender was made from Cadastral Lot 1425 at the rate of Tls. 1,000 per mow for the portion, subject to a special agreement made in 1902 and at the rate of Tls. 27,500 for the remaining portion.

As regards adjoining lots 1360, 1370, 1371 and 1390 no surrenders had yet been made.

Adjoining lot No. 1355 was also the subject of a Land Commission case, but in his (Mr. Winter's) submission it could not affect the present case as the road was then over 30 feet wide and therefore did not come within the terms of the 1902 agreement referred to.

Resuming, Mr. Newman says that he presumes the Commissioners have read the correspondence exchanged between his firm and the Council regarding the case, which correspondence had been reproduced in the "Municipal Gazette" of May 29, 1931. He wishes to refer particularly to a letter dated April 3, 1930, from the Deputy Secretary of the Council to Messrs. Lester, Johnson and Morriss, which reads as follows:

"Gentlemen,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 24, addressed to the Commissioner of Public Works claiming compensation in the sum of Tls. 5,304 in respect of the area required from Cadastral Lot 1393 for the scheduled widening of Race Course Road (late Taku Road).

"In reply I have to remind you that under an agreement dated December 12, 1902, the late Mr. Henry Morriss agreed to surrender at the rate of Tls. 1,000 per mow the land required for a thirty-foot road. The area of mow 0.108 required from Cadastral Lot 1393 falls within the limits of this thirty foot road and therefore the compensation due would be a sum of Tls. 108.

Your obedient servant,
J. R. JONES,
Deputy Secretary.

Continuing, Mr. Newman says that the assertions made in that letter were naturally taken as a true statement of fact and it was only by the merest chance that he had investigated the early history of the matter and had discovered that the title deed had never changed hands and therefore the property was not and had never been under the control of or subject to the mentioned agreement with Mr. Henry Morriss. The Council had never taken the slightest notice of the owner's protests relative to this mistake but on the contrary had then claimed that in view of the pronounced betterment which would accrue to the property through the proposed extension the portion required should be surrendered, without compensation—in fact confiscation. The Council actually made this demand for free surrender after paying an adjoining owner at the rate of Tls. 28,000 per mow for the excised portion. It is indeed difficult to understand such an attitude. They have to bear in mind the principles of compensation. The betterment is chiefly contributed to by the individual owner while the improvement is for the benefit of the community generally and therefore the owner should be adquately compensated from the public monies for the loss of the surrendered portion of his land. The Council's dictum is that where no loss is shown no compensation is to be paid, but his (Mr. Newman's) answer is that the onus is on the Council to show cause why the owner should be called upon for the surrender of a portion of his land to assist in better facilities for the public without being suitably recompensed for his loss.

At this stage Mr. Newman proposes to call upon Mr. Johnson and Col. Logan (who are present) for evidence in support of the values and figures cited in Messrs. Lester, Johnson, and Morriss's letter to the Council of March 24, 1930, but Mr. Winter remarks that this course may be unnecessary as he is prepared to admit the figures with the exception of the addition of 10 per cent for compulsory surrender.

Mr. Newman enquires whether or not he is to understand that, apart from the decision of the Commissioners on the question of compensation, Mr. Winter agrees that the claim sets forth the correct value of the land?

Mr. Winter replies that he is willing to agree that the sum mentioned is a fair valuation of the remaining portion of the land but not that it is a fair valuation of the excised portion.

Mr. Newman asserts that the claim at the rate of Tls. 44,650 per mow for the land surrendered was not excessive considering present prices of land in that district.

At this stage of the proceedings Mr. Johnson and Col. Logan retire, Mr. Newman remarking that had the Council notified him previously of this admission it would not have been necessary to call these experts this afternoon.

Continuing, Mr. Newman says he would like to hear what the Council's representative has to say in answer to his contention that the 1902 agreement with Mr. Henry Morriss cannot refer to the lot under discussion and Mr. Winter replies that the agreement does apply under clause 3 thereof insofar as the strip of land coloured green on the plan is concerned. Under the clause mentioned Mr. Henry Morriss was to attempt to acquire that strip at the rate of Tls. 1,000 per mow and in the event the Council had to pay for it at more than that rate he was to refund the difference to the Council. However this feature does not affect the present issue and therefore the Commissioners need not take cognizance of it.

Mr. Newman remarks that the point had been effectively dealt with in his letter of March 6, 1931, to the Council. In his submission the statements adduced in that letter show conclusively that the agreement of 1902 with Mr. Henry Morriss could have nothing to do with the present owner of Cad. Lot 1393, neither had the agreement which was entered into by Mr. Henry Morriss personally anything to do with Messrs. Lester, Johnson & Morriss. That although the Agreement of 1902 is no concern of the Commissioners it is interesting to shew the value of this land before it had any access to a road, that is, before a road was made at the expense of the ratepayers.

Mr. Winter reminds the Commissioners that under Land Regulation VIA, in considering the question of compensation for land surrenders, due account should be taken of the increase or decrease in the value of the remaining portion of the land as the result of the excision. Having regard to the fact that the widening of the road from 17-ft. or 19-ft. to 30-ft. permitted the erection of an improved type of house yielding higher rentals for a given area of land and that the access to those premises has been formed by the expenditure of ratepayers' money, he thinks the Council is entitled to ask for free surrender on the score of betterment. Other owners have made free surrenders for the purpose of widening the road and it is reasonable to ask that the present claimant should make a proportionate contribution.

In estimating betterment consideration should be given to the fact that the Council had recently constructed a 70-ft. road running from Weihaiwei Road to Avenue Edward VII, thereby materially increasing the value of property abutting thereon including the lot under discussion.

Mr. Newman says that while it is true that a better type of house has been built entailing increased capital this circumstance is not altogether due to the widening of the road as the owners could and would probably have used the old area for an improved type of premises. He understands the land was surrendered three years ago and thus the Council had the use of it for that time for nothing. There had been an extraordinary increase in land values during that period and it is not fair to take land values of three years ago as a basis. The claim should be based on present day values or interest paid for three years. He suggests that as the Council has not made any alternative offer but has simply asked for a free surrender and moreover has unduly delayed a settlement of the case and has put his client to quite an unnecessary expense in compelling him to come before the Commission this attitude should be taken into consideration by the Commissioners in making their award.

Mr. Winter rejoins that the Council had a letter from Messrs. Lester, Johnson and Morriss asking that the case be left in abeyance.

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That the registered owner be compensated at the rate of Tls. 40,000 per mow for the scheduled area equalling a sum of Tls. 4,320 and that a sum of Tls. 1,440 be deducted for betterment, thus:

	Tls.
Mow 0.108 @ Tls. 40,000 per Mow	4,320
less betterment	1,440
Making a net payment of	2,880

Szechuen Road.—In terms of the appended correspondence, it has been decided to refer the undermentioned case to the Land Commission for decision:—

Shanghai, June 5, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—The letter of the Commissioner of Public Works, addressed to Mr. Lieu Ong Sung, has been handed to us by that gentleman with instructions to write and inform you that he is quite willing to surrender to the Council the strip of land on Cad. Lot 118, Szechuen Road, between the existing footpath and his building if satisfactory terms can be arranged. You will agree that, largely due to the silver slump, the value of land in the Settlement has recently very largely increased, and is far in excess of its present assessed value.

In these circumstances he suggests that the question of the value of the piece of land to be surrendered might be referred on behalf of the Council and on behalf of himself to the Land Valuers Association for decision.

Yours faithfully,
PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.
J. M. MCKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, June 11, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 5, relative to the surrender of a portion of Cadastral Lot 118 for the scheduled widening of Szechuen Road.

In reply thereto, I have to inform you that the Council will consider any claim which may be put forward for the surrender of the area of Mow 0.389 involved.

If it is not possible to agree as to the compensation to be paid, the question will be referred for decision to the Land Commissioners in accordance with Article VIA of the Land Regulations.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

The Manager,
Messrs. PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.

Shanghai, July 10, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 11th ultimo relative to the surrender of a portion of Cad. Lot 118 for the scheduled widening of Szechuen Road.

Our client has obtained a valuation of the lot in question, at which it is valued at Tls. 255,000 per mow. The portion to be surrendered is mow 0.389, which would therefore be a value of Tls. 99,195. Our client would be agreeable to a reduction of 30 per cent. for betterment, leaving the amount of the compensation as Tls. 69,436.50. We shall be glad to hear from you on the matter in due course.

Yours faithfully,
PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.
J. M. McKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Shanghai, August 6, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We have to refer you to our letter of the 10th ultimo, relative to the surrender of a portion of Cad. Lot 118 for the scheduled widening of Szechuen Road. Will you kindly let us have a reply at your earliest convenience.

Yours faithfully,
PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.
J. M. McKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, August 11, 1931.

SIR,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 10, requesting compensation at the rate of Tls. 255,000 per mow, less 30 per cent. for betterment, for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.389 from Cadastral Lot 118, required for the scheduled widening of Szechuen Road.

In reply thereto, I am directed to inform you that the Council is unwilling to pay such compensation, but offers instead a sum of Tls. 46,972, based on a value of Tls. 172,500 per mow less 30 per cent. betterment.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

The Manager,
Messrs. PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.

Shanghai, August 24, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 11th instant in which you offer our client a sum of Tls. 46,972 based on a value of Tls. 172,500 per mow less 30 per cent. betterment.

In our letter of the 10th ultimo we asked on behalf of our client for compensation at the rate of Tls. 255,000 per mow less 30 per cent. for betterment, and our client feels that this request is reasonable. The value of Tls. 255,000 per mow is a conservative value, as the land in question can at present be disposed of at Tls. 300,000 per mow or more. Our client was willing to agree to a reduction of 30 per cent. from Tls. 255,000 per mow, owing to the fact that the surrender of mow 0.389 is for road widening purposes.

Our client regrets he cannot accept the Council's counter offer at the rate of Tls. 172,500 less 30 per cent. for betterment, which is only Tls. 5,750 higher than the assessed value, viz.-Tls. 115,000 per mow, whereas the present market or actual value is more than double that ruling at the time our client started the planning of the new building.

Our client also desires us to request the Council to take into consideration the fact that the amount of Municipal rates the Council is now collecting on the new building is several times more than the amount they received from the old premises.

We would therefore submit that nothing should be deducted for betterment, or that if there is any claim for betterment it should be offset by the enhanced amount of revenue collected by the Council on the new building. Our client, however, is very anxious to get the matter in question settled as soon as possible, and with that object in view he instructs us to inform you that he would be willing to accept compensation at the rate suggested by the Council, viz—Tls. 172,500 provided there is no deduction for betterment, making the sum due to our client Tls. 67,102.50 for the surrender of the area of mow 0.389. We trust that the Council will be able to agree to the above proposal.

Yours faithfully,
PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.
J. M. McKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, September 4, 1931.

SIR,—I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of August 24, stating that you are willing to accept compensation at Tls. 172,500 per mow for the surrender of an area of Mow 0.389 from Cadastral Lot 118 for the scheduled widening of Szechuen Road, provided there is no deduction for betterment. It is noted that this reduces your claim from Tls. 69,436 to Tls. 67,102.

In justification of the Council's offer of Tls. 46,972 for this surrender I have to place before you the following considerations:—

(1).—The width of this section of Szechuen Road until 1923 varied from 23 feet to 30 feet. In that year the Council took a surrender of the area scheduled from Cadastral Lot 62 on the opposite side of the road, thereby increasing the road to its present width, which lies between about 49 feet and 54 feet. The surrender now being negotiated will increase the width of the road to 70 feet as scheduled.

(2).—Until the Council scheduled the widening of Szechuen Road any buildings erected on this lot would, under the Building Regulations, be limited in height to a maximum of 45 feet, whereas the buildings recently erected have eight stories and a height of 105 feet.

(3).—The Council has based its offer of compensation on a value of Tls. 172,500 per mow, which is 50 per cent. above the assessed value. It should be borne in mind that, for the purpose of assessing compensation, the value of the land is that existing before the scheduled improvement is effected, and not the increased value resulting from the widening of the road, whereby the owners are permitted to build to a height of 105 feet.

4.—The Council is unable to appreciate the suggestion that nothing should be deducted for betterment, or that if there is any claim for betterment it should be offset by the enhanced revenue which will be collected by the Council as General Municipal Rate. The fact that the Council will collect a large increase in rates implies an increased revenue to the owners of the property and tends to establish the claim for betterment.

In view of the foregoing considerations I have to inform you that the Council is unwilling to increase its offer of Tls. 46,972 for the surrender of the scheduled area of Mow 0.389.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

The Manager,
Messrs. PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.

Shanghai, October 12, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—We have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 4th ultimo which we have referred to our client who instructs us to state that he is unwilling to accept compensation in a sum less than Tls. 67,102 for the following reasons:—

1.—The widening of public roads, particularly Szechuen Road, is for the benefit of the public and for traffic purposes and is not done for the benefit of the adjacent property owners.

2.—When in 1923 the road was increased to its present width of about 49 feet to 54 feet, the building height was, as a rule, limited to 81 feet. It was not our client's desire that the width of the road should be increased to 70 feet or that he should be thereby allowed to erect buildings of a height of 105 feet. Our client could obtain a much better return on his investment by not surrendering the extra 20 feet of frontage since he could erect more houses and there is considerably more demand for office accommodation on the ground floor and on the lower floors of buildings than on the upper floors; while on the other hand the building cost of the higher floors is greater than that of the lower floors.

3.—The increased value of the land is not, in our client's opinion, due to the road widening, but is due to various other reasons such as the depreciation of silver and the increased demand for office accommodation in the centre of the Settlement, and our client contends that the land in question is of a market value of Tls. 300,000 a mow apart altogether from the proposed widening of the road. Our client is now offering to surrender the valuable frontage strip measuring about one-sixth of his property for compensation amounting to only a little over half the market value, and in these circumstances he considers it unreasonable that anything should be deducted for betterment. In fact, if there is any question of betterment, he wishes us to point out that in agreeing to accept compensation at Tls. 172,500.- per mow he is giving up the difference between the amount and the market value, viz. Tls. 127,500.- per mow.

We trust that the Council will be willing to reconsider the matter in view of the above considerations and agree to compensate our client in the sum of Tls. 67,102.

Yours faithfully,
PLATT, WHITE-COOPER & Co.

There was an increase of 123 cases as compared with the figures for last month and an increase of 319 cases over those for the corresponding period last year. Increases are recorded in three Divisions as follows:—"A" Division 44 cases, "C" Division 91 cases, "D" Division three whilst "B" Division shows a decrease of 15 cases. The Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division reports that the greater portion of the increase is the result of petty thefts of motor-car accessories from motor-cars parked on the roads, and many arrests have been made in connection therewith. The Divisional Detective Officer "B" Division again reports a large number of thefts as the result of doors and windows being left open and of the carelessness of residents of the Western District in leaving property exposed. Servants and inmates were suspected in 45 cases. The Divisional Detective Officer "C" Division reports a decrease of serious crime and attributes the higher figures to the large number of arrests made by the Police in raids, etc. Serious crime increased in all Divisions, armed and other robberies, burglaries and "breaking" cases being more prevalent than during the corresponding month last year. The rise is not abnormal for this period of the year and is receiving special attention.

Of the reports recorded a large number were found, on investigation, to be false, mistakes of fact and non-criminal. 54 cases were too trifling for investigation. Louza District records 16 robberies, four "breaking" cases, 10 burglaries, 26 snatching cases and 58 cases of pocket picking, a considerable increase over the figures for August. Hongkew and West Hongkew Districts show increases in burglary and "breaking" cases, but only two cases of armed robbery occurred in these Districts. Increases under armed robbery and burglary occurred in Wayside and Yangtszepoo Districts. Bubbling Well District shows an increase of eight cases of burglary and four of armed robbery and Samza five of burglary and four of armed robbery. The crime of abduction in which small children are kidnapped and transported from Shanghai for sale in Outports appears to be increasing despite the large number of arrests made by the Police. Some action by steamship companies and Chinese Authorities is indicated to stop this and the matter is receiving attention.

1,636 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 51 for offences committed previously and 27 for other Authorities, a total increase of 176 as compared with the number recorded last month.

Murder.—A particularly gruesome case occurred in Wayside District on September 19, in which two Chinese women, alone in a house on Seward Road, were stabbed to death, the faces of both victims being very badly lacerated. Robbery was the motive and one of the suspects has been arrested.

Attempted Murder.—Of two cases reported, one was in Wayside District in which a medicine shop assistant attacked the accountant of the same concern with an axe whilst the latter was asleep. The culprit was arrested and charged, whilst in the second an armed robber attempted, unsuccessfully, to shoot a Chinese Police Constable.

Kidnapping.—One case occurred in Louza District when a Chinese contractor was kidnapped in his own car. A case of conspiracy to kidnap a foreign resident was also discovered.

Abduction.—As mentioned above, cases of this kind are increasing. 23 occurred during the month, an increase of 12 cases. As a result of the abduction of two females in Wayside and Hongkew Districts by admirers, seven men were arrested and charged with rape and in one case the female was released. As the result of the arrest of two boys under 12 years of age and one slightly over that age, it was ascertained that they were employed to entice small children away from their homes after which they were handed over to adults for transportation to and eventual sale in Fukien. Three females were arrested and three children restored to their parents, but the boys admitted ten such cases.

Detectives at Bubbling Well also arrested a gang of nine persons and rescued five children. The accused admitted having abducted 30 children from this Settlement, the French Concession and Chinese territory during the past two years and stated that all had been sold in Canton.

Hongkew Detectives arrested a gang of six persons and rescued three children who had been stolen from Chinkiang, Nanking and Shanghai. 49 arrests were made for this class of offence.

Armed Robberies.—42 were reported, an increase of 20 over the previous month. There is an increase of six cases as compared with the corresponding period last year. "A" Division records an increase of six, "B" Division eight and "D" Division eight whilst there is a decrease of two in "C" Division. The Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division reports that of the 15 reports received in his Division shopkeepers were the victims in 13 cases. The Divisional Detective Officer "B" Division records the arrest of eight men and one woman who committed 15 such cases. The Divisional Detective Officer "C" Division reports one case in which two pedestrians were killed and a robber badly wounded in a battle with the Police.

Other Robberies.—There was a decrease of one case under this heading and of the total of eight, investigations proved that two were false reports.

Members of a Criminal Gang.—Three gangs were arrested during the month and 23 arrests were made. A foreigner was found to be connected with one of these gangs and was subsequently arrested.

House,—Office—and Shop-breaking.—There is an increase of 13 cases in this class of report as compared with last month and nine more than for the corresponding period last year. The Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division records a decrease of three reports in his Division, the Divisional Detective Officer "B" Division a decrease of two. There were increases of 11 and seven cases respectively in "C" and "D" Divisions. 28 arrests were effected including two Russians in "C" Division

Burglary.—An increase of 31 cases is recorded there being 65 cases as compared with 34 in August. The Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division reports eight additional cases in his Division. 36 arrests took place in connection with these cases.

Thefts.—Reports under this heading show an increase of 54 as compared with the figures recorded for August. Nine false reports were received and 17 were found, after investigation, not to be criminal cases. A total of 417 arrests were made in connection with this class of crime. Many petty cases are recorded under this heading and a large number are "unpreventable" crimes so far as the Police are concerned. 99 cases of pocket picking were reported and 66 arrests were made. 36 bicycles were stolen.

Snatching.—There was an increase of seven cases as compared with last month and 31 arrests were made. There is considerable improvement in reports for this class of crime as compared with those recorded for the corresponding period last year.

Opium Offences.—160 reports are recorded as the result of Police action, in which 484 arrests took place. The Headquarters Narcotic Section made 20 raids and arrested 149 persons of which number 44 had previous convictions for opium and other offences. 126 ounces of opium, morphine and red pills, 90 pipes and six hypodermic syringes were seized and confiscated.

Gambling Offences.—42 cases occurred during the month, an increase of four over last month, 81 arrests were effected as a result of police action. All cases were of a trifling nature and call for no special comment.

Other Crimes.—As compared with last month there were 30 fewer reports recorded and 121 more than for the corresponding period of last year.

All Districts report numerous cases of assault, a large number of cases of false pretences, fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, forgery, etc. all unpreventable by police action.

Notable work by Crime Branch Headquarters staff included the arrest of two chinese in connection with an armed kidnapping in Kiukiang Road. Notable work in "A" Division included (1) the arrest and subsequent conviction of two Chinese who attempted to rob a shop in Fokien Road, and (2) the arrest of eight members of a Russian criminal gang for conspiring to kidnap a foreign resident and hold him for a ransom of $500,000.00. Notable work in "B" Division included (1) the arrest of a gang of nine kidnappers of children (mentioned under Abduction), and (2) the arrest of a gang of nine criminals including one female charged with 15 cases of armed robbery. Notable work in "C" Division included the arrests at West Hongkew of three criminal gangs, comprising 20 persons, who were eventually charged with murder, robbery, larceny and godown breaking. One foreigner was arrested in one of these gangs and is charged with being concerned in an armed robbery. Notable work in "D" Division included (1) the arrest of 16 cargo broachers and one receiver and the recovery of the stolen property (value $14,317) within 48 hours of the report being received by the Police, which was made possible by the excellent co-operation of the River Police, and (2) the arrest of a riksha coolie concerned in the murder and armed robbery of two Chinese females.

Twenty-two cases occurred on extra Settlement Roads or in buildings abutting thereon, a decrease of 17 cases as compared with those recorded last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 13 special cases including fraud, murder, armed robbery and armed kidnapping and effected the arrest of three persons. In addition enquiries were continued in five serious cases previously reported.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $219,899 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, an increase of $60,931 as compared with last month. Property valued at $61,755 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records dealt with was 2,430, of which 2,069 are criminal records, being a total increase of 435 as compared with last month. Investigations were made into 43 cases and latent prints were secured in 12 instances. Of 27 dead bodies finger-printed and photographed at the Mortuary two were identified by photographs. 64 records of foreigners were received and 36 identified as having previous convictions.

Studio.—311 photographs were taken and 693 copies printed during the month.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the staff of the Section visited 391 Boarding houses, 13 bars, restaurants, cafes, taverns and theatres. Eleven new applications were dealt with.

Suicides.—Fourteen Chinese and three foreigners were reported as having committed suicide during the month and eight Chinese attempted to do so.

Communism.—The case against Mr. and Mrs. Noulens, who have appeared on six occasions before the Special Court in Nanking, was still pending at the end of the month.

Sixteen Chinese were prosecuted during the month for having engaged in communistic activities. Of these six were extradited to the Chinese Authorities while the remaining ten were acquitted. The action resulting in these prosecutions included raids on six different places where evidence was discovered showing that they were used as bases for the dissemination of communistic literature. The bulk of the literature obtained in these seizures was printed in Chinese and Japanese.

During the month the police seized 3,861 copies of communistic literature including 104 different kinds of leaflets. Subjects dealt with in these leaflets included the anniversary of International Youth Day, the flood catastrophe and the activities of the Red Armies. The Sino-Japanese imbroglio formed the principal theme of leaflets which appeared towards the end of the month and there is no doubt that the communists intend to do everything possible to exploit the trouble that has arisen for the furtherance of the ends of the Third International. A significant feature of these leaflets is that they denounce the Kuomintang and Japan with equal vigour.

Arrest of Japanese Communists.—T. Nishisato, a former reporter of the "Shanghai Nippo," who was implicated with a number of students of the Tung Wen College in the dissemination of communistic handbills among a party of Japanese naval cadets who visited that institution in December, 1930, was arrested in Tokyo on August 28, 1931, and brought back on September 21, to Shanghai, where his case will be investigated.

G. Kito and T. Kitama, who were arrested on September 4, were sent to Tokyo for trial on September 15.

Three Formosan communists were sent on September 15, to Keslung, Formosa, for trial.

Strikes.—During the month under review there were five strikes in the Settlement. These affected 615 employees of 15 different concerns and resulted in a loss of 4,835 working days. The strikers comprised 20 bookbinders, 120 casual workers of the Waterworks Company, 62 furniture makers, 169 restaurant waiters and 88 restaurant cooks, 102 bus workers and 54 typesetters. The strike of the restaurant waiters and cooks began in August.

The firms affected were the Chien Sung Kee Bookbinding Shop (Chinese), Shanghai Waterworks Company (British), Diaward Steel Furniture Company (Chinese), Foreign style restaurants (Chinese), the Shun Pao Daily News (Chinese) and the China General Omnibus Company (British).

The statistics for the month under review are as follows:

Area.	No. of Strikes.	No. of Hands.	No. Working Days Lost.
Settlement	5	615	4,835
French Concession	1	600	1,200
Chinese controlled territory	8	2,280	11,430
	14	3,495	17,465
Total for the corresponding month of 1930	10	7,071	89,465

With regard to the strike in the China General Omnibus Company, 102 of the more senior conductors on strike, who were re-engaged by the management on August 28, rejoined the strike on September 2, and their services were again dispensed with. The Company continued to recruit new conductors and by the end of the month a full complement of buses was operating on all routes, with the exception of Routes three and four which have been temporarily abandoned pending repairs to Jessfield and Hungjao Roads.

As a preliminary step to the enforcement of the Factory Law in local industrial concerns, Mr. Pone, Chief of the Foreign Affairs Department of the International Labour Bureau, Geneva, who is now associated with the Social Bureau as adviser on factory inspection, visited in company with a representative of the Social Bureau, four industrial concerns in the Settlement, at each of which he made an inspection. Previous to these visits the Social Bureau sent letters requesting the concerns in question to afford Mr. Pone facilities for inspecting their premises.

The number of refugees from flood areas at present in Shanghai totals 47,387 of whom 15,874 are destitute. Of the refugees here about 36,162 arrived from various districts in Kiangpei and Yangtsze Valley during the month.

Price of Rice.—The average price of rice for the month of September 1931 was as follows:—

Chinese Rice:

Best quality	$17.97
Good	16.72
Ordinary	15.43

Saigon Rice:

Best quality	15.93
Good	14.70
Ordinary	13.97

Film Censorship.—Thirty-eight ordinary films and eighteen "Shorts" or introductory films were censored in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. Of these, three were subjected to cuts and revision before being approved by the Police censors for public exhibition locally. In one instance an appeal made against the decision of the Police censors to the Joint Board of Film Censors resulted in the picture being approved after the objectionable parts had been deleted. One old film was re-censored and approved during the month.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 703 (51 Foreigners and 652 Chinese) of 4038 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Safety First: — During the month the professional Story-teller visited various districts and gave 75 addresses in Teashops and Mills etc. on "Safety First" themes. His audience totalled roughly 2825 persons.

Omnibus Service:—The Omnibus service which was temporarily disorganised owing to the strike of conductors during last month, resumed full service on all routes on September 22.

Motor Cycle Patrols:—These patrols continue to do very useful work in checking improper uses of the roadway which endanger or obstruct traffic. To obtain any considerable improvement in these conditions, however, the public must assist by an understanding co-operation with the police on duty. Private richsa pullers continue to give the most trouble and it appears to the patrols that some of the owners or passengers in these vehicles could do a good deal more than they are doing by instructing and insisting on their richsa pullers conforming with regulations.

Traffic Signal Lights:—Traffic Signal Lights were installed and taken into use at the junction of Chungking Road with Avenue Edward VII on September 14.

Motor Horn Nuisance:—There were 29 prosecutions for this offence during the month.

Eyesight Test:—In addition to the usual eyesight test of all applicants for driving licences, 88 chauffeurs already in possession of licences were retested during the month and found to be fit except one whose driving licence was cancelled for defective vision.

Identification Office.—During the month 1,744 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 536 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. In addition to the above 196 records were received from the French Police out of which number 43 were identified in the records of this office making the total for the month :—

JUNIOR BOYS' SCHOOL.
Site for New Building.

The new Junior School for Boys will be constructed between the Girls' School on Yu Yuen Road and the Bubbling Well Fire Station, Mr. A. D. Bell reporting to the Council at its meeting on October 28 that the Education Board had accepted the Council's offer of this site. The Education Board considered the question on October 21, and the following minutes of that meeting were presented to the Council:—

The Commissioner of Public Works submitted a report and a plan shewing the proposed new school, located between the existing Girls' School and the Bubbling Well Fire Station. This building, he said, was arranged on the site so that it could be erected without demolishing the existing temporary building. The removal of a play-shed and the single-storeyed building at the South-East of the Girls' School and their reconstruction to the South-West would become necessary and the reduction of the area belonging to the Girls' School on the east could be made good by moving the three tennis courts to a new position with the possible sacrifice of one court.

The Commissioner of Public Works stated that he had not had an opportunity to confer with the Superintendent of Education regarding the Board's requirements, consequently he was unable at this stage to furnish detailed information on the type of school to be provided. The area available was sufficient to permit the erection of a four-storeyed building to accommodate 400-500 pupils; alternatively, it could be built for a lesser number initially and provision made for its subsequent extension. As he understood the Board's policy was ultimately to provide a boys' school in this area for some 500 pupils, he stated that when the area occupied by the Military Authorities was relinquished it would be possible to erect the main building on that site; the school erected for the junior boys could then possibly be utilized as a kindergarten for both boys and girls.

The Superintendent of Education observed that the front of the proposed new building was aligned with that of the girls' school. The Headmistress had complained of the inconvenience caused by the noise from traffic, and he suggested that the new school should be placed as far back as possible.

In this connection, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that it might be anticipated that a new through road behind this property would be constructed by the Chinese Authorities, in which event it might be found that the rear portion thereof would in due course suffer equally, if not more so, from the noise nuisance. In his opinion, the only means of overcoming this nuisance was by the provision of sealed windows and artificial ventilation. This was a question to which he would give his attention when decision had been reached as to the exact type of building to be provided. Under existing conditions it was impossible to set the new school building farther back than shewn on the plan, accordingly any further requirement of this nature would result in the indefinite postponement of the provision of a new school building.

After hearing these views it was unanimously decided to accept the Council's offer to utilize this site for a new school building. The question of the type of building to be erected, the extent of the accommodation to be provided, and other cognate matters would be the subject of further consideration following consultation thereon between the Superintendent of Education and the Commissioner of Public Works.

The recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Works, that, in the interest of the pupils at the junior school, the adjustment for the provision of additional space for this school be made forthwith was endorsed.

The minutes of the Board were confirmed by the Council.

OVERCROWDING OF BUSES.

In view of the overcrowded condition of the vehicles of the China General Omnibus Company, the Municipal Council on October 28 adopted a proposal submitted by the Chairman that this question be referred to a joint meeting of the Traffic and Public Utilities Committees with a view to means being devised to ameliorate the existing conditions.

COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP.

At the Council meeting on October 28, Mr. N. S. Brown stated that, as he was leaving Shanghai on November 10, he desired to tender his resignation as a member of the Council as from October 28.

On behalf of the Council, the Chairman expressed regret at the loss of Mr. Brown's services on the Council and best wishes for his future welfare.

VETERINARY SERVICE.

Appointment of Chinese Surgeon.

The Council has approved the recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Health that an additional veterinary surgeon, of Chinese nationality, be appointed to the Municipal Veterinary Service. It is understood that the services of a competent qualified veterinary surgeon are available.

Experience has shown that the work of the Veterinary Department cannot be undertaken successfully by one veterinarian. Among the duties to be performed are routine examination of dairy animals (more than 7,000 have to be dealt with per annum); post-mortem examination of dairy animals and oxen; the proposed tuberculin testing of about 2,000 dairy animals; supervision of meat inspection in general, but especially of the private pig slaughter-houses where work is done during the night.

It is of interest to recall that the Milk Commission, which sat in 1924, suggested a number of improvements with a view to safeguarding the Shanghai public's milk supply and that these have all been carried out.

HEALTH COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP.

The recommendation of the Health Committee that, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. E. L. Marsh, Dr. J. E. Murray be invited to serve thereon, was unanimously approved by the Council at its meeting on October 28.

CONSULAR INFORMATION.

A letter from Dr. J. B. Ferreira da Silva, Consul General for Portugal, informs the Council that, having been appointed to the post of Consul General for Portugal at Shanghai, he assumed charge of that office as from October 30.

BICYCLE LICENCE FEE.

An intimation from the French Municipal Authorities that they propose to increase the annual licence fee for bicycles from $3 to $4 as from January 1, next, and enquiring whether the Council was prepared to take similar action, was submitted to the Council on October 28. The Commissioner of Revenue favoured this proposal.

It was recalled by the Council that this licence fee was imposed originally with the object of securing more effective police control over these vehicles rather than for the purpose of obtaining additional revenue. Moreover, as this licence fee was increased in 1930, and as in members' view, a further increase would inflict a hardship on a certain section of the community, it was directed that the French Municipal Authorities be informed that the Council is unwilling again to increase this fee in 1932.

CHINESE SCHOOLS.

Winter and Spring Vacations.

A report by the Superintendent of Education submitting a list of holidays for the Municipal Chinese Schools in conformity with the regulations issued by the Ministry of Education, and with the addition of Christmas Day, was considered at the meeting of the Education Board on October 21.

As the holidays now suggested varied to some extent from those hitherto in force and as a still further variation might be decided upon by the Ministry of Education, the list submitted was approved for the forthcoming year only.

The minutes of the Board were confirmed by the Council on October 28.

PUBLIC PARKS.

Season Tickets Issued.

According to a Revenue Office report, 66,478 season tickets of admission to the public parks were issued prior to September 30, 1931. During October, a further 658 tickets were issued, making a total of 67,136.

NEW CENTRAL POLICE STATION.

Building to Face Foochow Road.

At the Council meeting on October 28, after discussion upon the Works Committee minutes, it was decided that the new Central Police Station be built on the western portion of the Foochow and Kiangse Roads site, and that the remainder of the site be sold. The American Club will be given an opportunity to purchase a strip of the land on the west side of the site owned by the Council; while, with regard to the sale of the corner site, development by the purchasers will not be inferior to that of adjacent buildings. The Council agreed in principle that, in the event of a new Town Hall being provided, it should be erected on a portion of the Municipal Compound.

The Chairman of the Works Committee, in presenting the minutes of the meeting held on October 20, made an explanatory statement.

The Commissioner of Public Works told the Committee that sketch plans for a Central Police Station had been prepared and that abandonment of the project to erect a Central Fire Station on the site would permit the Council to dispose of approximately 2½ mow thereof. He would confer further with the Commissioner of Police as to whether he desired the new station to be erected on the corner of this site or on the portion adjoining the American Club. Personally he favoured its erection on the western portion of the site for the reason that the corner portion could be sold at a higher figure. If erected on this portion of the site care would be taken in the design of the building in order to remove so far as possible the objections put forward by the American Club. He would also ascertain whether the club desired to purchase a strip of this land to provide a wider space between the two buildings.

A Committee member suggested that in the interests of economy this entire site be sold and the new station erected on a portion of the Municipal Compound. In his opinion this would be possible if a many-storeyed type of building were decided upon.

Height of Buildings.

The Commissioner of Public Works replied that, whilst the question of the development of the Municipal Compound had not been definitely settled, it had been generally agreed that if a new Town Hall were provided this would be erected thereon. In that case there would not be sufficient space for the erection of a new Central Police Station. The proposal that the new station should be erected on the site of the existing building was impracticable on account of the difficulty and heavy expense involved in securing temporary accommodation during the period the building would be in the process of erection.

With regard to a member's observations on the question of high buildings, the Commissioner of Public Works adhered to his opinion previously expressed to the Committee that the erection of buildings beyond a certain height was uneconomical having regard to the additional requirements involved and to the lack of the required underground space for the installation of necessary public utility mains, sewers, etc. In brief, the road development programme as at present planned would be quite inadequate if the erection of tall buildings beyond a certain point were permitted.

The Committee minutes also set out that, in respect to a member's observations as to the financial advantage to be derived by selling the entire site, which was purchased to accommodate the Central Police and Fire Stations, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that he was unable to agree that the value of the land should be the primary consideration in conjunction with the erection of public buildings. In his opinion the determining factor should be whether or not such buildings were necessary in a certain area; in the case of the proposed Central Police Station the need for this had been established.

The Drill Hall.

With regard to a member's proposal that the Drill Hall might be removed to a less valuable site and thus release an additional area for development, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that when this proposal was originally before the Council, and on several other occasions, the decision was reached that the retention of the Drill Hall in the Municipal Compound was necessary in order to deal effectively with abnormal conditions such, for example, as obtained in 1925 and 1927. It would, however, be possible to remove this building from its present site and re-erect it in an alternative position in connection with the future development of the Municipal Compound. In this connection he was strongly of the view that, looking to future requirements, the whole of the Municipal Compound should be regarded as affording means for the extension of the administrative offices and for the erection of a Town Hall and should not be encroached upon to provide accommodation for a central Police Station.

In conclusion, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that after he had conferred further with the Commissioner of Police he would submit a report and plans of the new Central Police Station for members' consideration.

MUNICIPAL SCHOOLS CURRICULUM.

Study of Chinese Language.

The Education Board at its meeting on October 21 discussed the question of the study of the Chinese language by all foreign children in municipal schools, as the result of a letter submitted by a member of the Board advocating the teaching of Chinese.

Members unanimously agreed as to the desirability of Chinese being taught in all municipal foreign schools, although it was appreciated that some difficulty might be experienced in fitting this subject into the curriculum.

It was noted that, whilst the Director of Chinese Studies concurred in the view as to the value of a knowledge of the Chinese language to foreign pupils attending the Council's schools, he considered that this was of less importance to girl pupils, having regard to the fact that a considerable number did not require to make their careers in China. In this respect a member was of opinion that, apart from the commercial value of a knowledge of the Chinese language, girl pupils would benefit from the cultural value of this knowledge and gain a deeper insight and understanding of the country and of the people with whom they came into contact.

Another member suggested that various phases of this question would require consideration prior to the general introduction of this subject into the curriculum, such as, for instance, whether it should be a compulsory or optional subject and whether the written or spoken language, mandarin or local dialect, should be taught.

The Superintendent of Education stated that the Chinese language was already taught in Forms III to VI at the Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Boys. French was taught in all schools to pupils of about 10 years of age and upwards and Latin—to a limited extent—in the two schools for boys. He submitted that this subject should be considered in conjunction with the teaching of other languages, and that, in considering the advisability of adding another language to a heavily loaded curriculum, the fact should not be lost sight of that some 20 different nationalities were represented at the Municipal foreign schools, of whom about 50 per cent were struggling with English as a foreign tongue. He was, therefore, of opinion that the study of Chinese might be taken as an alternative to French and/or Latin, the parents to be permitted to make the choice.

A member supported the suggestion that the study of Chinese should be optional up to a certain age, but said that thereafter this should be a compulsory subject.

Another member questioned whether the time available for the teaching of this subject would be sufficient to confer any practical advantage on the pupils.

Replying to the Chairman, the Director of Chinese Studies stated that he was strongly of opinion that if it were decided to introduce the study of the Chinese language into all foreign schools, then mandarin should be taught and that the teaching of the local dialect should not be considered.

After further general discussion and in agreeing in principle as to the desirability of including the study of the Chinese language in the curriculum of all foreign schools, it was decided to defer to a later meeting consideration as to the best means to give effect to this proposal.

The minutes of the Board were confirmed by the Council on October 28.

LIABILITY FOR WATER MAINS.

Council Decision.

Members of the Works Committee had under consideration at their meeting on October 20 a letter from the Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd., protesting against the Council's decision that it be liable for the cost of moving a water main across the Garden Bridge, and also the requirement that a 6-inch main be laid in Ningwu Road.

With regard to the removal of the main across the Garden Bridge, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that the position of this main precluded the laying of a sewer which now became necessary. The fact that the Company's main on the west side was laid in the centre of the space allotted to it instead of to the side prevented any additional main being laid, with the result that they were permitted to lay a 16-inch main on the east side of the bridge. The laying of a sewer had now become a matter of urgency in order to alleviate the conditions in the Central district during periods of heavy rain. In order to avoid unnecessary expense it was proposed to buy this main from the Company for utilization as a sewer.

He submitted copies of correspondence which had passed between the Secretary of the Company and himself and stated that he gathered the Company now accepted the position that under the terms of the agreement it was liable for the cost of the removal of this main. With regard to the laying of the new main, the Company had notified him that it would be necessary to take up the footpath while this work was in progress. In view of the inconvenience to the public entailed by this, he proposed to inform the Company that removal of the footpath would not be permitted unless absolutely essential, and suggested the main should be laid by the same means as adopted for installing the original 16-inch main.

After hearing the Commissioner, members recommended that the Company be requested to proceed with the work of laying this main as expeditiously as possible.

With regard to the Council's requirement that a 6-inch main be laid in Ningwu Road in order to provide fire protection, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that in 1927 the Company received permission to lay this main, but that subsequently it applied for and secured permission to lay a 2-inch service pipe in lieu thereof. This latter was regarded as a temporary measure. Under Clause 15 of the Agreement, the Council had power to require mains to be laid with the proviso that if the amount of the gross annual revenue from the sale of water was less than 12 per cent of the cost of providing the main the Council should be liable for the difference. As in this case the annual revenue was considerably in excess of 12 per cent of the cost of the main, he submitted that the Company had no just cause for complaint.

After brief discussion, members concurred in the views expressed by the Commissioner of Public Works and recommended that the two protests put forward by the Company be over-ruled.

The minutes of the Committee were confirmed by the Council on October 28.

OVERCROWDING OF BUSES.

Joint Committee Considers the Problem.

The Municipal Council is taking definite action with the object of securing amelioration of the present overcrowding of omnibuses. A joint meeting of the Traffic and Public Utilities Committees was held on November 9 when the problem in all its aspects was considered.

It is obvious to everyone that there are far more people requiring rapid transportation in Shanghai than the public vehicles now on the streets are able to carry. There is not the struggle for places in these vehicles that is often experienced by passengers in cities like London and New York, but not infrequently it is most unpleasant. Public criticism centres upon the fact that, whereas in normal times in great European and American cities overcrowding in public vehicles is rigorously suppressed, the Shanghai companies' servants appear to be unable to prevent excessive numbers of passengers boarding buses and cars, and in fact they do so until there is no standing room for another person. Further, there is popular belief that overcrowding has been recently aggravated by the adoption of a low flat rate fare. This and cognate matters, including a proposal to inaugurate a new circuitous route, are now receiving attention.

Limited Police Powers.

One point which there is a disposition on the part of the public to overlook is that the powers of the police in Shanghai are very limited, as are also those of the public transport companies. Traffic Regulation 36 (b) states:—

> The number of passengers authorized to be carried by any tramcar, railless car, trailer or omnibus, or in any separate compartment thereof, shall be determined by the Commissioner of Police and shall be painted in a legible manner in English and Chinese in a conspicuous place on such vehicle. No such vehicle shall carry a greater number of passengers than the number authorized. On any breach of this condition the owner as well as the person in charge shall be liable to prosecution.

Thus, to prosecute offenders it is necessary to prove that an excess number of passengers has been carried, and in order to do this the police would require to stop vehicles and count the passengers at a time when this would be most inconvenient to the public using the streets. In England, for example, special enactments give the police power to remove passengers in excess of the vehicle's quota—a power which the police in Shanghai do not possess. Furthermore, in England conductors have authority to eject passengers in excess of the authorized complement, and it is an offence to remain on a vehicle after the conductor has requested the passenger to leave.

More Buses.

Meanwhile, the Omnibus Company as an experiment has instituted on Routes 1 and 9 a system of high and low flat rate charges for travel by different vehicles, the fares being 24 and 16 coppers respectively on Route 1, and 30 and 20 coppers on Route 9. This expedient is adopted abroad, notably in New York, with the result that by paying a higher fare those persons who wish may travel in greater comfort because of the fewer persons moving about who are willing to pay more than the minimum charge. It is also understood that the Omnibus Company has additional vehicles on order and that these will be on the streets early in the New Year. The Council has under consideration the question of the number of buses which should be added to the Company's fleet as soon as possible and the manner in which they should be employed.

SHORTAGE IN MILK SUPPLIES.

Health Department Keeps Close Watch.

A number of customers of local dairies have recently been unable to obtain full supplies of milk. While this shortage may largely be attributable to the time of the year (since the yield of milk is less during the winter than in the summer months) other factors have contributed. One of these is that an epidemic of pleuro-pneumonia broke out in the herds of two prominent suppliers. In addition, occasional cases of rinderpest are occurring in various dairies. While these diseases are not communicable to man, they cause heavy mortality amongst the cattle herds and thus reduce the available milk supply. A further factor is that the Chinese population are making freer use of milk.

There would seem to be no reason so far to fear a serious shortage. The Health Department of the Shanghai Municipal Council, however, is keeping a close watch on the supply, and is examining the question of making a vaccine with a view to control the minor epidemic of pleuro-pneumonia.

TWO CHINESE LAND COMMISSIONERS.

Proposal Will be Submitted to Ratepayers.

A resolution to amend Land Regulation VIa so that two Chinese may be elected as Land Commissioners in addition to the present three, will come before the ratepayers on the day of the next Annual Meeting according to a decision of the Municipal Council on November 11.

On behalf of the Chinese members, the recommendation was made to the Council that the same procedure be adopted for the election of two Chinese members of the Land Commission as was followed for the election of Chinese Councillors.

The Council, in agreeing as to the propriety of ratepayers being consulted on this question, decided to make arrangements to bring forward the necessary resolution at the Ratepayers' Meeting, when the Council will support the resolution.

To put an increase in the number of Land Commissioners on a legal basis there must be amendment or modification of the existing Land Regulations, which however contain nothing to prevent Chinese being appointed. When the Council has considered an amendment of the Land Regulations desirable it has been the practice for many years to convene a special meeting of ratepayers and place before it for adoption a resolution embodying in specific terms the desired amendment. If adopted, the resolution would be submitted to the Consular Body for approval, then to the Foreign Ministers, and finally to the Chinese Government. In recent years it has been difficult, and frequently impossible, to secure the required quorum for a special meeting, and at this time it is doubtful whether a quorum could be obtained for a special meeting to consider Chinese representation on the Land Commission. For this reason the Council has decided to place the proposal before ratepayers on the day of the next annual meeting.

The assessed value of land placed under taxation by the Council during October was Tls. 48,469.

643 new blocks of buildings were under construction during October; 251 sets of plans were submitted for approval, 183 sets being approved; and 160 unauthorized building notices were issued by the Public Works Department.

DONATION FOR RELIEF OF FLOOD REFUGEES.

Council Votes Tls. 10,000 to Aid Chinese Work Here.

At the Council meeting on November 11, it was decided to contribute the sum of Tls. 10,000 towards the immediate needs of flood refugees in Shanghai. The Chairman reported that the Municipality of Greater Shanghai had requested that the Municipal Council and the French Municipal authorities should jointly contribute the sum of $50,000 to $60,000 to enable the repatriation of refugees from the flooded areas to be proceeded with. As the Council had not been called upon to carry out its undertaking to donate approximately Tls. 70,000 towards the cost of erection of a refugee camp, the Treasurer recommended that, in the absence of particulars as to income and expenditure, a contribution of Tls. 10,000 be authorized to meet immediate needs.

The despatch received from the Secretariat of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai enclosed a report from the office for Flood Refugees, in which it was stated that the $30,000 which the office had in hand was insufficient to meet the expenses of maintaining over 6,000 refugees plus new daily arrivals until the end of November, when the office would be closed. The only way out of the difficulty, the report said, was to give temporary relief and then to repatriate the refugees, but to do this it would be necessary to raise funds for repatriation expenses. "At the 8th general meeting when the question of refugees came up, it was mentioned that the Council had intended to appropriate Tls. 70,000 towards the construction of camps and for maintenance expenses; but on account of the establishment of this office the matter was dropped. As the matter of affording relief to refugees concerns the peace and safety of Shanghai as a whole, the separate authorities should co-operate and each section should fulfil a part of the obligation. Accordingly it was decided at the meeting that the Municipality of Greater Shanghai be communicated with and asked to apply to the Shanghai Municipal Council and the French Municipality jointly to contribute fifty or sixty thousand dollars to enable this office to carry out the work of repatriation."

The despatch from the Acting Secretary to the Municipality of Greater Shanghai concluded:

"This is a matter of charity and it concerns the peace and safety of the whole municipality. The Council being aware of the fact formed the intention referred to. The Council's benevolent spirit is much appreciated. As the office for Flood Refugees needs funds to wind up its affairs and its request is a reasonable one, the Council is asked, with the French Municipal Council, to give the assistance needed. A separate request has been addressed to the French Municipal Council."

PASSENGER FACILITIES AT JETTIES.

Joint Recommendation for Improvements Awaited.

With a view to remedying present conditions at the Chinese Customs examination shed, the Bund, when a large number of steamer passengers arrives, and to provide adequate facilities for passengers and friends meeting them, the Commissioner of the Chinese Maritime Customs, the Commissioner of Public Works, S.M.C., and the Commissioner of Police, S.M.C., have been in consultation. It is expected that they will shortly make a joint recommendation. In the meantime, special instructions have been given to the police on duty to effect as much control as possible of the crowds which gather outside the examination sheds on the arrival of incoming passengers.

Need Outlined.

Messrs. Beck & Swann, Secretaries to the Shanghai General Chamber of Commerce, wrote to the Municipal Council on October 27:—

"We beg to forward you herewith copy of a letter addressed to this Chamber by one of our members. The letter has been considered by the Chamber's Shipping Sub-Committee and the General Committee, who have directed us to state that the views and suggestions expressed in the letter have their approval and they beg respectfully to suggest that same receive your Council's consideration. We have already sent a copy of the enclosed to the Commissioner of Customs."

The letter reads:—

"The need for speedy and thorough measures for improvement in the present facilities at the Customs Jetty, Examination Rooms and Municipal Jetties is becoming increasingly pressing, particularly since the promulgation in March last of the Customs regulations prohibiting the public boarding ships on arrival and necessitating the landing of all baggage simultaneously with passengers at the Customs Jetty.

The size of ships visiting Shanghai keeps on increasing and results in larger complements of passengers, who desire—and should be given —expeditious handling on arrival at Shanghai. For this purpose the present facilities are entirely inadequate to cope efficiently with the peak loads of passengers arriving by the big vessels now trading in and out of Shanghai.

A visit to the Customs Examination Rooms on arrival of one of these large vessels when the passenger tenders come alongside will reveal:—

(1) Lack of space to sort and distribute baggage to the alphabetical stations.

(2) Obstruction to the handling of baggage by passengers scrambling to get through the Examination Room.

(3) Use of bamboo poles by baggage coolies, who are indiscriminately mixed up with incoming passengers.

Suggested Remedy.

To remedy these conditions I would suggest:—

(1) A larger Examination Room.

(2) A separate enclosed track for the conveyance of baggage by hand truck, completely separate from the passengers' gangway.

(3) Bamboo poles should be prohibited.

Anyone endeavouring to gain exit from the Examination Room at the North is confronted by a half-closed doorway, and upon negotiating this is almost helplessly enswarmed in a mass of soliciting coolies, motor trucks, truck coolies, passengers' friends and the riff-raff of the town, all in complete state of disorder. Friends of incoming passengers, not permitted to board the steamer on arrival, are compelled to gather outside the Examination Room door to meet their friends. If a vessel is late arriving, they must stand in the blazing sun in summer, the uncomfortable cold in winter and rain in all seasons, unless they are particularly fortunate as to weather.

Self-Supporting Scheme.

It seems to me the time has come for some comprehensive scheme to be carried out for the reception and despatch of passengers, both for their sakes and the good name of Shanghai. This object in view, it occurs to me that a very excellent remedy for the present unsatisfactory conditions would be provided by a suitable building immediately adjacent to and on the north side of the present Harbour Office and Customs building. I believe this is Municipal property, so that the Municipal Council as well as the Customs would be concerned. The building should provide easy access to and from the present Baggage Examination into first and second class Waiting Rooms, where passengers could meet their friends or await the tenders taking them to ships. On the river side of these Waiting Rooms covered gangways would lead to the pontoons and the tenders, for the conveyance of outgoing passengers. A building to provide these facilities could no doubt easily be designed and built at a reasonable cost. Once built I believe the scheme would become self-supporting, as space could be provided for shops and would undoubtedly become the most valuable sites of any in Shanghai for those catering to the travelling public. In addition to this, concessions could be sold for a Money Exchange, Tourist Agency, Baggage Express, Red Cap Service, Restaurant, etc. A fee for entering the Waiting Rooms could be charged, in fact it would be advisable to do this to discourage the present casual coolies and riff-raff from mixing with incoming and outgoing passengers. All these facilities should of course be confined for the sole use of passengers arriving and departing on steamers trading between Shanghai and foreign ports.

Shanghai is already one of the greatest tourist centres of the world, and future progress in this direction will greatly depend on the impressions gained by visitors and dissemination of these impressions in the many countries from which these tourists come. I suggest that this or some equally comprehensive scheme be investigated forthwith and that the Chinese Maritime Customs and Municipal Council be asked to consult and co-operate with each other to this end.

I shall be obliged if you will place these views before the members of the General Chamber of Commerce, and if they are in favour of the proposal, place them also before the authorities concerned."

TYPEWRITER CLEANING CONTRACT.

On Page 487 of this issue it will be observed that under the heading of All Departments the Council is calling for tenders for the inspection, cleaning and adjustment of all typewriters (approximately 315) in the Municipal Service and the following particulars will be of interest to intending tenderers:—

The work must be supervised and periodical examinations of all machines made by qualified foreign typewriter mechanics to ensure that machines are maintained in a proper and satisfactory condition.

The charge per machine per annum must cover any extra visits which may have to be made to maintain machines in first-class condition, above the regular monthly inspection.

The Council is to be loaned replacement machines free of charge in the event of any of the Council's machines requiring attention in workshops.

In the event of any machine requiring special attention a report must be submitted free of charge advising the department concerned.

The Council reserves the right for departments to purchase new parts elsewhere should they so desire.

The numbering of houses in Seward and East Seward Roads will be altered from April 1, 1932.

The average number of labourers employed by the Highways, Sewerage and Parks Divisions of the Public Works Department during October was:—coolies, 7,896; artisans, 564; foremen, 383; and mafoos, 64.

All meat inspected and passed for human consumption at the Municipal Slaughterhouses and private pig slaughterhouses in the Settlement is being stamped either First or Second Quality. Information regarding the stamps is given in Notification No. 4149 in this issue.

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORT FOR OCTOBER.

Vital Statistics.—The Foreign death rate was higher than for October last year, being 16.50 as against 13.38, whilst the Chinese death rate was about the same, being 17.44 as against 17.04.

Chinese deaths totalled 1,437 which by a strange coincidence is the exact figure reported for October, 1930.

Communicable Diseases.—Cholera continued to decrease and towards the latter part of the month was limited to an occasional case. No foreign case was reported. Amongst Chinese residents 35 cases were reported with two deaths, whilst 63 non-resident cases were notified from hospitals with the Settlement, 11 being from the French Concession and 52 from surrounding Chinese districts.

8,519 persons were inoculated against cholera as against 22,699 last month. The majority of the inoculations this month were performed in the eastern district. The diminishing number of inoculations performed is due to the fact that the season is drawing to its close. The campaign which had been unduly prolonged owing to the incidence of cholera closed on October 30.

It may be of interest briefly to draw attention to the number of cases treated during the cholera season within the Settlement, and to outline the prevalence of the disease as noted from these cases.

The following cases were registered up to October 31, when the season may be said to have come to an end, though a scattered case or so is to be expected and occasional confirmations still come to hand.

	Chinese Cases.	Foreign Cases.
International Settlement	144	6
French Concession	41	1
Surrounding Chinese districts	250	0

Whilst there is some doubt as to when the first case occurred, one was confirmed by culture on July 14, from outside the Settlement, and on July 31, one case was confirmed within the Settlement.

The epidemic, so far as the Settlement and cases treated within the area are concerned, rose steadily to a flat peak in September, and from the middle of this month fell slowly until by the end the disease was almost extinct.

It is interesting to observe that Cholera in Shanghai seems to follow two forms of epidemic prevalence, namely, a severe epidemic in which the disease, once established, rises rapidly to a sharp peak and then falls with equal suddenness. As examples, one may quote the years 1929 and 1926, and one might be tempted to ascribe these epidemics to a universal cause such as certain articles of diet or water.

A less severe type is seen which rises to a flat but comparatively low peak, maintaining its highest incidence over a longer period and then gradually dying away. This type occurred this year and also in 1924 and 1925. It is difficult in view of the mode of an evolution of this type and the scattered disposition of the cases to formulate any positive thesis as to causation, though to some extent the epidemic curve resembles that of a fly-borne epidemic. The marked selectiveness shown by the disease to the poorer population is somewhat against such a simple solution, but one is perhaps justified in assuming the absence of a generalized pollution in such years.

In addition to the above types scattered years of slight or no incidence occur, such as last year, 1924 and 1918. It is of interest to observe that they are frequently followed by a flat-peaked epidemic, though at present no deductions are possible.

It has seemed desirable to report somewhat fully on this subject in view of the large scale experimentation in regard to Anti-cholera inoculations, which this municipality, in combination with others, is now engaged in. Since years of no incidence, during which no inoculations were performed, can be quoted, and for the matter of that, one could by going further back than 1918, quote periods of several years immunity, it will I think be clear that great caution must be exercised as to deductions drawn and based on short periods of observation. Hence it cannot be expected that this Department can come to a rapid or early decision. It is important to emphasize the scientific aspect of the problem since some hasty deductions are to be noted in certain scientific papers printed abroad.

Typhoid Fevers.—There were 12 resident foreign cases with four deaths, one British and three Japanese. There were 40 Chinese deaths.

Paratyphoid Fevers.—There were two cases amongst foreigners and one amongst the Chinese population.

Dysenteries.—The general incidence of dysenteries decreased somewhat. 32 resident foreign cases were of the bacillary type of which one was fatal. Ten cases of amoebic type amongst foreigners represented an appreciable reduction on the previous month. A noticeable decrease occurred amongst the Chinese population, only 132 cases being recorded against 359 in September.

Smallpox.—11 cases were notified of which five were amongst the resident foreign population. The incidence is unusually high for this period of the year.

Vaccination Campaign. — Anti-smallpox work was started early in October and resulted in a total of 9,557 persons being vaccinated.

Malaria was less prevalent though 26 fresh cases were notified among foreigners, 14 of which were military cases. There were 19 resident Chinese cases with four deaths.

It is of considerable interest to note that this disease is noticeably less prevalent than last year in spite of the fact that conditions would seem to have been ideal for its spread, i.e. presence of much water, mild damp autumn, etc. One cannot, however, account in any way for this phenomenon.

Typhus Fever.—A case of this somewhat rare disease amongst the foreign community was notified as having occurred in a young British subject.

Schistosomiasis.—A foreign death is reported from this disease. This is the first time this disease has figured in our death statistics.

Tuberculosis continues as a steady factor in morbidity and disease, 12 new foreign cases being notified and six deaths, whilst 60 Chinese cases were notified and 63 deaths were disclosed.

Cerebrospinal Fever was absent from the town and Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever not exceptionally prevalent.

Medical Registration.—79 applications for registration have been received since publication of the Register, 20 of which were received this month.

Laboratories.—The manufacturing section was kept busy on the manufacture of Semple vaccine, 9590 c.c. being prepared, 26,745 doses of smallpox vaccine were issued. Free smallpox vaccine was supplied to the Branch Health Offices, Wei Leu Nurses Hospital, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Red Cross Society of China, St. Luke's Hospital, Moore Memorial Church, St. Joseph's Institute, Siccawei Convent, Margaret Williamson Hospital and Chinese Public Isolation Hospitals. The majority of the above supplies represent an old-standing custom inasmuch as it has been a habit to grant free supplies with a view to spreading the protection obtained from vaccination to areas contiguous to the Settlement.

Three bottles containing larvae were submitted from the western district, all of which contained anopheline larvae and/or pupae.

Examination of Milk. — Nine specimens of raw milk were examined for tubercle bacilli. In each case two guinea pigs were inoculated. None showed evidence of tuberculosis.

Cholera.—112 specimens were examined from 96 patients with 83 positive results.

Pasteur Treatment.—62 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including eight from outports, called for advice, cauterization and/or treatment. There were no fatalities.

Hospitals Division.—With the exception of a rather large number of diphtheria admissions to the Chinese Isolation Hospital, there is little of interest to report in regard to the work of the Hospital Division.

Repairs to the T.B. Sanatorium have tended to impede treatment, but nevertheless the Matron reports that all patients are progressing favourably and are gaining weight.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division.—The Veterinary Surgeon reports an outbreak of contagious pleuro-pneumonia. Our records do not show any previous outbreak of this disease, though it is believed to have occurred a number of years ago when the outbreak was confined to one dairy. The whole subject is now under investigation. It is possible that the original case was imported from Manchuria. Preventive measures at the moment are limited to quarantine and vaccination, but arrangements are in hand for cultivation of the causative germ and possibly the preparation of a vaccine. Two further cases of Anthrax were reported among dairy herds and in the absence of clear information as to the source, inoculation of the herds will be carried out as soon as the vaccine becomes available. Three carcases were incinerated under the supervision of this department.

Milk Supply.—The above diseases, together with other seasonal factors, have contributed in a measure to a decrease in the milk supply, though at the moment there is no grave shortage.

Cattle Sheds.—The heavy movement of live stock from the lower Yangtze regions reported last month continued during the first few days of October. Now that conditions are becoming normal overcrowding has diminished a good deal.

Pork Supply.—A much needed improvement was introduced, namely, the abolition of the inflation of pig carcases by mouth. This practice is not only objectionable from the public health standpoint, but has no real value to the consumer since the only advantage of inflation by any means is an improved appearance of the meat, and possibly the giving of a false idea as to the volume of the meat. On the whole the pork butchers have co-operated readily with our requirements.

Dairies and Milk Supply.—Altogether 196 samples of milk were taken for analysis. Of these 12 were of poor quality and one of doubtful purity, four suggestive of buffalo milk, whilst one was deficient in fat to the extent of 16.7 per cent. Of 31 specimens taken for bacteriological examination, two were below standard. Three licensed dairies were prosecuted for irregularities and continued vigilance is essential to control the unlicensed milk traffic.

Dairy Herds.—57 animals were disposed of, 19 from Pleuro-Pneumonia, 10 from Tuberculosis, three from Rinderpest, two from Anthrax, and the others from varying causes.

Markets and Bakeries.—The work of the new sub-division continues to show satisfactory progress.

Seizures of unsound meat and subsequent prosecutions were increased and in addition night inspection of bakeries brought about certain improvements, though there are still matters which require attention. The suppression of hawkers has been tightened up without inflicting undue hardship other than preventing the more dangerous type of casual hawker from pursuing his trade in unsuitable localities.

The periodic sampling of food stuffs is putting a strain on this small sub-division and other means will have to be devised for carrying out this work.

Sanitation Division.—The minor reorganizations of the Department which took place two months ago have increased efficiency since this Division is now able to pay attention to the smaller type of food shops which, though a source of potential danger, did not receive sufficient attention in the past owing to the difficulty in finding sufficient staff.

Mosquito reduction work ceased but the staff are still employed in cleaning creeks and levelling off old, disused ditches, and generally facilitating next season's anti-mosquito measures.

Fly prevention work was continued but it is noted that the present is an extremely bad year for flies and without considerable expenditure a large reduction in their numbers is impossible, though dumps remained reasonably free.

The Health Inspector detached for service with the Hankow Relief Ship returned to duty towards the end of the month.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

J. H. JORDAN,
Commissioner of Public Health.

Bacteriological Examination.—24 samples were examined during the month, four from hydrants and 20 from taps in various parts of the Settlement. No coliform organisms were found in 120 c.c. quantities of any of the samples from the hydrants. 18 of the tap samples showed an equally high state of purification. Of the remaining two, one contained 25 B. aerogenes, the other 100 coliform organisms (non lactose fermenters) per litre.

Report on Analysis.—Sampling during month showed satisfactory purification in mains and outlying areas where tested.

THE COUNCIL FOR THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT OF SHANGHAI

Vol. XXIV. SHANGHAI, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1931. No. 1337

MR. N. S. HILL'S REPORT ON SHANGHAI WATERWORKS.

Public Utilities Committee Calls for Officials' Comment.

The Public Utilities Committee considered the report of Mr. Nicholas S. Hill, Jr. on the Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd., at a meeting on November 16. It was decided to refer the report to the Treasurer and Controller and to the Commissioner of Public Works for comment, and that when these comments and the Chinese translation of the report were available a further meeting be held for consideration of them.

Replying to the Chairman, the Treasurer stated that he was unable at this stage to furnish detailed comment on this report; in his opinion, the various principles outlined therein required very careful study in order that it might be ascertained to what extent they might be applied. Generally speaking, however, he was prepared to endorse the conclusions arrived at by Mr. Hill as fair and reasonable.

One member was of the opinion that the report taken as a whole offered no ground for serious objection. Certain of the figures given therein were, however, inaccurate as, for instance, the average annual increase in population shewn as 18 per cent. From his own calculations, it would appear that this figure should be approximately 44 per cent. Also, the increase during the last 25 years in domestic water consumption per capita was shewn as 9 per cent. This figure should be amended to approximately 5 per cent.

In noting the above observations, it was decided that these inaccuracies be drawn to the Council's attention.

The Commissioner of Public Works stated that, whilst he was generally in agreement with the principles laid down by Mr. Hill, there was naturally certain aspects which were open to a difference of opinion such as, for instance, the proposed departure from the system hitherto adopted for the payment by the Council of water for fire protection purposes.

Temporary Tariff Period.

The Treasurer stated that the Company had requested the Council's approval of certain re-arrangements it desired to undertake as early as possible. He had furnished a separate report thereon and had suggested that, during the currency of a temporary tariff period, the proposals put forward by Mr. Hill should be carefully considered. In his opinion, it was most desirable that a mutually satisfactory arrangement as to tariff rates for a temporary period be arrived at which would enable the Company to proceed without having to await the Council's formal approval or otherwise of the complete report.

With regard to the proposed introduction of a general system of metering, the Commissioner of Public Works was of the view that, provided it did not entail undue additional cost to the poorer consumer, this proposal was to be welcomed. On the other hand, a somewhat anomalous situation would arise owing to the fact that the poorer section of the community did not pay water charges direct, this being a liability on the landlords of blocks of property. Accordingly, the saving which it might be anticipated would accrue from the introduction of general metering might require to be modified by the purely local system which did not offer any inducement to individual tenants of large blocks of houses to economise in water consumption.

In connection with the valuation of the Company's property arrived at by Mr. Hill, a member stated that his attention had been drawn to the importance of the value of the land owned by the Company. By adoption of the method of assessment employed by Mr. Hill for the value of the Company's land, this asset might increase to a figure out of all proportion to the other assets of the Company. He was, therefore, of the opinion that, so far as regarded the real estate value of this land, some limit should be imposed beyond which its value could not be written up. In this connection, it was stated that under the existing franchise agreement the Company was precluded from writing up the value of its land beyond its assessed value.

After further general discussion, the Chairman suggested that the report be referred to the Treasurer and Controller and the Commissioner of Public Works for their comment, and that when these comments and the Chinese translation of the report were available a further meeting be arranged for their consideration.

The above proposals were unanimously adopted.

These minutes were confirmed by the Council on November 25.

DISPUTED ASSESSMENTS FOR G. M. RATE.

Rate Assessors Uphold Council Valuations.

The Rate Assessors heard and adjusted two disputed assessments of buildings for the levying of the General Municipal Rate, at a sitting on November 13.

In the first case, a representative of the Wha Tung Electrical & General Engineering Works, 131 Point Road, attended in support of a protest against the Council's valuation of this property of Tls. 460 per month. It was noted by the Assessors that since this valuation was arrived at, additions had been made to the building and that the total valuation of the property for assessment was now increased to Tls. 500 per month.

It was stated that the owners' protest was based on the contention that property in this locality, where land is relatively cheap, did not command rentals on so high a basis as those situated in the business areas; accordingly, it was requested that the percentage rate on the value of land and buildings adopted by the Council should be reduced to 6 per cent. On this basis the monthly rental figure would amount to Tls. 292, and the representative of the applicants therefore suggested that the monthly rental figure to be taken by the Council for assessment purposes should not exceed Tls. 350.

On behalf of the Council it was stated that it would appear that the protest was lodged under a misapprehension as to the basis of assessment adopted by the Council. The fact that the land was situated in a remote part of the Settlement was reflected in the comparatively low value thereof, which had been taken for assessment purposes. It was therefore submitted that any differentiation in the basis of assessment in respect of this particular property would be impracticable and inequitable to the general body of ratepayers.

The Chairman stated that, by an alternative business method of computation of the value of this property, he had arrived at a monthly rental figure of slightly over Tls. 500 per month. As the Council's assessment inclusive of the value of the additions to this building was Tls. 500 per month, he was of the opinion that the applicants had no case for a reduction in this figure.

Members concurred in this view and unanimously recommended that the assessment based on a rental value of Tls. 500 per month be upheld.

Wing On's Application.

In support of the second application made by the Wing On Company (Shanghai) Ltd., in respect of 86 Yangtzepoo Road, a representative of the owners attended and stated that the protest was lodged both in respect of the assessment placed on the old godowns situated on this property and also in respect of that placed upon the recently erected godowns. In respect to the former basis of assessment, he stated that it was proposed to increase it from Tls. 100 per month to Tls. 300 per month, an increase which he submitted could not be justified, having regard to the fact that they were used solely for the storage of waste products, old material, etc.

Replying to the Chairman, the representative stated he doubted whether these old godowns could be let for a monthly rental of more than Tls. 125. In this connection, a member of the Committee was of the opinion that one of these two-storeyed godowns could be let at a rental to justify the assessment placed by the Council on the entire group of five godowns.

With regard to the recently erected godowns, the company's representative stated that, whilst the figures of building costs on which this assessment was based were correct, the municipal road on the western side of the property was not developed, which precluded the owners renting these godowns to outside tenants at such a rental as to justify the valuation placed thereon by the Council. Replying to the Chairman, he stated that he doubted whether space in the new godowns could be let for more than 40 cents per foot.

On behalf of the Council, it was submitted that, in respect of the old godowns, this assessment had not been revised for many years; accordingly, the owners had had the benefit of a low assessment for that period. It was also suggested that the use to which these godowns were put could not be taken into consideration since the Council's assessment was based on the rentals which could be obtained therefor in the open market. With regard to the new godowns, it was submitted that the contention that the assessment on these buildings should be reduced for the reason that the municipal road on the west of the property was undeveloped could not be upheld, as the Company intended to retain these godowns for its own use and not to rent them to outside parties.

The Chairman observed that members of the Committee had inspected these premises. With regard to the assessment based on a rental of Tls. 300 per month placed on the old godowns, he stated that he regarded the former assessment as nominal. On the other hand, an increase from Tls. 100 to Tls. 300 per mensem might be regarded by the owners as somewhat exorbitant. In view of this, he suggested as a compromise that for purposes of assessment the monthly rental figure be taken at Tls. 250.

This proposal was unanimously approved.

With regard to the assessment placed on the new godowns, the Chairman stated that the figure of Important Recommendations by Joint Committee.

In the "Municipal Gazette" of November 13, brief reference was made to a joint meeting of the Traffic and Public Utilities Committees to consider the question of overcrowding in omnibuses. A full report of the meeting is appended.

The Chairman of the joint Committees stated that the meeting had been called to consider what steps might be taken to remedy omnibus overcrowding. Having regard to the local density of population and the vast number of residents requiring cheap transportation, he was of opinion that the overcrowding of public vehicles was inevitable; at the same time he considered it should be possible to mitigate the existing conditions to some extent.

It was stated that during the current year the Company's rolling stock had been increased by 33 per cent, that in the Spring 25 additional vehicles would be available and that after April next these would be increased by three per month. The Company was also prepared, with the Council's approval, to introduce double-decked 'buses.

The Commissioner of Public Works reported that the Company was also substituting diesel engines for the existing type of motor and refitting all vehicles with pneumatic tyres, as a result of which a number of vehicles was not available for regular service. The number of omnibuses owned by the Company was 120. With regard to the frequency of service, normally omnibuses were run at six minute intervals, although during the past week they had been run at three minute intervals during the rush periods.

It was stated that since the beginning of the month the Company had introduced a dual flat rate fare service on two routes; it was not yet in a position, however, to judge to what extent this experimental measure would afford relief to that section of the public who were prepared to pay a somewhat higher fare to ensure more comfortable travelling facilities.

The Commissioner of Public Works was of opinion that, as distinct from the obvious need of an increase in the Company's vehicles, the existing conditions would be ameliorated by a re-routing of certain of the services. He pointed out that, on certain long distance routes, vehicles were filled up at the starting points with passengers who required to travel only over a section of the route, with the result that those who desired to travel the entire distance were unable to obtain accommodation.

In this connection, the Chairman stated that he had observed that during the rush hours 'buses, with the exception of those operating as express 'buses, were filled to capacity prior to reaching the centre of the city, which debarred intending passengers entering the vehicles for the remaining section of the journey. He enquired whether some measure of relief would not be afforded by reducing the number of stops in congested thoroughfares.

80,000 Passengers Daily.

The Commissioner of Police stated that the number of 'bus stops in Nanking Road was fewer than that of the Tramway Service. He suggested, however, that in the interests of traffic generally certain of the 'buses which were operated on the lower flat rate might be diverted to the less congested thoroughfares since the majority of the passengers catered for did not require to leave the vehicle until it reached its terminal point. He realized, however, that adoption of this proposal might not be feasible to any great extent owing to the limited number of sufficiently wide roads.

Upon a member expressing the view that the Council should require that the increase in the number of the Company's vehicles was commensurate with the additional traffic requirements to be catered for, the Commissioner of Police stated that the daily average number of passengers carried on these vehicles was 80,000. It was in his opinion doubtful whether the number of the extra vehicles which had been put into service this year was sufficient to meet the increase in the number of passengers requiring transportation during that period.

The Chairman recalled that, when the Company first commenced to operate, the service was primarily intended for passengers who were prepared to pay a reasonable charge for comfortable travel and an assurance was given that this policy would be followed. Recently, however, the Company had concentrated on providing cheaper travel which, whilst benefiting the poorer section of the community, had deprived the middle classes of the facilities hitherto provided.

The Treasurer and Controller suggested that the Company be required as a temporary measure to relinquish certain of the lower flat rate fare services until it had acquired additional vehicles and was in a position to provide service for the various classes of the community in need of this means of transportation.

The Commissioner of Public Works stated that, in his opinion, the Company would, if required by the Council, be willing to provide 50 additional vehicles early next year instead of 25 as contemplated. This increase, together with the introduction of the double-decked type of vehicle on certain thoroughfares, should afford some measure of relief. He also suggested that the Company should be requested to put forward proposals for new routes with a view to relieving traffic congestion in the central district sections.

With regard to the difficulties experienced by the police and by the Company in connection with the prevention of overcrowding, the Commissioner of Police pointed out that the powers of the Police were very limited. He suggested that Traffic Regulation No. XXXVI-B be amended to strengthen the hands both of the Company and the Police.

The Chairman was of opinion that this proposal would require very careful consideration, since unless any amendment could be made effective, the position both of the Council and the company would be rendered more vulnerable.

More Buses Needed.

After further general discussion, it was recommended that the Company be addressed in the following sense. That, in the opinion of the Council, the Company had, by its action in introducing low flat rate fares before it was in a position to cater for all classes of the community requiring this means of transportation, accentuated the conditions complained of to the detriment of the class of passenger to whom an assurance was originally given that comfortable means of travel would be available; that, as a temporary measure, a proportion of its vehicles be operated on a basis to provide for this latter class of passenger; that the Council favoured the provision of 50 additional vehicles early in the new year; that, subject to means being devised effectively to prevent the overcrowding of the upper section of double-decked vehicles, the Council approved the introduction of this type of vehicle for service on such roads as would permit; that the Company should submit proposals for the introduction of additional short routes with a view (1) to relieving congestion in the central district, and (2) to catering for those passengers who at present utilize long distance services for short sections; that any additional vehicles provided be primarily utilized for (1) and (2) above rather than for the purpose of introducing new routes in outlying districts where the need therefor is not acute.

Recommendation regarding an application from Erin Motors for a franchise to operate a further omnibus service was deferred until it had been ascertained whether the China General Omnibus Company was prepared to meet the Council's requirements for the provision of an adequate service.

The minutes of the meeting were confirmed by the Council on November 25.

NOTIFIABLE DISEASES.

Two Added to List by Health Commissioner.

Medical practitioners have been informed that, until further notice, schistosomiasis and measles are added to the list of notifiable diseases in the Settlement.

Schistosomiasis, a disease caused by a liver fluke, is not normally included amongst communicable diseases, and though quite common farther up the Yangtze, has not been noted as one of the usual diseases of the Shanghai area in recent years, at any rate not amongst foreigners. Last month local medical practitioners gave information to the Commissioner of Public Health concerning a not inconsiderable number of cases under treatment, and a warning was issued to the public of the danger of bathing in infected water or wading in paddy fields. Sportsmen were advised that they might obtain a certain measure of protection by wearing either gum boots or high boots when wading, while other precautions that should be taken were outlined by the Commissioner of Public Health in the Municipal Gazette of October 23.

This communicable disease is now causing a measure of apprehension among medical practitioners in Shanghai, and the Public Health Department is desirous of obtaining all possible information concerning new cases, with a view to recording data needed not only for epidemiological purposes but also in the Laboratory. To this end it is necessary to add the name of the disease to the list of notifiable diseases.

Measles is also prevalent, and although not ordinarily notifiable, it is added to the list until further notice.

AMBULANCE SERVICE CONSOLIDATION.

Fire Brigade to Operate Combined Fleet.

Steps are being taken to give effect as from January 1, 1932, to the recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Health to combine the Health Department Ambulance Service with that of the Fire Brigade. This means that the Fire Brigade will operate the hospital ambulance service from the various fire stations throughout Settlement limits, the general supervision of the service being carried out by the present foreign staff.

The combined fleet of vehicles now in operation consists of eleven: seven ambulances under the control of the Health Department and four under the Fire Brigade. Combination of these resources, it is believed, will reduce the total number of ambulances required, and on completion of the suggested arrangements lead to economies in maintenance.

The great advantage to the public of a combined service concerns the apparent difficulty the police have in distinguishing between the present two services in emergencies, since frequently the wrong station is rung up.

A CHINESE VETERINARY SURGEON APPOINTED.

Dr. Shupei Shu has been appointed Chinese Veterinary Surgeon to the Shanghai Municipal Council from January 1, 1932.

Dr. Shu, who is a native of Hunan, is at present employed by the Bureau of Industries, Nanking. His past training and experience are considered well adapted to the needs of the Municipal Veterinary Service. He is a graduate of the Veterinary Division of the Michigan State College, and after one year as a graduate student in pathology and bacteriology he received a master's degree from the New York State Veterinary College at Cornell University. He has had practical experience of dairy and cattle inspection at Ingham County, Michigan, of application of tuberculin test at New York State Veterinary Station, and of meat and food inspection at Detroit City Abattoir, Michigan.

ROAD EXTENSIONS AND WIDENINGS.

Seymour Road.

Negotiations have been concluded with Messrs. Hansons for the surrender, for a sum of Tls. 6,000, of an area of mow 0.305 from Cadastral Lot 3386 (South of Wuting Road) for the scheduled widening of Seymour Road.

ECONOMY MEASURES.

The erection of the West Hongkew Police Barracks (for Chinese married police), in view of the financial situation, has been deferred until consideration has been given to the Extraordinary Budget for 1932. Meanwhile some practical experience will be gained in the management and control of two barrack buildings for Chinese police now under construction.

MUNICIPAL PROPERTIES.

Neikiang Road—Surplus Land.

An area of mow 0.109 of surplus land comprising Cadastral Lot 6309, Neikiang Road, (South of Poyang Road) has been sold to the China Realty Co., Fed. Inc., U.S.A., for a sum of Tls. 1,308.

Tls. 3,000 per month represented a letting value of only 20 cents per foot. The owners' representative had expressed the opinion that it might be possible to let these buildings at the rate of 40 cents per foot, and, from enquiries which he himself had made, this latter figure was below that obtaining for godown space in this locality.

After discussion, the view was recorded that the assessment placed on this property was most reasonable. It was, accordingly, unanimously recommended that it be upheld.

The decisions of the Rate Assessors were confirmed by the Council on November 25.

There was an increase of 64 cases as compared with the figures for last month and an increase of 334 cases over those for the corresponding period last year. Increases are recorded in three divisions as follows:—"A" Division 17 cases, "B" Division 37 cases and "D" Division 35 cases, while "C" Division shows a decrease of 25 cases. The month under review shows an increase of eight armed robberies as compared with the number recorded during the previous month and a decrease of four on the figures for last year. Increases occurred in the Wayside and Yangtszepoo districts. A large number of larcenies from both Chinese and foreign dwelling houses was reported, due in most cases to carelessness on the part of the householders or servants in leaving doors and windows open. The Divisional Detective Officer "B" Division reports 83 cases of this nature. The Divisional Detective Officer "D" Division also reports 82 cases of a similar kind. Many well-known thieves have been arrested in connection with these cases. Forty-two cases of ordinary theft and eight burglaries from premises abutting on Extra-Settlement roads also took place, a considerable increase over the reports for last month. There is an increase of 29 cases of snatching during the month. The returns from "A" and "B" Divisions show that this class of crime occurred chiefly in the shopping areas of Nanking and Bubbling Well roads. Foreign ladies were the victims in 12 cases on both roads. Several arrests were made. The Divisional Detective Officer "C" Division reports an unusual increase of snatching cases in the vicinity of Boone Road for which a number of arrests have been effected. 50 per cent of the cases of pocket-picking occurred on public vehicles and in connection therewith four foreigners were arrested and charged. Special steps are being taken to cope with this class of criminal. Forty-eight bicycles were stolen during the month, an increase of 12 over the figures for last month. The Divisional Detective Officer "C" Division reports several arrests of both thieves and receivers and the recovery of several bicycles. A gang of shoplifters arrested in "C" Division were found to be responsible for ten cases of shoplifting in "A" Division.

1,719 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 146 for offences committed previously and 42 for other Authorities, a total increase of 83 as compared with the number recorded for last month.

Murder.—Three cases were reported, one occurring in Harbin Road district in which a Chinese stabbed his wife causing her death and was subsequently sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment. In the second instance a Sikh watchman was found fatally wounded in his bed, later succumbing to his injuries, and in the third case a pedestrian was shot by an armed man during a shooting affray in the Wayside district.

Attempted murder.—Of two cases reported one was in Wayside district when three Japanese attacked and severely stabbed another Japanese as a result of a quarrel while in the second a Chinese woman attempted to poison her husband. The culprits in both cases were arrested and charged.

Manslaughter.—Three cases of manslaughter were recorded during the month all of which occurred in "B" Division. In one case a Chinese chauffeur charged with causing the death of a foreign lady in a collision between a motor-car and a public ricsha, was sentenced to six months imprisonment; in the second case a Chinese died as the result of a fight, when his opponent was arrested and sentenced to three years and six months imprisonment. In the third instance the manager and mill-foreman of a cotton mill were arrested and charged with criminal negligence causing the death of workers who were trampled to death in a panic caused by a fire when several exits were found blocked.

Armed Kidnapping.—Four cases were reported, one in which a Chinese silk and cotton merchant was kidnapped from his shop in the Central district. The second case occurred in Sinza district when a Chinese landowner was forced into a car by two men and taken away. In the third case an attempt was made to kidnap a Chinese compradore whilst leaving his house in Moulmein Road and in the fourth a Cantonese was kidnapped by three men while riding in a private ricsha in Hongkew district.

Abduction.—Of the 13 cases of simple abduction reported four were found on investigation not to be criminal cases and three were brought to light by investigations into cases previously reported. Two cases involved the abduction of two children, one male and one female. Ten arrests were made for this class of offence.

Armed Robberies.—Fifty were reported, an increase of eight over the previous month. There is a decrease of four cases as compared with the corresponding period last year. "C" Division records an increase of two and "D" Division an increase of eight, while there is a decrease of two cases in "B" Division. The reports from "A" Division record the same number as last month, 11 cases occurring in shops. In one case of armed highway robbery in "B" Division a C.P.C. was shot and seriously wounded.

Other Robberies.—There was an increase of four cases under this heading and of the total of 12, investigations proved that two were false reports.

Members of a Criminal Gang.—Three gangs were arrested during the month and 19 arrests were made.

Housebreaking, Office and Shopbreaking.—As compared with last month there is a decrease of one case and a decrease of eight as compared with the corresponding period last year. "A" Division records an increase of 11 and "B" Division five cases. Decreases of 11 and six cases respectively occurred in "C" and "D" Divisions. Seven arrests were effected.

Burglary.—A decrease of two cases is recorded, there being 63 cases as compared with 65 in September. The Divisional Detective Officer "B" Division reports an increase of one case and the Divisional Detective Officer "D" Division an increase of five, whilst there were decreases of three and five respectively in "A" and "C" Divisions. Eight cases occurred on Extra Settlement roads in the Western District and investigations proved that in all the cases the burglars entered from the open country. 17 arrests took place in connection with these cases and special patrols have been commenced and extra precautions taken to stop such burglaries.

Thefts.—There was an increase of 34 cases as compared with the figures recorded last month and 135 cases more than for the corresponding period of 1930. Five false reports were received and eight were found after investigation not to be criminal cases. No less than 413 arrests were made in connection with this class of crime. Many of the cases recorded under this heading are of a trifling nature. 99 cases of pocket-picking occurred in all divisions and 59 arrests were made. "A" Division records 59 such cases and 40 arrests. 48 bicycles were stolen, nine of which were recovered and 13 arrests made.

Snatching.—There was an increase of 29 cases as compared with last month. Three occurred in "A" Division, 12 in "B" Division, 14 in "C" Division and nine in "D" Division. 49 arrests were made including 23 in "A" Division.

Opium Offences. — 152 reports were recorded as the result of police action, in which 526 arrests took place. The Headquarters Narcotic section made 30 raids and arrested 138 persons of which number 43 had been previously convicted for opium and criminal offences. 3½ oz. of opium, red pills and morphine, 76 pipes and ten hypodermic syringes were seized and confiscated.

Gambling Offences.—As a result of police action 51 cases were recorded during the month, an increase of nine over last month. 168 arrests were made. Included in this number were 23 foreigners arrested in a raid in "B" Division. All were charged and convicted. Most of the cases were of a petty nature consisting of Hua Hui and street gambling.

Other Crimes.—349 cases occurred, the same as last month, and 129 more than for the corresponding period last year. Cases under this heading are of a very miscellaneous nature, assaults predominating. False pretences, fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, forgery, etc. are reported from all Divisions.

Notable work in "A" Division included the arrest of a gang of 33 kidnappers and the rescue of Mr. Tsing Sih Ling, who was kidnapped on Shantung Road at 6.50 p.m. on October 2. Notable work in "C" Division included the arrest of 13 bicycle thieves and two receivers all of whom were convicted.

58 criminal cases occurred on Extra-Settlement roads or in buildings abutting thereon, an increase of 36 cases as compared with those recorded last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 22 special cases including murder, armed kidnapping and armed robbery and effected the arrest of 11 persons. In addition enquiries were continued in five serious cases previously reported.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $326,842.52 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, an increase of $106,943.52 as compared with last month. Property valued at $63,689.64 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records dealt with was 2,571. As compared with the figures recorded for last month there is an increase of 141 and an increase of 865 compared with the corresponding month of last year. Of this number 2,099 refer to criminal cases only, which shows an increase of 159 as compared with last month. Investigations were made into 26 cases and latent prints were secured in 12 instances. Of 22 dead bodies fingerprinted and photographed at the Mortuary (21 Chinese and one foreigner) three were identified by fingerprints and three by photographs. 60 records of foreigners were received and 24 identified as having previous convictions. In addition 19 records of foreigners were received from the French Police of which number identifications were recorded in 10 cases.

Studio.—259 photographs were taken and 676 copies printed during the month.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the Staff of this Section visited 302 Boarding Houses, 24 Bars, Restaurants, Cafes, Taverns and Theatres. Ten new applications were dealt with.

Suicides.—15 Chinese were reported as having committed suicide during the month and 13 attempted to do so.

Anti-Japanese Meetings and Demonstrations.—During the month under review no less than 180 meetings and demonstrations were held by the National Salvation Committee, the local branches of the Kuomintang, students' societies, labour organizations and other Chinese associations for the purpose of furthering the Anti-Japanese movement. Resolutions passed at these gatherings included: (1) a demand for unconditional co-operation on the part of Canton in accelerating preparations to declare war on Japan, (2) resignation of China from the League of Nations, (3) refusal to sell commodities or food to Japanese, (4) execution of the Chief of the 5th District Station, held responsible for a shooting incident in Chapei on October 1, and the confiscation of his property, (5) cessation of dealings by local banks with Japanese and (6) complete severance of economic and diplomatic relations with Japan.

Anti-Japanese Propaganda.—The movements initiated at the meetings were strengthened by the publication in the Chinese press of accounts of the proceedings and resolutions adopted, and the dissemination in all parts of Shanghai of posters, cartoons, leaflets, pictorial booklets and slogans of an anti-Japanese character.

The cartoons and slogans were displayed by almost every Chinese shop and in some cases were pasted on the sides of tramcars and splashboards of rickshas. Specimens of the propaganda obtained by the police comprised 29 varieties of cartoons, 54 different kinds of posters and 58 varieties of handbills. In order to make the propaganda still more widespread, groups of students and members of the Kuomintang delivered anti-Japanese lectures daily in the streets in Chinese controlled territory and in the vicinity of extra-Settlement roads.

Anti-Japanese Boycott and Means used to Enforce it.—The immediate local purpose of this propaganda was to induce merchants and shopkeepers to desist from trading in Japanese goods, travelling on Japanese ships or working for Japanese concerns. Means used to ensure that these aims would be attained included the registration and sealing of all stocks of Japanese goods in possession of traders, the seizure of goods in respect of which these regulations had not been complied with, intensive picketing, and the imprisonment, public humiliation and condemnation to payment of heavy fines of traders who were alleged to have assisted Japanese trade. Places used for the detention of persons held in custody included the Temple of the Queen of Heaven which, although situated within the area administered by the Municipal Council, is under the control of the Chinese extra-Settlement authorities by virtue of a special clause in the Land Regulations. It is estimated that no less than 22 persons who had been deprived of their liberty by unofficial bodies without any reference to the local lawfully constituted courts, were taken to the Temple of the Queen of Heaven and detained during the month. As a result of pressure brought upon the agitators by the Chinese authorities, 20 of these were released on shop security and two were removed to Chinese territory outside the Settlement. Five so-called traitorous merchants, who were seized in September and detained in the Temple of the Queen of Heaven for periods ranging from five to 15 days were obliged to pay fines varying from $2,000 to $10,000 in order to secure their liberty. Up to the end of October the victims of arrests and seizures were almost all residents of Chinese territory.

Japanese Counter-measures. — Efforts made by Japanese to counter the Chinese activities included the formation of ten new societies under whose auspices meetings were convened and resolutions supporting the present Manchurian policy of the Japanese Government adopted.

Encounters between Police and Agitators.—Occasions of meetings by Chinese were marked by four encounters between Anti-Japanese demonstrators and members of the public Safety Bureau or the Municipal Police.

Effects of Anti-Japanese Boycott. —Apart from the serious reduction of the import trade in Japanese manufactured articles, the boycott has forced 17 steamships and 700 junks to suspend sailings and 55 Japanese small concerns and stores to give up business. Inability to obtain raw materials also interfered with the work in a number of Chinese concerns. It is estimated that 583 Japanese and 5,841 Chinese have, as a consequence, been reduced to idleness, and there is danger that a similar fate will befall about 75,000 Chinese operatives employed in cotton mills and other large enterprises owned by Japanese.

Potential Dangers of Situation and Action of Chinese Authorities. —The Chinese employees who have been or may be affected by the boycott and their dependents number about 300,000 persons. Evidence that the dangers of the situation are to some extent recognized in Chinese official circles was manifested during the month in the refusal of the Kuomintang Headquarters to permit students to solicit funds from the public, postponement by the Nationalist Government of compliance with the demands of the volunteer armies raised to fight Japan, for arms and ammunition, the withdrawal of watchmen employed by the Public Safety Bureau from the Temple of the Queen of Heaven, where the offices of the National Salvation Committee are situated and action taken on October 30 by Chapei Police on Paoshan Road to prevent students from delivering anti-Japanese lectures.

Communist Propaganda Efforts.—The Chinese Communist Party concentrated during the month on propaganda which endeavoured to give the impression that the passive policy of the Nationalist Government will be responsible for the loss of Manchuria. Communist leaflets obtained by the Police during the month were of 48 different kinds. A few of these leaflets, which were in English and Japanese, contain appeals to the rank and file of the Shanghai Defence Force to turn against their own authorities and assist the Chinese Soviets. It was noticed that the quality of the composition in these handbills and the feeble manner in which efforts were made to distribute them showed lack of courage and initiative on the part of agents who undertook the task.

Police Measures against Communists.—Action taken by the Municipal Police against the Communists included raids on seven "red" bases, the arrest of 20 Chinese alleged to be engaged in Communist activities, and the seizure of 31,327 different pieces of "red" literature. Of the persons arrested, eight were extradited to the Chinese Authorities and the cases against the remainder were pending at the end of the month.

Strikes.—During the month under review there were six strikes in the Settlement. These affected 1,238 employees in six different concerns and resulted in a loss of 4,949 working days. The strikers were comprised of 37 silk weaving factory workers, 60 printers, 50 tobacco factory workers and 1,091 book company workers. The firms affected all belonged to Chinese. There were no strikes in the French Concession during October.

The statistics of strikes for the three areas were as follows:—

Area	No. of Strikes	No. of hands	No. of Working days lost.
Settlement	6	1,238	4,949

Miscellaneous.—Arrival of Refugees.—Up to date about 63,738 refugees of whom 22,738 were destitute, have arrived in Shanghai and the majority of t.. n are still here.

Ordinary quality	14.64	„ „

Film Censorship.—40 new feature and 26 shorts and newsreels were censored in theatres in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. All of these were found satisfactory, with the exception of one which was approved after portions of it, to which the Police censors objected, had been cut.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 694 (89 foreigners and 605 Chinese) of 3,977 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their records.

Eyesight Test.—In addition to the usual eyesight test of all applicants for driving licences 45 chauffeurs already in possession of licences were retested during the month and found to be fit.

One-way traffic. — From the beginning of the month and for an experimental period of three months traffic along that section of Kiangse Road between Peking and Soochow Roads is lowed to travel from North to South only. Ranking on both sides of the narrow section of Kiangse Road, which was hitherto prevalent, caused considerable congestion and obstruction and temporary ranking is now allowed on the East side of the road only.

Motor Cycle Patrols.—The motor cycle patrols continue to prove very helpful in clearing obstructions and in checking dangerous or other improper use of the roadways.

Identification Office.—During the month, 1,858 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 517 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. In addition to the above 241 records were received from the French Police out of which number 50 were identified in the records of this office making the total for the month :—

The Municipal Gazette

BEING THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF
THE COUNCIL FOR THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT OF SHANGHAI

Vol. XXIV. SHANGHAI, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1931. No. 1339

EASTERN DISTRICT PUBLIC WORKS INSPECTED.

Great Progress Shown in Important Undertakings.

Members of the Public Works Committee of the Shanghai Municipal Council on the afternoon of November 29 made an inspection of important works being carried out in the Eastern District. Under the guidance of the Commissioner of Public Works, accompanied by the Treasurer and Controller and other officials, the Committee visited the new police station at the corner of Pingliang and Glen roads, the new police hospital on Ward Road and the Ward Road gaol, the Muirhead Road house refuse incinerator, the new abattoir on Sawgin Road, and also the concreteware yard.

Point Police Station.

The Point Police Station, the construction of which is rapidly advancing, will no doubt stimulate development of this district. In addition to the station, a barracks is being built and an S.V.C. magazine. At the station the accommodation includes seven flats and 13 single rooms for foreign police, 15 flats and six single rooms for Japanese police, one flat and accommodation for 84 single Chinese policemen, and a dormitory for 46 single Sikhs. Adjacent police barracks provide 107 flats for married Chinese police. The area of the station site is 29,500 sq. feet and that of the barracks site 38,135 sq. ft. The total cost of the station is estimated at Tls. 680,000, the barracks Tls. 650,000 and the S.V.C. magazine Tls. 6,000.

Completion of the police hospital on Ward Road will take place in the near future. It is admirably planned outside the Ward Road Gaol wall, and opposite the Gaol Hospital. The Committee also saw the two new gaol blocks of 460 cells, the administration block, juvenile block, and other new works.

Incinerator Operating.

At the Muirhead Road incinerator it was found that the fires had already been lighted. This week work has begun with burning 50 tons of refuse per day. This is to be increased until 150 tons per day are burned. The incinerator is a "Balmer," three-unit plant, with a cremating chamber for the carcases of diseased animals. The approximate cost is estimated at Tls. 450,000, exclusive of land. The incinerator plant has been supplied and erected by Messrs. Andersen, Meyer & Co., Ltd. A second incinerator—an "Inferno" furnace—with a capacity of 240 tons of refuse per day, is being erected on Penang Road. The gross quantity of refuse collected in the Settlement each day approximates a thousand tons.

New Abattoir.

The new abattoir and cattle shed on Sawgin Road, which will be completed by the end of 1932, will be a compact two-storey building, so constructed that it can be increased to four storeys when the demand for increased cattle lairage and abattoir service requires it. The two-storey building as designed provides lairage for 800 cattle, 100 buffalo, 1,300 sheep, 300 calves and 300 pigs. The total site area is now 13,937 the abattoir and lairage buildings occupy an area of approximately now 12.5; quarters and vaccine animal lairage occupy now 1,437. The area covered by structures is: abattoir, approximately 500,000 ft. super., quarters, 5,000 ft. super. There will be good ventilation and light, the live cattle accommodation being separated from the slaughter-houses by ample space. By the addition of two storeys to the building the capacity of the plant can be doubled. The total estimated cost is Tls. 1,650,000.

Concreteware Factory.

The concreteware factory, of course, is not a new municipal activity. It is working to capacity turning out pipes, manhole shafts and covers, pavement slabs, boundary stones, kerb stones, channels, M.C.R. stones, etc. More room for drying purposes would be acceptable. The visitors noticed that the output was moving away rapidly. The total quantity of cement used for all municipal purposes is considerably more than 1,000 tons per month.

6. Notice must be sent to the Council by the Governing Board, as soon as possible in each case, of every date upon which the School will be closed, or its ordinary work suspended, during the year. These dates should include the usual and any special holidays, and any closure on account of sickness.

7. The premises must be sufficient, convenient and healthy, must be safe in case of fire, must have suitable and sufficient sanitary accommodation for the children and for the teachers, must be adequately lighted, ventilated, cleaned and drained, must be kept in proper repair, and must be suitably arranged, furnished and equipped for instruction.

14. The grants will be paid quarterly, and may be revised or discontinued at any time for any sufficient reason.

GRANTS TO CHINESE SCHOOLS.

Committee to Assist Education Board.

The following Chinese ladies and gentlemen have accepted the invitation of the Council to assist the Education Board in considering applications for grants-in-aid to Chinese private schools in the Settlement:—Messrs. L. T. Yuan and K. H. Ling, Drs. Y. H. Ou, H. C. E. Liu, and Sidney K. Wei, Mrs. Pao-Kong Yang Shen, Dr. S. C. Liao, T. L. Kiah, Dr. Y. S. Tsao and Mrs. C. L. Hsia.

EDUCATION BOARD.

Membership.

The Council was informed at its meeting on November 25, that, owing to ill-health, Mr. Murakami, the Japanese member of the Education Board, had left for Japan and would not return for six weeks or possibly longer. It was, therefore, suggested that another Japanese member be invited to take Mr. Murakami's place on the Education Board during his absence.

Members agreed as to the desirability of securing continuity of the services of a Japanese member on the Board, and Mr. Okamoto was requested to submit a nomination, if possible, before the date of the next meeting.

Mr. K. Kuroda was subsequently nominated and has accepted the Council's invitation to serve during the absence of Mr. Murakami.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Foster Kemp to act as Superintendent.

During the absence on long leave next year of Mr. L. C. Healey, Superintendent of Education, his duties will be undertaken by Mr. G. S. Foster Kemp, Headmaster of the Public School for Chinese.

The Chinese Education Officer, Mr. Chen, informed the Education Board that his own duties as Chinese Education Officer kept him fully occupied and that it was not unlikely that, in the near future, he would have to apply for an Assistant. With the increase in the number of Municipal Chinese Schools, he found his official duties correspondingly heavier and it might be anticipated that, with the institution of the Chinese Committee for the consideration of applications from Chinese Schools for grants-in-aid, his duties would be still further increased. In the circumstances, therefore, the Board considered it would not be fair to Mr. Chen to require him to assume the additional responsibility entailed by his acting as Superintendent of Education for a period of eight or nine months.

PRIMARY SCHOOL FOR CHINESE.

Plans of the Primary School for Chinese, Eastern District, prepared by the Public Works Department, were inspected and formally approved by the Education Board on November 18.

JUNIOR SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

Further progress in the provision of the new building for the Junior School for Boys in Tifeng Road awaits the submission of alternative sketch plans illustrating proposals for the utilization of the site.

MUNICIPAL SCHOOLS CURRICULUM.

Study of Chinese Language by Foreign Children.

Further consideration was given by the Education Board at its meeting on November 18, to the question of the study of the Chinese language by foreign children in the Municipal Schools. The Acting Secretary read a letter received from a member of the Board outlining his further views on the subject and suggesting that it might be of assistance if the desires of the parents of children could be ascertained and the proportion of parents who, if they had the alternative of Chinese or French, would choose the Chinese language for their children.

Replying to the Chairman, the Superintendent of Education stated that a communication could be prepared stating that in the opinion of the Board the teaching of the Chinese language was desirable, to which would be attached a questionnaire with a request that parents state their desire as to the teaching of the Chinese or French language. As before stated, the Chinese language was already taught in the Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Boys. Decision therefore was required as to whether it should be included in the curricula of the Girls' Schools and the junior Boys' School.

The Chairman expressed doubt as to whether this subject was sufficiently prominent in the curriculum of the Public and Thomas Hanbury School for boys to satisfy the desire of the Board.

With regard to the Girls' Schools, as the majority of pupils attending the Boone Road School were likely to remain permanently in Shanghai, it was suggested, as an experiment, that this subject should at the outset be included in the curriculum of this School.

In view of the opinions above expressed the Superintendent of Education suggested that as an initial step an investigation might be undertaken by the Director of Chinese Studies as to whether the instruction in Chinese at the Public and Thomas Hanbury School was being conducted on the right lines; and whether the text books in use were suitable. The Director of Chinese Studies might also be requested to submit recommendations with a view to ensuring that the teaching of this subject was conducted in such a manner and for such periods as would achieve the object desired by the Board.

The Director of Chinese Studies expressed his willingness to undertake this investigation and to submit a report for consideration. Pending receipt thereof, it was decided to take no action in the matter of circularizing the parents of pupils.

The Council confirmed the minutes of the Board on November 25.

GENERAL MUNICIPAL RATE ASSESSMENT.

Council Valuation on Mission Property Reviewed.

The Municipal Council on November 25 confirmed the recommendation of the Rate Assessors to reduce the valuation for Municipal rating purposes of the new premises of the Augustinian Procuration at 110 Avenue Road, which include a private chapel and bedrooms for priests temporarily in Shanghai. Dr. Wilhelm on behalf of the Augustinian Procuration, the owners of the property, stated to the Rate Assessors at their sitting on November 20, that their protest against the assessment based on a monthly rental of Tls. 560 was on the ground that this assessment was out of all proportion to that placed on adjoining properties. In support of this contention, he produced a list of rentals paid in respect of the premises referred to. The type of development of house No. 110 differed greatly from that of an ordinary residence inasmuch as the upper floor contained a number of very small bedrooms or cubicles which were provided for the temporary accommodation of priests belonging to the Order during their brief sojourns in Shanghai. Moreover, one large room on the ground floor was designed as a private chapel and used exclusively for that purpose. In the opinion of the owners, it was unlikely that a monthly rental of more than Tls. 300 could be obtained if this house were leased. They, therefore, petitioned that the assessment be based on this figure.

Replying to the Chairman (Mr. A. P. Nazer), Dr. Wilhelm stated that the total cost of the building, including extras, did not exceed Tls. 45/46,000.

For the Council, Mr. R. S. Winter submitted that for assessment purposes a comparison with the neighbouring properties was inequitable, the latter properties being old and due for early demolition. The condition of these houses was such that they could not command high rentals. As house No. 110 was occupied by the owners it was difficult to estimate what rental it would command if leased, owing to its particular and comparatively expensive type of development. He, therefore, submitted that the only basis for assessment was the rental which the owners would be called upon to pay if they leased these premises instead of erecting such a building for their own occupation. The Council had accepted the owners' figure as the cost of the building although the contractor had stated that this figure would be exceeded.

Dr. Wilhelm agreed that the neighbouring properties referred to were of old construction; at the same time he submitted that the respective assessments were disproportionate. He was unable to agree that the assessment on this new building should be based on construction costs since the provision of numerous small bedrooms and a chapel involved considerable additional expenditure which had, of necessity, to be incurred to meet the specific requirements of the owner-occupiers. He, therefore, submitted that this building could not be placed in the same category as one which had been designed for ordinary residential purposes and in respect of which the owner would naturally expect a reasonable rate of return on his investment.

After discussion, it was unanimously recommended that for assessment purposes the monthly rental figure be reduced to Tls. 490.

TWO CHINESE LAND COMMISSIONERS.

Appointment is Discussed By Council.

The proposed appointment of two Chinese Land Commissioners was considered at the Council meeting held on November 25, when, after discussion, it was decided that the Chairman would bring forward the Chinese proposal in the course of his speech at the next Annual Meeting of Ratepayers.

A member suggested that, in the event of no objection being raised by the Ratepayers Meeting, it should be possible to arrange with the Consular Body for the necessary approval to be obtained.

LAND COMMISSION.

CASE No. 224.

Scheduled widening of Boone Road, Cadastral Lot 902, heard in the Council Chamber on Thursday, November 19, 1931.

PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. H. M. Cumine appears on behalf of the registered owner, Mr. S. Matsumoto, who is also present, and Mr. R. Winter appears on behalf of the Council.

Mr. Cumine states his case in the following terms:—Gentlemen of the Land Commission, You are here to consider the claim of my client, Mr. S. Matsumoto, the owner of Cadastral Lot 902 Northern, for the surrender of an area of mow 0.141 ex this lot for the widening of Boone Road, a very important thoroughfare in the Northern District and located at its most important point. I do not think I need to dwell very much on the value of this lot and the area required for the surrender, as the question of value has been very thoroughly dealt with in my letter addressed to the Secretary of the Council on January 13 last, which reads as follows:—

"Dear Sir, We are instructed by Mr. S. Matsumoto, the owner of Cad. Lot 902 to communicate to you his claim for compensation for the compulsory surrender of an area, measuring mow 0.141 ex the above lot for the widening of Boone Road.

"In submitting his claim, we are to state that in widening a road from its existing width of 30 feet to that of 50 feet, no betterment can be admitted, especially in the district where this lot is located. A wider thoroughfare in the vicinity of Woosung and Boone Roads, close to the neighbourhood of the Hongkew market, is quite indifferent in respect to revenue production of the land. In fact it cannot be denied that, if there is any betterment at all, it will be enjoyed by the Council who will reap a larger return in rates, as a result of our client's efforts in having his property redeveloped on present lines. In our client's opinion, it is perfectly obvious it is the Council who will be the party to pay for the betterment resulting for our client's redevelopment. Our client, therefore, does not deem it equitable that only landowners are called upon to pay for betterment of property when the reverse does not apply.

"Moreover, the present widening does not in any way improve the land concerned and the shops built thereon, nor does it contribute thereto any more benefits other than those already enjoyed by our client.

"It is our client's view that whereas his lot has been reduced in depth with the consequent shallower shops, the Council gains a wider road than heretofore for the general traffic and a considerable appreciation in its revenues, especially Municipal rates, which, as far as can be ascertained, are increased by much above Tls. 2,000 per annum. It may be argued that a wider road will allow a greater height for the adjacent buildings, but practice has definitely demonstrated that such is not the case. A wider road, therefore, does not confer betterment upon any adjacent lot, unless the road to be widened is very much less than 30 feet wide in a congested area.

"In surrendering the required area as scheduled our client has lost 1,024 square feet of land, or to put it as practically as possible, he has actually been deprived of 1,011 square feet of floor space on each of the four stories. The present building, with an area of 11,650 superficial feet, has cost our client Tls. 102,730 (or, say, Tls. 885 per fong of 100 square feet) as shown below:—

	Tls.
Front Block (9 shops) 6,022 sq. ft. yielding a total monthly rent of	1,300
Rear Block (10 houses) 5,428 sq. ft. yielding a total monthly rent of	1,020
Total Building Area 11,650 sq. ft. Total Month Rent	Tls. 2,320

"From the foregoing you will note that the rates of annual gross rental return upon superficial feet of building of four stories are:—

For the Front Block, Tls. 2.60 per annum.

For the Rear Block, Tls. 2.25 per annum.

"To surrender this area it clearly shows that our client loses in his property a potential value to the extent of Tls. 21,804 calculated as follows:—

	Tls.
Building area of 1,011 superficial feet, calculated at Tls. 2.60 per annum per superficial foot will yield annually	2,618.49
Less 15 per cent for outgoings	392.77
Nett Return	Tls. 2,225.72
Which, capitalized at 7 per cent per annum gives a value of	31,751.00
Deduct cost of Buildings at Tls. 885 per fong of 100 sq. ft.	9,947.00
Value of Land Tls.	21,804.00

which is our client's loss, therefore his claim; in the calculation of which the maximum height to which his buildings could be erected has not been taken into account."

I feel sure you will not be prejudiced by the claim advanced by Mr. S. Okano on behalf of my client on June 21st last year which was Tls. 5,178 representing Tls. 58,000 per mow for the area to be surrendered; and I hope you will not view with disfavour the claim I submitted on behalf of my client viz: Tls. 21,804 for the area in question which works out at Tls. 154,638 per mow for the sole reason of there being a big difference between the two claims. The original claim of Tls. 58,000 per mow, which was withdrawn by my client was obviously ridiculously low as was the Council's offer of Tls. 4,700 which was calculated at the rate of Tls. 50,000 per mow in July last year bearing in mind the figures of recent transactions; as, after the Council has signified that the matter be referred to the Land Commission on January 26th in view of the considerable difference between the claim and the Council's offer, the Council increased very recently its offer to Tls. 5,640 representing Tls. 60,000 per mow less one third for betterment. This clearly shows that the Council has also been conscious of the material increase in land values recently. This increased offer, however, was not acceptable to my client.

Gentlemen, I submit that the figures contained in my letter dated January 13th last were the result of very conservative and careful calculations based upon actual facts respecting cost of building and revenue; and if any property has changed hands at figures less than those shown in my calculations with confirmed results, I must ask you not to take them as criterion and say that such property had only changed hands without being conscious of its true economic and potential values.

That is why that the value of property has suddenly risen very rapidly in this city. It was the result of the sudden consciousness of the potential value of property in Shanghai on the part of those who have money to invest here. The only reliable value of land is that based on its actual capability of development.

As regards betterment my client cannot agree that he will in any way be benefited by this widening as the prosperity of this section of Boone Road cannot be impaired by even a narrower road than it was, nor improved by a wider one than it is at present. The trade of this locality does not need a wider thoroughfare. The widening has been scheduled more as a measure to cope with the various traffic problems and reducing congestion of other roads.

So far as I can see I have outlined in my letter that in the re-development of this property, the public has been benefited to the extent of more than Tls. 2,000 a year in rates which was very insignificant before re-development. And if you will capitalize this increase at 7 per cent interest p.a., you will find that the surrendered area of Mow 0.141 has a value of Tls. 28,570 to the Council; while my client is only asking Tls. 21,804.

Gentlemen, this is my client's case before you and I ask you to bear in mind that the sudden rise in the value of property in Shanghai recently is nothing but the result of growing consciousness and justifiable realization of the true potential value of landed property here on the part of investors and not the outcome of reckless speculation.

In response to an enquiry from Mr. Winter as to whether or not the claimant has any contracts for the erection of houses and shops on this site, Mr. Cumine furnishes the following figures:

	Tls.
Cost of the buildings, including windows	98,000
Electric wiring	950
Gas fittings	840
Water installation, no figure available
Architects fees	2,940
Total	Tls. 102,730

Continuing Mr. Winter says that the owner's claim is at the rate of Tls. 154,000 per mow while the Council's offer is at the rate of Tls. 60,000 per mow. It is difficult to understand such a vast disparity until it is revealed from an analysis of the claim that the owner has arrived at his valuation by taking the gross rentals derived from the whole of the site—some 19,000 square feet—and attributed such rentals to the actual area occupied by the buildings only, that is, 11,650 square feet. He suggests the following amended valuation:

Actual gross rentals of the shops and houses (according to figures supplied to the Revenue Office)	Tls. 27,480
Less 20 per cent for outgoings	5,496
Net amount of rent	Tls. 21,984

Mr. Winter submits that it is reasonable to allow 20 per cent for outgoings instead of 15 per cent as suggested by the claimant, because the premises being recently built, the assessed value of the land would be considerably below the present market value. Undoubtedly the next assessment would give a much higher valuation. Capitalizing the nett rentals of Tls. 21,984 at 7 per cent would yield a sum of Tls. 314,057

Less cost of buildings (which in the Council's estimation is the lowest cost for which they could be built)	125,000
Giving Cost of Land	Tls. 189,057

The value, after improvement, of the remaining area of mow 2.647 would be on this valuation at the rate of about Tls. 71,000 per mow, so that the Council's offer of Tls. 60,000 per mow, before improvement, appeared to be fair and reasonable.

As regards betterment, the road was being widened from 30 feet to 50 feet giving facilities for an increased volume of traffic which would naturally mean more pedestrians as prospective customers of better class shops which could and would be put up. These better class shops would, of course, command higher rentals. In the circumstances therefore, a deduction of 1/3 for betterment seemed equitable.

Responding, Mr. Cumine says he does not like to quote examples of land sales in the vicinity as he does not regard such sale values as a criterion which causes Mr. Berents (a Land Commissioner) to remark that nevertheless such values are an "indication."

The Commissioners announce that the award will be given in due course.

AWARD.

That compensation be paid to the registered owner at the rate of Tls. 65,000 per mow for the scheduled area of mow. 0.141 equalling	Tls. 9,165
less betterment	2,290
Nett Compensation	Tls. 6,875

Duty at Places of Amusement amounted to 19,760 hours.

There were several serious outbreaks during the month, the following being more particularly worthy of note:—

October 3rd. at 3.30 a.m. S.S. Kian (1460 tons).—Flour and general cargo were well alight in No. 2 hold of the S.S. Kian, anchored opposite Nantao Wharf, and the Nantao Brigade were at work when the Customs and Brigade Floats arrived. The fire was located in the lower hold against the forward bulkhead and it was necessary to remove a considerable quantity of the cargo in order to direct jets to the blaze. This was extremely difficult on account of the heat and dense smoke and gas masks had to be used continuously. The bulkhead between the affected hold and the stokehold became red-hot and, in order to reduce this, a hole was cut through the bulkhead and a jet directed through the opening to the seat of the outbreak. After several hours' strenuous work, the fire was brought completely under control and the ship was then moved to a wharf at Nantao, being taken on the following day to Pootung, where a detachment of the Brigade remained in attendance until the greater part of the cargo was removed.

October 10th. at 3.5 p.m. Z 14 Miller Road (Vulcanizing Shop).—This fire, which originated in a store containing large quantities of old motor tyres and vulcanizing materials, at the corner of Miller and Woochang Roads, proved to be the fiercest that the Brigade has had to deal with for many months, a District Call, to which seven machines from Hongkew and Central Divisions responded, being given. When the first machines arrived three premises were found to be a mass of flame on the ground and upper floors—with the fire spreading rapidly to adjoining premises on both sides—and a call for assistance was promptly given. The flames were so fierce that they spread across Miller and Woochang Roads, a distance of approximately 50 and 40 feet respectively setting fire to the doors and windows of shops on the opposite corners, and for some time it appeared that the outbreak would spread through a very congested and inflammable block of shops and dwellings; the combined Divisions, however, succeeded in mastering it after a hard fight lasting about an hour.

Five premises were severely damaged, four others suffered slightly, and the doors and windows of four shops on the opposite side of the road were affected.

Three officers sustained slight burns.

October 20th. at 12.36 p.m. 406 Honan Road.—This outbreak started in the upper rear portion of premises used as a fan and scroll shop near the corner of Nanking and Honan Roads and, aided by the flimsy construction of this and the adjoining buildings, as well as a considerable number of unauthorized additions, such as the covering over of back yards, etc., the fire quickly assumed serious proportions and threatened the whole of a very extensive and valuable block. Central Division were handicapped by the difficulty they experienced in tackling the rear of the outbreak through the affected and neighbouring premises being walled-in; after little more than an hour's work, however, they extinguished the fire, the upper portions of the fan shop and a sliver shop adjoining being severly damaged.

October 22nd. at 2.34 a.m. X. 2 Ichang Road. — An outbreak amongst a large quantity of cotton in the scutching room, which formed part of the ground floor of the 3-storeyed Sung Sing Cotton Mill, had gained a very extensive hold when the first machines from Sinza Station arrived, it being evident that it had been alight for some considerable time before the Brigade was called, and while every precaution was being taken to prevent the further spread of the fire, an assistance call was sent in, three machines from Bubbling Well responding.

The flames had spread to an authorized bamboo and matshed scaffolding, erected on the outside of the building for the support of sun blinds, and spread along this structure to the windows of the upper floors on the west side, where, coupled with the dense smoke given off from the fire in the scutching room, they caused a very serious panic amongst several hundred females employed on the first and second floors, the mill authorities having failed to give the order for them to cease work. The frightened employees rushed to the exits, which, however, they found barred and bolted with the exception of one on each floor, with the result that there was considerable congestion and overloading, and they became trapped on the landing. Immediate steps were taken to rescue the helpless victims and a call was sent in the meantime for the emergency ambulances and rescue van. Of eleven people conveyed to hospital, six were certified dead, the remaining five being severely injured.

This unfortunate incident serves as an illustration of the indifference shown by the owners of certain mills and other industrial buildings towards the very grave necessity for the maintenance of adequate means of escape for their employees.

Emergency Ambulance Service.—Ninety-three calls were received during the month.

BEING THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF
THE COUNCIL FOR THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT OF SHANGHAI

Vol. XXIV. SHANGHAI, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1931. No. 1340

REVISION OF THE POWER COMPANY'S TARIFF.

Increased Rates for Certain Services Authorized.

On the recommendation of the Public Utilities Committee the Council on December 9 approved certain increases in the Shanghai Power Company's tariff of charges, effective from January 1, 1932.

At a meeting of the Public Utilities Committee on November 23 (Mr. A. D. Bell being absent during this discussion), a letter was submitted by the Shanghai Power Co., in accordance with the provisions of clause 9 of exhibit "D" of the franchise agreement, in which approval was sought of an increase in the tariff of charges.

The Company set forth reasons for these increases. It pointed out that the cost of fuel in September was 20 per cent higher than that prevailing in 1928, and that for the year ended September 30, 1931, this cost was up 13.6 per cent. The proportion of fuel costs to total generation expenditure for the year was 79.8 per cent, which gave "a clear indication of the vital effect of the increased cost of fuel upon the Company's operation." The total cost of the generation of electrical energy, inclusive of fuel and other charges for the September quarter of 1931, showed an increase of 11.1 per cent as compared with like costs in 1928. It was also pointed out that exchange had increased the cost of imported plant, that Customs duties were higher, that foreign staff pay had been increased to meet the high cost of living and exchange adjustment had been made, while the Chinese staff also had to be paid more wages. It was added that whilst in the circumstances the terms of the Company's franchise provided means for seeking a general increase in the supply rates, it was not the Company's present proposal to require such relief, but rather to obtain the Council's approval of a modification of the charges in respect of certain rates as an interim measure in the hope that a betterment of conditions in the not too distant future might avoid the necessity for a general rate revision.

New Charges.

The Company proposed the following increases:—

Lighting and fans, outdoor sign and flood lighting, an increase of one tael cent per kilowatt hour (11 to 12c.) An increase of 9.1 per cent.

Domestic utility rates. Heating (radiator) rate, an increase of one tael cent per kilowatt hour (3 to 4c) or 33⅓ per cent. Combined heating and cooking rate, remains at Tls. 0.03 per kilowatt hour, with a minimum charge of Tls. 4 per month.

Hire rates. Electric motors, one to five h.p. the same, then charges on new and higher scale, average increase being 26.9 per cent on motors of larger capacity only.

Hire of cookers. Tls. 0.75 per month; or if with full installation of wiring, Tls. 1.50 per month (50 per cent increase).

Public and private road lighting, water heating and power are among the services not increased.

The Treasurer & Controller reported to the Committee that he had had several communications from and interviews with the Vice-President and General Manager of the Company, and that the Company's financial records had been examined by officials of his Department. As a result thereof, he was of the opinion that the tariff revision now applied for was justified. He accordingly recommended that it be approved by the Council and that the tentative agreement he had reached with Mr. Taylor that the new tariff would remain in force for a full year, with the proviso that either party might re-open the matter in the event of some unforeseen and significant factor arising during that period, be confirmed.

Costs Of Production.

Replying to the Chairman, the Treasurer stated that under the terms of the franchise agreement any increase in the tariff rate was based on the costs of production, a comparison being made between the figure obtaining in 1928 and that applying at the time application for an increase was made.

Whilst agreeing that the application for an increase in the rate for lighting which might be regarded as a "sheltered" industry was reasonable, a member observed that the Company did not propose to increase the rates for current used competitively—as for cookers. He suggested that the Council should consider very carefully whether the granting of the increase imposed an unfair handicap on competitors of the Power Company.

The remaining proposals relative to an increase in the tariff rates were regarded as reasonable and were recommended for approval.

Mr. Arthur de C. Sowerby has accepted the Council's invitation to serve on the Board of Film Censors.

This procedure has been adopted in order to effect economies in the foreign collecting staff. As a convenience to Chinese ratepayers, no alteration will be made in the method of collecting the rate on Chinese style buildings.

PRIVATE CHINESE SCHOOLS IN THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT.

Municipal Council's Policy Briefly Outlined; Carefully Drafted General Conditions For Grants-in-Aid Apply To All Schools Seeking Financial Help.

The Shanghai Municipal Council desires to see private Chinese schools in the Settlement brought as far as possible into line with the code of Chinese schools in territory under Chinese jurisdiction. The Council recognizes that almost all the non-municipal schools for Chinese children in the International Settlement are under Chinese control, with no limitations thereto save those necessarily set by the special circumstances of the Settlement. It also recognizes that the Education Bureau of Greater Shanghai is by Chinese law the proper authority to exercise that control. Accordingly, the Council has suggested to the Mayor of Greater Shanghai that a logical result of this situation would be the acceptance by the Council of the Education Bureau's recommendation of a Chinese school within the Settlement as proof of that school's qualifications for a municipal grant-in-aid. If the Education Bureau undertakes the responsibility of recommending schools for grants-in-aid,—and it is hoped that it will—the apportionment and disbursement of the grants will be made by the Council, in concert with the Bureau, on the advice of a Chinese Committee reporting to the Council through the Board of Education, and guided by regulations now approved. This set of regulations, called "general conditions for Chinese schools," is the same, except in the geographical limits of its application, as that published by the Council in regard to non-municipal schools for foreign children.

Misunderstanding Removed.

It may be recalled that early this year the Council approved of the inclusion in the Budget of an item of Tls. 150,000 for grants-in-aid of non-municipal educational establishments. The ratepayers endorsed this proposal at the annual meeting, but so far no grants have actually been made out of this fund.

The Education Board gave much attention both to the drafting and translation of the general conditions governing the grants-in-aid; great care was taken to avoid variation of meaning in the English and Chinese texts. One paragraph originally inserted in the outline of the course of study created unusual difficulty, inasmuch as ultimately it was intimated that it might be misunderstood by Chinese. After full deliberation the Education Board unanimously recommended the adoption of an amendment so that the clause should read:—

10 (b).—Patriotism and good citizenship should be encouraged in all schools, and no instruction likely to offend national susceptibilities or to create inter-racial animosity shall be permitted.

The Council has approved this amendment.

In the course of discussion by the Education Board it was emphasized that the clause prohibiting instruction calculated to create inter-racial animosity in aided schools was drafted prior to the development of the existing political situation, and therefore it was in no way connected with the strained relations which subsequently developed between two national sections of the community. Further, there was no intention whatever on the part of the Council to exercise undue influence over Chinese schools: the position of the Council was that "it wished to do its duty as the administrative body of a large city and offer grants to private schools; it definitely was not the intention to prohibit partriotic activities in these schools. The Chairman of the Education Board declared that the decision to include the inhibitory clause was actuated by the fact that as the schools concerned were situated within an International Settlement the teaching therein should be on such basis as to promote international co-operation and friendship. He, therefore, submitted that the present crisis afforded an excellent opportunity for the Board to give expression to the principle that patriotic activities within the schools did not necessitate fostering racial animosity. He expressed the opinion that it should be possible through the teaching given in national schools to promote the cause of patriotism without inculcating hatred and animosity against any other national section of the community.

A Safeguard.

A member of the Board referred to the opinion expressed in Mr. Justice Feetham's report that it would be inappropriate for the Council to make grants to schools which inculcated inter-racial animosity. The inclusion of the clause might therefore be regarded as a safeguard against such a contingency. It may be well here to quote Mr. Justice Feetham. He wrote: "In connection with any arrangements as to control of the Council's schools, or as to grants to schools maintained by national or private enterprise, there is, I think, one stipulation the inclusion of which in any compact made to secure the carrying out of the new educational policy may be regarded as a reasonable and necessary safeguard for the interests of the Settlement as a whole: the stipulation which I suggest is that, with regard both to foreign and Chinese schools, it shall be a condition of any plan made with regard to control of the Council's schools, and of any scheme for grants of assistance to private schools, that the teaching of the schools concerned shall not be in any way directed to the promotion of international or interracial animosities. In view of the character of the textbooks which have been in use in some schools, such a stipulation cannot be regarded as superfluous. The basis of the Settlement régime is international partnership, not only as between foreign nations, but also as between China and foreign nations, and it would be strangely inappropriate if a Council consisting of representatives of many nations, working together in partnership for the purpose of conducting the administration of the Settlement in the common interests of all, were knowingly and intentionally to spend any portion of its revenue on the maintenance of schools in which children of different nations represented among its constituents were taught to cherish the conviction that history required them to regard each other as hereditary enemies, or that it was their first duty as good citizens of their own country to hate the people of some other country. International co-operation in the Council cannot be securely founded on a basis of international enmity in the schools. The suggested rule would apply all round, that is, propaganda against any particular nation, or any group of nations, would be prohibited. It may, no doubt, be difficult to ensure that any such rule is in all respects faithfully observed, but public recognition of the rule will, in itself, be a safeguard and an important step in the right direction."

The amended clause, as part of the Council as to their educational policy, must be considered a happy outcome of the discussions. Adherence to its provisions is expected of all schools irrespective of their nationality.

Chinese Co-operation Sought.

Following the solution of this problem, the Council, on the recommendation of the Board of Education, wrote to General Chang Chun, Mayor of Greater Shanghai, as follows:—

"Sir:—You are probably aware that the Council was authorized by the last Ratepayers' Meeting to promote education for the children of residents in the International Settlement by making grants of money to private schools which satisfy the Council's general educational efficiency and their need of financial aid.

"A statement of the general conditions under which these grants will be available has been adopted and a copy is enclosed herewith.

"You will observe that it is required of private schools that they conform to the recognized education standards of the country to which the majority of the pupils belong. For Chinese schools it is expressly stated that they should conform to the regulations and requirements of the Chinese Government.

"The allotment of the grants will be made on the advice of a Chinese Committee of the Council's Board of Education. In selecting the Chinese schools to which grants might appropriately be given the Board would welcome the recommendations of the Commissioner of Education for the Municipality of Greater Shanghai. It is proposed that the applications from the Chinese schools desiring grants be made through the office of the Bureau of Education for Greater Shanghai and passed on to the Education Department of the Council with the recommendations or comments of the Commissioner.

"It may not be possible to allot grants to all the schools recommended. In special cases it may be desirable to aid some schools other than those recommended, but the advice of the Commissioner would be carefully considered by the Board of Education.

"The Council believes that co-operation on these lines would further mutual understanding and good-will and hopes that it may have your approval and support."

It may be added that with regard to the application of the general conditions under which grants-in-aid will be made by the Municipal Council to Chinese private schools, at a meeting of the Council a member, referring to the desire of the Education Board to co-operate with the Chinese Education Authorities in bringing these into effect, said that members of the Board were unanimously of the view that control of Chinese private educational establishments in the Settlement should so far as possible be left to the Chinese Education Authorities. The basis upon which co-operation with the Chinese Authorities was sought had been fully set out in the minutes, and, whilst progress on these lines would in effect involve an admission that the Council did not seek to control Chinese education within the Settlement, the Board of Education was unanimous in the view that, with the safeguards proposed, such a policy would be to the mutual advantage of the foreign and Chinese communities. The Council unanimously adopted the policy advocated by the Board.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS.

The Christmas and New Year Holidays for children attending the Council schools for foreign children will extend from December 18 to January 4.

REVISION OF WATER TARIFF.

Tentative Agreement by the Council with S.W.W. Co.

The Municipal Council has approved a tentative agreement with the Shanghai Waterworks Co., Ltd., under which, subject to certain modifications, the existing tariff (plus surcharge) will continue in force for the present. Meanwhile the position will be carefully studied both as regards the effect of the recently improved exchange situation on the Company's finances and from the point of view of giving effect to the proposals advanced by Mr. Nicholas S. Hill, jr., C.E. Consideration will also be given to the question of affording some measure of relief to the poorer classes of consumer. The amended rate for municipal supplies of water by meter will be subject to future revision when negotiations are renewed for revising the tariff on a more permanent basis.

At a meeting of the Utilities Committee letters from the Company relative to a revision of the existing tariff rates were submitted. The Treasurer & Controller reported that, following examination of the proposals put forward and discussion thereon with the Secretary and Acting Manager of the Company, a tentative agreement was reached which he recommended for the Council's approval.

This agreement provided: That the existing tariff (including surcharge) shall continue for the time being, subject to the following modifications:

(a) The rate for municipal supplies by meter shall be Tls. 0.40 per 1,000 gallons, in place of Tls. 0.37½ (including surcharge) as at present.

(b) Landlords paying for blocks of property shall be entitled to be assessed on net instead of gross rentals.

(c) The existing sliding scale for supplies by meter shall be extended so as to provide for appreciably lower rates for very large consumers.

That steps be taken to introduce general metering forthwith—the Company to proceed with the installation of meters in specified areas.

That while no period is fixed for the duration of the temporary arrangement, it is open to either the Council or the Company to propose a variation thereof for justifiable cause, such as a marked rise or fall in exchange.

In this connection, it will be remembered that a condition attaching to the Council's approval of the present 25 per cent surcharge was that such should be reconsidered in the event of exchange rising to 2/-. This condition will not be abrogated by the present tentative arrangement.

That during the temporary period of the proposed tariff, full consideration will be given by the Council and the Company to Mr. Hill's Report with a view to deciding to what extent it would be practicable, in the interests of both the consumer and the shareholder, to put his proposals into operation. Further consideration will also be given to the question of introducing a rate-in-aid or water service charge with the intention of affording some measure of relief to the poorer classes of consumer.

Members of the Committee, after hearing the Treasurer & Controller, endorsed these proposals and recommended that the Company be authorized forthwith to give effect thereto. The Council has now given its approval.

SALE OF SURPLUS COUNCIL LAND.

Application by Orphanage and School.

Letters from the Salesian Institute requesting that the Council sell an area of mow 1.793 surplus land adjoining their property on Holung and Liangshan Roads at a lower price than that of Tls. 17,930 previously asked have been submitted to the Works Committee.

In noting that the land owned by the Institute is to be utilized for the erection of an orphanage and industrial school for Chinese, and in appreciating the value of its work on behalf of the community, members concurred with the Treasurer as to the inadvisability of departure from the principle under which financial assistance is afforded to charitable institutions.

They, therefore, recommended that the Institute be informed that whilst the Council was unable to reduce the price of this land, which would in effect amount to the issue of a capital grant, it was, as in other cases, prepared to give consideration to an application for financial assistance subject to the Institute furnishing a full report and statement of accounts at the end of its fiscal year, disclosing its resources and financial position generally.

SHANGHAI-HONGKEW WHARVES.

In connection with reconstruction work at the Shanghai and Hongkew Wharves, the Commissioner of Public Works has recommended, and the Council has approved, that arrangements be made for the extension of Chaoufoong Road next year and the abandonment of Yuenfong Road extension, subject to the retention by the Wharf Company of facilities not less suitable than existing at present. The extension of the wharf line at Chaoufoong Road will necessitate the jetty being set forward and provision for this will be included in next year's budget.

MOKANSHAN SANATORIUM.

Relative to the Council's decision to replace one of the Sanatorium buildings which has been demolished, the Commissioner of Public Works informed the Works Committee that plans had been prepared and an estimate for construction obtained from a local contractor. The cost of a two storey building to accommodate 30 people was Tls. 15,000, which was considerably less than the cost of placing this contract in Shanghai. If this new building is to be ready for occupation next summer, this work must be commenced forthwith. He, therefore, recommended that expenditure of Tls. 1,000-2,000 be authorized during the current year in order to permit this work to be commenced forthwith.

The Treasurer & Controller concurred in this proposal.

After discussion this recommendation was unanimously endorsed, subject to decision as to the actual site for the new building being arrived at in consultation with the Commissioner of Public Health and the Matron of the Sanatorium.

The Council confirmed the Committee's minutes.

RIVERVIEW GOLF LAND.

Letters from Mr. H. D. Rodger have been submitted to the Works Committee offering to lease to the Council the Riverview Golf Land having an area of 140 mow. As this area is situated beyond Settlement limits, members took the view that this should only be purchased or leased if a mutually satisfactory arrangement were arrived at between the Council and the Greater Shanghai Municipal Authorities. They were, therefore, unable to submit any recommendation at this time.

GENERAL PLAN OF SHANGHAI—1933.

A recommendation of the Commissioner of Public Works that a new plan of Shanghai be prepared in 1933 showing a considerable extension to the north and a slight extension to the east, and that this be produced locally at approximately one-half of the cost of the plans previously reproduced in London, has been unanimously endorsed by the Works Committee.

LOST DOGS.

A Ratepayer having suggested that a list of dogs detained at the Gordon Road police kennels should be published in the "Municipal Gazette," the Commissioner of Police states that this would attract claims from other than owners of lost dogs. No dog of any value is ever destroyed as there are always people willing to take dogs from the kennels rather than have them destroyed. A dog which is lost and not recovered within two or three days is rarely found.

In reply thereto, I am directed to inform you that the Council is unwilling to pay compensation at this rate, but is prepared to acquire the two areas for a payment of Tls. 97,919, calculated as follows:

Road Land.

	Tls.	Tls.
Mow 1.689 at Tls. 55,000 per mow	92,895
Less betterment on area of mow 1.242 north of the road at Tls. 8,000 per mow.	9,936	82,959
Surplus Land South of Road. Mow 0.272 at Tls. 55,000 per mow		14,960

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,

Messrs. PALMER & TURNER.

Shanghai, November 12, 1931.

DEAR SIR,—With reference to your letter dated September 3, in which you inform us that the Council is unwilling to pay compensation at the rate of Tls. 80,000 per mow for the area to be surrendered for the widening of North Kiangse Road and the extension of Tiendong Road, we have now had an opportunity of consulting the beneficial owners and are instructed to inform you that they are not prepared to accept the Council's offer of compensation at the rate of Tls. 55,000 per mow, less betterment.

We are also to state that they wish to retain the surplus area south of Tiendong Road, measuring mow 0.272, and that their claim now will only effect the actual area of mow 1.689 included in the road extension.

Under these circumstances we have to request that the question of compensation for the area to be surrendered out of Cadastral Lot 611 be referred to the Land Commissioners for decision.

Yours faithfully,
PALMER & TURNER.

J. M. McKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

Council Chamber,
Shanghai, November 25, 1931.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of November 12, stating that your clients are not prepared to accept the Council's offer of compensation of Tls. 82,959, for the surrender of an area of mow 1.689 from Cadastral Lot 611 required for the scheduled widening of North Kiangse Road and extension of Tiendong Road. As you also state that your clients wish to retain the surplus area of mow 0.272 south of Tiendong Road I am directed, prior to reference of this case to the Land Commission, to make you an amended offer to acquire the scheduled area only for Tls. 90,316 calculated as follows:—

Mow 1.689 at Tls. 60,000 per mow		101,340
Less Betterment:—
On area of mow 1.242 north of road at Tls. 8,000 per mow	9,936
On area of mow 0.272 south of road at Tls. 4,000 per mow	1,088	11,024
	Tls.	90,316

I shall be obliged if you will kindly inform me whether this increased offer is acceptable, failing which the matter will be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. McKEE,
Acting Secretary.

Messrs. PALMER & TURNER.

Shanghai, November 27, 1931.

DEAR SIR, — We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated November 25 containing an offer of compensation for the area to be surrendered, namely, mow 1.689 at the rate of Tls. 60,000 per mow, less betterment on an area of mow 1.242 north of Tiendong Road at the rate of Tls. 8,000 per mow and on an area of mow 0.272, south of the road, at Tls. 4,000 per mow.

We have to point out that Cadastral Lot 611 consisted formerly of a compact rectangular lot, bounded on two sides by the North Kiangse Road and Tiendong Road, but that now, owing to Tiendong Road having been driven diagonally across the centre, the lot consists of two irregularly shaped areas which do not lend themselves to development to the same extent as a more regular shaped property.

Under the circumstances we are instructed to say that our clients are unable to accept this offer and we have to request that the matter be referred to the Land Commission for decision.

Yours faithfully,
PALMER & TURNER.

J. M. McKEE, Esq.,
Acting Secretary,
Municipal Council.

The Municipal Gazette

BEING THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF
THE COUNCIL FOR THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT OF SHANGHAI

Vol. XXIV. SHANGHAI, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1931. No. 1341

FACTORY INSPECTION IN SETTLEMENT.

Special Meeting of Ratepayers to be Called.

At the Council meeting on December 9, the Chairman stated that he and the Secretary General recently attended a meeting of the Employers' Federation when the proposal was put forward that, in order to regularize the inspection of foreign factories within the Settlement, an amendment be made to Byelaw XXXIV which provides for the licensing of certain premises, occupations, etc. Under such an amendment factories would require to be licensed and thus could be inspected by the Council's officials. The Employers' Federation undertook to accord full support to any steps taken by the Council to effect this amendment. Under existing conditions, the Council had no power to enforce requirements in the interests of public health and safety, and it was felt that the Council would be in a stronger position if it could enforce the inspection of factories. For this reason, he and the Secretary General were prepared to support this proposal.

The Secretary General stated that the Greater Shanghai Authorities had recently commenced the inspection of Chinese factories outside the Settlement, although they were aware that, having regard to local conditions, enforcement of the provisions of the Factory Act in their entirety was impracticable. Foreign owners were willing to submit to inspection by the Council's officials if the necessary amendment could be effected to Byelaw XXXIV. To effect this amendment, it would be necessary to convene a special meeting of ratepayers and, with the support of the Employers' Federation, it was hoped that the requisite quorum would be obtained; after which the necessary action would be taken to secure the approval of the Diplomatic Body and the Chinese Authorities.

The Chairman then proposed that arrangements be made to convene a special meeting of ratepayers immediately prior to the next annual meeting for the purpose of securing their approval of an amendment to this byelaw.

In concurring with the Chairman as to the desirability of provision being made for the inspection of all factories within the Settlement, members unanimously adopted this proposal.

COUNCIL'S EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME FOR THE YEAR 1932.

Proposal To Commence Western District Boys' and Northern District Girls' Schools; Question of Site for Further Chinese Primary Schools; Expenditure Involved.

At the Council meeting on ber 9, on consideration of the Education Board minutes of December 2, it was decided that an area of mow 11.992, of the site of the former Victoria Nursing Home, Range Road, be utilized for the purpose of the new Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Girls, the remaining portion of the site to be converted into a public park.

The minutes of the Education Board and of the Council are appended:—

A report by the Superintendent of Education suggesting preliminary consideration of the building requirements for the forthcoming year in relation to the new education policy, with comment thereon by the Commissioner of Public Works and the Treasurer and Controller, were submitted to the Education Board.

Replying to the Chairman, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that an appropriation of Tls. 200,000 for a portion of cost of the new Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Girls would permit this work to be commenced in 1932; the balance of cost could then be included in the 1933 budget. With regard to the Western District School for foreign boys, for which a nominal appropriation of Tls. 100 was inserted in the current budget, as the site for this building had now been approved and as it was cleared, he concurred with the Chairman that, subject to the exigencies of finance, a sum of, say, Tls. 150,000 could be expended during 1932.

It was recommended that the above appropriations be included in the preliminary extraordinary estimates.

With regard to the provision of additional Chinese primary schools, the Chairman observed that the programme adopted by the Council called for the erection of two additional schools each year although during 1931 only one of such schools was in course of construction.

The Commissioner of Public Works stated that these provisions were mainly contingent upon the acquisition of sites, and he suggested that, in the first instance, the Board should consider and submit a definite recommendation as to its requirements in the matter of school sites. Such a recommendation would enable his department to ascertain as to the availability of the required sites and permit it to design plans for buildings thereon. Although it had not been possible this year to proceed with the erection of two new primary schools, the Council had leased two buildings for this purpose. The requirements of the Board's policy to provide additional educational facilities were thus being complied with, although it had not been possible to secure sites for the erection of permanent buildings.

Question of Leasing Premises.

The Chairman then read a letter signed by the Chinese members of the Board in which they alluded to the possibility forecasted by the Treasurer that, owing to the magnitude of the general building programme approved for 1931 and commitments to be met in 1932, it might be necessary to postpone the erection of two further primary schools and a secondary school for Chinese girls during that year. They, therefore, recommended that two new mixed primary schools be temporarily accommodated in leased premises and that portions of cost for erection of the permanent buildings be included in the 1932 estimates in order that constructional work might be commenced in 1932 and completed in 1933.

The Chairman stated that he emphatically endorsed the proposal that the policy relative to the provision of additional educational facilities should be adhered to and that every effort should be made to ensure that the requirements of this policy were complied with, particularly during the first few years from the time this policy was adopted.

A member agreed that, if it were only intended to provide four or five primary schools, it would be highly desirable that they should not be in too close proximity. Since, however, the Board's programme called for the provision of sixteen such schools it would, of necessity, be impossible for these to be located with long distances intervening. He, therefore, suggested that the provision of temporary buildings be viewed from this aspect.

The Commissioner of Public Works stated that in his opinion, an effort should be made to secure a site in the western industrial area, although he appreciated that adoption of this proposal would have to be governed largely by the exigencies of finance.

The Chairman then proposed that the Commissioner of Public Works be requested to institute enquiries as to the availability of premises which could be leased for the temporary accommodation of two Chinese primary schools to be opened in 1932. This proposal was adopted.

A member stated that, whilst he did not oppose the accommodation of Chinese primary schools in temporary premises as a matter of expediency, he considered it should be made clear that the Board only adopted this course reluctantly and that the necessity of adherence to the policy for the provision of permanent buildings was of vital importance. He, accordingly, strongly supported the suggestion that enquiries should be instituted and a report furnished as to the availability of, say, six sites for permanent primary school buildings with particular reference to the western industrial area.

Upon receipt of this report, further consideration would be given to the amount of the appropriations to be recommended for inclusion in the 1932 budget for the acquisition of these school sites.

The Economy Factor.

Upon the Deputy Treasurer alluding to the necessity of the strictest economy being exercised and to the fact that all departments had now under consideration the best means by which this could be accomplished without impairing the efficiency of essential services, the opinion was expressed that, in this respect, the Education Department should not be regarded as in the same category as other municipal departments. The Council had only recently embarked upon its revised educational policy and a definite undertaking had been given that extended educational facilities would be provided for the Chinese community. Any radical departure from the policy already adopted would constitute a breach of faith towards the Chinese community.

A member then suggested that, as an alternative expedient, the Council might acquire one or more sites in the eastern district and erect thereon buildings of a temporary nature rather than lease buildings at an exorbitant rental. Members agreed that this proposal merited consideration in the event of it being impossible to lease suitable temporary premises at a reasonable rental.

Reverting to the question of the provision of a school for foreign girls in Range Road, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that alternative sketch plans had been prepared showing the building differently placed. The areas allotted to the school under these alternative proposals were (A) mow 11.992, (B) mow 15.834 and (C) mow 18.492. He realized that the area which would ultimately be allotted for school purposes would be contingent to a great extent upon other equally important and urgent municipal requirements.

The Superintendent of Education was of opinion that the area provided for in the second of these two schemes, i.e., mow 15.834, should be regarded as the minimum which would meet the Board's requirements. The surrounding area was densely populated and, in the interests of the health of the pupils, he regarded it as of vital importance that adequate playing and recreation space should be provided. Shanghai had not, like the majority of other large cities, ample parks and recreation grounds, and he submitted that this factor should be given the most careful consideration in relation to that of the space to be provided for school buildings.

The Commissioner of Public Works agreed as to the imperative necessity of the provision of additional parks and open spaces, and, owing to the lack thereof, he was prepared to support the view that as much space as possible should be provided for the use of school children. At the same time, this particular site was valued at Tls. 40,000 per mow and he suggested that, at a time when the need for the exercise of the strictest economy existed, it might be difficult to justify appropriating an unduly large area thereof for playing and recreational space. It might be anticipated that the Mental Hospital would remain on this property for some years to come and that a portion of this area would be required for other municipal projects. Whilst he agreed that the conversion to an open space or children's playground of the portion not required for school purposes, in order to provide an additional lung in this congested area, would be ideal, there was in his opinion, little prospect of the remainder of the site being thus utilized.

With reference to the economic aspect of this matter, the Superintendent of Education drew attention to the fact that, following the transfer of the Thomas Hanbury School for Girls to its new premises, the valuable site now occupied by this school might be disposed of, thereby reducing the cost to the Council of the playing area which he regarded as essential for an institution of the type contemplated; alternatively, if not disposed of, it would be available for utilization for other municipal purposes. Furthermore, if the proposal to separate the budgets for Chinese and Foreign education respectively were carried out it should also be noted that a second valuable property now used for the education of foreign children was shortly to be relinquished, namely, the Boone Road School for Girls. He submitted that these factors should be given due weight when considering the question of cost.

A member stated that, if it were not for the fact that the erection of this school would release one or two sites for the building of Chinese schools, he would be in favour of this scheme being deferred; in any case, he considered that, in the interests of economy and in order to avoid an invidious distinction between the facilities provided for foreign and Chinese schools, the surrounding space should be kept down to minimum requirements.

The Chairman observed that ultimate decision as to the area which would be available for this school would rest with the Council. He, therefore, proposed, and members concurred that the Board should record the view that the allocation of the whole of this site for the school building and a children's public playground was highly desirable. If, however, adoption of this proposal was impracticable and if the Council were unable to authorize scheme C. under which an area of mow 18.492 would be allocated, then the Board was of the view that the second of these schemes involving an area of mow 15.834 was the minimum area which would meet its requirements.

Discussion by the Council.

With regard to the recommendation that an area of at least mow 15.834 of the site of the late Victoria Nursing Home be allotted for the erection of the new Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Girls, a member stated at the Council meeting on December 9, that, whilst the majority of the members of the Education Board strongly supported this recommendation, he personally was of the view that having regard to the value of this land the provision of playing space should be reduced to a minimum. In support of this view, he stated that playing space adjoining schools in other large and densely populated cities was seldom provided, such space usually being located in areas where lower land values obtained. He agreed, however, to the desirability of providing a lung in this congested district and was prepared to support the proposal that the area not required for school purposes be converted into a small public park.

Replying to the Chairman, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that, if the school were erected as placed on plan "A" submitted, the building would be closer to the road than under the alternative schemes which provided for larger areas. The disadvantages from street noises could, however, be partially overcome by the erection of a high wall bounding the road.

A member alluded to the potential expenditure which would be incurred by the decision to utilize this space for the provision of a new school, and, whilst he did not overlook the fact that the Council was committed to this provision, he reiterated the view expressed by him during previous discussions on education projects that the educational programme upon which the Council had embarked might be impossible of achievement owing to the vast expenditure involved. Although this scheme had been approved in principle by the ratepayers, he could not but feel that, even if it were possible to meet the requirements of this policy for the next few years, the impression would be conveyed to the ratepayers that the Council had unlimited funds at its disposal. He, therefore, urged that the Council's financial position should be borne in mind when proposals necessitating increased taxation were under consideration.

Upon another member suggesting that a measure of financial relief might be afforded by the erection of buildings of a less costly nature than at present contemplated, the Commissioner of Public Works stated that, in his opinion, the provision of first class buildings was in the long run economically sound if considered in conjunction with the recurring costs, involved by the maintenance of inferior types of buildings. With regard to the provision of Chinese primary schools, he stated that it had been possible materially to reduce the cost originally contemplated by abandonment of the provision of staff and servants quarters.

After discussion on the recommendation as to the area to be allotted for the erection of a new Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Girls, it was unanimously decided that an area of mow 11.992 be utilized for this purpose, the remaining portion of the Victoria Nursing Home site to be converted into a small public park.

PUBLIC HEALTH REPORT FOR NOVEMBER.

Dr. J. H. Jordan, Commissioner of Public Health, in his report for November states:—

Vital Statistics.—The foreign death rate was higher than for November, 1930, being 18.34 as against 13.34, and the Chinese death rate was slightly higher than last year, being 14.80 compared with 12.06.

Deaths amongst resident foreigners totalled 58 whilst Chinese resident deaths totalled 1,221.

Communicable Diseases. — The Cholera epidemic has abated, only one notification being received, a non-resident Chinese treated within the International Settlement.

Typhoid and Para-Typhoid Fevers.—There were 12 foreign cases with two deaths, whilst 34 deaths were reported amongst the Chinese population.

Dysenteries.—17 foreign cases were reported of which three proved fatal. Amongst the Chinese resident population 39 cases were notified with nine deaths.

Smallpox. — There were ten foreign resident cases with two deaths, and 24 Chinese cases were notified with 18 deaths.

Cerebrospinal Fever.—This disease caused five Chinese deaths. There were no foreign cases or deaths.

Tuberculosis.—There were ten fresh cases amongst the foreign residents, with five deaths. 63 Chinese cases of Pulmonary Tuberculosis were notified, with 60 deaths from all forms.

Malaria.—13 new cases were notified amongst the foreign population and seven cases of "Relapse" were reported from the British Military Forces.

Beri-Beri—2 fatal cases occurred amongst the Japanese Community.

Typhus.—Two further foreign cases were notified.

Schistosomiasis. — This disease together with Measles was included in the list of notifiable diseases as from the 18th instant, and two further cases of the former were notified during the month.

General Remarks.—In regard to the communicable diseases mentioned above, the two that may be singled out for particular remark are Malaria and Typhus. Concerning the first-named there can be no doubt a steady increase in malaria is occurring in certain districts. The situation is being carefully watched though at the present it does not appear to require any special attention other than the preventive measures which are performed as a routine duty by the Department.

Systematic anti-malarial work on a large scale in this town would be extremely costly and it seems desirable to substitute for this the filling in of the more dangerous ponds and creek areas by means of earth or preferably house refuse.

During the past two years investigations have been made with a view to discovering the breeding places of the Anopheline mosquito in the hope that it may prove possible to tackle the problem by filling as above suggested. With regard to typhus, its chief interest lies in the fact that hitherto it has not been noted amongst the foreign population, nor indeed is its incidence among the Chinese population apparently very high, though the data in regard to the latter point are somewhat indefinite.

Laboratories.—Work on the preparation of a vaccine for bovine pleuro-pneumonia was commenced during the month. The preparation of this vaccine will necessitate considerable experimentation work.

Nine bottles containing larvae from different sources in the Western District were submitted for identification of species. All contained anopheline larvae and/or pupae.

Milk.—Four specimens of raw milk were examined for tubercle bacilli. In each case two guinea pigs were inoculated. Neither showed any evidence of tuberculosis. Routine examinations were performed on 38 samples of milk from various dairies.

Plague Prevention. — Spleen smears from 1,399 rats were examined. All were negative.

Pasteur Treatment.—64 persons bitten or licked by dogs, including seven from outports, called for advice, cauterization and/or treatment. There were no fatalities.

Amongst miscellaneous examinations of interest performed during the month may be cited a precipitin test to decide whether a sample of blood was human (this examination was performed at the request of the Police) and the investigation of an epidemic among ducks to ascertain whether this epidemic (caused by Pasteurella Aviseptica) had any significance from the public health standpoint.

Hospitals Division.—Admissions to the Municipal Isolation Hospital were almost double that of the previous month. This was to some extent due to the usual incidence of communicable diseases at this season, particularly measles and smallpox. No anxiety need at present be felt since the hospital was previously decidedly empty. In regard to other hospitals there is little to note.

Smallpox Vaccination Campaign.—The two inoculation vans used in the cholera campaign are now being used to assist the usual winter smallpox vaccination campaign. In addition to the vaccinations performed by the Sanitation Division, the two Chinese Medical Officers attached to the vans have performed around 14,000 vaccinations, mostly in schools and the larger factory establishments.

Food, Dairies and Markets Division.—26 specimens of milk were taken for bacteriological examination, 23 being pasteurized and three raw milks. Two were below the standard.

The Roselawn Dairy closed business at the end of October. The licence of the Wayside Dairy was withdrawn on the 15th. There are now only 27 licensed dairies, of which eight are Grade "A."

Municipal Slaughterhouse and Cattle Sheds.—The supply of cattle via the Shanghai/Nanking Railway is reverting to normal, but the Cattle sheds are still occupied to full capacity. 1,247 less oxen, 263 sheep and 90 calves were killed this month as compared to the previous month.

Preparations to start the disposal plant for condemned or diseased carcases as from December 1, were completed.

Notices were prepared and sent out to all dairies and slaughterhouses.

Dairies.—The Veterinary Surgeon reports that pleuro-pneumonia is still limited to two dairies where it caused the death of 31 animals.

In view of the shortage of milk which usually occurs at this time of the year, a careful check of the total production was made and it was found that the approximate daily production of milk was 20,500 lbs.

Markets and Bakeries Division.—It is hoped that next month will see the opening of the new Peking Road Market. Special attention has been paid to night work at bakeries with the result that a decided improvement in the sanitary arrangements of these establishments has been obtained.

In addition a certain amount of useful work has been performed in regard to dealing with hawkers.

Sanitation Division.—This division has been kept busily engaged in routine work and in addition in carrying out the inspection of minor eating houses which now forms part of its function.

Here follow Tables of Vital Statistics, Communicable Diseases and of the work of the Food, Dairies and Markets Division, Sanitation Division, Tuberculosis and Venereal Diseases, Clinics, and Municipal Laboratories, Hospitals and Slaughterhouse.

Chlorine in chloride figures have varied between 1.4 and 1.85 parts per 100,000. Ammonia figures have been normal and nitrites absent. Free chlorine has normally ranged from 0.02 to 0.25 parts per million in samples taken in the laboratory, and from 0.02 to 0.10 parts per million in samples taken at other points.

Bacteriological Examination.—21 samples were examined during the month, 4 from hydrants and 17 from taps in various parts of the Settlement. No coliform organisms were found in 120 cc. quantities of any of the samples from the hydrants. 16 of the tap samples showed an equally high state of purification.

The remaining sample contained 1,450 coliform organisms per litre. Organisms of the B. coli group were present to the extent of 800 per litre. These were identified as B. aerogenes.

Report on Analysis.—Results of examinations show satisfactory purification of the main and satisfactory purification of most of the tap samples. One tap sample showed some contamination but not of an important nature.

PARKS REPORT FOR NOVEMBER.

Mr. W. J. Kerr, Superintendent of Parks and Open Spaces, reports:—

Hongkew Park.—Playing spaces were in constant use during the month, play being possible on 22 days, and two matches taking place on all football grounds every Saturday and Sunday.

In accordance with the expressed desire of clubs, two open-air basketball grounds were laid out. These grounds are available for the playing of matches on application to the Park Office.

Repairs to bowling greens were carried out and a winter top-dressing of soil was applied.

Municipal Nurseries. — 18,000 chrysanthemum plants were transferred for planting in the various parks during the autumn; these plants produced a mass of colour which received favourable comment.

The pricking out of hardy annual seedlings was continued, certain of the less hardy species being accommodated in protected frames.

Winter digging and manuring of vacant plots was commenced, the ground being roughly dug to enable frosts to penetrate and sweeten the soil.

The Municipal Gazette

BEING THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF
THE COUNCIL FOR THE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT OF SHANGHAI

Vol. XXIV. SHANGHAI, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1931. No. 1342

POLISH LEGATION.

A letter from M. G. B. de Weydenthal, Charge d'Affaires, informs the Council that the Polish Legation has been temporarily established in Shanghai; and that, dating from November 19, a Consular section has been created within the Legation.

CONSULAR INFORMATION.

A letter from Mr. E. Lardy, Consul General for Switzerland, informs the Council that, by commission dated September 2, 1931, the Swiss Government has appointed him to succeed Mr. J. L. Isler as Consul General of Switzerland in China. Upon receipt of the exequatur of the Chinese Government, Mr. Lardy assumed charge of the Consulate General for Switzerland on December 17.

NETHERLANDS SCHOOL.

The Netherlands authorities in the Settlement desire to open in September, 1932, a school for Netherlands children. At the last meeting of the Education Board a letter was submitted from the Consul-General for the Netherlands enquiring what support the Council would be likely to give to the school.

A requisite preliminary for the issue of any grant to foreign non-municipal schools is that the school must have been in existence for at least a year. Further, the Council is unable to bind itself to the future issue or continuance of such grants without the authority of the ratepayers at each annual meeting.

The Board, therefore, had no alternative but to recommend that the Consul-General for the Netherlands be notified accordingly and also that he be informed that, if the school is established and functions for a year, it will then become eligible to apply for a grant-in-aid.

The Board minutes were confirmed by the Council on December 23.

Applications for grants-in-aid for the current year to non-municipal foreign schools in the Settlement or paying rates to the Council must be submitted not later than December 31. Application forms and copies of the conditions governing the issue of grants-in-aid are obtainable from the Superintendent, Education Department, Administration Building.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

George Lanning Memorial Scholarships.

The George Lanning Memorial Scholarships for 1932 have been awarded as follows:—

P. Wolnizer, Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Boys;

Smera Kasarnovsky, Public School for Girls—Yt. Yuen Road.

NEW SCHOOL SITE.

The Council having decided to allot an area of mow 11.992 from the site of the former Victoria Nursing Home for the erection of the new Public and Thomas Hanbury School for Girls, consideration has been given by the Education Board to the section of the site on which the building should be erected.

The opinion was expressed that, to avoid street noises, the school should be built on the northern section of the property, the playing space to be in front of the building. After discussion, the Board agreed to recommend that the building be erected on the northern section of the site and that the Commissioner of Public Works be authorized to ascertain whether the patients in the Mental Ward could be temporarily accommodated elsewhere in order to release the area at present occupied by the Mental Ward building.

The Public Library and Reading Room will be closed on Christmas Day and on New Year Day.

Major F. W. Gerrard, C.I.E., Commissioner of Police, returned to Shanghai from long leave on Tuesday and resumed duty the next day.

The average number of labourers employed by the Highways, Sewerage and Parks Division of the Public Works Department during November was:—Coolies, 6,667; artisans, 492; foremen, 377; and mafoos, 64.

615 blocks of new buildings were under construction during November; 206 sets of plans were submitted for approval, 157 being approved; and 133 unauthorized building notices were issued by the Public Works Department.

The Shanghai City Government has recently scheduled certain roads in the districts outside the Settlement, and a plan of these schedulings has been submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works to the members of the Works Committee for their information.

*(1 Attempted)

There was a total decrease of 89 cases as compared with the figures recorded last month and an increase of 251 cases over those for the corresponding period last year. The figures for armed robbery remain the same as last month, but there was an increase of nine cases over those recorded during November, 1930. Shopkeepers have been the victims in many of the cases recorded, especially in Louza District. There was an unusual increase in this class of crime in Gordon Road District and this is receiving special attention. There is also an unusual increase in the number of murders recorded, principally due to the find of nine bodies in "B" Division, the result of investigations by the Chinese authorities into the activities of Chinese communists. These murders which took place at various times over a period of approximately one year do not really concern the crime report for last month. The thefts of sewing machines continue and the public are warned not to purchase these machines from persons unable to prove ownership and are requested to communicate with the police immediately such sales come to their notice. Bag-snatching is still prevalent particularly in the western district and the shopping areas. With the advent of Christmas and the increased shopping at this season of the year, foreign ladies are again warned not to carry their handbags carelessly or to leave them about the counters and tables of shops whilst making purchases. During this period of the year snatchers and pickpockets are usually very active and pedestrians and passengers in public vehicles should be particularly careful amongst crowds which congregate outside shops and at omnibus and tramcar stopping places. During the month the new wireless patrol vans were put into operation and are now performing useful work in various districts whilst the majority of the street telephones authorized have been installed and should by rapid dissemination of information aid considerably in the suppression of crime.

1,444 persons were arrested for crimes committed during the month, 72 for offences committed previously and 35 for other authorities, a total decrease of 356 as compared with the number apprehended last month.

Murder.—Eleven cases were reported all of which took place in "B" Division. In one case the dismembered body of a male Chinese was found in Nanyang Road and was later identified as that of a Chinese kidnapped on Weihaiwei Road on October 17. In the second case a Chinese was shot and killed in an alleyway off Avenue Road near Medhurst Road. Enquiries indicate that he was probably killed by communists. The remaining nine cases are recorded as the result of information received from the Chinese Authorities under the following circumstances:—

On September 28 the Municipal Police at the instance of the Sung Hu Military Authorities arrested a Chinese who was handed over to them by order of the Shanghai Special District Court the following day. On information obtained from this man the corpses of three females and one male (Chinese) were disinterred from the garden of a house on Wuting Road on November 24 and five more bodies (three male and two female) were later discovered in the back garden of No. 91A Sinza Road. The prisoner admits being concerned in the murder, by strangulation, of all these persons, confesses to being a communist and a Moscow-trained member of the assassination party of that organization. The corpses were unrecognizable, but there is sufficient evidence and confession by the prisoner to prove that these persons were the victims of communist vengeance in retaliation for acts of betrayal of the party and that they were lured to the houses, "tried," "sentenced" to death and buried on the spot.

Attempted Murder.—Of the two cases reported one occurred in Sinza District in which a Chinese female was stabbed in the throat by her husband as a result of a dispute. He was arrested and charged. The second occurred in Yangtszepoo District when an armed robber fired two shots at the complainant, who arrested him and handed him over to the Police, a plucky action for which he will be rewarded.

Manslaughter.—Two cases of manslaughter were recorded during the month, both of which occurred in "B" Division. In one case a Chinese apprentice tailor was charged with assaulting and causing the death of another apprentice. He was sentenced to four years' imprisonment. In the other case a Chinese riding a bicycle was knocked down by a motor-car and succumbed to his injuries. The chauffeur was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

Armed Kidnapping.—Two cases were reported. One, an attempt only, occurred in "B" Division in which the Police frustrated the kidnapping of a Chinese doctor by raiding a hotel and eventually effecting the arrest of the whole gang. One man was shot and wounded whilst attempting to escape. Three loaded pistols were seized at the hotel. The second case occurred in Tiendong Road when a Chinese, aged seven years, was kidnapped from his home. Twelve persons were arrested and charged. One pistol and 108 rounds of ammunition were seized in connection with this case.

Abduction.—Of the 13 cases of simple abduction one was found on investigation not to be a criminal case and one was refused investigation. Two cases involved the abduction of two young girls aged 13 and 15 years respectively. Five persons were convicted of this class of offence.

Armed Robberies.—Fifty were reported, the same as last month. There is an increase of nine as compared with the corresponding period last year. "B" Division records an increase of five whilst there is a decrease of one case in "C" Division and a decrease of four in "D" Division. The reports from "A" Division record the same number as last month, 10 cases occurring in shops, 12 arrests were effected in connection with cases occurring in the first three divisions.

Other Robberies.—The reports record the same number as last month and of the total of 12, investigation proved that one was a false report.

Members of a Criminal Gang.—Two gangs were arrested during the month and 21 arrests were made.

House, Office, and Shop-breaking.—As compared with last month there is an increase of 11 cases and a decrease of two on last year's figures. "B" Division records an increase of two, "C" Division an increase of 16 and "D" Division five cases, whilst there is a decrease of 12 cases in "A" Division. Six arrests were effected resulting in three convictions. The increase in this class of crime is receiving special attention in the divisions concerned.

Burglary.—A decrease of six cases is recorded, there being 57 cases as compared with 63 in October. The Divisional Detective Officer "A" Division reports an increase of three cases and the Divisional Detective Officer "C" Division an increase of one, whilst there was a decrease of 10 in "D"

Division. 15 arrests were made in connection with these cases.

Thefts.—There was a decrease of 40 cases as compared with the figures recorded last month but 150 cases more than for the corresponding period of 1930. Four false reports were received and 22 were found after investigation not to be criminal cases, 473 arrests were made in connection with this class of crime. Sixty-two cases of pocket-picking occurred in all divisions and 24 arrests were made. "A" Division records 39 such cases and 24 arrests. Twenty bicycles were stolen, two of which were recovered and four arrests were made. Four motor-cars were also stolen and recovered.

Snatching.—There was an increase of six cases as compared with last month. Thirty-seven occurred in "A" Division, 13 in "B" Division, 19 in "C" Division and 11 in "D" Division. Fifty-three arrests were made including 28 in "A" Division.

Opium.—130 reports were recorded as the result of police action, in which 401 arrests took place. The Headquarters Narcotic Section made 15 raids and arrested 92 persons of which number 25 had been previously convicted for opium and criminal offences. One hundred and twenty-two ounces of opium and red pills and 62 pipes with usual paraphernalia were seized and confiscated.

Gambling.—As a result of police action 76 cases were recorded during the month, an increase of 25 over last month. 228 arrests were made. Most of the cases were of a petty nature consisting of Hua Hui gambling.

Other Crimes.—289 cases occurred, 60 less than last month and 63 more than for the corresponding period last year. Cases under this heading are of a very miscellaneous nature, assaults again predominating. False pretences, fraud, embezzlement, forgery, negligence causing bodily harm and death, extortion, possession of arms, etc. are reported from all Divisions. There were two cases of "negligence causing death," two pedestrians being killed through being knocked down by motor-trucks: the drivers were sentenced to 14 and six months imprisonment respectively.

Notable work in "A" Division included the arrest of a gang of five thieves who were found responsible for a large number of thefts, four being youths between the ages of 15 and 21. All were convicted and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. Notable work in "D" Division included (1) the arrest of nine men and three women, the seizure of a pistol and the release of a kidnapped child held to ransom; (2) the arrest of a gang of four robbers in Yangtszepoo District and the seizure of a pistol following an attempt to rob and murder the complainant.

41 criminal cases occurred on extra-Settlement roads or in buildings abutting thereon, a decrease of 17 as compared with those recorded last month.

The Headquarters Special Detective Squad conducted investigation into 30 special cases including murder, armed robbery, threatening letters and possession of arms, and effected the arrest of four persons. In addition enquiries were continued in four serious cases previously reported.

Stolen Property.—Property to the value of $145,007.89 was alleged to have been stolen during the month, a decrease of $181,834.63 as compared with last month. Property valued at $31,313.96 was recovered.

Finger Print Bureau.—The total number of records dealt with was 2,128. As compared with the figures recorded for last month there is a decrease of 443 but an increase of 601 compared with the corresponding period of last year. Of this number 1,768 refer to criminal cases only, which shows a decrease of 331 as compared with last month. Investigations were made into 31 cases and latent prints were secured in eight instances. Of 14 dead bodies (Chinese) finger-printed and photographed at the Mortuary two were identified by photographs. 40 records of foreigners were received and 21 identified as having previous convictions. In addition 10 records of foreigners were received from the French Police of which number identifications were recorded in seven cases.

Studio.—265 photographs were taken and 920 copies printed during the month.

Boarding House Section.—During the month the staff of this section visited 485 Boarding Houses, 36 Bars, Restaurants, Cafes, Taverns and Theatres. Six new applications were dealt with.

Suicides.—One foreigner and nine Chinese were reported as having committed suicide during the month and 12 Chinese attempted to do so.

Anti-Japanese Agitation.—During the month under review no less than 106 meetings were held by the National Salvation Committee to Resist Japan, local branches of the Kuomintang, student bodies, labour organizations and other societies for the purpose of furthering the anti-Japanese movement. As a result of the enthusiasm engendered by the meetings students of local universities and middle schools suspended studies and spent their time soliciting contributions from the public.

Anti-Japanese sentiments were fostered throughout the month by the diffusion of literature hostile to that country and the pasting of posters and cartoons on the walls of buildings and show windows of Chinese shops. Propaganda of this character circulated during the month included 15 different kinds of cartoons, 48 varieties of posters and 47 classes of handbills which had not been seen previously. The scriptory propaganda was supplemented by lectures and speeches which were delivered by parties of students in Chinese territory and the vicinity of extra-Settlement roads.

Anti-Japanese Boycott.—In its efforts to complete the effectiveness of the anti-Japanese boycott, the Detection Department of the National Salvation Committee to Resist Japan arrested 21 merchants who were alleged to have dealt in Japanese goods. Twelve of these were apprehended in the Settlement, five in Chinese territory and four at places which have not yet been discovered. At the end of the month 14 of this number had been released and seven were still detained. Of the former three had to pay fines ranging from $300 to $500. Alleged "traitorous" merchants who are seized are kept in improvised prisons which are maintained by the anti-Japanese agitators in Chapei and Nantao. The pickets of the Inspection Department of the National Salvation Committee to Resist Japan seized goods alleged to be of Japanese manufacture to a value of $60,731 during the month. The pickets operated for the most part in Chinese territory and made only four raids on traders in the Settlement. Four pickets arrested on November 22 while removing goods from one of several shops were three days later fined $20 each by the Special District Court, but the sentence was suspended for two years. Efforts to make the action taken by the police in this case a pretext for starting a general strike failed.

As a result of the boycott several Japanese concerns have been obliged to close down or to reduce working hours and a number of Chinese concerns through being unable to obtain raw material have had to do the same. The number of persons thrown out of employment as a consequence of these conditions, which was 5,841 at the end of October, had increased to 9,580 at the end of November.

The students during the month suspended and resumed studies at their pleasure and held meetings and demonstrations. The boycott pickets deprived alleged "traitorous" merchants of their liberty and seized goods alleged to be of Japanese origin as if they were police enforcing the authorized laws of the country. Both students and pickets showed complete contempt for authority and law, and there is every reason to fear that this sentiment is becoming more deep-rooted and serious as the weeks go by.

Communist Demonstrations.—The Chinese Communist Party created three demonstrations in the Settlement on November 7, the 14th anniversary of the Soviet October Revolution. One of the demonstrations, in which about 10 people took part, was staged near the junction of Thorburn and Yangchow Roads, a second, in which about 200 people participated, on Robison Road near Kawamura Memorial Tower and the third on Chekiang Road. In the first two instances the demonstrators were dispersed before they had time to do any harm, but in the third case they succeeded in smashing 14 panes of glass in the windows of tram cars and assaulting two Chinese policemen.

Communist Propaganda.—Handbills distributed during the demonstrations on November seven denounced the Kuomintang and Nanking Government, advocated the declaration of a general strike, protested against the forcible occupation of Manchuria by Japan and urged the people to give armed support to Soviet Russia and the Soviet Government in China.

In all 76 different new varieties of communist leaflets were obtained by the police during the month.

Police Measures Against Communism.—One Chinese was prosecuted during the month for communist activities and one communist base was raided. The raid resulted in the seizure of approximately 10,000 pro-communistic books in the Chinese language.

Strikes.—During the month there were six strikes in the Settlement affecting 682 employees in six different concerns and resulting in a loss of 4,157 working days. The strikers comprised 213 printers, 180 tobacco factory workers, 200 P.W.D. coolies, 39 silk weavers and 50 cigarette salesmen and inspectors.

The statistics of strikes for the three areas are as follows:—

Area	No. of strikes.	No. of hands.	Working days lost
Settlement	6	682	4,157
French Concession	1	125	63
Chinese territory	3	755	6,292
Total	10	1,562	10,512
Total for the corresponding month of 1930	12	4,469	23,380

Owing to trade depression the majority of the local silk filatures closed down at the end of the month with the result that only 16 out of 106 filatures located in the Settlement and Chinese-controlled territory are now working. Some 34,800 hands are affected.

During the month some 7,495 refugees arrived in Shanghai from flood affected areas, thus bringing the total number of refugees who have arrived here up to 71,233 of whom 25,726 are destitute. About 3,480 refugees have been repatriated to Wuhan cities.

Rice.—The average price of rice for the month of November 1931 was as follows:—

Chinese Rice:

Best quality	$15.12	per picul
Good quality	14.24	„ „
Ordinary quality	13.36	„ „

Saigon Rice:

Best quality	13.18	„ „
Good quality	12.24	„ „

Film Censorship.—49 new feature films and 42 "shorts" and newsreels were censored in theatres in the Settlement and French Concession during the month. All of these were found satisfactory, with the exception of four which were approved after certain portions to which the police objected had been cut out.

Traffic.—Court proceedings were instituted in 682 (64 Foreigners and 618 Chinese) of 4,279 reports of traffic offences received during the month against owners and/or drivers of vehicles. The remainder were dealt with by letter of warning or entry of caution on their reports.

Safety First.—During the month the professional Story-Teller visited various districts and gave 75 addresses in Teashops and Mills, etc. on "Safety First" themes. His audience roughly totalled 3,085 persons.

Motor Horn Nuisance.—There were 89 prosecutions for this offence during the month and in addition, five chauffeurs had their driving licences suspended for a repetition of the offence.

Eyesight Test.—In addition to the usual eyesight test of all applicants for driving licences, 35 chauffeurs already in possession of licences were re-tested during the month and found to be fit.

New Ranking Regulations.—New ranking regulations restricting ranking of vehicles on one side only of various roads in the Central District became effective from November. A great improvement is now noted on the roads affected.

Motor-Cycle Patrols. — These patrols continue to patrol the various important thoroughfares during the rush-hour periods, particular attention being given to offences committed by ricsha pullers in travelling abreast of each other in the centre of the road thereby causing an unnecessary obstruction to the fast moving traffic.

Identification Office.—During the month, 1,550 prisoners' records passed through this office for identification prior to the prisoners going to Court for trial, out of which number 486 were identified as having a previous conviction or convictions. In addition to the above 238 records were received from the French Police out of which number 72 were identified in the records of this office making the total for the month:—

Duty at Places of Amusement amounted to 19,629 hours.

The following fires are more particularly worthy of note:—

November 14, X886 North Shanse Road.—When Hongkew Division arrived the fire had gained a strong hold on a block of five dwellings, the ground floors of which had been converted into livery stables, three staircases from the upper floors having been removed, apparently without authorisation. Originating in the rear of the ground floor of No. X886, the flames spread quickly to quantities of straw stacked on suspended lofts, and in a short time the entire length of the upper floors was alight. The Division experienced no difficulty in gaining control of the outbreak, and they had been at work for some time when it was reported that a number of the occupants of the premises had been trapped in the blaze. Four women and a female child, severely burned and unconscious, were found in the rear of the first floor of house No. X883. They were removed in a Brigade Ambulance and on arrival at the hospital three of the women were certified as dead; the other woman and the child succumbed to their injuries later.

November 15, S.S. "Silver Walnut" (6,770 tons). — Hongkew Division found smoke and flames issuing from No. 4 hold of S. S. "Silver Walnut," alongside the China Merchants' Lower Wharf.

The fire had evidently been burning for some time for it had assumed such dimensions that the Customs and Departmental Fire Floats were called as a precaution, in addition to a large pumping engine from Central Station. The portion of No. 4 hold actually involved was the lower section and from this some of the cargo of pressed-packed cotton had already been removed—a fact which greatly assisted the Brigade—and, by working in relays with the aid of gas helmets and masks, it was possible to bring the fire under control after about three hours' strenuous work. In the early stages of the fire a portion of the upper deck became red-hot, with the result that it was necessary to utilise the oxy-acetylene cutting set to cut a hole of about 3 inches diameter, through which a spray nozzle was lowered on the fire below.

The difficulties experienced in finally extinguishing the outbreak were enhanced by the fact that the fire spread to cork insulation with which the interior metal-work of the hold had been completely covered to a depth of about 12 inches in fitting the ship for refrigeration purposes.

Two officers and one fireman sustained slight injuries and a number of others had to be treated for the effects of smoke and fumes.

Emergency Ambulance Service.—74 calls were received during the month.
